FEI REVIEWS ALTERNATIVES FOR FEI WORLD EQUESTRIAN GAMES™ 2018 AFTER AGREEING TO PART COMPANY WITH BROMONT

The FEI has today announced that it is working on alternatives for the FEI World Equestrian Games 2018 following mutual agreement between the FEI and Canadian Comité organisateur des Jeux Équestres Mondiaux 2018 (COJEM), the organizing committee for the Games in Bromont, to terminate the contract to host the Games due to ongoing financial issues.

“We are sad that the Bromont organizing committee is no longer in a position to host the Games in 2018”, FEI President Ingmar De Vos said. “We have been working very closely with the COJEM Board and all levels of the organization since the Games were allocated to Canada in mid-2014 and have known for some time that the Bromont team was facing major financial difficulties.

“We have done everything possible to offer support during these tough times, but sadly the COJEM Board was unable to put in place a realistic funding and sponsorship strategy and, despite their best efforts, we have been left with no choice but to agree between us that the contract should be terminated. We believe Bromont is a really special venue and equestrian sport plays a key role in the local community. We hope that they will be able to host other major equestrian events in the future.”

“This has been a very difficult decision to come to terms with”, Rosaire Houde, Chair of the COJEM Board said today. “Since the new Board took over, we have left no stone unturned in our quest to find solid funding to support the Games, but sadly this has not been forthcoming. We are extremely grateful to the FEI for their support throughout the entire process, but it has been mutually agreed that we should terminate the contract. It is something I personally bitterly regret but it was the only responsible course of action.

“I would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who has been involved in the Games project and who had faith in it from the outset. It was so dear to the hearts of so many people in Bromont and Quebec and we are devastated that we have been unable to deliver this great event.”

The 2018 Games were allocated to Canada by the FEI Bureau in June 2014 after the bid committee provided confirmation to the FEI that it had substantial government backing. This was at local government level, but the financial plan for the Games included sourcing Federal Government funding, however, Carla Qualtrough, the Minister of Sport and Persons with Disabilities, last week confirmed that no funding would be forthcoming from the Canadian Federal Government.

The FEI made regular visits to Bromont to assist COJEM with planning and to address financial issues, and both the FEI President and the FEI Secretary General Sabrina Ibáñez were in Canada in recent months to work directly with the COJEM Board.

“While the FEI of course wanted to ensure the success of the Games in Canada and gave every possible support, we also have a responsibility to our community and to the future of our flagship events”, Ingmar De Vos said. “We are now looking at possible alternatives for 2018 and we are hopeful that we will be in a position to make an announcement shortly.

“Of course it isn’t easy for any organizing committee to put on an event of this magnitude in a two-year timeframe, but it is not unprecedented and the Italians hosted a brilliant World Equestrian Games in Rome in 1998 after Ireland pulled out less than two years before the Games, so we are confident that a workable solution will be found.”

The FEI World Equestrian Games are held every four years, in the middle of the Olympic cycle. The FEI disciplines – Jumping, Dressage and Para-Equestrian Dressage, Eventing, Driving, Endurance, Vaulting and Reining – are all included on the competition schedule.

The inaugural FEI World Equestrian Games were hosted in Stockholm (SWE) in 1990. Since then the Games have been staged in The Hague (NED) in 1994, Rome (ITA) in 1998, Jerez (ESP) in 2002, and Aachen (GER) in 2006. The first Games to be organized outside Europe were the Alltech FEI World Equestrian Games in Kentucky (USA) 2010. The Games came back to Europe for the 2014 edition of the Alltech FEI World Equestrian Games, which was held in Normandy (FRA).

USA REINING 2015 CHAMPIONS TO BE RECOGNIZED AT USEF REINING CHAMPIONSHIP

The USA Reining Board of Directors has announced that USA Reining will recognize and award its 2015 Year-end winners as part of the opening ceremonies of the USEF Reining Championships, set for September 4. The championships will be held at Expo Square in Tulsa Oklahoma and are hosted by the Tulsa Reining Classic.

According to Weaver, President of USA Reining, the Board made the decision in late July. He noted, “We’ve been in the process of re-structuring and this is one of our priorities – recognizing those who competed for year-end awards last year. It took a while to recover all the records and audit standings but we’re now up-to-date and verified for both 2015 and 2016 standings and they are on the website at www.usareining.us.”

Awards will be given to the top three year-end finishers in Open, Amateur, Youth (3 age groups), Horse of the Year and Para Reining. And the diverse group of champions this year were from nine different states!

Earning the 2015 Open Reiner Championship was Shane Brown of Elbert, Colorado with Casey Hinton of Whitesboro, Texas finishing as Reserve Champion and Andrea Fappani of Scottsdale, Arizona coming in third.

In the Amateur Reining the year-end Champion was Catherine Crandon Ocala, Florida. Reserve Amateur honors went to Anne-Marie Burns of Jones, Oklahoma and third to Tamra Kyle of Amarillo, Texas.

The Youth 13 & Under Champion was Reed Harris from Forrest City, Arkansas. The Reserve titlist was Skylar Deshotels from Gainesville, Texas with third going to Bo Van Duys of Westcliffe, Colorado.

Fort Worth’s Katelyn Davis won the youth 14-18 with Alexandra Johnston of Brentwood, Tennessee finishing as Reserve Champion and third going to Kenleigh Wells of Valley View, Texas.

In the Youth 19-21 top honors went to Amanda Hurd from Wilmington, Delaware, with Kyle Edmonds of Pepperell, Massachusetts finishing as Reserve Champion.

The 2015 Champion Para Reiner is Cole Jacobs with Holly Jacobson from Ipswich, Massachusetts finishing as reserve and Frederick Win of Woodbridge, New Jersey taking Bronze honors. That order of finish was changed when some missing results were recovered so all three riders will be recognized with awards.

The top Horse of the Year was Cache Of Jewels owned by Catherine Crandon. Reserve Horse of the Year was Solanos Saskadoc owned by Rita Harris and third place went to Gunner Git Ya Dun owned by Pete and Tamra Kyle.

Weaver concluded, “We appreciate the generosity of the Tulsa Reining Classic in giving us a place at this highly visible venue to recognize these top achievers and to give them the recognition they deserve. We plan to make these presentations a part of the USEF Reining Championships each year going forward.”

Colleen McQuay, President of the Global Reining Sport Group which produces the Tulsa Reining Classic, said, “We are glad that we can be a part of providing a venue for recognizing those who have participated in and supported USA Reining from the beginning. We look forward to being a part of USA Reining’s future as it continues to grow.”

Weaver added that the USA Reining Board, in cooperation with Pro Management, Inc. is in the process of developing programs and initiating new visibility and branding for USA Reining, “This is just a first step as we grow this organization and we congratulate these winners.”

USA Reining embodies youth, amateur and para riders, as well as open competitors. A key priority is to educate and provide a pipeline for reiners to progress through the various levels on their way to the FEI international level of competition. USA Reining represents its members as the fully compliant USEF-recognized affiliate for reining, advocating fair sport and horse welfare as key values of the organization. Reining Clinic with Casey Deary, Jason Vanlandingham & Tim McQuay

REINERS GIVING BACK TO BENEFIT REIN IN CANCER AND REINING HORSE FOUNDATION

It was announced in mid-July that Reiners Giving Back, a north-Texas group, had cooperated to create the First Annual Reiners Giving Back event, featuring Casey Deary, Jason Vanlandingham, and Tim McQuay! It will be a day filled with education and fellowship, all while supporting Rein In Cancer and the Reining Horse Foundation! All profits from the first annual Reiners Giving Back event will go directly to these important non-profit groups.

Set for Thursday, October 20 the day-long event will provide an educational venue in the form of three clinic sessions. Reiners have always been known for their friendly attitudes and generous spirits, but most of all, they are famous for “craving” the sport of reining, always wanting to learn more and strive for that perfect run. What better mentors could be found than three of the top riders in the world - Casey Deary, Jason Vanlandingham, and Tim McQuay?

Organizer Mandy McCutcheon said, “That Thursday is the beginning of such a great weekend in our area – with the Legacy Sale going on and the Southwest Reining Horse Association Futurity getting started. Both events draw a lot of people so it seemed to be a good time to create something to give back to the Reining Horse Foundation and to Rein in Cancer.”

For McCutcheon, both causes are important. “I serve on the board of the Reining Horse Foundation and want to help our industry through contributing to it. Of course, after losing my grandmother to cancer I always support Rein In Cancer and the amazing job Cheryl Cody and Shorty Koger do with that organization.”

Cheryl Magoteaux Cody, President of Rein in Cancer, was quick to express her appreciation of the event. “The reining industry has long been a supporter of Rein in Cancer and we appreciate this new commitment and this innovative event. Continuing to raise money is so important so we can continue to help cancer patients whose funds have been depleted by long-term care and missing work time. For those in the horse industry horses still need hay and bills keep coming in. Often a payment can make all the difference!”

She added, “The Southwest Reining Horse Association Futurity has been another big supporter of Rein in Cancer so it’s great that people can come for the clinic, then stay and compete in the Futurity!”

All three clinicians are donating their time for the causes. NRHA Professional Casey Deary of Weatherford, Texas, has earned over a Million Dollars in National Reining Horse Association competition. Known as a devoted family man, he has his own cheerleaders in his wife Nicole and their children; Wyatt, Joy, Owen, and Olivia. They have had plenty to cheer about in recent years as Casey is a two-time NRHA Futurity Champion, NRHA Derby Champion and AQHA Reining World Champion as well as garnering top finishes at every major event. For information on Casey visit www.dearyperformance.com.

Jason Vanlandingham has been on an incredible winning streak in recent years. The NRHA Million Dollar Rider and his wife, Adrienne, own and operate Vanlandingham Reining Horses located in Whitesboro, Texas.

Jason began training professionally in the summer of 1998 and built his current facility in the fall of 2005. To date Jason has accumulated many Futurity and Derby Championships, including the coveted NRHA Open Futurity and NRHA Open Derby titles, as well as the NRBC Championship, and Top 5 finishes at every major NRHA event. For information visit www.vanlandinghamreining.com.

Tim McQuay has long been an icon in the reining world, winning every major NRHA event, and garnering Team Gold at the World Equestrian Games. He is an NRHA Hall of Fame inductee, with over $3 Million in lifetime earnings. In addition, Tim has long been an innovator in the industry along with his wife, Colleen, maintaining one of the most prolific breeding operations in history, McQuay Stables, located in Tioga, Texas. For information visit www.mcquaystables.com.

The clinic will take place at Tom McCutcheon Reining Horses in Aubrey, Texas and attendees may observe all day, plus ride in one of three riding sessions.

Group 1: 9 am-11 am

Lunch: 11 am-12:30 pm sponsored by Pard’s South in Aubrey, Texas

Group 2 (Advanced Level): 12:30 pm-2:30 pm

Group 3: 2:30 pm-4:30 pm

Clinic cost is $200 per horse and rider combination or $25 per non-riding auditor with all tuition proceeds going to the two charities. Space will be limited in each group, so sign up early to secure a space! There is limited stabling available upon request. Contact Mandy McCutcheon to sign up and stay tuned for more details at mcutch1@aol.com or 940-453-7543!

Rein in Cancer is a 501c3 Non Profit Corporation that, to date, has raised over a million dollars. The organization has no employees – only volunteers - and over 98% of donated funds have gone directly to helping cancer patients. Currently Rein in Cancer makes direct payments to people in the reining industry being treated for cancer. As part of the commitment to helping patients, payment is usually sent within 24 hours of receipt of a simple application. For information, visit the Rein In Cancer website at www.reinincancer.com.

The Reining Horse Sports Foundation was created in 1999 and established as a charitable organization in 2001 to act as a supporting organization for the National Reining Horse Association. Now known simply as Reining Horse Foundation, it is supported by members and non-members and established specifically for enthusiasts, in an effort to develop and enhance the sport of Reining worldwide through five core programs, such as youth, RHSF Crisis Fund, Hall of Fame, International Growth and Research, Development and Education. For more information visit the foundation's website at www.rhsf.com.

REINING HORSE FOUNDATION AWARDS $10,500 IN SCHOLARSHIPS

The Reining Horse Foundation (RHF) announces the recipients of $10,500 in academic and need-based scholarships for seven youth members: Megan D'Andrea of Fowler, Ohio, Amber Edmonds of Pepperell, Mass., Holly Lansidel of McKenna, Wash., Nicholas Muir of Lynnwood, Wash., Shaelyn Vering of Scribner, Neb., Jarid Walton of Coleman, Mich. and Blair Willette of Haleiwa, Hawaii. Members of the National Reining Horse Youth Association (NRHyA) submitted applications for the RHF scholarships.

The recipients were chosen by an independent committee based upon their academic achievement, financial need, future goals and involvement in the NRHyA and reining horse industry.

“The Reining Horse Foundation is entrusted with donations meant to better the reining community and the world at large,” said Mark A. Blake, president. “The scholarship program is a shining example of how we can make a positive impact on the lives of young people furthering their education. We are proud to provide these scholarships and with donor support look forward to when we can do even more.”

Muir, Walton and Willette were each awarded $2,000 in RHF scholarship monies. Muir will attend Washington State University, majoring in animal science with plans to apply for veterinary school. Walton is a student at Mid Michigan Community College, where he has participated as a student-athlete on the men's basketball team. He received a RHF scholarship in 2015 as a high school senior, making him eligible to reapply. Willette is a chemistry major at Duke University, working toward a career in pharmaceutical development. In 2015, she studied abroad in London, England. She received a RHF scholarship in 2013 and was selected again in 2014 and 2016.

REINING HORSE FOUNDATION ANNOUNCES NEW SCHOLARSHIP FOR NATIONAL HIGH SCHOOL FINALS RODEO

High school rodeo and the reined cow horse competition can lead to a college scholarship thanks to a new partnership benefiting competitors at the National High School Finals Rodeo (NHSFR). The Reining Horse Foundation has joined with the National Reined Cow Horse Association (NRCHA) to provide a $2,500 scholarship to the student athlete marking the highest score in the reining during the NHSFR, held July 17-23 in Gillette, WY.

Winner of the inaugural scholarship is Jayde Atkins of Broken Bow, Neb., who scored a 146.5 in the rein work and a 150.5 in the cow work in the short go, the high score for both events. Atkins also received a Morrison bronze courtesy of the National Reining Horse Association (NRHA). She was riding Sonitas Last Dual (Dualin Jewels x Sonitas Ann x Sonitas Last), a 2003 gelding nicknamed "Harry." In a field of 112 reined cow horse contestants, Atkins achieved a total score of 884.5 (two go-rounds plus the short go) to win the national championship.

In late 2014, the National High School Rodeo Association (NHSRA) began offering reined cow horse as an optional event. It joined a lineup of bareback riding, bull riding, saddle bronc riding, tie-down roping, steer wrestling, team roping, and cutting for boys; and breakaway roping, barrel racing, pole bending, goat tying, cutting, team roping, and the queen contest for girls.

"While reined cow horse might not be a traditional rodeo event, we believe it fits nicely with our ultimate mission of preserving the western heritage and providing opportunities for our youth members," said NHSRA Executive Director James Higginbotham.

NHSRA, NRCHA and NRHA all acknowledge that reined cow horse can elevate the riding ability of NHSRA members who choose to learn and take part in the event. As part of the reined cow horse competition, contestants must complete a reining pattern, commonly referred to as dry work.

“Providing youth scholarships is a core program of the Reining Horse Foundation,” said Mandy McCutcheon, a $2 million NRHA rider and secretary of the Foundation Board. “Reaching out to the youth contestants of high school rodeo who are competing in this event makes perfect sense. Our hope is that more students will be introduced to reining and reined cow horse and ensure these sports grow and succeed for generations to come.”

Based in Oklahoma City, Okla., the Reining Horse Foundation is the philanthropic arm of the National Reining Horse Association. Core programs for the 501(c)3 nonprofit organization include youth scholarships, the Dale Wilkerson Memorial Crisis Fund and the NRHA Hall of Fame. The Foundation is celebrating its 15th anniversary.

Don't let the name fool you - this bit speaks volumes - and horses just keep winning in the Whisper Bit! Elite riders know that the Whisper Bit communicates clearly to the horse and allows guidance and correction without intimidation. It's forgiving of a rider's mistakes -
