MEET THE CANDIDATES – 2017 NRHA ELECTIONS

The National Reining Horse Association Executive Committee and Board of Directors are responsible for managing the business of the Association and for representing the best interests of its members and the Association as a whole. Each year, NRHA opens nominations and hosts elections for these important leadership positions.

Members are encouraged to carefully consider the slate of candidates prior to voting in October. A current listing is provided below; however, write-in candidates can be submitted through Aug. 2. A final listing will be emailed to eligible voters and posted in the Members Only section of nrha.com.

For details on the write-in process or questions about the elections, please visit the Members Only section or contact Christa Morris-Stone (cmorris@nrha.com or 405-946-7400).

EXCITED AND INVOLVED

“As a member of many NRHA committees and positions, currently and in the past, I am excited to be considered for an NRHA Executive Committee position. I look forward to becoming even more involved in programs that help to grow NRHA from the grass roots level at the Affiliates to my ongoing dedication to the Professional and Non Pro members at the trainer/breeder/owner level. I am an active, dedicated NRHA Non Pro coach so it is important to me to continue the upward track that NRHA has established, taking all members into consideration. I would be honored to be a participant and pledge to be an active, productive member of the NRHA Executive Committee to help NRHA meet its goals for 2018.”

Face it, filling and scrubbing tanks is the worst! Luckily, there's an easy solution from Classic Equine by Ritchie. Just hook up a garden hose to EZ-FOUNT and give your horse a constant supply of fresh, clean water. And, it's portable so move it wherever and whenever you want. What could be easier?

George King Idaho Falls, Idaho

BEEN AT THIS A LONG TIME

“At the young age of 59, I have been a member of the NRHA for almost 30 years. I remember those early years when we gathered together at an outdoor arena in Montana for Dick Pieper clinics. In those days, a reining show only lasted one day. You would drive to the show in the morning and go home that evening (sometimes quite late). I’ve seen amazing growth in the NRHA and the reining horse industry; what an incredible journey it has been. You can see the results of our prosperity in that we now have 24 NRHA Million Dollar Riders, two of which are non pros; we have 36 NRHA Million Dollar Sires and several that have turned over nine million dollars.

This prosperity is what makes the reining horse industry a viable business and enticing to investors and sponsors. It’s important to the growth of our industry; however, it is not the entire makeup of the NRHA membership. Many of our members are Rookies, Youth, Limited Non Pro, Limited Open, and Prime Time riders. These individuals are not running for the large purses . . . yet. They may some day, but then again, may never want to.

We should never lose focus of the fact that we have a diverse range in quality of horses, experience levels of riders, and different levels of desire where people want to play the game. All levels need to be nurtured and cared for. I've been fortunate to experience the thrill of riding in the finals of the NRBC and NRHA Derby, but I also remember that feeling of accomplishment when I got my first 3-year-old through a reining pattern at a local show and the first time my 7-year-old daughter rode my non pro horse in a youth class (she's now in her early 30's)."

WALKED IN MANY SHOES

"I have been an owner, breeder, competitor, show secretary, show manager, NRHA Judge, held just about every board position on local affiliates, an NRHA Board of Director, and most recently on the NRHA Affiliate Committee. My wife and I owned and operated King Equestrian Center in southeast Idaho for over 20 years while maintaining our day jobs. There have been many trainers over the years who set up shop at our facility. It brings a smile to the faces of those who remember coming to our shows like 'Reining in Paradise' and 'My Big Fat Greek Reining.' We also stood several stallions and provided a variety of breeding amenities. I have lived many of the roles of our membership. I understand the concerns of the horse owner and breeder, as well as how important it is that our trainers are given the opportunities to show their customer's horses at the level fit for the trainer and the horse. It means having the big shows, but at the same time not losing appreciation of supporting the smaller shows.

The NRHA has done a great job of sustaining both with the North American Affiliate Championship program by encouraging participation in the local affiliate shows to qualify for the Affiliate Regional Championships and even the Adequan North American Affiliate Championships (NAAC) in OKC. All levels of shows, from the jackpots to the NRHA Futurity must be continually encouraged, never losing sight of what makes up the association's foundation. Competing in reining classes for over 30 years, including living in the east (Pennsylvania) for four years, and being an NRHA judge for 24 years has allowed me to get to know many people in the reining horse world. I have the contacts and communication skills to help champion the causes of every NRHA member."

LOOKING AHEAD

"It has amazed me that even when the world has had economic tough times, the NRHA continues to grow – what that tells me is that reiners are pretty passionate about their sport and their horses. It's kind of funny – we have always realized the importance of our youth, since 'they are the future of our sport;' however, we also have many members who actually have become members and participants well after their 'youth years.' I manage two up-and-coming NRHA shows in Nampa, Idaho [(The Best Little Derby in the West (BLDW) and the Low Roller Reining Classic)].

At the BLDW in April, our Non Pro class had 69 entries that included 32 Prime Timers and 18 Masters! The demographics in the NRHA are diverse and wide – and we can't lose focus on any of them. For a number of folks, they have chosen this sport as their profession and whether we're a barn owner or a director – we have an obligation to help them to grow their business to all it can be and at the same time, hold them accountable to the code of ethics they signed up to when they became a professional. That's a win-win for NRHA, as well. The NRHA and reining are the best family activities ever!

Not only did I enjoy the competition and fellowship with great friends, but I also raised my family around it. I like to say my daughter had two boyfriends as she was growing up – and they were both geldings! She loved her horses! She has gone on to marry an NRHA Professional and is a reining 'lifer.' My boys had other interests growing up, but loved hanging out at the shows and to this day will bring their entire families to horse shows to root on Aunt Stephanie or Grandma and Grandpa. As an association, we need to continue to foster that family atmosphere. Furthermore, owning and showing a reining horse is not cheap – we need to keep in mind that people need to have a good time, that their recreational dollars are well spent. The NRHA board needs to make decisions that will keep the NRHA and the sport of reining flourishing, looking for ways to meet the budget and yet keep the cost affordable for our membership.

My day job is an Engineering Manager supporting the United States Nuclear Navy. My job is to ask the difficult questions during the facility and equipment design before we make the submittal to the government; anything less results in embarrassment and loss of confidence in our competency. I have had the opportunity to manage multimillion dollar budgets, and when you're a steward of the tax payer's money, you make sure the t's are crossed, the i's dotted, and understand there are financial consequences when decisions are made without fully vetting potential ramifications. The NRHA budget is no different, it came from and continues to be supported by its hard-working members. With retirement close at hand, I am now ready to dedicate the time and effort to represent all of the NRHA members. I would appreciate your vote in the upcoming Executive Committee Director elections."

Brian Welman
Hastings, Minn.

"I have been an NRHA member for over 30 years and have been an NRHA Judge since 1990. I attended the University of Wisconsin – River Falls, and then I went on to work for a few of the NRHA Hall of Fame inducted trainers until I started my own training business, Brian Welman Training Center in Minnesota. I have been an active board member of the North Central Reining Horse Association (NCRHA) from the beginning and I have been a president of the NCRHA. I have served on the NRHA Board of Directors in 2008 and 2011 through 2015, NRHA Judges Committee, Eligibility Committee and the NRHA Executive Committee since 2016.

I am actively involved with all aspects of the reining horse industry. As an NRHA Judge, I have judged all the major events including the NRHA Futurity, NRHA Derby and the National Reining Breeders Classic, to name a few. I have a large non pro clientele base in my business; therefore, I feel I'm able to be a good representative for the non pros, NRHA Professionals, the weekend horse shows and the Aged Events. I believe my many years of vast experience in the reining horse industry have prepared me to be a valuable asset to serve on the NRHA Executive Committee."

Joe Wolfe
Catlettsburg, Ky.

"I have been married to my wife, Emmy, for 46 years. We have two grown daughters and four grandchildren. We live in Catlettsburg, Kentucky where we have been involved with horses and, at times, cattle. I attended Morehead State University where I earned my bachelors and masters degrees in math. I worked for Blue Cross Blue Shield in Kentucky for 26 years in sales and sales management. I retired in December of 1999 and started my own small independent insurance agency in January of 2000 with my current partner, George Arnold. My wife and I became involved with reining in the mid 1980s and became members of Ohio Valley Reining Horse Association (OVRHA) and NRHA at that time. Both of us continue to show non pro, as well as have horses in training with professionals.

We are lifetime members of NRHA. Through the years I have held various positions, including president on two occasions, of OVRHA. I have been on the NRHA board for several years and have served on several committees including the Affiliate Committee, Aged Events Committee and Finance Committee. I was chair of the Affiliate and Aged Events Committees. I also chaired the Programs Task Force. I currently serve on the Affiliate, Aged Events and Finance Committees. NRHA has come a long way since I joined in the mid 1980s. While I think we are the best, and probably the fastest growing over the years, I feel like we still have room for improvement. As most of you know, the backbone of NRHA is our membership. The best way to grow our membership is through our affiliate program. We need to find more ways to support our affiliates. With so many shows going on, it is very hard for them to survive. Our board members should be more aware of what their constituents elected them to do. I think sometimes we become too self-serving and create our own agendas. Financially, I feel like we are very focused and headed in the right direction. I also feel like our sponsorship program is in good shape. However, we need to be sure we do all we can to encourage our members to support our sponsors. I do believe that it is an ongoing process to obtain and keep good sponsors. Remember to support our sponsors.

While the derby is losing less money, it is still losing a significant sum. I think we need to take a long look and see if there might be a better option or a better way to make it pay for itself. There are several other issues, but I think these are some that we as members can have a direct affect on that can improve NRHA. Whether you vote for me or not, get out and vote. It is an embarrassment to have thousands of members and probably have less than a thousand members elect our Executive Committee and board of directors. Thanks for your support. Get out and VOTE! You are NRHA.”

“As a current member of the NRHA Board, I would like to continue my involvement in order to help lead the NRHA in a direction that improves the association for the competitors and all of those involved. I believe that with my past experience and continued committee and board experiences I am qualified for this position. I am an active member of my local affiliates which allows me to get member feedback to bring to the board and make the best decisions for our membership. Being on the board allows me to help my local affiliates at a national level by making sure their needs and concerns are known to my fellow board members and to make sure new rules and regulations are suited for their needs. Belonging to four committees also allows me to be aware of what is happening around different affiliates and helps me to make informed decisions. I hope to continue to be part of the board so I can continue to make a positive impact on the NRHA.”

GET TO KNOW THE PLATINUM PERFORMANCE U.S. JUNIOR TEAM FOR THE 2017 SVAG FEI WORLD REINING CHAMPIONSHIPS FOR JUNIORS AND YOUNG RIDERS

by US Equestrian Communications Department

Ready to compete in the 2017 SVAG FEI World Reining Championships for Junior and Young Riders Aug. 9 – 12, this group of up-and-coming junior riders is prepared to impress as they spin, slide, and rollback into Givrvins, Switzerland. Gain an insider perspective and learn more about the members of the Platinum Performance U.S. Junior Team:

Sam Flarida (Springfield, Ohio) is an accomplished 14-year-old who started riding and showing with his dad when he was nine years old. In his short career, Flarida is already a three-time All American Quarter Horse Congress Champion and has placed in both ancillary and aged-horse National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) events. Flarida is proud to ride Footwork Revolution, a 2010 Quarter Horse Stallion owned by his lifelong friend Katsy Leeman. “Footwork” has won over $100,000 in both Open and Non Pro NRHA events. In their first time competing together, Flarida and Footwork qualified by winning the Syracuse, New York qualifier. When Flarida is not riding, he loves to play baseball and swim with his sister and friends. He also spends a lot of time with his two dogs, Milo and Deeks, and enjoys his family (Dad, Shawn; Mom, Michele; brother, Cody; and sister, Courtney) and horse farm. Flarida is also a high honors student at Clark Shawnee Middle School.

Emma Lane (Gates, N.C.) is 14 years old and will be entering the tenth grade in the fall of 2017. Lane has been riding since she was big enough to sit in the saddle and showed her first reiner when she was just eight years old. In 2016, she became the NRHA Youth 13 and Under World Champion. At the FEI World Reining Championships, Lane will be riding Buddy Lane’s Gunner Gump, a 2008 Quarter Horse gelding. Lane not only rides her own horses at home, but also plays varsity basketball and soccer, and is on the yearbook staff at her school. In the future, Lane hopes to participate on a college equestrian team and study to become a neonatal intensive care physician assistant or registered nurse.

Emilia Reutimann (Sherrills Ford, N.C.) is 15 years old and attends Statesville Christian School, where she served as the National Junior Society President for the 2016/2017 school year. In her numerous years as an equestrian athlete, Reutimann has gathered a variety of equine accolades, including the 2016 Congress Champion in the National Youth Activity Team Tournament Reining and Reserve Champion in 13 and under reining. She was the 2016 Level 1 Buck-eye Reining Series Champion, as well as the 2017 National Reining Breeders Classic (NRBC) Youth 14-18 winner and Youth Challenge Champion. Additionally, Reutimann was the 2017 NRBC scholarship winner and currently serves on the Board of Directions for the North Carolina Quarter Horse Youth Association. Reutimann will ride Black Hails Gold, Lisa Reutimann’s 2010 Quarter Horse gelding at the FEI World Reining Championships in August.

Rein in Cancer is here to help!

If you're in the horse industry and undergoing cancer treatment, you likely have a different set of needs than most. Even as your life is changing, there is still hay to buy, horses to be shod and vet bills, to name a few! We can help.

Visit www.reinincancer.com, fill out a simple application and we can send a check - often the next day after receiving your completed application.

Rein in Cancer was established in 2008 and by 2011 had raised the funding to create the Shirley Bowman Nutrition Center at the Charles & Peggy Stephenson Cancer Center in Oklahoma City - where patients get free nutrition counseling while undergoing cancer treatment.

Our other important mission is to provide direct payment to members of the horse industry who are undergoing treatment for cancer. We are able to help cancer patients because of the generosity of horse people.

Thanks to their participation and donations, people who desperately need a boost can get it quickly, without red tape or long waits.

We thank the organizations and events that have partnered with us, donated to the cause or hosted Rein in Cancer Fund Raising events.

Thanks to Oklahoma Quarter Racing Association, Remington Park, AQHA, National Reining Breeders Classic, National Reining Horse Association, Tulsa Reining Classic, National Reined Cow Horse Snaffle Bit Futurity, All American Quarter Horse Congress, and more!

We also thank the individuals who give or who host Rein in Cancer Fund Raisers and the families who arrange bequests in honor of their loved ones.

Rein in Cancer is a 501c3 Nonprofit.

Hundreds of youth get head start on college, thanks to AjPHA Youth World Show

The American Paint Horse Association successfully concluded the 2017 AjPHA Youth World Championship Show after 10 days of premier competition for youth age 18 and under aboard American Paint Horses. The event took place at the Will Rogers Memorial Center in Fort Worth, Texas, June 26 – July 9.

This year, the Youth World Show offered more than $140,000 in scholarship prizes to AjPHA members competing at the show. Included were scholarships for top finishers in 83 world championship performance and halter classes, along with scholarships for randomly selected entries and other special events. All this in addition to the customary prizes awarded at the show, such as trophy buckles and saddles. Scholarship money was provided by the American Paint Horse Foundation, as well as private donations from APHA members and industry supporters.

With the chance at some wonderful incentives, the show attracted nearly 1,300 entries and 267 horses from 36 U.S. states and Canada. Scholarship amounts per class ranged from $1,300 to nearly $3,500. Several areas saw growth in entries over the 2016 show: speed event classes grew by 68%; roping events were up 94%; solid Paint-bred classes grew by 36%, just to name a few.

“We are so proud to have such an amazing youth representation in our association,” APHA Executive Director

Billy Smith said. “They work extremely hard to get to the World Show, and we are honored to provide them with the opportunity to save for their future education while they show their horses.”

AjPHA members and clubs were also recognized for their hard work and accomplishments outside of the show pen. Madison Martin of Evington, Va., was named the AjPHA Youth Member of the Year. Madison is a National Director for Zone 7. She was awarded a $1,000 scholarship and custom Gist Silversmiths trophy buckle. The Virginia Junior Paint Horse Club was honored as AjPHA’s Youth Club of the Year. The Garden State Paint Horse Club earned the From the Heart award, which is presented to the club that provides the most support to the AjPHA Presidential Service Project.

The Robyn Hanna Sportsmanship Award honors an exhibitor selected by an anonymous panel of judges as someone who exemplifies what it means to be a role model in and out of the arena. Sabine Lazo, a 14-year-old exhibitor from Caldwell, Texas, received this year’s award, along with a $1,000 scholarship and custom Gist Silversmiths trophy buckle.

TULSA REINING CLASSIC WELCOMES TURNABOUT FARM BACK AS SPONSOR OF THE NON PRO FUTURITY

Turnabout Farm is returning for the sixth consecutive year as the naming sponsor of the most exciting Non Pro Event at the Tulsa Reining Classic. The Turnabout Farm Non Pro Futurity will be held in the Ford Truck Arena of the Tulsa Expo Square on Friday, Sept. 1, 2017.

The Turnabout Farm Non Pro Futurity offers $26,000 in added money. It is fitting that such a major event would be sponsored by Sarah Willeman's Turnabout Farm which has set a standard of high achievement in the equestrian world.

"It is a privilege to have Sarah's support of this event," noted Tulsa Reining Classic manager Cheryl Magoteaux Cody. "Sarah has become an integral part of the reining world in the last dozen years. We always appreciate her participation in both this event and in supporting this entire industry."

Founded in 1994, Turnabout Farm originated in the hunter and jumper world. Willeman competed successfully at the highest levels of the sport, winning the Open Jumper Grand Prix, multiple Junior Olympics gold medals, three national equitation championships, and countless hunter championships, Equitation Classics, and Junior- and Amateur-Owner Jumper Classics throughout the years.

From the beginning, the success of Turnabout Farm came from Willeman's eye for quality horses, devotion to fundamental horsemanship, and commitment to each horse's long-term well-being and athletic development. Those same standards were continued in 2005 when Willeman turned her attention to reining. To ensure the continuation of this formula for success, she based her reining horse breeding program in Aubrey, Texas with Tom McCutcheon Reining Horses.

Now, a short twelve years later, with its horses and their offspring amassing nearly $1 million in earnings, Turnabout Farm is renowned as the home of exceptional show horses and proven producers. Turnabout Farm's star stallion, Gunners Special Nite, has over $235,000 in lifetime earnings and was the Individual and Team Gold Medalist at the 2010 World Equestrian Games as well as USEF Horse of the Year.
