RUBEN VANDORP TOPS 2017 WINTER SLIDE AXTELL DERBY ON GUNNERS GENE

The 2017 Winter Slide took place Jan. 31 – Feb. 5 at the Hardy Murphy Coliseum in Ardmore, Okla. It featured the Axtell Derby as a headline event. Ruben Vandorp rode Gunners Gene to a score of 74 to top the event in the Level 4 division and earn $1,141 for owner Ann Admonius. He was just a half point ahead of Justin Mathison, riding Mary Jansma's Loaded And Dancin.

Mathison earned $856 for that Reserve title and added the Level 3 Championship – good for another $867! Jared Leclair rode his The Dun Gun to a score of 73 to win Reserve Level 3 Honors and $650.

In the Level 2 division, Nick Valentine had the top score – a 72.5 on Double Down Gun owned by Ottis Wagner, with Gabriel Borges piloting Nite Bizness owned by Troop Quarter Horses to a score of 72 for the Reserve title.

Borges added to his good fortune by winning the Level 1 division as well, and Austin Roush scored 71.5 on Wimpys Stepped Up to win the Level 1 Reserve title for owner Jill Brown.

Steven Borgia rode his Rein Forest Rein to a score of 73.5 to win the Level 4 Non Pro, earning $1,020. Teresa Putman and Ha Lenas Tune owned by Gary Putman tied for the Reserve Championship with Flis Sassella on Chic Magnito owned by Flis & Richard Sassella with a score of 73. That trio each added to their coffers when they placed exactly the same in the Level 3 – AND in the Level 2!

There was a tie for the Level 1 Championship when Dani Latimer scored 72 on Sparklin Nite and Frank Ordner marked an identical score on Dontmesswithmygun owned by David Silva.

Owner of Gunners Gene, Ann Admonius (center) is congratulated by Bill and Carol Parker of Axtel Pharmacy.

The Red River Vet & Repro Non Pro Challenge (7&up) was won by Margaret Dun on Margaret Valentine's Spooks Smoken Wimpy for a score of 72, good for $526. Frank Ordner was just behind with a 71 point ride on Chex From A Star owned by David Silva. They placed exactly the same in the Level 3 and in the Level 2 and Level 1 Alexandra Hatchett moved into a tie with Ordner on her Hickorys Baylite.

The show featured a full slate of ancillary classes plus 3 days of paid warm ups along with CRI classes as well. It was judged by Doug Milholland, Karen McCuiston and Carl McCuiston.

BREAKING NEWS FROM NRHA

2017 NRHA OPEN FUTURITY

CONDITIONS UPDATE

The National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) Board of Directors met during the annual Winter Meeting and reviewed a recommendation from the Aged Events Committee. Based on this recommendation and much discussion, the Board approved the following updates to the conditions that involved late entries, semi-finals format, and the number to advance to the finals at the 2017 NRHA Futurity. To see the updated conditions, visit the forms page on nrhafuturity.com or get the PDF directly here.

“I’m really proud of the work that our Aged Events Committee and Board of Directors have done with our Futurity Semi Finals format. Horses that qualify for the Open Level 4 semi-finals will now be given more recognition through a new format at our pinnacle event,” said Mike Deer, NRHA President. “The Aged Event Committee continues to look for ways, like adjusting our deadlines, to make our event more exhibitor and owner friendly, while maintaining the core values of the Futurity that we all love.”

LATE ENTRY DEADLINE:

The late entry deadlines were extended 24 hours to give more opportunity for late entries. All previous deadlines stating two days prior are now extended to one-day prior at 5 p.m.

NUMBER OF OPEN SEMI-FINALISTS:

Class:	Number of Semi-finalists
L4O	75 horses, plus ties
L3O	75 horses, plus ties
L2O	75 horses, plus ties
L1O	75 horses, plus ties

SPECIAL PERFORMANCE L4 OPEN SEMI-FINALS SECTION:

To create a special performance for spectators, the top 75 horses, plus ties, in the Level 4 Open division semi-finals will compete in a separate section prior to the finals. Just like previous years, levels 1 - 3 will compete in their own semi-finals section.

NUMBER TO ADVANCE TO THE FINALS:

The number of horses advancing to the finals remains unchanged. However, every horse not making the finals through 75th place, plus ties, in the Level 4 Open will receive a guaranteed payout. It was also decided that scratched horses that qualify for the semi-finals will receive the guaranteed payout.

OPTIONS FOR THOSE ALREADY ENTERED:

For those who wish to cancel their Futurity entry, they can do so without penalty by written notification to the NRHA office no later than Feb. 28, 2017. Written notification can be sent to events@nrha.com, faxed to (405)946-8425, or mailed to NRHA, 3021 W. Reno Ave., Okla City, Ok 73107.

CHOCOLATE CHIC OLENA REACHES SUPER SWEET MILLION DOLLAR SIRE STATUS!

There is something sweet about becoming a National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) Million Dollar Sire. Owned by Carter Smith-Ellingson, the 1993 Chestnut stallion Chocolate Chic Olena is by NRHA Six Million Dollar Sire and NRHA Hall of Fame Inductee Smart Chic Olena and out of Jae Bar Felcia.

Chocolate Chic Olena was ridden by his owner along with NRHA Professional Darren Stancik and NRHA Four Million Dollar Rider Andrea Fappani. As a show horse, Chocolate Chic Olena was the 2001 and 2002 United States Equestrian Federation Open Qualifier Champion, the 1997 NRHA Derby Non Pro and Limited Open Champion, and the 1999 AQHA World Champion in senior reining.

In addition to siring top reining horses, Chocolate Chic Olena's offspring have proven themselves to be versatile performers, with some competing and earning top honors in working cow horse events.

Chocolate Chic Olena's top NRHA offspring include:

Chic Magnetic (NRHA LTE: $139,507)

Ghiradelli Chic (NRHA LTE: $75,313)

Mr Chocoholic NRHA LTE: $65,889)

Mistresses Milky Way (NRHA LTE: $45,397)

Smart Coco Chic (NRHA LTE: $45,785)

Carter was moved by the milestone accomplishment. "It means so much to me to have Chocolate Chic Olena reach the Million Dollar Sire milestone. He was an exceptional show horse for many years and has gone on to be a great sire. He is a once in a lifetime horse for me and hope his legacy lives on through his offspring for decades to come."

DEARY PERFORMANCE HORSES RETURNS TO SPONSOR NRBC OPEN FINALS RECEPTION

Deary Performance Horses will again sponsor the National Reining Breeders Classic Open Finals Reception. The popular event will be held in the Coliseum Sponsor Pavilion of the Great Southwest Equestrian Center in Katy, Texas.

The Deary Performance Horses Open Finals Reception is one of the most popular – and heavily attended – events of the NRBC and it begins on Saturday, April 22 at 5 pm just before the start time of the Level 4 Open Finals. Attendees enjoy great food and beverages, while enjoying the absolute best view of the arena during the exciting NRBC Open Finals.

For Casey and Nicole Deary, the NRBC is a must-attend event. Casey noted, “The great business leaders at NRBC created the vision, articulate the vision, passionately own the vision and drive it to completion. Together, the Pro Management Team and NRBC have created a major derby event that the greatest horses in the reining industry attend.”

NRBC Vice President, Colleen McQuay notes, “It is always appreciated to have our top trainers realize the importance of supporting a special event like the NRBC. We thank Casey and Nicole Deary for sponsoring the Open Finals Reception for the second year. I know the evening will be extra special for our twentieth celebration!”

Nicole Deary added, “We enjoy the event - the dinner receptions are incredible and welcoming for competitors and owners. The horse show staff is accommodating and knowledgeable of the horse and rider needs. Deary Performance Horses has proudly supported the NRBC horse show for over 15 years.”

One of the brightest stars of the reining world, Million Dollar Rider Casey Deary is a two-time National Reining Horse Association Futurity Champion, with a host of other prestigious wins and finals qualifications to his credit. Deary Performance Horses is located in Weatherford, Texas and its mission is to breed, train, show, and sell quality horses for the reining horse industry. Nicole serves as ranch manager and the current staff includes Trent Harvey, Josh Tishman, Abby Lengel, Kaci O’Roarke, Edward Harrison, Oscar Vargas, Benito Ruiz and Nestor Vargas. For more information on Deary Performance Horses, visit the website at www.dearyperformance.com.

USA REINING WELCOMES TOM MCCUTCHEON'S VIRTUAL HORSE HELP AND WORLDWIDE SLIDE

USA Reining announced in early February that Tom McCutcheon's Virtual Horse Help and WorldWide Slide have come on board as Media Partners.

USA Reining President Rick Weaver noted, "We appreciate the support of Virtual Horse Help and WorldWide Slide as we continue to grow USA Reining. Their assistance as media partners is invaluable in helping us send out current news and educate the public about this organization."

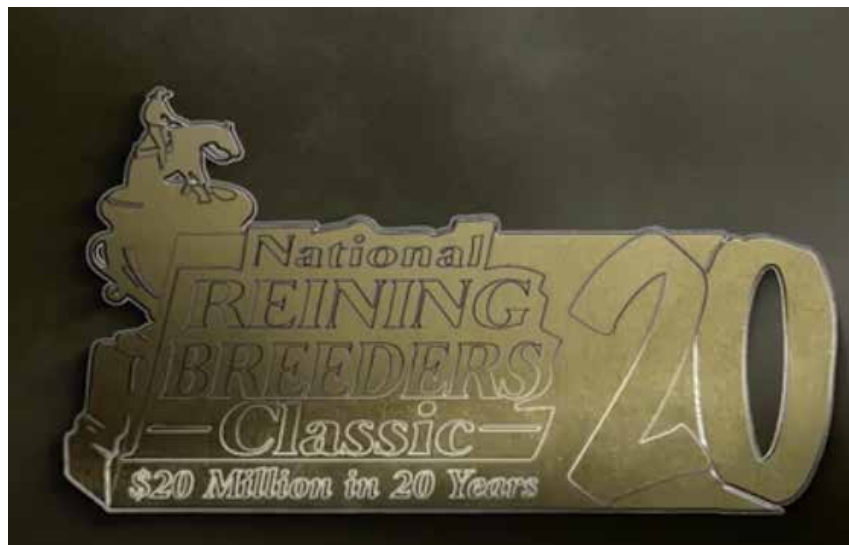

Reiners in the United States are still relatively new to the structure of international competition and it is hoped that the partnership will help distribute needed information to the reining world. For example most people know that USA Reining is the route for top reining athletes with an eye on a qualification for the World Equestrian Games. But many don't understand how USA Reining, the United States Equestrian Federation (USEF) and the Federation Equestre Internationale (FEI) all work together.

People also may not realize the opportunities for other different levels of competition that are a part of the USA Reining Structure. Currently USA Reining Championship year-end awards and a new program for Merit awards are both available to members.

According to Cheryl Magoteaux Cody, Treasurer of USA Reining, a new focus for USA Reining is to help education the reining community as to the opportunities available in international reining competition. A first project was to begin to create a series of informative video and the first has been posted to the USA Reining Facebook page and website – how to get a passport for your horse. More are in the works.

USA Reining is the national governance organization for the western horse sport of Reining within the United States Equestrian Federation structure of equestrian sport. Together with the USEF which serves as the national governing body for equestrian sport, USA Reining exists to offer advancement, education and awareness of the sport and to actively support the success of US teams. USA Reining embodies youth, amateur, para riders, as well as open competitors. A key priority is to educate and provide a pipeline for Reiners to progress through the various levels on their way to the FEI international level of competition.

BE A PART OF USA REINING

Most people know that USA Reining is the route for top reining athletes with an eye on a qualification for the World Equestrian Games. But many don't understand how USA Reining, the United States Equestrian Federation (USEF) and the Federation Equestre Internationale (FEI) all work together.

Every country that is involved in FEI international equine competition must have a national federation that organizes and represents its athletes. For the United States, that is the USEF, and to make that more confusing they are currently rebranding to US Equestrian or USE.

Within the USE structure, the different disciplines, from jumpers to reining, are represented by an affiliate. In the case of reining, that is USA Reining. It's often asked why NRHA can't serve that function and that's an easy answer. NRHA represents reiners worldwide, not solely those in the United States.

So – What does USA Reining Offer me?

Besides being part of the organization to participate in and promote TEAM USA in international reining competition, USA Reining is on the grow. In 2017, there's more than ever! If you compete in USA Reining Shows, you earn the chance for year-end awards and championship titles in each of these categories of Open, Amateur, Youth 19-21, Youth 14-18, Youth 13 & Under, Para Reining Grade 1, Para Reining Grade 2, Para Reining Grade 3 and Para Reining Grade 4.

New in 2017 the USA Reining Merit Awards are beginning. This is a cumulative continuing program which allows exhibitors to be awarded for accomplishments over multiple years with points earned at regular USA Reining-approved classes.

Points will be earned in Open Reining, Amateur Reining, Youth 19-21, Youth 14-18, Youth 13 & Under, and USA Para Reining Grades 1-4 at all approved USA Reining events.

When an exhibitor has accumulated a total of ten points in a division in this program (lifetime), he or she will be recognized as a USA Reining Competitor of Merit. That will be recognized by a Certificate and a Competitor of Merit Award.

When an exhibitor has accumulated a total of 50 points in a division in this program (lifetime), he or she will be recognized as a USA Reining Competitor of Distinction. That accomplishment will be recognized by a plaque and Competitor of Distinction award.

The point system is simple - for every 2 horses entered one point will be given; for example in a class with 6 horses, first would get 3 points, second would get 2 points and so on.

And there's more!

New for 2017, the USA Reining Board is in the final stages of approving a series of competitions for youth, young riders and prime time riders. They will compete in designated events to qualify for a finals and the Board of USA Reining is excited to present this new venue for youth and prime time athletes!

SAVE THE DATE FOR THE AHC'S ANNUAL MEETING & NATIONAL ISSUES FORUM

How can you find out what projects and initiatives are being worked on in every corner of the equine industry?

The answer: the American Horse Council's (AHC) Annual Meeting & National Issues Forum, sponsored by Luitpold Animal Health! Save the Date on your calendars for June 11-14, 2017 at the Washington Court Hotel in Washington, DC.

"Even if you are not a member of the American Horse Council, we encourage anyone involved in the industry to try to attend our Annual Meeting and Issues Forum," said AHC President Julie Broadway. "This is the only meeting where every segment of the industry gets together to discuss issues of importance to not only their respective fields, but to the industry as a whole."

Monday, June 12, will see meetings for the 5 committees the AHC has: Animal Welfare, Horse Show, Health & Regulatory, Recreation, and Racing. "Anyone is welcome to attend any committee meeting they like until they go into executive session. In fact, we encourage people to attend as many as they can to get an idea of what the AHC is working on within each committee," said Ms. Broadway.

Monday will also spotlight the Van Ness Award, which is given to a member of a State Horse Council who has shown leadership and service to the horse community in his or her state.

The theme of the National Issues Forum (NIF) on Tuesday, June 13, will be "The Power of Unity," and will feature keynote speaker Roger Dow, President and CEO of the U.S. Travel Association, which is the national umbrella organization representing all segments of travel in America.

"The U.S. Travel Association works to engage, connect and inform the travel industry," said Mr. Dow, "similar to how the AHC seeks to inform and engage all segments of the equine industry. Although different in the types of businesses we work with, the AHC and the Travel Association are similar in that we both encourage working together to advance the industry."

Additionally, a panel of researchers from the Grayson Jockey Club Research Foundation, AAEP Foundation, AQHA Foundation, Horses & Humans Research Foundation, and Colorado State University's Temple Grandin Equine Center will discuss the importance of research for the industry, as well as any research they have done and its significance. Allyn Mann, of Luitpold Animal Health, will be the moderator for the panel.

The Innovation Group will also provide a progress report on the update of the National Economic Impact Study- of which its findings are certainly highly anticipated. The AHC will also present its new strategic plan to give attendees an idea of what the AHC will be undertaking in the years ahead.

At the conclusion of the Issues Forum, breakout sessions will be set up to allow groups to have further discussion about topics they found particularly interesting.

Please check the Events tab on the AHC website where a tentative schedule, room reservation information, and more will be posted there in the upcoming weeks.

If you have any questions, please contact the AHC at info@horsecouncil.org.

As the national association representing all segments of the horse industry in Washington, D.C., the American Horse Council works daily to represent equine interests and opportunities. Organized in 1969, the AHC promotes and protects the industry by communicating with Congress, federal agencies, the media and the industry on behalf of all horse related interests each and every day.

The AHC is member supported by individuals and organizations representing virtually every facet of the horse world from owners, breeders, veterinarians, farriers, breed registries and horsemen's associations to horse shows, race tracks, rodeos, commercial suppliers and state horse councils.

INSIDER SECRETS TO BUYING AND SELLING HORSES ON THE INTERNET

WorldWide Slide with Mike & Stephanie Jennings

The majority of people now shop and buy frequently online. From items as small as a hoof pick to as large as a luxury motor home, the horse industry has joined the Internet marketing world.

In 2009 when Mike and Stephanie Jennings first started floating the idea of Internet horse auctions, many of their customers were not sure they could buy a horse without seeing, touching or riding it. Veterans in the world of professional horse sales, the couple was convinced that it could work, based on their knowledge of the industry from helping customers sell and buy more than 60,000 horses since 1979. During that time they managed over 300 live horse auctions including the AQHA World Championship Show Sale, the NRCHA Snaffle Bit Futurity Sale and they continue to manage the All American Quarter Horse Congress Super Sale.

As more and more sellers opted to market their horses on the Internet, primarily through online classified advertising sites, buyers adjusted their approach to shopping. In addition to Internet classified websites, there are now Facebook pages that list horses of as many breeds and disciplines as can be imagined. Internet horse auctions have entered the picture, and the Jennings have become industry leaders in Internet Horse Auctions for the Quarter Horse, Paint and Appaloosa markets as well as for performance horses. Their Internet auction format has sold over 1,500 horses for more than $6,000,000 since 2012.

Their advice on buying and selling online is golden and their tips can lead to a better on-line experience.

Identify Your Target Market & Find Marketing Sites that reach that Market

When a horse is offered for sale on the Internet, it can potentially be exposed to a large number of people, Worldwide. There are many places to list a horse for sale, so a seller should define the target market for the horse and use the websites, social media pages or auctions that reach that specific market. Of course you wouldn't list a reining horse on a site that advertises halter horses! However, sites for related markets should be considered – a reining horse could be listed on a site selling ranch event horses, reined cow horses, or even cowboy mounted shooting horses!

Going to general horses for sale sites, or YouTube, can provide additional exposure and possibly reach that new customer who is not reached through a tightly-targeted marketing site. The more places your horse is listed, the more chances it has to show up in search engines where buyers are shopping.

While it is nice to sell a horse with no cost by using free sites, you sometimes get what you pay for. Classified web sites that charge a fee can afford to do more advertising and make improvements to their site for added convenience to sellers and buyers. Auction companies charge fees, AND offer more assistance to customers than classified listing sites.

Professional Horse Services, LLC, owned by the Jennings, invests a significant amount of money for auction advertising which drives customers to their website and to the Internet Horse Auction catalog. They advertise in traditional print magazines as well as several digital magazines, plus their email list consists of more than 20,000 customers who have bought or sold with them. It also includes people who have requested information about their auctions. In addition to marketing to their own list, they also send email blasts using other mailing lists, which total nearly 500,000 email addresses and include addresses to both targeted and general markets. With 38 years' experience, they can work one-on-one with sellers or buyers to help them achieve the most success.

Advertise with good quality pictures and videos.

A seller's primary job is to attract a buyer to his or her horse and convince the buyer to pay a good price for it. How the horse is presented makes a huge difference in the type of buyer it will attract. A show horse or prospect should be presented as a horse show, which is more appealing than going out and snapping a few photos in the pasture or taking a video of a training session. Since most buyers do not travel to see a horse, sellers should try to show the buyer everything they would see at the farm or ranch through the videos, photos and the description provided.

Use an attractive picture that will stop the shopper and get his or her attention. Do not bore the customer. It is your job to keep the buyer interested and watching. This is the digital age - people want things fast.

A video should open with the most exciting maneuver the horse does well. Show all the horse's skills briefly. Don't start the video with 3 minutes of trotting or your customer will move on to something else after a few seconds and never see the great spins, lead changes, or stops that are included at the end! Those who do this well will enjoy the most success.

Pricing the horse is important. Study the market that fits your horse to see how similar horses are priced, and when possible find out an actual selling price. A horse that is priced too high will linger on the market for a long time, even if the seller makes a great presentation. Auctions help sellers find the market value for their horse. The bidding process is a price negotiation. A face-to-face price negotiation makes some people uncomfortable. An auction takes away that pressure.

In the Internet auction, the seller can set a minimum, or reserve price for a horse and it will not be sold for less than that amount. Others are more motivated to sell and want to see what the public will offer before they decide if they will sell. If an acceptable price is not met during the bidding process, there are times when Pro Horse Services has been able to negotiate an acceptable price after the auction between a seller and a bidder. In auctions some horses will bring more than the asking price when excited buyers compete for a horse that has been presented well.

Buyers are able to do a more thorough job of shopping for horses on the Internet and through auctions than they realize. A number of horses can be found for most purposes just by searching. Buying a horse is often an emotional decision - there is something about THAT horse that connects with the buyer. However, a buyer should also be objective about the things he wants or needs in a horse. If a horse is too far away to see in person, a buyer has to rely on the information provided by the seller.

Identify what you are looking for.

Make a list of the things that you need or want in your new horse. This keeps the emotional side from completely taking over. For most horses this list should include basic items such as general disposition, hauling, clipping, shoeing, health history, including previous lameness, illness or surgery, and vices like cribbing or weaving. For performance horses it may include the level of rider that is required to ride or show the horse, or what it takes to prepare the horse to show. A list should also include issues the buyer doesn't want, like a cribber or a horse that requires maintenance for soundness issues. Try to determine in advance if any of these needs or wants are negotiable. Could you live with a cribber, for example, if the horse was perfect in every other aspect, and if the price was right?

Get the Answers to ALL of Your Questions before making a Decision.

Look carefully at the information provided by the seller. Contact the Seller to get the answers to all of your questions. You can ask for additional photos or videos, if needed. A motivated seller should respond with the information requested and provide direct answers. If there is no response or the seller evades questions it may be time to look at other horses.

A buyer should be able to have a veterinarian examine the horse; or have a professional or knowledgeable horse person look at the horse. If the horse is in an auction, read the auction's terms and conditions to see what examinations are allowed before and after bidding. In most cases inspections and pre-purchase exams can be done prior to the bidding, but a post-purchase exam may be limited. In an auction, the buyer should allow enough time to thoroughly shop the horse before the bidding closes.

There is a certain amount of risk involved with buying any horse. However, the buyer that does a thorough job of shopping can reduce the risk and successfully buy a horse over the Internet. For example, horses sold through the Professional Horse Services Internet Horse auctions have won a number of World and National Championships for their new owners.

Don't make the mistake of thinking horses only sell for lower prices on the net. This one, I Execute Class, sold for $226,000 in a 2012 internet auction managed by the Celebrate 20 Years with us!

April 16-23, 2017

Thanks to the Stallion Owners,
Foal Owners, Sponsors & Exhibitors who have given this last 20 years a very special place in reining history!

One small change can make all the difference

If your horse needs to be more relaxed

If your horse seems to stay sore

If therapies don't seem to help or results only last a few days

If your mare tends not to work as well during heat cycles

COMPOSURE MG can help!

The RESULTS can be ASTONISHING!

We've seen dramatic changes in horses - If your horse needs to be more relaxed - If your horse seems to stay sore
If your horse resists going into the arena - If therapies don't help or results only last a few days
If your horse seems stiff or muscle sore or is cramping.

Many have heard that Magnesium can have a calming effect, then tried a supplement with little results. This is the R&R Difference. R&R Composure MG is made in Germany through a globally patented process that makes it SIX TIMES more bio available than any other type of magnesium supplement.

Signs of magnesium deficiency can vary from horse to horse and intensity may also vary. Some show daily signs while others only show signs during competition or stress.

Many magnesium deficient horses do not appear to benefit from chiropractic adjustments and other therapeutic treatments or the treatments don't last more than a few days before tension and soreness resume.

Correct a magnesium deficiency or increase magnesium to quiet anxiety or to balance the calcium:magnesium ratio.

With no drugs, you can have a calmer and more relaxed horse. Plus the muscle recovery benefits are equally powerful and important.
