FAPPANI WINS 2015 NRBC OPEN CHAMPIONSHIP ON SG FROZEN ENTERPRIZE

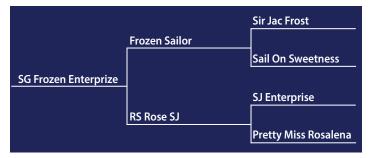

The 18th edition of the National Reining Breeders Classic Open finals ended in an exciting run-off for the title. Sam Schaffhauser and Gunners Tinseltown, by Colonels Smoking Gun out of former NRBC Champion Miss Tinseltown, owned by Dave & Bonnie Silva, led the finals until the second-to-last set with a 227.

Then Casey Deary and ARC Gunna Sparkya lit up the Great Southwest Equestrian Center Coliseum, taking the lead by a half-point. He retained sole possession of the lead for only one horse, and then two-time NRBC Champion Andrea Fappani and SG Frozen Enterprize, owned by Silver Spurs Equine, tied his score.

Rules dictate that if one rider desires to run-off for the title, they must. Fappani, who won his first NRBC title and his first NRHA Futurity Championship with run-offs, knew what he'd pick. "Unless I have a horse that I feel is running out of air or that I think it isn't safe for either horse to run, I will run it off. I just don't do co-championships – It's not in my blood. I always run-off, and it paid off tonight," he said.

Only a half-point separated the run-off scores, and the Scottsdale, Arizona trainer left Katy with his third NRBC Open Championship.

The title came with the big check made out for $75,000, and included a year's use of a trailer from Twin Cities Featherlite, a custom saddle from Bob's Custom Saddles, a pair of Rios of Mercedes boots, a Whisper Bit, a champion cap from Just Stitch It, a $100 gift certificate from Santa Cruz Biotechnologies, a WonPad, a saddle pad from Yucca Flatts, a $50 gift certificate to Thomas Moore Feed, a Gist Silversmiths buckle and numerous awards and signature crystal from the NRBC.

SG Frozen Enterprize has a different story than many horses competing at the NRBC. The stallion, by Frozen Sailor out of RS Rose SJ, is Italian born and bred. As a 3-year-old he won the Italian Futurity, and caught Fappani's attention. "He is a third or fourth generation Italian horse, and I looked at him as a stallion to bring to the states and be an outcross. I convinced his owner at the time, Marco Franchini, to send him over here. It took quite a bit of money because the horse wasn't enrolled in the NRHA or the NRBC, so he invested a lot in the horse and sent him over here," Fappani recalled. After a few months the horse sold to Silver Spurs as a stallion prospect.

Fappani typically only shows horses he's had since their 2-year-old year, but he made an exception for SG Frozen Enterprize. "He's been a special horse from the beginning.

It took some serious work to get together. This horse was trained different than what I'm used to and it took about a year to really get together."

When the pair won the American Quarter Horse Association World Championship in the Junior Reining, Fappani knew that they had clicked. "I had gotten so frustrated because he was always scoring between a 222 and a 225, and I knew he was a horse that could mark more than that. When we won that I knew there was no confusion between us anymore, and he's been solid ever since," he said. "I had a feeling he was going to be good. Now that I know him and he knows me we're going to be a good team."

While Deary admitted he wouldn't have voted to run-off for the title, he commended Fappani for his decision. "My horse is four and I knew Andrea's horse is older and so broke and Andrea is a great showman. He could probably have come in here again and his horse would do that same strong run, so he made the right call – he's the master of it."

owned by Rabboni Reining Horses, and won $51,000 for the reserve title. "Mr. Arcese raised him, and I got him the first part of his 3-year-old year. He's been just a dream to ride. He wants no trouble and is the quietest stallion to be around – you'd think he was a gelding because he has such an incredible brain," he said.

While the win would have come with even more prizes and money, Deary noted he wasn't disappointed. "There is no way I could be upset with how it turned out. To have two four-year-olds in the finals like I did, and to have them both step up and play with these guys means that disappointment is not even in the picture." He added, "I couldn't be prouder of either of them. They're both incredible horses and both have two years of eligibility left!"

Deary's other entry, Magnum Starlights (Magnum Chic Dream x Starlights Sugarwhiz) owned by Antler Ridge Ranch, won the preliminary round. He returned in the finals and finished in a 3-way tie for fifth place, earning $20,000 and pushing Magnum Chic Dream exceptionally to the $3 million sire mark.

Open Level 3 and 2

Taking the Championship of Open Levels 2 and 3, and finishing eighth in the Level 4 was Joao Felipe Lacerda and Gunner Dun It Again, by Colonels Smoking Gun out of Dun Its Deja Vu. All total, the win netted a check for $50,090, as well as a saddle sponsored by Martin Saddlery, a saddle sponsored by Pard's Western Shop, two Whisper Bits from M3 Products, $200 in gift certificates to Santa Cruz Biotechnology, $100 in gift certificates to Thomas Moore Feed, two Gist Silversmiths buckles, two championship caps from Just Stitch It, and the signature NRBC crystal trophies. Also, thanks to a new partnership with the American Paint Horse Association, they won the high-scoring paint Gist Silversmiths buckles for Open Levels 2-4.

Gunner Dun It Again was recently flown to Texas from Brazil. Owner Paulo Tripolani promised Lacerda that if he and Gunner Dun It Again won the Brazilian Futurity, the two could travel to the NRHA futurity in December. "He actually got hurt and wasn't able to show at the futurity, but then he won the Super Stakes in Brazil last November," noted Andre Tripoloni, Paolo's son. "That was his first show, and this was the second. We are very proud."

Lacerda noted that winning at the NRBC was exciting. "To come from Brazil and bring the horse here is a dream come true. We had a mistake in the first stop, but then we had a lot of fun," he said.

Tripoloni added that, as of now, the plan is for the stallion and Lacerda to stay in the States for one to two more years. "We hope he can compete at more derbies and more NRBCs, and then we will see," he said.

Trevor Dare and Sugar Pop Step Ahead took Reserve honors in both levels with a 221.5, winning more than $19,830 for owner Thiago Boechat. That score also tied for twelfth place in the Level 4, garnering an additional $12,587. Sugar Pop Step Ahead is by Wimpys Little Step out of Sugar Pop Gun.

Open Level 1

It was her first time to compete at the NRBC, and the first time to show Wimpys Wrangler AC, so winning the Level 1 Open Championship was a major victory for Marie Kleiner. Kleiner, who works for Xtra Quarter Horses of Purcell, Oklahoma, rode Wimpys Wrangler AC, by Wimpys Little Step out of Wranglers Gay Bar, to a 218, winning $3,249 for owner Courtney Battison.

Open Level 1 Champion Marie Kleiner & Wimpys Wrangler AC

"It felt really awesome to win here," Kleiner said. "I love the NRBC!"

The finals pattern was a perfect set up for the stallion. "I was really excited to get to run in. He's a big stopper so I was happy to get to do that. He stopped really big and backed up fine. I asked him to turn and he was a little fidgety in the middle, which scared me just a little. He circled really well and when we got to our stops he finished strong and was really fun," she recalled.

Wimpys Wrangler AC is the first reining horse for owner Courtney Battison, who's well known in the hunter under saddle industry. "She wants to get into reining, and this is her first reining horse – she actually just bought him three weeks ago. She was able to be here and was very excited, too," Kleiner said. "This is an incredible horse and he is really fun."

The Level 1 Champion received a custom saddle from Kyle Tack, a Gist Silversmiths buckle, a WonPad, a Whisper Bit from M3 Products, a champion ball cap from Just Stitch It, a $50 gift Certificate to Thomas Moore Feed, and signature NRBC crystal.

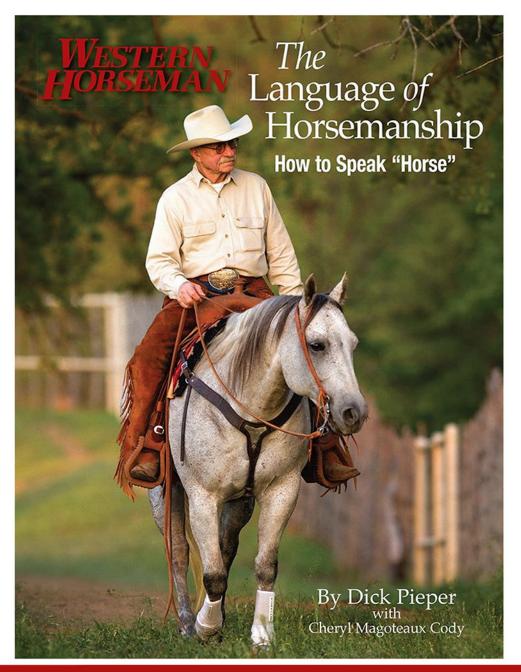

Riding Chiquitas Valentine for Dell and Terri Hendricks, Colin Fitzpatrick won the Level 1 Reserve Championship with a 217, earning $1,977. Chiquitas Valentine is by Starlights Wrangler out of Spanish Dun It.

Winning the high-scoring APHA buckle for the Open Level 1 was Gun Whiz It (Colonels Smokin Gun x Roll Whiz It) and rider Becky Sorrell. Gun Whiz It is owned by Stephanie Nelson.

Open Prime Time

Topping the Open Prime Time was Duane Latimer, who piloted Da Vintage to a handicapped score of 222.5. The win netted a check for $1,950, a Gist Silversmiths buckle, a champion ball cap from Just Stitch It, a WonPad, a $50 gift certificate from Thomas Moore Feed, and the World-WideSlide.com custom bicycle. The pair also placed third

Da Vintage, by A Sparkling Vintage out of Cowboys Belle Bar, was shown as a 3-year-old by a couple different people, before taking a break from showing during 2014. "This is really his first time to show since his 3-year-old year. It's the first time I showed him for real," Latimer, a former NRBC Champion who surpassed $2 million in lifetime earnings at the 2014 event, explained. "He was good here. He wasn't perfect in the preliminary round, but he was really good in the finals and I am very happy with him."

Latimer has ridden a couple horses for the Conner family. "They're customers of Tom McCutcheon, and I work for Tom. I got this horse and rode him a little bit last fall and got along with him, so we all decided that I'd ride him here – especially since I am eligible for the Level 3 and Prime Time."

There was a three-way tie for third place in the Prime Time between another Duane Latimer entry, Debbie Debbie Brown rode Belle Starr Dun It (Hollywood Dun It x Chic Olena Starbuck) for Turnabout Farm Inc., and Hinton rode Ruf Revolution (Einsteins Revolution x Lil Chic Peppy), a horse he owns with his wife Kathy.

SARAH LOCKER CROWNED 2015 NRBC NON PRO CHAMPION

The first Champions of the 2015 National Reining Breeders Classic were crowned Friday, April 17, when the Non Pros battled it out for top honors in the Great Southwest Equestrian Center's Coliseum Arena.

This year was the largest Non Pro in NRBC history, and the combined preliminary and finals payout of $269,473 proved that.

Non Pro Level 4

Taking top honors and the $30,000 check was Sarah Locker who rode Heavy Duty Chex to earn a score of 220. "I don't think there are any words to explain how excited I am. First of all that's the first time that I've marked a 220, so that's a really big deal, but then to win something like this is unbelievable."

Locker made her NRBC debut in 2014, but her entry was a little sore before she showed. Although the possibility of her horse getting sore was at the back of her mind, she hoped she'd have better luck. "I'd say better luck is definitely what we had today," she shared following the awards ceremony, where she received a bevy of prizes including a two-horse trailer from Twin Cities Featherlite, a saddle from Martin Saddlery, a Gist Silversmiths buckle, Rios of Mercedes boots, a WonPad from WonPad, a Whisper

Bit from M3 Products, a championship ball cap from Just Stitch It, a $100 gift certificate from San Juan Ranch & Santa Cruz Biotechnology, a saddle blanket from Yucca Flats, a $50 gift certificate from Thomas Moore Feed, as well as the traditional crystal trophies and other awards from the NRBC.

Locker's family raised Heavy Duty Chex, by their stallion Nu Chex To Cash and out of the good mare Rondas Tio. "Nu Chex To Cash is sterile now; there won't be many more babies to compete so it's really special that I have him. We still have his mother and she's in her 20s now. She has her own stall in the barn and is very special too," Locker said. "It's special when you win a big event but it means so much more when you've raised them. This horse and I have been together from the beginning."

Locker showed the 4-year-old at the National Reining Horse Association Futurity last December, placing seventh in the Non Pro Level 4. "This was our first big show of the year so it was a heck of a way to kick it off. He just keeps getting better and better for me so I'm excited to see how the rest of the year unfolds."

Locker and Heavy Duty Chex finished third in the preliminary round, and she noted that the horse's talent put even more pressure on her. "I was so nervous before I went into the pen. I've been like that ever since I was a little kid – I'd get so nervous I'd almost cry. I knew that I was on a great horse and I think that made it harder, because as a rider you want to show everything that the horse has and his ability, so you want to do the best job by them. I was nervous about doing that but I think I did ok!" she said with a smile.

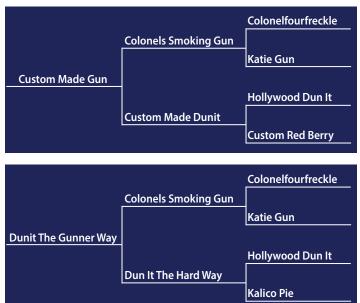

Non Pro Co-Reserve Champions Cade McCutcheon & Custom Made Gun

Locker thanked her family members, who unfortunately weren't able to attend the show. "My brother was here for the preliminaries but had to leave for another horse show because he's a trainer, too. My sister is on her way down now. My parents had to collect studs today and they were taking breaks in between breeding and checking mares so they could watch me. I definitely thank my family because they're a huge support system for me. I also thank the company I work for, Santa Cruz Animal Health, for letting me be here and set up a booth for them and have a good week here at the show."

She noted that she also receives a lot of support from her horse show family. "Casey Deary and his whole crew – it's an amazing family and group to be part of. Thank you to all my friends and everyone for cheering for me. The horse show family is so huge so you never run out of people to thank and be appreciative of having in your life."

Non Pro Co-Reserve Champions Kelle Smith & Dunit The Gunner Way

Non Pro Co-Reserve Champions/Non Pro Level 3 Champions Josh Hattig & Gunners Snappy Chic

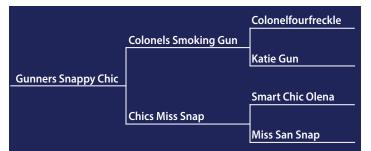

So how does Locker feel about the NRBC? "It's such a cool place. I didn't get to experience a lot of it last year, but it is a great facility and the staff is great. Being here as a sponsor, vendor, and exhibitor I've gotten to experience all the different parts of this show and it's just incredible. You get treated so great and everyone involved with putting on the show does such a great job." She added, "Even with all the crazy weather we've had there have been plenty of places to ride and warm up so you're prepared to show – regardless of what the weather is doing. It's a very well-run event, for sure."

There was a three-way tie for the Non Pro Level 4 Reserve Championship between Cade McCutcheon, Kelle Smith, and Josh Hattig. Each rode a horse by Colonels Smoking Gun, marked a 219.5, and took home checks for $14,650. McCutcheon was riding Custom Made Gun, out of Custom Made Dunit, owned by McQuay Stables, while Smith rode her horse, Dunit The Gunner Way, out of Dun It The Hard Way.

Non Pro Level 3

Former NRBC Non Pro Champion Josh Hattig rounded out the three-way tie on Gunners Snappy Chic. Eligible for the Level 3, Hattig took sole possession of that title, winning an additional $9,745. "I can't lie, I wish I would have won the Level 4, but this is a great horse and I am blessed to be able to do this. I thank God – he's number one because this is just a luxury that we get to do. I thank my dad, mom, wife, her parents, and Yonathon Baruch who has helped get the mare ready the last six weeks," he said.

During the award ceremony, Hattig received a custom saddle from Kyle Tack, a Gist Silversmiths buckle, a champion ball cap from Just Stitch It, a Whisper Bit from M3 Products, a WonPad from WonPad, a $100 gift certificate from San Juan Ranch & Santa Cruz Biotechnology, and a $50 Thomas Moore Feed gift certificate.

Hattig recounted his finals run, noting that while the mare stopped big on the first maneuver, she caught her front right in the stop. "She caught it just a tiny bit, which is why she fell forward. I think that made her not want to step really hard turning, so she didn't turn quite as hard as she can," he said. "I haven't shown a really good horse in the last three years so I was a little bit rusty in some of my guiding but she circled really good and changed great. She got set in her large fast a little to the right. I wanted to go a little more but that's what she had to give today because I think it's about 94% humidity."

Hattig's family raised Gunners Snappy Chic, and her dam, Chics Miss Snap, won the NRBC Non Pro Mare Award and placed fourth in the Non Pro in 2008. "That mare has had three or four babies that have been good. This one was really great in the go-rounds at the Futurity, but hurt her right rear before the finals. I knew she'd be ready to roll. We sent her to Yonathon six weeks ago to get tuned up and acclimated. She has a huge, huge heart and is a huge stopper. She's a really big turner and she's become really good at circling. It seems like every day of every week she's a little bit better and a little bit better, so I think she'll just continue to improve," he said.

Non Pro Level 2 & 1

The NRBC was Chandler Winard's second Derby, and it was the first time for the 16-year-old to compete at the show, ever. However, she made the finals for Non Pro Levels 1-4, finished as the Champion of Levels 1 and 2, Reserve Champion in Level 3, and tied for fifth in the Level 4. All total, she's taking $22,123 back to Scottsdale, Arizona.

She and her horse, Tags Golden Star, marked a 219 in the finals, having marked a 217 in the preliminary round. "I felt a lot of pressure but I just told myself it was just another show and I didn't get too nervous. He was really good in the preliminary round and I just wanted to do the same thing in the finals – but he did even more for me," she said.

With eyes now focused on the NRHA Derby, the victory at the NRBC has given the high school sophomore another shot of confidence. "I'm really excited about it now," she said.

Winnard won a custom saddle from Continental Saddlery, a custom saddle from Bob's Custom Saddles, $100 in gift certificates from Thomas Moore Feed, champion ball caps from Just Stitch It, two Whisper Bits from M3 products, two WonPads from WonPad, and gifts and prizes from the NRBC including the signature crystal trophies.

She thanked her parents Debra and Neal for buying Tags Golden Star. "They always support me. I also thank my trainer Dan Huss and his wife Wendy for always making sure we're ready to go and for supporting me. I also thank all the people who have supported me throughout my whole horse career."

Harper Conner and Julie Ridgeway tied for the Reserve Championship of the Non Pro Level 2. Both entries also placed in Levels 3 and 4, earning a total of $13,071. Conner rode Vintage Glamour, by A Sparkling Vintage out of Starjac Miss, while Ridgeway rode Nu Pops, by Nu Chex To Cash out of Sugar Pop Gun 1998.

Non Pro Prime Time

Ridgeway and Nu Pops also won the Reserve title in the Non Pro Level 1 and the Championship of the Non Pro Prime Time, collecting an additional $2,659. "I'm so very excited. This horse is fabulous. I was very lucky and fortunate because I have this great horse who did everything I asked of him - I was just along for the ride," she said. "Last year was my first year to show here in the Derby. It's my favorite show of the year. I think the best horses and riders are here at the NRBC and I feel grateful to be a participant and to have done well."

Ridgeway noted, "I am very thankful to Matt Armenta and Ricky Nicolazzi for helping get my horse prepared for this event. I also thank Todd Sommers because he started this horse and I am thankful to him as well."

Along with some big money, Ridgeway won a Gist Silversmiths buckle, a champion ball cap from Just Stitch It, a WonPad from WonPad, a $50 gift certificate from Thomas Moore Feed, and signature crystal and prizes from the NRBC.

Michael Garnett and Blo Gun finished as the Prime Time Reserve Champions with a score of 218.5, collecting $1,001. Blo Gun is by Colonels Smoking Gun out of The Hot Jewel.

GUNNER BECOMES $7 MILLION NRHA SIRE

The stallion simply known as Gunner (AQHA Colonels Smoking Gun, APHA Colonels Smokingun) reached another milestone when he became the third NRHA sire to achieve NRHA Seven Million Dollar Sire distinction. (Only Topsail Whiz and Wimpys Little Step have also achieved that siring level.)

Gunner, a1993 stallion by Colonelfourfreckle and out of Katie Gun by John Gun, was bred by Eric Storey of Henagar, Alabama. Always a fan favorite in the show pen, Gunner was the 1996 NRHA Futurity Reserve Champion with NRHA Hall of Famer Clint Haverty. The pair went on to earn the 1998 National Reiners Breeders Classic Reserve Champion title. With Bryant Pace as the rider, Gunner earned the 2001 USET Festival of Champions Reining championship in Gladstone, New Jersey and finished his show career with earnings in excess of $173,700. Inducted into the NRHA Hall of Fame in 2003, Gunner was also the subject of a popular Breyer® Model Horse and, along with Bryant, is depicted on the NRHA Dale Wilkinson Lifetime Achievement Award.

Among Gunner's highest money-earners are Tinker With Guns, earner of over $340K owned by Silver Spurs Equine; Gunners Tinseltown, earner of over $302K, owned by David Silva, Sr.; Americasnextgunmodel earner of Over $289K owned by Arcese Quarter Horses; and Gunners Special Nite earner of over $219K, owned by Turnabout Farm Inc.

Gunner has sired the earners of more than $7,010,000, and his foals continue to excel since he was euthanized in 2013. At the 2015 National Reining Breeders Classic, an amazing nine of the Level 4 Open finalists were by Gunner. Plus he still has two more foal crops that will come of age in 2015 and 2016.

Owners Tim and Colleen McQuay are quick to admit how much they miss the iconic stallion – both on a personal level and from a business standpoint. Tim said, candidly, "I honestly want to cry when something happens like at the NRBC finals – because we don't have him anymore." He added, "There is a great group of breeding stallions out there that are producing better and better all the time and we're amazed that Gunner keeps having such an impact".

One standout for the 2015 NRBC was first-time NRBC attendee, Brazillian Joao Felipe Lacerda on Paulol Tripoloni's Gunner Dun It Again (Gunner X Dun Its Déjà Vu). The horse and rider were flown in from Brazil for the event and Joao won the Level 3 and Level 3 Open Divisions and finished 8th in the Level 4 to collect over $50,000. The horse came from Brazil but the rest of the story is that he was purchased as a weanling from McQuay Stables, so coming to Texas was like returning home!

NATIONAL REINING HORSE ASSOC. PROFESSIONALS OF THE YEAR ANNOUNCED

Sebastian Petroll of Whitesboro, Texas, has been said to "have a gift for coaching." Petroll, an NRHA and AQHA Judge as well, has been active in sharing his knowledge through coaching, clinics, and lessons with clients. He participates in clinics in Germany along with coaching up and coming trainers in the industry.

Petroll is involved in NRHA activities like the Buy A Pro program, which is an online auction where buyers have a chance to ride with NRHA Professionals one-on-one. NRHA Professionals donate two training sessions per package to be auctioned off with all of the proceeds benefitting the NRHyA to help provide scholarships and opportunities for young reiners.

Since becoming an NRHA Professional in 2003, Petroll has earned more than $174,000 in NRHA competition. Not only has he made the finals at every major NRHA competition but he has also had Non Pro clients consistently make it to the finals and win numerous awards under his guidance.

NRHA Horsewoman of the Year

Tanya Jenkins, a resident of Temecula, Calif., has been an NRHA member since 1996 and throughout her time being involved with the association has earned more than $443,000 in lifetime earnings.

But more important than her winnings total is her dedication to her clients and their success. Focusing on how she sets up her Non Pro and youth clients with their mounts is a key part of her program. Jenkins makes sure they use the best equipment and understand how to effectively and efficiently communicate with their horse.

Jenkins has been an NRHA Professional since 2004 and along with her own impressive list of accomplishments in the show arena; she sets up her clients to be in the winner's circle just as much in both local and major competitions.

NRHA Non Pro Coach of the Year

Shane Brown of Shane Brown Performance Horses, where family is one of the main ingredients to success, is based in Elbert, Colo. His desire to teach outshines his desire to win, which is evident in his character both in and out of the arena.

Brown, an NRHA member since 1989, has quite the competition resume winning close to $306,000 in lifetime earnings. He has also been heavily active in various aspects of NRHA both on a local and national level by volunteering his time on and/ or leading committees, all with the goal of improving the association as a whole in every aspect.

Because of his drive, Brown has been in finals at major events numerous times and was an USEF International Team alternate.

Well known in the industry as a man of family and faith, NRHA Professional Casey Deary is the Youth Coach of the Year. He's described as "a great model for our youth riders."

Based in Weatherford, Texas, Deary has excelled in both the show pen and in teaching on a national and international level. He travels across the world to share his knowledge of Reining.

In 2014, along with his own personal major accomplishments, he also coached the Youth 14-18 World Champion Savannah Grace Ostner and Mr Crometastic of Memphis, Tennessee.

An NRHA member since 1996, Deary has earned more than $826,000 throughout his show career so far. He rode Americasnextgunmodel to a 2012 NRHA Futurity Champion title.

Up and Coming Professional of the Year

Fairly new to the reining community and making quite the splash is Jordan "Kole" Price, and for that he has been named the Up and Coming Professional of the Year, a well-earned title. Price, an Illinois native and Texas resident has been making his presence known with his most recent major accomplishment at the 2014 NRHA Futurity.

The 25-year-old trainer rode FM Shine N Tag Chex then owned by Tricia Jaeger, an old friend of Price's, to a L1 Open Championship title along with a Reserve Champion title in the L2 and L3 Open divisions bringing home his biggest NRHA paycheck yet at more than $41,000 in earnings.

APHA WORLD SHOW QUALIFICATIONS INCLUDE THE CACTUS REINING CLASSIC, REINING BY THE BAY AND HIGH ROLLER REINING CLASSIC SHOWS

Paints are hard to miss during national equine events, not only because of their flashy good looks and their frequently bold, white faces but also by virtue of their athletic, hard-tobeat performances. Recently, the American Paint Horse Association added three new events to its list of pre-approved qualifiers for the APHA World Championship Show held annually in November in Ft Worth, Texas. All three are already top-ranked NRHA events, and all three are coordinated and managed by Brumley Management Group, LLC.

The first is the Cactus Reining Classic, a show that celebrated its tenth anniversary earlier this year at the WestWorld facility in Scottsdale, Arizona. The show is enormously popular with reining enthusiasts and attracts competitors, not only from the Southwest and West Coast, but globally and will take place March 2-6, 2016. The second show recognized as a World Show qualifier by the APHA, is the Reining by the Bay, slated for July 20-26 at Menlo Park, near Woodside, California. Celebrating its 16th year in this fabulous location near Stanford University and Palo Alto, Reining by the Bay features cash awards in excess of $180,000 and includes Bob's Trophy saddles, Gist Silversmith buckles, Pendleton blankets and many other fabulous prizes.

The biggest and most elegant of the three shows is the High Roller Reining Classic in Las Vegas, Nevada, set this year for September 11-20. Hosted by the magnificent South Point Hotel and Casino, the High Roller Reining Classic is ranked fourth of the NRHA's Leading Events and will offer prizes and cash payouts of more than a half million dollars in 2015. The show's ten days of world class reining competition are expected to attract horses from all over the U.S., Canada, South America and Europe. The event has been recently been awarded the coveted host of the 2015 Adequan/ USEF Open Reining National Championship, with $25,000 in added prize money, sure to draw the best-of-the-best Reiners in the world. Also new is the addition of the World Para Reining divisions. The APHA will be providing High Point Gist Trophy buckles once again for the High Roller Reining Classic. Horsemen must submit their APHA registration papers when making their show entries in order to qualify.

APHA OPEN-AMATEUR WORLD SHOW DATES TO CHANGE IN 2017

Beginning in 2017, the APHA Open & Amateur World Championship Show will take place in September at the Will Rogers Memorial Center in Fort Worth, Texas.

Fort Worth or Oklahoma? For trainers, exhibitors and judges who love both Paints and Quarter Horses, the tough choice between the AQHA and APHA World Championship Shows will be eliminated in a few short years.

Based on feedback from APHA exhibitors and market analysis, the dates of the APHA World Championship Show will shift from November to September beginning in 2017.

Adjusting the World Show schedule removes date conflicts between the APHA and AQHA world shows. As many Paint exhibitors also own Quarter Horses—and vice versa—the revised schedule will allow members of the two associations the freedom to attend both events.

This change also allows for a greater pool of top-quality judges—a significant percentage of APHA judges are also AQHA judges or trainers. By removing the conflict, more judges will be available for hire at the World Show level.

World Shows for 2015 and 2016 will remain in early November, with the following dates tentatively planned for the future:

- 2017: September 20-30
- 2018: September 19–29
- 2019: September 18–28

Delaying the change until 2017 allows for a smoother transition for the association at the national and regional level; shows with conflicting dates will have more than two years to make scheduling adjustments, and APHA will provide rebates on all 2015 and 2016 show fees for existing shows that will be affected by the World Show date change to help minimize financial impact to regional clubs. Shows may also choose to retain their existing September show dates.

The 2015 APHA World Show takes place November 4–14, and nearly $80,000 has been added to the event this year on top of more than $500,000 in existing prizes and payouts. Learn more at oawcs.apha.com, and get qualified today!

The APHA Youth World Championship Show will continue with its current summer schedule. Qualifying is not required for the Youth World Show, and more than $150,000 in scholarships is up for grabs for Youth exhibitors this year. Learn more about the Youth World Show at ywcs.apha.com, and start planning for your best year yet in 2015!

For more information about the APHA World Show, visit oawcs.apha.com—the show schedule and forms are usually posted in late July—or call (817) 222-8455. Information courtesy Paint Horse Journal and apha.com.

DA VINTAGE WINS WORLDWIDE SLIDE CUSTOM BICYCLE

For the second year in a row, WorldWide Slide Awarded a Custom Bicycle to one division winner of the National Reining Breeders Classic and this year the award went to Da Vintage, owned by Harper Conner of Dallas, Texas and ridden by Duane Latimer to the championship of the Prime Time Open division.

They kept demanding an answer, so he stood up again and said, "All right, but let the one who has never sinned throw the first stone!" John 8:7

When the crowd came to stone the adulteress woman, caught in the act, Jesus told them that the one without sin could throw the first stone. I imagine this crowd included her husband, her friends, neighbors and pastor. They showed up with their rocks to stone this woman and yet no rocks were thrown. If you are mad at anybody today, are you mad because they sinned against you; or are you mad because they sinned against God? If somebody wronged you, say your piece, forgive, and get over it. If they sinned against God, let Him deal with it. Easier said than done for sure, but the bar was set extremely high/ perfect by our savior, our example. Whoever you are mad at today, unless of course you are perfect, without any sin; drop your rocks! You have freely received His grace, now freely give it!

Ruben van Dorp grew up in The Netherlands and began training horses over 22 years ago. His equine experience in many different breeds and disciplines led to nine European championships. After relocating to the United States in 2002, he started Vandorp Inc., DBA Vandorp Reining Horses. With his success in the United States. Ruben's current lifetime National Reining Horse Association earnings are over $625,000. In 2003, Ruben married the love of his life, Melissa. They currently reside in Cross Roads, Texas with their beautiful children, Skylar and Peyton. Ruben and his family are very involved in their church, COC Metro, where he and his wife began and lead the PowerPack Ministry. This program currently feeds over 275 elementary school kids per month who are in need of food on the weekends. Ruben has a passion to share the knowledge of Jesus' saving grace and see lives changed. He was inspired by a friend to write and share a daily devotional via text messaging which he has continued daily for the past two years.
