WILD CARD CHALLENGE SHOW

Hearts, Spades, Clubs and Diamonds. Like the fourth suit in a brand new deck, the Wild Card Reining Challenge made a complete set of the Brumley Management Group's annual offering of Reining shows. The inaugural event ran over the Memorial Day weekend, May 25th through 29th at the South Point Hotel, Casino and Equestrian Center in Las Vegas, Nevada. The Wild Card is aptly named ... a radical departure and a giant step outside the box for the Reining industry. First off, this show solidly spotlights four-year-olds, as opposed to three-year-olds. It's an idea much talked about in this equine industry and others, allowing equine athletes a chance to mature physically and mentally, prior to extreme stress in competition. Actually, everything about the Wild Card show was geared toward new, innovative ideas, continuing education and the future. The event offered the popular amenities of the South Point Hotel and Las Vegas, and then threw in five days of perfect 70 and 80-degree weather.

Derby year. It's working!" On Thursday morning the ladies came to the forefront as the first winners lined up. Crystal McNutt began the day on a high note, posting a 72.5 in the Wild Card Reining Challenge Open on Lenas Wimpys Rooster and then closing the afternoon by winning the ARBC Level 4 Open (plus nearly $6,400) with purebred Arabian, Zee Gunslinger. On Friday evening, McNutt won well over $20,000 with her first (TR Por Quixote), second (TR Flash Flood) and third (Wheres Wanda RA) place finishes in the $20,000 Added Level 4 ARBC Half-Arabian Open Pre-Futurity. Another talented Arizona lady, Ashley Kelkenberg, also began her show well Thursday, winning with both Magnificent Dreamer in the Wild Card Reining Challenge Intermediate Open and with Nite Eyes in the Limited Open. The $10,000 SmartPak Non-Pro Maturity dominated Thursday afternoon with wins for Kevin Rosenbaum and Rolex N Chex in the Level 4 and Taylor Bradshaw and Tinselena Nic in Levels 3, 2 and 1.

The show overall had a nice complement of Non Pro competition. Robyn Schiller posted Wednesday's high score of the day (72) with CD Star Commander, winning the Wild Card Reining Challenge 1 Non Pro, Intermediate Non Pro and the Novice Non Pro Levels 2 and 1. Robyn was elated. "We've had 'Sherlock' (CD Star Commander) since last September," she smiled. "We knew he had some 'worry' issues and worked on basics with him to prepare for his final

A highlight of the weekend at the Wild Card Reining Challenge was the free clinics and seminars. They began on Friday morning with Jody Brainard, respected NRHA judge and speaker, who cleverly showed up with all of the Wild Card judges to lend comment and humor to the proceedings.

His videos and slides were at the same time funny and very informative. Anytime a new show offers a free seminar there's always the chance that only two or three people will show. Not so here. Over a hundred actually came and extra chairs had to be quickly hunted up to accommodate everyone. Brainard's clinic was immediately followed by Andrea Fappani's in the main arena. A noted NRHA trainer and $4 Million Rider, Fappani both rode through and discussed his personal methods for circling and speed control, basic exercises he considers critical to the development of consistent, winning Reining horses. On Saturday morning, Texas-based veterinarian Dr. Khris Crowe actually gave two clinics, one that covered the important aspects of preparing equine athletes for high level competition and its debilitating, accompanying stress levels, and one that simply offered a short, delightful overview of the amazing and unique characteristics of our beloved horses. The clinics and seminars provided a real addition of education and future-think to Reining, something everyone feels is important right now. Along with the show, all of the clinics were live streamed on www.HorseShowGlobal.com.

The World Para Reining (WPR) also made an appearance at the Wild Card Reining Challenge, riding as teams at this particular show and competing for $5,000 in prize money. Part of the winning team, Briana Bartlett noted how much the competition helps her with all of her life. "I am leasing Western Whiz from Bob Thompson and Lisa Coulter this year," Lisa says. "I ride him five or six days a week ... as much as possible. I set big goals for this competition and I learned as much from watching other riders, NRHA and WPR, as from the runs. For the first time this run I was able to really put my hands forward and trust my horse. We connected in the pen. The riding keeps me walking and mobile. It means everything."

The show's main attraction was the Wild Card Reining Challenge 4-year-old Futurities. The $27,500 Added 4-Year-Old Non Pro Futurity competition on Friday was a big deal for Lindy Longfellow and her sweet Palomino, CW On Juice, winners of the Levels 4, 3 and 2, for take-home pay of $13,981.92. It was also a great time for Jill Ramleth and her wildly-colored Crystalized Gunner, in the money in the Level 3 and winner of the Level 1, complete with a check for $3,766.76. On Saturday the Tamarack Ranch $37,500 Added Open 4-Year-Old Futurity boasted the top competition of the show. Winner of Levels 4 and 3 was Gabe Hutchins and Wallawhizagun (Walla Walla Whiz x Snow Gun by Colonels Smoking Gun (Gunner)) for owner Tamarack Ranch LLC. Hutchins was delighted with the mare's performance. "She is very talented but lacked some confidence and was a bit shy around other horses last fall," Gabe noted. "We heard about the Four-Year-Old Futurity at the Wild Card show and it seemed like a good fit for her. Saturday at the show she was just okay in the warm-up, but when she hit the gate she really focused and gave me a good run. I think she's going to be a great show horse. I will give her some time off now and bring her back for the High Roller in September. This four-year-old event is a really great thing they are doing. It'll save horses and improve their longevity!" Abby Mixon brought Ruf Nite (Gunners Special Nite x Dunit A Lil Ruf by Lil Ruf Peppy) for his first big run and took Reserve in Levels 4 and 3 and won the Level 2 to win $9366.80. Nicholas Barthelemy rode Dunits Lil Gun (Colonels Lil Gun x Hollywood Baby Dunit by Hollywood Dun It) to win the Level 1 Open and place well in the money in Levels 4, 3, and 2 ... all the latter three tie situations.

After the dust settled judge Jody Brainard commented very positively on the quality of the Reiners in the competition. "They were good!! Really good! It seemed to me that several [with their Wild Card runs] could have made third 'go' at the Futurity last winter," he notes enthusiastically. "I was impressed with these 'older' horses and what they showed me at the Wild Card. The difference six months can make is apparent. Personally, I have a gut feeling about this event. With the lack of stress and allowing these horses to mature physically and mentally for a longer period of time, I think that in just a few, short years the Four-Year-Old Futurity could be the toughest Reining event to win in our industry."

And if that turns out to be the case, certainly the entries and the prize money will quickly grow to match, as well as the crowds, and then won't the Wild Card truly be a show not-to-be-missed!

"Going into a brand new event like the Wild Card Reining Challenge there are so many unknowns," says Amanda Brumley. "I knew that the Four-Year-Old Futurity entry requirements would somewhat limit the number entered this first year. The 4-year-old futurity concept is widely supported but it proposes dynamic change to our industry's culture and that takes time. Not too much time though. Next year will see double the entries at this show. You can already see the ground swell forming. I received a wonderful amount of positive feedback. Our thanks to everyone who came, all those who watched online, and of course, our treasured sponsors, we are really looking forward to 2017!"

Brumley Management Group, LLC has two more great shows to go for 2016, The Reining By The Bay show in Woodside, California in July (this could well be the most beautifully located, relaxed Reining show in America) and the world famous Brumley September show, the High Roller Reining Classic, once again in Las Vegas at the South Point Equestrian Center. RUDI KRONSTEINER AND BO BRUTSAERT WIN MARKEL FRENCH DERBY OPEN AND NON PRO

The 2016 Markel French Derby with $30,000 added for the first time, took place at the Horse Academy, Mooslargue from Wednesday May 25 to Sunday May 29th. 160 horses and nearly 120 riders from 11 countries took part in perfect weather conditions and a relaxed atmosphere.

The NON PRO FRENCH DERBY was contested by about 50 riders and was dominated by Belgian rider Bo Brutsaert who won Levels 2,3 and 4 with CJ Whiz, a seven year old stallion by Topsail Whiz. With a score of 217, Brutsaert succeeds her father Koen Brutsaert, the owner of the horse, who won the French Derby Non Pro Level 4 in 2015. "I have been showing with CJ Whiz for a year now. We won the NRHA European Intermediate Non Pro and the Belgian Derby Level 2 together in 2015. The horse was on great form even if I know we can spin faster still. He was great in the stops and above all in the circles, it is the first time that I have had him running like that! Our next objectives are the Breeders Derby in Kreuth, the Horse Academy Trophy in July and the European Derby. This was my first visit to Mooslargue and I really liked the place and the show. There were a lot of classes and paytimes to prepare."

In Level 3 and 4, there were Co Reserve Champions with a score of 213,5 - Italian rider Andrea Castrucci and RS Nebbiolo Blue, a 7 year old stallion by Spat A Blue, - Swiss rider Adrienne Spiedel and SL Customized Grace, a 5 year old mare by Great Resolve, - Young German rider Michelle Maibaum, still a Youth, with Revolutionary Affair, a 7 year old mare by Einsteins Revolution. - In Level 2, German rider Jan Tobias Kock was Reserve Champion with his horse QT Red N Run, a 4 year old gelding by Dun It On The QT with a score of 213.

The Markel French Derby Non Pro Level 1 was decided in a run off between two German riders, Vanessa Sauer on Wound Up Whiz and Cindy Doll on Boom Boom Blondy BB. It was Cindy Doll who became Champion after a first run of 210.5 and a second one with a score of 214 on her seven year old mare by Peek A Boom. "I bought the mare two years ago from Cira Baek, and since then we have been working with my trainer Guy Zemah in Germany. Blondy was a little nervous for her first run but she was perfect the second time. This was our first visit to Mooslargue and I am sure we will be coming back!"

Vanessa Sauer and Wound Up Whiz, a 5 year old gelding by Topsail Whiz were Reserve Champions with a score of 213,5.

THE OPEN FRENCH DERBY OPEN was contested by some 40 riders. Rudi Kronsteiner, Austrian million dollar rider, won the Level 4 with a score of 222.5 with AB Peppy Diamond, a seven year old stallion by OT Taris San Peppy who was purchased by Jennifer Nixdorf at the 2015 Italian Futurity. "We did a 220 in Rome, and then a 221 at Kreuth and 222,5 here. The horse was fine during the class even if he normally he spins even faster. He also did an excellent show with Jennifer in the Non Pro Derby which they would surely have won without the penalty. She will show him again at the Breeders Derby in Kreuth next month and I will show him back here again for the Horse Academy Trophy in July. It is a long way for us to come here but we are very happy to do so nevertheless."

German rider Grisha Ludwig, who like Rudi Kronsteiner showed three horses in the Markel French Derby Open, was Reserve Champion with Ruf Lil Diamond, a six year old paint horse mare by Jazelena Diamond, with a score of 220. French rider Fabien Boiron and Jac Whiz, a seven year old gelding by Conquistador Whiz bred by Maqueline Reining Horses and the property of Philippe Castel, finished third in their attempt to win the Level 4 for a third year in succession, and were Level 3 Champions with a score of 219.5 "My horse was fine except in the second left hand spin when we didn't understand each other. The horse can also stop better and we will have to work on that, but at the same time he has made great progress on his circles since last year. Our next objectives are the Horse Academy Trophy, the European Derby and Equita' Lyon. The French Derby is always a good show even if this year I didn't completely agree with the choice of the patterns. The NRHA France Cocktail was another good moment at the show."

Italian rider Fabiano Cestari, Rudi Kronsteiner's assistant, was the Level 3 Reserve Champion and won the Level 2 with Vanessa Sauer's horse, Wound Up Whiz, already the Reserve Champion in Markel French Derby Non Pro Level 1, with a score of 213,5. "I have been riding the horse only since the beginning of the year but he has been trained by Rudi for far longer. The horse put up excellent shows as it is not easy to compete in both the Open and the Non Pro. This is the second time I have been to Mooslargue and I like this show and the organization is excellent for us and for our clients. I would like to thank my boss and the horse's owners for giving me the chance to compete here.”

French rider John Navillod was Level 2 Reserve Champion with a score of 213, only half a point behind his Italian rival, with Play Ruf Whiz Jasmin, a five year old gelding by JD Colonel Whiz, bred in France by David Roux and belonging to Jérôme Farrenc. This excellent performance also put them in 3rd place in the Markel French Derby Open Level 3. Finally German rider Josefin Lintner and Stepinline, a seven year old gelding by Wimpys Little Step belonging to the young rider Nathalie Henzi, were Level 1 Champions with a score of 212,5. “I had three horses in the class but I wasn't sure he was the best and we only decided to show him in the Derby yesterday! This was my first show with him and he usually competes in the Non Pro and Youth classes with his owner. He was very concentrated throughout the pattern and particularly in the small circles. I found the atmosphere at the show very relaxed and it is a pleasure to compete at home.”

Italian rider Walter Martini and his horse Dreamin With Dot, a four year old stallion by Magnum With A Dream were Reserve Champions with a score of 212.
