ANDREA FAPPANI WINS NRBC OPEN ON CHIC DREAMIN

The stage was set. In the Prelims, Dany Tremblay had scored a 223.5 riding PS Mega Shine Chic (Shine Chic Shine x Megas Sugar Baby), owned by Amanda and Brad Kelly of Adh Mor Big Luck Ranch to tie the Level 4 high score put in by Tom McCutcheon on Smart Little Dunit, who's by Smart Spook and out of Jan Van Bar B Dun It, for owners Turnabout Farms Inc.

With his high score, Tremblay took first and second places in the Level 3. Aboard Magnums Guns R Reddy (Magnum Chic Dream x Guns R Reddy), Tremblay took second with a score of 221.5 for owner Ruth A. Hamlin.

Bud Lyon had ridden Einsteins Top Whiz (Einsteins Revolution x Kr Samantha) to a score of 220 to win the Level 2 first go-round and Alejandro Ortiz Vazquez riding She Is A Chexinic (Smart Like Juice x Muskegs Chexinic) scored a 218 to top the Level 1. The Prime Time go-round winner is Martin Larcombe riding Hang Ten And Shine (Hang Ten Surprise x Ebony Shines) to a score of 223.

The long miles, hard work and hours spent putting on the finishing touches on some of the toughest reining horses in the country culminated inside the Great Southwest Equestrian Center with a crowd-raising performance.

Finishing the night on top of the field was Andrea Fappani riding Chic Dreamin (Magnum Chic Dream x Skeets Red Dunit) to a score of 229 to top the Level 4 and be crowned the NRBC Open Classic champion.

"It never gets old to win anywhere, but especially here," Fappani said. "It's a special place. I have a special place in my heart, because this is where I marked a 236, which is still today the highest in NRHA history, so it's a great place where you can really showcase your horse."

Equine wowed the crowd with the stellar performance, proving why the NRBC is one of Fappani's favorite shows and why he had such confidence going into the finals aboard the flashy sorrel.

"I was waiting for something to maybe not go as planned," Fappani said with a laugh. "It kept going as I planned it, everything was just right on. I was having fun to be honest. It was one of those runs where they award a high score, but it's not like I was trying that hard. I just let it be. A lot of times you get to some of these finals and you know you have to have a big score to win and you almost try too hard then you get into the penalties or you override your horse."

"I knew I had a horse that could really mark in the stops," he continued. "I had a pattern with four stops so I said as long as I nail my stops and stay out of the penalty box I should be in good shape."

This year marked the fourth year Fappani has claimed the NRBC Open Finals championship, and he says it's taken a lot of hard work to get here.

"Hard work pays off, that's what I tell everybody," Fappani said. "[Some people] think it's luck and it's really not. You have to put your head down and work, no matter what you win the next one's not going to win itself. You have to go home, go to work and do the best you can."

The four-time champ also had success on two other horses in the finals finishing fourth aboard Smart Shiners Spook (Smart Spook x Ebony Shines) owned by Silver Spurs Equine with a score of 224.5. Aboard Thebettertohearwith (Spooks Gotta Whiz x Chex Out The Cowgirl) owned by Bill Coburn, he marked a 220.5 to split 15th place with Robin Schoeller riding Spitfire Spook and Franco Bertolani riding Inferno Sixty Six. For some, the fast change between horses in such a high-pressure situation could be nerve-racking, however Fappani says the many years of practice has prepared him.

"It's easier now, because I've done it enough," Fappani said of how he prepares mentally for each horse. "I have a plan the day before [I show] and then I separate all the horses and think one horse at a time. When I got on my first horse tonight I knew what I had to think about with that horse and that all I focused on. Then when I get off that horse I think about the next one and don't remember the last one I rode, I erase it from my memory pretty much."

"I've learned that along the way, because you just never know what's going to happen next," he continued. "I've learned to focus on one horse at a time and just go with it."

Along with the cash Fappani took home one year's use of a deluxe two-horse horse trailer from Twin Cities Trailer Sales, a custom championship saddle sponsored by Kyle Tack, a Gist Silver-Smiths championship buckle sponsored by NRBC, a crystal trophy from NRBC, Anderson Bean boots, Whisper Bit from M3 Products, Ultra Cruz Equine Wellness and Joint Care plus other NRBC sponsored products, like a custom embroidered cooler, a commemorative champion medal and champion ribbon collar and roses.

BRIAN BELL AND DANY TREMBLAY TIE FOR OPEN LEVEL 4 RESERVE CHAMPIONSHIP

Brian Bell and Dany Tremblay each marked a 225.5 to share the reserve co-championship in the Level 4. Bell rode Turn Down For What (Einsteins Revolution x My Way Marla) owned by Crews Reining Horses. Tremblay rode Adh Mor Big Luck Ranch's PS Mega Shine Chic (Shine Chic Shine x Megas Sugar Baby). They each received $41,000 for the reserve co-championship, a Gist Silversmiths reserve champion buckle sponsored by NRBC, a custom embroidered cooler from NRBC, a commemorative reserve champion medal from NRBC and 30 day supply of Cosequin ASU Plus from Nutramax.

Tremblay also took home the Level 3 championship aboard PS Mega Shine Chic, worth $20,589. Tremblay had a big week in Katy, Texas, taking home a myriad of awards and championships over the course of the event.

"It's amazing," Tremblay said of the win that earned a Continental Saddlery Custom Saddle plus a Gist Championship buckle. "We had the lead for a little bit and then Andrea had a great ride and what a great horse (Chic Dreamin), but 'Crush' is really special and he gave me a lot tonight and I'm really proud of him. I think the best of him is coming in the next few years."

Tremblay also qualified Magnums Guns R Reddy (Magnum Chic Dream x Guns R Reddy), owned by Ruth Hamlin and marked a 217 aboard the mare.

Abby Lengel Rides ARC Gunna Mark Ya to Level 2 Championship

Abby Lengel rode ARC Gunna Mark Ya (Gunnatrashya x Shiney Miss Marker) to a score of 223.5 to win the Level 2 and well as second place in the Level 3. Making her win even more impressive was the fact Lengel competed with a tack malfunction.

“On my way to my first stop I felt my stirrup break. My Blevins buckle came undone and I lost my stirrup and so I just held my right leg in there really hard and she’s a nice enough horse and broke enough that she just took me through it. It wasn’t a good feeling when it happened, but after the first stop I thought maybe I can do this,” she said with a laugh. No doubt her new Bob’s Custom Saddle she earned for the win will come in handy!

Lengel has been working hard to claim a title at this show and this year all her hard work paid off.

“It feels fantastic [to win the NRBC Level 2],” she said. “I’ve been wanting to do well at this show for a long time. It’s kind of been a long process getting [ARC Gunna Mark Ya] ready for this show, but she finally started feeling locked in here and she did really, really well. I’ve wanted to put a run down here for awhile and I’ve been praying about it and God said yes tonight.”

Lengel pocketed $8,128 for the first place win, plus $12,533 for the second place Level 3 finish. She also received a Gist Silversmiths championship buckle sponsored by NRBC, Whisper Bit from M3 Products, Ultra Cruz Equine Wellness and Joint Care. Plus, other NRBC sponsored products such as a crystal trophy, a commemorative champion medal, a custom embroidered cooler and champion ribbon collar and roses.

Vazquez and Gibori Tie for Level 1 Championship

A tie in the Level 1 saw Alejandro Ortiz Vazquez and Barak Gibori share the co-championship each with a score of 217.5. Ortiz Vazquez rode She Is A Chexinic (Smart Like Juice x Muskegs Chexinic) for owner Smart Like Juice Inc., and Gibori rode Pearl Haggard (Hollywoodstinseltown x Gunners Pearl) for owner David Silva Sr.

Mexico to train, She Is A Chexinic being one of them. When he was finally granted his Visa he moved to the United States and started working for Vazquez full-time.

“[The win] is great as an owner, but for Alejandro, he’s been working really hard and put in a lot of effort and I think he has a bright future as a trainer,” Jose Vazquez said. “He’s been working for me two and a half years and day one he stepped up and he’s getting better and better in the show pen. He has a lot of talent and a lot of respect for the sport.”

Gibori and Pearl Haggard had a great showing in Katy, Texas, with the 4-year-old, who has led him to other wins such as the 2016 Tulsa Reining Classic Level 1 futurity champion. Their stamina in the show pen continued to shine tonight in the Open Classic Finals. “I feel great,” Gibori said. “He’s a great horse and he showed really well for me. This is a great show and some of the best horses come here, so it’s nice to get a win here.”

Barak Gibori on Pearl Haggard

Gibori also finished 16th in the Level 3 to tie with Mathieu Buton, Ortiz Vazquez and Matthew Armenta to pick up an extra $750. All totaled Gibori banked $3,207.

Martin Larcombe Rides Hang Ten And Shine to Prime Time Championship

Martin Larcombe rode Hang Ten And Shine, who's by Hang Ten Surprise and out of Ebony Shines to a score of 224 for owner Christine Brazeau to top the Open Prime Time, worth $1,950.

"There's an advantage to being old sometimes I guess," Larcombe said with a laugh. "It's good though. [During my run] I was thinking I needed to do as good as I could, to go as hard as I could and the horse stayed with me pretty well. We just had one little problem coming around a loop where we popped out of lead and that hurt us quite a bit. Other than that he was very good."

*Martin Larcombe on Hang Ten And Shine

The 6-year-old has been with Larcombe since he was a 3-year-old and has continued to do well for Larcombe qualifying for the Level 4 finals at many shows over the course of his career. This year, Larcombe admits the stallion stepped up his game, which made the NRBC even more special for the pair.

"Probably tonight was the best run I've probably ever had on him, just that little bobble that cost us," he said. "This event here is where the best horses come and the best competitors and if you can just be in amongst it somewhere it's something to feel [great] about."

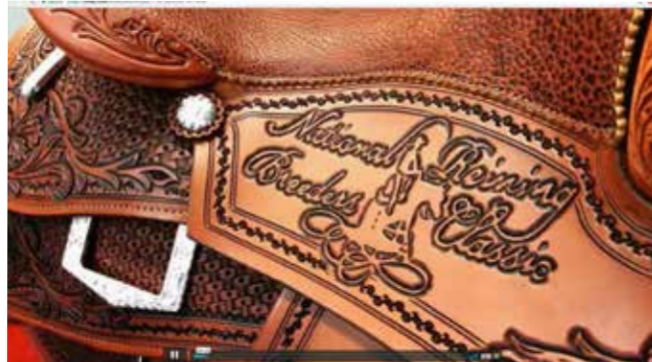

NRBC CELEBRATES ITS TWENTIETH IN STYLE

The National Reining Breeders Classic, April 16-23, was an 8-day celebration of the industry's most successful stallion program. It has enjoyed $20 million in pay out over the course of 20 years and has certainly lived up to its anniversary theme of $20 Million Memories.

The NRBC began in 1997 when a group of distinguished reiners – Tom McCutcheon, Tim McQuay, Colleen McQuay, Pete Kyle, Dick Pieper, Carl Rose, Gary Putman and Robert Chown – came together and created the National Reining Breeders Cup. In its early success the show set precedents of excellence when it joined forces with the Lazy E Ride of Life Classic and became the largest added-money reining in history.

The first NRBC in April of 1998 in Guthrie, Oklahoma, paid over $210,000 – the largest National Reining Horse Association-approved Open Reining at that time. In 2001 the event moved to Katy, Texas, where it still is today, and paid out a lucrative $646,000. The event has continued to grow in leaps and bounds – last year paying out $1.1 million – while still holding tight to its roots and mantra to provide excellence in the show pen.

MEDOWS WINS NON PRO CLASSIC FINALS ON CHICSDREAMOFDIAMONDS

It was a family affair in the Non Pro Classic Prelims with Cade McCutcheon and Mandy McCutcheon splitting the lead in the Level 4 with a score of 221. Cade rode Vintage Crome, who's by A Sparkling Vintage and out of Smart Custom Crome. Mandy was aboard Special At Nite, who's by Gunners Special Nite and out of Royal Chic Solano. They each pocketed $3,168 for the first round win. Tish Fappani rode Spooks N Jewels to top the Level 3 Intermediate Non Pro Classic after the preliminary round with a score of 220. Spooks N Jewels is by Smart Spook and out of Whiz Jewels. The Level 2 Limited Non Pro and Level 1 Non Pro winner was Jennifer Greenleaf riding Survivorman (Colonels Smoking Gun x Shining Survivor) to a score of 218. The Prime Time Non Pro winner was Tamara Schiltz riding Shiners Voodoo Juice to a score of 218.5. Shiners Voodoo Juice is by Shiners Voodoo Dr and out of SLJ This Is My Juice.

Then it was time for the Non Pro Finals on Friday, April 21 and it became what may be remembered as one of the toughest Non Pro finals ever!

The National Reining Breeders Classic had seen top-shelf competition throughout the week and when it came time for the Non Pro finals, Jack Medows rode Chicsdreamofdiamonds (Magnum Chic Dream x Princess In Diamonds) to an incredible score of 223.5 to top the Level 4 and be crowned the NRBC Non Pro Classic champion.

Medows has had a lot of success with the mare having won the 2016 National Reining Horse Association Non Pro Futurity championship along with other big wins, but Medows says the $30,000 NRBC win is special.

“Between the prelims and here she really stepped up her turns. She’s a really good turner, but for some reason she goes in the show pen and she’s so relaxed that she almost dulls up a little bit, but today she really sparked in her turns, and when I loped her off she was so slow and so collected it was a really cool feeling,” Medows said. “[The win here at the NRBC] is so special and she deserves it, she’s such a good mare. I’m glad I stayed out of her way and let her do it.”

Although Medows’ win in the Level 4 was his most special moment, he rode two other great mounts to top finishes making the day even more special. The 19-year-old rode Frame Draggin (Einsteins Revolution x Coronas Major) to fifth place in the Level 4 Non Pro, worth $8,500 with a score of 219.5. He also rode Wimpys Show Stopper (Wimpys Little Step x Pinesail) to the CRI Youth Reining win with a score of 72.5.

“It was a really, really good day. All three of my horses were good, so I’m very lucky,” Medows said.

Along with the cash Medows took home one year’s use of a deluxe two-horse Horse Trailer from Twin Cities Trailer Sales, a custom championship saddle sponsored by Bob’s Custom Saddles, a Gist Silversmiths championship buckle sponsored by NRBC, a crystal trophy from NRBC, Anderson Bean boots, Whisper Bit from M3 Products, Ultra Cruz Equine Wellness and Joint Care plus other NRBC sponsored products like a custom embroidered cooler, a commemorative champion medal, and champion ribbon collar and roses.

Cade McCutcheon marked a 223 aboard Custom Made Gun (Colonels Smoking Gun x Custom Made Dunit) for McQuay Stables for a reserve championship Level 4 finish, worth $15,750. McCutcheon also received a Gist Silversmiths reserve champion buckle, a custom cooler from NRBC, and 30 day supply of Cosequin ASU Plus.

Tish Fappani and Spooks N Jewels win Non Pro Level 3

Tish Fappani rode Spooks N Jewels to a score of 220 to win the Non Pro Level 3, plus finish fourth in the Level 4. Along with the $8,400 Fappani picked up for winning the Level 3, her Level 4 finish gained her an extra $10,000. Spooks N Jewels is by Smart Spook and out of Whiz Jewels, who was shown at the end of her career by Fappani's husband, Andrea Fappani. The family relationship with Spooks N Jewels' dam has made the connection special for Fappani.

"Coming off of the futurity with [Spooks N Jewels], I didn't have a good futurity so it felt good to get in there and have him be solid and consistent in both gos," Fappani said. "He was right there with me. He's a big stopper, so we hit all of our stops and I made sure I got shut off in my turns, so there were no turn penalties. In the circles he went the speed he can handle right now. After the futurity he hasn't been shown, he hasn't even been schooled or anything, we rested him quite a bit. He's 4 so he's still got quite a few more years. I feel comfortable on him."

Fappani received a custom saddle sponsored by Continental Saddlery, a Gist Silversmiths championship buckle sponsored by NRBC, Whisper Bit from M3 Products, Ultra Cruz Equine Wellness and Joint Care from San Juan Ranch and Santa Cruz Biotechnology. Plus, other NRBC sponsored products such as a crystal trophy, a commemorative champion medal, a custom embroidered cooler and champion ribbon collar and roses.

Veronica Williams Rides Singing In The Rein to Non Pro Level 2 Title

Veronica Williams rode Singing In The Rein (Master Snapper x Shiners Mistress) to a score of 217.5 to win the Level 2 and well as second place in the Level 3. Up to this point, the NRBC Non Pro Finals had been Williams' Achilles Hill, having qualified multiple times to the finals to only admittedly let the pressure get the best of her nerves.

"It was a personal goal of mine to do better in the finals," Williams said. "I've always come here and made into the finals and then chickened out in the finals and if felt so good to go finally go in there and just trust her and do it and she was just with me every step of the way."

This year however, she achieved her goal and claimed her first NRBC championship title.

"It feels amazing," Williams said of her win. "It hasn't really even sunk in yet I don't think. [This win at the NRBC is extra special] because this is a huge horse show and best of the best horses are here and the best of the best riders are here. It's so cool to come here and get to show and then to do well here is just the coolest. The coolest thing of all."

Williams pocketed $4,000 for the first place win, plus $5,150 for the second place Level 3 finish. She also received a custom saddle sponsored by Deshotels and Luke Gagnon, a Gist Silversmiths championship buckle sponsored by NRBC, Whisper Bit from M3 Products, Ultra Cruz Equine Wellness and Joint Care. Plus, other NRBC sponsored products such as a crystal trophy, a commemorative champion medal, a custom embroidered cooler and champion ribbon collar and roses.

Nancy Murfin-Moxley rode Who Whiz Hot Choclat to a score of 216 to win both the Level 1 and Prime Time, plus finish second in the Level 3. Her success in the show pen was made extra special considering it's only her first time to show with her mount competitively.

"[Winning this championship] is wonderful," Murfin-Moxley said. "My run felt great. [Who Whiz Hot Choclat] is so great California Shines ridden by Kain Emmons scored a 74. With a roll of the dice and additional 9 was added to the score to win.

The 'Battle for the Saddle' was open to all exhibitors. It was open level 4 riders against green as grass riders. The fun part was that all contestants had to return to the arena after the last competitor finished their pattern to roll a set of dice. The number rolled was then added to the competitor's score for a total to determine the winner.

The possibility of rolling anything from snake eyes (2 points) to a 12, made this class a nail biter until the bitter or happy end (depending on your roll).

Exhibitors and spectator came together for a very exciting evening with snacks catered by the Rolling Hills Casino.

The lucky winner with a score of 74 on Lavonne Sturgeon's horse, California Shines, and a roll of 9 additional points for a total of 83 was Kain Emmons. Kain and Lavonne will now be sharing a beautiful saddle donated by the Rolling Hills Casino and WCRHA made by Scottsdale Performance Horses / Scottsdale Western World.

Second place went to Debi Murnan and her great mare Jacs Red Pine with a score of 80.

Third place with a 79 was awarded to Martin Padilla riding Spooks Dunit for owner Anna Marie Brown.

Fourth went to Kain Emmons riding Tereasa Canada's horse EZ on the Slide with a 78.5.

Fifth was a 3-way split between Megan Lynch, Ollie James Galligan and Martin Padilla.

Great prizes were awarded including chaps from Woods Western World, hat certificates and a custom hat box from Shorty's Caboy Hattery, a custom show pad from Equine Oasis as well as a headstall, reins, skid boot and other items plus 5 gift certificates for $500 each toward a saddle purchase.

In the end, all exhibitors received awards due to very generous sponsors: Rolling Hills Casino, Woods Western Wear, Equine Oasis and Shorty's Caboy Hattery. Britta Jacobson, Sponsorship Chair, noted, "On behalf of all exhibitors and members we very much appreciate all that our Sponsors do for us to have these fun events. WCRHA would also like to thank Terry Skevington, Manager of Rolling Hills Equestrian Center for the great hospitality during this event and for the entire weekend."

A roll of the dice. Ollie Galligan rolled the dice, Martin Padilla was on the podium with the high score. Karin Emmons was next. Emmons rolled a nine to bump Martin Padilla from the podium and win "The Battle." Great prizes were awarded including chaps from Woods Western World, hat certificates and a custom hat box from Shorty's Caboy Hattery, a custom show pad from Equine Oasis as well as a headstall, reins, skid boot and other items plus 5 gift certificates for $500 each toward a saddle purchase.
