TEAM BELGIUM TAKES THE GOLD AT THE 2016 SVAG FEI WORLD REINING CHAMPIONSHIPS FOR SENIORS

FEI PRESS RELEASE

By Simona Diale

Though Belgium may be a small country, the Belgian team at the 2016 SVAG FEI World Reining Championships in Givrins, Switzerland, posted a big score to take home the gold medal in front of Germany and Austria. The heat of the competition could be felt from the very first moment the in-gate opened but it wasn't until the last rider of the day would perform that the final placings would be determined.

In a field of 44 riders vying for the team medals as well as a spot in the individual competition, NRHA Million Dollar Rider Bernard Fonck was the last entry of the day. With his mount Smart N Sparkin between the reins, not only did he post the top score of the day (222), his result made the final team score rise to a 661.5, one and a half points higher than team Germany who until that point was in the lead.

"The pressure was on because I knew that our final standings would depend on my run," said Fonck. "I went in the arena knowing that I had to mark at least a 220.5 to claim the gold medal and my plan was that if we went past the first maneuvers – the spins – without penalties, then I would ask my horse for more. I did not think that Smart N Sparkin would make any mistakes because he’s a really talented and good minded horse, but in case that would have been the scenario, then I would have aimed for the second step of the podium. I am extremely happy that things worked out the way they did because I’ve been riding this great stallion for a long time now and I am very grateful to his owners, 7 Heaven Reining Horses, for their trust in my program and for giving me the opportunity to show him here. I now look forward to the individual competition on Saturday though my main goal was that of earning the gold here. I would like to thank all my team for giving it all they had and, of course, all the owners of the horses!”

The second highest score for Belgium was the 220 earned by Cira Baeck and Whizasunnysailor BB. Owned by Ruediger Diederhofen, the 8-year-old stallion, a.k.a. ‘Sailor’, has an impressive show record to his name with Baeck in the saddle. “Once again he was with me all the way and gave me all he had,” said a smiling Cira. “I just love this horse! His big heart and talent never cease to amaze me and placing this medal around his neck is the best thing that I could have ever hoped for.”

Ann Fonck and Nic Ricochet, owned by Vannietvert-De

Pauw, were the second duo to perform for team Belgium on Thursday afternoon. Their score of 219.5 was the first step toward making it to the highest step of the podium. The fourth member of the team was Piet Mestdagh who was seen riding his own Reining Whiz.

Team silver for Germany:

Members of the German team have left their mark in more than one FEI competition. Alexander Ripper riding Hollys Electricspark (owned by Christian and Rosy Wagner), Dominik Reminder and GR Hug A Jewel (owned by Vanety Korbus), Grischa Ludwig and Gwhiz Im Smart (owned by Momo & Amy) and Verena Klein riding her own Olena Joe Cody gave it all they had. They were leading the team competition with a total score of 660 until Fonck turned the cards on the table. “We are really proud of the result achieved here today,” said German team coach and multiple past German reining champion, Nico Hörmann. “In coming here we knew that the level of competition would be very high but we had a group of great horses and riders who were able to achieve this result and we made our flag fly high!”

Posting the highest score – a 221 – for team Germany was Grischa Ludwig riding Gwhiz Im Smart. Dominik Reminder and GR Hug A Jewel closed his performance a half a point behind. Ripper and Hollys Electricspark scored a 218.5.

Team bronze for Austria:

With a total score of 653.5, team Austria settled for third place honors claiming the bronze medal. Earning the highest score (221) for his team was Martin Muehlstaetter aboard Jacpoint Quarter Horses' 7-year-old stallion, Gotta Gold Chain. Based in the U.S.A. where he runs his own training facility, Muehlstaetter made his way to Switzerland to compete for his country. "This was certainly a great experience and I am very happy that we made the podium," he said. "I am very thankful to Tina and Klaus of Jacpoint QH for giving me the opportunity to ride this great horse here." Joining the duo on the podium were team members NRHA Million Dollar Rider Rudi Kronsteiner and AB Peppy Diamond (owned by Jennifer Nixdorf) who scored a 218.5, Tina Kuenstner-Mantl and Nu Chexomatic (owned by Jacpoint QH) scoring a 214.5, and Johannes Hasenhauer riding Keen Little Juice (owned by Olga Hofmann) with a 207.

"My team was simply great and we couldn't be any happier for this result," said team coach Gerold Dautzenberg. "Unfortunately one of our horses was slightly injured before the competition so we had to retire him, but at the end of the day all our riders did a wonderful job and we are thrilled to go back home with the team bronze."

Missing the podium by one point was Team Italy. In the first and only edition of the FEI World Reining Championships for Seniors held in 2008, on home-ground the Italians had earned the team gold medal in front of team U.S.A.

Building up to the medals

Who would have a chance of stepping on the podium was determined once Italy's Gennaro Lendi, riding his Yankee Gun, posted a 219 to bring his team's total score to a 652.5. Three horses later, Austria's Martin Muehlstaetter and Gotta Gold Chain (owned by Jacpoint Quarter Horses), thrilled both the crowd and the judges. A 221 appeared on the scoreboard and secured his team a medal by bringing the total score to a 653.5 behind Germany and in front of Italy.

Germany's team favourite, Grischa Ludwig riding Gwhiz Im Smart (owned by Momo & Amy), was determined to keep his country's flag high. They ran an impressive pattern #5 and closed their run with a 221 bringing the total score to a final 656.5. In order to determine who would conquer the coveted FEI World Reining Championships medals, the athletes and the public had to wait for the very last horse-rider-combination to make their way in the pen. Belgian Bernard Fonck and Smart N Sparkin did exactly that!

The team competition was also the first qualifier for the individual competition that was held on Saturday. Riders that did not automatically qualify had a chance to earn a spot in the consolation held on Friday morning prior to the SVAG FEI European Reining Championships for Young Riders and Juniors team competition.

2016 SVAG FEI EUROPEAN REINING CHAMPIONSHIPS FOR YOUNG RIDERS AND JUNIORS INDIVIDUAL

By Simona Diale

The individual competition filled the day at the CS Ranch in Givirins in front of a full house. The first riders to run for the medals were the Juniors who, as the Young Riders, had had the chance to qualify for the individual during the team competition run the day before.

Individual Junior Gold for Austria with Celina Bachleitner and Paintball Gun
Gina Schumacher conquers the Individual Young Riders gold for Germany

Taking home the gold for Austria – in a field of 19 contestants – was young Celina Bachleitner who, riding Michaela Bachleitner's 7-year-old gelding Paintball Gun scored a 215 for the win. Austria's team coach, Gerold Dautzenberg, was thrilled with the medal Bachleitner earned her country following the team bronze won by the Seniors in the SVAG FEI World Reining Championships the day before. Dautzenberg, who has been involved in European reining and western riding since the first horses performing these disciplines set foot on the Old Continent, defined Celina as being a 'true professional'. Just as happy with the result and proud of the hard work of the Young and Juniors teams was chef d'équipe, Sabine Lisec, a long-time supporter of youth activities in her home country along with her husband, Chuck Klipfel.

Thrilling the crowd in stands, who cheered all the riders regardless of their nationality, the under 18 athletes gave the best they had and, once the last competitor left the arena, it was clear that France's flag would fly high on both the second and third step of the podium.

Taking home the silver medal with a 213.5 was Marie Baralon and her 10-year-old mare, Chicken Sandwich. The pair had contributed in posting the highest score in the team competition and in claiming the team silver medal. Their performance had resulted in a 215, the second highest result, which put them second but last to go in the individual as the working order is determined in reverse order with the lowest scoring combinations riding first. A half a point behind her team mate was Margaux Legrand riding Julien Legrand's New Doc Peppy Cat. For the Legrand family this is truly an amazing and special result as the 15-year-old stallion was purchased by Julien in 2003 from David Roux and has always been in the family since then! Guy Duponchel, team coach for France, was thrilled with the results earned by the 'future of our sport'.

Proving just how much the sport of reining has grown in the last decade was the level of competition offered in the FEI European Reining Championships for Young Riders. Claiming the gold medal for Germany was Gina Schumacher riding Chanay Sky Management SSA's Arc Guns M Oaks. Last year, the talented rider had conquered the gold medal in the Juniors individual competition with her Gunners Enterprise between the reins. This year, her determination to step on the highest step of the podium came through in the team competition where her impressive score of 221.5 contributed to winning the team gold medal.

Last to enter the show pen – having earned the highest score in the team competition – Schumacher tried to best or equal the result posted the day before but had to 'settle' for a 219 that earned her the individual gold in front of Italy's Enrico Sciulli and Austria's Anna Lisec.

Belgian Nimroid Vannietvelt and Im Smart And Wimpy closed in fourth place after scoring a 210.5.

Sciulli, who in the team competition closed with a 220, rode his Snips Gotta Bud to a 217.5 thanks to his precise maneuvers. Their run earned Italy the second silver medal at this year's FEI European Championships after having placed second in the team competition behind Germany on Thursday.

Yet another young lady reiner was seen stepping on the podium, Anna Lisec. Riding Tari Whizin owned by Chuck Klipfel, she closed her performance with a 214.5 adding yet another FEI medal to hers and Austria's record in Givirins.

Corninna Schumacher's beautiful CS Ranch for the third year running provided the venue for the SVAG FEI European Reining Championships for Juniors and Young Riders competition. Once again her motto 'we love horses' showed as the CS Ranch team provided the best possible conditions for all the participants.

TEAM BELGIUM TAKES THE GOLD AT THE 2016 SVAG FEI WORLD REINING CHAMPIONSHIPS FOR SENIORS

2016 SVAG FEI WORLD REINING CHAMPIONSHIPS FOR SENIORS

By Simona Diale

Excitement, teamwork, friendship and a highly skilled group of Juniors and Young Riders is what made Friday afternoon at the CS Ranch special. The beautiful venue this year is not only host to the SVAG FEI World Reining Championships for Seniors, it is in fact – for the second year running – also host to the FEI European Reining Championships for Young Riders and Juniors.

The Juniors Competition

Opening the FEI European Reining Championship for the younger riders was the Juniors competition. With a total score of 638.5 Team Italy slid to the highest step of the podium taking top honors and the gold medal. Sealing the deal was 15-year-old Matteo Bolzano who rode

High Point Reiner, a.k.a. 'Ruffy', to a 215.5. The talented 7-year-old Quarter Horse gelding is the past 2015 NRHA Non Pro World Champion with Matteo's father, Manuel, in the saddle. "Ruffy is the most consistent horse I have ever ridden and once again he proved how level-minded he is today," said Manuel. "Seeing my son wear the gold medal along with his team is a feeling that cannot be described, especially as I know how much time, passion and work Matteo and his team mates put into this sport."

Joining Bonzano on the podium with a 212.5 was Martina Baldelli riding Great Dun Pistol, a 7-year-old Quarter

Horse mare owned by Christian Baldelli, Irene Merlotti and her Snapplejack, an 8-year-old Quarter Horse gelding (210.5), and Carlo Ambrosini aboard the Ambrosini QH owned 8-year-old Quarter Horse Gelding. Celebrating the Italian victory along with the young athletes was the president of the Italian Equestrian Sports Federation (FISE), Cav. Vittorio Orlandi.

With a total score of 626.5 points, Team France firmly held on to the silver medal in front of Belgium who settled for the team bronze with a total score of 608.5 points.

Riding for France was Marie Baralon who reined her 8-year-old mare, Chicken Sandwich to the second highest score of the day, a 215. "She's simply the best!" were Marie's words following her run. A little over a month ago, the pair – who has been together since the beginning of 2015 – earned the 2016 NRHA European Affiliate Limited Non Pro Championship in Poland. Along with Baralon were Margaux Legrand and New Doc Peppy Doc (owned by Julienne Legrand) who closed with a 208, and Axel Pesek riding Cheximatic (owned by Yannick Pesek) scoring a 203.5.

Team Belgium was represented by Bert Coeckelbergh riding Vannietvelt-De Pauw's Toosexy For Ricochet (212), Nimroid Vannietvelt riding Im Smart And Wimpy to a 201.5 for his parents Vannietvelt-De Pauw (201.5) and Jinke Stevens with her own Don John Escape BB (195).

Italy tops the Juniors team competition and Germany goes on to claim the Young Riders team gold medal

The Young Riders:

Defending champions, team Italy, battled to leave Givrins with the gold medal around their neck. This time around their direct opponents were the determined young German riders.

Franziska Eufinger with Smoking In Starlight, owned by Jessica Hein, (212.5) and Anna Voss riding her gelding Mandys Little Magnum scored a 212.5 and a 212 respectively.

First to ride for the team, their runs put the Germans in the lead. Jacob Behringer and his gelding Rascal Sensation performed impeccably and once they completed their last maneuver, a 217 appeared on the scoreboard. The last horse-rider-combination for team Germany was that made up of Gina Schumacher and Chanay Sky Management SA's Arc Guns M Oaks. The 18-year-old and her 7-year-old chestnut gelding a.k.a. 'Earl' performed to the best of their ability offering the crowd a close to perfect run which was paid back by the judges with an impressive 221 bringing their team's total to a 651 and the gold medal.

Team Italy's Enrico Sciulli and his Snips Gotta Bud – the last duo to run for the team – also left their mark in the pen with a great go worth a 220 score. Their performance, along with Andrea Pedrotti and Topgun Showtime's 213 and Nico Sicuro with Dualin Surprise's 211.5, was not enough to best the German's final composite score and, with a final 644.5, they rode to the second step of the podium. The fourth team components were Alessia Simoncini and her Ready To Spook.

As Germany and Italy battled for the gold and silver medals, team Belgium rode their way to the bronze medal with Bo Brutsaert and CJ Whiz (210.5), Indy Henrard and Steadys WR Diamonds (209.5), Amber Heibuchel and Wimpys Lil Prize (209). The fourth rider for the team was Kimberly Noels and Ivegottafootwork owned by Erik Hoet.

2016 SVAG FEI WORLD REINING CHAMPIONSHIPS FOR SENIORS

By Simona Diale

In a field of 21 combinations with riders representing Austria, Belgium, Canada, France, Germany, Italy and the U.S.A., Gennaro Lendi and his Yankee Gun left their mark in the show pen with a performance resulting in a 222 and the gold medal for Italy in the individual competition.

In 2008, the very first FEI World Reining Championships for Seniors was held in Manerbio, Italy. With 16 nations entered, team Italy scored a 667.5 for the gold in front of team U.S.A. Gennaro Lendi and Playin It Out were part of that team and they also went on to tie for the bronze medal in the individual competition. Lendi also represented his country at the 2014 Alltech FEI World Equestrian Games™ in Normandy.

For this edition of the World Championships, the Italian trainer was riding Yankee Gun, a double registered American Quarter Horse Association (AQHA) / American Paint Horse Association (APHA) 7-year-old stallion. Trained by NRHA Five Million Dollar Rider Shawn Flarida in the States, the reins passed on to Lendi at the beginning of last year. “Flarida, no need to say, did a great job in training Yankee Gun,” said Lendi. “I had to work the most on trying to understand how to prepare him to compete. He is extremely intelligent and very generous and at times tries to give you more than what is actually requested from him part of it and for winning the gold for my country. In the team competition, because my horse is extremely sensitive to his surroundings and to the environment, things did not go as planned. During the two training sessions between the team and individual competitions, I tried to work on this aspect and it helped a lot. I must admit that waiting for the final result was pretty tense as I knew that the combinations left to go after me all had a chance to beat my score!”

Just as thrilled with the result was team coach Filippo Masi who is also the technical manager of the Youth and Young Riders coached by Alessandro Meconi. Masi was quick to praise Lendi and Yankee Gun’s performance. “Gennaro is a great rider and in the individual made up for his run that was not up to expectations in the team competition – where he was our anchor rider – due to a lead penalty in the circles,” he said. “This year was not particularly favourable for our team since two of our top riders, Kelly Zweifel and Mirjam Stillo, were unable to make it to Givrins. I am in any case very proud of our team riders who did their very best with reserve rider Giovanni Masi and Pier Luigi Chioldo pulling in. As far as the Juniors and Young Riders are concerned, their motivation and understanding of FEI rules is impeccable and we are all extremely proud of them and their performances here.” Italy was 4th in the World Championships for Seniors and took the team gold in the SVAG FEI European Reining Championship for Juniors as well as team and individual silver in the Young Riders.

The competition

In front of a full house, with fans cheering for the sport of reining, excitement reigned high as some of the world’s finest reiners battled to take home the coveted FEI medals. Setting the bar was Austria’s Tina Kuenstner-Mantl and Nu Chexomatic, third to run, who posted 221.5. Once Lendi and his mount bested her score by half-a-point, nobody was able to beat the Italian rider’s score though both the Germans and the Belgians still kept their hopes high as Grischa Ludwig (GER) and Bernard Fonck (BEL) were the last two riders in the order of go.

Ludwig and Gwhiz Im Smart, team members of the German team that claimed the silver medal on Thursday, equaled Kuenstner-Mantl and Nu Chexomatic’s score (members of bronze medal winning team Austria). Fonck and Smart N Sparkin (owned by 7 Heaven Reining Horses), the duo that had performed to an outstanding 222 in the team competition and had led Belgium to team gold, closed their run with a 219.

Though the gold medal was firmly around the neck of the Italian rider, a run-off was required to determine who would take home silver and bronze. First to run again was the Austrian rider and her flashy 9-year-old Quarter Horse palomino stallion. The pair performed to a 212.5. At this point Ludwig knew that he had to play it safe aboard the 7-year-old stallion and that there was no need to aim for a high score in order to claim the second step of the podium. Performing a clean and precise run, once he closed with the last required maneuver of NRHA pattern n.9, a sliding stop – the hallmark of reining – he knew that his country would bring home the second silver medal of the World Championships and so it was. Their score was a 217.5.

The individual competition closed the 2016 FEI World Reining Championships for Seniors as well as the ‘Summer of Reining’ at the CS Ranch in Givrins, Switzerland. “Although we have been hosting the SVAG CS Classic for many years, we are very proud and honored to have hosted these extraordinary FEI events,” said Eric Obrecht, Show Manager of the event. “The best riders in the world came to the quiet town of Givrins providing the highest level of competition!”

Prior to the event, Ingmar De Vos, FEI President, had welcomed the athletes with these words: “...I’d like to wish each and every athlete the very best of luck. Enjoy not only the sport, but also the company of your fellow-competitors who share your passion...” True to the President’s words, the athletes did enjoy their fellow-competitors and definitely shared their passion for reining horses.

THE BACHELORETTE’S HEARTTHROB AND HORSE ENTHUSIAST LUKE PELL TEAMS UP WITH TIME TO RIDE FOR NEW SWEEPSTAKES CAMPAIGN “PLEDGE TO TAKE A FRIEND RIDING”

Known for capturing hearts across America on the current season of ABC’s hit television series The Bachelorette, horse enthusiast and country singer-songwriter Luke Pell is teaming up with Time to Ride as celebrity spokesperson for their new sweepstakes campaign “Pledge to Take a Friend Riding.” The sweepstakes will take place September 1-30, 2016 and will award one grand prize of an all-inclusive, three-night vacation at luxury dude ranch, the Resort at Paws Up in Greenough, Montana.

“I couldn’t be more excited about the opportunity to work with Time To Ride. Growing up on a ranch, horses were always a part of my life, and working with Time To Ride allows me to stay involved with the horse industry and to promote such a fundamental part of American culture,” said Pell. Pell is a former AQHA and NRHA competitor, and grew up on his family’s ranch raising and training horses.

For many devoted equestrians, it took a personal connection through a friend or family member to make their initial entry into horseback riding fun, accessible, inclusive, and long-lasting. With this in mind, Time to Ride’s campaign aims to encourage horse owners and riders to introduce their non-riding friends to horseback riding and equestrian sports.

“Equestrian sports are often perceived as exclusive and difficult to break into, but it’s time to change that stereotype,” said Christie Schulte, Time to Ride marketing manager. “Without the support of family or friends, many of us may not have known where or how to take up riding – and now it’s our turn to be that friend who introduces a new rider to horses. Whether it’s English or Western, trail riding, driving, or any other equestrian activity, it’s our privilege and duty to welcome new people to our beloved sport for the growth and health of our industry.”

Many other celebrity riders are joining Time to Ride’s campaign by pledging to take a friend riding, including Lyle Lovett, D. Wayne Lukas, David O’Connor, Al Dunning, Lindy Burch, Tom McCutcheon, Barbara Schulte,

Time To Ride

Audrey Griffin, Sandy Collier, Dell Hendricks, Lynn Palm, Kerry Kuhn, Tootie Bland, and more.

Riders may enter the sweepstakes by simply taking the pledge at www.timetoride.com/pledge. Time to Ride is an initiative of the American Horse Council's Marketing Alliance designed to introduce new enthusiasts to horses and riding, and promote equestrian activities for the health and growth of the equine industry. To learn more please contact info@timetoride.com or visit www.timetoride.com.

*No purchase necessary. Open to legal residents of the 50 United States and D.C., age 18 or older. Void where prohibited. Odds of winning depend on number of entries received. Sweepstakes ends at 5:00 p.m. ET on September 30, 2016. For full official rules and to enter, visit www.timetoride.com/pledge. ability of a ranch-type horse within a show arena. These patterns include both slow and fast circles, roll backs, spins, flying lead changes, and the crowd-favorite: sliding stops! Breyer's NRHA 50th Anniversary model is appropriately shown executing this hallmark maneuver.

From humble goals of preserving and promoting a sport and a lifestyle, to becoming an organization with many riders and horses reaching the million-dollar (and higher!) milestone in event earnings, and hosting approved shows around the world it's clear that the world loves a good reining horse, and the NRHA and the exhilarating sport of reining are here to stay!

Breyer's Reining horse is available nationwide at toy stores, tack shops and agricultural stores.

About Breyer® Breyer is a division of Reeves International (www.reevesintl.com), a family-owned, NJ-based toy manufacturer and distributor. Founded in 1950, Breyer celebrates the horse and other animals, dedicating itself to the creation of authentic and realistic model horses for play and collecting. Breyer is one of America's most iconic toy brands and its 'portrait' models of horse heroes like Secretariat, Valegro, Big Chex to Cash and Black Beauty have inspired children of all ages to love animals. THE NATIONAL ARABIAN REINING HORSE ASSOCIATION MAKES ITS DEBUT AT THE 2016 HIGH ROLLER REINING CLASSIC IN SEPTEMBER

by Christy Egan

The National Arabian Reining Association will make its first official appearance at the 2016 High Roller Reining Classic, September 9th through 17th, at the South Point Equestrian Center, Hotel and Casino, Las Vegas' premiere horse event center.

The incentive program that has recently taken the reins from the Arabian Reining Breeders Classic, NARHA made the decision to keep the prized, important Arabian Reining event on track. It could not have selected a better venue for its debut appearance. The fourth largest NRHA competition in the world, the HRRC show annually uses nearly all of the giant facility's 1,200 stalls and keeps its rings busy with a wide variety of classes and activities for nine solid days. This will mark the eighth year that top horses and riders from all over the world have gathered in Las Vegas to be part of the toughest, most entertaining reining show of the year.

There were almost 2,500 recorded draws at last year's High Roller, nearly all divisions at the show were up in entries, especially the Youth group. Just about 60 young people signed up for the 2015 Youth Team Tournament, including almost 20 in the 10 & Under Short Stirrup. The youth classes, which included 17 Tournament teams, ran Saturday and Sunday on the first weekend, culminating in an awards ceremony, featuring Olympic style medals and impressive College Scholarship prizes, as well as a great pizza party. Naturally, when the NARHA took over from the ARBC, the Youth Tournament was at the top of its list of events to strongly promote and continue. The 2016 competition will be very similar to last year's, with the first Saturday and Sunday mornings of the High Roller featuring Youth Tournament runs in the main Lucas Oil Arena. NARHA Youth Tournament Teams are set up similarly to those found in formal Olympic competition.

The four-man teams consist of one 10 & Under Short Stirrup rider, one 13 & Under Youth rider, one Arabian or Half-Arabian Youth rider any age 18 or under, and one 14-18 Youth rider. The winning Gold Team Champions will receive $500 each and the top three individual riders in the overall competition will receive: $1,000 Gold, $750 Silver and $500 Bronze.

In addition to the Youth Tournament, the NARHA will be offering $9,500 in prize money to Arabians and Half-Arabians competing in open and Non-Pro reining at the High Roller Reining Classic. Sponsor Smartpak is also offering $1,000 for Arabian and Half-Arabian horses in their 6-Year and Up Maturity on Wednesday in the Lucas Oil Arena. And there's other good news ...Markel Insurance has recently signed on as the Official Insurance Company of the National Arabian Reining Horse Association.

"We've been involved with Arabian reining horses in conjunction with the High Roller Reining Classic since 2014," says Frank Constantini, a Markel Horse Specialist since 1995. "It's only natural for us to continue with this program now that it has taken the form of the NARHA. It's easy for us to envision the Arabian horse coming more to the forefront in the next few years as a very competitive Western-type performance horse in both Reining and Ranch Riding. They are a beautiful, tough and versatile horse. We at Markel Insurance appreciate Amanda Brumley's passion for the entire horse industry. She has always made the effort to include all types of horses and all levels of riders at Brumley managed shows."

The ARBC, now called the NARHA, has paid out over $250,000 in prize money at premier NRHA events since its inception in 2014. Owners of NARHA Enrolled Incentive Program horses must be members of the NARHA as of 2017, see membership information at www.NationalArabianReiningHorseAssociation.com. For additional information on the NARHA or the upcoming High Roller Reining Classic, contact Amanda Brumley, brumleymanagement-group@gmail.com or call (602) 677-3774.

IT'S TIME TO NOMINATE NATIONAL REINING BREEDERS CLASSIC FOALS

NRBC Foal Enrollment Deadline Coming Up!

In the last two decades, the National Reining Breeders Classic program has grown to become an essential part of raising valuable reining horse prospects.

The annual NRBC Show, which is held in April each year at the Great Southwest Equestrian Center in Katy, Texas, has paid out millions of dollars since its beginning in 1998 and in 2017, its 20th year, the total payout for the program will pass the $20 Million Mark. The program has substantially impacted the reining industry, helping create millionaire horses and riders and boosting breeding programs into the performance horse limelight.

And the money has been well-spread around the world, with money earners from nearly every state and around the world. To be eligible to win any of that big money, foals must be enrolled in the program, and an important enrollment deadline is right around the corner. "Foals can be enrolled for $200 as long as the enrollment is postmarked by September 15 of their weaning year," according to the NRBC Program Coordinator, Angel Hooker. "After that, it's $250 per foal through December 31 of the weaning year."

She noted that breeders are enrolling foals earlier and earlier each year. "It's something they plan for, and a lot of people send in their foal enrollments when they send off their registration application to the breed associations. It's not necessary to have the registration papers for the foal to enroll."

For information on the NRBC, visit the web site at www.nrbc.com or call 580-759-3939.

TURNABOUT FARM RETURNS AS SPONSOR OF TULSA REINING CLASSIC NON PRO FUTURITY

For the fifth consecutive year the Turnabout Farm Non Pro Futurity will be the most exciting Non Pro event at the Tulsa Reining Classic. Set this year for Friday, September 2, this futurity is one of the first places to see each year's great 3-year-olds and it has become a signature title in the reining world and an accurate predictor of continuing excellence.

The Turnabout Farm Non Pro Futurity offers $26,000 in added money and last year's champion Jessicah Keller earned over $5,400 on Malena Chic Olena for the win. It's fitting that such a major event would be sponsored by one of the horse world's elite – Sarah Willeman's Turnabout Farm.

Turnabout Farm was begun in 1994 and has its origins in the hunter and jumper world. Willeman competed successfully at the highest levels of the sport, winning Open Jumper Grand Prix, multiple Junior Olympics gold medals, three national equitation championships, and countless hunter championships, Equitation Classics, and Junior and Amateur-Owner Jumper Classics throughout the years. She is now raising foals out of her great mares Lapeti, Labelle, and Fein Cera, the Athens Olympics team gold medalist and Best Horse at the 2002 Jerez World Equestrian Games with American rider Peter Wyld.

“We appreciate Sarah Willeman's support of the Tulsa Reining Classic, noted Colleen McQuay, President of Global Reining Sport Group, which produces the event. “Sarah and her husband Philip are the kind of people who give back to their sport and we truly appreciate their kind generosity.”

According to Sarah, she is happy to sponsor the futurity. Sarah said, “The Tulsa Reining Classic is a fantastic show. It's very well run from a horsemanship perspective, which I really appreciate. It's a great place to bring futurity horses to give them a good experience.”

She continued, “Coming from the Hunter-Jumper world, where most horses are bred in Europe, I've enjoyed the fact that reiners have such a focus on breeding and developing horses here at home. I feel lucky to own Gunners Special Nite and some wonderful broodmares, thanks to Tom and Mandy McCutcheon. It's exciting to watch our horses grow up and reach the show arena, and I'm glad this Futurity can be part of that process for other owners and riders as well.”

From the beginning Turnabout's success came from an eye for quality horses, devotion to fundamental horsemanship, and commitment to each horse's long-term wellbeing and athletic development. So when Willeman turned her attention to reining in 2005, followed the same formula. Early on she teamed up with Tom McCutcheon Reining Horses in Aubrey, Texas, basing her reining horse breeding program there.

A little over a decade later, with earnings and offspring earnings approaching $1 million, the Turnabout Farm mares are exceptional show horses and proven producers. Turnabout Farm star stallion, Gunners Special Nite, won over $235,000 and was the Individual and Team Gold Medalist at the 2010 World Equestrian Games as well as USEF Horse of the Year.

For information on Turnabout Farm, visit the web site at www.turnaboutfarm.com. For information on the Tulsa Reining Classic, visit www.tulsareining.com.

SILVAS SPONSOR HOLLYWOODSTINSELTOWN OPEN FUTURITY AT TULSA REINING CLASSIC

David and Bonnie Silva return to the 2016 Tulsa Reining Classic as sponsors of the Hollywoodstinseltown Open Futurity. Well known in the reining horse world as breeders and owners, the Silvas have been part of the Tulsa Reining Classic for years.

The Hollywoodstinseltown Open Futurity is set for Saturday, September 3. The popular event features $60,000 added and is named for the Silva's outstanding stallion, Hollywoodstinseltown.

Colleen McQuay, President of Global Reining Sport Group, which produces the Tulsa Reining Classic, noted, “Dave and Bonnie Silva have supported Reining for as long as I can remember. They are special individuals who pay it forward and Hollywoodstinseltown is already a proven sire that is contributing to the history of our sport. We are very fortunate and very grateful to have them as part of the Tulsa team!”

For David Silva, supporting the Tulsa Reining Classic is just a part of giving back to an industry that he loves, plus the event holds a special place in his heart. “I think that it is one of the nicest shows we go to all year. I really enjoy go ing to Expo Square. There are a lot of places to ride, keen competition and the scheduling is great – it’s a great-run show.”

He continued, “We feel privileged to sponsor the futurity there. There is an excellent surrounding community and so many things are very convenient to that facility.

Dave’s passion for the industry has translated to six figure National Reining Horse Association lifetime earnings and he continues to be an active Non Pro competitor. He was honored in 2012 as an NRHA Million Dollar Owner.

Hollywoodstinseltown, for whom the Tulsa Futurity is named, is the horse about which Dave says, “He’s the best one we ever raised.” With a royal pedigree, Hollywoodstinseltown, was destined to be a champion. The 2004 palomino stallion is sired by NRHA Six Million Dollar Sire Hollywood Dun It and out of Silva’s NRBC Open Champion and the NRHA’s All-time Leading Dam Miss Tinseltown.

The sparkling golden stallion has it all – incredible looks, phenomenal movement, and a great mind – and those attributes earned quick rewards in the show pen. He was an NRHA Futurity finalist, then an NRBC Intermediate Open Champion, NRHA Derby Reserve Champion and member of the 2010 Gold Medal-Winning World Equestrian Games Team with Tim McQuay. His lifetime earnings exceed $185,000 and when his foals began showing it was easy to see that he was passing on his incredible ability. Silva noted, “There are some nice babies coming up. We are hoping to get to the million dollar mark with him soon!”

For more information on Hollywoodstinseltown and Silva Reining Horses, visit the web site at www.silvareining.com. To learn more about the Tulsa Reining Classic, go to www.tulsareining.com.

USA REINING 2015 CHAMPIONS TO BE RECOGNIZED AT USEF REINING CHAMPIONSHIP

USA Reining will recognize and award its 2015 Year-end champions during opening ceremonies of the USEF Reining Championships, set for Friday, September 2. The championships will be held at Expo Square in Tulsa Oklahoma and are hosted by the Tulsa Reining Classic.

Champions and reserve winners will receive custom monogrammed jackets and the third place finishers will receive custom duffle bags.

Earning the 2015 Open Reining Championship was Shane Brown of Elbert, Colorado with Casey Hinton of Whitesboro, Texas finishing as Reserve Champion and Andrea Fappani of Scottsdale, Arizona coming in third.

In the Amateur Reining the year-end Champion was Catherine Crandon Ocala, Florida. Reserve Amateur honors went to Anne-Marie Burns of Jones, Oklahoma and third to Tamra Kyle of Amarillo, Texas.

The Youth 13 & Under Champion was Reed Harris from Forrest City, Arkansas. The Reserve titlist was Skylar Deshotels from Gainesville, Texas with third going to Bo Van Duys of Westcliffe, Colorado.

Fort Worth’s Katelyn Davis won the youth 14-18 with Alexandra Johnston of Brentwood, Tennessee finishing as Reserve Champion and third going to Kenleigh Wells of Valley View, Texas.

In the Youth 19-

21 top honors went to Amanda Hurd from Wilmington, Delaware, with Kyle Edmonds of Pepperell, Massachusetts finishing as Reserve Champion.

The 2015 Champion Para Reiner is Cole Jacobs with Holly Jacobson from Ipswich, Massachusetts finishing as reserve and Frederick Win of Woodbridge, New Jersey taking Bronze honors.

The top Horse of the Year was Cache Of Jewels owned by Catherine Crandon. Reserve Horse of the Year was Solanos Saskadoc owned by Rita Harris and third place went to Gunner Git Ya Dun owned by Pete and Tamra Kyle.

USA Reining embodies youth, amateur and para riders, as well as open competitors. A key priority is to educate and provide a pipeline for reiners to progress through the various levels on their way to the FEI international level of competition. USA Reining represents its members as the fully compliant USEF-recognized affiliate for reining, advocating fair sport and horse welfare as key values of the organization. For information on USA Reining, visit the website at www.usareining.us or call 580-759-2400.

JACK MEDOWS AND SURPRIZENTHEPRINCESS WIN AQHYA REINING WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP

NRHA Non Pro reiner Jack Medows won the AQHYA Reining World Championship on Surprizentheprincess, a 2009 buckskin mare by Jerry Lees Surprise out of Princess In Diamonds by $4 Million Sire Shining Spark. Bred by Clinton Anderson, the good mare is owned by Jack's mother, Amy Medows.

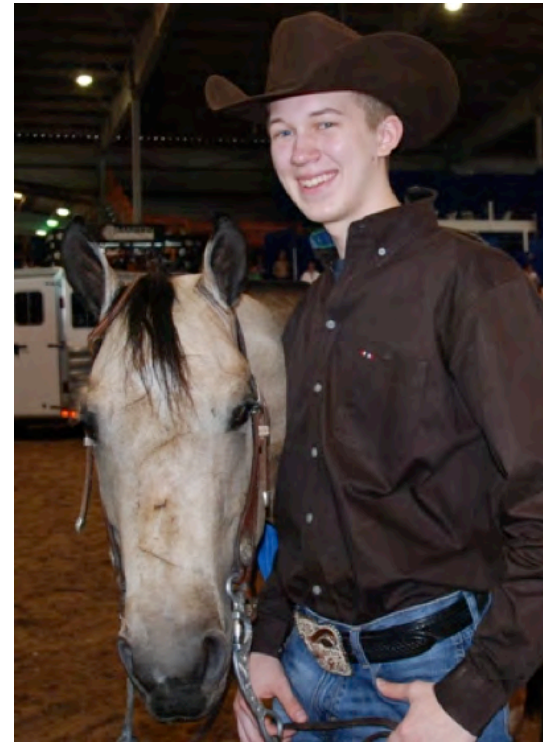

Medows topped the 117-entry class to win a wealth of prizes, including a custom-designed gold trophy, Montana Silversmiths buckle, Neck wreath, Gold medallion, Specially designed logo jacket, sponsored by Cripple Creek, World champion patch, and Professional's Choice products.

Medows said, "She's been one of those mares that has all the athletic ability and is so pretty but her mind is what sets her apart. She's so good minded and shown hundreds of time but she stays so honest." Medows, who rides with trainer Fernando Salgado, has won over $140,000 on her in National Reining Horse Association competition and when he says she's pretty he's telling the truth. Another of her laurels was winning the 2014 AQHA Performance Halter World Championship.

The Reserve World Championship went to Tessa Lindberg of Lafayette, California, riding Chicadero with third going to Taylor Zimmerman of Springfield, Missouri, riding Alotta Step.

Tessa also won the Level 2 World Championship, with the Reserve Level 2 title going to Emily Ann Morris of Davenport, Iowa, riding Cross Step Wrangler. Hannah Mitchell of Cuba, Missouri, finished third riding Dun Bein Wimpy.
