AUSTRIAN FUTURITY 2017– WORLD CLASS REINING

Quality of Horses and Riders seldom seen in Europe before

The Austrian Futurity 2017 was a show of superlatives in every way. More than 251 horses from all over Europe had been entered for the event, many from Italy. In the Futurity classes, there were 495 entries with 51 in the Open Futurity 3-year-old horses. Plus 236 entries in the Ancillary Show, where classes up to 36 horse-rider-combinations were the rule. Altogether, EUR108,383 were paid out including $10,000 for the Futurity Champion Open L4 of the three-year-old horses. But the big purse which was only one reason that so many people participated at this event which ranks among the top 10 NRHA events internationally.

Helmut Schulz' facility here in Wiener Neustadt is famous for its great show conditions and its hospitality. Riders and owners were offered an exquisite buffet at the Welcome Party, and there was Champagne with the Draw Party. And of course, there was the big Country Night with a Live Band. But first of all, the footing in the big show arena was excellent, and Helmut Schulz took great care of it. All this meant lots of work for the whole show team and few hours of sleep, as besides the show itself, they had to produce and distribute five issues of the daily show magazine THE SCORE with 96 pages full of information. Special focus was also put on social media like Facebook where Gerda Langer published pictures of all the champions.

But it was especially because of the high class of horses and riders, that visitors will remember the 2017 Austrian Futurity. The runs were so excellent that even the judges commented that they had seldom seen such a quality of horses and riders in Europe.

TULSA REINING CLASSIC DEVELOPING HORSE FUTURITY MAKES HEADLINES AGAIN

Global Reining Sport Group, which produces the Tulsa Reining Classic, has once again made a landmark decision. Due to the large number of Horses entered in its Developing Horse Futurity - the Futurity has been divided into two sections – each with equal added money and each with its own set of awards.

This was a decision that was made for the second year in a row- and again it came when the entries for the futurity closed on August 29 and there were an astounding 115 horses entered! Colleen McQuay, President of Global Reining Sport Group noted, “Each section will have the same amount of added money – $10,000 – and awards as previously planned for the entire event. Each section will be awarded in its entirety and pinned as an individual event.”

NRHA BOARD OF DIRECTORS CONCLUDES ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL MEETING

National Reining Horse Association's (NRHA) Executive Committee and Board of Directors converged together in Oklahoma City for two days to review committee recommendations and show conditions, as well as a variety of other items. This marked the third in-person meeting held by both groups in 2017.

"I continue to be tremendously proud of the Board of Directors, Executive Committee, and staff," said NRHA President Mike Deer after the conclusion of the meeting.

"The amount of hours, dedication, and passion that each one of them pour into the association, day in and day out, to make the sport of reining the pinnacle of the western world is just astounding."

NRHA Strategic Plan

In the Spring of 2017, more than 1,000 NRHA members participated in an electronic survey, and another group of members gave input via phone interviews. The results were

- Re-evaluate eligibility and purse structures
- Explore alternative business models, partnerships, and alliances

2017 NRHA Derby:

Board members also were supplied with statistical information and an update from the 2017 NRHA Derby. Upon conclusion of the event, the following was reported:

- The total payout of the 2017 NRHA Derby reached nearly $1 million ($996,911)
- $94,434 to ancillary classes
- $317,174 to the Non Pro Derby

The group also received an update on the 2017 NRHA Elections. NRHA Board members voted unanimously to accept Brett Walters (East Central), Larry Handley (North Central), Jeanine Kern (Northwest), and Ann Salmon Anderman (South Central) by acclamation as North American Directors. They will serve a two-year term that starts January 1, 2018. Online elections for two Director-At-Large positions and for the Northeast Regional Director position are scheduled to open on October 1. Candidates are provided online at nrha.com/elections.

2018 Fee Changes:

As NRHA continues to invest in its judges and judging program, a fee increase of $50 for renewing judges was approved. Starting in 2018, renewing judges will now pay $200 to attend the judges school. No changes were made to fees for recertifying judges. The last price increase for NRHA Judges Schools was seen in 2008.

In order to meet customers' needs for speedy service, the 2018 Fees Policy was approved with the following additions:

- Nomination 3-day rush (per horse) - $50
- Same-day phone rush – Membership renewals (confirmation not included) - $25
- Faxed or emailed confirmations for Nominations - $25

2018 Eligibility Policy:

An updated eligibility policy from the Eligibility Committee was presented to the Board of Directors for approval. Changes for the 2018 show season were made to Category 1, 2, 6, and 10. The updated policy will be available online in the upcoming weeks.

2018 Rule Changes:

During the meeting, the Board of Directors approved refined and final language for 2018 rule change proposal 126-01-18 that was previously approved in May 2018. This rule states that "the act of a horse dropping to its knees or hocks" will result in a 5-point penalty.

$50,000-ADDED AMERICANA NRHA WORLD CUP BRONZE TROPHY OPEN: ON THE RUN TO THE NRHA WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP OPEN – AB PEPPY DIAMOND VS. WHAT A WAVE

AMERICANA has gained international reputation for its Bronze Trophy Open. This year the event promises to be even more interesting, as the two leading horses of NRHA Open ranking will start in the $ 50,000-added NRHA World Cup Open Bronze Trophy: AB Peppy Diamond and What A Wave. Both are shown by NRHA Million Dollar Riders who really know their job and who have trained several World Champions: Rudi Kronsteiner and Bernard Fonck.

With more than $19,800, Jennifer Nixdorf's AB Peppy Diamond is leading the NRHA Open ranking. And the money of the Austrian Futurity last week-end is not in it yet. The flashy bay stallion and Rudi Kronsteiner won the Open Trophy scoring a 230!

With a little more than $17,000, What A Wave is ranking second at the moment. The 9-year-old stallion owned by Steve Vannietvelt and Gina de Pauw has won the NRHA Open Championship twice with Bernard Fonck in the saddle: in 2015 and 2016. His NRHA LTE exceed $ 200,000.

Both are world class horses with world class riders who will do their best to claim the title again. But they are not the only excellent horses and riders in this World Cup Bronze Trophy Open. The go round of the NRHA World Cup Bronze Trophy is scheduled for Wednesday, September 6 at Augsburg. The finals will be part of the Friday night show on September 8 – in front of 5,000 visitors. A few tickets for this evening show are still available on www.americana.de.

INFORMATION FROM USEF CEO BILL MARONEY

Over the past year, the USEF has been focused on refining our organization to better serve the constituencies that comprise our diverse membership, including competition organizers and their teams. In discussions with many of our USEF licensed competition organizers, a consistent request has been to provide information that organizers can utilize in developing sponsor funding for their competitions. Recently, our Marketing Department conducted a Membership Sponsor Survey, the first of its kind in over ten years. The purpose of the survey was to better understand member habits, needs and sponsorship potential. We have attached the results of this survey to assist you in developing your competition sponsorship opportunities and hope that you will find the information provided to be useful. Please contact Vicki Lowell at vlowell@usef.org if you have any questions or would like to discuss the survey results or other ways in which we can assist you.

The US Equestrian Board of Directors held its Mid-Year meeting at the end of July and determined that our Sport and our Federation are moving in the right direction and that our Strategic Plan, while still in its early days, is working. One of the changes the Board approved starting in the 2018 competition year, is that we will be moving to an anniversary membership model. This means that no matter when someone joins, they will enjoy a full 12-month membership. In addition, if the member chooses the new automatic renewal option, they will never miss points for a show or any other US Equestrian benefit or communication and will receive a $5.00 discount on their 2019 membership if activated under the automatic renewal option.

Due to the change to anniversary dates, there will be an addition of an end date field for web services. USEF will add the ability to pass a date to determine a person or horse's status on a specific date as well. This is needed as a person or horse must be an active member on the start date of the competition. It is possible that a person or horse's membership/recording could expire during a competition, but would still be considered active for that competition if they were active on the start date. The membership year field will be blank. All competition software developers will be informed of the changes at the beginning of October and the changes will be live from US Equestrian November 1 in order for competitions to check information for December competitions.

In order to further develop growth opportunities as well as benefits and programs to serve our membership and protect our horses, the US Equestrian Board of Directors also approved adjustments to six categories of fees.

The fee adjustments include the following:

- 2018 USEF Fees
- USEF Annual Competing Membership – increased to $80
- Show Pass Fee – increased to $45
- D&M Fee – increased to $15
- Annual Horse Recording – increased to $95
- Lifetime Horse Recording – increased to $300
- Horse Transfer Fee – decreased to $50

Competition Fees

For every horse participating in any competition licensed by the Federation (except those enumerated in GR407 below), a $23 Federation fee will be collected ($15 of this shall be an Equine Drugs and Medication fee to provide for research, inspection, and enforcement of rules). The Drugs and Medication fee for each horse entered in an FEI sanctioned competition remains $25. This makes the Federation fee for FEI sanctioned competitions a total of $33, which is no change from the current Federation fee charged for FEI sanctioned competitions.

Per GR407, Participants in the following classes are exempted from payment:

- a. leadline
- b. exhibitions
- c. games and races,
- d. classes for 4-H members,
- e. Recognized Academy classes at Dressage competitions.

- f. Opportunity classes
- g. Classes at Regular or Local Competitions restricted to breeds or disciplines whose rules are not included in the USEF rulebook.
- h. However, these classes are not exempt from the Drugs and Medications Chapter itself. Within 10 days after a competition, competition management must forward to the Federation a sum representing the above fee times the number of horses and/or ponies entered in the nonexempt classes of the competition plus the number of horses and/or ponies scratched where the fee is not refunded, such sum to be held by the Federation in a separate fund for use to accomplish the purpose set forth above.

Starting December 1, 2017, we will be offering individuals who pay Show Pass fees the ability to access a complimentary Fan Membership or Active Membership at no additional cost depending on the number of Show Pass fees they have paid. US Equestrian will manage this process directly via e-mail with an opt-in program; it will not be executed in the show office. We are also looking at other discounts and opportunities to provide more member benefits and incentives to our competition participants.

I hope this information is helpful as you plan your 2018 competition and timely enough to assist you in creating your 2018 prize list. Should you have any questions or need any assistance please contact Lisa Owens at lowens@usef.org.

Best regards,
William J. Moroney

USEF HORSE WELFARE & SAFETY PENALTY GUIDELINES EFFECTIVE SEPTEMBER 1, 2017

The US Equestrian Federation released the following official horse welfare and safety penalty guidelines. This is in follow up to the announcement at the USEF Mid-Year Board Meeting. They can also be viewed online at US Equestrian

Introduction

A common thread that binds all of the Federation's breeds and disciplines is a dedication and commitment to the health, welfare, and safety of the horse. US Equestrian is committed to ensuring the welfare of our horses and providing a safe and fair competition environment to all of our members and their equine partners. To do this, US Equestrian has created rules to govern the actions of our members and protect both horses and humans, allowing them to experience the joy of horse sports.

In the event that a member violates any of the Rules covering welfare and safety of a horse, and this violation ends in a hearing before the Federation's Hearing Committee, any subsequent penalty issued should be appropriately severe, as a case of a welfare or safety violation against a horse is one of the most egregious violations under the Federation's Rules. Previously imposed penalties in cases of welfare and safety violations are no longer sufficient in today's cases. It is important that the Federation's penalties reflect the severity of the violation.

Penalty Guidelines for horse welfare and safety cases ("Guidelines") have been prepared to assist the Hearing Committee with the types and ranges of penalties to impose in such cases. These Guidelines also assist the Hearing Committee Panels in the imposition of consistent and efficient penalties. A review and evaluation of penalties imposed in these types of cases was performed. While the suspensions and fines imposed may have been appropriate at the time that they were imposed, the suspensions and fines are too light to be useful as guidelines for matters brought to the Hearing Committee today.

Penalty Range is a Guideline Only

The penalty types and ranges below are simple guidelines and are not mandatory. These Guidelines are intended to provide a basis upon which discretion can be exercised consistently in like circumstances but are not binding on the Hearing Committee Panels. Depending on the facts and circumstances of each case, a Hearing Committee Panel may determine that no purpose is served by imposing a penalty within the range provided in these Guidelines. In some cases, a penalty below the stated range, or no penalty at all, may be warranted. Conversely, a Hearing Committee Panel may determine that the facts and circumstances of a specific case may call for the imposition of penalties above or otherwise outside of a stated range. Examples include, but not are limited to, prior rule violations, egregious misconduct, the need for increased deterrence, or certain policy considerations.

Hearing Panel Discretion

Federation Hearing Panels must always exercise judgment and discretion and consider appropriate aggravating and mitigating factors in determining appropriate penalties in every case. In addition, whether the penalties are within or outside of the range stated in the Guidelines, Hearing Panels must identify the basis for the penalties imposed.

Categories of Rule Violations

Excessive or intentional use of whip or spurs or improper use of a bit to cause harm or pain to a horse/pony.
