JASON VANLANDINGHAM AND NOT RUF AT ALL EARN NRBC OPEN CHAMPIONSHIP

It brought the audience to its feet. With stomping boots, clapping hands, whistles, cheers, whoops and hollers, the crowd at the Great Southwest Equestrian Center cheered the 2016 National Reining Breeders Classic Open Champion into the history books on Saturday, April 24.

As draw 29 of the 30-horse finals, Jason Vanlandingham and Not Ruf At All entered the Coliseum arena. From the first stop to the last, the crowd was with them. With NRHA Futurity and Derby titles under their belt, the only leg of reining's triple crown that had eluded them was the NRBC – and this was the 6-year-old stallion's last chance.

With even the competition cheering them on, the duo rose to the occasion, marking a 231 – one of the highest scores in NRBC history. "I'm relieved, excited – there is a flood of emotions. I'm so very humbled," Vanlandingham said. "I'm thankful to have a great horse, a great family to support us, and a God that loves us. It's been an amazing day for sure."

When asked about winning all three of reining's major events, Vanlandingham gave credit to his horse, a stallion by Sparkling Vintage out of All Ruffed Up. "There aren't many that have done it. It takes a very special animal to accomplish that. You know, we've had just weird stuff happen the last couple years. With that being said, it's even more special for him to go out and take it in his last year," he said.

So after tying for this high preliminary score, was Vanlandingham feeling any pressure in the finals? He said,

"You know, Casey, Jordan and I were laughing because it was getting crazy. We knew we'd have to go in there and lay everything down, and everyone else had the same game plan, but it was working for everyone which was insane! Everyone was really good tonight and that kind of competition brings the best out in everyone and that's what you want."

The prestige of winning the NRBC is matched by the large payout and bevy of prizes the Champion receives. Along with the big check for $75,000, Vanlandingham was presented with a year's use of a four-horse trailer from Twin Cities Featherlite and Twin Cities South, a Leson Classic Saddle, a pair of Rios of Mercedes boots, a saddle pad from Yucca Flats, gift certificates to Thomas Moore Feed and Santa Cruz Biotechnology, a Gist Silversmiths buckle, and the signature NRBC blue crystal trophy.

"I thank God. He gets all the glory. Thank you to Vaughn and Justin Zimmerman for letting me ride this horse. They've been great. There have been so many people who wanted this horse and they've left him with me," he said.

Vanlandingham noted that his success is due to his family, and added, "You know, my wife Adrienne was with me before I had great horses. This business is very, very tough and she has been with me by my side the whole way. Our four kids are just as big of a part of our program as anyone else. They're out there cleanings stalls and working hard, and I am so thankful for them."

Tom McCutcheon and The Wizster finished as NRBC Open Level 4 Reserve Champions, scoring 230 to win $51,000. The Wizster, by Gallo Del Cielo out of Ms Whizard Jac, is owned by Turnabout Farm Inc., of Gloucester, Massachusetts.

The 2016 NRBC paid out $1,153,417.

Jimmy Van Der Hoeven Wins Open Level 3 Title on Chic Dreamin

It was a great day for Vaughn Zimmerman, as another of his horses, Chic Dreamin, won the Level 3 Open Championship and finished seventh in the Level 4 with trainer Jimmy Van Der Hoeven. Total earnings exceeded $40,000, and came with a saddle from Kyle Tack, gift certificates to Santa Cruz Biotechnology and Thomas Moore Feed, a Gist Silversmiths buckle, and numerous other prizes.

"It feels great to win it. The owners are really nice and are great people, so I'm happy to win for them," he said. Zimmerman purchased Chic Dreamin, by Magnum Chic Dream out of Skeets Red Dunit, as a 3-year-old. "They bought him from us, and although we had a good first show, we've had some bad luck, and they stuck with us and were patient. I really appreciate them."

Van Der Hoeven and Chic Dreamin marked a 227.5 in the finals. "He was really good. I tried to warm him up as little as possible because he gets tired easily, so I prepared him lightly. I couldn't have asked him to do any better in the finals," he said. "The NRBC is one of the toughest horse shows there is. The best horses come here, and a lot are older and he's only four. Even the go-round is tough, so I was already happy to be in the finals. To do this well is really cool."

Reserve in the Level 3 went to Arno Honstetter and Gunners Special Glo with a 226.5. Gunners Special Glo, by Gunners Special Nite out of Paps Last Glo, is owned by Marilyn Overgaard of Carefree, Arizona. Honstetter and Gunners Special Glo also tied for eighth in the Level 4 finals, bringing total earnings to more than $30,000.

Trent Harvey and ARC Gunna Mark Ya Win Open Level 2 & 1 Championship

The third time was the charm for Whitesboro, Texas, trainer Trent Harvey. He's competed at the NRBC for the past two years, and had some success by making the Level 1 finals. In this year's finals, he and ARC Gunna Mark Ya scored a 223.5 – winning both the Level 2 and Level 1 championship. "This is my first Level 2 finals, so that was an achievement in itself," he said. "Winning here is a dream come true. Ever since I was young and dreaming about riding reiners, this was the biggest thing – it's huge. I just thank the Lord and my parents for giving me the love of horses, and Casey Deary for giving me this great opportunity."

Harvey and ARC Gunna Mark Ya, by Gunnatrashya out of Shiney Miss Marker, scored a 217.5 in the preliminary round. "She was real good in the prelims. She was a little upset circling to the left, so it didn't look as nice, but the rest of the run was beautiful," he said. "My game plan for the finals was just to make sure she was quiet and relaxed, and then we went in there and I left it up to the Lord."

Although he's only been riding reiners three years, Harvey has had a love for horses since his early years. His parents, Dale and Cheri Harvey, instilled that passion at a young age. "My parents used to work for Mr. Arcese in Italy. They actually introduced him to reining horses in the '80's. I believe the first picture of me on a horse was taken when I was about six months old. I've always loved them," he said.

Although his family had a history with reiners, Harvey showed cutting horses in his youth. He actually didn't begin competing on reiners until he began working for the Deary's three years ago. "I have always loved them but never got the chance to show one. It's been so much fun to get that experience," he said. "I thank my parents for getting me interested in horses. I thank Swartz Performance Horses and the Lord for this opportunity, and of course my wonderful wife Mercedes for all her loving support."

All totaled, Harvey and ARC Gunna Mark Ya won $11,276 and prizes that included a saddle from Continental Saddlery, a saddle sponsored by Jim Taylor and the Deshottels family, two Gist Silversmiths buckles, gift certificates to Thomas Moore Feed and Santa Cruz Biotechnology, Whisper Bits, and NRBC memorabilia.

Ruben Vandorp took the Level 2 Reserve title with a 223 on his horse KR Rufin It, by Einsteins Revolution out of A Ruf Gal, winning $5,210.

In the Level 1, Arnaud Ferret and Lil Money Gun claimed the Reserve Championship with a 222, collecting $1,652. Lil Money Gun, by Colonels Lil Gun out of Miss Shiney Cat, is owned by Paul and Pam Rohus.

Larcombe Claims Prime Time Championship and Reserve

Martin Larcombe finished 1-2 in the Prime Time and in the top fifteen of the Open Level 4. "This is a great show.

The horses are the best of the best. They've come through their futurity year. They're seasoned, tough, can do their jobs, and they give maximum effort. When a 225 doesn't make the top ten, you know it's tough," he said.

Larcombe won the Prime Time on Snip O Lution with a 225.5. By Einsteins Revolution out of Snip O Chex, the horse is owned by XCS Ranch. Total NRBC earnings for the 5-year-old stallion came to $17,200. "I've had this horse since he was three.

He's always been good and confident," Larcombe said of the stallion who won the Southwest Reining Horse Association Futurity in 2014.

Finishing Reserve was Hang Ten And Shine with a 223.5, who took home $13,400. Hang Ten And Shine, owned by Christine Brazeau, is by Hang Ten Surprise out of Ebony Shines.

Larcombe is an Australia native. "About four or five years ago we made the decision to come from the United States from Australia to see if we could be competitive." He added, "To be in the finals with these guys and horses that I've heard so much about is sensational for me and both my horses."

BOECHAT RIDES XTRA VOODOO DOC TO DEVELOPMENT DIVISION CHAMPIONSHIP

New for 2016 was the $10,000 added Development Division. The division was created for Open horses that have not won more than $2,000 by March 31. It was created to provide an additional division for horses who hadn't yet reached their competitive peak.

This year the division paid five places, and was paid out to the highest advancing horses in the Level 4 Open.

Thiago Boechat and Xtra Voodoo Doc won first with a score of 222, earning $9,719. "Since we sometimes don't do as well in the Futurity or something happens to your horse, this is a great incentive to come to the NRBC," noted Boechat.

Xtra Voodoo Doc, by Shiners Voodoo Dr out of Call Me Miss Hickory, is owned by Roger Parks. "This horse had some little issues at the futurity, but he's a very good horse and I love him," Boechat said.

Gunny Mathison and Ruben Vandorp tied for reserve in the division, with each collecting $6,717. Mathison rode Shesa Little Trashy (Gunnatrashya x Blue Eyes Shining), owned by Mary Jansma, while Vandorp competed with his horse KR Rufin It (Einsteins Revolution x A Ruf Gal).

NRBC LEADLINE CLASS

SARAH LOCKER RIDES HEAVY DUTY CHEX TO SECOND CONSECUTIVE NRBC NON PRO TITLE

Although not unprecedented, attaining back-to-back National Reining Breeders Classic championships on the same horse is exceptional. With the steady influx of high-caliber horses each year, competition is always formidable.

So it's easy to understand that Sarah Lynn Locker's 2016 victory was quite the feat. Last year, she and her horse, Heavy Duty Chex, won the title with a 220. This year they returned to the Great Southwest Equestrian Center to attempt another win.

Working as the second-to-last draw, Locker and "Heavy D" laid down a picture-perfect run which resulted in a 225! "I don't think it's real," she said of winning the Championship. "I tell everyone that last year hasn't really sunk in so I don't know that this one will, either. It's such a cool feeling and this is one of the greatest horse shows you can go to, so to win it again – or even make the finals – is huge. To win it on the same horse is unreal."

So was she feeling any extra pressure as the reigning champion?

"My horse is definitely more broke this year, but there was a lot of pressure in the first go just to make the finals because he was so good last year. He was in the top five of the preliminary, which was so great," she said. "For him to come out and show like he did in the finals for me was just awesome!"

Heavy Duty Chex, by Nu Chex To Cash and out of Rondas Tio, is only five years old, so he has one more year of NRBC eligibility. "We are definitely going to keep him. Since he won this show he's close or just over $100,000 in earnings. We are going to keep him and hopefully stand him as a stallion. We also still own his sire and dam – they're both home at Hilldale Farm," Locker explained. "It's pretty special to raise one and bring him along this far in his show career."

"I thank Pastor Mike Seay, Ed Harrison, my sister Jessicah Keller and my brother David Hutton, and of course my mom. She's home because we can't all be away at the same time, but she's the reason I can do what I do." She added, "Thank you also to Casey Deary and the whole Deary crew. They're all wonderful and Casey has always been so dedicated to helping me."

During the awards ceremony, Locker was presented with a check for $30,000, a year's use of a three-horse trailer from Twin Cities Featherlite/Twin Cities South, a saddle from Continental Saddlery, a Gist Silversmiths buckle, a pair of Rios of Mercedes boots, a Whisper Bit, a saddle blanket from Yucca Flats, gift certificates to Santa Cruz Biotechnology and Thomas Moore Feed, and the signature blue-crystal trophy.

Level 3 and Prime Time Champion

Rick Christen has a lot to celebrate. Not only is he recently engaged to fellow Non Pro competitor Brenda Joyce, he also won the Non Pro Level 3 and Prime Time Championship and the Non Pro Level 4 Reserve Championship!

He won the titles on MsDreamy, a surprising feat considering he's only owned the mare for four weeks! "I just bought her from Bob Shearer through Dan Huss's program. Today in the finals was the second time I showed her," he explained about the mare, by Magnum Chic Dream and out of A Gal With A Gun. "I just knew I needed to do my job, stay clean, and stay out of her way. We also had a bucket of luck!"

Christen is an NRBC veteran who's been attending the event for 12 years. A few years ago he won the same pair of titles – the Level 3 and Prime Time – on his good mare Skeets Little Annie.

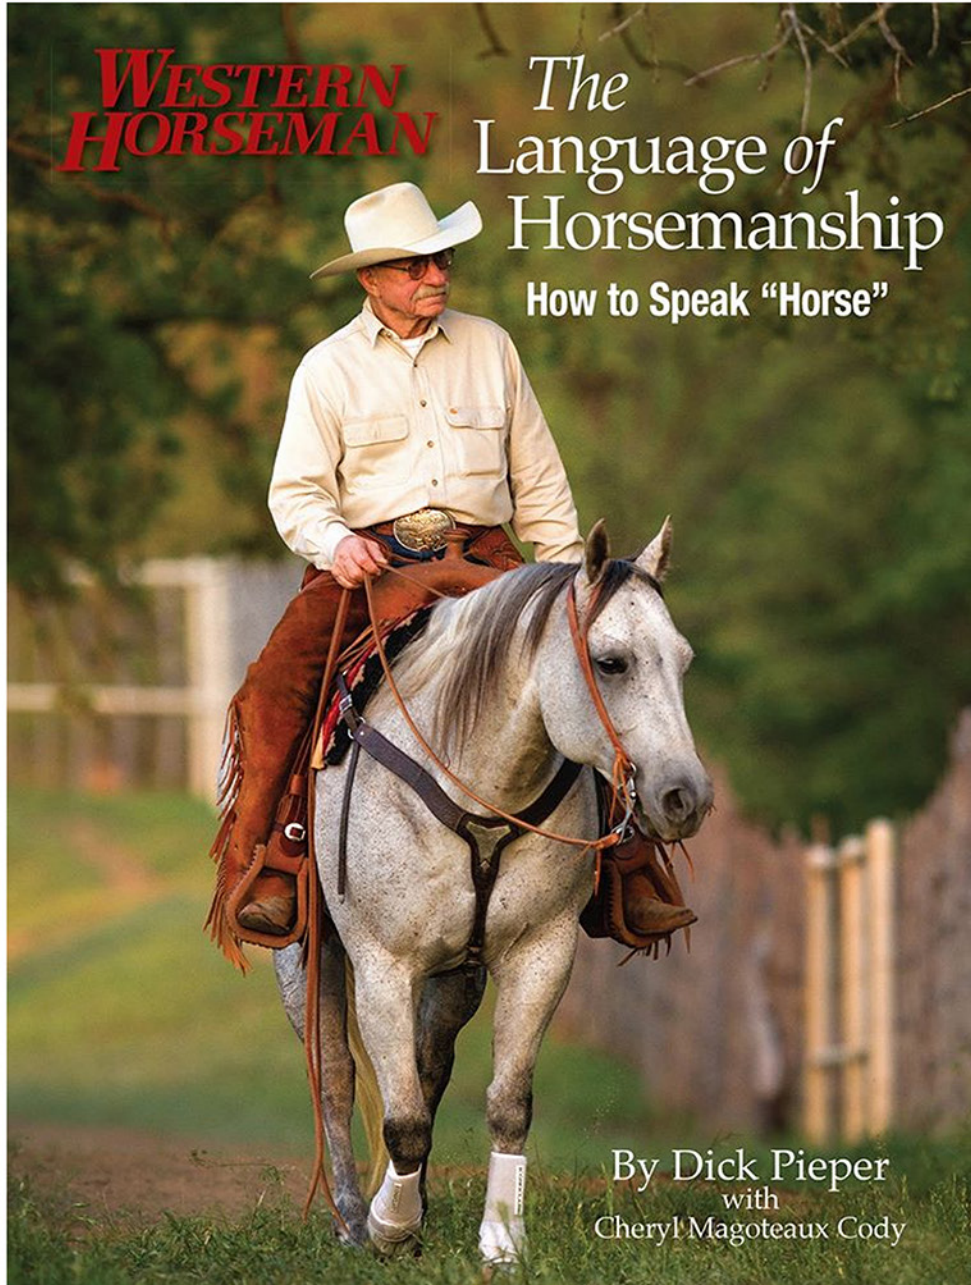

"I thank Dan Huss, Bob Shearer, and of course my fiancé Brenda Joyce," he said.

All totaled, Christen pocketed $28,759, and took home prizes which included three Gist Silversmiths buckles, a saddle from Bob's Custom Saddles/Tamarack Ranch, gift certificates to Thomas Moore Feed and Santa Cruz Biotechnology, Whisper Bits, and signature blue crystal trophies.

Christen also won the American Paint Horse Association high scoring Gist Silversmiths buckle for both the Level

3 and Level 4. APHA Director of Business Development Kalyn Sanders was on-hand to present the buckles.

Level 2 Champion

It's only Bailey Kolsun's second year to show at the NRBC, but she finished as the Non Pro Level 2 Champion on Diamond Studded Guns. "It's amazing. Seriously amazing!" she said following the awards ceremony where she collected $8,684, a saddle from Bob's Custom Saddles/Tamarack Ranch, a Gist Silversmith's buckle, a Whisper Bit, gift certificates to both Thomas Moore Feed and Santa Cruz Biotechnologies, and signature NRBC trophies.

Although a slight turn penalty in the preliminary round likely stymied Kolsun's chance to compete in the Level 4 finals, she noted that she couldn't be more proud of her 4-year-old stallion, who is by Gunnatrashya out of Like To Flo. "He felt really good," she said. The NRBC is Diamond Studded Guns' second event ever. "We bought him in December at the futurity. He was a little green but is very talented, and he's the sweetest thing in the world. I'm going to keep him, and come back and have more fun next year," she said.

Kolsun, a native Canadian who now resides in Texas, has been showing reiners since she was ten years old. She now rides with Ruben Vandorp, whose advice for the finals was to "show smart and have fun!"

She added, "I thank my parents Darren and Kathy Kolsun and my brothers Ryan and Cade. I also thank Ruben and Melissa Vandorp."

Level 1 Champion

Carlisle Salter claimed the Non Pro Level 1, and finished Reserve in the Level 2, and third in the Level 3 with a score of 217 on her horse Gotta Be A Gunner. She won $8,684, as well as prizes that include a saddle from Bob's Custom Saddle/Tamarack Ranch, a Whisper Bit, gift certificates to Thomas Moore Feed and Santa Cruz Biotechnologies, a Gist Silversmiths buckle, and numerous other prizes.

Having drawn up on Monday, the 16-year-old was worried she wouldn't be able to make it to the facility to show because of the torrential rain and historic flooding. "I was staying at my cousin's and all the roads were flooded around the house. We couldn't leave because the police were blocking the road," she recalled. "I called the show office and they said they'd work with me if I couldn't get there that day, but luckily I was able to with the rain delay."

At the time, Monday's run – a 215.5 – represented the highest score Salter had received in competition. "Then we were even better in the finals! I actually hadn't brought a shirt to match my pad for the finals because I didn't think I'd make it. Luckily Shannon Rafacz let me borrow one of hers," she explained.

Salter noted that her trainer, Jamie Bissell, was a huge help when it came to showing Gotta Be A Gunner, by Colonels Smoking Gun out of Katie Chic Olena, at the NRBC. "He has been really pushing me past my limits, and he did such a great job getting me ready. I thank him and his wife Lisa. I also thank George and Lisa Aldridge from Webster, Florida, who taught me most everything I know about reining," she said. "I also thank Butch Hunsucker for giving me the opportunity to own this horse. He bred and raised him and we bought him at the futurity two years ago. I also thank Sam Schaffhauser, Yonathon Baruch, Ash Holbrook, and Shannon Rafacz."

Taylor Zimmerman won the Level 1 Reserve title on Wimpys Dolled Up, by Wimpys Little Step out of Dolled Up Gunner. The 5-year-old mare is owned by Vaughn Zimmerman.

ROBIN SCHOELLER RIDES WLS TINSELTOWN TO WIN NRBC CLASSIC CHALLENGE AND $25K OPEN

Kimmel Reining Horses hosted Open Reining Night at the National Reining Breeders Classic on Friday, April 22. The evening showcased some of the best reining horses competing, and included a CRI3, USEF Reining Team Selection Trials, the National Reining Horse Association $25,000 Added

Open and the NRBC Open Classic Challenge.

The big money winner of the night was WLS Tinseltown, who, under the guidance of Robin Schoeller, won both the Classic Challenge and the NRHA Open. Total money earned for the evening exceed $12,700, and also came with a beautiful saddle from Continental Saddlery, Rios of Mercedes boots, Gist Silversmiths buckles, gift certificates to Thomas Moore Feed and Santa Cruz Biotechnologies, and numerous other prizes.

WLS Tinseltown, owned by Beth Himes, competed and made the Open Level 4 finals of every NRBC he has entered. "I've had this horse since he was two, and now he has just under $100,000 in earnings. He's made every major event finals multiple times. I told my wife that he feels better every time I take him to another show," he said. "He's a good one. He has a big place in my heart."

By Wimpys Little Step and out of Ms Hollywood Showtime, the 7-year-old pulls double-duty. "We've started bouncing him back and forth a little bit. He can go mark a 227 with me and then go a little easier for her. She'll show him on Sunday in the Non Pro Classic Challenge, too," he said. "Beth is great to work with and for. She has three horses with me and I can't say enough good things about her."

Schoeller almost didn't make it to Katy, as a riding accident almost kept him out of the saddle. "I broke my hip seven weeks ago. Luckily my wife gave me every supplement she could to help with bones to get me feeling better, and they cleared me to ride three days before we came down her." He added, "I am fortunate that I have such great help to keep the horses ready. I was able to go to the barn to watch them ride and we did everything we could do be prepared for this show."

The competition determined the team that, pending the final phase of USEF approval, will represent the United States at the FEI World Reining Championships in August in Switzerland. The top four riders of the evening were Troy Heikes, Shane Brown, Kari Klingenberg, and Nick Valentine.

LISA BISSELL WINS NRBC NON PRO CLASSIC CHALLENGE CHAMPIONSHIP

In 2015, Double My Chics was a six-year-old in his last year of National Reining Breeders Classic eligibility. Unfortunately, in the days before competition he overreached, stymying his chances for a good finish in the Non Pro Classic.

Lisa Bissell, his owner and trainer, was disappointed. Luckily, the NRBC's Classic Challenge gives reiners who have aged out of Derby eligibility a chance to compete for big money. When they return in 2016, the duo won the Challenge Level 4 and Prime Time, as well as the Championship of the $5,000 NRHA Non Pro that was run concurrently.

"I was really happy that the NRBC has this program. This horse is part of the family and I'm glad that there is such a great opportunity to show him," she said. "This year he was healthy and he went in there and showed extremely well for me. We had probably the best set of right spins we've ever had. He circled well, as usual. His first two stops were really good, and even though the ground was a little used up on our last stop and he lost his footing, he still got stopped and backed up. I was really happy with it."

Lisa almost didn't enter Double My Chics in the Classic Challenge because of his small stature compared to the size of the Coliseum arena. "He's a tiny little horse. I was concerned about him being able to really perform to the best of his ability. I was apprehensive about it, and then Not Ruf At All went in and was so stellar in the Open Finals. They're about the same size, so I knew Peanut (Double My Chics) could do it," she explained.

Lisa and her husband Jamie bred and raised Double My Chics, by Dreamn Bout Chics out of Double My Quixote. "We showed both his sire and his dam, and then raised him. He's been a Congress Champion and now he's an NRBC Champion, too. We might take him to the Derby for the seven and up there."

Lisa, who has been battling a severe shoulder injury, thanked her husband Jamie for his help. "He always helps me, but even more so over the last few months. He's been such a strong supporter of me and my horses, and he really put in a lot of extra effort for this horse and this competition for me. He went above and beyond his call of duty to help me and I'm grateful," she said.

Ruben's Reflections

I will bring them to my holy mountain of Jerusalem and will fill them with joy in my house of prayer. I will accept their burnt offerings and sacrifices, because my Temple will be called a house of prayer for all nations. Isaiah 56:7

My house will be called, not a house of preaching or singing but a house of prayer. We can do great things for God when the church is watching us; great things when the world is watching us and great things when our family is watching us.

However, when you pray, it is just God and you, nobody else, and just to spend 5 minutes in prayer is a stretch for most of us. It doesn't matter what you do for Him or in His name; if you don't learn to pray, you will meet an unknown God after you die. You will live your life without ever knowing God and His amazing power and blessings that He has available to you. Pray!

FREE SEMINARS AND CLINICS AT THE 2016 WILD CARD CHALLENGE SHOW IN LAS VEGAS

The 2016 Wild Card Reining Challenge debuts this spring in Las Vegas, bringing with it the Four-Year-Old Futurity ... an idea whose time has finally come! This brand new show, which runs over the Memorial Day weekend, May 25th through 29th at the South Point Event Center, Hotel and Casino, is the most recent of the four major reining competitions presented annually by the Scottsdale, Arizona-based Brumley Management Group, LLC.

“The four-year-old futurity horse concept has been discussed by good horsemen and breeders for years,” says Amanda Brumley, whose company will produce the show. “This idea challenges horsemen to provide a venue for young horses that need extra time to mature, train and prepare for competitive reining, both physically and mentally. This concept will benefit all levels of the reining horse industry, starting with the horse owners who want to give their equine athletes more time to bring their best game to the show pen, the breeders who know that the continued soundness a later start can provide contributes enormously to a long, productive career for their animals, and the trainers who understand that early, high pressure training can lead to difficult choices and shortened futures for some horses. Everybody wins with this concept ... especially the horses!”

Some of the most anticipated events at this innovative show are the scheduled, free seminars slated to focus on topics like judging, training, breeding, sports medicine, shoeing and nutrition, conducted by experts like NRHA

Professional and 4-Million Dollar rider, Andrea Fappani; NRHA Judges' Committee Chairman, Jody Brainard, and top veterinarian and equine athlete expert, Dr. Khris Crowe.

Andrea Fappani will be going over some of his most innovative training techniques, including circling and speed control, basic exercises for young horses and tips for fine tuning the world's finest finished performers. Born and raised in Italy, Fappani has become one of the all-time leading trainers in Reining worldwide and is an outstanding teacher, clinician and advocate of exceptional horsemanship. “I enjoy hosting clinics,” says Fappani. “It's rewarding helping riders utilize exercises to improve their riding and better their horse's performance level.” Highly respected NRHA judge, Jody Brainard comes very recommended by both his reputation and his world famous “Secrets of Judging” Seminar which he teaches four times annually, twice in America and twice in Europe. A seasoned professional and third generation horseman, Brainard has judged every major NRHA competition and will host “A Judge’s Perspective” at the Wild Card this year. “The Wild Card 4-Year-Old Futurity idea is awesome,” Brainard notes candidly. “Some 3-year-olds are late to develop and 4-year-olds shouldn’t be competing with 5 and 6-year-olds.” A recipient of numerous prestigious awards during her 33-year practice, Dr. Khris Crowe, DVM, with her husband NRHA Judge and competitor, Carlton Crowe, owns and operates the Red River Reproduction Center and Red River Equine Veterinary Services in North Texas. Her Wild Card seminar topic is the dynamically informative, “Giving Your Horse the Edge for Top Reining Competition”. “I will present a specific and concise checklist that every Reining horse owner or trainer should consider before attending a Reining competition,” says Crowe. “Despite the thousands of dollars and hundreds of hours spent preparing for competition, I treat horses every year for competition induced problems that are completely preventable.” Dr. Crowe’s presentation includes detailed handouts as well as door prizes for attendees.

The $65,000 Wild Card Four-Year-Old Futurity is an event that does not require nominations or enrollments for participation. The horses must have an NRHA Competition License to compete. Horses that are entered in the Wild Card Reining Challenge cannot have competed in any reining futurities (NRHA Category 2 Aged Event) as a three-year-old.

The Four-Year-Old Futurity is the spotlighted event of a show that will also offer a wide variety of ancillary reining classes, including the $47,000 Added 4 and 5-Year-Old Futurity for Arabian and Half-Arabian reining horses, sponsored by Cedar Ridge Arabians, and the popular World Para Reining Challenge for riders with physical handicaps and for discharged military with post-traumatic stress disorder.

“Whether you bring horses to show or just come to watch, this is going to be a not-to-be-missed exciting long weekend filled with great new ideas, innovative approaches and super show horses,” says Amanda Brumley, whose Brumley Management, LLC produces three other shows, the Cactus Reining Classic in Scottsdale in March, the Reining By The Bay Show in Woodside, California in July and the Las Vegas High Roller Classic in September. GINA SCHUMACHER AND WHIZZARD TAKE NRHA EUROPEAN FUTURITY NON PRO CHAMPIONSHIP

The 2016 NRHA (National Reining Horse Association) European Non Pro Champions were crowned April 22 in the Ostbayerhalle, Kreuth, Germany.

Claiming the €36,000-added Level 4 Non Pro Championship was Gina Schumacher of Germany riding Whizzard (Topsail Whiz x Shiney Lil Miss), owned by Chanay Sky Management, SA. The pair had already left their mark in the pen after winning the qualifying go-round with a 218.5.

Bred by Cottonwood Spring Ranch LLC and nominated by Corinna Schumacher, the sorrel stallion was shown by Schumacher in the 2015 NRHA Non Pro Futurity where the duo took home $5,373.83. In Kreuth, the pair scored a 216.5, enough for the win.

"I'm thrilled to have been able to claim this prestigious title tonight," said the young German rider. "I brought all three of my mounts back to the finals here and, though it wasn't easy, we managed to earn top honors. Once again Whizzard was really good for me, out of the three horses I showed here, he's the one that I know best. This is my first European Futurity title and even though it's not been easy to get to the top step of the podium, we've finally made it!"

Schumacher also rode Wham Bam Gunner Man (Gunners Special Nite x Super Olena Chic), bred and nominated by Robert Webb, to tie for the seventh place with a 213. She also closed her performance with her third mount, Walawhizsunlight BB (Topsail Whiz x Walla Walla Sunshine), who was bred and nominated by Eifel Gold Ranch Baeck, to a 205.5 and 15th place in the finals which counted 33 finalists.

Claiming the reserve championship in the Level 4 division, as well as the championship in the €20,664-added Level 3, the €11,808-added Level 2 and the €5,904-added Level 1 divisions was young Lena Schmidl of Germany aboard her stallion Spooks Star Gun (Spooks Gotta Gun x Elites Wildbumblebee).

"In the first go-round I made a few mistakes so my score was not that good," said the twenty-one-year-old rider from Germany. "Tonight 'Bumble' was with me all the way and I was really confident. My trainer, Markus Gebert, really helped me a lot and I am thrilled. I now look forward to showing him again this year, probably in the German and Italian 4-year-old Futurity."

Earning the reserve championship in the Level 3, 2 and 1 divisions with a score of 213.5 was the Level 1 go-round leader Luisa Stickland her Ruf Dun Honey (Dun It On The QT x Lil Ruf Sam), bred and nominated by Pia Kalle. "This is the very first futurity for me and I am really happy with my results," said the seventeen-year old who trains with NRHA Professional Emanuel Ernst of Germany.

FONCK AND LUDWIG CHOSE TO TIE FOR FIRST PLACE IN THE $10,000-ADDED NRHA OPEN

As the Futurity horses took a rest in Kreuth April 22 in view of the Non Pro and Open finals, the $10,000-added kept the public glued to their chairs.

With a 220.5, the 2015 NRHA Open World Champions, Bernard Fonck and What A Wave (Tidal Wave Jac x What A Sunrise), and Grischa Ludwig riding Gwhiz Im Smart (Smart Spook x Whizzards Baby Doll), owned by Momo & Amy, tied to win the prestigious NRHA approved Open. The two NRHA Professionals opted for the co-championship.

Bernard Fonck and What A Wave

"The ground is a little slick for my horse but he did try to do his best," says Fonck about his mount owned by Vannietvelt/De Pauw. "Our goal this year remains that of trying to once again to earn the NRHA World Championship but today we did not want to put another run on him so as not to tire him too much."

"My horse was exceptional, as always," commented Grischa. "I'm really happy to have tied to win with Bernard and I am especially pleased to be in the winner's circle all the earning go to owners Momo & Amy, a non profit association dedicated to hippotherapy. We do not want to overshadow him as we are aiming to be on the team for the upcoming FEI World Reining Championships."

A half a point behind the winners, French NRHA Professional, Fabien Boiron, settled for third place honors aboard Philip Castel's Jac Whiz (Conquistador Whiz x Honeys Melody Jac).

NRHA PROFESSIONAL OF THE YEAR AWARDS ANNOUNCED

NRHA Million Dollar Rider Dell Hendricks was named the National Reining Horse Association's Professional Horseman of the Year for 2015. He was in good company with NRHA Professional Sam Smith earning the NRHA Non Pro Coach of the Year, plus NRHA Professional Kim Diercks as the Horsewoman of the Year, Devin Warren as Youth Coach of the Year and NRHA Professional Mathieu Buton as Up-and-Coming Trainer of the Year. With the highest number of nominations NRHA has ever had, Shane Brown, Chair of the Professionals Committee was elated. "It's amazing the gratitude these professionals show when receiving these awards," said Brown.

NRHA Professional Horseman of the Year

NRHA Million Dollar Rider Dell Hendricks, a resident of Tioga, Texas and active member of the Southwest Reining Horse Association, has been an NRHA member since 1991 and throughout his reining career has earned more than $1,697,000 in NRHA Lifetime Earnings.

More important than his winnings, has been his dedication to his clients and their success. His ability to communicate with riders of all ages, having clients ranging from 12 to 78, touts his success as a coach. Not only has he been a mentor to an abundance of non pros over the years, he has served on the Executive Board, he's a past President of NRHA and has taught clinics across the world at the request of NRHA.

Hendricks has been an NRHA Professional since 2003 and has had great success in the show pen having been an NRHA Futurity Champion, NRHA Futurity Reserve Champion, 5-Time NRBC Open Derby Champion, AQHA Congress Open Futurity Champion and World Equestrian Games Team USA Gold Medalist, accomplishments that are just a portion of his major event winnings. Hendricks' dedication not only to the reining industry but also his clients is evident as he sets up his clientele to be in the winner's circle.

NRHA Non Pro Coach of the Year

Sam Smith of Marietta, Oklahoma has been said to "live and breathe the sport of Reining." And it is this lifelong dedication to promoting the NRHA and the preparation of the horses to the sport that has enabled him to be successful not only as a rider but also as a coach. With over 30 years of experience as a trainer, Smith has more than proven his talent in the show pen boasting in excess of $570,000 in NRHA Lifetime Earnings.

More importantly, Smith has coached countless youth, open and non pro circuit champions and year end winners and "demonstrates great patience with all of his riders" and "truly wants them to succeed." In addition to Smith's superior coaching skills, he has served on several professional committees and is also an NRHA Judge. He is also active in the Southwest Reining Horse Association (SWRHA).

With Smith's work ethic that is "second to none" and a focus that "never falters," he, along with his clients, will continue to be successful in the show pen.

NRHA Professional Horsewoman of the Year

Between showing reining horses as a professional, coaching clients, and developing high caliber reining prospects, Kim Diercks has established herself in the reining horse industry. An NRHA Professional, Diercks has been involved with the association since 1986 and has since established herself as a respected and successful trainer. Diercks has dedicated herself to the promotion and success of the NRHA at both the affiliate and national levels. She's an Affiliate Board member, show manager, Rookie Day Professional, an NRHA Judge and an NRHA show representative. As well, she is active in her local affiliate, the North Central Reining Horse Association (NCRHA).

In addition to her contributions to the association, Diercks has had a successful show career with over $264,000 in NRHA Lifetime Earnings. Her list of accomplishments includes being a multiple NRHA Open Futurity Finalist, NRHA Derby Open Finalist and an NRBC Finalist. In addition, she has several National and World titles in the Morgan and Paint Horse associations as well as two US National Arabian Championships. Along with her own impressive list of accomplishments, she sets up her clients to be in the winner's circle in both local and major competitions.

NRHA Youth Coach of the Year

Five-time World Champion Devin Warren has over 20 years' experience as a horse trainer, breeder and showman. His dedication to "his clients, horses and family are unsurpassed," which makes it no surprise that he has been selected as NRHA Youth Coach of the Year. Warren is active in his local affiliate, the Rocky Mountain Reining Horse Association (RMRHA) and has been on the board for six years. As well, he donates time to local 4H clubs and allows various groups to utilize his facilities. He's also been known to reach out to up-and-coming trainers and "thinks of others before himself."

Based in Franktown, Colorado Warren has excelled both in the show pen and in teaching on the national level. Warren not only qualified for the Adequan® North American Affiliate Championships (NAAC) but also had numerous clients to qualify as well, which were just part of a number of successes during their 2015 show season.

Warren is an APHA and AQHA member, has numerous APHA Reining Championships and has been an NRHA Derby finalist. In addition, his clientele have won an extensive amount of titles and he has coached youth riders who have later gone on to ride on National Collegiate Equestrian Association (NCEA) teams.

NRHA Up-and-Coming Trainer of the Year

An NRHA Top 20 Professional and a successful horse trainer and non pro coach, Mathieu Buton has several years of experience working with some of the best professionals in the industry including NRHA Three Million Dollar Rider Craig Schmersal and NRHA Million Dollar Rider Mike McEntire.

The 34-year-old trainer piloted Ms Mercedes Whiz owned by Buton and his wife Angela, to a Level (L) 2 Open championship title at the 2015 NRHA Futurity along with a Reserve in L3 and placed ninth in the L4 Open division to bring home a paycheck of more than $54,000. Hailing from France, currently a Texas resident and active member of SWRHA, Buton has been making his presence known in the reining horse industry.

He has been said to have an "unique ability to softly teach correctness to his horses as well as teaching his students to understand not only the how but also the why."
