HIGH ROLLER REINING CLASSIC

Jordan Larson wins Lucas Oil Open Derby on Electrnicki

They'll be talking about this show and this Derby for a very long time. It started with a set of very high scores early in the game. Casey Deary posted a 228 with Magnum Starlights and Craig Schmersal on Redhot Walla matched it. Within an hour or so there was something like a fever running through the warm-up. The runs become stronger, faster, better and soon there were some penalties as well, because nobody ... absolutely nobody, was playing it safe anymore.

When Mike Boyle was asked what he thought about the abandon that seemed to be seizing the riders and he said, "It's like being a Gladiator out there now. You go out and ask for everything. You either win or die."

The great rides and the incredible scores just kept piling up. By 4:30 just watching the show was exhausting. When Andrea Fappani and SG Frozen Enterprize galloped down the chute everybody hurried up to watch. "The Iceman" was perfection, a magnificent horse working with a master trainer on a great day. They posted a 230; the score of a lifetime.

Draw 65 was called and Jordan Larson on Electrnicki, still hyped from the incredible energy of the day, came blasting into the South Point Arena and right into the history books. And when the dust settled and the crowd stopped screaming the team had posted a 232 for owner Veronica Lentini. Extraordinary what horses and men are capable of accomplishing when everything they've got is brought to the table. Even with fifteen placements for the money in the Lucas Oil Open Derby Level 4 Aged Event, it took a score of 224 just to get in the money. Over 50% of the scores for the day were 220 or better. "It's not only the best reining I have ever seen, it's the best one I've ever even heard of," said one very tired rider as he left the in gate area.

Tim McQuay and Guns R For Shootin scored a 226 to win the Level 3 Intermediate Open. Dan Huss and Ms Dreamy were second with a 224. Trey Pool won the Level 2 Limited Open with Pick N Berries with a score of 223.5. Randy Paul and Chicks Dream About Me took Reserve with a 221.50. Arnaud Ferret on Electric Cha Ching and Saar Ben Hamo with Chexmart went one-two in the Level One Open, with scores of 220 and 219, respectively. Casey

Deary and Magnum Starlight and Craig Schmersal on Redhot Walla tied for first in the Open Level 4 Stakes, each team scoring a 228 and winning $9,403 for their hard work. John Irish won both the Open Level 2 and 3 Stakes with Reed Her Like A Lady.

As if the day hadn't offered enough, the Hudson-Valentine Longhorn Sale picked up where the the Lucas Oil Derby left off. There were 60 plus head of fabulous Longhorn Cattle auctioned, most of them females, some with adorable baby calves at side. There were drinks and a wonderful prime rib dinner and so many people jammed into the Priefert Arena that for awhile there was even a shortage of chairs. The Las Vegas High Roller Reining Classic lived up to its "High Roller" designation this year. Any one of us would be hard pressed tonight to remember another show this exciting, this memorable or this much fun.

Josh Hattig Wins Protect The Harvest Non Pro Derby on Gunners Snappy Chic

Well over a hundred Non-Pro riders had their personal moment in the Reining spotlight on the final day of the 2015 Las Vegas High Roller Reining Classic. Early leader in the Protect The Harvest Non Pro Derby, Mandy McCutcheon posted impressive scores with My Darlin Tonite

Josh Hattig & Gunners Snappy Chic

(223) and Taris Little Gunner (221.50), and even took another horse into the money, Shootin For the Stars (219.5). Still, the final highest score and top money went to Josh Hattig on Gunners Snappy Chic (224) after a terrific run at the very end of the day and within a stone's throw of the final competition.

Harper Conner and Vintage Glamour stepped up to take top honors in the Non Pro Level 2 Stakes, the Level 2 Limited Non Pro and a solid second to Josh Hattig in the Level 3 Intermediate Non Pro Aged Event. Julie Ridgeway and this summer's super star, Nu Pops won the Level 1 Non Pro Aged Event, while Shelley Brazill was second with Im Smart N Lucky. Vicki Santo and Whiz Boom Wrangle and Morris Kulmer on Chics Dream went one-two in the Masters Non Pro Derby.

For the 2015 Las Vegas High Roller Reining Classic it was not only a very successful year, it was that show's most successful presentation venue to date. The Derbys, the great sponsors, the Hudson-Valentine Sale and the Youth Team Tournament, the WPR and USET competition and so much more ... Brumley Management Group continues to set the bar higher for NRHA Reining competition around the world. Next up is the Cactus Classic at West World, Scottsdale, Arizona in March, 2016, followed by the brand new Wild Card Reining Challenge back at the South Point in Las Vegas, May 26 to 29, 2016. See you there!

Casey Deary and Shesouttaylorleague Top the Tamarack Ranch Open Futurity

In the Tamarack Ranch Open Futurity, Casey Deary started the show with the first draw and immediately set the bar high by scoring a 222.5 with Princess N Pearls. By the end of the day, Casey led the pack with the pretty Palomino Shesouttaylorleague and a score of 227.5. He was also in the money with a score of 220 on ARC Gunna Mark Ya. In all he was the ONLY Level 4 with three horses in the Top 15 and a total paycheck of over $20,000 to take home for his efforts. Late in the game, Gabe Hutchins and Cannon Gun stepped up to grab second place with a score of 226, bumping Andrea Fappani who posted a 225 with Thebet-tertohearuwith to take third, and a 220.5 with RC Fashion Chic in 8th.

Husband and wife team Sean and Jordan McBurney were also in the Top 15 and then one-two as well in the Intermediate Open Futurity. The delightful couple from Rhodes River Ranch ended the day with four in the money (two apiece) and ALL of them were Whizkey N Diamonds offspring! Perhaps most impressive was the stallion Rsure Shot Of Whizkey who came out of the show pen even stronger than he went in. A bald-faced Palomino with blue eyes and a great attitude, he walked off after a stellar work of 222, barely broke a sweat and never backed an ear. Among the first of the Whizkey N Diamonds youngsters to make a start in reining, Rsure Shot of Whizkey did well at the Reining By The Bay Show and then almost doubled his fledgling LTE at the High Roller. Brent Naylor also rode two into the Level 4 Top 15 and stood third and fourth in the Intermediate, and first and second in the Limit. He rode both Spooks Dunit and Hezza Rowdy Whiz to 219.5 scores.

Tish Fappani Wins Tamarack Ranch Non Pro Futurity on Legend Slides Wright

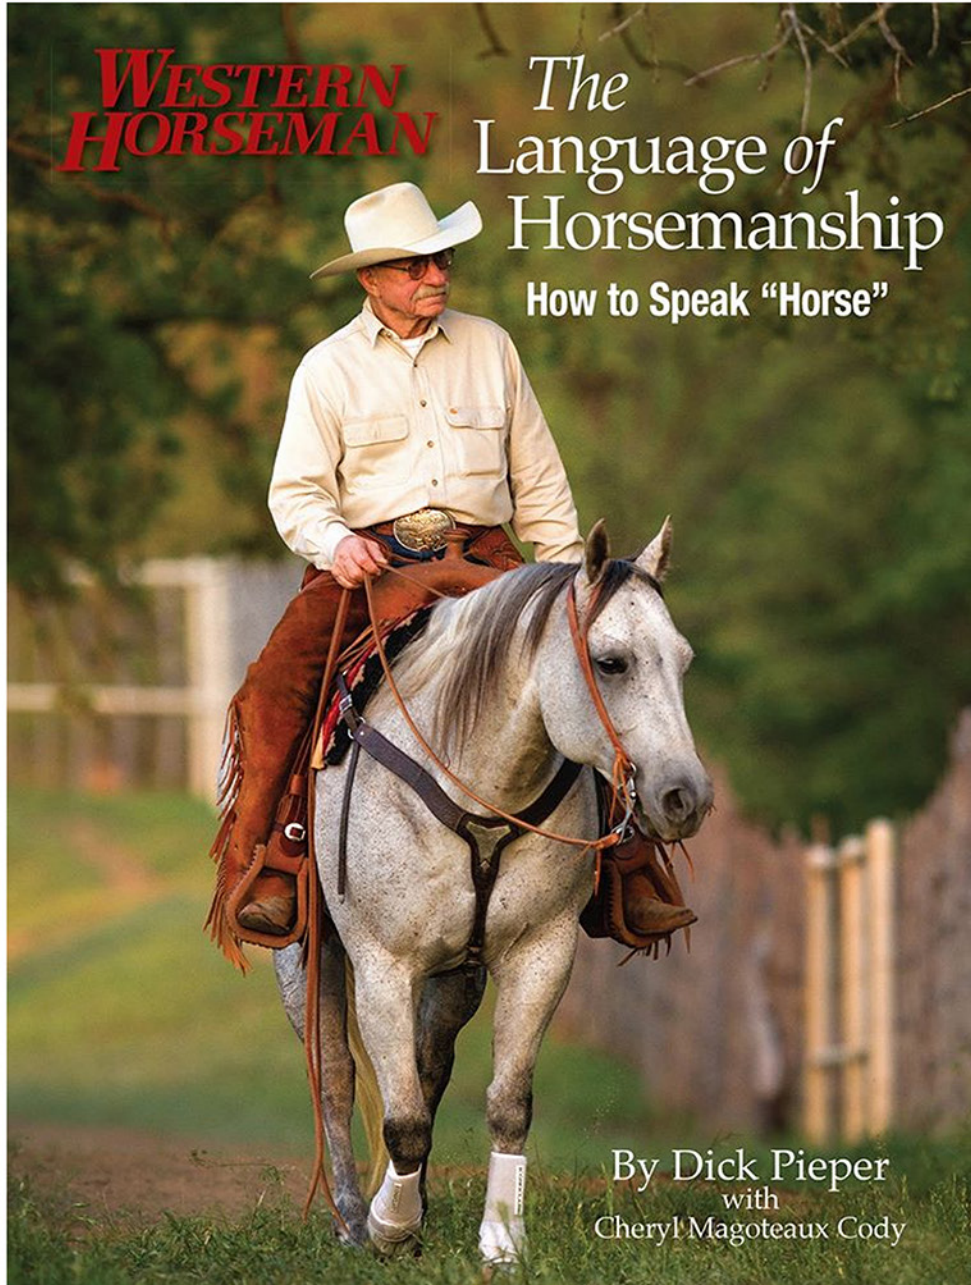

The Tamarack Ranch Non-Pro brought a big win for Tish Fappani who posted a 218.5 on Legend Slides Wright. Melanie Schuckers teamed Chromed Olena to second with a 216, which was good enough to place her first in the Int Non-Pro. Jeanne Levine and her homebred Whizen Thru The Cash were third with a 215.5, and then took second in the Int Non Pro Futurity and first in the L2 Limited Non-Pro as well as the Level 1 Non Pro. All in all a pretty terrific day for Mike Boyle's sister.

Lauren Barwick Wins Para Reining!

The Para World Reining Championships took center stage with ten competitors arriving from all over the United States, as well as Germany, Australia and Canada. Featuring riders from all disability Grade Levels, the WPR Reining Championships were inspiring beyond imagining.

The winner was Lauren Barwick of Canada, a Para Equestrian rider for the past fifteen years. An accident left Lauren paralyzed from the waist down at 22. Since then, representing Canada, she has competed in over 50 international Para Dressage competitions along with 4 World Games and 3 Paralympic Games. At the 2008 Beijing Games she came home with Gold and Silver medals and most recently, she achieved Silver and Bronze medals at the 2014 World Games in Normandy, France. The Las Vegas High Roller Reining Classic was her second show competing in Para Reining, with the first being just five months ago. Like all of the Para riders she rode a borrowed horse here at the show. In her case it was Western Whiz or "WEG" owned by WPR Founder, Lisa Coulter. Was the audience moved by the competition? Frankly, there wasn't a dry eye in the house, especially after the post-show interviews were aired on the Jumbotron. After a very long day of competition and excitement, followed by extreme emotion and inspiration, we were almost too tired to enjoy the USET competition that closed the show late evening. Almost ... but not quite.

Andrea Fappani Takes Adequan/USEF Open Reining National Championship on Custom Spook

The Adequan/USEF Open Reining National Championships were extraordinary. A competition for FEI horses, the best-of-the-best seasoned reining talent strode into the South Point Arena and kept watchers at seat's edge for one final hour. Hard fought, Andrea Fappani took the class with a brilliant run on Rancho Oso Rio's Custom Spook and posted a 229, the high score of the day. Matt Mills scored a 226 with Freckles Got Ashiner, followed by Tom McCutcheon and Dun Git A Nicaduel who scored a 223.

Youth Competition

At the end of the competition just one point separated the Gold Team winners from the Silver Team winners and only one point separated the Silver from the Bronze Team. The Arabian team on all three victorious groups was Black Jack Jerry and Paige Neufeld.

As the highest scoring Arabian horse in his breed group, he influenced his teams and made something of a difference for them. Gold Medal Team members included Dun Its Legacy with Riley Cachat (10 & Un), Reeboks Rerun with Campbell McLeod (13 & Un), West Coast Hick with Kaela Ranhoff (14-18) and Black Jack Jerry with Paige Neufeld (Arab). Silver Medal Team included Nics Wimpy with Raeanna Thayn (10 & Un), Great Grullo Pine with Kelly Carson (13 & Un), Spot Me Perfect with Courtney Yohey (14-18) and Black Jack Jerry with Paige Neufeld (Arab). The Bronze Medal Team winners were GS Red Corvette with Peyton McGowan (10 & Un), Nics Wimpy with Raeanna Thayn (13 & Un), Boomen Hale Bopp with Ashley Lynch (14-18) and Black Jack Jerry with Paige Neufeld (Arab). The Gold Medal Team members received $2,000 each in Scholarship money. Individual rider medals went to Caroline Buchanan and Lucky Cee Blair who took home a gold medallion and $3,500 in scholarship money. Silver and $2,500 went to Courtney Yohey and Imasmartlittecheese and the Bronze medal along with $1,000 went to Kate Buchanan and Vintage Neptune.

The Youth Tournament drew much attention at the show and the youngsters seemed very excited and enthusiastic about the new competition. Next Tournament leg will be at the Wild Card Reining Challenge, South Point Equestrian

Marina Becker & Walla Whiz Crome win the 3- & 4-year-old Non Pro Belgium Futurity

The Belgium Futurity came to a close with the last champions crowned on Sunday. Winning the NRHA Belgium 3&4-year-old €3,000-added Non Pro Level 4 Futurity with a 215.5 were Marina Becker & Walla Whiz Crome.

The 4-year-old stallion is by NRHA Million Dollar Sire, Walla Walla Whiz, and out of Custom Rome (by Custom Crome) and has won over $27,000 in NRHA competition. The duo had left their mark earlier in the year taking home the NRHA European Futurity L 4 Non Pro championship and did it again in Destelbergen. “Winning two prestigious titles in the first year I’m only eligible in the level 4 is incredible and once again my horse was awesome,” said the German rider.

In the €1,500-added Level 3 division, Kelly Deelen & KD Gotasparkingwhiz (Walla Walla Whiz x Parkin Crome) scored a 208.5 for the championship. “Adding this title to those won with my stallion who I bred is just amazing, especially here at the Belgium Futurity which is one of my favourite shows,” said Kelly about her mount who boasts over $15,000 in LTE.

2015 NRHA EUROPEAN DERBY & PRE-FUTURITY

The NRHA European Derby & Pre Futurity was held at the Palas-turla facility in Manerbio, Italy. A clean-slate finals included 94 entries in the €87,500-added Open Derby.

Tying to lead the go-round with a 219 were NRHA Million Dollar Rider Bernard Fonck aboard Smart N Sparkin and Giovanni Masi de Vargas riding Dance Little Spook. Bernard and his mount, owned by Seven Heaven Reining Horses, had already claimed the European Derby Open Level 4 championship in 2013. Giovanni and his ride, owned by Quarter Dream, a little less than a month ago were on the Italian gold medal team at the FEI European Reining Championship in Aachen, Germany. The duo also went on to win the individual gold!

Yet another young Italian rider, Manuel Cortesi, took the lead in both the Level 3 and 2 divisions. Cortesi, riding Paolo Muccini's MP Gun It To Go Mars, scored a 217. Two riders posted a 214.5 to lead the Level 2 division: Nicola Sergio riding Ferruccio Bucci's Ruf Little Chex and Francesco Fabbri riding his own Frizzys Blue.

Open to 4-7 year old horses, the European Derby is run in a qualifying go-round and clean-slate finals. All 4-6 year old horses must be nominated in the NRHA European Nomination Program. The second day of competition will host the Non Pro European Derby qualifying go-round.

The Facts & Figures:

Open level 4: 53 entries. Top 15 scores plus ties advance to the finals. The next 15 scores plus ties show in the Consolation. The top 3 scores plus ties from the Consolation will join the finalists. The 'bubble score' was a 215.5.

Anna Lisec and Gotalotta Cash sweep the European Non Pro Pre Futurity

Held during the NRHA European Derby, the Non Pro Pre Futurity, open to 3-year-old horses, saw Anna Lisec and Gotalotta Cash, owned by Sabine Lisec, take top honors in both the Level 4 and Level 2 divisions. Aboard the pretty mare by Big Chex To Cash and out of Gotta Lotta Grace (by Topsail Whiz), the young Austrian rider posted a 210. “I truly and honestly did not expect to win so this is twice as special,” said Anna. “Especially sweet is the fact that we’ve had her ever since she was 2. My step-father, Chuck Klipfel, rode her and the reins passed on to me in June this year. I’ve been riding and training her since, so I’m pretty proud of her!”

The reserve championship in the Level 4, a half a point behind the winners, went to Italy’s Manuel Bonzano and Dealin The Cash – yet another mare by Big Chex To Cash, but out of Raise The Dealer (by Dealin Dirty), owned by 23 QH Azienda Agricola S.S and bred by Manuel Bonzano. “This is the very first show for my mare and I’m really happy with the way she went and with the result,” said the past NRHA Non Pro World Champion.

In the Level 2 division taking the co-reserve championship was Fabio Colantoni with BF Feona In Whiz (RS Great Jac Feona x Pretty Bubbles Whiz x Topsail Whiz) and Davina Perini riding her Dualina Hope (Dualin For Me x Hope And Surprise x ARC Sparkle Surprise). Both scored a 208.

Sevenchextocash and Bernard Fonck win the European Open Pre Futurity

The 2015 NRHA European Open Pre Futurity was held on Friday morning prior to the much awaited for European Non Pro Derby finals. Draw 9 in a field of 45 horse-rider combinations, Bernard Fonck riding Sevenchextocash for owners 7 Heaven Horses set the pace with a 218. His score held until the very end and along with the gelding by Big Chex To Cash and out of Lil Chic Peppy (Lil Ruf Peppy), he was crowned 2015 NRHA European €1.125-added Pre Futurity Open Level 4 champion.

“I’ve always really liked this horse and today he was simply great,” said the NRHA Million Dollar Rider and multiple NRHA Open World Champion about his mount. “It’s wonderful to see them turn from babies to show horses, and he is truly a show horse!”

The reserve championship went to Pierluigi Fabbri. Riding GFC Surprise For Me (Dualin For Me x ARC Surprise Onstage x Surprise Enterprise), a stallion owned by Piero Pollarini, the Italian professional posted a 216. “I’ve only been riding this horse for a month and he’s always been easy, even though a little green,” he said. “I can’t wait to show him in the IRHA (Italian Reining Horse Association)

Futurity, especially after he did so well for me here.”

Winning the €750-added Level 2 championship was Andrea Bonadomane aboard Maurizio Ferrarol's Please Have A King. The stallion by Let Me Out Please and out of Dry Peppy King (by Salvatus), rode the Italian professional to a 210. “I've had this horse in training since January and he truly is an amazing horse and really kind. Because he is so gentle he will probably be shown by Maurizio's young daughter.”

The reserve championship in the Level 2 went to Italian Alberto Villani riding GD Jacs Remedy 86 (Remins Remedy x Jacs Doceta x International Jac) owned by Nicola Zambaldi. “I broke this gelding last year and this is our second show together,” said the Italian Professional who also broke Bonadomane's mount. “He's a really good horse and was very easy to train. I couldn't be any happier.”

Anna Lisec and This Wimps So Fly win the Non Pro Derby

Anna Lisec of Austria took home all four levels of the 2015 edition of the NRHA European Non Pro Derby riding the 5-year-old palomino gelding by Wimpys Little Step and out of Fly Flashy Jac owned by Sabine Lisec and Chuck Klipfel.

Draw 4 in the second section, Lisec set the bar by scoring a 219 and her score remained unbeat until the end: “It was so cool... I can't tell you how happy I am right now,” she said. “He was just amazing, he was so nice and he listened to me all the way. Not everything perfect, but he was really nice and I'm so thankful to have him.”

This Wimps So Fly, nominated by Melissa Vandorp, has close to $31,400 LTE.

Thanks to the NRHA European Nomination program, the total purse in the 2015 edition of the European Derby increased immensely and paid off €19,000 in the Level 4, €14,220 in the Level 3, €10,000 in the Level 2 and €4,640 in the Level 1.

Taking the reserve championship in the Level 4 division was Susy Baeck of Belgium and Eifel Gold Ranch Baeck's Pop Gun Cash BB. Aboard the 7-year-old palomino gelding by Nu Chex To Cash and out of Sugar Pop Gun, Susy scored a 218. The pair had already claimed the European Derby Level 4 Non Pro championship in 2013. “I'm really happy with the way this show went especially because this will be my last run with Popgun Cash,” said Baeck. “I'm little bit disappointed with myself cause I didn't ride him well to the last stop and that definitely lowered my score. In any case, I am happy with the reserve championship!”

Pop Gun Cash BB boasts close to $47,500 in NRHA competition and was nominated by Eifel Gold Ranch Baeck.

Earning the reserve championship in the Level 3, with a 212, was Tullio Mascarello with his Remin Lilly Whiz between the reins. “My horse was great for me tonight and did everything I asked her to,” said the Italian rider about the 4-year-old mare by Remin Whiz and out of Precocious Lil Chic, nominated by Daniele Mascarello. “I've had her ever since she was a yearling and my trainer, Beppe Prevosti, prepared her really well for me!”

In the Level 2 and Level 1 divisions, reserve honors went to Marie Baralon and her Chicken Sandwich. The duo scored a 214.5. The young French rider had left her mark at the NRHA European Affiliate Championship, where they took the championship in the Youth 13 & Under title, and represented France at the 2014 WEG in Caen with Ann Sophie Guerriero. The talented 7-year-old mare by Ricochet Rooster and out of Ms Sanditch Whiz was thrilled with her two titles: “I just love my mare who I've had since the beginning of this year,” said Marie. “This evening she felt really good and I knew that we could do well, even though you cannot afford to ever be distracted when you're showing! I would like to thank my parents for giving me this opportunity and my trainer, Ann Sophie Guerriero, who has always believed in me and my mare.”

The fifth edition of the NRHA European Derby & Pre Futurity will come to a close tomorrow. Europe's most successful Derby, open to 4-5-6 and 7-year-old horses, will offer the NRHA Youth, Limited and Intermediate Open classes as well as the NRHA Non Pro class.

Alfredo Ciabattoni and Dun It After The Rain win the Open Level 4, 3 and 2 European Open Derby!

Winning the NRHA European Open Derby Levels 4, 3 and 2 championships, with an impressive score of 222.5, was Alfredo Ciabattoni and Dun It After The Rain (Frozen Sailor x Pap Little Sol x Sure Slide Solano). For the Italian NRHA professional, who has been promoting the sport of Reining for the past 30 years, winning three titles with the talented 6-year-old mare, owned by Florenzo Barbonetti and nominated by Fabrizio Bevilacqua, was ‘three times’ as special. “This is the most emotional night of my life,” said Alfredo. “I truly believed that we could do it, and we did! The crowd was impressive and thanks to this little mare, I can dedicate this victory to my dad...”

Earning the reserve championship in the Level 4, with a 221, was Cira Baeck. It was thanks to Shine N Whiz, a 5-year-old stallion by Topsail Whiz and out of Spark N Pretty (by Shining Spark), owned by Chanay Sky Management, and nominated by Sandra Friesenbiller, that the Belgian professional made it to the second step of the podium. “I got this horse in training six weeks ago and I couldn’t be any happier,” she said. “He’s the sweetest horse ever, really nice, very good, and very quiet. It’s a great result for us!”

Winning the Level 3 reserve championship, with a 218, was Pierluigi Chioldo aboard Spook O Lena (Spooks Gotta Gun x Lonesome Sally Lena x Doc O Lena). The talented 6-year-old Quarter Horse mare is owned and was nominated by Ambrosini Quarter Horses ASD and Davide Rossi. “This is a once in a lifetime mare and I could not be any happier. She deserves to be in the limelight!”

The Level 2 reserve championship, with a 216, went to Francesco Barbagli aboard Smart Whiz Delmaso (Easy Otie Whiz x Playin Dress Up x Smart Chic Olena). The 7-year-old Quarter Horse stallion is owned by Stefano Scardina and boasts $21,900 LTE.

Francesco Fabbri and Junior Nics were the Level 1 Champions. With a 213.5 Francesco Fabbri and Junior Nics (Einsteins Revolution x Nics Whiz x Topsail Whiz), a

5-year-old Quarter Horse gelding owned by Francesca Simi and nominated by Prospect Breeder, took home the Level 1 championship of the NRHA European Open Derby. “This is all pretty amazing, especially considering the fact that this gelding has always been shown by his 12-year-old owner!” said Francesco who placed both of his mounts in the finals. “This is the third time that I’ve shown her and I finally made it to the winners circle. I cannot thank the owners enough for trusting me with their horse and giving me the opportunity to achieve this result.”

Earning the Level 1 co-reserve championship, a half a point behind the winner, was Sebastiano Valtorta and LTA One Chich Melody (OT Taris Melody x Keteer Sugar Chic x Sonitas Sugar Chic), a 7-year-old gelding owned by Giorgio Romanotto, and Nicola Sergio riding Ruf Little Chex (Lil Ruf Trouble x Nu Dynamite Chex x Nu Chex To Cash). Nicola’s 5-year-old Quarter Horse gelding is owned by Ferruccio Bucci and was nominated by Luigi Parise.

“This was truly a great event,” said NRHA President, Rick Clark. “It’s my first time in Italy and I cannot but compliment the team that put this event together. It’s been a great experience and I look forward to coming back to Europe to assist this great NRHA owned event.”
