WORLD PARA REINING TEAM AND INDIVIDUAL GOLD FOR CANADA

By Bea Versélewel, Photography by Troullioud Fotografie

The first ever World Para Reining International Championship was held in conjunction with the Lucas Oil World Championship 2016 in Oklahoma City. In 2017, the WPR Championship moved to the Netherlands and was held during the Diamond League Western, July 4 – 9 at the Dutch National Equine Center in Ermelo. Diamond League Western is the biggest Dutch Western event in the Netherlands, organized this year for the second consecutive time, offering AQHA, APHA, ApHC and NRHA classes as well as national classes open to all breeds.

Dutch Ria de Vos, owner of western riding school Beau Dandy's in the Mideast of the Netherlands, and NRHA professional Roy van der Hoeven, owner of Van der Hoeven Reining Prospects, operating in the Northwest of the Netherlands, were very pleased to facilitate WPR.

De Vos said, "We were very pleased to facilitate WPR. Our National Equine Center is a beautiful venue, offering all the facilities needed, very accessible for Para riders. We have been promoting WPR in all the ways we could throughout Europe and many nations started to ask WPR approval, so riders could qualify themselves. And they did. We have welcomed them with open arms."

Riders from 6 nations found their way to Ermelo, 19 in total, representing the U.S.A, Canada, Germany, Great Britain, Belgium, Germany and the Netherlands.

On Wednesday, July 5, the Para Reiners gathered together for the draw party, sponsored by the NRHA. Present were WPR founder and President Lisa Coulter and Bob Thompson, both FEI Reining Committee Chairs and a representative of a Canadian owned company leading the way in waste and recycling service that donated the $ 26,000-Added money to be paid in full to the riders. Dutch Reining Horse Association President Paulus Beurskens, representing the NRHA, emphasized that the NRHA was happy to host the draw party and was proud that riders from so many nations gathered together to create a podium where all Reiners are welcome.

On Thursday, July 6, the team competition started and the air was filled with excitement, smiles, cheers and loud applause for every single competitor. The competition was judged by native Canadian, Dave Young, who has been living in the Netherlands for 20 years, Roy van der Hoeven, and Dutch AQHA, APHA and ApHC judge Barry Schuurman. They all felt like it was an honor to judge this competition and each and every rider got their full attention.

Claiming the gold medal was Team Canada, including Janice Boucher from Prince Albert riding the 16-year-old gelding, Jacs Golden Freckles, owned by German Nicole Finkler, and Paralympian Dressage Rider Lauren Barwick from Langley riding the 8-year-old mare Chic Chic Hoorah, owned by Francesca Sternberg, from Great Britain.

have to stop everything” said Grade-4-Rider Boucher after the awards ceremony. “You need to be able to keep going and realize that there are other doors that will open and people that can help Winning gold for my country together with my team member Lauren was an amazing moment, far beyond expectations. Hearing the national anthem while on the podium was emotional.”

Janice Boucher riding Jacs Golden Freckles won Individual Gold Medals

For Grade-2-Rider Lauren Barwick, inducted in the Canadian Disability Hall of Fame, this Championship was a completely different experience.

Barwick said, “I rode ‘Chic Chic’ two times and then we had to compete. Quite exciting! My goal was to put in a consistent and steady ride and get a score on the board. With there only being two riders for Team Canada, there is a lot of pressure as we were unable to drop a score, but I had full faith in Janice. The hearts of these horses are incredible, they don’t just tolerate us but they actually went out and gave us their all.”

Grabbing Silver was Team Great Britain, including 10-time Paralympic Gold Medalist Sir Lee Pearson from Stoke-on-Trent riding the 11-year-old stallion, Shiners Lena Oak, owned by Lester Wildon; Paralympian Ricky Balshaw from Telford riding the 19-year-old stallion, Yelena My Way, owned by Francesca Sternberg; and Para Dressage rider Fiona Durston from Ashford riding the 10-year-old gelding, Smart Like Valentino, owned by Francesca Sternberg.

Sternberg said, “I think this is a very exciting opportunity for Para riders. At this time the only Para discipline included at the World Equestrian Games is Dressage. If Reining could join, it would give much more scope for participation to so many more riders. What an incredible chance open to so many.”

Bronze went to Team Belgium, including Grade-4-Rider, Wout Gooskens from Arendonk riding his 10-year-old Appaloosa gelding, Little Lenas Diamond; and Grade-2-Rider, Julie Olson, from the U.S.A., riding the 11-year old mare, BH Is A Gift, owned by Julia Peterse, from Holland.

Gooskens said, “I am very happy with the result and with Julie in the team. This was a unique experience. I had qualified but there was no Belgian team and Julie decided to help me out. She is such a strong and optimistic woman, that does not allow her disability to stand in her way. She deserves great respect. So does my coach Tiara van Dongen, a very young and ambitious Dutch NRHA Professional. A couple of months ago, I always marked below 65, now I am consistently marking towards 70. She gave me confidence and definitely helped me to improve my maneuvers.”

Olson said, “Even though I am from the U.S.A., the Belgian team needed another rider, so I was blessed to join Wout and earn the bronze medal. My horse was really a gift. Tiara and Wout were really helpful and the grooms were priceless in taking care of the horse. They did it with willing hearts and smiling faces.”

On Saturday, July 8, the Para reiners were back in the arena vying for Gold in the individual competition. And again it was Janice Boucher taking the highest step on the podium, not only receiving the WPR awards, but also a very special custom made binder, sponsored by the AQHA for the highest scoring combination.

Stefanie Schultz riding Stylish Spook won Individual Silver Medals

Boucher said, “It was very emotional, but also a very great experience.”

Grade-4-Rider, Stefanie Schultz, from Germany, claimed silver aboard the 10-year-old gelding, Stylish Spook, owned by Leonie Geppert, from Germany.

Schultz said, “Just before this Championship, my own horse got sick and the Geppert family has been so kind to let me ride their horse instead. It has been a big honor to represent my country and a very pleasant experience

MATT MILLS TO PRESENT NON PRO CLINIC AT THE TULSA REINING CLASSIC

In recent years, the Tulsa Reining Classic has grown to be a super-show of massive import. Besides the array of Limited Age events, the US Equestrian Reining Championships, the National Reining Horse Association South Central Affiliate Region Finals, and double slate of ancillary classes, there are tremendous learning opportunities.

This year one such key event will be the Non Pro Clinic with Matt Mills set for Friday, Sept. 1 and it will present a remarkable opportunity to learn from an NRHA Professional who is a great motivator and proven trainer. Consistent NRHA Top 20 Professional, Matt Mills, is a multiple finalist at NRHA major events and has also been a successful Non Pro and youth coach over the years.

Cheryl Cody, the Tulsa Reining Classic Show Manager, said, “Matt is the consummate professional – not only is he able to achieve success in the arena – as in being part of the Gold Medal Team USA in World Equestrian Game competition – but he is also able to successfully coach and help others. We are very happy to welcome him back as coach of the Non Pro Clinic this year!”

Mills said, “I’m excited to be selected to do the Non Pro clinic at the Tulsa Reining Classic. I really enjoy the challenge of helping Non Pro riders reach their goals and I have coached several very successful youth and Non Pro riders over my career. My first trainer as a youth rider emphasized the basics of good horsemanship and I believe a good foundation is the key to a successful Non Pro. I have spent considerable time developing a series of ‘real life’ training videos for all riders that emphasizes good communication and helps understand the reason behind the training. I’m really looking forward to sharing my knowledge with a great group of Non Pros!”

The clinic will start at 4 pm in the Super Duty Arena and admission is free! The Tulsa Reining Classic will take place at Expo Square in Tulsa, Okla., Aug. 28 – Sept. 3.

USE BOARD OF DIRECTORS APPROVES STRICT HORSE WELFARE PENALTIES; RECOMMENDED GUIDELINES APPROVED UNANIMOUSLY

From the US Equestrian Communications Department

On Tuesday, July 25, the US Equestrian Federation (USE) Board of Directors unanimously approved recommended guidelines for the USE horse welfare and safety penalties. These guidelines are not mandatory but rather are meant to advise the USE Hearing Committee in the types and ranges of penalties to render in horse welfare and safety cases.

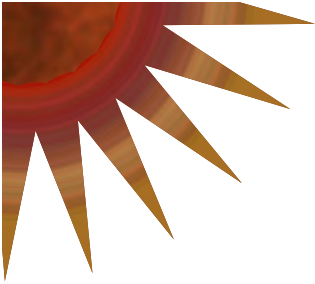

At their meeting this past January, the Board of Directors requested a review and evaluation of the penalties issued in welfare-related cases. The resulting analysis determined that previously imposed penalties in horse welfare and safety violations were no longer sufficient in today’s cases.

As such, penalty guidelines that reflect the severity of the violation were recommended to, and approved by, the USE Board of Directors. In the event that a member violates any of the rules governing horse welfare and safety, and this violation ends in a hearing before the USE Hearing Committee, it is recommended that any subsequent penalty issued should be appropriately severe. Horse welfare and safety violation is one of the most egregious violations under the USE rules.

The USE amended penalties related to the following violation categories to help govern the actions of members:

- Excessive use of whip or spurs and improper use of bits
- Illegal equipment

“We are committed to ensuring the safety and welfare of our horses and providing a safe and fair competition environment to all of our members and their equine partners, allowing them to experience the joy of horse sport,” said USE CEO Bill Moroney. “Our members have demanded we impose stiffer penalties and offer stronger protection for our horses’ safety and welfare. We’ve been working on these for over a year, and they are certainly applicable in light of our duty to protect our equine partners.”

Under the guidelines, one cannot be reinstated in the USE membership after killing a horse. A Hearing Committee Panel may determine that the facts and circumstances of a specific case and may call for the imposition of penalties above or outside of a penalty range. Examples include, but are not limited to, prior rule violations, egregious misconduct, the need for increased deterrence, or certain policy considerations.

The USE puts the welfare of horses at the utmost of importance and encourages the reporting of abuse, negligence and mistreatment through the safety and welfare reporting system. Equine abuse cases may be called or emailed into the office, or submitted online, here.

AMERICANA 2017: EUROPE'S PREMIER WESTERN EVENT IS BIGGER THAN EVER!

Visitors can look forward to the 2017 AMERICANA which will be a shopping paradise like never before. With the new Hall 4 and its 4,500 square meters, the shopping area increases to 48,000 square meters altogether. About 330 exhibitors from 13 countries will be present in Augsburg from Sept. 6 – 10, 2017. In 2015, there were 315 (plus the exhibitors of the Veterinary Convention). Never before did AMERICANA offer such a range of products for western and leisure riding: saddles, bridles, bits, boots, hats and jeans, horse care products as well as equipment for barn and pasture, USA journeys... and of course many, many horses.

There are cars, trailers, barn techniques and even complete indoor arenas and lots of innovations and new products.

No doubt AMERICANA is the place to be for leading companies like Gomeier, Old Sorrel, Cowboys Headquarter, Saddle Shop Trading, Comancheros, Böckmann, Humbaur, Fautras + Ifor Mayr, Kenner, Loesdau, Trail Rider, Cayuse, Alex Mundorf, Ebner, HMS for you, World of Western or Western Dreams. Western riders know these brands very well, and many visitors are waiting for AMERICANA to buy what they need, especially if there are major investments to be made. Nowhere is there a better chance of comparing products and getting special fair rates.

Riders and horsemen among the visitors should have a lot of time to spend this year as there are so many presentations and practical information in the 4 forums as well as the show rings of AMERICANA 2017. In the AMERICANA forum in Hall 3, top trainers share their knowledge in various disciplines. Also, leading western riding and horse associations present themselves there. Mare owners should watch out for the stallion promotion at the AMERICANA forum with the 'gold' and 'silver' stallions. You can make a real deal there if you are still looking for the right stallion for your mare. Among the stallions there are top horses, like Gotta Gold Chain and Undercover Spook.

A must-see for everybody interested in Natural Horsemanship is the Parelli-Ring in Hall 1. Here, visitors will find interesting topics like "How do horses really learn?;" "How to make horses trailer-broke;" and "Parelli for Kids." On Wednesday, Pat Parelli will be present all day to show his ways of handling horses and answer questions. And in the evening, he will give a clinic in the big arena in Hall 5. Also, there are test rides with cutting trainer, Ute Holm.

Latest trends in riding are presented at AMERICANA in the Riding Ring in Hall 2, like Working Equitation and Cowboy Dressage. Riders can also test their skills with cattle, and Kenzie Dysli will present her phenomenal talent as well.

Health plays an important role at AMERICANA 2017. In the health forum in Hall 2, visitors will get lots of information about symptoms and treatment options of horse health problems like allergies, skin diseases, Cushing Syndrome, PSSM, disorders of the lymphatic system as well as physiotherapy, fascia therapy and natural remedies. There is also a chance to talk to the experts.

For months, riders and owners have been looking forward to their chance to show their horses at AMERICANA. The event has an international reputation for its big Reining, Cutting and Cowhorse classes. Among others, there are the $50,000-Added NRHA World Cup Bronze Trophy Reining Open, the $ 10,000-Added NCHA World Cup Open and the $ 19,500-Added ERCHA Futurity. International top riders will be present like Bernard Fonck, Rudi Kronsteiner, Cira Baeck, Tina Künstler-Mantl, Grischa Ludwig, Denis Pini, Gianluca Munarini and Morey Fisk. Europe's premier western event is also an excellent platform for Ranch Riding and Western Pleasure with a $3,000-Added purse for each and for trail with the $4,000-Added World Cup Trail. Then there are the EWU Superhorse ($ 2,500-added), the Masters Western Riding Open ($ 2,000-added), the Uelzener Horse & Dog Trail Open ($ 1,000-added) as well as the 4Hooves

Western Pleasure Open and the Masters Western Pleasure Non Pro ($ 1,000-added each).

There is more to experience at AMERICANA than ever before. For little ones, there is a special kids' program in Hall 2 with Pullman City. There they can wash gold, create their own feather headdress or prove their skills in roping or bull riding. There is also the Moonlight Ranch 24 with their ponies where kids can ride and learn how to handle horses.

Could you imagine an AMERICANA without the Red Grizzly Saloon? Those who know it would reply "no." Those who don't know it yet, should definitely take their time for a visit. The West begins right behind its swinging doors. It cannot be explained – you have to find out for yourself. The atmosphere is fantastic! The Country Music bands are first class and the beer fresh right from the tap! By the way, the saloon got its name from the huge Grizzly Bear right behind the counter.

The big finals in reining, cutting and cowhorse are part of the Friday and Saturday night shows which also include fabulous show highlights. Only a few tickets are still available, so visitors should hurry now and order their tickets on www.americana.de. Both night shows were completely booked in the last years.

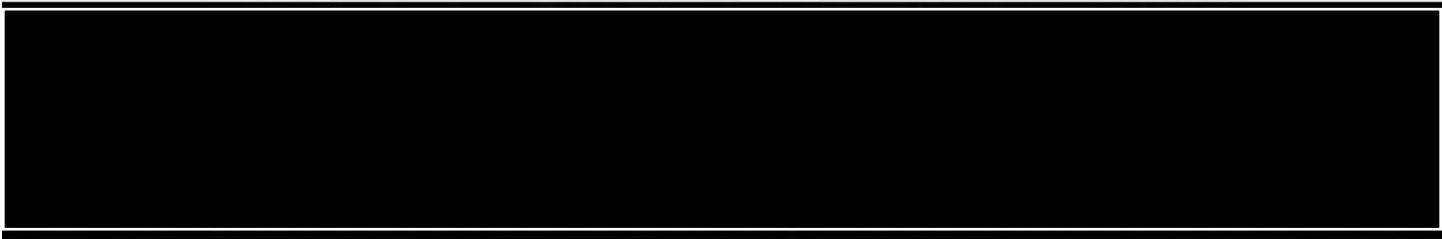

For the first time, AMERICANA offers two additional evening events this year. Cowhorse fans should note the Thursday night event with the ERCHA Nations Team Cup finals. Another highlight will be the Pat Parelli Clinic on Wednesday night. For the first time, the legendary horseman himself will present his program at AMERICANA and show how to improve your daily training in any discipline with his program.

2018 EUROPEAN AFFILIATE CHAMPIONSHIPS UPDATE

In 2017, the National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) European Council made the decision to move the qualification timeline for the 2018 European Affiliate Championships to a calendar year.

The qualification timeline now runs January 1, 2017 through December 31, 2017. When asked about the new qualification period, Samantha Oldfield of the NRHA said, “Riders who have shown since January of 2017 may have already contributed to their qualification for the 2018 European Championships, which will be held during one of Europe’s most prestigious events, the 2018 European Futurity.”

After much discussion, the Council opted for this decision as it works better with the new location of the European Affiliate Championships, which will now be held in conjunction with the 2018 European Futurity in Cremona, Italy. The European Council is excited to merge the two worlds together of aged events and ancillary riders. They hope that the camaraderie, support and sportsmanship from both sides will create a successful and fun environment for all who attend.

This event and the conditions that go along with it were given much consideration, and even now as the Council meets they are discussing ways to make the event inviting, obtainable, and one of the most successful in Europe.

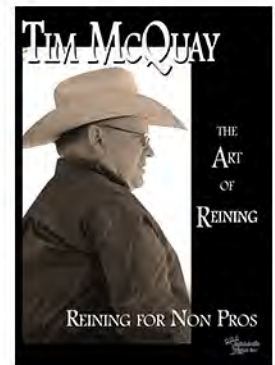

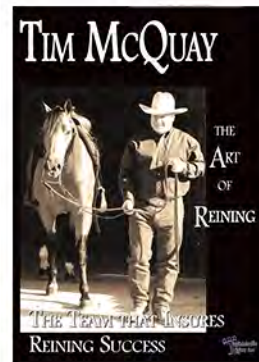

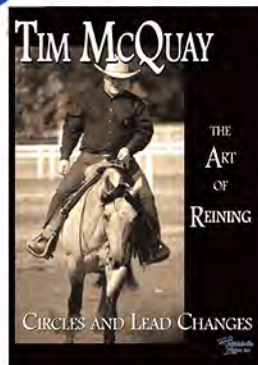

Through several Council meetings the conditions were finalized, and the standings for each European Affiliate have been updated to reflect the current status of riders. Please review the new conditions and the current standings by visiting nrha.com/affiliate and going to the International section.

For questions in regards to the standings, conditions, or the current location of the European Affiliate Championships, please contact Samantha Oldfield at soldfield@nrha.com or Lauren Rufo at lrufo@nrha.com.
