CALCAGNINI WINS SOUTHWEST REINING HORSE ASSOCIATION CARDINAL REINING HORSES - LIFELINE OPEN FUTURITY ON ANNIES CUSTOM PISTOL

On October 24, people filled the Hardy Murphy Coliseum in Ardmore, Oklahoma, for the much-anticipated Cardinal Reining Horses - Lifeline Performance Supplements Open Futurity Finals. As each of the 22 horse-and-rider teams entered the arena, the noise level was high with whistling and cheering from and the crowd. Stefano Calcagnini and Annies Custom Pistol were the ones to watch since they had topped the Level 4 preliminaries, but they weren't up until the 21st draw.

It seemed that each competitor continued to score higher and run faster, but as the ninth draw, Calcagnini rode in on his other mount, Tinseltowns Shadow (Hollywoodstinseltown x Win My Shine) owned by Shannon and Hershel Reid and scored a 223 to take the lead. However, just five horses later, Brian Bell piloted Ruf Lil Magnum (Magnum Chic Dream x Dunit A Little Ruf) owned by Ann Salmon to also score a 223. Then as draw number 18, Dell Hendricks rode Stoptown (Hollywoodstinseltown x Cee Miss Stop), owned by Douglas Van Rees, to score yet another 223 and create a three-way tie for the Level 4 title.

The second-to-last horse-and-rider duo to enter the arena, Stefano Calcagnini and Annies Custom Pistol (Colonels Smoking Gun x Anniegityergun), stepped it up a notch and had the crowd and their peers cheering for them through every maneuver. But as Calcagnini left the arena it was announced that his score was being held for review. The tension built after the last horse as the crowd waited to hear the judges' decision. Finally, announcer Terry Mason gave the news that they had scored a 225.5 and captured the Cardinal Reining Horses - Lifeline Performance Supplements Open Futurity Level 4 Championship.

Open Level 4 Futurity Champion Stefano Calcagnini and Annies Custom Pistol

The win netted an $18,277 paycheck along with a Custom John Deere Gator sponsored by Pettit Machinery, Champion Neck Sash, Lawson Trophy, $100 Dennards Gift Certificate, $50 Cowboy Couture Gift Certificate, and a Thomas Moore Tote with a $20 Gift Certificate.

"It just feels really good," Calcagnini said after he heard his score. "I came here and wanted to try my horses and they definitely showed up for me. I am really happy with the way they performed the first go-round and I called on them a little bit more in the finals and they both stepped up.

"I thought [Annies Custom Pistol] was really stepping it up for me," he added. "I was very happy with the way he just kept building the run and didn't give me a whole lot of trouble. I actually couldn't fault him anywhere. He handled the crowd and he was quiet in the center. This is what trainers dream - to come to this show and do well for the finals. Tonight, I guess, was my night.”

Owners Shannon and Hershel Reid were happy and excited for Calcagnini and their stallion’s win. They also own Tinseltowns Shadow, which Calcagnini rode to a 223 score and a three-way tie for the Reserve Championship with Brian Bell on Ruf Lil Magnum owned by Ann Salmon, and Stoptown owned by Doug Van Rees and ridden by Dell Hendricks. For the Open Futurity Reserve Championship. Each of those horses earned $8,873.

“It’s absolutely incredible and it just shows Stefano’s hard work and dedication,” Shannon said. “It’s definitely exciting. I am very excited about tonight. I’ve got goosebumps! Stefano is a wonderful horse trainer. I am thankful to have him as a trainer as well as Vanessa Strotmann.”

“I am so thankful that I’ve got owners like Hershel and Shannon Reid along with all my other customers,” Calcagnini said. “Now we are just going to go home and give these guys a little bit of rest and regroup and get ready for the NRHA Futurity.”

“This win feels really good. The owner of this horse (Kenneth Krebs) is kind of a new guy with me, and it’s nice to get something like this. This is his home-raised horse so it’s really good,” Latimer said about his win. “This horse has been solid all Fall so its nice to get something under his belt before we go to the NRHA Futurity.”

Latimer and Mercedes Kenz (Cromed Out Mercedes x Mifilady) earned $8,312 and received a Scottsdale Western World Saddle, Champion Neck Sash, Lawson Trophy, and a $50 Cowboy Couture Gift Certificate.

Luke Gagnon Wins Level 2 Championship on Dun Spooked Us

Luke Gagnon rode Dun Spooked Us (Smart Spook x Always A Dunit) to a score of 218.5 to secure the Level 2 Championship and finish as the Level 3 Reserve Champion.

“He felt really nice,” Gagnon said. “This is the first time I’ve shown this horse and his attitude was great. I got late in the drag and I kind of got bad ground in the stop but that’s the only bad thing and it wasn’t his fault. He’s a nice horse.

Duane Latimer Rides Mercedes Kenz to Intermediate Open Championship

With his peers encouraging him throughout his run, Million Dollar Rider Duane Latimer rode Mercedes Kenz in the Cardinal Reining Horses - Lifeline Performance Supplements Open Futurity striving to be at the top and scored a 219. At the end of the class, the score had held and Latimer and the 3-year-old gelding had the Level 3 Championship secured.

This book has been called one of the best book of Fundamental - and it should be required reading for all horsemen and aspiring horsemen.

Open Level 2 Futurity Champion Luke Gagnon & Dun Spooked Us

“I believe this is his owner’s (Janice Thomas) first reining horse and she just fell in love with him when she saw him,” he added. “He’s been a great horse. He’s a good minded horse and he just keeps getting better every day. He never has a bad day.”

Gagnon and Dun Spooked Us garnered a $3,545 paycheck for the L2, plus another $4035 for the L3 Reserve and another $1787 for their L4 placing. They received a Saddle, Champion Neck Sash, Lawson Trophy, and a $50 Cowboy Couture Gift Certificate.

The good mare, Always A Dunit, had three offspring that made it back to the Open Futurity finals; Always Gotyer Gun (by Colonels Smoking Gun) ridden by Tim McQuay, Always A Specialnite (by Gunners Special Nite) ridden by Tom McCutcheon, and Dun Spooked Us.

Roberto Berti and Double Down Shiner Top Level 1 Open Futurity

Roberto Berti and Double Down Shiner gave it their all in the arena and had plenty of support from the enthusiastic crowd. Their score of 217 ultimately won the Level 1 Championship.

“It feels pretty good. I thought for a second that I wouldn’t be able to pull this off but he bailed me out a couple of times and we did,” Berti said about his win. “He kind of got ahead of me a little bit at first but as the pattern went on, he calmed down. He’s a big stopper and the first time I didn’t let him stop, I just didn’t let him perform like I know he can. He’s got a lot of talent. Like everybody says, he’s not the prettiest horse, but he’s really, really pretty inside.”

Berti and the 3-year-old stallion (Shine On Line x Wimpys Babe) garnered a $763 paycheck for owner Mary Jansma. They also received a Champion Buckle, Champion Neck Sash, Morrison Trophy, and a $50 Cowboy Couture Gift Certificate.

Custom SWRHA Golf Carts Awarded to Stallion Owners

Each year the SWRHA awards custom golf carts in appreciation to the stallion owners who participate in the auction. One golf cart goes to the sire of both the Open and Non Pro Champion and one is given in a random drawing between the stallion owners whose stallions sold in the auction. This year the golf cart drawing winner was Steppin On Sparks owned by HDC Quarter Horses.

A golf cart is also given to the Sire of the Level 4 Open Champion if that stallion was part of the online stallion auction with a sold breeding. Since the sire of the winner was Gunner, who is deceased and not a part of the auction this year, the award moved to the Reserve spot – and a three-way tie between Brian Bell on Ruf Lil Magnum by Magnum Chic Dream, Dell Hendricks on Stoptown by Hollywoodstinseltown and Stefano

Big Time and the Level 1 and the Prime Time winning sire was Cromed Out Mercedes.

Synbiont Open Mare Bonus

The highest placing Level 4 Open mare in the Cardinal Reining Horses - Lifeline Performance Supplements Futurity received the Symbiont Mare Bonus of $1000. The winner was ARC Gunna Mark Ya by Gunnatrashya, ridden by Casey Deary for Swartzky Performance Horses to a score of 221.5.

Eileen Crane Wins Custom Headstall

Another award given during the Open Finals Awards Ceremony was a beautiful custom-made ostrich leather and silver headstall made and sponsored by Travis Stillson.

A drawing of all Futurity entries found the winner - Eileen Crane, a Scottsdale Western World Non Pro Futurity entry.

Calcagnini on Tinseltowns Shadow also by Hollywoodstinseltown.

After a drawing between these stallion owners, the winner of the golf cart was Hollywoodstinseltown owned by Dave and Bonnie Silva.

The Open Level 1, 2 and 3 sires receive custom belt buckles. Cromed Out Mercedes owned by Silver Spur Equine was the sire of the Level 3 Champion Mercedes Kenz, ridden by Duane Latimer and owned by Kenneth Krebs of Louisville, Kentucky. Smart Spook sired the Level 2 Champion, which was Dun Spooked Us, ridden by Luke Gagnon and owned by Janice Lynn Thomas of Benton, Louisiana. The Level 1 Champion buckle went to Shine on Line, the sire of Double Down Shiner, ridden by Roberto Berti for Mary Jansma.

A custom SWRHA golf cart also went to the sire of the Level 4 Futurity Non Pro Champion and the winner of the golf cart was Gunners Special Nite, sire of the Non Pro Champion Paint The Nite.

A custom buckle went to the Level 3 Non Pro Champion sire and there was a tie between Shine Big Time and Gunners Special Nite. The Level 2 custom buckle went to Shine

What it took!

To make it back to the SWRHA Cardinal Reining Horses-Lifeline Performance Supplements Open Futurity finals held it took a score of 216.5 or higher to make it in the Level 4, a score of 210 in Level 3, a score of 209.5 in Level 2, and a score of 205.5 in Level 1.

A Show for the Record Books

The 31st Annual Southwest Reining Horse Association Futurity, presented by Billingsley Ford was a history-maker. From a record-breaking stall count – up an astonishing 37% from last year – to the total number of entries, it was a great event.

Show Manager Cheryl Magoteaux Cody noted, “In the Open Level 4 Futurity, we had 50 entries last year. This year that number jumped to 70 entries. Plus there were increases in every part of the show. The feedback that we got was that everyone appreciated the new second slate of ancillary classes. The new arena was a hit – with good ground - and the future for this show looks better than ever!”

GUNNERS SPECIAL NITE OPEN DRAW PARTY IS KEY EVENT

A highlight of the Southwest Reining Horse Association Futurity is the Gunners Special Nite Open Draw Party. Everyone is invited and attendees enjoy a wine and cheese buffet as well as a catered meal from Ardmore’s Red Dirt Brewhouse.

SWRHA President Kathy McCutcheon welcomed the attendees – a crowd of over 150 in spite of the rain downpour outside. “We appreciate all of our sponsors and supporters for this show,” she noted. “Thanks to Sarah Willeomon (owner of Gunners Special Nite) for her continued support.” She also expressed appreciation to JoAnn Drake for coordinating the wine and cheese display.

Additionally, she commended the Manager Jeff Storms and the staff of Hardy Murphy Coliseum for their tireless work and preparation.

MANDY MCCUTCHEON WINS SCOTTSDALE WESTERN WORLD NON PRO FUTURITY ON PAINT THE NITE

As the fifth draw in the 47-horse Scottsdale Western World Non Pro Futurity, Cade McCutcheon rode Sara Goes Fly to a score of 217, setting the bar. The lead lasted a long time – until draw 31, his mother, Mandy McCutcheon piloted Paint The Nite to score a 218.5 for the Championship.

“All my horses tried to be good, but she was really good. I was a little bit distracted, but she wasn’t,” Mandy said. “I had a little glitch in my right lead lope departure but other than that she was really good. She’s a really big stopper so when it’s time to go stop I know it’s going to be a fun time. Today, I was third on a Gunners Special Nite and a Gunners Special Nite tied to win the Level 3, so we are pretty excited about the Gunners Special Nite’s offspring.”

Mandy and Paint The Nite (Gunners Special Nite x Darlins Not Painted) received a $5,515 paycheck along with a saddle sponsored by Scottsdale Western World, Champion Neck Sash, Lawson Trophy, $100 Dennards Gift Certificate, $50 Cowboy Couture Gift Certificate, and a Thomas Moore Tote with a $20 Gift Certificate.

Incredibly, it was the FOURTEENTH Southwest Reining Horse Association Non Pro Futurity title for the $2 Million Non Pro.

Taking home the Non Pro Futurity Reserve Championship was Cade and Sara Goes Fly (Einsteins Revolution x Sara Goes Hollywood), owned by James McCutcheon. The duo garnered a $3,357 paycheck along with Anderson Bean Boots, Reserve Champion Neck Sash, $50 SmartPak Gift Certificate, $25 Gift Certificate from Cowboy Couture, and a Thomas Moore Tote with a $20 Gift Certificate.

It’s A BIG Tie for the Scottsdale Western World Level 3 Non Pro Championship!

Three horse-and-rider teams tied for the Scottsdale Western World Non Pro Futurity Level 3 Championship; Tami Nelson and Big Time Jazzy, Teresa Putman on HA Lenas Tune, and Lindsey McCutcheon aboard Dunit Special Nite.

“I’m really happy. I raised her and own her parents,” Nelson said about Big Time Jazzy. “She just is a really good-minded easy horse so you just lope her off and go.

Non Pro Futurity Level 4 Champion Mandy McCutcheon and Paint The Nite

She just says yes the whole time out there in the pen so I just kicked her and kicked her and when you stop kicking she slows down. When you run down and stop kicking, she stops. She’s a great mare.”

“I’m excited. It was really fun and I know now that there is more there that I didn’t tap into, so I’m really excited to go to the NRHA Futurity with her and hopefully she will ride nice there like she did here,” Putman said about HA Lenas Tune. “I had three half point penalties but that was more my fault than it was hers. She was just real sweet in the circles and came back nice, I was happy with her there. I couldn’t be happier.

“I’m really happy with my horse. We just had one little bitty deal on our last stop, but other than that I’m super happy with him. He felt really good but you just never really know with 3-year-olds and this is our first time to show one handed, so you just don’t know what’s going to happen,” McCutcheon said. “Coming in he was really quiet and waited for me. I really had to make him run down to his stops but he was still great and I am really happy with him.”

Each rider scored a 215.5 for the tie and collected a $1,407 paycheck .

Tami Nelson Tops Level 2 Non Pro Futurity on Big Time Jazzy

Nelson and Big Time Jazzy (Shine Big Time x Skippin Whiz) also captured the Scottsdale Western World Non Pro Futurity Level 2 Championship with their score of 215.5. The duo garnered a $1,134 paycheck which added to their $1,918 check from the L4 and $1,407 check from the L3!

She also won a Champion Benchmark Buckle, Champion Neck Sash sponsored by Shelly Martinez, Lawson Trophy, and a $50 Cowboy Couture Gift Certificate.

Teresa Putman and HA Lenas Tune Win Prime Time Non Pro

Teresa Putman and HA Lenas Tune (Lena Spark x DA Nic A Tune), owned by Gary Putman, earned the Scottsdale Western World Non Pro Futurity Prime Time Championship worth $673. They also received a Champion Buckle, Champion Neck Sash, Morrison Trophy, and a $50 Cowboy Couture Gift Certificate.

Samantha Larcombe Wins Scottsdale Western World Non Pro Futurity

Level 1 on My Nu Mercedes Rox

Samantha Larcombe piloted My Nu Mercedes Rox into the winner’s circle in the Scottsdale Western World Non Pro Futurity Level 1 with a score of 211 for the Championship.

“It was a bit of a surprise, I had no idea, but I’m happy and I’ll take it,” Larcombe said about her win. “I wasn’t overly happy with my run, I think he could do better but he’s a 3-year-old so we’ve got a little bit to work on in the next month or so before Oklahoma City. He’s a homebred, and he’s the first one I’ve ridden by my mare. It’s just nice to ride one of my own and its kind of a little bit of an accomplishment. We are just going to try and do better at Oklahoma City.”

Larcombe and My Nu Mercedes Rox (Cromed Out Mercedes x Roxana Chex) also garnered a $245 paycheck and received a Champion Buckle, Champion Neck Sash, Pewter Trophy, and a $50 Cowboy Couture Gift Certificate.

Einsteins Revolution Back Gate Pizza Party Kicks off a Night of Fun!

The Einsteins Revolution Back Gate Pizza Party is a popular venue for a lot of reasons. First – great pizza and fellowship. As if that wasn't enough it's also the setting for some of the best-loved events of the show! From the Rein in Cancer benefit Dog Races to the sizzling Market Open, it was all worth watching thanks to the sponsorship from Einsteins Revolution.

Rein in Cancer Dog Races

It was a canine carnival at the Southwest Reining Horse Association Futurity. Judged by Gunny Mathison, whose eagle eye at the finish line determined the winner, the event had everyone crowding near the starting line to get a good view of the action.

In the end, it was Joe Schmidt's "Gravy" who won first place bragging rights and a special doggie gift bag. Petroll Reining Horses' Mia won the reserve championship.

Walk Trot Riders Compete for Top Honors – Schaffhauser Tops the Class!

Five competitive horse-and-rider teams entered the arena wanting a chance to make the highest score. In the end it was Becca Schaffhauser and Get Juiced (Smart Like Juice x Fancy Finnin Solano), owned by Jennifer Anderson, who topped her fellow competitors with a score of 147. The reserve title went to Wyatt Deary on Roosters Custom for a score of 143.5. Rounding out the class were Gabriel Hendrix, Margaret Nance and Ellie Mae Sliss.

The Walk-Trot was sponsored by Silva Reining Horses with prizes furnished by Sliding K, Jody Brainard, Equine Promotion and Richard Pokluda.

Lead Line Class Presented by Silva Reining Horses

There were eight talented competitors in the Lead Line class. They were all so amazing that Judge Gunny Mathison couldn't make up his mind on just one champion, so everyone received prizes sponsored by Sliding K, Jody Brainard, Equine Promotion and Richard Pokluda.

Markel Insurance Open Champion Casey Deary and Chicsdundreamin

Casey Deary Wins Markel Open on Chicsdundreamin

The Markel Insurance Open was the last class of the day and it was the most exciting. The camaraderie between the competitors was relaxed even though they were all after the title. However, it was Casey Deary and Chicsdundreamin who stole the show and the Championship.

“That horse is always good. He’s a sweet horse and he’s very, very broke,” Deary said. “Arno Honstetter was fifth on him at the NRHA Futurity and Sam Smith won a world title on him. Normally Betty [Schroeder] shows him I just thought I’d steal him for one ride. I’ve never actually shown him before, but he was great.”

Deary and Chicsdundreamin (Magnum Chic Dream x Goody Goody Dun Drop) won a $1,611 paycheck for owner Betty Schroeder. They also received a Lawson Trophy, Monogrammed Captain Chair, $50 Cowboy Couture Gift Certificate, and a Thomas Moore Tote with Gift Certificate.

TWO SLATES OF NRHA CLASSES AT SWRHA PLUS FIRST-EVER CIRCUIT AWARD BUCKLES Open, Int Open, Ltd Open & Rookie Pro Slate 2

There were 52 horse-and-rider teams in the Open, Intermediate Open, Limited Open, and Rookie Professional and it was Carol Metcalf aboard Mister Smarts that emerged with a high score of 73.5.

At the 2013 NRHA Futurity, Metcalf and the 5-year-old stallion (Mister Dual Pep x Cowgirls Are Smart) took home the Open Futurity Prime Time Championship. Since then, the duo has accomplished other titles and awards.

After previously capturing the Intermediate Open Slate 1 Championship, Brent Loseke and Wimps Eye Candy (Wimpys Little Step x Tejana Chic), owned by Sally Tipton, returned to earn the Intermediate Open Championship Slate 2 with a score of 72. They were also the Intermediate Open Circuit Champions.

At his very first reining in the United States, Niv-Bar AM rode Rs Twistin Nic (Nic It In The Bud x Twisters Enola Gay), owned by Randy Shepherd, to score a 73 in the Limited Open and Rookie Professional and captured the Championships in slate 2. Niv-Bar AM and the 8-year-old gelding were also the Rookie Professional Circuit Champions.

“This feels pretty good. This is my first time showing him and my first time showing in the United States,” Niv-Bar AM said. “The run felt pretty good. My horse turned pretty good and was quiet in the middle. The left circles were very good and he slowed down really nice. I was happy.”

Earning the Limited Open Circuit Championship was Massimo Tallone and This Cats Stressin (Wr This Cats Smart x Stressin), owned by Terry Ranch.

Limited Open Circuit Champion Massimo Tallone and This Cats Stressin

Non Pro Slates 1 and 2

With 28 competitors entered, it was Lindsey McCutcheon and Mega Watt Shine who took the lead in the first slate of the Non Pro as the sixth draw with a score of 142.

“We were really just using this as a schooling class but we were really happy that we ended up winning it,” McCutcheon said. “My horse was actually better than I expected so I’m super happy. My dad showed him in the Open and I took him over in the Non Pro. He is the same every time I show him and he’s so easy, he just does his job and he’s the best horse I’ve ever had to show.”

McCutcheon and Mega Watt Shine (Marthas Mega Jac x Bella Della) won a $1,122 paycheck for her parents Scott and Kathleen McCutcheon. They also received a Lawson Trophy, Monogrammed Captain Chair, $50 Cowboy Couture Gift Certificate, and a Thomas Moore Tote with a Gift Certificate.

In the Non Pro Slate 2, sponsored by Hilldale Farm it was again Lindsey McCutcheon and Mega Watt Shine They scored a 71.5 for the second slate and also claimed the Non Pro Circuit Championship Benchmark Buckle.

“This has been good, surprising and great actually! I’ve been running around giving out free prizes for Non Pro Day so I really had no idea what was happening in this class at all, but I’m excited!” McCutcheon said about winning another title. “I think my horse was a little bit confused because the arena is a little different and he was a little perkier this time but once we started doing everything he was good.

“This has been a great week,” she added. “The weather has been good for the most part, even though today has been a little bit cold, but everything’s been good. I’m super happy with the entire show and the way it’s gone. It’s been really good for me so I’m very happy about that.”

Intermediate & Limited Non Pro Slate 1

After finishing Reserve in the Non Pro Freestyle Reining at the All American Quarter Horse Congress, Reed Kyle and Zins Smart Wrangler showed up to the SWRHA Futurity and Show and snatched up a win. As the 17th to go in the first slate of the Intermediate Non Pro, the duo scored a 141 to take home the Championship.

“He’s been really good, just a really honest horse,” Kyle said. “He went in there and was nice and quiet and did everything I asked so it was a great run. He is just a really laid back horse. He doesn’t really have a care in the world and just fun to ride everyday. He never really puts up a fight, it’s more of me just getting out of his way than anything.”

Reed and Zins Smart Wrangler (Starlights Wrangler x Smart Rowdy Lady) garnered a $544 paycheck for owner Tamra Kyle. They also received a Morrison Trophy, Monogrammed Captain Chair, $50 Cowboy Couture Gift Certificate, and a Thomas Moore Tote with a Gift Certificate.

In the Limited Non Pro, it was draw No. 24 that had the sweet spot. Sabrina Pickett and Lil Ruf Rhinestone jumped into the lead with a score of 140 but had to wait until the remaining four competitors performed. At the end of the class, their score had successfully held and they earned the Limited Non Pro Championship.

“I had a great ride so that was a big deal to me,” Pickett said. “I actually had the most fabulous ride I’ve ever had, I just need to go a little faster, but he was awesome. He was always there. I couldn’t ask for a better ride really. He’s just so much fun and he’s taught me a lot.”

Pickett and Lil Ruf Rhinestone (Lil Ruf Peppy x Lucy McGillicutty) garnered a $115 paycheck along with a Pewter Trophy, Monogrammed Captain Chair, $50 Cowboy Couture Gift Certificate, and a Thomas Moore Tote with a Gift Certificate.

Intermediate and Limited Non Pro Slate 2

Sarayah Voorhees and Shirley Your A Tag (Whiz N Tag Chex x Pines BH) went into the arena in the Non Pro just wanting to push her mare to see what she could do. They ended up scoring a 71 and took the lead in the Intermediate and Limited Non Pro. However coming in as the last draw, Sabrina Pickett piloted Lil Ruf Rhinestone (Lil Ruf Peppy x Lucy McGillicutty) to also score a 71. They decided not to run-off for the title and agreed to be Co-Champions.

“My mare was really good for me,” Voorhees said. “We schooled most of the week because I knew I wanted to run her in this class but we only came for the second half of the show. I went in and my trainer Trey Pool told me I could let her run and see how she was, and she was great for me. She’s actually up for sale so this is probably one of the last shows I’ll get out of her so I just knew I wanted to try everything I could to show off what I knew she was good at. I actually started reining in January and she’s the first reiner I’ve ever had so we’ve kind of grown together and learned a lot, but she’s been a great horse.”

“I knew my horse was really, really tired,” Pickett said about Lil Ruf Rhinestone. “This was his first long show so he was super tired but I pushed as much as I could and he did great. I just tried to think through every step that I did. I’m really working hard on my showing so just step by step and keep my head up and those things. But he is just an awesome horse and he gives me everything all the time.”

Voorhees and Pickett each received a Pewter Trophy, Monogrammed Captain Chair, $50 Cowboy Couture Gift Certificate, and a Thomas Moore Tote with a Gift Certificate.

Pickett also received the Liz Haverty Memorial award, which goes to the overall highpoint Non Pro.

Rookie Level 2 & Rookie Primetime Slate 1

There were 44 competitors in first slate of Rookie Levels 2, 1 and Prime Time, and they all wanted to earn a Championship. In Rookie Level 2, sponsored by Danny and Matt Anderson, Cherie Bugg and A Girls Best Friend (Like A Diamond x Sugs Amber Cat) scored a 71.5 to earn the Rookie Level 2. That was also good to top the Rookie Prime Time sponsored by Double F Ranch.

“This feels excellent! My goal was just to make a 70 and I marked a 71.5 and that’s the best I’ve ever done,” Bugg said. “He’s 13 years old and I’ve had him for about four years. He’s just a great horse and he took care of me today for sure. He went out there and did super spins and everything was so great.”

Rookie Level 2 & Rookie Primetime Slate 2

In the second slate of NRHA classes, it was Susan Meyer and Wimpys Little Jay (Wimpys Little Step x Doe Rey Rooster) who claimed the Rookie Level 2 Championship, sponsored by Danny and Matt Anderson, and the Prime Time Championship sponsored by Double F Ranch.

“Eddy” was really good this morning,” Meyer said about Wimpys Little Jay. “He was nice and calm and slow in his turns but he ran down to his stops really well. I’m real proud of him. He was my first reining horse. I bought him when I didn’t know anything about reining. He’s been a very good horse and we call him Eddy because he is a steady Eddy. I’m really proud to own him.

“Jared Leclair is my trainer and he tells me to keep my hands straight, keep my heels down and make smooth and pretty rundowns and all those kind of things, so that’s what I was thinking in the arena,” she said. “I appreciate the SWRHA very much for hosting this show and I enjoyed myself very much.”

Rookie Level 1 Slates 1 and 2

McKinnon Larcombe and Nu Model Mercedes (Cromed Out Mercedes x Roxana Chex) won the Rookie Level 1 sponsored by Ron Thompson Reining in the first slate of classes with a score of 71.

“This is a bit of a surprise actually. I didn’t think I was going to go in there and come out winning it. I was just hoping to have an easy clean run, so I’m very surprised,” McKinnon said. “She turned pretty well, I think I had an over turn penalty, and in the circles she was just calm and I basically sat there and piloted her.

“She is owned by Mick and Sonya Taylor and I have been riding her just to get some nice runs on her and hopefully next year my dad [Martin Larcombe] will be able to show her at the NRBC so its kind of cool riding a homebred horse,” she added. “She is also a full sister to the SWRHA Non Pro Futurity Level 1 Champion My Nu Mercedes Rox.”

The next day was a repeat performance as McKinnon captured the second slate Rookie Level 1 Championship, sponsored by First Bank and Trust with a score of 71.5.

“She was really good for me today and now I know she’s a really consistent horse and you can go out there and have fun on her,” Larcombe said. “I wanted her to keep her energy because I knew yesterday I had to kick her a little bit but today she was really good. I just went out there with the same thought in mind just to sit there and let her do her job and pilot her the best I could. I did and it worked out again.

Larcombe also won the High Point Rookie 1 Benchmark buckle for the circuit. “One of my goals was to come out here and either win a class or win the circuit buckle and we checked them all off. It’s been very exciting,” she added. “I knew the mare could do it, it was just if I could pilot her to a good score. I’ve learned a lot from this show with showing that mare and my youth horse. I just need to have patience with them. Sometimes they don’t do the thing you want them to do and you go back in the show pen after you worked on it and it comes together. I really want to thank Mick and Sonya Taylor for letting me show her.”

Green Reiner Level 1 and 2

In the slate 1 Green Reiner, Emily Cooper rode Olenas Chocolatechic (Cholcolate Chic Olena x My Topsail Gal) to the winner’s circle. With a score of 71, the duo earned the Green Reiner Level 2 and 1 Championships. First National Bank of Ardmore sponsored the Green Reiner Level 2, and Greg Hall sponsored Green Reiner Level 1.

Cooper and the 5-year-old mare, owned by Craig Cooper, garnered a total of $148 and like the other two champions, received Award Plaques, Monogrammed Captain Chairs, $50 Cowboy Couture Gift Certificates, and Thomas Moore Totes with Gift Certificates.

The next morning it was time for the second Green Reiner slate and a score of 71 and was marked by two horse-and-rider teams; Brittany Putman riding JB Habanero Whiz (Conquistador Whiz x Freckles Red Pepper) and Carlee McCutcheon aboard Shiny Enterprise (Smart And Shiny x Mr Royal Enterprise). The two happily decided to split the title to be the Green Reiner Levels 2 and 1 Co-Champions.

“It’s really exciting. The plan was to kind of go slow with him so I just wanted to take it nice and slow and then plus the stops and that’s kind of what happened. I was happy with it. He’s an awesome horse and he’s one of my favorite horses I’ve ever ridden,” Putman said adding that she wanted to thank Kathy McCutcheon and the SWRHA for the show.

“I used to take care of Carlee [McCutcheon] at the horse shows and at home I would go with them to all the shows,” Putman added. “I was a horse show nanny for about four years from when she was 2 through 6 years old, so this was really fun. I wouldn’t want to tie with anyone else and it’s her birthday.”

“This was fun. I’ve really never won anything this high of a level before. I just came out of the short stirrup and the youth,” McCutcheon said. “She’s really fun to ride. She’s really good and she understands what I’m asking. My brother [Cade McCutcheon] rode her before me and my mom [Mandy McCutcheon] would show her too, so we’ve had her for a long time.”

Putman and McCutcheon split the awards, which included an Award Plaque, Monogrammed Chair, $50 Cowboy Couture Certificate, and a Thomas Moore Tote with a $20 Gift Certificate.

Youth 14-18 Slate 2

When Emmy-Lu Marsh and Who Whiz Who (Who Whiz It x Roosters Roan Chexx) competed in the first slate of the Youth 14-18, she only had 15 minutes to warm up her horse before they went in the arena, which didn’t really affect the duo because they took home the title. In the second slate, she arrived with plenty of prep time and once again earned the Youth 14-18 Championship, sponsored by Bud Lyon.

“This is great! I was not expecting this. I’m going to put these awards in my trophy case!” Marsh said. “Our run was better today. I think his spins were better and I ran down to his stops a little bit more because I had more time to prepare this round. Stopping and spinning are his best maneuvers, but he is pretty good all around.”

Along with describing Who Whiz Who’s assets, Marsh also mentioned that the stallion only had one eye.

“He was two when he lost his eye and I got him two years ago. He's just the same as the other horses because he has never known anything different," she said. "Last year, we won the AQHA 13 & Under Reserve World and we've been just kind of going slow. I've been trying to bring him up to 14-18 because it's bigger and we've been doing pretty good."

Green Reiner Levels 2 and 1 [2] Co-Champions Brittany Putman on JB Habanero Whiz & Carlee McCutcheon on Shiny Enterprise

Youth 13 & Under Slates 1 and 2

With a ride that she dedicated to her Grandfather who recently passed away last week, Madison Gustin rode Guns R Spooky (Smart Spook x Berry Yer Guns) in the Youth 13 & Under with intentions of making the ride memorable. She accomplished that when she scored a 70.5 and claimed the win. The duo also earned the Youth 13 & Under Circuit Championship.

Youth 13 & Under Circuit Champions Madison Gustin & Guns R Spooky

"This feels amazing. I am so happy with my horse," Gustin said after picking up her awards. "We had a really good run and I'm so proud of him. I honestly think it was our best run yet. We call him Avatar in the barn because he has one blue eye. He is a goofball and gets into everything. But I've had him for about six months now and it's just been amazing. He's the best horse I've ever had and I'm so blessed to have him in my life."

In the second slate, held October 25, Raeanna Thayn and Nics Wimpy (Wimpys Little Step x Nics Whiz) set the stage for their 13 & Under competitors by scoring a 71.5, which held through to the end of the class.

According to the National Reining Horse Youth Association as of October, Thayn and Nics Wimpy, owned by Robert and Robbin Thayn, are No. 5 in the 2015 Top Ten Youth 13 & Under. Thayn and Nics Wimpy took Reserve in the Short Stirrup at the High Roller Reining Classic this year.

The 13 & Under class was sponsored by Massignon Performance Horses.

Thayne and Nics Wimpy garnered a $48 paycheck along with an Award Plaque, Monogrammed Captain Chair, $50 Cowboy Couture Gift Certificate, and a Thomas Moore Tote with a Gift Certificate.

10 & Under Short Stirrup

Raeanna Thayn and Codes Electric Heir won both slates of Short Stirrup competition, with identical scores of 71 aboard Codes Electric Heir (Electric Code x Dunits Reining Heir). Thayn and all the entries received prizes from Kim Ferguson, Richard Pokluda, Jody Brainard, and Equine Promotion. Raeanna's parents, Robert and Robbin Thayn, own the 4-year-old gelding.

The duo also captured the 10 & Under Short Stirrup Circuit Championship Benchmark buckle.

Ride and Slide

Another chance for Non Pros to get in the saddle and in the arena, the Ride and Slide Non Pro Level 1 was a perfect fit for Stacy Adams and Conquistadordaydream. The duo marked a 69 to take home their first Championship in the first slate.

"It felt good. It's the first time I've ever won anything. I always go to the center and stop and wait and this time I just got to the center and went straight into it and that seemed to help. There are still a little nerves but I had a great time. It's been a great show so far and I'm looking forward to it."

Adams and Conquistadordaydream garnered a $43 paycheck and received an Award Plaque, Monogrammed Captain Chair, and a $25 Cowboy Couture Gift Certificate.

In the second slate of the Ride and Slide Non Pro, it was Jessie Nance and Dun Lost My Gun who took both the Championship and the Circuit Championship.

"This feels awesome!" Nance said about her win. "This is my first time riding this horse at a show. My trainer has a customer and he let me borrow this fabulous horse and said go have some fun and it's worked out pretty well. Well I was really nervous and I was told to just try and ride really aggressive and just be precise and pay attention, relax and have fun. It worked out and it was great!"

Nance and Dun Lost My Gun earned a $45 paycheck along with an Award Plaque, Monogrammed Captain Chair and a $25 Cowboy Couture Gift Certificate.

Leclair aboard SDP Gold Bullion, and Sebastian Petroll who rode Nu Magnum Cash. Both competitors had a score of 72.5.

"Today he was really easy to show. He's real pretty going around and that helps a lot, and he's a big turner and a big stopper," Leclair said about SDP Gold Bullion (RC Fancy Step x SDP Debbys Dream x Dual Rey), owned by Robert and Robbin Thayne. "He's been kind of a late maturing horse and we decided to show him in the Novice Horse this year and qualify him for the affiliate shows."

Petroll and Nu Magnum Cash (Nu Chex To Cash x Dream It Magnum x Magnum Chic Dream), owned by Larry Barker, competed earlier this year at the Prairie Classic in the Open Reining and earned 21 points to qualify for the AQHA World Show. Both competitors garnered an $845.64 paycheck and flipped for the prizes, which included a Pewter Trophy, Monogrammed Captain Chair, $50 Cowboy Couture Gift Certificate, and a Thomas Moore Tote with a $20 Gift Certificate.

In the second slate, there were 76 horse-and-rider teams but the sweet spot seemed to be earlier in the draws. Casey Deary and Magnum Starlights (Magnum Chic Dream x Starlights Sugarwhiz) were the tenth pair to enter the arena and scored a 73.5 to take the lead.

Jared Leclair

Casey Deary

"He's a horse that I won the Vegas Futurity on last year. He won the go-round this year at the NRBC and finished fifth there," Deary said about some of the 4-year-old stallion's accomplishments. "He's going to the AQHA World Show and so I just brought him here to school and he felt really good. He's a very talented horse and the maneuvers that he does, he does really well."

Deary and Magnum Starlights garnered a $447 paycheck for owner Antler Ridge Ranch. They also received a Pewter Trophy, Monogrammed Captain Chair, $50 Cowboy Couture Gift Certificate, and a Thomas Moore Tote with a $20 Gift Certificate.

pionship was Jared Leclair and SDP Gold Bullion (RC Fancy Step x SDP Debbys Dream), owned by Robert and Robbin Thayn. They received a Custom Buckle.

“It’s really nice that the SWRHA does this and does the circuit awards,” Leclair said. “I’m just fortunate enough to get one today.”

Novice Horse Open Level 1

In the first slate of classes, Thiago Boechat took home the Novice Horse Open Level 1 Championship with a score of 74 aboard Wimpys Little Nite (Wimpys Little Step x Dun It By Chick x Hollywood Dun It). The duo earned $1,176.11 for owner Xtra Quarter Horses, LLC.

In the second slate, Trent Harvey and A Chexy Lady (Gunners Special Nite x Nu Chexy) scored a 74 to earn the Championship.

“It was real good,” Harvey said about the win. “We just wanted to go in there to see what would happen before I went to the NRHA Futurity with her and obviously a 74 is a good feeling going into the Futurity. So hopefully I can repeat it two more times at the Futurity and go to the finals.”

Harvey and A Chexy Lady, owned by Dave Roberts, won $455 and received a Pewter Trophy, Monogrammed Captain Chair, $50 Cowboy Couture Gift Certificate, and a Thomas Moore Tote with a Gift Certificate.

Staying consistent for two days in a row to earn the Novice Horse Open Level 1 Circuit Championship was Jimmy Van Der Hoeven and Reyba McEntire (Play Dual Rey x Bueno Cuervo Gold), owned by Casey and Kathy Hinton. The duo received a Benchmark Custom Buckle for their win.

“It’s always nice to have horses that do well,” Van Der Hoeven said. “She was really good. This is the second time I’ve shown him and the second time one handed, the first time was the first round of this class. She listened and was really good.

“I think it’s always nice to get prizes,” he added. “... for owners as well because they see their horses do well, and they’ve put a lot of time and effort in just as well as the trainers do so it’s great for them to get a reward, too.

Intermediate & Limited Open Slate 1

They say you “save the best for last” and although Brent Loseke wasn’t the very last competitor, he was draw No. 31 out of 32 horse-and-rider teams and took the lead aboard Wimps Eye Candy (Wimpys Little Step x Tejana Chic) with a score of 72.5.

“This is a great day!” Loseke said as he picked up his awards. “I was happy with her all the way through her run. I thought she did every maneuver really nice and she didn’t get upset and she didn’t get nervous, she just let me show her. It was fun. I was happy when I came out and no matter what the score would’ve been I would’ve been happy with her.”

Loseke and the 5-year-old mare garnered a $543 paycheck for owner Sally Tipton, and also received a Morrison Trophy, Monogrammed Captain Chair, $50 Cowboy Couture Gift Certificate, and a Thomas Moore Tote with a Gift Certificate.

As the 17th draw in the class, Massimo Tallone steered This Cats Stressin (Wr This Cats Smart x Stressin) straight to the winner’s circle in the Limited Open and Rookie Professional when they scored a 72.

“It’s only been a month that I’ve been riding this horse,” Tallone said about This Cats Stressin. “This was the first time that I’ve shown him so I didn’t really know what to expect from him. He’s a really nice horse and I feel like this is just going to be the beginning for him. He’s going to get better and better and we will see what the future holds for us.”

Tallone and the 5-year-old stallion, owned by Terry Ranch, earned a paycheck worth a total of $415 along with a Pewter Trophy, Award Plaque, two Monogrammed Captain Chairs, two $50 Cowboy Couture Gift Certificates, and two Thomas Moore Totes with a Gift Certificate.

Novice Horse Non Pro

In the first slate of Novice Horse Non Pro Level 2 Sherry Sumpter and This Guns The Won (Gunners Indian x Spin Some Magic) took the lead with a score of 72 despite her nerves.

“I was nervous before I went in because it’s been a long time since I’ve shown, but this feels amazing. It was a lot of fun,”

Sumpter said. “Everything worked out as planned today, believe it or not. I was a little bit worried about my turn to the left but everything worked and we didn’t have any penalties. We really just wanted to see where we were at because we want to do the derbies next year. Now we know what to work on.”

Sumpter thanked her trainer Sam Smith. Smith and Sumpter have worked together before when they were both living in Ohio.

“Next year is going to be a lot of fun!” She added.

Sumpter and the 4-year-old gelding that she co-owns with her stepdaughter Ginger Dwyer, garnered a $587 paycheck and also received a Pewter Trophy, Monogrammed Captain Chair, $50 Cowboy Couture Gift Certificate, and a Thomas Moore Tote with a Gift Certificate.

Then they returned in the second slate to once again claim the top spot, this time with a score of 73. They were also the Novice Horse Non Pro Level 2 Circuit Champions and received a Benchmark Custom Buckle.

Novice Horse Non Pro Level 1

Capturing the Slate 1 Novice Horse Non Pro Level 1 Championship was Glenda Parks aboard Dun Its Red Berry (Hollywood Dun It x Great Red Berry) with a score of 71. Parks was especially grateful for this win because it was everything she had been working for.

“This is our first big win and it feels wonderful. I’ve been working a long time for this,” Parks said during an emotional interview. “He [Dun Its Red Berry] warmed up really good to the point that I was worried because he was so good in the makeup pen. But we went in and he just stood in the middle and then turned good and circled great. I kind of bobbed on my stops. My horse was there, I was just a little behind but he took care of me.”

Parks and the 6-year-old gelding, owned by Glenda’s husband Gary, also finished fourth in the Level 2. In total, they earned a $490 paycheck along with an Award Plaque, Monogrammed Captain Chair, $50 Cowboy Couture Gift Certificate, and a Thomas Moore Tote with a Gift Certificate.

In the second slate, top honors in the Novice Horse Non Pro Level 1 went to Lynda Weaver and Spooks Got Game (Spooks Gotta Gun x Chics Wicked Whitch) for a score of 72.5. The duo also placed second in Level 2 and, in total, garnered a $357 paycheck. Weaver and the 5-year-old stallion, owned by Belar Farms, also received an Award Plaque, Monogrammed Captain Chair, $50 Cowboy Couture Gift Certificate, and a Thomas Moore Tote with a Gift Certificate.

Jessica Keller and Shiney Duchess (Shining Spark x Starlight O Lena) claimed the Novice Horse Non Pro Circuit Championship by placing consistently in both slate one and slate two. Keller and the 6-year-old mare, owned by Hilldale Farm, received a Benchmark Custom Buckle.

SABRINA PICKETT RECEIVES LIZ HAVERTY MEMORIAL AWARD

Attendees at the SWRHA Futurity and Show had an opportunity to see the Liz Haverty Memorial Trophy, displayed there to commemorate the creation of the Liz Haverty Non Pro High Point Award at the show.

Created in memory of a much-loved member of the reining community who passed away early in 2014, the award honors Liz Haverty’s passion for the industry. She and her husband Clint Haverty, owned and operated Haverty Ranch in Krum, Texas for 34 years where they raised many world champions in various breeds and NRHA champions.

The trophy, which was created by Marrita Black, is named “Unlimited” and commemorates Liz and Who Whiz It. It is inscribed with the following:

*Everyone is born with unlimited potential
Perseverance can make the impossible possible
So stick to the fight when hardest hit and
When things go wrong, never quit.

The first-ever recipient of the award was Sabrina Pickett. She received a special plaque and Clint Haverty Handmade Headstall.

EMMY-LU MARSH WINS FIRST-EVER CARLA CLAY AWARD

The SWRHA debuted the Carla Clay Award at the 2015 SWRHA Futurity. The award to the High Point Youth was created in honor of former SWRHA Board member Carla Clay, who passed away in 2013 from complications from pneumonia.

Carla’s life’s devotion was working with horses and she trained and showed reining horses throughout the U.S. Her honesty and dedication was evident to all who knew her and she helped many people find the way to understand and enjoy their horses and was especially supportive of youth riders. Fittingly, the award created in her honor is one for youth. The high point youth of the SWRHA Futurity Show and first-ever Carla Clay Memorial Award recipient was Emmy-Lu Marsh and she received a special buckle and plaque for the award.

€150,000 NRHA BREEDERS FUTURITY IN KREUTH, GERMANY

Cody Sapergia & Made In Walla win Breeders Futurity Open

The Bit Futurity Open and Non Pro finals were the last classes and the highlight of the 2015 NRHA Breeders Futurity. The NRHA Breeders Futurity Open Bit Championship was once again claimed by a horse owned by Sabine Liseck and Chuck Klipfel (KL Performance Horses, Austria): Made In Walla (Walla Walla Whiz x Hollywood Made). And like in 2014, this horse was ridden by NRHA Million Dollar Rider and 2007 Canadian Trainer of the Year Cody Sapergia. The 4-year-old gelding with whom Sapergia was 2015 NRHA European Futurity Champion had already won both go-rounds and scored a 224 after a brilliant final run.

"I'm very happy with Made in Walla," said Cody afterwards. "He is a great horse, and he is getting better with each run. He is now going back to his owners whose daughter Anna will show him next year. Made in Walla was bred by Ambrosini QH and was trained by Cody Sapergia since he was a 3-year-old

The Reserve Champion title went to past NRHA World Champion Ann Fonck-Poels aboard Spook N Perla (Smart Spook x Shine On Ruff) who scored a 223.5 after a great run. The mare was bred and is owned by Golden Paint Ranch.

Ann Fonck-Poels, who trains together with her husband Bernard at 23 Quarter Horses in Italy, has NRHA LTE of over $275,000. In 2010, she claimed a silver medal with the Belgian team at the WEG in Kentucky. She is an NRHA European Derby Champion, multiple Bronze Trophy Champion and Belgian Futurity Champion.

Mirko Midili claims Ltd. Open Championship

The winner of the Ltd. Open Bit Futurity was Mirko Midili aboard Claudio Rizzo's stallion RS Starfighter Lena (Spat Olena x RS Cheery Miss Jac) who scored a 215.5. Oliver Stein and the Paint stallion Icegun (I Cee Diamonds x Miss Sum Of A Gunner) placed second for owner Ira-Marie Hubert (213.5). RS Starfighter Lena who was bred by Claudio Riso, was 2014 NRHA Breeders Futurity Finalist SBH Open with Gennaro Lendi in the saddle.

NRHA Non Pro Co-Champions: Gina Schumacher and Manuel Bonzano

The Non Pro Bit final ended with a tie for first place between past NRHA World Champion Non Pro Manuel Bonzano aboard Big Fat ((Big Chex To Cash x ARC Seniorita Cal Bar) and Gina Schumacher aboard Star Bleach (Star Spangled Whiz x Snappy Bleach) who had already been leading after both go rounds. In the final, Gina and Manuel scored a 217.5 each. They decided against a run-off in favor of their horses and became Co-Champions in the Non Pro Bit. This was also the Ltd. Non Pro Futurity Championship for Gina Schumacher.

“I am so happy – I don’t know what to say,” she said. “This was only our second show and Star Bleach was simply great. He was with me all the time and gave his best for me – from the go rounds to the final.”

The Schumacher family bought the stallion who was bred by Elisabetta Raviola as a yearling. The horse was trained by Shauna Larcombe. Gina Schumacher showed him for the first time at the 2015 NRHA European Futurity becoming Reserve Champion Non Pro L4. For 18-year-old Gina, the Breeders Futurity Co-Championship was another fine success in a great season which included individual gold at the FEI European Championship Junior division and the Austrian Maturity Championship Non Pro L4.

Manuel Bonzano’s stallion Big Fat was bred by Alberto Zaffi. Manuel rode him to 8th place at the 2015 NRHA European Futurity Level 4 Non Pro. Bonzano was 2012 and 2013 NRHA World Champion Non Pro with his stallion Great Sun Burst. He is a multiple Bronze Trophy and Futurity Champion and already won the Breeders Futurity Non Pro Bit in 2011 and 2013.

Elena Kompatscher and Jac Little Step placed third in Non Pro Bit and were Reserve Champion Ltd. Non Pro scoring a 215. The gelding who is bred by Luigi Parise is by Wimpys Little Step out of Donnola Chex. The two were a 2015 NRHA European Non Pro Finalist.

Dominik Reminder & Sliding To The Top becomes Open Futurity Champion, Marina Becker & MJ Heavens Nite win Non Pro

A most exciting final of the SBH Futurity Open finished last week at Kreuth. The best riders of the go round were the ones to claim the Champion and Reserve Champion title. Scoring a brilliant 226, Dominik Reminder rode Sliding To The Top (Gunnars Special Nite x Dos Coronas) to Open Champion honors for owner Luga Quarter Horses. Grischa Ludwig and his flashy palomino stallion Shine N

Step (Wimpys Little Step x Shiney Sparks) became Reserve Champion – the score: 223.5.

Dominik Reminder, who had his first riding lessons with Alex Ripper, was 2005 German Champion Reining Junior Division. As a Non Pro, he won the NRHA Breeders Derby and the European Derby. In 2013, he started riding in the Open becoming NRHA Reserve World Champion Open. Today he is working as a professional trainer in Italy.

Nina Lill wins SBH Ltd. Open Futurity

In the Limited Open, the championship was claimed by Nina Lill and GP Explosivemercedes, a 3-year-old stallion by Cromed Out Mercedes out of I Am Chexsplosive, who was bred by Marleen Dyck and is owned by Nina’s mother Kerstin Lill. The two received a 223 for their fine run. Nina Lill is a multiple NRHA Bronze Trophy Champion, FEI European Champion (team and individual), NRHA Breeders Derby Champion and was fourth with the German team at the 2014 WEG.

The Reserve Ltd. Open Championship went to Arnaud Girinon aboard Hannes Kirchberger’s Star Shining Lady (Star Spangled Whiz x GH Readskin Lady) with a 220.

Marina Becker and MJ Heavens Nite claim NRHA Breeders Futurity Non Pro

Marina Becker and her 3-year-old gelding MJ Heavens Nite (Gunnars Special Nite x Gallo Del Blanco) won the NRHA Breeders Futurity SBH Non Pro scoring a brilliant 220. The two had already taken the lead after the go round and were the last to go in the final. Excellent speed control, fast turns and three beautiful stops – this was obviously the top ride of this field of 19. Marina who was the 2014 NRHA Breeders Futurity SBH Non Pro Co-Reserve Champion and started the 2015 season winning the NRHA European Futurity Non Pro, was Austrian RHA Futurity Champion L4 Non Pro with MJ Heavens Nite this year.

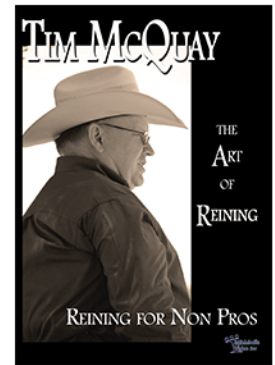

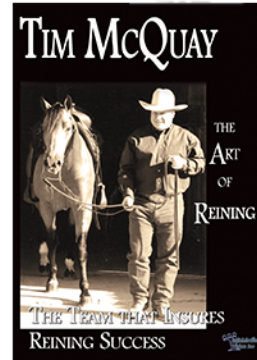

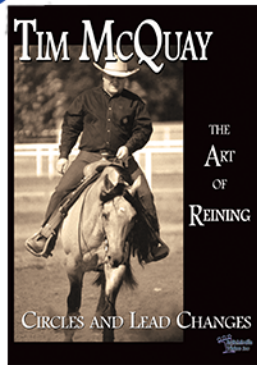

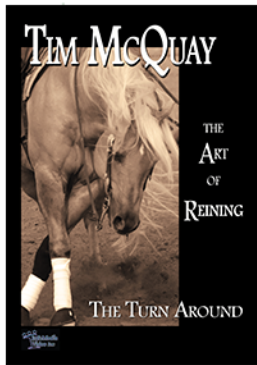

Past NRHA World Champion Non Pro and multiple Futurity Champion Manuel Bonzano and his mare Dealin The Cash (Big Chex to Cash x Raise The Dealer) became Reserve Champion earning a 218 for their fine run. The two had already been 2015 Pre-Futurity Reserve Champion Non Pro at the NRHA European Derby in Manerbio.

Claudio Riso wins Ltd. Non Pro Futurity

Multiple Futurity Champion and multiple NRHA Germany Breeders Award Winner Claudi Riso and his bay mare RS Blue Link (Spat a Blue x RS Linkwood Jac) placed third in the Non Pro scoring a 216.5 which was also the Ltd. Non Pro Championship. Claudio was the only Non Pro who had two horses in the finals (his second horse RS Spot Olena placed third in Ltd. Non Pro and fifth in the Non Pro.

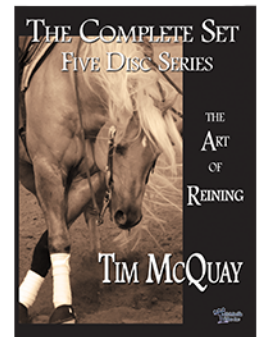

The Ltd. Non Pro Reserve Championship was earned by Jan Tobias Kock and QT Red N Run (Dun It On The QT x Moms Little Ruffian), who scored 215.5.
