SHAWN FLARIDA TOPS FLORIDA REINING CLASSIC ON TINSELTOWN FLY GUY

Shawn Flarida, of Springfield, Ohio, was already the leading open rider at the Florida Reining Classic according to Quarter Horse News Equi-stat figures. From 2004 to 2015, he rode five horses to total show earnings of $21,264.

At the 2016 show, held February 24-28, the NRHA's only $5 Million Rider added another $8,389 to that total by winning the championship with a score of 227.5 on Patricia Holtzman's Tinseltown Fly Guy and $6661 for winning the Reserve Championship with a score of 225.5 on Shine N Spook owned by Clark Reining Horses.

Tinseltown Fly Guy, which Shawn calls "Ruben" after original owner Ruben Vandorp, has already had a stellar career. He was the 2013 National Reining Horse Association Futurity Reserve Champion, then won both the Gordyville Breeders Derby and the Wimpys Little Step Derby as well and has been a consistent finalist in major reining competitions.

According to Shawn, he had a special connection with this horse early on. "I have always been a fan of Hollywoodstinseltown and have looked for a son of his for a number of years. I also liked this horse because I won the NRBC for the first time aboard another horse out of his mother Fly Flashy Jac by the name of Einsteins Revolution."

It's been a good partnership, but that is coming to the end as his owner Patricia is slated to begin showing him soon! Current plans are to take him to the NRBC. "We are not sure whether I will show him or Shawn – but I'll definitely ride him at the NRHA Derby."

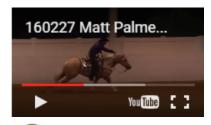

Holtzman bought the stallion from Fritz Lehman in late July last year. "He's so kind - good-minded and he carries me-I'm a rookie," said Patricia who has only been riding horses for five years.

Patricia notes that the 6-year-old seems to have the perfect laid-back personality. "He's been off since the futurity – and at Florida he walked out of the pen and yawned like 'I did my job'. That's his personality."

She was also ebullient in her praise and appreciation for the support she gets from Shawn and Michelle Flarida, their assistant trainers and "all the Non Pros I get to ride with there. I couldn't ask for better."

Matt Palmer Rides Dun Alotta Chics to Intermediate Open Championship

Matt Palmer's score on Dun Alotta Chics was just a half point behind Flarida's Reserve Open score of 225.5. That created a great payday for the Elverson, Pennsylvania trainer, because he finished third in the Open, good for $4934, and took the Intermediate Open Championship to collect another $2,700. Dun Alotta Chics is owned by J Marie (Punch) Haring and her husband, Doug.

Actually, Palmer purchased the palomino last year for his owner to ride in Non Pro. He hadn't considered showing him until Punch found that she was going to have to have hip surgery.

"I bought him for her at Oklahoma City from Dr. Jim Morgan because I needed a quiet safe horse for her. Jim had shown him and won about $19,000 and he'd done a great job with him so Punch rode him and fell in love with him and we brought him home. Then she wasn't able to ride him so I jumped on."

Thing is, he thought he was getting on a Non Pro horse and Dun Alotta Chics was ready to up the ante! Every day Matt asked him for a little more and got it and he quickly realized the up side. "I talked to Punch and Doug and said 'I think I can show him at Florida. I think there's more horse there'."

With their blessing he hauled the horse to the Florida Classi and after the 225.5 score realized there was "alotta" horse there. "It just fell into my lap," he laughed. "He wasn't supposed to be for me!"

Now with Punch recovering from the surgery, the plan is to show next at the National Reining Breeders Classic.

Ruben Vandorp Takes Limited Open Championship on RC Fashion Chic

Ruben Vandorp rode RC Fashion Chic to a 224.5 score to grab the Intermediate Open Reserve Championship for owners Peter and Courtney Morgan. That was good for $1,856 but that score also topped the Limited Open to earn another $1,931.

Ruben showed the 4-year-old stallion at the NRHA Futurity but a penalty kept them out of the finals. "He's very special; I think the coolest thing about him – obviously he has a lot of stop, circle, turn – but it's his presence. It's the way he carries himself overall. He's pretty unique."

Dave Davis started the colt for the Morgans and he was sent to Vandorp as a 2-year-old. "I'm excited to continue to show him. I'm always extremely thankful when people have faith in me to let me ride and show their horses."

But riding RC Fashion Chic wasn't the end of Ruben's good fortune at the show. He was also the Limited Open Reserve Champion with a score of 22.35 on She Whiz Pretty Juicy owned by Green Valley Ranch. That title was worth another $1,328. It was Ruben's first time to show the mare. "I thought she could be good but didn't know how good!" Now she, too, is NRBC bound.

Kyle Shaw Wins Level 1 Championship Spookynic

Kyle Shaw scored 216.6 to win the Level 1 Florida Derby on Spookynic owned by Bob and Arlene Santagata. That win was good for $1,009.

The Santagatas own and operate Santa Hill Ranch, a state-of-the-art horse training facility specializing in reining, that is situated on a 150 acre farm outside of Campbell Hall, New York.

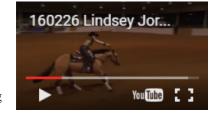

Reserve Champion honors ended in a three-way tie between Andrew Fox on Lite N Juicey and Ima Smart Smokin Gun owned by Darling 888 Ranch, and Cristiano Coelho on Lucille Tag owned by Deorah Strahman. Each scored 212 to win $564.

Lyndsey Jordan Rides Made By Magnum to Non Pro Championship

Lyndsey Jordan laid down a sparkling run ton Made By Magnum that the judges rewarded with a whopping 224 score. The Kentucky reiner raised the good gelding and is understandably thrilled with his performce. "He has been incredible – and Robin (Schoeller) has done a fantastic job with him."

She sent "Bentley" to Robin as a late yearling and he rode him to an Open Finals slot at the NRHA Futurity before Lyndsey started showing him. Since then it's been a great partnership. As a 4-yearold he won the NRHA Derby Non Pro Levels 2,3 and 4, then returned last year to finish in the top ten.

"He's so consistent – he's playful in the stall but when you get on he's all business and Robin's done a fantastic job of keeping him fresh. We always give him a vacation after the derbies. The Florida Classic was his first show back for the new year."

According to Lyndsey, the plan is to go next to the NRBC then the NRHA Derby.

Sherry Sumpter Sweeps Non Pro Derby Levels 3, 2, 1 and Primetime on This Guns The Won

Sherry Sumpter had a great day with This Guns The Won. Not only did she finish as the reserve champion of the Non Pro, earning $2,940; she also made a clean sweep of the rest of the divisions, topping the Non Pro Derby Levels 3, 2, 1 and Primetime!

Sherry who rides with Sam Smith, returned to the show ring last fall after a long hiatus and said at the time after the ancillary class win, "We really just wanted to see where we were at because we want to do the derbies next year. Now we know what to work on."

Clearly the trainer and the Non Pro figured out the right formula. Sherry noted, "The partnership with Sam is key. He's a very detailed trainer and coach and he's still putting his heart into it." She had ridden with Smith years ago when they still both lived in Ohio. "When I decided to ride again, Sam just came to mind – I wanted to go back to my roots and I knew he was an amazing coach and trainer and a great friend."

From the beginning the goal has been the derbies in 2016. They started in the summer then went to the Southwest Reining Horse Association Futurity for a test drive where they won the Novice Horse Championship for the weekend. First in 2016 was the Winter Slide where they won money in all four divisions – then the Florida Classic! Next on the agenda is Tulsa, then the NRBC.

Sherry owns the gelding with her stepdaughter Ginger Dwyer. "2016 will be a year of adventure for both of us. We bred the mare then raised her and she managed Apache for the first three years so she's part of this. Plus she just started riding five years ago and she's going for the Rookie of the Year this year. It's wonderful to share this with her.

In the Level 3, Level 2 and Level 1 Non Pro the Reserve Championship went to Shawn Reynolds for a score of 218.0 on This Ones A Chic, good for $1,856, $1,453 and $731, respectively. The Prime Time Reserve Championship was won by George Bell on Couture Tag, a horse he owns with his wife, Carol.

JERRY KIMMEL SPONSORS OPEN REINING NIGHT AT NRBC

Friday, April 22, will be an exciting day at the National Reining Breeders Classic! The Non Pro Finals highlight the afternoon, then the evening becomes a rainbow of tough Open Competition. This year the Open Classic Challenge (for horses 7 and older), and the $25,000 added Open will run concurrently and the competition will also feature the selection of the 2016 USEF Reining Team!

One of the reining industry's most enduring icons, Jerry Kimmel, is the presenter of Open Reining Night and the night of top-level open competition should be a memorable one in the Great Southwest Equestrian Center Coliseum Arena in Katy, Texas.

Jerry Kimmel is a long-time NRBC participant and supporter and he's effusive in his praise of the event. "The NRBC is my favorite reining. I think this is a great show as far as getting the top riders and top horses from around the country. But more than that, the way it is run makes it enjoyable and fun. I'm glad to be a part of the NRBC and to support it for those reasons."

Kimmel's stallions, Dun Gotta Gun and Mister Nicadual, have a heritage of having performed well in just the kind of competition that will be featured on Friday night. Mister Nicadual, with lifetime earnings over $115,000, was a World Equestrian Games Medialist and AQHA Senior Reining Reserve World Champion. Dun Gotta Gun, immortalized as a Breyer Horse, was an NRHA Non Pro Futurity Reserve Champion and AQHA Superior Reining Horses.

The National Reining Breeders Classic Show begins on April 17 and continues through April 24. The NRBC is the most successful stallion incentive program in reining history. In just 20 years, the NRBC has grown to include over two hundred subscribed stallions and 38,872 enrolled foals and the 2016 show will again pay out over a million dollars. For information on the NRBC, visit the web site at www.nrbc.com or call 580-759-3939.

New for 2016 - NRBC

Introduces $10,000 Added Development Division!

The National Reining Breeders Classic has created a new Development Division for Open Horses that have not won $2,000* by Mar 31 to provide a place for horses that have not yet reached their competitive peak.

Eligible 4, 5, and 6-year-old horses will compete in this $10,000 added special NRBC division for no additional entry fee. They must not have won $2,000 by March 31 in any reining competition – aged event or regular horse show classes.

Additionally, $500 per entry will be added to the Development Division purse.

This division will pay 5 places in 2016. Eligible horses must submit a Development Division Designation Form prior to the NRBC Open Draw to be entered in this division.

Development Division Designation Forms will be available at www.nrbc.com.

Reflections with Ruben van Dorp

"Love does no wrong to others, so love fulfills the requirements of God's law." Romans 13:10

Lord, your name is victory! Your blood is redemption, forgiveness and a new beginning. Your gospel is love and your message is grace. All praise shall rise to you, my King. You are amazing and I am struggling with the idea that you can love me, in spite of me. Lord, all I have I surrender to you. Use me, direct me, guide me for your purpose and your glory alone.

Ruben van Dorp grew up in The Netherlands and began training horses over 22 years ago. His equine experience in many different breeds and disciplines led to nine European championships. After relocating to the United States in 2002, he started Vandorp Inc., DBA Vandorp Reining Horses. With his success in the United States, Ruben's current lifetime National Reining Horse Association earnings are over $625,000. In 2003, Ruben married the love of his life, Melissa. They currently reside in Cross Roads, Texas with their beautiful children, Skylar and Peyton. Ruben and his family are very involved in their church, COC Metro, where he and his wife began and lead the PowerPack Ministry. This program currently feeds over 275 elementary school kids per month who are in need of food on the weekends. Ruben has a passion to share the knowledge of Jesus' saving grace and see lives changed. He was inspired by a friend to write and share a daily devotional via text messaging which he has continued daily for the past two years. If you would like to be added to the text message list, text him at 214-243-0447.

FIRST ANNUAL WINTER PREMIER SALE A SUCCESS

The first annual Winter Premier Sale, held at Will Rogers Equestrian Center in Fort Worth, was a great success for owners Tim McQuay, Tom McCutcheon, and Dell Hendricks and management team Mandy McCutcheon and Jennifer Anderson of The Sale Company. Held on Saturday, February 20 prior to the finals of the National Reined Cow Horse Association's World's Greatest Horseman competition, 58 horses went through the ring with a healthy average sales price of just over $12,500.

Taking High Seller honors with a sale price of $122,000 was 2010 palomino stallion Shiners Crown Jewel, consigned by Alpha Quarter Horses LLC and purchased by Roberto Garza of Hacienda de Guadalupe. Both selling for $40,000 were high selling mare One Shiney Pistol, consigned by Roxanne Koepsell and purchased by Carlos DaSilva, and high selling two year-old Two Smoking Barrels, consigned by Turnabout Farm, Inc. and purchased by Miguel Carazos. The sale's high selling gelding, Hiada Rey Cat, was a NRCHA Youth Reserve World Champion Saturday morning before selling for $16,000 later in the day.

The Winter Premier Sale

owners and The Sale Company management team agree on the importance of customer service. "The most important thing to us is our customer. If we promote our consignments properly, represent them transparently, and treat both our buyers and sellers with the respect they deserve, we expect a long and healthy lifetime for this sale just like we have had at the Legacy Reining Breeders Sale," manager Mandy McCutcheon stated.

Co-manager of The Sale Company Jennifer Anderson added, "With horse sales available all over the country, it is our job to set ourselves apart as a management team. If our customers can count on us for honesty and integrity, we can all sleep well at night and expect to have a good sale."

Hosting a first time sale is always a risk, and the Winter Premier Sale owners are thankful to the horse community for the overwhelming support their sale received.

Reining veteran and sale co-owner Tim McQuay told us, "The consignments were strong and diverse, and I think that helped to draw such a great crowd. It's always a little nerve-racking, wondering if there will be enough buyers to make the sale successful, but we had so much support from both the Reiners and the Cow Horse people, plus our sponsors and staff, that we were really thrilled with the sale and are excited about the future."

APHA RETURNS TO NRBC! PAINT REWARDS AT THE NATIONAL REINING BREEDERS CLASSIC!

The American Paint Horse Association and the National Reining Breeders Classic are continuing their partnership for the third consecutive year! That means that exhibitors who have their American Paint Horse Association registration papers in order at the 2016 National Reining Breeders Classic can win custom-made Gist trophy buckles!

"We are honored to welcome the American Paint Horse Association back to the NRBC," said NRBC Secretary-Treasurer, Cheryl Magoteaux Cody. "Because of APHA, there are 14 more buckles up for grabs. The highest advancing APHA-registered horse in all four divisions of both the Open and Non Pro Classic will receive buckles. Plus buckles will also go to the highest scoring APHA-registered horse in the Classic Challenge Open and Non Pro and the highest combined score in the Open, Non Pro, Rookie and Youth NRHA classes! It's a tremendous opportunity for our exhibitors."

According to Kalyn Sanders, Director of Business Development for the American Paint Horse Association, the APHA considers the NRBC as one of its most valued event partners. "The show provides the perfect platform for APHA to further recognize and reward top-performing Paint Horses in an area in which they already compete. We are continually amazed by the number and quality of athletes that exhibit at the NRBC each year. It is a true pleasure to be able to participate in such an elite event."

Paint entries at the NRBC are eligible for some important additional benefits, according to Sanders. "If the exhibitor/owner still needs to register his or her horse with APHA, they can save $15 by doing so online. Also, no matter what the horse's age, the owner will never pay more than$100 for the Regular Registry and $50 for Solid Paint-Bred. Just visit the online registration page at http://www.apha.com/association/pressroom/releases/2014/03/21/online-registration. Our friendly MemberCare team is ready to help, should you have questions or need assistance with the process, by calling 817-222-6423 Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. through 4:30 p.m. CST."

Owners who opt to submit registration paperwork by mail, should be sure to write NRBC REINING on the front of the envelope to receive complimentary rush processing.

In addition to these awards, the American Paint Horse Association has designated the National Reining Breeders Classic as one of the approved shows for 2016 APHA World Show qualification.

NEW LOCATION ANNOUNCED FOR 2016 NRHA EUROPEAN DERBY & PRE-FUTURITY

According to the National Reining Horse Association Germany will be the new location for the next National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) European Derby and Pre-Futurity. The sixth edition of this prestigious event, which features over €124,000-added money. will take place at the Messezentum Fairgrounds in Augsburg, Germany, the venue where the renowned 'Americana' is hosted every other year.

The NRHA event will be held September 5-11, 2016 in conjunction with the European Reining Cow Horse Association (ERCHA) Futurity and Nations Cup, which is approved by the National Reined Cow Horse Association (NRCHA).

"We are so grateful for the support of the Italian reining horse community and the wonderful foundation they laid for this event," said Gary Carpenter, NRHA Commissioner. "Now we enter an exceptional new chapter at a more central location. The huge benefit here is that every other year we can showcase our sport in front of crowds the size of which we have only dreamed, and thereby promote reining to so many more people."

A bonus to this location change comes with a connection to the 'Americana' event (to be held next in 2017), bringing even more recognition to the sport of reining in Europe in the future. Held since 1986 – and thanks to the collaboration of the AFAG Team, organizers of the shows and exhibitions held in Augsburg, and the Ready Steady Show Management Team – 'Americana' has become the biggest show dedicated to western riding in Europe. Last year alone, the event attracted close to 55,000 visitors and more than 280 vendors, as well as media attention worldwide.

"We are very excited and honored to be able to collaborate with the National Reining Horse Association in the production of this great show in 2016," said Sandra Quade and Joachim Bochmann, Ready Steady Show managers. "We are certain that it will be a great success and that this will be a boost for the sport of reining in Europe, particularly considering that, in 2017, plans include that the European Derby & Pre-Futurity be held during the Americana where, on finals night alone, over 5,000 spectators pay their way to cheer their favorite reiners!"

TIME TO RIDE CHALLENGE RETURNS WITH NEW INCENTIVES IN 2016

Help bring new people to the horse industry!

The Time to Ride Challenge, a contest offering $100,000 in cash and prizes, will take place again in 2016 by incentivizing stables, clubs, and businesses to focus on outreach to new riders. Participants win cash and prizes by introducing new, "non-riders" to riding and other horse activities, and simultaneously benefit by growing their businesses and organizations. Time to Ride is an initiative of the American Horse Council Marketing Alliance, a group of industry leading companies and organizations collaborating to grow the horse industry.

Since its launch in 2014, the Challenge has introduced over 60,000 new people to horses through fun, beginner-friendly horse experiences. The 2015 contest saw more than a 60% increase in the number of newcomers reached compared to 2014 due to the hard work and enthusiasm of event hosts eager to share the joy of horses with new people. Hundreds of stables nationwide have opened their doors to their communities and focused on holding these public horse events designed to connect horse-interested families with local opportunities. "We brought horses to host an event at our local rodeo, and we were amazed at how many rodeo fans had never actually touched a horse! After meeting us and our horses, these families then knew exactly where to go for riding lessons," said Christine Yea-sel of Diamond P Equestrian Center.

"The Challenge puts real rewards behind a cause that's critical to our industry," stated Patti Colbert, Time to Ride spokesperson. "These new horse enthusiasts are becoming the next generation of riding students, clients, and customers; who will eventually be owning horses, competing in shows, using the services of veterinarians, and growing our entire industry."

Grand prize winners in small, medium and large divisions will take home $10,000 cash each. A total of over $75,000 cash will be paid out to the top ten "hosts" in each division who introduce the greatest number of newcomers to horses throughout the summer. Approximately $25,000 in product and in-kind prizes will also be awarded.

The Challenge will take place June 1 through September 30, 2016 and will be open for registration April 1, 2016. Please visit http://www.timetoridechallenge.com/ and sign up for the newsletter to receive further updates and a notification as soon as registration is available.
