Casey Deary 2017 NRHA Derby Level 4 Open Champion

CASEY DEARY WINS SECOND CONSECUTIVE NRHA DERBY TITLE

When NRHA Two Million Dollar Rider Jordan Larson and ARC Gunnabeabigstar scored a 227.5 to steal the lead from Million Dollar Rider Jason Vanlandingham and Hey Joe's 227 in the Open Derby Finals, many thought Larson had the Level 4 title in the bag. The very next draw, Casey Deary rode Shesouttayourleague into the pen for a thrilling run, marking a 229 that could not be topped. Deary's efforts sealed his second consecutive Open Derby Level 4 Championship and added $60,000 in earnings to his record.

Deary won the 2015 NRHA Futurity aboard the mare in a runoff with Franco Bertolani and Inferno Sixty Six. However, Deary struggled with "Lexie" in 2017. He turned to fellow trainer and friend Larson, whose 227.5

Jordan Larson gave me some help at the Redbud Quarter Horse Show where we were schooling and preparing for this. He completely changed what I was doing, and had me do basically the opposite of what I normally do, which obviously I need to do more often."

Deary says Larson's tips are what helped him ride Lexie to the derbywinning score.

"There's no joking, I think it's what Jordan had me do. I stayed closer with finished reserve to Deary in the 2017 Derby for $43,918.23.

"She's been a pleasure to have as a 2-year-old and a 3 year old. The run-off in the futurity was amazing," Deary said. "I was having a little trouble with her this year getting her to run and stop like I know she could, and my good friend

"When I run a horse down, I like them to get ahead of me and be free and a little up and running in front. I was missing her, and she'd stop with her neck up or make two moves to the ground. Jordan had me wrap my feet around her to where I had to

The 2012 mare, who's by Walla Walla Whiz and out of Wimpys Little Chic and owned by Curtis Performance Horses LLC, has always wanted to please, which Deary says is the best part about training her.

"She's been amazing. She's got a great feel on her neck, and she wants to be a good horse," Deary said. "She doesn't want to be in trouble, and that's been the best part of it."

Deary thanked his wife, Nicole, for her support and the mare's owner for allowing him full reign with her training,

"Rob Curtis, my customer who owns her, has been amazing. He's given me a green light to do whatever I need to do to make sure she's taken care of to be her very best. There's never anything that he's said no, so he's been amazing," Deary said. "My wife has cheered me on, even when it's not good, she cheers me on, and she handles the herd of children. I can tell you coming here, I was not super confident in any of the three [horses]. She smacked me around and said, 'You dummy, they look great, just go show them.' Sometimes we need that; sometimes we're a little dense."

TREMBLAY AND BOECHAT TIE FOR LEVEL 3 DERBY

The Level 3 Open Derby Finals saw a tie between Dany Tremblay on Magnums Guns R Reddy and Thiago Boechat on Ruf Lil Magnum, both scoring a 223 for $19,564.76 each. Ironically, both co-champion horses are by NRHA Four Million Dollar Sire Magnum Chic Dream. Tremblay, who operates Tremblay Reining Horses out of Overbrook, Oklahoma, with his brother Fred, says he had a gut feeling the 2012 mare out of Guns R Reddy would show up in a big way for the finals. Not only did "Sabrina" become the Level 3 co-champion, but the score also placed 12th in the Level 4 for $7,186.92.

"I rode my mare last night and she was feeling so good, and I texted a few people this morning saying I think something good could happen tonight. I believe in her, and she was honest last night and told me where I could go or what I could do," Tremblay said. "You never know when you walk through that gate, or actually tonight run pretty fast through that gate. My first stop was really great for her and she backed up nice and stood in the middle, like 'You ask me and I'll do it for you.' That's what she said, and I asked her for a little more than she gives me usually and she gave it to me."

Tremblay hoped Sabrina's performance would translate to a winning score, and the judges came through for the pair in what Tremblay says was one of the toughest finals he's ridden in.

"In the beginning, I was hoping—we all hope for a great ride. I stayed out of the penalty box, she had great maneuvers, and when I walked out I was hoping for a big score, and I got it and was happy," Tremblay said. "It was a tough final. I'm glad I was Level 3 this year, because I won't be next year, but Level 4 was really tough tonight. Such good horses and good riders; the reining industry is getting big and the horses are machines now."

Sabrina has been a perfect fit for Tremblay since arriving in his training program last year.

"I got her six to eight months ago, and we got along from the first day. She always had big maneuvers, and I tried to teach her what I know and she actually taught me some stuff too," Tremblay said. "The first time we go in the pen, we had a few bobbles here and there, but then we just got along and started understanding each other. I just ask her to do it, and she does."

Tremblay and Sabrina's owner Ruth Hamlin don't have immediate show plans for Sabrina the rest of this year, but Tremblay hopes to continue showing her next year.

"She's healthy and wants to be a show horse, and at the horse shows she's nice, and everybody likes this mare," Tremblay said.

Level 3 Derby co-champion Thiago Boechat and "The Rock" haven't been a team for long, but it wasn't evident in the final round.

"We had a very good first stop. I messed up on my first turn and had a penalty that hurt us a bit, but we caught up. He had a really good second set of turns, and he was good otherwise,"Boechat said. "I got him after the [National Reining Breeders Classic in April], Jordan Larson had him before me and did a great job, and Brian Bell had him before Jordan. A lot went into getting him to show here. He's been in great hands."

Silver Spurs Equine and Heritage Farms own the 2013 stallion out of Dunit A Lil Ruf, and Boechat trains out of the Purcell, Oklahoma, location. The Rock is Boechat's first experience with a Magnum Chic Dream.

"This is my first Magnum, and if they're all like this, it's amazing. They're doing really well; they're great horses," Boechat said. "He has it all—he's a big turner, big stopper, great mover and a great mind."

Boechat plans to show the stallion in Las Vegas at the High Roller Reining Classic and then at the AQHA World Championship Show.

BOBBY AVILA CLAIMS LEVEL 2 DERBY TITLE

Bobby Avila and CBK Spooks Got Cash Bobby Avila Jr. rode CBK Spooks Got Cash to a 221 to seal the Level 2 Derby Championship, earning $9,839.95. Avila says the mare is easy to show and sailed through the pattern in a smooth effort.

"We entered the gate smooth, built speed, she went to her first stop and nailed it," Avila said. "She backed up and hit most of her runs really well, took a big deep breath and went to our circles at three-quarter speed and asked her for a little more on the second circle and then slowed right down and had nice changes. Same thing on the right side, and she went to her stops well and was very smooth."

Avila is three for three this year on the 2011 mare by Spooks Gotta Gun and out of HR Wright On Cash. He recently took the reins from Josh Murphy and has dominated the lower levels on the horse.

"I've only shown her these last three times, and we've won all three derbies—the Red Dirt Reining derby, the Buckeye Reining derby and then here. She's been good," Avila said. "Josh Murphy trained her and showed her as a 3-year-old and a 4-year-old. He's Level 4 only this year, so he's been letting me ride her these past few months to put some more money on her. William and Corliss Kellogg own her and are customers of Josh's, and they're letting me show her since I'm in the lower divisions."

Avila, who trains at his Avila Performance Horses in Rogersville, Missouri, says she's a stress-free ride with a promising career in the show pen and breeding shed.

"She's really easy. She just wants to be trotted around and loped out, then turned out. She's a very sound, good-minded mare who doesn't require much training and knows her job," Avila said. "We plan to keep putting money on her and then make a broodmare out of her."

Tom Foran rode Walla Walla Starbuck for Sleipner LLC to a score of 220 to earn reserve honors. The 2012 stallion by Walla Walla Whiz and out of Silvernbluestarbuck earned $7,778.97.

Barak Gibori Wynn 1s by Colo-2017 NRHA Open Derby Level 1 Champion nels Smokingun and

> "I showed him four or five times already, and he's always been really close," Gibori said. "We told the owner, 'There's something there; let's send him to another horse show.' This time it all clicked, and he was really good."

> Gibori plans to show Flashy at the derbies in Las Vegas or Tulsa this year.

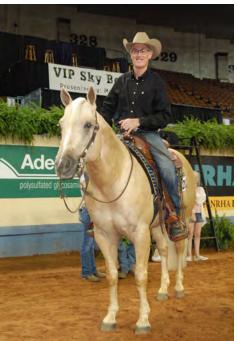

In the reserve slot, Jeromy Lipps rode Revolutionary Jac for owner Melodie Nelson to a 218, worth $3,810.41.

LARCOMBE TOPS OPEN PRIME TIME DERBY

In the Open Prime Time, Martin Larcombe marked a 223 aboard Hang Ten And Shine to earn $2,070.64. Larcombe says the go-round was especially tough and was thankful for the caliber of horse he had in the 2011 stallion by Hang Ten Surprize and out of Ebony Shines.

"It was a tough go-round and on the second day, and going by the scores already, you had to push it pretty hard to make the finals tonight. It was good that my horse could go in and mark a good score to make the final and stay with me. He felt really good in the go and he felt really good tonight," Larcombe said. "He was good everywhere. He circled well, he stopped, and I think I had a spinning penalty one way. You get that when you're pushing them, but he was good and he's a good horse." "I've h through the futurities and derbies. He's got an unblemished record as far as Level 4 finals go," Larcombe said. "We've been to the futurity Level 4 final, the derby here three years in a row in the final, and obviously I've taken him twice and made the Level 4 final twice there, so he's been a very consistent, good horse."

The native Australian who now trains out of Whitesboro, Texas, says "Spirit's" heart and try set him apart as a competitor. In fact, Spirit's desire to please became a bit too much in his early training, but he's calmed down with age. "We call him 'Spirit' because as a yearling, he used to have a little dirt mound he'd rear up on like the horse in the movie. He's a really nice horse to be around. The fact that he tries; he never ever looks to take an easy way out," Larcombe said. "If anything, as a younger horse he was a bit too much of an over achiever and get a little tense. He's settled down and knows his job and we've figured one another out. He's just a cool horse; good to be around in the barn, good to ride and good to show."

Larcombe hopes to show the stallion in FEI events next year and possibly at the World Equestrian Games.

Mandy McCutcheon on Hollywood Starburst 2017 NRHA Non Pro Level 4 Champion

MANDY MCCUTCHEON WINS NON PRO DERBY ON HOLLYWOOD STARBURST

Mandy McCutcheon returned to the Jim Norick Arena for the Level 4 Non Pro Derby Finals aboard a mare with a little ask about buying her, but I hope we get to keep her," Mandy less than $3,000 in earnings. By the end of the evening, the NRHA Hall of Famer and only Two Million Dollar Non Pro rider had jockeyed the royally bred Hollywood Starburst to a score of 224, adding $18,463.79 in earnings to both of their stat sheets. The victory is Mandy's seventh NRHA Derby title.

Mandy says her mare's big stop in a stop-heavy pattern made all the difference in raising their first-go score of 220, which placed third for $885.16.

"I kicked her a little harder in the finals, and there's a fourth stop. A four-stop pattern with a horse that stops like that is a big advantage," Mandy said. "She ran quite a long ways the first time and we had to back up quite a long ways, but she was good everywhere; we were linked up."

The 2013 mare by Hollywood Dun It and out of Chic Olena Starbuck took longer to mature, but she has finally found her identity in the arena.

"She just now is starting to come into her own," Mandy said. "She was a little slow to learn a few things and figure some things out, but the light bulb is starting to click on. Every day, she's gotten a little bit better and better."

Mandy, daughter of NRHA Three Million Dollar Rider Tim McQuay, hopes to keep Hollywood Starburst around the prominent McCutcheon Reining Horses operation, which she runs with her husband, NRHA Million Dollar Rider Tom McCutcheon.

"I plan to keep showing her. We've had a couple people said. "Having a good Dun It mare like that in your fieldshe's a big stopper, she's pretty going around, a big strong mare, and she's a Dun It—you can't go wrong with a big Dun It mare."

Mandy thanked the entire McCutcheon Reining Horses crew and her family for their support.

"My whole crew-without my parents, my husband, and all the people who work over there and here, I couldn't do it," Mandy said. "[McCutcheon trainer] Debbie Brown spent a lot of time on [Hollywood Starburst], and Tom getting her well broke as a 3-year-old, my dad helped me with her this spring, and between the NRBC and here, Debbie Brown put a lot of hours into her. She and I have worked together for a long time and have a lot of trust and faith in each other. Having people like that on your team, you can't do it without them. Especially me, since I don't ride as much as I should or would like to, because the kids have sporting events and we have 300-head of horses, and next year we'll have seven studs, it's a full-time job just to keep up with everything. Without my team I have behind me, it would be impossible."

Whitesboro, Texas, veterinarian William Rhoads and Mega Maggie Mae, the 2016 NRHA Derby Non Pro Level 4 Champions, posted the high score in the first go with a 223.5 for $1,264.51. Rhoads and his 2012 mare by Magnum Chic Dream and out of Cinco De Mega returned in the finals and marked a 221.5, winning the reserve championship and $11,280.09.

Stephanie Gripp on Gun N For Glory 2017 NRHA Derby Non Pro Levels 1-3 Champion

STEPHANIE GRIPP WINS LEVELS 1–3 & YOUTH ON GUN N FOR GLORY

Stephanie Gripp had the derby showing of her life Friday night. Gripp and her 2012 mare Gun N For Glory (Colonels Smokingun x Dun It For Chex) marked a 219 to sweep Levels 1–3 in addition to the Youth Non Pro. All totaled, Gripp's winnings in the finals alone added $35,159 in earnings next to her name.

"Words cannot describe it at this point," Gripp said. "This is my first Level 4 finals, and I had no idea it was going to end up like this. The horse was just perfect for me."

In the first go, Gripp and "Glory" scored a 216.5, easily qualifying back for the finals and earning a total $866.36 from placing in Levels 1–3. The 16-year-old of Sheffield, Illinois, says her finals score improved not only because she pushed the mare for more but because Glory could feel the high-stakes environment.

"For the first go-round, she did exactly what we asked her to do – qualified me for the Level 4 finals. In the finals tonight, she was perfect and tried so hard and was great the whole way through. She's a big turner and a big stopper, her circles were the best they've ever been," Gripp said. "It was great to have four stops because those are her biggest maneuvers. She knows what the stakes were, and it's hard to but they're broke enough to know what they're doing." think they would know that, but they do know going in."

Keeping Glory calm and relaxed is a big part of Gripp's routine, especially at lengthy shows and with a young horse.

"She tried so hard, and this past week it's been trying to keep her nerves down and keep her happy," Gripp said. "We've been putting her in the saltwater spa here, and it's just a lot of keeping everything low key."

Gripp, who trains with Kole Price in Leland, Illinois, got Glory in January of 2016 from Cardinal Reining Horses.

Gripp says she has been steadily improving every time in the pen.

"Last year we showed in derbies, it was a little bit getting her to fit into the program at Price Performance Horses," Gripp said. "At the NRBC this year, she spooked in the first go–round. We entered her in the novice horse and ended up high point in the novice horse, and this past show she's been perfect for me. These past few shows, our scores have been getting better and better."

Next on the radar for Gripp and Glory is the North Central Reining Horse Association Derby in August followed by the Tulsa Reining Classic at the beginning of September. Gripp has been reining since 2012, and Glory is her first derby horse. She showed in the youth division and has shown a futurity horse, but she prefers derby-age mounts.

"My first mare was a little Chic mare that got me through my first shows, and I showed youth and had a futurity horse a few years back. Then we bought her, and she's my first derby horse," Gripp said. "It's all been a learning experience for me. It's nice to ride the derby horses-they're still young so they're pretty true when you ride in the show pen, Laura Anne Bell Parker of Ardmore, Oklahoma, rode Shirley Your A Tag, owned by George and Carol Bell, to a 216.5 to claim the Level 3 reserve championship. The score also placed third in the Level 2 and fourth in the Level 1, earning $8,887.58 from the finals.

In the Youth Non Pro and Levels 1 and 2, RaeannaThayn of Oxford, Nebraska, piloted Coded N Karma (Electric Code x Whiz N Snap), owned by Robert and Robbin Thayn, to a 218 for reserve honors, worth $9,798.67 in final-round winnings.

Michael Garnett on Snoop Around 2017 NRHA Derby Non Prime Time and Masters Champion

GARNETT WINS MASTERS AND PRIME TIME NON PRO DERBY

Michael Garnett and Snoop Around had a lucrative Non Pro Derby Finals round, marking a 217 to emerge as champion of both the Masters and Prime Time Non Pro Finals. In addition, the score tied for fourth in the Level 3 and tied for ninth in the Level 4. The run earned Garnett $13,122 in the finals, in addition to his $721.38 earned in the first go.

"I'm very happy; he was really, really good. I thought my horse worked really well; I was happy with him," Garnett said. "I let him trot out of his left rollback, but that wasn't his fault, that was mine. Other than that, I couldn't have asked for him to be any more honest and pure. He's 6 years old, he's been shown enough that if he had any cheat in him, he'd be cheating me, and he never does. He's a good horse."

Despite the falter, Garnett says "Festus" circles and turns helped make up the score.

"I think his circles or his turns are his best," Garnett said. "He circles really nice, and he turns really well too."

Garnett has raised Festus from the start. The 2011 gelding by Walla Walla Whiz and out of Sneaking Out Tonight was started by Todd Arvidson and then sent to Martin Muehlstaetter for reining training. Garnett took the reins when Festus turned 5 and plans to use him as a 7 and Up horse next year.

Garnett says Festus is all business in the show pen, and it's one of his favorite qualities about the horse.

"He's what I would refer to as a show horse, meaning that sometimes he'll get a little rattled in the warm-up pen, a lot of other horses running around him tends to bother him, but he goes in the show pen and nothing ever bothers him," Garnett said. "He just puts his head down and goes—he does it every single time."

The Lincoln, Nebraska, resident is a longtime reiner with more than $292,700 in earnings to his name. His beginnings trace back to 4-H shows and eventually American Quarter Horse Association shows, where he was introduced to legendary reining trainer Bob Loomis.

"I started it like most people did, in 4-H years and years ago," Garnett said. "I was fortunate enough to live in Nebraska. At that time, Bob Loomis lived there, so I grew up stock showing in the 4-H shows and then started showing in the Quarter Horse shows and that's where I met Bob. He was certainly an inspiration to me, and it's just gone from there."

Mark Blake and his own Hot Hollywood Whizky scored a 217, earning the reserve championship in both the Masters and Prime Time Non Pro. Blake, of Edina, Minnesota, earned $2,460.23 from the finals aboard the 2012 stallion by Topsail Whiz and out of Hot Hollywood Jewels.

Melissa Wigen on Dunit In Wranglers

MELISSA WIGEN WINS NRHA $2,000-ADDED NON PRO ON DUNIT IN WRANGLERS AT NRHA DERBY SHOW

The very first class of the 2017 National Reining Horse Association Derby show took place Saturday, June 24, in the Adequan Championship Arena at the Oklahoma State Fairgrounds, where 26 exhibitors steered their horses through the intricacies of Pattern 12. In the end, it took a 143.5 score for the win.

Melissa Wigen of Ogden, Utah, rode her 2007 gelding Dunit In Wranglers (Starlights Wrangler x A Bueno Poco Dunit) to take the $2,000-Added Non Pro title.

"[My run] was pretty good," Wigen said. "He ran in and stopped well for me, turned good, circled good, and I knew if I could go down my stops I'd probably be in a good position for it."

The victory was only the beginning of a busy week for Wigen and her family in Oklahoma City.

"I'm showing Monday in the novice horse, and I'm hoping to show Wednesday in the maturity," Wigen said. "My daughter shows and my husband shows, so we have a lot going on."

The $2,000-Added Non Pro reserve championship went to Adam Donahue on Thata Shiner (Smart Spook x SLJ Smart-likewhinny) with a score of 141.5.

Adam Donahue

Donahue and Thata Shiner's score also claimed victory in the $1,000-Added Intermediate Non Pro class, which was run consecutively. Ann Admonius and Gunners Genes placed reserve in the class with a 139 score.

The class was Donahue's first horse show after a 16-year hiatus from the sport.

"I haven't shown for 16 years," Donahue said. "I had some time this year, so I went and got a horse. She's a Smart Spook horse out of a [Smart Like Juice] mare. I've had her for a few years now but just started riding her in January. It's been a good year so far."

Donahue trains his own horses and rides at Zimmerman Performance Horses in Rogersville, Missouri. Donahue's 2009 sorrel mare was supposed to be a broodmare, until Donahue decided to bring her back into the show pen.

"She was just standing in the pasture, so we thought she needs a little more money on her. She had a three-year vacation, so she ought to be ready to go again," Donahue said. "We bought her three years ago from Jose Vazquez. We'll show her through the rest of the year and then probably breed her to Not Ruf At All."

Smart Dundee (Conquistador Whiz x Smart Oaklyn) and Cathy Brant won the $500 Limited Non Pro class with a 140, while Paul Queen scored a 138.5 to take reserve honors aboard Outta Dough, owned by Dorothy Queen. The Brant family has owned the 2007 gelding since he was 2.

"My husband picked him out as a 2-yearold, did all the training and made the open futurity finals here as a 3-year-old," Brant said. "He had an injury, had a couple years off, and then I've been riding him ever since. He's amazing, he's honest, he packs me around and takes care of me, is very forgiving and an incredible animal."

Brant says winning the class came as a surprise, because she was using it as preparation for the 7 and Up Non Pro class.

"It was a treat to end up winning that because I was just schooling for the 7 and up," Brant said. "I went in there to see what I had, and he was pretty darn good and honest. He was right there with me."

Admonius paid another trip to the winner's circle in the Prime Time Non Pro with a score of 139 aboard her new mount Gunners Genes.

"I had so much fun," Admonius exclaimed. "This is a new

A string of unfortunate events delayed Admonius and the 2012 gelding's progress toward the show ring, and this class was only the pair's second time in the show ring.

"I ride with Ruben Vandorp. He found the horse for me, and we purchased him last October," Admonius said. "The first time I went to show him I fell and fractured my wrist, the second time I went, Ruben was headed to the barn and got hit by a drunk driver, the third time I went to show him was [National Reining Breeders' Classic] and the horse came up sick. I went to Redbud, so really this is the second time I've shown him."

Admonius is now focused on enjoying her horse as they progress as a team.

"[My plans are] to get better," Admonius said. "I love him! He's by Gunner and out of Taris Designer Genes, and he's just the sweetest horse. I'm having a ball with him."

Janet Cowles and MJG Colonel Dry placed second in the Prime Time Non Pro with a 138.

Texas, rode Xtra Dun Right to the head of the class June 24 to win the Novice Horse Open with a score of 146 working pattern 6.

"He went in and turned for me both ways, and I felt him take a big deep breath and knew he was focused," Piper said of the winning performance. "He circled right with me and had some pretty stops. I didn't want to over-show him; I wanted to go out there and half every maneuver and see what he'd do for me"

NATHAN PIPER WINS NRHA $1,000-ADDED NOVICE HORSE OPEN LEVEL 1 AND 2

Nathan Piper of Aubrey, stallion by Wimpys Little Step and out of SLJ Dun Juice by Smart Like Juice. Piper says the stallion has matured physically since his early days in training.

> "I had him when he was younger and then sold him and recently got him back. I brought him here to see what he was like and hopefully get him ready for Tulsa," Piper said. "He's gotten a lot more physical. I knew he was a neat and talented horse, but since I've had him back I'm surprised at how physical he stops. In his turn, I think he's getting stronger and stronger."

Patrice St-Onge of Gainesville, Texas, earned the reserve championship with a score of 145 aboard Smart Cowboy Piper has a history with Shannon and Hershel Reid's 2013 Whiz (Who Whiz It x Little Smart Jac x Smart Little Lena).

CASEY DEARY WINS NRHA $6,000-ADDED OPEN AND USA OPEN, TIES WITH MIRJAM STILLO FOR CRI3* VICTORY AT NRHA DERBY SHOW

Casey Deary

Sunday's classes brought exciting professional reining action to the Oklahoma State Fairgrounds on June 25 for the second day of the NRHA Derby Show. Deary Performance Horses took the spotlight, claiming victories in every class. NRHA Million Dollar Rider Casey Deary won the $6,000-Added Open, the USA Open Reining and tied for first with Mirjam Stillo and Ruff Spook in the FEI CRI3* class, all aboard Who Dat Hot Chic. Deary Performance Horses trainer Josh Tishman won the $500-Added Limited Open and the $500-Added Rookie Professional riding Chics Love Me Wimpy.

Deary jockeyed the standout Who Dat Hot Chic for Neiberger Performance Horses of Argyle, Texas, to a score of 148 to seal victory in two classes. His 73.5 in the FEI CRI3* tied for first in the class. Deary says the 2010 mare by Wimpys Little Step and out of Smart Chic Aloha has astonishing ability in the show pen and was purchased with the intention of both a performance and breeding career.

"She's out of a cow horse mare that won $40-$50,000 in the cow horse and was second at the World's Greatest Horseman. We bought her from Jamie Bissell for Todd Neiberger to show, who owns [the stallion] In Like Flinn,"

Casey Deary and Mirjam Stillo

Deary explained. "I wanted something that would complement 'Flinn' really well, and this mare is bionic in ability, so I thought it would be a good cross on Flinn."

Deary says the mare's watchful personality can make her difficult to read at times, but it hasn't hindered her success in the arena.

"She's got a lot of turn, a lot of stop and is a beautiful mare," Deary said. "She's a little looky—her ears are constantly going, so you don't really know if she's right where you want her to be. Todd's done really well on her this year, so he was nice enough to let me steal her for the FEI part of this. Our goal was for me to use her to get qualified so I can show Flinn next year [in the FEI classes]. That was her main job, but I schooled her at the Redbud and got her qualified for the World Show schooling her."

The NRHA Derby Show is the first time Deary has ever pushed Who Dat Hot Chic for a winning score.

"This was the first time I ever tried to get a score on her," Deary said. "If she's going to let me show her like that and not stress her, I might have to use her a few more times for the fun of it."

Kari Anna Klingenberg and Mr Electric Spark (Jacs Electric Spark x Sailin Rowdy), owned by Foothills Farm of Sedro-Woolley, Washington, earned reserve honors in the $6,000-Added Open and the USA Open Reining with a 147.5.

Italian trainer Mirjam Stillo also scored a 73.5 to tie with Deary for first place in the FEI CRI3*. Stillo recently began riding Ruff Spook (Smart Spook x Ruffle Me Up), owned by Shannon and Hershel Reid of Pilot Point, Texas, but the pair is already well on their way toward accomplishing Stillo's goals. The Derby is only their second show together. get here until late last night. I got on, went in and showed.

"He qualified for the World Show, and I just started riding him two months ago. He hasn't had a saddle on for the last two years while he was a breeding stud," Stillo said. "I called Shannon and told her I was trying to find a really nice horse to go to the [World Equestrian Games], so she gave me Ruff Spook and Ima Smokin Mister. Hopefully I can make her happy and make myself happy."

The 2009 stallion stumbled slightly in one of his circles, so Stillo made sure the rest of the pattern was strong to make up points.

"I wanted to run him a little harder, but I didn't want to overdo anything so I didn't push him to his max at all," Stillo said. "He had that stumble in the circles so I ran him harder to his first stop, and he was flawless. His stops and rollbacks are amazing. There's a little more horse in there, but I was happy the first time he gets back to the pen he wins a check and be such a great score."

Kari Anna Klingenberg and Mr Electric Spark's score of 73 followed Deary and Stillo for reserve honors in the FEI CRI3*.

In the $1,000-Added Intermediate Open, Shauna Larcombe guided Spook N Sparkle to a 144.5 to barely edge reserve champion Josh Tishman's 144. NRHA Hall of Famer Rosanne Sternberg of Aubrey, Texas, owns the 2010 gelding by Smart Spook and out of Setting Off Sparks.

"[My run] was alright, we just wanted to make a nice clean run and mark a good score for the CRI and ended up in the intermediate open as well," Larcombe said, who is planning to compete at the World Equestrian Games next year.

Josh Tishman is on a roll this year in a bright start to his young career. Tishman and Chics Love Me Wimpy (Wimpys Little Step x Dream About Magic) marked a 144 to win both the $500-Added Limited Open and the $500-Added Rookie Professional. The Deary Performance Horses trainer rode the 2010 gelding for owner Deborah Good of Dallas, Texas.

"He's really consistent, easy to show-he actually didn't We've won everything I've shown him in this year," Tishman said. "We're leading the Rookie Pro standings. I've had him about a year; I was supposed to show him at the Derby last year, but he got hurt at Redbud. We bought him from Mike McEntire as Deborah's [non-pro] horse and then realized he was enough for an open horse."

> Chics Love Me Wimpy is the first horse that has given Tishman the opportunity to gun for a world title.

"This is the first year I've [hauled for a world championship] and had the horse to do it," Tishman said. "Anywhere we go, I show him and Deborah shows him, and he's the same every time he goes in."

with Deary and Tishman, says the gelding is an incredible horse because of his ability to adjust to his rider in the pen.

"He's a Non Pro horse, and I'm a green and rookie rider just coming up. Casey and Josh have taken me a long way this year, so it's great to have a horse at the level of a consistently open rider and then come back to the level I'm at," Good said. "He's honest in the arena and is a wonderful horse to show. I'm a green reiner; I just started riding five years ago. I showed in my first show three years ago and got hooked. I love that I have a horse that constantly takes care of me and takes care of Josh."

Daniel Gibbs and the 2012 stallion Spooks Full Throttle (Spooks Gotta Gun x Angierilla Boom) placed reserve in both the Limited Open and Rookie Professional classes.

MARTIN MUEHLSTAETTER, MARIE KLEINER WIN AQHA OPEN AT NRHA DERBY SHOW

Martin Muehlstaetter

The AQHA/APHA Open double-judged class June 25 saw two talented trainers claim victory. Martin Muehlstaetter and Revolution Is Dun scored a 73.5 under Judge One Ed Cridge to earn the win in the AQHA Open class, while Marie Kleiner's 73.5 aboard Wimpys Little Nite under Judge Two Cyndi Brown also claimed victory.

Muehlstaetter says the 2010gelding by Instant Revolution and out of Miss Whiz Done Dunit, owned by Sarah Nimigan, is a joy to show because of his heart and talent.

"He felt pretty good, went in there and turned really nice both ways. He went maybe 75 or 80 percent in his circles, changed leads really easy and was really hooked," Muehlstaetter said. "I ran him pretty hard to his stops and he stopped three times really beautiful. He's a cool horse, got a really big heart. He makes my job pretty easy."

The victory qualified Muehlstaetter and Revolution Is Dun for the 2017 AQHA World Championship Show in addition to his second mount Gotta Gold Chain (Jacs Electric Spark x Snip O Chex), who took reserve championship honors in the class with a 73.5 under Judge One and a 72.5 under Judge Two.

Marie Kleiner's victory also successfully qualified Wimpys Little Nite for the AQHA World Show, their first attempt on the year.

"He's by Wimpys Little Step and out of Dun It By Chick. He's 7 years old, and I've been riding him for the last year and a half for Courtney Battison, who shows him in the non pro 7 and up events now," Kleiner said. "We qualified today in one try."

SHAUNA LARCOMBE WINS $3,000-ADDED INTERMEDIATE OPEN, ASHLEY STROH CLAIMS $500-ADDED LIMITED OPEN AND ROOKIE PRO

Professional reiners took the stage in the Adequan Arena on June 26 with the $3,000-Added Intermediate Open, $500-Added Limited Open and $500-Added Rookie Professional classes.

Shauna Larcombe added to her 2017 NRHA Derby show earnings with a victory aboard Shiners Chic in the $3,000-Added Intermediate Open, marking a 145.5. Larcombe also won reserve aboard Spook N Sparkle (Smart Spook x Setting Off Sparks) with a 144. Larcombe earned

Shauna Larcombe $1,300 for the victory and $894 for the reserve title aboard the Rosanne Sternberg-owned geldings.

Larcombe says Shiners Chic (Smart Chic Olena x Ebony Shines) has always been an athletic mount. She's ridden and trained the 12-year-old gelding off and on this year for the Sternbergs' Sterling Ranch in Pilot Point, Texas.

"Jessica [Sternberg] usually shows him, so today was to do a nice easy run for him to prepare for the non pro," Larcombe said. "He felt really good, really relaxed and listened; he was great. He's an amazing athlete, extremely good horse."

Budding trainer Ashley Stroh swept both the $500-Added Limited Open and $500-Added Rookie Professional classes with a 146.5 aboard her self-owned and -trained Jerrys Mizzen Money (Jerry Lees Surprise x Miss Moth Money). Stroh earned $575 for both victories in what she says was the first time she pushed the 2008 gelding for a score.

"I've had this horse for about four years. I haven't shown him much before; this is probably his fourth or fifth show. This is the first time I've really tried to show him," Stroh said. "He was great in every aspect; he almost didn't even have to give everything he had. He was phenomenal."

Stroh, who is based out of her boyfriend Aires De Mello's barn in Gainesville, Texas, says Jerrys Mizzen Money has been a fundamental aspect in her development as a rider and trainer.

"I own and train him, and he's been very interesting. He's taught me a ton," Stroh said. "He's taught me to be a much better rider and taught me to be more clear with the way I ride and train. He's taught me to be a very conscious rider."

Josh Tishman and Chics Love Me Wimpy took reserve honors in both classes with a 146, earning $443.

GREG HALL WINS $2,000-ADDED NOVICE HORSE NON PRO LEVEL 2, BLAIR MCFARLIN CLAIMS $1,000-ADDED NOVICE HORSE NON PRO LEVEL 1

Non pro action heated up the Adequan Arena on June 26 with the $1,000-Added Novice Horse Non Pro Level 1 and 2. Greg Hall and his family-owned 2010 mare Chics Mainattraction marked a 144 to win the Novice Horse Non Pro Level 2 for $560. The farrier of Gainesville, Texas, says the mare has continued to overcome obstacles and succeed not only in the show pen but also as a producer. Her talent shone with NRHA Million Dollar Rider Jason Vanlandingham, and she continues to win for the Hall family.

Greg Hall on Chics Mainattraction

"We've had her since she was a 2-year-old. She's been a real good horse, but she's had some lameness issues; she's had some bad luck," Hall said. "Jason Vanlandingham jumped on her as a 5-year-old and rode her about a month and a half and made the open finals at the NRBC. He handed her back, my wife showed her a bit, I've shown her, and she's been a real good mare; very talented. Sometimes we don't always get it in front of the judge, but she's a good horse and I just love her to death. We're breeding her—I've got a Hollywood Dun It yearling out of her and an Inferno weanling, and she's got an Inferno on the way."

Hall says the mare has taken some time to mature, but the extra miles are starting to pay off for both horse and rider.

"[Our winning run] was pretty good; I've marked decent with her before," Hall said. "She's actually just starting to mature. She's been really immature, and she's starting to relax more at the horse shows. I haven't done a lot of showing in the past half-dozen years, and I need to get out in front of the judge, too."

Melissa Wigen and her 2007 gelding Dunit In Wranglers (Starlights Wrangler x A Bueno Poco Dunit) scored a 143 to place second for $444.42.

In the Novice Horse Non Pro Level 1, Auburn University animal science junior Blair McFarlin

Blair McFarlin on Lil Jac N Gin

rode Lil Jac N Gin to victory with a 142, earning $576. Mc-Farlin's school schedule keeps her from showing as much as she'd like. She is thankful for the opportunity to ride her father Mike McFarlin's 2012 mare during the summers when she is home in Franklin, Tennessee.

"I only get to ride her 3 months out of the year because I'm at school, but she's been great for me," McFarlin said. "I just have to trust her to do her job and get used to riding nice horses again. My dad usually shows her, but I get to hop on her when I'm home from school and let her do her job. She's fun."

McFarlin says one of her favorite parts about reining is spending time with her family and being involved in such a family-oriented industry.

"It's awesome, I grew up showing with my dad, and it's made me and my dad so much closer," McFarlin said. "It's fun doing a family sport that you can do your whole life."

Cheryl Lauder of Weatherford, Oklahoma, guided Who Whiz Smartin Off (Who Wiz It x Little Smart Jac) to a tie for the reserve title with Karen Shedlauskas and Red Gun 2 (Gunner x Call Me N Hollywood). Both riders marked a score of 140 for $398 each.

Brian Welman on Cielo Dreaming and Dany Tremblay on Misters Temptress

DANY TREMBLAY AND BRIAN WELMAN TIE FOR $2,000-ADDED NOVICE HORSE OPEN LEVEL 2, MATTHEW PALMER CLAIMS $1,000-ADDED NOVICE HORSE OPEN LEVEL 1

Open riders guided their horses through Pattern 9 in the Adequan Arena on June 27 for the $1,000-Added Novice Horse Open Level 1 and $2,000-Added Novice Horse Open Level 2 classes.

Brian Welman and Dany Tremblay both marked scores of 146 to earn $822 and tie for championship honors in the Level 2 class.

Welman rode Cielo Dreaming (Magnum Chic Dream x Shiney Cielo), owned by Craig Vernon, a horse he's ridden for about a year. The gelding came from Calcagnini Reining Horses in Pilot Point, Texas, and has found a successful show home with the Vernon family, who trains with Welman in Hastings, Minnesota.

"I bought him for Paige Vernon as a 4-year-old from Stefano Calcagnini, and he's a 5-year-old now. She's gotten along with him pretty well. She hasn't shown him at many majors; she's mainly showing him up where we're from," Welman said. "They've gotten along really well, so we're just trying to get him pretty solid. He was good today. He was okay the first day, not quite as nice as he can be. Today, he was a lot better."

Overbrook, Oklahoma-based trainer Dany Tremblay piloted Misters Temptress (Mister Dual Pep x Colonel Pepinic) to tie for the win. Adh-Mor Ranch owns the 2012 mare, and Tremblay says she has really started to come into her own in the show pen this year.

"I rode her last year and competed a little bit, had a few good horse shows. This year, she just keeps going—showing, showing and showing. She knows she's in the pen, actually," Tremblay said. "I'm leading the year-end standings right now for Open Novice Horse, so hopefully we'll stay in the lead until the end."

The mare has a strong personality that adds to her performances. Despite being a little out of shape after a twomonth break, Tremblay says she still gave her all in the class.

"She's good, and she wants to be good. She's got her own personality. She's a little timid, a little shy to go in the pen, but once she's in there, she's not a cheater and she's trying her best," Tremblay said. "We gave her a break after NRBC and she gained a few extra pounds, so she's a little tired right now, but she really tried hard. Every time I show her, she's always the same. She gives me a 73, 73.5 every show."

Tremblay plans to continue gunning for the year-end title by entering as many novice horse classes as he can.

chance because she's 21 so this'll be her last year. He said to go out and find me a horse if you can."

Palmer found Gunner Be A Maverick, a 7-year-old mount with a very limited show record. With some tuning and miles, Gunner Be A Maverick has already won at the only two shows Palmer has entered him so far.

"I do a lot of business with Craig and Ginger [Schmersal], and they really take care of me, and they had this horse that had only been shown three times his whole life," Palmer explained. "Before we got him, he won $200. An older lady had him and trail rode and showed a little bit, nothing serious. Next thing you know, we bought him and I took him to the Carolina Classic and marked a 145.5 there, and he won both Novices 1 and 2. He went from $200 in earnings to $1,000 in earnings in a day.[The NRHA Derby show] is only the second time I've ever shown him, and the two times I've shown him he's won."

Palmer will hand the reins to Elena Hurd for the Youth classes during derby week and plans to show the gelding himself in a WEG qualifier in New Jersey next week.

The reserve championship slot saw a tie between Nathan Piper on Xtra Dun Right and Jared Leclair on The Dun Gun, both scoring 144.5 to earn $407.

KELSEY DELAPLAINE WINS $1,000-ADDED NOVICE HORSE NON PRO LEVEL 1 JAMES WINDHAM TAKES $2,000-ADDED NOVICE HORSE NON PRO LEVEL 2 GRAYCEN HESS CLAIMS $500-ADDED LIMITED NON PRO SHOW 2

"I think we make a good team," Tremblay said. "What I do with her is any horse show I do, derby or futurity, I bring her with me and do every novice horse class I can. She's kind of like my little pet—I bring her everywhere."

Matthew Palmer and Gunner Be A Maverick (Colonels Smokingun x Dun It Preciously) earned third place in the Level 2 with a 145 for $497, in addition to winning the Level 1 class for $589. The gelding owned by Mark Hurd was purchased for his daughter Elena Hurd to have a mount to get qualified for the SVAGFEI<sup>TM</sup> World Championships for Juniors and Young Riders in Switzerland.

"Before the NRBC, Mark came to me and wanted his daughter Elena to have a horse to try [to get qualified]," Palmer said. "He only had one 7 and up horse, which is CC Enterprise, and he wanted to give his older daughter a

An electrifying run-off determined the champion of the $1,000-added Novice Horse Non Pro Level 1 in the Adequan Arena on June 29. Kelsey Delaplaine skillfully piloted Boom Sail Whiz to the winning score of 145.5 to barely edge reserve champion Adam Donahue and Thata Shiner's 145. Both riders initially tied with a 142.

Kelsey Delaplaine on Boom Sail Whiz

"My trainer has been showing him and then I decided to show him, and so far it's been pretty good," Delaplaine said. "He's been super easy. He's a stallion, so you don't want to push him or try to argue with him and I have a tendency to do that, but he's pretty fun to ride as long as you steer him and tell Delaplaine adjusted her mental attitude to one of relaxation and let her stallion "Whiz" do his job. The change paid off with her first mark of 142.

"I've been really tense the last two times I've shown him this week, so I really needed to relax and stop trying to make him do it and just let him do it, because he knows how to do it," Delaplaine said. "I needed to sit back and relax and let him take the wheels for me."

When her score resulted in a tie for victory, Delaplaine knew she could leave nothing on the table in the run-off. She stayed relaxed on her mount and allowed him to work his best, upping their score to a victorious 145.5.

"I feel pretty awesome right now. I can't even explain it," Delaplaine said.

James Windham on Walks With Swagger

"When I went back in for the run-off, I was like 'I've got nothing to lose at this point, so I just need to go for it.' I sat back and relaxed and rode really comfortable, and when I hit that last stop, I was like 'I got it.'"

The Pennsylvania native now resides in Cleburne, Texas, and rides with Trey Pool. She has been more than happy with her and Whiz's performances thus far, especially since the NRHA Derby is only her second show with the 5-yearold by Topsail Whiz and out of Cheeky Boom by Smart Chic Olena. him what to do and where to go, he'll do it for you."

Adam Donahue and Thata Shiner put together a thrilling effort in the run-off, marking a 145 to take reserve honors. Donahue and his 2009 sorrel mare by Smart Spook and out of SLJ Smartlikewhinny have had a banner week, also claiming the Novice Horse Non Pro Level 1 High-Point buckle. The NRHA Derby show is Donahue's first horse show in 16 years.

> In the $2,000-added Novice Horse Non Pro Level 2, James Windham jockeyed his gelding Walks With Swagger (Topsail Whiz x Princess In Diamonds) to a 146.5 for victory. The Ocala, Florida, horseman says the run ranked among the top with his 7-yearold gelding.

"It felt the best I've ever felt on this horse," Windham said. "I've only had him about 8 months, and he's been really awesome. He loves this pen, so we did a good job tonight."

Windham works in Ocala as a general contractor building custom equestrian barns and estates in Wellington, and he trains with Mark Rafacz.

"It was a long trip, but we enjoy coming out here," Windham said. "I've been with Mark for a long time, and he's a great guy and gives everybody a lot of support at his barn. I'm really appreciative, because I started this sport as a hobby, and then all of a sudden it becomes a challenge more the past three years. This is the first year I've consistently and more, which is great."

Windham may have started reining as a mere hobby eight years ago, but he's quickly become competitive and appreci- sociation Youth World Championships in Oklahoma City in ates every victory in the show pen.

"I've been reining 8 years, and I've had some good wins, but this is certainly something special-they all are," Windham said.

Greg Hall continued his incredibly successful week in Oklahoma City with Chics Mainattraction (Conquistador Whiz x Chictastic) to place reserve in the class with a 145.5.

Graycen Hess of Monroe, North Carolina, rode her 2012 gelding Chromed Olena (Chromed Out Mercedes x FL Smart Dot Chic) to a score of 143.5 to win the $500-limited Non Pro Show 2. Kim Burnett of Abernathy, Texas, and her 2002 gelding San Juan Whiz (Topsail Whiz x TAMU Oaks Bay Etta) took reserve honors with a 143.

Shelby Clausen Sweeps $15,000-added 7 & Up Non Pro Levels 1-4, $6,000-added Non Pro and $3,000-added Intermediate Non Pro; Greg Hall Wins $500-added Prime Time Non Pro Show 2

Smart Tinseltown and Shelby Clausen dominated the Non Pro competition inside the Adequan Arena at the NRHA Derby show June 28. Clausen and "Chester" marked a 148.5 to win Levels 1-4 of the $15,000-added 7 & Up Non Pro, the $6,000-added Non Pro Show 2 and the $3,000-added Intermediate Non Pro. All totaled, the winning run earned $10,466 for the dream team of Scottsdale, Arizona.

The 15-year-old high school sophomore credits her victory to Chester's big heart and desire to perform inside the show pen.

"I feel really good. He just gave me his all-he loved it, and I love him. He loves his job so much," Clausen said. "He's amazing. Every time I show him, he's so honest and gives me his all every time. He never has a bad day. I can't thank him enough."

The Clausen family purchased the 7-year-old gelding by Smart Spook and out of Tinseltown Lil Step by Wimpys Little Step with the help of Shelby's trainer, Patrick Flaherty, last year at the NRHA Futurity. Since then, Clausen has taken the reins and is enjoying every moment with Chester.

"I mostly show him, but I think next year my sister might show him too," Clausen said. "I've had really bad luck with lame horses, and I haven't been able to show that much in had a horse that's sound"

Clausen's next step is the American Quarter Horse As-August. Winning the Youth World is a goal Clausen has had for years, and she is finally confident in the horse beneath her to accomplish it.

"This year, my goal is to win the Youth World," Clausen said. "That's been my main goal for the past few years. I'm just so fortunate to be able to ride [Chester], and I thank my parents for that. I couldn't do it without my trainer Patrick Flaherty."

In the 7 & Up Non Pro Levels 3 and 4 and the $6,000-added Non Pro, Shaunda Rai Ruckman and Valentino Tag won reserve honors with a 146.5, bagging a total $5,341. Greg Hall and Chics Mainattraction earned reserve in the 7 & Up Non Pro Level 2 and the Intermediate Non Pro Show 2 with a 145. The Level 1 competition saw a three-way tie between Emmy-Lu Marsh on Who Whiz Who, Cameron Sanford on GS Smart Kitty Cat and Emily Morris on Cross Step Wrangler with scores of 144.5, each earning $203.

Hall and Chics Mainattraction (Conquistador Whiz x Chictastic) continued their winning week with a victory in the $500-added Prime Time Non Pro Show 2 with their score of 145. Hall won a total $4,904 on the 2010 mare in Wednesday's competition.

On Monday, the pair won the $2,000-added Novice Horse Non Pro Level 2. Hall says the mare has gotten stronger as the week went on, but it didn't seem to hinder them in Wednesday's class.

"It was fast," Hall said with a laugh. "She stopped and turned; she's real easy to watch. She was a little strong with me – she was probably better in the novice horse the other day, but we got through it and she did what she was supposed to. She does a bit of everything pretty good."

Janice Lehman piloted West Coast Willie (West Coast Whiz x Cinderella Solano) to a 144 to take reserve in the Prime Time class.

Katsy Leeman marked a 143 aboard her 2010 stallion Footwork Revolution (Einsteins Revolution x Fancy Footwork) to win the USA Amateur Reining Show 2. Isabella Jacuzzi rode her 2013 gelding Pearl Haggard (Hollywoodstinseltown x Gunners Pearl) to a score of 140 to place reserve.

MADISON RAFACZ WINS JACKPOT GREEN REINER LEVELS 1 AND 2

Madison Rafacz is no stranger to the show pen, and it was evident in the Adequan Arena on June 30 in the Jackpot Green Reiner Levels 1 and 2. The 9-year-old daughter of notable trainer Mark Rafacz and his wife, Non Pro competitor Shannon Rafacz, marked a 142 aboard Better Not Rest (Custom Crome x Rest Stop) to top the competition.

Madison Rafacz on Better Not Rest

"Jay" isn't Madison's main mount, but she seemed perfectly comfortable aboard the big17-year-old bay gelding. Madison says Jay is easy to ride but can be difficult to show because of his size, but he has a sweet demeanor and is constantly looking for his next snack.

"He's a cookie monster!" Madison said. "He's kind of hard to show but he's really easy to show at the same time, but he's a really good boy and we love him."

Madison, who's been riding her entire life and reining since she was 4 years old, says the class was the first time she had a victorious showing with Jay.

"I feel good, that's the first time I've actually gotten to show him and won," Madison said. "It felt good! I'll show tomorrow, and then if he's feeling okay Sunday, I'll show him Sunday."

In the Level 1, Kr Ima Selfish and Allison Arnold scored a 141.5 to take reserve honors. Stephanie Johnson and Light M Up placed second in the Level 2 with a 140.5

RIDERS WITH DISABILITIES SHINE IN USA PARA REINING CLASSES

The 2017 NRHA Derby welcomed USA para reiners to the Oklahoma State Fairgrounds on June 30 for a full range of classes.

Jennifer Flanagan showed Smart Zone to a 131 as the only competitor in the USA Para Reining Grade 2. Flanagan and "Smarty" are a new team, and the NRHA Derby was their first show together. Smarty has been under the care of Kutie Performance Horses, and Flanagan is excited to get the mare home to South Carolina and begin their partnership.

"I think my run was good considering this is the first time for me to show on this horse; we got a score and we didn't zero out, so that's always a very positive thing," Flanagan said. "At the moment, I've been paying Steve Kutie to train her and take care of her, but I'll be taking her home to South Carolina after this weekend. I'm super excited to get her home and start building that bond together."

Flanagan just began competing two years ago, but her experience with horses and riders with disabilities runs deep. She is the executive director of Great Oak Aiken Therapeutic Riding Center in Aiken, South Carolina.

"I've only been reining competitively for the last two years," Flanagan said. "I'm the executive director of a therapeutic riding center, so it's really great that we have a facility already set up with ramps for mounting and everything else we need to make the barn accessible."

Cole Jacobs and Pinstripe Benz won the USA Para Reining Grade 3 with a score of 136. Jacobs and "Pinstripe" share a special bond. Jacobs, who has been competing in reining since 2012, was pleased with his horse's performance in the Adequan Arena after lots of time in the practice pen.

"I thought [my run] went pretty good," Jacobs said. "I practice at home, and I brush him [to prepare for shows]. His favorite treats are peppermints."

Holly Leigh Jacobson of Ipswich, Massachusetts, and Ruf N Loaded also competed in the Para Reining Grade 3, and although they received a no-score, Jacobson is grateful for every opportunity she has with the gelding.

"He's a master; he knows everything, I just have to catch up to him. I made a fatal flaw today, and I haven't done it in a while, so maybe I'll get it out of my system," Jacobson said. "He's such a professional horse that I learn something new every single time I step in there. That's the best part you're never done learning."

Jacobson doesn't get a lot of practice time aboard her mount, but she makes the most of training sessions at horse shows.

"This horse was generously loaned to me by Cole Jacobs, and Jennifer and Tom Hoyt have been coaching me on him," Jacobson said. "I live unfortunately about five hours away from their farm, so I've only been out there once to practice ride, but we've been meeting at shows now for a couple years so I hop on and do some warm-up rides."

Jacobson got into para reining first through USA Reining demos and became more involved over the past several years. She's now a passionate advocate of the sport and encourages riders with disabilities to give it a try. She will compete this year at the USA Para Reining Championships at the All American Quarter Horse Congress.

"I got more involved with it over the past few years, and now that there's real classes, it's really piqued my interest," Jacobson said. "The USA Para Reining World Championships will be at Congress. We're always looking for new riders, so spread the word!"

Until Congress, Jacobson will continue spending time practicing when she can and spoiling Ruf N Loaded with his favorite snacks.

"He usually expects an apple from me every time he sees me," Jacobson said. "I brought him some melon last night, and it was total rejection, so I was like 'Okay never mind, no fruit for you!' They've got their personal tastes too."

In the USA Para Reining Grade 4/NRHA Para Reining, Cullen Santino Le Roy took victory aboard Smokin N Tinseltown with a 130. Elizabeth Kelley and Czgunnacashbigchex marked a 125.5 to earn the reserve slot.

MADISON GUSTIN, STEPHANIE JOHNSON TIE FOR ROOKIE LEVELS 1 AND 2 JOHNSON WINS PRIME TIME ROOKIE

The Jackpot Rookie Level 1 and $200-added Rookie Level 2 saw a tie between two competitors in the Adequan Arena on June 30. Madison Gustin and Stephanie Johnson both marked a 143.5, each earning $171 combined. Johnson also won the Prime Time Rookie class for $35.21.

Madison Gustin wasn't expecting to win a class Friday, but Guns R Spooky had a different idea. The duo from Weatherford, Texas, exited the arena with a 143.5 to tie for victory.

"We went in there just trying to have fun and take it easy to get ready for our Youth classes [Saturday] and Sunday," Madison said. "He felt good and everything was great, so we ended up with the high score."

Gustin arrived at the NRHA Derby on Wednesday and has reason she loves to rein—the people become like family. been using the time to practice and warm up her 2010 gelding by Smart Spook and out of Berry Yer Guns. "I would have to say [my favorite part about reining is]

"I've just been schooling; I got here Wednesday so we've just been taking it easy getting ready to show," Gustin said.

She says "Avatar" is full of personality—her favorite quality about him.

Madison Gustin

"I've owned him for about two years now, and he's literally my best friend—it's been so much fun," Gustin said. "He's got talent, but he's so much fun to be around. He's got his times where he's antisocial and when he's a total goofball."

The high school sophomore, who trains with NRHA Million Dollar Rider Casey Deary at Deary Performance Horses, aspires to become a reining trainer someday and absorbs everything she can from Deary.

"I've been riding since I was 5 and started reining when I was 8. I ride with Casey Deary, and I love it. It's where I've grown up; I've been there since I was 8,"

Gustin Gustin said. "He's my role model and always has been. It's so much fun to be around him."

Gustin says the Deary barn is a great example of the main

"I would have to say [my favorite part about reining is] the people and the environment," Gustin said. "I've grown up doing reining, and it's just fun people to be around. Yes, we have our struggles, but it's always fun."

Stephanie Johnson and Light M Up put together a winning 143.5, but Johnson still says it came as a shock because of the caliber of competitors she rode against. She credits the performance to her "soul mate," the 2012 gelding by Wimpys Little Step and out of Aleena Starlight.

"It felt great whenever I was out there, but this is a big show and it's my first time ever coming to this show, so you just don't expect to knock it out of the park," Johnson said. "My horse is amazing; he's my soulmate in a horse. We're still getting to know each other, and we're doing pretty good so far. This is a dream come true."

Ulcer Gard

Johnson and "Cato" are a fairly recent team. Johnson searched high and low for the perfect horse and finally found him in the fall of 2016. They showed at their first horse show early this year and are continuing to improve.

"Last year at the Derby I was searching for a horse, never found one, and it took six months to find him. It's been amazing ever since," Johnson said. "He's done great for me; Johnson said. "The horses are so beautiful and so athletic. we just started showing in February and he's been incredible I found Josiane and she's the most amazing coach; we just at every single show. The Florida Classic was our first show clicked. I absolutely love it."

and one of the bigger shows we've been to, and we won high point there. We're just a good team."

Johnson says Cato's ability to adjust to each rider makes him incredibly special, especially since Johnson is a new reiner.

"He's super sweet and an open-caliber horse, but he's gentle enough and kind enough that he's good to me, because I'm still learning and still green eligible and rookie, so he's just a great horse," Johnson said.

Johnson, who has a background in Western all-around and hunter/jumper, trains with Josiane Gauthier at Sunny Pines Farm in Lucama, North Carolina. She says Gauthier's training has been a match since she started reining.

"I've been reining for a little less than two years, and I kind of fell in love with reining the minute I started it,"

COLLEGIATE REINING CHAMPIONSHIP

Stephanie Johnson and Light M Up

The 2017 National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) Derby hosted the Collegiate Reining Championship on June 30. However the title of champion didn't come easy, as it took a runoff to decide the winner for this year.

Hannah Mitchell won the championship with a score of 222.5 with The Boominator donated to the competition by James Hotz.

Mitchell took the victory after a run off with Julia Spreng, who ended up Reserve Champion scoring 220.5 with HR Dun By Whiz owned by Randy and Sharon Reecer. Both competitors tied after their first runs scoring 217.5.

Mitchell is a freshman at Oklahoma State University and is a native of Cuba, Missouri. Spreng is a sophomore at University of Georgia majoring in Business. A native of Port Orange, Florida qualified to compete at the Collegiate Reining Championship through NRHA.

The Collegiate Reining Championship consists of 12 riders - four from the National Collegiate Equestrian Association (NCEA), four from the Intercollegiate Horse

Hannah Mitchell

Show Association (IHSA), and four that are selected by the NRHA. This year, the riders selected from the pool of collegiate NRHA members were: Holly Lansidel (Southern Methodist University), Jaci Marley (Texas A&M), Julia Spreng (University of Georgia), and Kyndal Harper (University of Georgia).

The NCEA sent its top four reiners from the 2016-2017 season to the championship: Caroline Gute (University of South Carolina), Claudia Spreng (University of Georgia), Hannah Mitchell (Oklahoma State), and Taylor Brown (Fresno State).

Representing the IHSA were riders who placed in top four places in Open Reining at the IHSA Finals this year. Riders representing the IHSA were: Kristen Wesoja (Cazenovia College), Lauren King (Middle Tennessee State University), Mark Mowbray, and Michelle McDowell (Grand Valley State University).

NRHA and the National Reining Horse Youth Association (NRHyA) would like to thank the following horse owners who donated their horses for the NRHA Collegiate Reining Championship:

James Hotz Randy and Sharon Reecer Angela Myer George and Carol Bell Patrick Schwarz Jennifer & Maurice Robinson Brett Walters Daniela Picciotti Chris Hawkins Day Creek Ranch LLC

Terri June Granger on Jeans N Reeboks

TERRI JUNE GRANGER WINS NRHA UNRESTRICTED YOUTH MCKINNON LARCOMBE WINS YOUTH 14–18 LUCA FAPPANI WINS YOUTH 13 & UNDER

Youth riders had their time in the limelight in the Adequan Arena on July 1 with the Jackpot Unrestricted Youth, the $100-added Youth 14-18 and the $100-added Youth 13 & Under.

Terri June Granger and her mare Jeans N Reeboks added another win to their impressive resume with a victory in competition and also placed reserve in the Youth 14-18.

"I had a great ride this morning, so I'm very excited. This is the second time I've shown her this week," Granger said. "She's been shown many times, so I just have to come in prepared knowing that she knows what's next-I have to outthink her."

The 2008 mare, who's by Doubleknotyourreeboks and out of TNT Shelly Jean, is a veteran in the show pen. Granger says "Cruel" knows her job and is a strong turner, so the turns at the end of the pattern gave the duo a huge advantage.

"I could tell she was a little amped up when we first got in the arena—she knows what's going on," Granger said. "We came around the corner, and she ran down to her first stop well, and I thought 'okay she's here for me today.' I pushed her a little more throughout the run, and she listened. She's a big turner, and the turns at the end of the pattern ended up getting big pluses on those, so that really helped me out. She was just good and honest for me today."

The teen from Dothan, Alabama, has earned many of her accolades aboard the little roan mare.

"I've had her about three years, and I won the 14-18 world title on her in 2015, and I ended up winning the Limited Non Pro world title on her in 2016," Granger said. "She's been a great horse for me. She stays honest, and she's been in the show pen many times but always comes back for me. I love her."

Granger trains with Mark Rafacz and owes much of her success to his "tough love" style of coaching.

Luca Fappani

"I have a great time with him. He's a great coach he's strict, but he's very encouraging," Granger said. "He's always there to help me and always makes sure I'm ready before I go in the show pen. I love riding with him for sure."

The Unrestricted Youth class saw three scores of 145 for a three-way tie for second place: Madison Gustin of the Unrestricted Youth. The pair marked a 145.5 to edge the Weatherford, Texas, rode her 2010 gelding Guns R Spooky (Smart Spook x Berry Yer Guns); Margaret Sue Dunn of Little Rock, Arkansas, and the 2009 gelding Spooks Smoken Wimpy (Wimpys Little Step x Please Dont Spook); > Emilia Grace Reutimann of Sherrills Ford, North Carolina, and the 2010 gelding Black Hails Gold (Shine Like Hail x Dun Its Black Gold).

McKinnon Larcombe took the win in the Youth 14-18, scoring a 146 aboard My Nu Mercedes Rox, a 2012 gelding by Cromed Out Mercedes and out of Roxana Chex.

Larcombe says "George," who is named for Curious George the monkey, felt better in the Youth classes because Larcombe was more relaxed. The daughter of Open Derby Prime Time Champion and notable trainer Martin Larcombe says after missing the Derby finals by half a point, she got the redemption run she needed in the Youth.

"It was a lot of improvement since the start of the week. He was pretty good in the Derby, but we missed out on the finals by half a point. I really wanted to redeem myself and have an even better run, and that's what it was—I was really happy," Larcombe said. "I circled him a lot better and was more confident in the circles. He stopped a lot better and I ran him a lot better than I did in the Derby. I was more relaxed, so everything felt 10 times better than it did in the Derby."

It is obvious horsemanship runs in the Fappani family, and Luca Fappani lived up to his name with a 146 to win the Youth 13 and Under aboard Custom Spook (Smart Spook x Custom Spinderella). Fappani started riding "Custom" last September and knows the gelding well. He says the 2007 gelding is a sensitive ride who requires patience and a quiet rider, something the 13-year-old son of NRHA Four Million Dollar Rider Andrea Fappani has mastered.

"I'd ridden him a little bit before and exercised him, so I knew the horse," Fappani said. "He's a really sweet horse but he's really strong, so if you're mean to him he's not going to be good. You have to be nice and he'll be good for you. He's more of a quick horse, so you can't go out there and try to mark a 76—you just have to go out there and show quiet and he'll mark good."

Fappani felt confident about his run, despite a scotch in the first stop.

"My run was good, he stopped pretty good two out of three and spun really good for me," Fappani said. "The first stop he sort of hit bad ground, so it wasn't as good, but he still stopped good."

Fappani keeps Custom in shape with regular riding and begins practicing maneuvers before each show at his family's training facility in Scottsdale, Arizona.

"I don't do too much extra; until a month or two before a show it's mostly just exercising," Fappani said. "Then I'll start stopping him again and turning, just the normal stuff." The young horseman spends most of his time horseback when he's not at school, and although he wants to continue showing competitively, he doesn't think he'll follow in his father's footsteps of becoming a trainer.

"I can't do many sports because I'm with the horses so much. When I'm out of school, I'm on a horse usually, so I don't have much time to do other sports," Fappani said. "I don't want to be a trainer, but I want to be a non pro and go in the big non pro derbies and stuff. I want to do something else as a profession; maybe a doctor or own a business."

Madison Gustin and Guns R Spooky's 145 placed reserve. Gustin and "Avatar," who's by Smart Spook and out of Berry Yer Guns, also won the APHA Youth Solid class with the score. Caleb Sturgeon placed reserve with a 143 on Always Gotyer Gun, a 2012 gelding by Colonels Smokingun and out of Always A Dunit.

In the APHA Youth 14–18, Margaret Sue Dunn and Spooks Smoken Wimpy (Wimpys Little Step x Please Dont Spook) scored a 145 to take the win. Elena Hurd placed second on Gunner Be A Maverick (Colonels Smokingun x Dun It Preciously) with a 140.

Kendall Wigen on Chexouthisreminic

KENDALL WIGEN WINS SHORT STIRRUP 10 & UNDER

The youngest reiners at the NRHA Derby took to the show ring in the Adequan Arena on July 1 with the Short Stirrup 10 and Under class. Kendall Wigen and Chexoutthisreminic scored a 143 to earn $84, edging reserve co-champions McKenna Bein and Mk Check Please and Madison Rafacz and Iboom, who both scored 142.

Wigen, daughter of trainer Travis Wigen and Non Prorider Melissa Wigen, says her rundowns didn't go exactly as planned, but the young rider took control of the situation and made the best of her stops.

"He felt good, except for in his rundowns he didn't behave. I just made him go faster, and his stops were really nice," Wigen said. "My second spins were the best."

Wigen is leasing the 2003 gelding by Von Reminic and out of Miss Celebrity Chex from Amanda Harris, and she loves his colorful personality and talent in the arena.

"He won the NRBC Derby [Prime Time] with Jim Morgan," Wigen said. "His personality depends on the day! Today, he had a fire in his eye. [For some of the run,] it helped, family every day. but for some it didn't."

She says her favorite part about competing is the adrenaline rush after a good pattern and knowing that there's always next time.

"The way you feel afterward, it feels really nice and if you don't win, you can just go home and try harder," Wigen said.

Wigen tries to ride every day of the week except Sunday. She trains with her dad and enjoys getting to ride with her

"My goals for this year are to get my rundowns to be better," said Wigen, who is working with her dad to perfect the maneuvers

MADISON RAFACZ STRIKES AGAIN, WINS GREEN REINER SHOW 2 LEVELS 1 & 2 AND HIGH POINT BUCKLES

Madison Rafacz has been unstoppable in the Adequan Arena at the NRHA Derby. The 9-year-old equestrienne and her seasoned show mount Better Not Rest (Custom Crome x Rest Stop) marked a 144 to sweep both levels in the Green Reiner Show 2 on July 2.

Rafacz and her 17-year-old gelding "Jay" topped their score of 142 from the Green Reiner Show 1, where she also won both levels. Her and Jay's efforts in the pen this all the Sour Patch Kids!"

The daughter of professional trainer Mark Rafacz and Non Pro rider Shannon Rafacz says a borrowed pair of spurs helped Jay get an extra edge in the pattern.

"Thanks to my dad, my mom, everyone at the barn, and Alicia Rapp for letting me use her spurs," Rafacz said with a giggle. "I used them Saturday too, nothing happened to my spurs but they're too dull week earned the high point buckles in Level 1 and Level 2 of the Green Reiner division. Rafacz says her "cookie monster" gelding is well deserving of a few treats after his performances this week.

"I had a plus-one and minus-half on the same turn from both judges and then I barely made my markers on my stops, but I still plussed," Rafacz said. "I'm very proud of him, and now he's just like 'Can I go home, and can I have cookies?' I don't have any cookies because he already ate to use on him. These made him go forward some more. I feel great; he was really good for me."

Jay will now get a break for the rest of the summer before Rafacz hopes to show him at the All American Quarter Horse Congress.

Both levels 1 and 2 saw a tie for second place between Madison Wigen of Herriman, Utah, on Holly Maq Fun and Jeff Sizelove of Vass, North Carolina, on Bit Of Magnum.

YOUTH RIDERS REIGN IN COLISEUM FOR NRHA, AQHA CLASSES

The future of reining took the dirt in the Jim Norick Arena on July 2 for the NRHA and AQHA classes on the last day of the NRHA Derby.

Madison Gustin continued her successful week aboard Guns R Spooky with a 144 for victory in the Jackpot Unrestricted Youth Show 2 and the USA Reining Youth 13 & Under. Her score also placed reserve in the $100-added Youth 13 & Under and the AQHA Youth 13 & Under.

"It means a lot, coming from where we started and where I started as a rider, and having all my family and friends around me, it was really fun," Gustin said. "We did have a lot of improvements today; it ing. I'd like to thank Casey Deary and my parents for always being by my side."

Taylor Zimmerman dominated the 14-18 classes with her 144 on Wimpys Dolled Up. The pair won the $100-added Youth 14–18 and the AOHA Youth 14–18 Show 2. Zimmerman also showed the 2011 mare by Wimpys Little Step and out of Dolled Up Gunner in the Non Pro Derby, qualifying back to the Youth finals.

"She was very good; she stayed clean out there, and I just showed in the Non Pro derby with her and we made finals in the youth because I'm a Level 4 rider now," Zimmerman said. "She was very good for me, stayed clean everywhere, didn't try to leave me and was right where I asked her to be."

The 15-year-old says she struggled to get along with the mare early in their partnership, but the kinks have smoothed out as the two worked together more.

"I've had her since the end of her 3-year-old year; we got her from Taylor and Jordan Larson. I've shown her in all the derbies," Zimmerman said. "She's been an amazing mare for me. I had a little trouble with her when we felt really good. He's pretty tired from the week, but it was very good."

Knowing "Avatar" was tired from a long week of showing, Gustin didn't school him before her classes Sunday.

"Instead of riding him last night, we just walked him around," Gustin said. "We keep him prepared and make sure he's feeling good, give him baths and everything."

Gustin trains with NRHA Million Dollar Rider

Casey Deary at Deary Performance Horses in Weatherford, Texas, and has ridden with him since she began reining at age 8. The 13-year-old looks up to Deary as a leading trainer with hopes of following in his footsteps someday. She says watching Deary win his second consecutive NRHA Derby Open Level 4 championship Saturday night inspired her dreams even more.

"Watching my trainer win, that was great," Gustin said. "It really inspired me – I got that feeling in me like 'I want to do that someday.' Being able to watch my trainer win the futurity on the same horse and then the derby is very excitfirst got her, but we progressed really quickly. She's turned into a really nice mare."

Zimmerman trains with Open Derby Level 2 Champion Bobby Avila Jr. at her family's Zimmerman Performance Horses training center in Rogersville, Missouri. Zimmerman plans to continue derbying this year before sending her mare on to a career in the breeding shed.

"I'll finish up the year going to every small derby, go to Saint Paul, Tulsa probably, and after that I'll probably send her down to Cedar Ridge to become a broodmare," Zimmerman said.

Taylor Zimmerman on Wimpys Dolled Up

Caleb Sturgeon saw his name appear in the top-two places of nearly every class he entered on Always Gotyer Gun. Sturgeon and "Paul's" score of 141.5 won the USA Reining 14–18 and placed reserve in the $100-added Youth 14–18, the Jackpot Unrestricted Youth Show 2 and the AQHA Youth 14–18 Show 2.

The 16-year-old of Beloit, Ohio, says the 2012 gelding's biggest maneuvers are his spins and slides, which helped boost his score today.

"He was really good, and he listened a lot better than yesterday," Sturgeon said. "Our slides [were the best maneuver in the run], because he listened to me and then we ran. His spins and slides are his strongest."

Sturgeon trains with NRHA Five Million Dollar Rider Shawn Flarida and will continue showing his new partner Paul throughout the year.

Caleb Sturgeon and Always Gotyer Gun

"I just got him a couple months ago and only showed him in a couple shows," Sturgeon said. "We're going to show at the AQHyA World Show."

Kaylee Naylor and Spookamatic placed reserve in the USA Reining 14–18 with a 139.5.

Luca Fappani and Custom Spook swept the NRHA and AQHA 13 & Under classes, scoring a 143 to win the Youth 13 & Under Show 2—he also won Show 1 on Saturday—and the AQHA Youth 13 & Under. The Fappani family had already headed home in advance of bad weather toward their Scottsdale, Arizona, training operation Andrea Fappani Performance Horses at the conclusion of the Youth awards presentation, so Luca was unavailable for interview. Be sure to check out his interviews from earlier in the week at www.virtualhorsehelp.com and Tom McCutcheon's Virtual Horse Help.

In the USA Reining 13 & Under, Raeanna Thayn rode Dun Sneakin Out to a 140 for reserve honors.

KENDALL WIGEN CONTINUES WINNING STREAK WITH $100-ADDED YOUTH 10 & UNDER SHORT STIRRUP SHOW 2

Kendall Wigen won the 10 & Under Short Stirrup Show 1 earlier in the week, but she didn't stop there. Wigen returned aboard the 2003 gelding Chexouthisreminic (Von Reminic x Miss Celebrity Chex) to win Show 2 with a 141.5. After her run in Show 1, Wigen said she wanted to improve her rundowns, and she achieved that goal in Show 2.

Wigen leases her seasoned mount "Joe," or "Joseph sometimes and Josephina when he acts like a girl," from Amanda Harris. Wigen, daughter of trainer Travis Wigen and Non Pro competitor Melissa Wigen, had never shown in the historic Jim Norick Arena.

"He felt really good, and in his rundowns he went slower," Wigen said. "Last night since I already showed him, I just came in here to get him used to the arena because he's showed in here a bunch, I just wanted him to see it again

The coliseum environment didn't rattle her; however, she did notice a change in climate from the covered Adequan Arena.

JEFF SIZELOVE WINS JACKPOT ROOKIE LEVELS 1 & 2, JACKPOT PRIME TIME ROOKIE SHOW 2

Jeff Sizelove and Bit Of Magnum's (Magnum Chic Dream x Bitsy Bye Remedy) score of 142 was enough to top all three classes July 2, the Rookie Levels 1 and 2 and the Prime Time Rookie Show 2. The horseman of Vass, North Carolina, says his score on the 2003 gelding improved from earlier in the week after a schooling session on stops with his trainer, Casey Hinton.

"I rode bit Of Magnum today, and he was really good; really pure in his circles, his spins were very good, lead changes good and stops better today than the day before," Sizelove said. "I'm lucky because

I work with Casey Hinton and that whole team, so they helped me a lot the past few days and it got better."

Sizelove enjoys showing at the NRHA Derby and Oklahoma State Fairgrounds because of the camaraderie and quality of the facilities. He has a busy reining schedule the next few months with horse shows.

"I love Oklahoma, I really like the show grounds. People are very helpful here, there's lots of places to ride and it's really a nice place to come show," Sizelove said. "We'll show next at Denver, and then I'm qualified for the World Select so I'm looking forward to that in August."

AMERICANA 2017 offers a number of highly attractive classes in various discipline. The event includes the $ 50,000-added NRHA World Cup Bronze Trophy Reining Open plus a $ 5,000-added Intermediate Open which is run class in class. Then there is a $ 10,000-added Non Pro Bronze Trophy with a $2,500-added Int. Non Pro, plus an AMERICANA Futurity for 3- and 4-year-old horses, a Maturity and a Freestyle Reining.

Focus on Cattle shows: $10,000-added World Cup Cutting Open / $19,500-added ERCHA Futurity

For Cutting and Cow Horse riders, AMERICANA has always been a major highlight. This year, there is the $ 10,000-added World Cup NCHA Open and a $ 5,000-added NCHA World Cup Non Pro as well as a Masters Cutting. For the cow horse enthusiasts, there will be the $ 19,500-added ERCHA Futurity Open plus numerous top cow horse classes. For the first time, AMERICANA will host the $ 7,000-added ERCHA Nations Team Cup with another $2,000-added in the individual final.

World Cup Klassen Ranch Riding, Western Pleasure and Trail – and more!

Also in the AMERICANA World Cup classes Ranch Riding, Western Pleasure and Trail there is a considerable purse. There are $ 3,000-added money in the Ranch Riding and Western Pleasure each, and $ 4,000-added in the World Cup Trail. Then there is the EWU Superhorse ($ 2,500-added), the Masters Western Riding Open ($ 2,000-added), the Uelzener Horse & Dog Trail Open ($ 1,000-added) as well as the 4Hooves Western Pleasure Open and Masters Western Pleasure Non Pro ($ 1,000-added each).

AMERICANA offers new possibilities for warming up horses this year. There will be a  $30 \times 50$  m indoor warm up pen without columns close to the show arena. For the cutters, there will be a  $15 \times 45$  m tent. Of course, all riders can ride their horses in the big show arena after the evening events each day.

SUPPORT GROWS FOR REINING BOOT CAMPS BENEFITING THE CRISIS FUND

Reining Boot Camps are a series of reining clinics that serve as the major fundraiser for the Reining Horse Foundation's Dale Wilkinson Memorial Crisis Fund. Classic Equine remains the presenting sponsor as it has been during the program's 14-year run when it was called Rookie Days, and support for the Boot Camp program is growing.

In 2017, paid participants are eligible for discount certificates toward select saddles at Scottsdale Western World and end-of-season prize drawings that include a saddle made by AM Superior Saddlery and donated by Andreas Maschke and $1,000 toward a pair of custom chaps made and donated by Dave Hack Custom Chaps. Classic Equine provides a selection of products used as awards and gifts for participants.

To date, 2017 Reining Boot Camps have been hosted by the Tennessee, West Coast and Southwest Reining Horse Associations. The next clinic will be hosted by the Arizona Reining Horse Association and held at Ben Balow's Training Stables at Skull Valley, Ariz. on August 5.

The Reining Horse Foundation (RHF) is the charitable arm of the National Reining Horse Association (NRHA). Reining Boot Camps, managed by the RHF, help rookies and Non Pro riders learn how to prepare for the show pen. They are intended to be fun, low-stress, one-day instructional clinics. Proceeds benefit the RHF Crisis Fund, which aids reiners enduring medical hardships, accidents and disasters—such as fires, flood and tornadoes.

"We appreciate Classic Equine for its longstanding support of this program," said Becky Jordan, RHF Board Secretary/ Treasurer and chairperson of the Reining Boot Camp committee. "And, we are thrilled to have Andreas Maschke with his Am Superior Saddlery, Dave Hack Custom Chaps and Scottsdale Western World come alongside us with these extra incentives to encourage beginning and Non Pro reiners to grow their skills while supporting a good cause."

Reining Boot Camps rely on NRHA Affiliate volunteers to secure a venue, conduct the clinic and recruit NRHA Professionals to serve as volunteer clinicians. Additionally, some events incorporate volunteer NRHA Judges to evaluate attendees when they perform the maneuvers of a basic reining pattern.

The one-day clinics are open to youth and adults. In addition to instruction time, the advance registration fee of $225 per adult and $125 per youth (18 and under) covers lunch. A full schedule with details and registration information can be found at reiningfoundation.com/bootcamp. Affiliates interested in hosting a Reining Boot Camp event should contact the RHF office.

Rein in Cancer is here to help!

If you're in the horse industry and undergoing cancer treatment, you likely have a different set of needs than most. Even as your life is changing, there is still hay to buy, horses to be shod and vet bills, to name a few! We can help. Visit www.reinincancer.com, fill out a simple application and we can send a check often the next day after receiving your completed application.

Rein in Cancer was established in 2008 and by 2011 had raised the funding to create the Shirley Bowman Nutrition Center at the Charles & Peggy Stephenson Cancer Center in Oklahoma City - where patients get free nutrition counseling while undergoing cancer treatment.

Our other important mission is to provide direct payment to members of the horse industry who are undergoing treatment for cancer. We are able to help cancer patients because of the generosity of horse people. Thanks to their participation and donations, people who desperately need a boost can get it quickly, without red tape or long waits.

We thank the organizations and events that have partnered with us, donated to the cause or hosted Rein in Cancer Fund Raising events.

Thanks to Oklahoma Quarter Racing Association, Remington Park, AQHA, National Reining Breeders Classic, National Reining Horse Association, Tulsa Reining Classic, National Reined Cow Horse Snaffle Bit Futurity, All American Quarter Horse Congress, and more!

We also thank the individuals who give or who host Rein in Cancer Fund Raisers and the families who arrange bequests in honor of their loved ones.

Rein in Cancer is a 501c3 Nonprofit.
