SOUTHWEST REINING HORSE ASSOCIATION ROOKIE DAY 2016

The Southwest Reining Horse Association Rookie Day is set for May 28 at Cardinal Ranch in Aubrey, Texas. The Reining Horse Sports Foundation and sponsor Classic Equine, offer a unique opportunity for beginning riders with the Rookie Day program.

Riders receive training from local professionals, and compete with others of their level in a mock competition. The first half of the day they are coached by professional trainers then compete in an all rookie show in the afternoon. Rookie Day riders are critiqued and educated by NRHA Professionals to help improve their score in the show pen.

At the SWRHA Rookie Day, participants will receive training from Franco Bertolani, Monte Anderman, Pierre Luc Phaneuf, Fred Thomsson, Mike Moser, Sebastian Petroll, Mathieu Buton, Jonathan Baruch and Cody Clock.

The cost of the clinic is just $200 for adults and $100 for youth and participants are eligible for awards. For more information please contact Jennifer Anderson at 405-401-4759 or email to jennifer@cardinalreininghorses.com.

2017 World Show Modifications

The 2017 APHA World Show already features several improvements, including new dates in

- Breeders' Futurity reining, cutting and barrel racing classes will be discontinued in 2017 due to lack of participation.

USEF REINING CHAMPIONSHIPS MOVE TO TULSA REINING CLASSIC

In an unprecedented move, the United States Equestrian Federation has announced that the US National Reining Championships will be held at the Tulsa Reining Classic for the next three years, beginning in 2016.

Colleen McQuay, President of Global Reining Sport Group, which produces the Tulsa Reining Classic, feels that the Championships will find new life with the change and the multi-year commitment. "The reining world has now secured a long-time home for the United States Equestrian Federation's Reining Championship. This will give us and the Tulsa Community the opportunity to create a home for it in a fabulous facility."

Plus the already state-of-the-art Tulsa Expo Square is about to become even better. With a new Vision Package passed April 5 by Tulsa voters, the facility will receive approximately $30 million for renovations. High-capacity fans for the barns have been ordered and a new barn will be constructed on the east side of the Super Duty Barn. In addition, there will be new stalls for the F-150, Super Duty, and new Barn. A new overhead door system in those barns will allow them to be enclosed during the late fall and winter and open during spring and summer months. Two covered outdoor arenas and a footing storage facility lead the list of even more improvements.

Along with the commitment from the USEF, the National Reining Horse Association, has scheduled the South Central Affiliate Regional Championships to take place at the show through 2019. McQuay noted, "Anytime important events take place at a major venue it brings more credibility to the programs and gives people confidence to invest and participate. We look forward to continued growth for both of them."

This year's Tulsa Reining Classic takes place at the Built Ford Tough complex at Tulsa's Expo Square August 29 through September 4. For information on the Tulsa Reining Classic, visit www.tulsareining.com or call 580-759-2525.

ARBC BECOMES NATIONAL ARABIAN REINING HORSE ASSOCIATION

Originally created as an incentive program that would inspire breeders of reining horses to seriously consider the talent, athletic ability and heart of Arabian and Half-Arabians, the ARBC has been offering large cash prize incentives at premier NRHA events starting in 2014. Since then ARBC Futurities have paid out over $250,000 in prize money.

At the beginning of 2016, the ARBC founders opted to turn over the program to the newly founded NARHA (National Arabian Reining Horse Association), wisely comprehending that a national association would grow a broader, sounder basis and platform, with the sort of longevity that helps these programs thrive and survive. Meanwhile, the structure of the ARBC program has been working quite well, and will remain much the same. The major change will be a new name ... the NARHA Incentive Program, but the ARBC Membership will simply pay their current dues to the new organization. Previous enrollments will not have to reregister with the NARHA.

The new organization means new program certificates which will be sent on receipt of current dues. A much larger assortment of NARHA classes will soon be available at NRHA shows that apply to have them nationally. The NARHA will provide these events with prizes for Champions in each division at no charge to the events. On the marketing side, NARHA has formed a liaison with the National Horseman Arabian publication www.nationalhorsemanarabian.com so that NARHA members and their horses can be advertised and editorialized in the Working Western section of that magazine.

Reining horse breeders initially start out with NARHA by enrolling their stallions in the program. Stallion owners pay a nomination fee; then an annual enrollment fee. Stallions are invited to participate in any NARHA promotion at shows where classes are held by bringing their promotional materials to those shows. It's almost worth the price of stallion enrollment just for the show promotions! The NARHA is currently on a stallion enrollment campaign and has also agreed to sign up aged stallions (and those deceased or over the age of 20 with frozen semen) for a modest $750 lifetime enrollment fee.

NARHA will participate at the First Annual Las Vegas Wild Card Challenge which debuts this spring in Las Vegas, bringing with it the Four-Year- Old Reining Futurity. This brand new event, which runs over the Memorial Day weekend, May 25- 29 at the South Point Event Center, Hotel and Casino, does not require nominations or enrollments for participation. The horses must have an NRHA Competition License to compete.

Horses that are entered in the Wild Card Reining Challenge Four-Year- Old Futurity cannot have competed in any reining futurities (Category 2 Aged Event) as a three-year-old. The Four-Year- Old Futurity is the spotlighted event of the show that will also offer two full slates of ancillary reining classes, the NARHA $47,000 Added Futurity for 4 and 5-year- old Arabian and Half-Arabian reining horses, a $10,000 Added SmartPak Non Pro Maturity which includes Arabian divisions, and the popular World Para Reining Challenge for riders with physical handicaps and for discharged military with post-traumatic stress disorder.

Though the ARBC has been in place at shows for several years, officially, the 2016 Wild Card show will mark the first appearance of NARHA competition at an NRHA sanctioned show. Owners of NARHA Enrolled Incentive Program horses must be members of the NARHA as of 2017, see membership information at www.NationalArabian-ReiningHorseAssociation.com. Reflections

with Ruben van Dorp

This Good News tells us how God makes us right in his sight. This is accomplished from start to finish by faith. As the Scriptures say, "It is through faith that a righteous person has life." Romans 1:17

Living by faith, not by sight; believing in things we can not see, but know to be true without proof. Knowing that not only He can, but He will! We were never supposed to figure out the awesomeness, the mystery of God. However, one day we found ourselves tired of relying on our own strength, our own knowledge and resources.... We exhausted all possibilities and at the end of our strength, we found His... In the middle of despair, we found hope.... Struggling with our past, we found grace and mercy and above all, hating myself, I found love, unfailing, unconditional, sacrificial love.

Ruben van Dorp grew up in The Netherlands and began training horses over 22 years ago. His equine experience in many different breeds and disciplines led to nine European championships. After relocating to the United States in 2002, he started Vandorp Inc., DBA Vandorp Reining Horses. With his success in the United States, Ruben's current lifetime National Reining Horse Association earnings are over $625,000. In 2003, Ruben married the love of his life, Melissa. They currently reside in Cross Roads, Texas with their beautiful children, Skylar and Peyton. Ruben and his family are very involved in their church, COC Metro, where he and his wife began and lead the PowerPack Ministry. This program currently feeds over 275 elementary school kids per month who are in need of food on the weekends. Ruben has a passion to share the knowledge of Jesus' saving grace and see lives changed. He was inspired by a friend to write and share a daily devotional via text messaging which he has continued daily for the past two years. If you would like to be added to the text message list, text him at 214-243-0447.
