If you build it, they will come . . . This was the thought process behind the Oklahoma Reining Horse Association's (OKRHA) Ride and Slide upping the ante by adding an open and non pro derby to its second annual March show. The inaugural year proved that reiners would indeed support an event of this caliber without hesitation. The show that in the past had been a smaller weekend type event, grew to nearly triple the size, basically overnight.

With much more prize money added, and the lack of a similar derby happening this time of year, it attracted riders from all directions.

Thiago Boechat, of Xtra Quarter Horses, was a driving force in developing the idea for this show. He knew people were familiar with the facility, and with few other opportunities to test out their derby-aged horses before the NRBC, this offered the potential to put on a great event.

The second year for this event proved that OKRHA was ready for the rush. They restructured the show office, adjusted the schedule, added days and show arenas, and nearly doubled the prize money.

XTRA QUARTER HORSES OPEN DERBY

The Xtra Quarter Horses Open Derby totaled $62,000 in prize money, including a novice horse division for horses with less than $10,000 in lifetime earnings.

Overall, 87 horse and rider teams came to play. When the dust settled, the Xtra Quarter Horses Open Derby Championship was topped with a tie between NRHA Professionals, Mathieu Buton, of Aubrey, Texas, and his family's mare, Ms Mercedes Whiz (Cromed Out Mercedes x Ms Hollywood Whiz) and Jordan Larson, of Whitesboro, TX, on Cee My Pistol (Gunner x Cee Dun It Do It), owned by Coquaike LLC. Both horse and rider teams marked an impressive 225.5, to best the field of 87 entries. Each team received a payout of $7,886.06, and divvied up the prizes, which included a trophy saddle from Scottsdale Western World, a Lawson bronze, a beautiful buckle made by Hebillas Custom Buckles, MVP Equine supplements, Just Stitch It merchandise and Cowboy Couture gift cards.

Buton's score also earned him the Level 3 Open Championship ($4670.78), and Larson earned the Novice Horse Derby Championship ($5,093.12).

Reserve Champion of the Novice Horse Derby was Justin Michels, of Cannon Falls, Minn., who scored a 220.5 on Deana Nell's horse, Gunning To Survive (Gunnars Special Nite x Shining Survivor), bringing home a check for $3,100.16.

The Level 3 Reserve Championship went to Dany Tremblay of Overbrook, Okla. and the four year old stallion, PS Mega Shine Chic (Shine Chic Shine x Mega Sugar Baby), owned by Amanda and Brad Kelly. They earned a paycheck of $2843.09 for their performance.

Ryan Rushing of Windsor, Colo., captured the Level 2 Open title on Judy Box's gelding, Ima Ruf

Spook (Smart Spook x Lil Ruf Sara) with a score of 220. The Level 2 Reserve Championship went to Bobby Avila Jr, of Rogersville, Mo. He and I Am Magnificent (Magnum Chic Dream x Hide N Cita), owned by Vaughn Zimmerman, scored a 218.

BLUEBONNET FEEDS NON PRO DERBY

The Non Pro Derby was generously sponsored again this year by Bluebonnet Feeds and boasted a $36,000 purse and also included a novice horse division. There were 60 entries all vying for the top spot.

The Level 4 title was captured with a score of 220 by Taylor Zimmerman, of Springfield, Mo. on her mare, Wimpys Little Jessie (Wimpys Little Step x Jessie Dot Tari). They took home a check for $4,902.51, along with the Scottsdale Western World trophy saddle, Hebillas buckle and a slew of other prizes.

Not far behind was Cade McCutcheon. He and Custom Made Gun (Gunner x Custom Made Dunit) scored a 219 and took home the reserve championship and a check for $2,984.14.

Both the Level 3 and Level 2 Non Pro titles were captured by one team, Ryan Humphrey of Whitesboro, Texas, and his stallion, Hollywood Hype (Hollywoodstinseltown x Shiners Miss Lena). The duo scored a 218 to earn both championships, and a total combined payout of $4,368.68. (Plus another $2,238.10 for his 3rd place finish in the Level 4).

The Level 3 Reserve Championship went to David McBurney, of Palo, Iowa and Fancy Steppin Whiz (RC Fancy Step x TC West Coast Wendi). Their score of 216 earned them a paycheck of $1,530.934.

David Silva, Sr., of Pilot Point, Texas and Face Time (Pale Face Dunit x Shine On Tejon) earned the reserve honors in the Level 2 division with a 214.5, winning $1,128.26.

The Non Pro Primetime division was also dominated by two riders and their talented mares.

Dr. James Morgan of Pilot Point, Texas on Partychicatrashya (Gunnatrashya x Lenas Party Chics) and Charlie Wiederholt of Hastings, Minn., on Commanders Nicachic (Commanders Nic x Chics Model Tari) both finished with a 217, good for $683.51 each.

In addition to a great derby, the OKRHA Ride and Slide offered two full slates of classes, plenty of schooling opportunities, exhibitor parties, as well as a variety of vendors and services. The plan is to continue down the same road and build this event into a premier reining competition that is not to be missed. Stay tuned for the 2018 dates to be announced by keeping up on the OKRHA Ride & Slide Facebook page, or on www.okrha.com.

Swales Wins Fence Work Go-Round; Ralls & Phillips Tie for Composite High Score

Cats Picasso, shown by John Swales for owner Robbie McKay, scored a 228 to win the Open fence work preliminaries. Primo Morales photo/video by Equine Promotion

The preliminary competition for the 2017 National Reined Cow Horse Association Stallion Stakes Open riders wrapped up Tuesday, March 28, at the South Point Equestrian Center in Las Vegas, Nevada, determining the 20 horses that will advance to the clean-slate finals and a shot at the $35,000 Open Championship check on Saturday, April 1.

It took a composite score of 651.5 to advance to Open finals. Two horses tied for the high overall score of the prelims, with the 2016 Snaffle Bit Futurity Champion team of Duals Lucky Charm (Dual Smart Rey x TRR Miss Pepsid Olena x Pepsid), shown by Kelby Phillips; and the catch-riding team of Raise A Smart Cat (WR This Cats Smart x Raise The Best x Mr Sun O Lena), shown by Phillip Ralls, both earning a 662.5.

The fence work go-round winner, with a scorching 228, was Cats Picasso (Metallic Cat x Playboys Vixen x Hickoryote), shown by NRCHA Professional, John Swales. Cats Picasso and Swales will have a chance to collect the $10,000 bonus Stallion Stakes Metallic Cat Incentive check for the second year in a row. The pair won the incentive in 2016, and will be among three Metallic Cat offspring in the Open finals.

TWIN CITIES TRAILER SALES CELEBRATES 20 YEARS WITH NRBC

Twin Cities Trailer Sales has been part of the National Reining Breeders Classic since its inception. So when the curtain falls on the twentieth NRBC set for April 16 – 23, 2017, at the Great Equestrian Center in Katy, Texas, the new Classic Champions will – for the 20th time – receive one year’s use of a new horse trailer provided by Twin Cities Trailer Sales.

NRBC Board Member Tim McQuay was instrumental in bringing Twin Cities on board through his friendship with owner Gary Raak.

Tim said, “Gary has been a friend for as long as I can remember. He was also a good friend of my dad’s. He has always been there when I needed him and when I asked him about the NRBC trailer he immediately said yes and has never looked back. I'm sure he is the longest standing trailer sponsor any reining event has ever had. We are so fortunate to have his support and many winners have had the joy of hauling one of Gary's signature NRBC trailers."

both new and used trailers, and providing servicing and financing. Twin Cities South is located at 8448 Hwy 377, just south of Pilot Point, Texas.

REINING HORSE FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIP DEADLINE IS MAY 1

High school seniors who are members of the National Reining Horse Youth Association are encouraged to apply for scholarships made possible by the Reining Horse Foundation (RHF). Applications must be postmarked by May 1, 2017, for consideration. Seven academic and need-based scholarships will be awarded by an independent committee based upon applicants' academic achievement, financial need, future goals and involvement with horses and NRHyA.

The scholarships range from $750 to $2,000, with three awarded at the highest level. Recipients in 2016 included Megan D'Andrea of Fowler, Ohio; Amber Edmonds of Pepperell, Mass.; Holly Lansidel of McKenna, Wash.; Nicholas Muir of Lynnwood, Wash.; Shaelyn Vering of Scribner, Neb.; Jarid Walton of Coleman, Mich.; and Blair Willette of Haleiwa, Hawaii. Previous recipients are eligible to reapply.

Chairman of the foundation's Scholarship Committee is NRHA Vice President and Foundation Board member Mike Hancock.

Hancock said, "The foundation is committed to this scholarship program and what it means to our youth and their future. We appreciate every donor who makes the program possible through their support of fundraising efforts."

Additionally, scholarship opportunities are available to NRHyA members through Youth Team Tournaments and the Varsity Reining Club. For details, visit <http://www.nrhya.com/about.php>.

For more information about the RHF Scholarship program, go to reiningfoundation.com or nrhya.com. You can call (405) 946-7400 to speak to NRHyA and RHF representatives about these programs.

QUARTER HORSE NEWS RETURNS TO SPONSOR NRBC SLIDE STREET JOURNAL

QUARTER HORSE NEWS
The Complete Source for the Performance Horse Industry

Slide Street EJournal

Quarter Horse News continues as a partner to the National Reining Breeders Classic as the exclusive sponsor of the 2017 NRBC Slide Street Journal. The Slide Street Journal is the voice of the NRBC, emailed periodically year-round with news of the program and the event. During the show, this year set for April 16 – 23, it is printed and hand-delivered to the stall area early each morning along with being emailed around the globe in digital form.

NRBC Vice President, Colleen McQuay commended Quarter Horse News for its longtime support of the NRBC and of the entire reining industry. "Quarter Horse News has been a loyal partner to the National Reining Breeders Classic for over 14 years. The NRBC has always been proud to have both the Quarter Horse News media and marketing teams attend and be part of this event."

Savannah Magoteaux, Associate Publisher of Quarter Horse News, returned Colleen's sentiments. "I've attended almost every NRBC since its inception in 1998, and it is one of my most-anticipated events each year. I have seen first-hand the passion, integrity, and vision of the program's Board of Directors and staff. I have no doubt this incredible show will only continue to exceed expectations in the coming years."

She continued, "All of us here at Quarter Horse News congratulate the NRBC for celebrating its 20th event in 2017. Reiners, sponsors and spectators know that the event is first-class, and there is no better hospitality to be found than at this very special show in Katy, Texas."

A leading source for news in the western performance world, Quarter Horse News is a staple for any serious reining participant or fan for event coverage, profiles and in-depth reporting on issues that impact the industry. MATT MILLS REINING HORSES SPONSORS NRBC VICTORY PARTY for the 2017 NRBC open champion!!”

McCutcheon thanked Mills for sponsoring the event. “We thank Matt, his family, and his customers for supporting the NRBC,” he said. “We are able to make this show enjoyable for exhibitors and owners because of their commitment and the support of other great sponsors.”

The fun continues even after the Open Finals are completed at the 2017 National Reining Breeders Classic, slated for April 16 – 23 at the Great Southwest Equestrian Center in Katy, Texas all because of the annual Victory Party, which is held directly after the finals’ competition.

This year, Matt Mills Reining Horses will sponsor the festivities, which feature a live performance from The County Line Band, heavy hors d’oeuvres, and drinks.

“This party is a highlight of the show,” noted NRBC President Tom McCutcheon. “It’s a great place to visit and celebrate the event – plus the new champion and $75,000 winner is always a special guest! We’re excited to have the County Line Band back, as they have performed at several past NRBCs.”

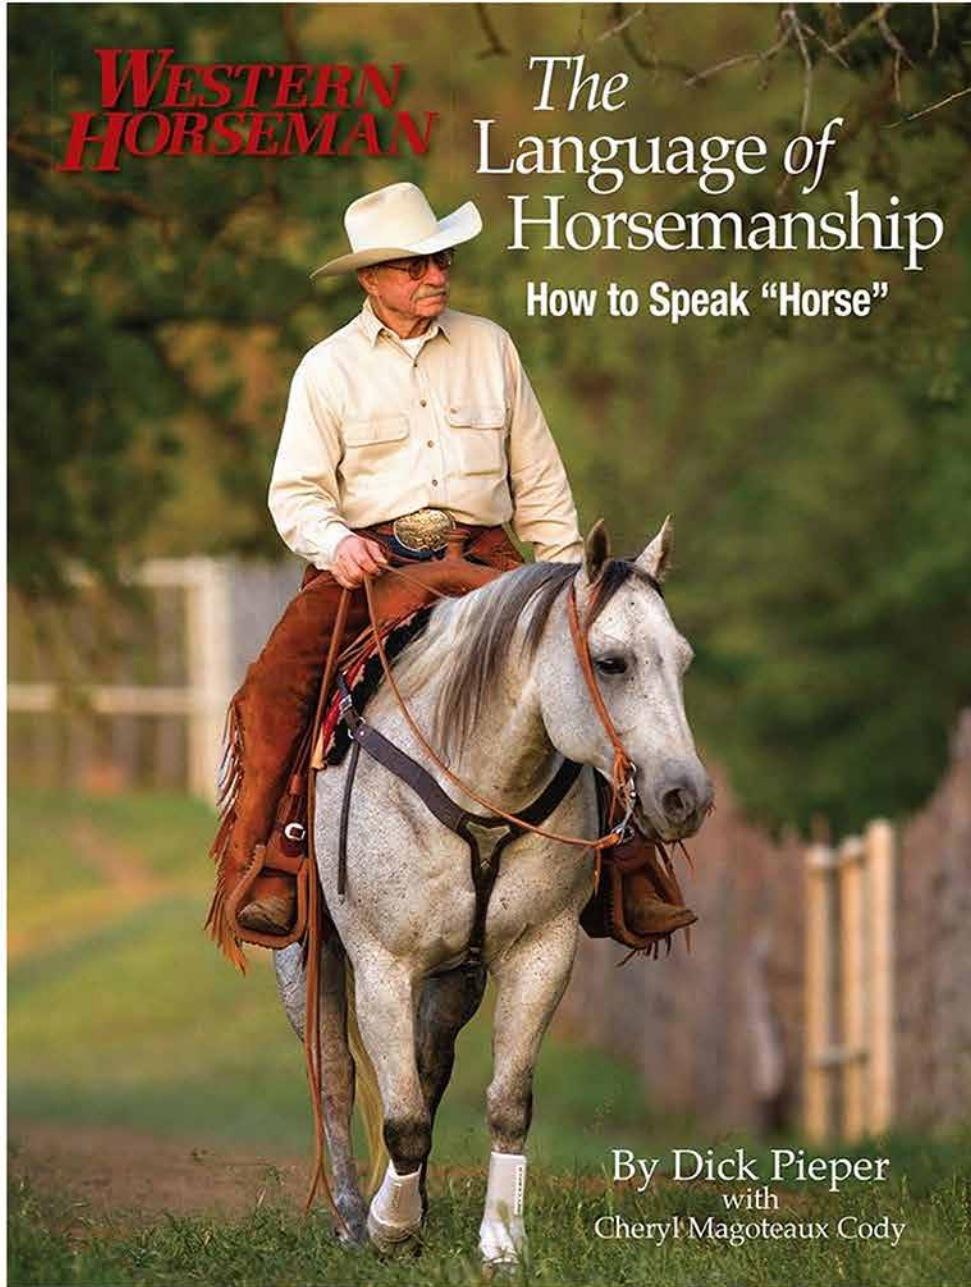

“When Cheryl Cody approached us to ask if team Mills would be interested in sponsoring the victory part for the 20th anniversary of the NRBC, we jumped on the opportunity,” Matt said. “We look forward to this event every year and in our opinion it’s one of the very best!! Let’s celebrate the victory

The County Line Band has performed all across Texas, from Corpus to Dallas, Houston to Midland. In the 80’s and early 90’s County Line was the backing band for Fiddling Frenchie Burke, and the band has opened for many of country music’s top artists, including Garth Brooks, Ronnie Milsap, Ricky Van Shelton, John Conlee, Vern Gosdin, Doug Stone, Asleep at the Wheel and more.

Born and raised in Southern California, Matt began riding horses at an early age. He enjoyed a successful career as a youth rider, earning multiple championships throughout California in a variety of disciplines including western pleasure, horsemanship and trail. In 1996, he switched his focus to reining and a few years later, established his own training operation in Scottsdale, Ariz. He trains and shows futurity and derby horses and also coaches several successful non pro and youth riders.

One of his most memorable accomplishments was winning the 2006 USEF Open Reining Championship on Easy Otie Whiz in Lexington, Ky. With a career-high score of 231.5, that ride qualified him to be a member of Team USA that proudly brought home the gold medal from the World Equestrian Games (WEG) in Aachen, Germany.

Matt is consistently ranked on the NRHA Top Twenty Professionals Riders list and has NRHA lifetime earnings of more than $500,000. He is regularly a finalist at major NRHA events and has received several titles including NRHA Intermediate Open Futurity Reserve Champion as well as multiple titles at the National Reining Breeders Classic (NRBC). He has also earned several large futurity and derby titles including RMRHA Summer Slide, High Roller Reining Classic, SWRHA Futurity and NRHA Cowtown Classic. In addition to his youth, skill and natural riding ability, he is well known for his professionalism, showmanship and charismatic personality. Consequently, he is in high demand for clinics in the United States, Europe and Mexico.

WORLD PARA REINING INTERNATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

By Bea Versélewel

The $25,000 added 2017 World Para Reining International Championship, scheduled for July 4-9 at the beautiful National Equine Center in Ermelo, owned by the Dutch National Equine Sports Federation (KNHS).

The WPR International Championship will be a World Equestrian Games-style event, with International teams competing for team medals, and individual medals. The event will be held during the 2017 Diamond League Western event. Diamond League Western is one of the biggest events in the Netherlands, organized for the second consecutive year.

Apart from the WPR International Championship, Diamond League Western will be offering a double judged national western show, open to all breed, an international AQHA Show, APHA Show, ApHC show and classes for Arabian and thoroughbred horses. The organizers of DLW are Ria de Vos and Roy van der Hoeven. Ria de Vos owns a western riding school in the middle of the country. NRHA professional and judge, Roy van der Hoeven owns a western riding school in the west of the country. Both of them are very pleased to offer a podium for the WPR International Championship.

"We are very pleased and excited to facilitate World Para Reining," Ria de Vos said. "We fully support the initiative because no one should be left out when it comes to riding. The Netherlands are not familiar with Para Reining. In 2015 there was a demonstration show during the KNHS National Championship Reining, organized at a facility in Schijndel in the South of the Netherlands. Para Dressage riders Nicole den Dulk and World Champion Rix van der Horst were amongst the competitors and they had great fun. The KNHS Center is a beautiful location that meets all the needs and the KNHS Staff is fully cooperating to make this event into a success, assisting any way they can. Especially for this event, reining footage will be moved in a couple of weeks before the show so there will be some time to prepare the show arena properly. For WPR riders that come from overseas or from another European country that cannot bring their own horse, we have several horses available, able to compete in the different WPR grades.

Prior to the competition, we will arrange a clinic so the riders will get to know their horse. We have decided to donate the benefits of DLW 2017 to Parapaard. Parapaard is a national Dutch organization that supports other organizations that are engaged in activities to facilitate riders with a physical disability. Their slogan is 'Because no one should be left out!' We copied that, so we hope that many riders will participate to make people realize that riders with a disability matter as much to us as a NRHA One Million Dollar Rider does."

All over Europe, riders are preparing to qualify for this prestigious WPR Championship and get together to represent their country with a team. To be eligible to participate at the WPR International Championship, a rider must compete at two WPR approved shows. The qualification deadline is set at June 1, 2017. In this context the Netherlands have another prime. The Dutch Reining Horse Association, the official affiliate of the NRHA, facilitates WPR with the WPR 2017 Saddle Series. The DRHA is hosting four WPR approved shows this year of which two are scheduled during the qualifying period for the Championship.

WPR initiator Lisa Coulter said, "I am very excited to work with the DRHA and DLW. Both locations, the KNHS Center in Ermelo and Reining Center Meertenhof in Grathem, where the Saddle Series are being held, are beautiful locations that suit the purpose. We are looking forward to competing in Ermelo with a USA team and a Canadian team and meeting the European teams. The $25,000 prize money will be fully distributed to the riders competing in the WPR International Championship and the show managers efforts to give as much back to the Para riders as possible. There is no retainage of this generously sponsored WPR money. That's a pretty big thing to acknowledge and something important for the riders to understand. Besides the money, the riders take home wonderful awards, such as, podium medals, ribbons and sheets. And since we are competing in the Netherlands, I expect them to be awarded with some beautiful flowers as well, although they probably can't take them back home. But I am sure they will love it!"

NRBC PONY HOPS & FRISBEE TOSS BENEFIT REIN IN CANCER!

There is no doubt that every single NRBC through the years has been one for the record books. With more than $1 million paid out each year and an escalating number of entries, it is a world-class event. But according to Rein In Cancer's Cheryl Cody and Shorty Koger, the show has long been a success in another way.

Cheryl Cody explained, "Through the years there has been so much money raised at the NRBC for Rein in Cancer. We are so very grateful for the generosity of the people in our performance horse industry."

Activities in the past ranged from "Paint Your Nails NRBC Blue" to a Silent Auction, Calcutta and general donations, along with the "Ride With a Ribbon" program, dog shows and more!

This year the fun continues. On Friday evening in the break between the Non Pro Finals and the Open Reining, the Rein in Cancer Frisbee Toss will be held. Frisbees will be on sale all week and at the appointed time buyers can throw them into the arena. The ones that get closest to the targets win special prizes.

Then on Saturday between the L1-L3 and Prime Time Finals and the L4 Open Finals, the action will turn to the Rein In Cancer Pony Hop Finals! Riders will mount their bouncy steeds in the Coliseum and bounce their way to victory!

Rein In Cancer is a 501-c3 tax exempt organization that raised funding to create and run the Shirley Bowman Nutrition Center at Oklahoma University's Stephenson Cancer Institute in Oklahoma City. It currently furnishes direct financial support to cancer patients who are part of the horse industry. With more than $1 million raised, founders Shorty Koger, Cheryl (Magoteaux) Cody and Tracie Anderson credit the generosity of the horse world, through bequests, memorials, promotions and gifts. The AQHA Executive Committee – consisting of a president, first vice president, second vice president and two additional members – is elected each year by the board at convention.

The AQHA Executive Committee was elected March 20 at the 2017 AQHA Convention in San Antonio, Texas. Though AQHA operates primarily upon the decisions of its members through the board of directors, the five-person Executive Committee is responsible for implementing these important decisions and governing AQHA between the annual meetings of the membership and the board.

The AQHA Executive Committee is elected each year by the board at the convention. Each member serves a term of one year until the selection of his/her successor.

President Ralph Seekins

Ralph Seekins of Fairbanks, Alaska, has been an AQHA director since 2006 for Washington/Alaska and was elevated to director emeritus in 2016. Ralph has served on the AQHA Marketing and Membership Committee, the Foundation Council and the AQHA Public Policy Committee. Ralph has owned American Quarter Horses since 1995, when his daughters convinced him and his wife, Connie, that they really needed horses. His early horse years were spent in Wyoming and Montana and included ranch work and sprint racing. The family's first two American Quarter Horses were home-trained and went on to earn AQHA Open Champion titles, Youth Champion titles, Youth Supreme Champion titles and one Youth Versatility award. Learn more about Ralph.

Early on, the National Reining Breeders Classic

began to offer kids' activities for various special occasions. The activities were so well received, that three years ago the Reiner Kids Academy was born.

Now, parents and children look forward to enjoying a variety of games, activities and projects.

“We are pleased to announce that this year, thanks to the support of new Gold Sponsor Adh Mor Ranch and the stallion PS Mega Shine Chic better known as 'Crush', we are growing our kid's program at the NRBC,” NRBC Secretary-Treasurer Cheryl Cody stated. “This year, starting on Easter Sunday, PS

Mega Shine Chic Kids Academy participants will receive some special gifts from Adh Mor Ranch.”

PS Mega Shine Chic Kids Academy runs from April 15 – 22 from 1 to 4 pm for kids 10 and under. Teacher Bess Bouley, from Maple Plains, Minn., began her career working with kids in a special education program and has nearly thirty years experience in child care and preschool.

Bess clearly enjoys the week. She said, “Kids Academy has been a great experience for me! It makes me happy to provide something fun and constructive for the kids to do during a long week of long days of grown up activities. I have made many good friends over the last couple years. It is so nice to walk through the barns, and the arena and be greeted by many smiling little faces and their parents. I have become Facebook friends with many families so I get to keep in touch all through the year and see what they are up to. I truly look forward to seeing them all again at the NRBC.”

Located in Ponoka, Alberta, Canada, Brad and Amanda Kelly’s ADH Mor Ranch is known for both great reining horses and bucking bulls and has lately loomed large in the reining horse world with their great performer, PS Mega Shine Chic.

PS Mega Shine Chic is by Shine Chic Shine x Megas Sugar Baby by Marthas Mega Jac. After topping the NRHA Futurity Prospect Sale in 2015, the 2013 AQHA Stallion has gone on to make a mark in the reining record books. Crush was shown by Dany Tremblay to an Open Finalist slot at the 2016 National Reining Horse Association Futurity after a stellar performance and Finalist finish at the Southwest Reining Horse Association Futurity. In 2017 he’s again showing excellence with an Open Reserve Championship at the Oklahoma Reining Horse Association Derby.

Fred Tremblay said, “Crush is perfectly balanced with a fantastic pedigree. Possessing a great mind makes this stallion very trainable and combined with outstanding agility, Crush is hard not to watch in the show pen. He is one of those rare horses that comes along only once in a lifetime.”

Brad Kelly agrees, “Crush has the total package of bloodlines, talent and the look. We are super excited about the future of this young stud and will see his first offspring in 2018. Crush will continue to be trained and shown under Dany Tremblay with numerous 2017 shows in his line-up.”

DATA COLLECTION TO BEGIN FOR 2017 ECONOMIC IMPACT STUDY

Survey will be accessible via online link

The American Horse Council (AHC) is pleased to announce that data collection for the 2017 Economic Impact Study is set to begin on April 1.

“We are incredibly grateful for the pledges we received from generous equine organizations to fund both the National study as well as several state and segment breakouts,” said AHC President Julie Broadway. “Due to the generosity of these organizations, we are able to begin the data collection for the study. However, we are still short of our goal amount and are hoping to receive final pledges to officially put us over the finish line for fundraising.”

For individuals or organizations wishing to contribute towards the goal amount for the National Study, please visit the AHC website here, or contact the AHC at afurst@horsecouncil.org.

“No pledge amount is too small,” said Ms. Broadway. “We know that the industry is eagerly awaiting the results of this study, so we are hoping to find those last few pledges to put us over the edge, and get the study completed as soon as possible.”

under 18, and the equine welfare and sanctuary segments.”

The survey will be tailored to individual segments and distributed via an online link, and the AHC encourages those in the industry to share the link as much as possible.

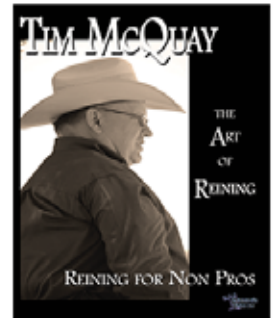

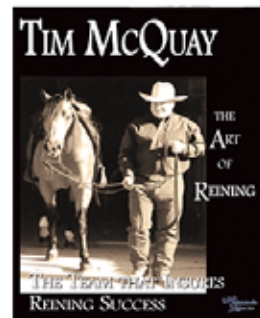

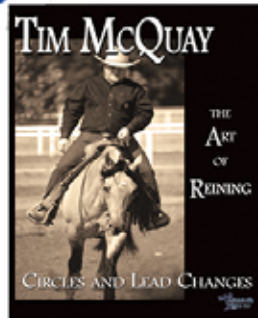

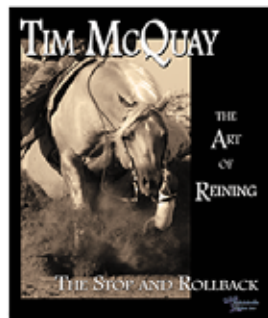

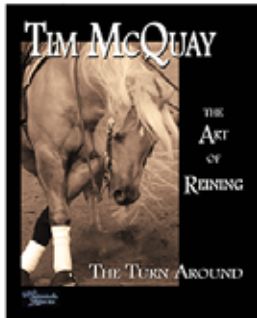

“We want to be able to ensure we are getting as much of the industry as possible taking this survey,” said Ms. Broadway. “Especially since we have expanded the study to include participants

In addition to the National Economic Impact Study, twelve states have elected to secure a breakout for their respective states: Colorado, Kentucky, North Carolina, California, Maryland, Wisconsin, Illinois, Minnesota, Michigan, Virginia, Pennsylvania and Oklahoma. If any state is still interested in securing a breakout, they MUST contact the AHC by no later than March 22.

EQUO JOINS NRBC AS PLATINUM SPONSOR AND HOST OF THE NON PRO FINALS RECEPTION

Equo has come on board with the National Reining Breeders Classic as a Platinum sponsor and presenter of the Non Pro Finals Reception. The mobile app for both android and iOS devices connects horse owners, trainers and riders with shippers all around the US.

NRBC secretary-treasurer, Cheryl Cody said, “Equo is a progressive and intelligent company that creates solutions for getting horses hauled. We are thrilled to partner with this innovative group and to have them at the NRBC throughout the show April 16 – 23. The owners and management are horse people who understand the challenges involved in arranging for safe shipping.”

Two of the owners are Colombian Olympic rider, Daniel Bluman, and his brother Steven Bluman, CEO of Equo. He said, “Horses have been an integral part of all our lives. Equo began almost three years ago after numerous bad experiences when trying to ship our horses with reliable, safe and fair pricing. This is something that all horse owners have lived and probably currently still live on their daily basis. So, the only options available were to ship your horse and hope for the best or buy yourself a truck and trailer and drive them yourself. But, neither of the two options satisfied our needs; one was too risky and the other one too expensive. That's when Equo was born.”

Using cutting edge technology, Equo lets users request a ride from any starting point to any destination within the US and Canada and get an instant free quote for their trip. Once the trip is requested, the Equo team connects the user with the most appropriate driver for their needs. Payment is done by credit card using a cutting edge payment system through the app so there is no hassle for the user to wait for the driver to give them a check or cash and it guarantees payment to the driver.

Once the trip has begun, the app has a live tracking feature that allows users to know the exact location of their horse at all times. You can also contact the driver at anytime through the app and the driver can contact the user if necessary. When the trip is done, you will receive a notification from the app. It's that easy and simple!

Palacio is excited to present Equo to the reining world. “Reining is a discipline that has always intrigued us. In our opinion, horsemanship is the most important quality a horse person must have on the path to success in any discipline –and reining riders have had horsemanship within them since day one. This is why we believe that reining riders, owners and trainers will enjoy and understand the importance of Equo. We guarantee excellent service for all equine shipping needs as Equo was founded by horsemen and women.”

He adds that NRBC is the perfect entrance point for Equo into the reining world. “It is one of the biggest reining shows in the world with an unbelievable amount of prestige associated with it. Being part of such an event gives Equo important brand recognition and introduces this cutting edge service to the reining world.”

Cody noted, “We look forward to giving everyone an opportunity to get to know the Equo team –both at their booth at the show and during the Non Pro Finals Reception on Friday, April 21 in the Sponsor pavilion.”

With Equo there is a perfect ride for every occasion:

- Equo Rush: Designed for moments that require immediate action, Equo Rush gives you access to on-demand drivers ready to make emergency travel a smooth experience.
- Equo Planned: For the planners who have scheduled events within weeks or months' time, Equo planned lets you take full control and schedule rides in advance and plan timeframes.
- Equo Pool: You can share a ride with others and still make it on time! Equo Pool rides stay within 100 miles of the original route. This is the best way to get your horse around at a lower cost.

Requesting an Equo ride is very easy! Here is how it works:

- Open the app and create a horse's profile
- Once created, tell Equo where your horse is, where he/she is going, time range of pick up and the number of horses.
- When requested, you will see your trips on Your Trips tab as pending requests at the top of the screen while Equo assigns a driver to your trip.
- Once Equo assigns your trip a driver you will see you trips on the upcoming trips tab. You go into this tab and will be able to see all the information on your driver and his/her equipment.
- When ready, press on Accept Fare and enter your payment information (you won't be charged until trip is finished).
- Your driver will be notified that you have accepted the trip and he will then proceed to pick up your horse. Once picked up the driver will start the trip and you will be able to follow your horses trip on the Active Trips tab on Your Trips!

- Once the trip is finished, you will be able to rate your experience with the driver. You will be able to do so by going to your Trip History tab where you can find a summary of your horse's trip.

Driving with Equo is very easy! Here is how It works:

- Register with Equo through the website www.ridewiththequo.com
- Once registered the Equo team will enable you as a driver once all your information checks out.
- Get on the app and update your location to let Equo know where you are.
- Receive trip requests assigned to you depending on your location. You can find these on your Trip Request tab.
- Review and accept the trip request and choose the truck and trailer to be used on your trip.
- Wait for the rider to enter his/her payment information. Equo will notify you when that's done. You can find your confirmed trips on your Confirmed Trips tab.
- Once the rider enters payment information, pick up the horse(s) and start the trip!
 - When started, you will see your active trips on your Active Trips tab.
 - When finished, you will see what the profit made on your trips on Completed Trips tab where you will also be able to rate the Rider on your experience.

Anyone can download the app either on the Google Play store or the Apple App Store by searching for Equo. Learn more at www.ridewiththequo.com. For more information on the NRBC, visit www.nrbc.com.

2017 AMERICAN QUARTER HORSE HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

The 2017 American Quarter Horse Hall of Fame inductees were honored at the Hall of Fame Banquet March 19 at the Grand Hyatt Hotel in San Antonio, Texas.

“Induction into the American Quarter Horse Hall of Fame is the highest honor possible in our Association, and we welcome these deserving individuals into the Hall of Fame,” said Craig Huffhines, Executive Vice President of the American Quarter Horse Association.

The horses inducted into the Hall of Fame are the stallions, Strawfly Special and Zips Chocolate Chip; the gelding, Majestic Scotch; and the mares, Casey’s Ladylove and Dashing Phoebe.

The horsemen are AQHA Past President, Peter J. Cofrancesco III of Sparta, N.J., AQHA executive committee member, the late Dick Monahan of Walla Walla, Wash., Bobby D. Cox of Fort Worth, Texas, the late Marvin Barnes of Ada, Okla., and trainer and horsewoman Sandra Vaughn of Hernando, Fla.

Casey’s Ladylove

The 1961 mare, Casey’s Ladylove was the foundation of a barrel racing dynasty. James and Frances Loiseau of Flandreau, South Dakota, bought the mare as a 2-year-old for $720 when looking for a horse their children could ride. Later, they started breeding her, selling the colts and keeping the fillies for their broodmare band that led to such barrel racing and rodeo champions as French Flash Hawk, known to barrel racers as “Bozo,” and Frenchmans Guy, a leading sire of barrel-racing horses.

Dashing Phoebe

Dashing Phoebe was a fast runner and the mother of fast runners. The 1983 sorrel mare by Dash For Cash won or placed in 15 of 20 career starts, earning $609,553 on the racetrack. She was a two-time AQHA racing champion filly, earning that honor in 1985 and 1986. She earned her AQHA Supreme Racehorse title in 1987. In 2008, she was named an AQHA Dam of Distinction after producing 15 winners, five stakes winners and the earners of nearly $2.4 million. She was bred by San Jose Cattle Co. of Rockport, Texas. She was euthanized in 2013 and buried on owner Kirk Goodfellow’s Dreams Come True Ranch near Nacogdoches, Texas.

Majestic Scotch

Majestic Scotch was born to lope in a show ring. The 1994 sorrel gelding won 10 World Championships in western riding and western pleasure and seven Reserve World Championships in those classes plus showmanship. Majestic Scotch was bred by Donald and Jean Bangasser of Ackley, Iowa, and was owned by Sharnai Thompson of Pilot Point, Texas. He was shown in classes from halter to hunt seat equitation to trail. He earned a youth AQHA Supreme Champion award and 13 Superiors. He retired from competition in 2012. He was euthanized in 2013, the same year he was inducted into the National Snaffle Bit Association Hall of Fame.

Strawfly Special

Racing stallion Strawfly Special sired two winners of the All American Futurity, Streakin Flyer and Ausual Suspect. The 1987 stallion by Special Effort was bred by Dan and Jolene Urschel of Canadian, Texas, and was owned by Double Bar S Ranch of Moreno Valley, Cali. Strawfly Special’s offspring earned more than $25 million on the racetrack, and his gelded son, Tailor Fit, was racing world champion in 1999 and 2001. Strawfly Special died in 2004.

Zips Chocolate Chip

Zips Chocolate Chip was a leading sire of award-winning western pleasure horses. The 1985 bay stallion was by Zippo Pine Bar and out of the Custus Jaguar mare, Fancy Blue Chip. After a short career in the show ring, earning $18,000 in western pleasure futurities, Zips Chocolate Chip moved to the breeding barn. He was a sire of AQHA and National Snaffle Bit Association champions. He was also a model for a Breyer horse. After his breeding career was over, he retired to owner-breeder Ann Myers' farm. He was euthanized in 2015 due to complications of old age.

Marvin Barnes

The late Marvin Barnes of Ada, Okla., was the owner and trainer of Mr Master Bug, a Supreme racehorse and winner of the All American Futurity, and FL Lady Bug, an American Quarter Horse Hall of Fame inductee. The 50-year cumulative breeder and his late wife, Lela, were fixtures in Oklahoma Quarter Horse racing for more than 50 years. Marvin bred the earners of more than $3.9 million on the track and two World Champion horses who earned seven World Championships.

Peter J. Cofrancesco III

Peter J. Cofrancesco III of Sparta, New Jersey, was the first president of the American Quarter Horse Youth Association to become president of AQHA. Cofrancesco grew up showing horses with his family in many aspects of AQHA competition, later specializing in halter. He was elected to the AQHA Executive Committee in 2008 and served as president in 2011 – 2012, focusing on youth involvement.

Bobby D. Cox

An owner and 30-year breeder of American Quarter Horse racehorses, Bobby D. Cox of Fort Worth, Texas, bought his first racehorse in 1976. His homebred mare, All About Ease, won the Ruidoso Futurity in 2004, the same year his homebred stallion, Brimmerton, won the Rainbow Derby and the All American Derby. In 2007, Cox's homebred Dont Let Down won the All American Derby. Horses that Cox has bred have earned $20 million and horses he has owned have earned $16 million on the racetrack.

Dick Monahan

Racehorse owner and breeder, Dick Monahan of Walla Walla, Wash., bought his first race-bred yearlings in 1969. He and his wife, Brenda, raised and raced American Quarter Horses for more than 30 years. He was elected as an AQHA director in 1985. At the time of his death in 2009, Monahan was serving on the AQHA Executive Committee.

Sandra Vaughn

Judge, breeder and AQHA Professional Horsewoman, Sandra Vaughn of Hernando, Fla., became a professional trainer at age 19. She has trained horses to multiple champion titles and has ridden horses to seven World Championships and 11 reserve World Championships. In 2003, she was part of the team that helped Movin Artfully become the Farnam Superhorse. In 1995, the first year the award was given, Vaughn was named the Professional Horsewoman of the Year. She served as an AQHA director from 2006 to 2013.

About the American Quarter Horse Hall of Fame

The American Quarter Horse Hall of Fame & Museum beautifully showcases the hundreds of horses and people who have earned the distinction of becoming part of the American Quarter Horse Hall of Fame. To be a part of the Hall of Fame, horses and people must have been outstanding over a period of years in a variety of categories. Inductees are those who have brought exceptional visibility and/or contribution to the American Quarter Horse. Hall of Fame inductees are chosen each year by a selection committee and honored at the annual AQHA Convention.

DON'T MISS THE NUTRENA NRBC OPEN CLASSIC CHALLENGE RECEPTION

Nutrena returns as the naming sponsor of the National Reining Breeders Classic Open Classic Challenge Reception set for Friday evening, April 21, in the Sponsor Pavilion of the Great Southwest Equestrian Center in Katy, Texas.

The fun at this reception is great food plus great watching – and that begins early with the Rein in Cancer Frisbee toss. Frisbees will be on sale all week and at the appointed time buyers can throw them into the arena. The ones that get closest to the targets win special prizes.

Of course there's no better seat in the house to watch the competition than at the Nutrena reception – and high scores and high excitement will make the Nutrena Open Classic Challenge Reception an event to remember.

“The folks at Nutrena became part of our NRBC family when they came on board as sponsors a few years ago,” said NRBC secretary-treasurer, Cheryl Cody. “We are thrilled to welcome them back again and we truly appreciate their support of our event and our exhibitors.”

Sharon Choney, Nutrena South Texas Equine Consultant, said, “We are excited to continue our relationship with the NRBC which brings in the best competitors, trainers and equine athletes from across the nation. Providing the highest quality equine nutrition is at the heart of what we do, and helping horses realize their full potential is our passion through our detailed nutrition programs and superior feeds. It is fantastic to be able to support many of the top riders, faithful clients and premium equine athletes that align in this framework. We are very excited to meet and cheer on many more of you and your equine partners throughout the week.”

Nutrena® is a premium brand of horse feed produced by Cargill, Inc., a worldwide producer of agricultural products. Cargill has 151 years of innovative research and development through our Innovation Center in Elk River, Minn., as well as many long time relationships with some of America's leading universities. Using the highest-quality ingredients and the most up-to-date nutritional technology, Cargill manufactures and markets a complete line of Nutrena® branded feeds and supplements that help horses maintain optimal health throughout all stages of life, from the breeding farm to the show ring.

For superior performance, you need to begin with top nutrition and premium feeds, and Nutrena should be the first choice for your equine athlete. Whether you're looking for the benefits that come from high-fat and calorie-dense diets within the ProForce family or SafeChoice family that brings you simplicity of feeding and peace of mind – Nutrena can find a solution for every situation. Nutrena provides feeds for every life stage from the breeding farm to the professional athlete on to the active senior horse and everything in between.

At the Nutrena booth during the NRBC, Choney, along with Nutrena Representative, Kirk Chilson will provide information about any of the products in the Nutrena® or Progressive Nutrition Feed lines; as well as the health supplements used to maximize your horse's winning and health potential by aiding in the overall health, muscle gain and recovery, gut health and electrolytes.

Nutrena® works with riders and trainers as well as the equine athletes to customize a nutrition programs to meet their requirements to be able to maximize their genetic and performance potential. There will be daily drawings for a month's worth of Premium Equine feed as well as many other goodies and giveaways. To learn more about Nutrena visit the website at www.nutrenaworld.com/horse-feeds.

Since its inception, the National Reining Breeders Classic has grown to include over 200 subscribed stallions, and in its twentieth year in 2017, the total payout will exceed $20 million. For information on the NRBC, visit the web site at www.nrbc.com or call 580-759-3939.

Magnesium in Equine Nutrition Part Two

WHAT'S THE REAL STORY?

By Randy Robbins, PhD

The most recent equine nutritional research recommends approximately 10g of magnesium daily to avoid deficiency symptoms. Grains and forages contain anywhere from 0.2-0.5% Mg. After a quick look at the magnesium levels along with corresponding calcium and potassium, the logical assumption is that the horse is getting a sufficient amount of magnesium.

However, the more we learn about nutrition the more we find that magnesium is actually required by the body in relatively large amounts and is a necessary cofactor for more than 300 enzymatic reactions vital to every major metabolic pathway.

When exposed to the environmental stresses of training, travel and performing, horses can become irritable, easily fatigued and lose concentration or focus. Blood pressure and excitability may increase as the level of adrenaline (a stress hormone) increases in the blood. Under conditions of mental or physical stress, magnesium is released from the blood cells and goes into the blood plasma. From there, it is excreted into the urine. Chronic stress depletes the body of magnesium, leading to magnesium deficiency symptoms. The greater your level of stress, the greater the magnesium loss.

The high stress lifestyle of performance horses and the variable levels of magnesium in feeds has led to an increased need for magnesium. Areas with acid soils and soft water may not provide enough magnesium the needs of performance horses. In addition, the acidic water or soil may also impair magnesium uptake from the GI tract.

Magnesium can be supplied in several different forms. There are several magnesium salts readily available, but the best supplements provide magnesium in the most biologically active forms, including chelated or complexed forms. Chelation and complexing means that the magnesium is bound to a highly absorbable molecule like an amino acid that is actively picked up from the GI tract, so the magnesium is absorbed with it.

The most effective products use this biologically active form of magnesium in the form of Magnesium Monoglycinate. The monoglycinate form supplies the most available form with the highest metal concentration. Also, this form is slightly sweet to the taste and very palatable. That's important because most non-complexed magnesium salts have a strong taste and can limit the horse's willingness to eat them.

Currently, the most common form of magnesium available is Magnesium Sulfate, commonly called Epsom salts. Epsom salts are not suitable for regular feeding. One side effect of regular feeding of Epsom salts, is diarrhea. The usual form used in animal feeds is Magnesium Oxide, but even high-quality Magnesium Oxide is only about 50% absorbable and tends to be quite variable. Some sources have been over-processed and can be totally unavailable.

Calcium levels also influence magnesium uptake. Magnesium increases calcium solubility which then competes with magnesium for adsorption. Calcium levels in a equine diet are generally greater than 1%. As a result, the calcium to magnesium ratios in equine diets range from 2.5-4.0:1. Nutritionists are beginning to try to reduce that ratio as close to 1:1 as possible. This cannot be accomplished without some form of magnesium fortification. So if your horse's diet includes alfalfa which is high in calcium, it is most likely deficient in Magnesium.

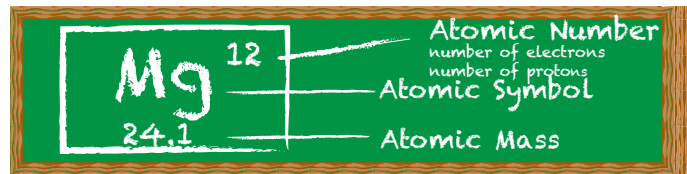

Magnesium is non-toxic and nearly impossible to overdose orally. The GI tract absorbs what it needs and dumps any excess. The main pathway for disposal of magnesium in the body is the kidneys. Over supplementation of magnesium in the diet, usually only results in loose bowels or transient diarrhea. However, the chelated forms with the higher availability reduces this effect as less magnesium reaches the large intestine.

Magnesium salts are very water soluble and magnesium is easily excreted, but if renal function is impaired there could be an overdose because of the body's inability to dispose of magnesium. Thus, Magnesium salts should NOT be fed to horses with impaired kidney function or those with restricted water intakes.

In part three we'll address the other benefits of magnesium – muscle recovery, effect on cramping or tying up, and insulin resistance.
