CASEY DEARY RIDES MAGNUM STARLIGHTS TO 2016 NRHA DERBY OPEN CHAMPIONSHIP

The win was especially sweet for Deary. Not only did he show Magnum Starlights' grandsire, he also showed the talented stallion's grand dam. "We have a long history together, and Magnum Starlights was raised on our ranch," said Deary following his win. "We won the Vegas Futurity and had huge runs at the NRBC, and we've always felt that he would achieve a major win sometime."

Two riders posted a 222.5 for the reserve championship: NRHA Million Dollar Rider Jason Vanlandingham and NRHA Four Million Dollar Rider Andrea Fappani. Vanlandingham rode his past NRBC Open Champion, Not Ruf At All (A Sparkling Vintage x All Ruffed Up), a 6-year-old stallion owned by Vaughn Zimmerman and nominated by Petra Zeitler Connor with $416,766.08 LTE. Fappani rode Pinesail Jac (Tinsel Jac x Sailin Lil Ruf), a 5-year-old gelding owned by Rancho Oso Rio LLC and nominated by Raul Leal, who to date has won $93,487.29.

Fernando Salgado and Electric Cha Ching (Jacs Electric Spark x Kipper Lady Nic) set the bar early in the second section of the Open finals by posting a 221. The 5-year-old sorrel mare is owned by Heritage Farms/ Silver Spurs Equine and was nominated by Haworth Family Partnership Ltd – score 221.

At a half point behind the champions, there was a three-way tie for reserve honors in the L3 division: Matt Mills and Wimps Cool Breeze (Tinsel Jac x Sailin Lil Ruf), a 5-year-old stallion owned by Janice Dickson and nominated by Raul Leal with $93,487.29 LTE; Martin Muehlstaetter and Late Night Stopper (Jacs Electric Spark x Best Stop), a 5-year-old stallion owned by Marc and Kathy Gordon and nominated by Wagman Ranch Inc. with $61,303.71 LTE; and Jimmy Van Der Hoeven and Black Hails Gold (Shine Like Hail x Dun Its Black Gold), a 6-year-old gelding owned by Casey and Kathy Hinton and nominated by Rhodes River Ranch with $147,166.92 LTE.

The reserve championship in the L2 division was claimed by the L1 champions, Daniel Schloemer and Electric Grid (Jacs Electric Spark x GVS Cherokee Jac). The 6-year-old gelding is owned by Jennifer T. Deweese and was nominated by Troy and Andrea Heikes. Before coming to OKC, his LTE were $34,125.91. "I am thrilled with these two titles and I cannot thank the owner enough for giving me this great opportunity," said the German rider, now based in Arizona as assistant trainer for Arno Honstetter. "I was draw -17 in the go-round, having switched the horse from the Non Pro to the Open Derby, and my score held to top the L1 division. Tonight Electric Grid was just great and gave me all he had. It's the first time that I made the Derby both stated - decided not to run-off for the title.

The Prime Time Open Division is open to riders age 50 or older, as of January 1st, entered in the Levels 1, 2 or 3. Winners are determined by the go round score, using a handicap system.

finals, and making it back in all four levels and competing against the best is just incredible.”

The Level 1 reserve championship went to Kari Anna Klingenberg – Schloemer’s girlfriend - riding Gunner Special Twist (Gunnars Special Nite x Miss Boo Twist), a 5-year-old mare nominated by Teresa Wynn and owned by Angela Olson. “So much has happened in such a short amount of time! We moved from Washington to Arizona, I qualified to represent Team U.S.A. at the FEI World Reining Championships which will be held in Switzerland this coming August, and now this,” said an enthused Kari, also an assistant trainer for Arno Honstetter. “This is the first time I actually made the Derby finals, and riding against these incredible horses and riders here has been awesome.” The pair scored a 214.5 for the win.

Prime Time Open

Two riders tied to win the Prime Time Open Derby championship with a 220: Jamie Bissell and Todd Sommers. Bissell rode Who Dat Hot Chic (Wimpys Little Step x Smart Chic Aloha), a 6-year-old mare owned by Lisa Bissell and nominated by Labourdette Ranch LLC. Sommers rode Spar-kin Whiz It (Who Whiz It x Sparin Personality), a 4-year-old stallion owned by Stephany S. Monteleone and nominated by Craig Schmersal. WILLIAM RHOADS AND MEGA MAGGIE MAE WIN 2016 NRHA NON PRO DERBY

At the 2016 NRHA Non Pro Derby riders and fans were on the edge of their seats until the very end, and one of the riders who had to wait was Dr. William ‘Bill’ Rhoads. Draw 14 in the second section, aboard his Mega Maggie Mae, he had scored a 219. It wasn’t until the very end before he could celebrate a win.

“It was nerve racking. I was reading an e-book, trying not to think about what was happening in the show pen. I did have some emotional break downs but I made it,” said Rhoads who also tied to win the L4 qualifier. “I still don’t believe this is happening. It’s surreal. I was a nobody with just a little over $5,000 in LTE last year, until I rode ‘Mae.’”

‘Mae’ is his 4-year-old mare by Magnum Chic Dream and out of Cinco De Mega, bred and nominated by Martin Bonneson. Last year, the duo claimed the NRHA Futurity L4 Non Pro Reserve championship and swept the levels 3, 2 and 1. Today, the duo won the $80,000-added NRHA Derby L4 Non Pro division, adding $18,932.15 to their earnings. Rhoads came to OKC with $102,883.22 LTE. Mega Maggie Mae, who the Texan-based veterinarian purchased as a yearling, has won $83,825.37 in NRHA competition.

In a tie for the Reserve Co-championship was Lyndsey Jordan riding her 6-year-old stallion, Made By Magnum (Magnum Chic Dream x Ready Make Cowboy), who she nominated; and the 2015 Derby L4 Non Pro Champions, Cade McCutcheon and Custom Made Gun (Gunner x Custom Made Dunit), owned, bred and nominated by McQuay Stables LLC. Each earned a score of 218.5.

McCutcheon and the 5-year-old stallion also earned the win in the Youth Non Pro division where Gina Schumacher, at the reins of Judys A Little Moody (Wimpys Little Step x Smart Connection), a 4-year-old mare owned by XCS Ranch and nominated by Sergio Elia, took reserve honors.

With a score of 217, Frederick Christen guided his Ms-dreamy (Magnum Chic Dream x A Gal With A Gun) – a Sire & Dam offspring bred by Jana Simons - to the championships in three divisions: the $60,000-added L3, the $5,000-added Prime Time and the Jackpot Masters Non Pro divisions.

“Today was the fourth time I’ve shown this phenomenal mare,” said Christen about his 6-year-old mare, whom he rode to win the 2016 NRBC L4 Non Pro Reserve championship as well as NRBC L3 Non Pro and Prime Time championships. “I tried to follow my trainer, Dan Huss’s, advice to ‘stay out of her way and stay light.’ In the qualifying go round I did. Today, I could have done much better in my approaches.” Plans for the athletic 6-year-old mare are to put two more runs on her at the Reining By the Bay and at Christy Brasier and her Chics Want My Number (Wimpys Little Step x Dixie Chic Olena), a 5-year-old gelding bred and nominated by Green Valley Ranch, scored a 216 for the Level 3 Reserve Champion title.

Lucky draw 13 in the first section of the Non Pro finals was Valentino Tag (Whiz N Tag Chex x Kachina Oak Olena) and owner Shaunda Rai Ruckman. After posting a 216.5, not only did the Scottsdale, AZ, Non Pro rider have to wait until the first section was over...whether or not she would earn the championship was determined when only two riders were left to go in the second section, 57 entries later! "It feels amazing to finally get it right in the pen and know that he's the good horse that we knew he was," said Ruckman about the 6-year-old gelding, bred and nominated by Lance Griffin, with LTE $184,482.85.

Chics Dream (Magnum Chic Dream x First Ex Flame), owned and ridden by Morris Kulmer, bred by Nancy Wilkerson, and nominated by Stanley or Susan Scott LLC, scored a 214.5 for the L2 and L1 Non Pro Reserve championships.

Kimberly French Horner, riding her horse Dreamin Ruf (Magnum Chic Dream x Lil Ruf Jessie), a 4-year-old gelding nominated by Casey Hinton with $14,484.69 LTE, scored a 216 to capture the L1 Non Pro Champion title. "I wasn't expecting this win, even though I did have more confidence going in today. My horse was so good, he is so true, so honest. And, if I do my job well, we do well together," said an enthused Kimberly who has been riding with Casey Hinton for the past 10 years and gives credit to for her win.

COLLEGIATE COMPETITION AT THE NRHA DERBY

Riders from three different organizations battled in the Jim Norick Arena all in hopes of being crowned the 2016 National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) Collegiate Catch Ride Champion. Four riders from the National Collegiate Equestrian Association (NCEA), four riders from the Intercollegiate Horse Show Association (IHSA), and four riders from NRHA competed on catch ride horses for bragging rights. Riders drew their horses at random the day prior to the competition.

Chantz Stewart (NCEA/Texas Christian University) was the first competitor to ride tonight. Stewart rode Ten Caret Nic, owned by Shaelyn Vering, to a 200.5, placing her twelfth in the competition. Draw two for tonight was Hannah Jechow (NCEA/Texas A&M) on Captain Jessie, owned by Jacob Cliver. This duo scored a 212, setting the new high score for the night. Kelsey Wilson (IHSA/West Texas A&M) drew Que Bueno Nic, owned by Drumclog Ranch; however the pair came up a little shy, earning a 211.

Blair McFarlin (NRHA) rode The Boominator, owned by Roger Anderson, and left it all in the arena. Together they earned a 216.5 that would hold as the high score for the remainder of the competition. Holly Phillips (NRHA) drew Chexy Whiz, owned by Michelle George, and together they earned a 211. Sixth to compete tonight was Dylan Dombrowski (IHSA/Caznovia College) on Nics Rooster, owned by Daniela Bernabeu. Dombrowski and Nic Rooster made their best run but only earned a 212, which would go on to tie him with Hannah Jechow for third place.

Danielle Cohen (NRHA) followed Dombrowski in the competition. Cohen marked a 210 riding Trashes Kohana Cash, owned by Rebecca Bigelow. Taylor Brown was the eighth rider to enter the arena. Taylor rode Southside Spook, owned by Randy Reecer, to a 210, putting her in a two-way tie for seventh. Ninth in the draw was Leah Piper (IHSA/Middle Tennessee State), who piloted Randy Reecer's horse, HR Dun By Whiz to a 207 putting her in ninth place.

Sara Yu (IHSA/Ohio State University) rode Kristen Jacobson's Smokin N Boon Light to 202 and eleventh place.

Ebba Lange (NCEA/Oklahoma State) piloted SideKick Chic, owned by Keith Dittrich, to a 205.5, putting her in tenth place overall. The last rider to compete was Kyndall Harper (NRHA), who rode Coastal Smoke, owned by Laurie Hauck. Kyndall put together a strong run but was just shy of taking the lead, earning a 214.

Established in 2002, this is the fourteenth year for NRHA to host the Collegiate Catch Ride competition.

A HAIR RAISING WIN DURING THE NRHA HIGH SCHOOL COMPETITION

Four riders from 14-18 North American Affiliate Championship (NAAC) and four riders from National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) Top Ten 14-18 competed in the annual NRHA

High School Reining Competition during the NRHA Derby. These eight distinguished riders from across the country drew for the 'ultimate catch ride.'

This pair set the bar high, starting the competition with a score of 213.0. Payne's score was quickly beat by the following draw, which resulted in her taking the Reserve Championship at the end of day.

Terri June Granger rode the 2016 NRHA Collegiate Catch

Ride Champion, The Boominator owned by Jim Hotz, to a 213.5 and won the competition by a hair. Granger, a senior in high school, has verbally committed to Auburn University, coincidentally where the Collegiate Champion Blair McFarlin attends. Her plans for the future include riding on the equestrian team and majoring in physical therapy. Granger explained her catch ride experience, "I was really excited to be here. This was my first year ever coming out to the Derby, and it was definitely a great experience being able to take part in and show at the Derby.”

Following Granger, Emily Morris riding Making Sparks Fly, owned by Mallory Vestal, was third in the competition, scoring a 207.0 and placing fourth. Kaitlyn Baker drew up fourth on Nics Rooster, owned by Daniela Bernabeu. Baker started with a great run but unfortunately ended up with a zero after going off pattern.

Claire Streeeter followed Baker atop Gangster Chic, owned by Renee D’Ambrosi, and brought in a third place win with a score of 210. Emily Sitzman and South Side Spook, owned by Randy Reecer, were number five in the draw and scored 202.0, placing them at fifth.

Mckenzie Duncan, riding HR Dun By Whiz, another horse owned by Reecer, scored a 195.0, putting them in seventh place. Kenleigh Wells brought up the end of the competition. Wells rode Captain Jesse, owned by Jacob Cliver, and scored a 201, putting her sixth in the catch ride competition. PARA REINING AT THE NRHA DERBY

The NRHA Derby show hosted USA Reining Para Reining classes, which are qualifier classes for the upcoming USA Reining Para Reining International championship to be held in Oklahoma City this November during the AQHA World Championship Show. In the Level 4 division, Frederick Win earned the title aboard his 6-year-old mare Rem N Trash (Trashadeous x Collena Remilena). “I train hard and never look at this like a para reining class,” says Frederick, a lawyer from Woodridge, New Jersey. “I don’t see my disability as a weakness. I just make sure that my horse is properly trained to understand me.”

Winning the Level 3 division was Cole Jacobs of Fabius, New York. Although Jacobs wasn’t able to bring a horse to compete at the NRHA Derby, NRHA Professional Josh and Carrie Visser of Whitesboro, Texas, generously let him borrow their 5-year-old stallion, One Big Dream (Magnum With A Dream x Kalico Whiz). “I was a little anxious to try a new horse, but he was great,” said Cole.

Cole’s mom, Brenda, cheered the riders on from the sidelines. “The takeaway for all of this is that anyone can show reining horses if they want to. We’ve met some seriously disabled individuals who can get on a well-trained horse and ride. Horses are therapeutic beyond belief.”

HURD, JOHNSON, AND VAN DUYS EARN TOP HONORS AT 2016 USEF YOUTH REINING NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

Rising stars in reining came to the 2016 USEF Youth Reining National Championships on July 2 with the goal of claiming a national title. Held in conjunction with the NRHA Derby at the State Fair Park in Oklahoma City, Okla., Amanda Hurd took home the USEF 19-21 Youth Reining National title, Alexandra Johnston earned the USEF 14-18 Youth Reining National title, and Bo Van Duys was the USEF 13 & Under Youth Reining National Champion. All three divisions were judged by Ben Balow, Bob Kail, and Ann Salmon.

Twenty-year-old Hurd (Wilmington, Del.) claimed the USEF 19-21 Youth Reining National Champion title. Riding her father Mark Hurd’s seven-year-old Quarter Horse sire, CC Enterprises, Hurd guided her young mount to a score of 194.

Seventeen-year-old Johnston (Brentwood, Tenn.) claimed the USEF 14-18 Youth Reining National Champion title.

Riding her own eight-year-old Quarter Horse gelding, Mr Get Smart, Johnston earned a score of 203.

Eighteen-year-old Elena Hurd (Wilmington, Del.) and Its All About Bud, her father Mark Hurd’s 10-year-old Quarter Horse gelding, received a score of 190 to earn the USEF 14-18 Youth Reining Reserve National Champion title.

Alexandra Johnston and Mr Get Smart (Waltenberry)

Van Duys, a 13-year-old resident of Parkland, Fla., scored top honors in the USEF 13 & Under Youth Reining National Championship. She and Aim Your Pistol, her own 10-year-old Quarter Horse mare, laid down a solid run, scoring 208 and claiming the title.

“Aimee and I have been trying our hardest to be the best we can be,” said Van Duys. “It felt awesome to win the USEF championship, and the prizes aren’t even the best part. The best part of this entire experience is putting time and effort into the sport you love. So thank you USEF, NRHA, and all the other associations that let us compete and do what I love.”

The USEF 13 & Under Youth Reining Reserve National Champion title was shared by Ava Bush and Lisa

Bo Van Duys and Aim Your Pistol (Waltenberry)

Prittelle. Bush piloted Wimpy Whiz Kid, Easy N Time Ranch LLC’s seven-year-old Quarter Horse gelding, to a score of 199.5, as did Prittelle with her own Last Pop Star, a 10-year-old Quarter Horse gelding.

BACK ON TRACK CONTINUES PARTNERSHIP WITH TULSA REINING CLASSIC

The Tulsa Reining Classic celebrates its sixth year with Back On Track as a Platinum sponsor in 2016 and Back On Track products will again be given to winners in a variety of classes. It's an important milestone, according to Cheryl Magoteaux Cody, who heads the Tulsa Reining Classic management team. She noted, "We are proud of this relationship – and thrilled that we continue to have the opportunity to spread the word about the great Back On Track Products!"

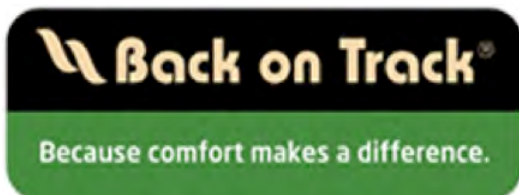

Long-term relationships like this one are important to Back On Track as well, according to company owner Bo Lofvander. "We love being part of the reining industry and supporting its growth," he said, then added. "We look forward to this great partnership continuing for many years to come!"

As in recent years, winners of a number of high-profile classes will receive the much-sought-after Back On Track items as awards – from therapeutic leg wraps to quick wraps to mesh sheets. And, the awards are some of the most popular at the event. Cody noted, "It's great to have a sponsor that produces the type of high-quality item that serious reiners want! You see them in use at the very next show!"

Manufacturers of state-of-the-art therapeutic products, Back On Track's joint and muscle protection items are manufactured from a ceramic textile. The textile is made up of fibers of polyester and polypropylene (some of the products are mixed with cotton fibers) with a ceramic powder fused into the fibers. The ceramic gives the fabric its unique property, which reflects body heat in the form of infrared heat radiation.

BILL MORONEY NAMED CEO OF THE UNITED STATES EQUESTRIAN FEDERATION

The United States Equestrian Federation (USEF) Board of Directors (BOD) has chosen Bill Moroney to serve as the Chief Executive Officer (CEO). The CEO oversees the USEF staff and all day-to-day operations, reports to the President, and keeps the Board of Directors and Officers fully informed of the conditions and operations of the Federation and all material concerns. The BOD made this decision during its Mid-Year Meeting held on June 21 at the USEF Foundation headquarters in Gladstone, N.J. Moroney has been serving as Interim CEO since the USEF Annual Meeting in January 2016.

The Governance Committee recommended that Moroney be offered the CEO position thereby making an outside search unnecessary. Governance Committee Chair and new President-elect Murray Kessler commented, "I believe that Bill is the perfect person to lead the day-to-day operations of the USEF. Importantly, his deep knowledge of the inner workings of the USEF, its rules, committees, and by-laws complements my strengths in leadership, marketing, governance, and strategy. I think we will make a very strong team."

USEF President Christine Tauber commented, "Bill has done a fantastic job during the last six months in his interim CEO role. He has the support of the Board of Directors, staff, and the affiliate organizations." Moroney has been on leave of absence from his role as President of the United States Hunter Jumper Association (USHJA) while serving in the USEF Interim CEO position. Tauber continued,

Bill Moroney (Geoff Bugbee)

PAINTS WILL STAR AT THE TULSA REINING CLASSIC!

The American Paint Horse Association returns to bring a splash of color to the 2016 Tulsa Reining Classic, slated for August 29-September 4 continuing the partnership between the APHA and the Tulsa Reining Classic.

Cheryl Magoteaux Cody of the TRC Management Team noted, “We’re so pleased to welcome the American Paint Horse Association back on board for Tulsa. APHA will once again be awarding eleven beautiful Gist Silversmiths custom-made buckles to high-finishing Paint horses at the show.”

Christine Henry, Director of Youth & Amateur Activities and Awards, was also glad to extend the relationship. “APHA is pleased to continue partnering with the Tulsa Reining Classic on recognizing top performing registered Paint horses in many classes. This year’s event will mark three years of special recognition for Paint-registered reining horses. In addition to receiving a beautifully designed Gist Silversmiths belt buckle, these paint horses receive credit towards APHA Open/Amateur World Show Qualification as well. I hope that the Paint horses, owners and exhibitors join us in Fort Worth in November for even more great prizes, cash and recognition at the APHA World Show.”

Buckles will be given to the highest advancing Paint Horse in the futurity and derby events as well as other selected classes.

DO HORSES NEED MATS IN STALLS?

Any horse that is campaigned heavily will spend a lot of time in stalls, and this can take a toll on an equine athlete. With the cost and effort of keeping a horse in top form and health, letting him stand for days in a stall on a concrete floor can be damaging.

“An athlete can’t continue to perform at its peak for very long without the ability to rest, explains Dr. Linda Sheridan of Elite Stall Mat Rentals. “For humans, any hard surface you stand on for any length of time makes your joints swell and causes pain. It’s the same for horses. They were designed to stand on nice spongy grass, not concrete.”

Elite Stall Mat Rentals delivers and installs mats at horse shows, then removes and sanitizes them after the event.

There are other issues horses might face in stalls at shows. Sheridan continues, “Oftentimes, people will put in a lot of shavings to protect their horse, but horses get down to the concrete while pawing or pacing. Then they lie down and get sores. With dirt floors, you have stallions and geldings urinating in the center and mares in the corner, and that causes erosion and uneven ground—so again, the horse can’t rest properly because of the uneven surface. More show grounds are going to a more durable surface like concrete, which is a positive because the ground is level, but then we need to protect the joints of the horses and prevent sores. Finally, in some areas of the country there is a big difference in temperature between daytime and nighttime. This can cause discomfort for your horse and therefore he may not rest as well. Mats help insulate the stall to even out the temperature.”

Choosing the right mat is important. It should not only provide padding but be durable and safe. Cheaper mats from overseas could contain toxic chemicals, metal shards, nylon threads from old tires, etc. If one of these components becomes exposed and a horse injures himself on it, this could be a liability. If the mat is too light and thin, the edges could curl in time, and a horse is likely to catch his foot on it and possibly injure himself—another liability.

“I use mats made for horses from high density Ethylene Vinyl Acetate (EVA) foam,” Dr. Sheridan explains. “It’s lighter than pure rubber yet still sturdy and durable, it doesn’t absorb liquids, and the surface is smooth enough that it can be sanitized but not so smooth that it becomes slick when it’s wet. It’s lead-and latex-free. I find the 7/8” thickness to be the best. Some mats are double sided, so if one side gets a bad spot on it, you can flip it over. However, some have a channel on one side to allow fluids to escape. This is good because it can keep water or urine from pooling and ruining the floor underneath, but it does mean that you can’t flip the mat over and keep using it if one side gets ruined. Also, rubber breaks down if left in the sun, so if mats are stored they need to be protected. If the surface breaks down, in addition to making the mat weaker, it’s easier for bacteria to grow on it, which makes it unhealthy for the horses.”

Another item to consider is the size. "How will you get them in?" Dr. Sheridan poses. "If the mat is exactly sized for the stall, it's difficult to get in and out unless the walls are moveable. If they're not, the mat probably needs to be in at least two pieces just to get it through the door. Even then, the pieces are so heavy you need two to three men to move them. I use six pieces with interlocking edges that don't pull apart and leave a gap for a hoof to get caught in. Plan to leave a little extra room around the edges of the stall, because the mat will expand in warm weather. If you don't leave space, the edges will curl."

Of course, as any facility manager knows, sanitization is essential when there are new horses in the stalls every week. "The problem with matting is it's harder to disinfect because the surface is not smooth," Dr. Sheridan says. The most effective way is to remove them from the stall, power wash, and disinfect them. Bleach is a popular disinfectant, because it's inexpensive but effective. However, it breaks down the mats and shortens their lifespan. I find quaternary ammonium to be just as effective without causing damage to the mats. It kills the equine herpes virus, which is the most resistant to disinfecting."

With new management in place and new policies being enacted, USA Reining is about to get a new lease on life! That's important with the new opportunities for international competition coming up AND for the revamped processes and new opportunities for youth, amateur and para riders that will be announced soon!

What is USA Reining?

USA Reining is the national Governing organization for the western horse sport of reining within the United States Equestrian Federation structure of equestrian competition.

It embodies youth, amateur and para riders as well as world-class open competitors. It educates and provides a pipeline for reiners to progress through the various levels on the way to FEI international competition.

USA Reining represents its members as the USEF-recognized affiliate for reining, advocating fair sport and horse welfare as key values.

Why should I be a part of it?

By becoming a member today, you join forces with fellow reining athletes and enthusiasts just like yourself who want to be a part of advancing US Reining and US Reiners internationally as well as inside the United States.

These are individuals who dedicate themselves to the pursuit of excellence, encourage growth and expansion of reining and support the protection of horses nationwide. They work to achieve a safe and level playing field and to ensure the safety and welfare of both equine and human athletes.

Elite international athletes, para-reiners, competition coaches, enthusiastic owners and weekend leisure riders all make up USA Reining and contribute to the greater good of western horse sport in the United States.

What competitions make up USA Reining?

Some of the most elite reining events in the world include USA Reining classes. From NRHA-produced events to the AQHA World Championship Show to show like the National Reining Breeders Classic, there are many opportunities to show and, of course, USA Reining fields Team USA for international competition.

How has USA Reining Changed?

The newly reorganized USA Reining is now located in Byars, Oklahoma and managed by the premier reining management team of Pro Management, Inc. Visit the website at www.usareining.us.

THE SOUTHWEST REINING HORSE ASSOCIATION ANNOUNCES LUCAS OIL/PROTECT THE HARVEST ROOKIE CHALLENGE

The 2016 Southwest Reining Horse Association Futurity and Show will feature the first-ever Lucas Oil/Protect The Harvest Rookie Challenge. The event will take place on October 28 and will be open to Rookie L2 (riders earnings less than $1500), Rookie L1 (Rider Earnings less than $500) and Primetime Rookie (Riders with under $1500 and over the age of 50).

Riders may ride any horse; it does not have to be owned by the Rookie rider.

According to SWRHA Board Member Lindsey McCutcheon, the event should be fun for all the participants. She said, "We are very excited to announce this brand new Friday night class! The Lucas Oil/Protect the Harvest Rookie Challenge will offer some amazing prizes and all L2, L1 and Prime Time Rookies are invited to enter. We will have a limit on the number of entries for this exciting new class so please enter early!"

The awards will be great – with a saddle, buckle and more going to the L2 Champion, and buckles and other awards to the L1 and Rookie Prime Time Champs.

There will be additional prizes for Rookie Level 1, Rookie Level 2, Rookie Prime Time, Green Reiner Level 1, Green Reiner Level 2, Non Pro, Intermediate Non Pro, Limited Non Pro – and entries in these classes will be eligible for drawings in every class for Lucas Oil/Protect The Harvest product bags.

For information on the Southwest Reining Horse Association Futurity, call 580-759-2929 or visit the website at www.swrha.com. For information on Protect The Harvest visit www.protecttheharvest.com.
