Reflections with Ruben van Dorp

And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him. 2 Colossians 3:17

Giving thanks, initially give thanks for the benefits we have received from God and others. To recognize and to express appreciation for them. Being a grateful person takes practice, it takes dedication. It takes you being on the look out for His blessings all day, every day. Lord, open my blind eyes, my deaf ears and my hardened heart to the many blessings you have given me. Help me to appreciate all you have done, all you are doing and all you will do for me. Forgive me for being ungrateful, transform me into a thankful, blessing recognizing, praising person.

Ruben van Dorp grew up in The Netherlands and began training horses over 22 years ago. His equine experience in many different breeds and disciplines led to nine European championships. After relocating to the United States in 2002, he started Vandorp Inc., DBA Vandorp Reining Horses. With his success in the United States, Ruben's current lifetime National Reining Horse Association earnings are over $625,000. In 2003, Ruben married the love of his life, Melissa. They currently reside in Cross Roads, Texas with their beautiful children, Skylar and Peyton. Ruben and his family are very involved in their church, COC Metro, where he and his wife began and lead the PowerPack Ministry. This program currently feeds over 275 elementary school kids per month who are in need of food on the weekends. Ruben has a passion to share the knowledge of Jesus' saving grace and see lives changed. He was inspired by a friend to write and share a daily devotional via text messaging which he has continued daily for the past two years. ### HORSE-&-RIDER MAGAZINE BRINGS YOU-ARE-THERE APPROACH TO THE NEW WILD CARD REINING CHALLENGE

The 2016 Wild Card Reining Challenge show debuts this spring in Las Vegas, bringing with it the Four-Year-Old Reining Futurity, an idea whose time has come. This brand new event, which runs over the Memorial Day weekend, May 25th through 29th at the South Point Event Center, Hotel and Casino, will be strongly supported and covered this year by by Christy Egan the widely read and respected Horse-&-Rider Magazine.

"We're very excited to be a part of the premier Wild Card Reining Challenge show," says Horse-&-Rider editor Jennifer Paulson. "We've been 'on board' with the idea of a Four-Year-Old Futurity for Reining horses for years, starting with the Red Shirt Futurity concept. This is a great opportunity for growth in the industry and a chance for horses that cannot, for one reason or another, do a three-year-old futurity."

Paulson, who rode and showed horses as a youth, teen and (briefly) as a non-pro, feels the event provides unprecedented opportunity and, importantly, reflects the interests of Horse-&-Rider's large readership. This is a publication with a substantial, loyal following and a Social Media audience of over a half-million.

It's good news for the fledgling Wild Card show. Horse-&-Rider has been the magazine of Western riding for decades, informing, entertaining and educating experienced and novice horsemen in the west and nationally for fifty years. With its tightly focused training articles, practical stable-management techniques, hands-on health care tips and you-are-there approach to major equine events, they are a near perfect partner for Brumley Management Group, LLC, producers of the Wild Card Reining Challenge.

This promise of global coverage will benefit the event and its dynamic sponsors like Lucas Oil, the company that recently stepped up to the plate to sponsor the $65,000 Wild Card Four-Year-Old Futurity, Tamarack Ranch, and Markel Insurance among others. "The four-year-old futurity horse concept has been discussed by good horsemen and breeders for years," says Amanda Brumley, President of Brumley Management Group, LLC.

"This idea challenges horsemen to provide a venue for young horses that need extra time to mature, train and prepare for competitive reining, both physically and mentally. This concept will benefit all levels of the reining horse industry, starting with the horse owners who want to give their equine athletes more time to bring their best game to the show pen, the breeders who know that the continued soundness a later start can provide contributes enormously to a long, productive career for their animals, and the trainers who understand that early, high pressure training can lead to difficult choices and shortened futures for some animals. Everybody wins with this concept, especially the horses!"

The Wild Card Four-Year-Old Futurity is an event that does not require nominations or enrollments for participation. The horses must have an NRHA Competition License to compete and pre-entries are due April 22, 2016. Horses that are entered in the Wild Card Reining Challenge cannot have competed in any reining futurities (Category 2 Aged Event) as a three-year-old.

The Four-Year-Old Futurity is the spotlighted event of the show that will also offer two slates of ancillary reining classes, $47,000 Added Futurity for 4 and 5-year-old Arabian and Half-Arabian reining horses, a $10,000 Added SmartPak Non Pro Maturity which includes Arabian divisions, and the popular World Para Reining Challenge for riders with physical handicaps and for discharged military with post-traumatic stress disorder.

"Another reason why Horse-&-Rider is now a part of the Wild Card show are the much anticipated free seminars that are slated to focus on topics like judging, training, breeding, and sports medicine," notes Paulson. "Conducted by experts like NRHA 4 Million Dollar Rider Andrea Fappani, NRHA Judges' Committee Chairman, Jody Brainard and esteemed equine veterinarian, Dr. Kris Crowe, Wild Card is an ideal function for Horse-&-Rider magazine, with our strong, on-site video, blogs, stories and Social Media coverage. The event is a perfect match for us!"

"Whether you bring horses to show or just come to watch, this is going to be a not-to-be-missed, exciting, long weekend filled with great new ideas, innovative approaches and super show horses," says Amanda Brumley, whose Brumley Management, LLC produces three other shows, the Cactus Reining Classic in Scottsdale in March, the Reining By The Bay Show in Woodside, California in July and the Las Vegas High Roller Classic in September.

The draw is traditionally done for each finals with the special commemorative blue wine glasses. Of course, as each finalist draws, their wine glass is filled – in celebration or commiseration!

John Marcos also owns Cardinal Training Center—a 300 acre elite racing horse facility in Ocala, Florida. NRBC Sponsor Coordinator Loren Morris noted, "We are pleased that John Marcos and Cardinal Reining Horses support our event, and appreciate everything he does to support the reining industry."

DEARY PERFORMANCE HORSES SPONSORS NRBC OPEN CLASSIC FINALS RECEPTION

Deary Performance Horses has come on board as sponsor of the NRBC Open Classic Finals Reception. The Open Finals Reception is one of the most popular – and heavily attended - events of the NRBC. Held in the Coliseum Sponsor pavilion, attendees enjoy great food and refreshments and get the best view of the exciting NRBC Open Finals action. NRBC Secretary/Treasurer Cheryl Magoteaux Cody noted, "Casey Deary and Nicole Deary and Deary Performance Horses have been faithful sponsors of the NRBC. This year when they decided to grow their support we were thrilled that they chose to sponsor this very special event!"

The Dearys were likewise excited about the sponsorship. Casey said, "The NRBC is an incredible horse show with a family atmosphere! Sandy ground, open air, the large show arena and multiple practice arenas are wonderful for horses. We enjoy bringing our 3-yearolds in addition to show horses, to prepare them for futurities."

He added, "The outstanding parties, prize money checks paid at show and incredible show management make the NRBC one of the greatest horse shows in the world. We have been attending the NRBC for 15 years and we are honored to sponsor and support this fantastic horse show!"

Cody added, "We are so pleased to have Casey and Nicole come on board in this way and we appreciate their commitment to the reining industry."

One of the brightest stars of the reining world, Million Dollar Rider Casey Deary is a two-time NRHA Futurity Champion, with a host of other prestigious wins and finals qualifications to his credit. Deary Performance Horses is located in Weatherford, Texas and its mission is to breed, train, show, and sell quality horses for the reining horse industry. Casey's wife Nicole serves as ranch manager and the current staff includes Trent Harvey, Abby Lengel, Kaci O'Roarke, Edward Harrison, Oscar Vargas, Benita Ruiz and Nestor Vargas.
