SLIDIN' BY THE SEA AT REINING BY THE BAY

*By Christy Egan

Of the three shows presented by the Brumley Management Group, LLC, Reining by the Bay is easily the most beautiful and delightful. It's also the oldest. In 2015 it celebrated its 17th great year as the California reining community's favorite horse show. One visit to the splendid Horse Park at Woodside, with its several hundred acres of rolling hills and oak trees, awash with sunshine and shade on the San Francisco peninsula, and horsemen are permanently hooked.

"You cannot come to Woodside and not fall in love with the surroundings," laughs Amanda Brumley, show manager and promoter. "Of all of the shows we do, this is the one with the most delicious local scenery, restaurants and shopping. Fisherman's Wharf, the sands of Half-Moon Bay, all of the sights in San Francisco, it's a wonder the exhibitors ever make it to their classes! The 2015 Reining By The Bay show ran very smoothly, even though we changed the schedule, offering later starts in the mornings and earlier stops in the afternoons. It gave everyone a chance to take a run to the beach or into the city. The horsemen appreciated the hard work we put in to bring the footing in the rings a few steps closer to perfection. We were very proud of the dirt this year! The growth in the numbers for the Ancillary divisions was a nice surprise.

In spite of a few hot days at the beginning of the show, the weather was nearly perfect (as usual).

We personally enjoy coming here every bit as much as the exhibitors!" Tom Foran, who rode Crome Plated Step to win the Open Reining for owner Taylor Sheridan, was excited by his success at the 2015 Reining By The Bay. "We were very lucky and things worked out for us. We brought 14 horses and many of them did well. Daphne Thompson rode Whiz It On Sunday to a win in the Rookie Professional and to take a Reserve in the Limited Open. Kathy Copus went one-two with Daddy Day Care and Gumball Machine in the NP Masters and, in addition to my good ride with Crome Plated Step, Kathy's three-year-old horse Select Code and I took Reserve in the Open Futurity. Reining By The Bay is one of our favorite shows," Tom admits. "Overall, it was a great event with lots of spectators. The new change in schedule definitely helped out. One evening we got to slip away and run down to Fisherman's Wharf. When I got home from this show I actually felt rested. Can you believe it?! What a great time we had!"

Martin Padilla just opened the doors at his own professional training barn last November after years of working for and with some of the top NRHA trainers and the best owners in the business. At Reining By The Bay Martin's black and red show drapes were heavy with ribbons by the weekend and he did it with fewer horses than some of the other professionals.

"I only brought five," Martin admits. "It was a big event for us and I decided that I personally wanted to spend high quality time with each rider and horse at the show." Martin himself rode Reeboks Rerun, scoring a 73 and a 73.5 to win the NRHA Open and the Intermediate Open for owners Anne and Dennis McLeod. "Reeboks Rerun is honest in the pen and totally a show horse. He loves his job," said Martin. Martin showed Reeboks Rerun along with Campbell McLeod, who won the DRHA Rookie level saddle and was kind, but not overly fond of men. Also a successful Reined Cow Horse, One Smart Pepto has a 2015 Whizkey N Diamonds filly on the ground and will be bred back to Smart Spook in 2016.

All four levels of this year’s RBTB Non-Pro Derby were won by Julie Ridgeway and Nu Pops, a horse she really just started showing. “Reining By The Bay was my third show with Nu Pops!” Julie laughs delightedly. “I just

In the Non-Pro Maturity and the Intermediate, Dana Avila and her One Time Pepto daughter, One Smart Pepto took home the titles. “My husband Bob orchestrated her pedigree before she was born and started her, so we’ve had her for most of her life. I am a confirmed ‘gelding rider’ myself, but Bob insisted that I was a match for this mare and he was right,” says Dana. “She’s smart, big-hearted and started in Reining myself. It’s only my second year at this show and I love it. There are exhibitor parties, wonderful awards and prizes and the backdrop is incredible. The scenery is so pretty, it almost doesn’t look real! I think they [Brumley Management], do a great job. The sponsors are so kind. I won two saddles, a beautiful blanket, several buckles, gift cards and sashes, and that doesn’t even count their generosity with the money! We also won a chair that says ‘Reining By The Bay’ so we have a place to sit now and enjoy our cocktails when the show is over! I came out of the Hunter-Jumper world. There, you get a little bit of money and a crystal vase. The Reining world is wonderful. Everyone is a horse lover and both the horses and the people are very genuine.”

Yet another perk for attending all three of the Brumley shows: The Cactus Reining Classic, Reining By The Bay and the Las Vegas High Roller is the 2015 Trifecta Non Pro Reining Challenge. The rider with the highest money earnings at the end of the third show will win a trip to the Salamander Resort and Spa, Middleburg, Virginia. As the tallies for the Reining By The Bay show came in, Marc Gordon and Revolution Is Dun sprinted into the Trifecta lead with $10,767.30 in total earnings. Next highest is Cam Essick and Hollier Than Thou with $7,808.81 earnings. On to the third and final show of the year ... the Las Vegas High Roller Reining Classic! Riders ... saddle your horses!

CARDINAL REINING HORSES

OPEN DERBY RETURNS FOR 2015

The Tulsa Reining Classic welcomes Cardinal Reining Horses back for the second year as the open Derby title sponsor. The Cardinal Reining Horses Open Derby is a signature climactic event on the final day of the Tulsa Reining Classic, which runs August 31-September 6.

With $33,000 added, the Cardinal Reining Horses Open Derby will feature the industry's top 4, 5 and 6-year-old reining horses. Competition is fierce in this dramatic finale on the show's last day and this championship title has quickly become a prestigious credential in the reining industry.

Cardinal Training Center is owned by Joao Marcos Arruda Pires. In 2013 he purchased a premier reining horse facility in Aubrey, Texas. John Marcos, as he is known in the United States, renamed the facility Cardinal Reining Horses and in just two years Marcos and Cardinal Reining Horses have come to represent world class reining around the globe.

That's not surprising to those who knew him. Though he might be new to reining, John Marcos is a veteran horseman. He also owns Cardinal Training Center—a 300 acre elite racing horse facility in Ocala, Florida.

Colleen McQuay, a partner of Global Reining Sports Group, which produces the Tulsa Reining Classic, noted, "It has been a pleasure to have Cardinal Reining join us at Tulsa and we appreciate the generous support he has given our event. Joao understands the importance of the Derbies and Futurities, and his involvement in our sport is definitely making a difference."

Each entry in the Cardinal Reining Horses Open Derby receives a signature specially monogrammed crimson jacket featuring both the Tulsa Reining Classic and Cardinal logos.

Cardinal Ranch stands two special stallions - AQHA and NRHA World Champion Star Spangled Whiz LTE: $175,000+ (Topsail Whiz x Sheza Shady Slider) owned by Bevilacqua Quarter Horses, Italy, and CFR Centenario Wimpys LTE: $175,000+ (Wimpys Little Step x Miss Hollywood Whiz) owned by Slide or Die LLC, Italy. Marcos worked with Million Dollar rider Tom McCutcheon to purchase an extraordinary set of broodmares and their foals are now becoming the future of Cardinal Reining Horses.

Reflecting the international ties developing throughout the reining industry, Cardinal Ranch serves as home base for several leading trainers. Brazilian native and NRHA Professional Franco Bertolani is head trainer for Cardinal Reining Horses, along with his wife, Italian Giorgia Code-luppi.

Five trainers work independently out of Cardinal Ranch, including NRHA Million Dollar Rider Brian Bell, NRHA Open World Champion Ann Salmon-Anderman, NRBC Open L3 Champion Ruben Vandorp, Monte Anderman and NRBC Open Finalist Billy Williams.

DARLING 888 RANCH DEVELOPING HORSE FUTURITY KICKS OFF TULSA REINING CLASSIC

As the first of the Tulsa Reining Classic aged events, the excitement will begin when the Darling 888 Ranch Developing Horse Futurity commences on September 2. The show, which takes place at Tulsa’s Expo Center, has a rich tradition of innovative classes and exhibitor-friendly policies and the Darling 888 Ranch Developing Horse Futurity is one of its most popular.

The Darling 888 Ranch came on board as naming sponsor of the Developing Horse Futurity in 2012 and has continued as the title sponsor for the popular event for 3-year-old horse and rider combinations not entered in the Hollywoodsintown Open Futurity. Since its inception, the Darling 888 Ranch Developing Horse Futurity concept has attracted the attention of riders worldwide who are interested in showing those “not quite ready for prime-time” horses.

Its level playing field protects those horses that will peak later, performance-wise, and is considered an important step toward lengthening the show careers of reining horses. Popular from its inception, the futurity keeps growing yearly and its sponsors are proud to stand behind an event that has such a positive impact on the industry. Rick Darling, owner of Darling 888 Ranch, has often noted his support of young horses and feels that the Developing Horse concept is timely and appropriate.

The 240 acre Darling 888 Ranch is located in Princeton, Kentucky, about ninety minutes from Nashville, Tennessee. Purchased by Rick and Cheri Darling in the fall of 2010, the ranch is a full service reining facility offering training, breeding, sales and equine sports medicine.

For information on Darling 888 Ranch, visit the website at www.darling888ranch.com and for information on the Tulsa Reining Classic, visit www.tulsareining.com or call 580-759-2525.

FEI EUROPEAN REINING CHAMPIONSHIPS 2015

By Simona Diale

Europe's best reiners came to Aachen, Germany, for the FEI European Reining Championships 2015, nine years after the hugely successful competitions were held in the framework of the FEI World Equestrian Games™ 2006.

Athletes representing 10 nations – Austria, Denmark, Finland, France, Great Britain, Germany, Italy, The Netherlands, Switzerland and Sweden - were vying for the coveted FEI medals. Some 40 horse-and-rider combinations entered the arena and all the nations, with the exception of Austria, were competing with full teams including the defending champions from Germany who took team gold on home ground in Augsburg in 2013.

Europe's best horses and riders have qualified to represent their country in this year's FEI European Reining Championships. In the last held two years ago, team Germany composed of Alexander Ripper/Wild At The Bar; Grisha Ludwig/Custom Del Cielo; Volker Schmitt/Smokin Mifillena; Sylvia Rzepka/Hot Smokin Chex - took the gold. Grisha Ludwig and Volker Schmitt will be back next week to defend the title riding their 2013 mounts.

Team Italy consisting of Massimiliano Ruggeri/Spat Split And White; Pierluigi Fabbri/Rooster Nic; Giuseppe Prevosti/Chic Magnetic; and Mirko Piazzzi/Cody Glo Phoebes claimed the silver. Fabbri will be back riding Broadway Jaba.

Team Austria - Rudi Kronsteiner/Whizoom; Tina Kuestner-Mantl/Heza Sure Whiz; Martin Muhlstatter/Chic N Roost – completed the podium claiming the bronze. Returning for Austria is Tina Kuestner Mantl was competing as an individual riding Nu Chexomatic. She was joined by fellow countryman Klaus Lechner also competing individually aboard Cody Rooster Delmaso.

Alex Ripper of Germany riding Wild At The Bar took individual gold in 2013. Belgium's Cira Baeck aboard Colonels Shining Gun were runners up.

In 2013, bronze medal honors went to Germany's Grisha Ludwig and Custom del Cielo.

Joining Europe's best reiners will be Dutch Dressage great Anky van Grunsven who will be on team Netherlands riding her own Whizashinningwalla BB.

Individual Medals - Excitement and great reining were the key words at the FEI European Reining Championships in Aachen (GER). Twenty of Europe's finest horses and riders performed in the Deutsche Bank Stadium with Giovanni Masi de Vargas of Italy clinching the individual gold with Quarter Dream's Dance Little Spook between the reins. Last to enter the arena, the 22-year-old flawlessly guided the talented 7-year-old mare by NRHA Million Dollar Sire, Smart Spook, and out of Sailors Dance through pattern n.6.

His deep stops, fast spins, smooth lead changes and perfectly painted circles pleased both the crowd and the judges who paid him back with an outstanding score of 222 and the highest step of the podium.

“Earning two gold medals here is unbelievable and so emotional,” said Giovanni who also posted the highest score in the team competition on Friday when Italy took home the gold. “I cannot thank my team, our coach and the president of the Italian Equestrian Sports Federation (FISE), Cav. Vittorio Orlandi, for being here to cheer for us.”

The pressure was on for Giovanni once it was his turn to enter the arena. German veteran Grisha Ludwig and the 8-year-old stallion Shine My Gun (Colonels Smoking Gun x Shiners Mistress), owned by Stephanie Maudas, had thrilled the crowd with their run and their perfect spins. Once they had performed their last stop, a 221 appeared on the scoreboard. The duo ‘just missed out’ and settled for the individual silver on home soil. “I came here aiming for the gold,” said Grisha. “I did not have much luck in my last stop but it was a great fight until the very end and I am proud of our results.”

Germany also kept the bronze medal on home ground as Elias Ernst and USS N Dun It (Reminic Dun It x USS Enterprise) closed their run with a 219. The talented 10-year-old stallion is owned by Christine Wilinski. “I can't describe my feelings! To show here is awesome and the crowd was super,” said the young German rider.

Setting the pace

Austria's Daniel Schmutz and BH Cielo Dry opened the competition with a score of 214.5. Closing the first judging block, and raising the score by a point, was the duo that made it back from the 2nd qualifier, Verena Klein of Germany and her Olena Joe Cody.

Italy's team veteran, Pierluigi Fabbri, was in the lead following the second of four judging blocks after posting a 217.5 aboard Broadway Jaba (Little Red Jaba x Tuff Lady Boss), owned by Az. Agricola Pollarini.

With a strong performance, Klaus Lechner of Austria and Cody Rooster Delmaso (Ricochet Rooster x Made Of Lacy), owned by Giulia Gaupmann, received a 218.5 from the judges, the high score prior to the last five competitors which also earned them fourth place overall.

ing kept the public glued to their seats and the final tussle between Masi de Vargas and Ludwig couldn't have been a better advertisement for the sport. There was no better way to close the 2015 edition of the FEI European Reining Championships in Aachen!

Team Medals - Gold for Team Italy!

Italy claimed team gold ahead of Germany in silver and The Netherlands in bronze at the FEI European Reining Championships 2015 in Aachen, Germany. In a field of 40 competitors, and with 8 horse-rider combinations to go, the podium was determined by a superb performance from Italy's Giovanni Masi De Vargas and Dance Little Spook.

Aboard the 7-year-old Quarter Horse mare by Smart Spook and out of Sailors Dance, owned by Quarter Dream, the young Italian rider posted a 221.5. Equaling the top score of the day was Germany's Grisha Ludwig and Shine My Gun. The 7-year-old stallion, an own son of Colonels Smoking Gun and out of Shiners Mistress, owned by Stephanie Madaus, thrilled the crowd executing the only +1 ½ spins of the day. Once the duo closed their performance, they secured Germany's European team silver.

"I am simply thrilled," said Italian team coach, Filippo Masi De Vargas. "This squad is made up of young riders, the future of our discipline, and they were just great, very professional and full of enthusiasm. The only 'older' rider is Pierluigi Fabbri, who was also on the team in the past

When asked about the friendship/rivalry between them, the medalists answered:

Giovanni, better known as 'Dido' – "We compete every month against other. It's a real friendship."

Grischa – "I'm a bit older than Dido, and I'm a very good friend of his father's, in fact we've had some fights on horses! I've known him (Giovanni) since he was that high (demonstrating with his hands) and I always told his father that he would grow to be a top top rider. When I saw him compete in junior competition through the years, I knew that he was a rising star. Reining is a family, we are the reining family. I'd like to thank the organisers here and say that this is probably the best organised reining show we've ever shown in. It's unbelievable how much they've done for us."

Reining competitors often refer to the connections they develop within the sport as being as close as family. That was literally true in Aachen. Filippo Masi de Vargas, Italy's team coach and Giovanni's father summed up his feelings by saying: "I'm bursting with pride and honored to be part of this team gold and individual gold all Italian experience. Each and every competitor here was wonderful and they all showcased the sport of Reining to the best of their ability."

Giovanni Masi de Vargas – "I started competing in 2009 in junior competition and this is my ninth FEI medal. This is the first time I've competed in a senior championship and it's been an amazing experience."

Grischa – "I was fifth in the World Equestrian Games in 2010, and fourth last time, then I was individual third in the European Championships in 2013 and now second here, so the tendency goes up!"

Elias – "I can't describe my feelings! To show here is awesome and the crowd was super."

Ralf Heselschwerdt, President of the Ground Jury – "We expected a very close run and it turned out to be that. Grischa ran a great pattern, performed awesome spins, and at that maneuver he was ahead of Giovanni, his horse anticipated the last stop and that pushed him half a point behind Giovanni. Giovanni was very consistent, his run reflected smoothness and finesse and nobody deserved it more than he did."

edition. He had to endure the pressure of opening the competition today and did a great job giving the other athletes on the team the confidence they needed."

In the 2013 edition of the Championships, Italy took team silver behind Germany and today, again on German soil, the battle was on from the first to the last competitor. With only 10 horse-rider combinations left to go, vying for the medals were Italy with 651 points, The Netherlands with 637 and France with 634.5. The situation was soon to change following Masi De Vargas's performance, which did put Italy in the lead but still left the highest step of the podium undecided.

The gold and silver medals were determined after Ludwig's run, but reining enthusiasts had to wait until the last competitor of the day to find out which nation would complete the podium. Rieky Young Van Osch of The Netherlands, who performed aboard her Brady Chex, the 10-year-old stallion by Buenonic Chex and out of Somethingtocrowabout, ending up posting a 214, enough to earn the bronze.

Just off the podium was team Great Britain with three competitors and a total of 635 points. Francesca Sternberg and Ten Reasons (Hand Ten Suprize x Hotroddin Catalyst) closed with a 215.5, enough to advance automatically to the individual competition on Sunday. "Ten Reasons just gave me another reason why my husband Doug chose him!" said an enthused Francesca following her run.

Frank Kemperman, Aachen 2015 Show Director, FEI Executive Board member and Chair of the FEI Dressage Committee said: "It's nine years since we did reining at the FEI World Equestrian Games, but this was fantastic sport."

Joe Hayes, judge: "I'm from Texas so I probably don't need a mic! If you didn't see the reining today don't miss it next time! It was really fun to judge and congratulations to all three teams. It was like a heavyweight boxing match, very exciting to judge. It's really fun to show a good horse and it's fun to judge good horses.

Giovanni Masi De Vargas: "Being here in on German soil and being able to claim the gold is an incredible experience. The feeling we had when we got here was that this could be done but actually getting it done is a completely different story! The pressure was definitely on when I went in the arena, but I used that pressure to do the best I could. This is a tough arena to show in, especially considering the importance of this venue. I cannot express how I feel right now, the only thing I can say is that it's simply great!" The 23-year-old De Vargas boasts multiple FEI team and individual gold medals in Junior and Young Rider competitions.

Dutch dressage champion, Anky van Grunsven, who holds the record for the most Olympic medals won by any equestrian athlete, and is the only rider to record three successive Olympic wins in the same event, was on Team Netherlands riding her own Whizashinningwalla BB. This is her first reining medal in an FEI event. "It's amazing, so much fun and I'm so excited about it," said Anky. "I know I can do dressage but to be on a bronze medal winning reining team that's something else. Earning a medal at the FEI European Championships is so good for this sport and the reason that I enjoy this discipline is firstly because I'm not good at it and I like the challenge, and secondly, I love the atmosphere both in and outside the arena."

Reflections

with Ruben van Dorp

As the Scriptures say, "No one is righteous--not even one."
Romans 3:10

A few facts; my life is not falling apart, it is coming together; my faith has given me a renewed strength, an eternal and powerful hope and an undeserved, unfailing love.

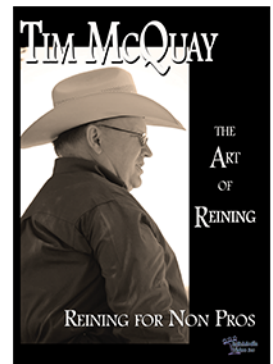

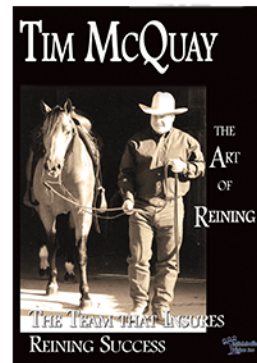

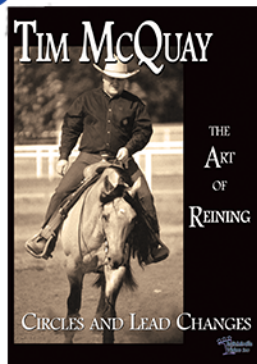

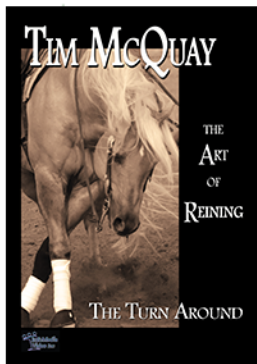

However, I am a real person with real struggles. I do things I shouldn't be doing, say stuff I shouldn't be saying, think stuff I shouldn't be thinking and have stuff I shouldn't be having. I am a work in progress, and even though I am a hypocrite, and I mess up all the time; it bothers me so much more now when I do.

Sinning against the one who gave it all for me tears me up. I pray that my actions, my speech, my behavior will never interfere with your walk with Jesus in a negative way.

I am not where I want to be, but I thank God I am not where I was!

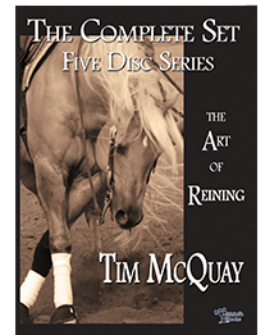

Ruben van Dorp grew up in The Netherlands and began training horses over 22 years ago. His equine experience in many different breeds and disciplines led to nine European championships. After relocating to the United States in 2002, he started Vandorp Inc., DBA Vandorp Reining Horses. With his success in the United States, Ruben's current lifetime National Reining Horse Association earnings are over $625,000. In 2003, Ruben married the love of his life, Melissa. They currently reside in Cross Roads, Texas with their beautiful children, Skylar and Peyton. Ruben and his family are very involved in their church, COC Metro, where he and his wife began and lead the PowerPack Ministry. This program currently feeds over 275 elementary school kids per month who are in need of food on the weekends. Ruben has a passion to share the knowledge of Jesus' saving grace and see lives changed. He was inspired by a friend to write and share a daily devotional via text messaging which he has continued daily for the past two years. If you would like to be added to the text message list, text him at 214-243-0447.

2015 TULSA REINING CLASSIC YOUTH CLINICS

SPONSORED BY
CINDER LAKES RANCH

Matt Mills, of Cave Creek, Arizona, enjoyed a successful career as a youth showing western pleasure, horsemanship and trail horses. In 1996 he switched to reining exclusively and consistently ranks as a NRHA Top Twenty Professional.

In 2006 Matt was a member of Team USA that earned Gold at the World Equestrian Games (WEG) in Aachen, Germany. He brings his expertise and show experience to helping Non Pros and youth riders and is well-known for his professionalism, showmanship, and charismatic personality in his clinics across the US, Europe and Mexico. He launched a video series designed for riders of any discipline to help them do their own training at home as well as advanced level riders looking to fine-tune show horses.
