SOUTHWEST REINING HORSE ASSOCIATION ONLINE STALLION AUCTION

Working for the Benefit of the Industry Auction Ends 8 PM February 15

When the Southwest Reining Horse Association Stallion Auction was conceived in 2006 by former SWRHA President and longtime reining owner, rider and breeder Jack Covington, no one could have predicted that it would become of the largest and most successful stallion auctions in the reining industry. Second only to the NRHA Sire and Dam auction, the SWRHA Stallion Auction features an incredible 106 breeding opportunities!

Maybe the incredible growth and success of the Auction has to do with its benefits:

- First, it supports the reiners of the Southwest area by creating added money for the Annual SWRHA Futurity. Because of the funds generated by the auction the event has become one of the top five futurities for the National Reining Horse Association and this year the 31st annual event will take place October 20-25.
- The auction also rewards the stallion owners who support the auction each year by awarding a golf cart to the sire of the top Open and Non Pro winners or highest advancing horse by a participating stallion whose breeding sold in the auction. It also awards a golf cart to the winner of a drawing from those participating stallions.
- Finally people who purchase a breeding are rewarded, too. Resulting foals are eligible for FREE entry into the Level 4 Open or Non Pro Futurity in their 3-year-old year. Owners simply notify the SWRHA Office and fill out the form HERE and send copy of registration papers to receive their eligibility certificate.

Current SWRHA President Kathy McCutcheon of Whitesboro, Texas became the Stallion Auction Committee

Chair in 2013 and has done a great job of picking up the reins for the program, assisted by her daughter Lindsey.

She noted, "Every year I am amazed at the generosity of our stallion owners. Once again we are able to offer a premier selection of our industry's best. There is a reining, cutting or cow horse sire for every mare owners dream."

The Southwest Reining Horse Association is one of the industry's largest and most successful affiliate organizations, and celebrated its 30th anniversary in 2014. The primary mission of the SWRHA is to promote the breeding, training, and exhibition of the reining horse and its keynote event each year is the annual futurity. Often tagged "Where the Best Go First," the SWRHA Futurity is a must-attend event for reiners. For most, it is the final stop before the National Reining Horse Association Futurity in Oklahoma City.

NRBC JUDGES ANNOUNCED!

The National Reining Breeders Classic has announced the judging lineup for its 2015 show, scheduled for April 13-19 at the Great Southwest Equestrian Center in Katy, TX.

Donnie Bricker, Corey Hendrickson, Andi Paul, Butch Carse and Ed Bricker will judge the Classic Preliminaries. Also officiating at the massive event will Steve Ross, Charlie Smith, J.D. Roberson, Dave Belson, Reid Fadcy and B.J. Ribeiro.

The NRBC has made judge selection a matter for the exhibitors to decide in past years. Each fall, a questionnaire is sent to former exhibitors and they are asked for their selection of judges. Judges are hired for the event based on the cumulative preference.

That tradition continues at the show, itself, where qualifiers choose the judges for the big-money Classic finals. NRBC Secretary-Treasurer Cheryl Magoteaux Cody explained, "During the draw party, each finalist is given a ballot to choose the finals judges. Judges are selected based on the preference of the finals qualifiers."

The National Reining Breeders Classic is the most successful stallion incentive program in reining history. The 2015 event will be the eighteenth annual show, and the NRBC payout has grown to exceed over a million dollars yearly!. For information on the NRBC, visit the web site at www.nrbc.com or call 580-759-3939.
