

Common Q & A

Q: I don't have my foal registration papers back, can I still enroll my foal?

A: Yes, send in your enrollment with the name listed as pending. Once you get your registration papers in you can mail, fax, or email us a copy and we will mail you a certificate.

Q: I want to do my registration online but don't feel comfortable using my credit card, is this possible?

A: Yes, You can fill out the online enrollment and call us with a credit card.

Q: My foal is listed as pending, what do I need to do?

A: Simply send us a copy of their registration papers and we will update and mail your certificate.

Q: My horse is dual registered, do you need copies of both of their papers?

A: Yes, we will list both registration numbers on the certificate. If only one registration paper is sent we will send out a certificate with only the one number.

Q: I want to nominate my stallion, is there a deadline?

A: Not for new stallions, however, if you nominate him before the September 15th deadline the foals can be enrolled at the lower price. The deadline for stallions is for renewing a stallion which is February 1st.

Q: My foals sire isn't listed as a current stallion, can I still enroll him?

A: Yes, but only if the stallion becomes nominated. You or the owner can nominate him.
