Foal Date 01/20/2008 SORREL

Lil Joe Cash is a son of two-time NRHA Futurity Champion sire Nu Chex To Cash out of AQHA Superhorse RS Lilly Starlight by Grays Starlight.

In spite of his name, there was nothing small about this stallion. He dominated arenas – larger than life – from his debut at the 2011 National Reining Horse Association Futurity where he won the Open Championship (after having earned the California Reining Challenge Open Futurity title).

The next year, he earned the AQHA Junior Reining World Championship and now boasts lifetime earnings over $268,000. In addition to those wins he had top five finishes at the the 2011 Scottsdale Classic Open Futurity; 2011 Cowtown Classic Open Futurity; Top ten finish at the 2012 National Reining Breeders Classic and another top ten finish at the 2012 NRHA Open Derby. He also won the $75,000 Shootout at the NRHA Futurity & Adequan Affiliate Championship Show, ridden by Andrea Fappani
