LOTS OF WINNERS AND REWARDS IN NRHA, AQHA, APHA, USA REINING COMPETITION

Smart maneuvers and smooth moving reining horses were the name of the game throughout the National Reining Breeders Classic in the Coliseum, Tellepsen and Wheless arenas. The two slates of ancillary action began Tuesday with the Intermediate Open, Limited Open, Rookie Professional and Limited Non Pro classes.

Raeanna Thayn and Laura Fourré Tie to Win Limited Non Pro (1)

Raeanna Thayn and Dun Sneakin Out

A tie between Raeanna Thayn and Laura Fourré won the Limited Non Pro with a score of 71.50, worth $100 each.

Thayn rode Dun Sneakin Out, who's by Whiz N Tag Chex and out of Sneaking Out Tonight. She's only been riding the mare for two years, however the pair have formed a special bond, which gives them confidence in the show pen.

“My run felt pretty good and she tried really hard,” Thayn said of her 6-year-old mare. Thayn will finish the week with the Novice Horse Non Pro and the Youth 13 & Under classes.

Fourré rode Colonels Splashy Gun, who’s by Colonels Smoking Gun and out of Bh Splash, and the NRBC marked the pair’s first time to show together. As the last draw in the class, the duo from Scottsdale, Ariz., turned in the tying score, making their first show a memorable one.

“I just got him a week ago, so it was a learning experience for both of us,” Fourré said. “Hopefully we’ll have more this week to come. I was pretty happy overall.”

Joe Schmidt Wins Intermediate Open (1) with Highlanders Scandal

Joe Schmidt and Highlanders Scandal

Joe Schmidt, riding Highlanders Scandal, took the win in the Intermediate Open with a score of 146.5. Highlanders Scandal is by Conquistador Whiz out of HR Short Wheel Base and owned by Sally Berg of Barn 66 LLC.

Normally Berg is the mare’s main rider, however Schmidt used the Intermediate Open class as an opportunity to prepare the mare for her owner and this show marked the first time in the show pen for Schmidt and “Tater” as a team.

“She’s a cool little mare,” Schmidt said. “She was really good in there, it was the first time I’ve shown her and I just wanted to get her ready for Sally. [Highlanders Scandal] is a good little trooper, she just cruises around and was pretty easy to prepare.”

Berg will compete on Tater in the Non Pro and ancillary classes later this week, while Schmidt will be preparing for his run in the Classic.

Josh Tishman Tops Limited Open and Rookie Professional(1) with Chics Love Me Wimpy

Josh Tishman riding Chics Love Me Wimpy (Wimpys Little Step x Dream About Magic) took home both the Limited Open and Rookie Professional titles with a score of 144. Chics Love Me Wimpy (“Duke”) is a 7-year-old gelding owned by Deborah Good of DAG Ventures. Good wasn’t able to make the NRBC this year and instead sent the gelding to Tishman to show.

“He’s really easy to show,” Tishman said of Duke. “He’s a real consistent horse and real fun to show and he was pretty good [today]. [Deborah] bought him for herself because he’s real consistent and easy to get along with and just real easy going.”

Jerry Davis Wins Novice Horse Non Pro (1) on Hot Coded Shine

Jerry Davis

Jerry Davis topped the Novice Horse Non Pro with a score of 141.5 riding Hot Coded Shine (Shine Chic Shine x Hot Coded Candy). Davis admitted Hot Coded Shine didn't have the best showing in Tuesday's Non Pro Classic

Prelims and decided to use this as an opportunity to better their previous showing.

“We had a few penalty points and bobbles [yesterday], and today he really seemed to come along,” Davis said. “I think he needed a few days to get into [the swing of it] and now he was a little less stressed and felt good with me and everything was smooth.”

Robert Gattuso riding Chics Special Nite (Gunners Special Nite x This Chic Dun It) took second with a 141.

David McGee topped the Novice Horse Non Pro Level 2 riding Knaughtybyknature with a score of 145. Knaughtybyknature is by Magnum Chic Dream and out of Princess In Diamonds and has been in McGee's barn since he was a yearling. McGee also felt the gelding need an extra day to work out the kinks and was happy with their showing in the Novice Horse Non Pro.

“He was supposed to have rode like that in the [Non Pro Classic] yesterday, so we just came over here to try a little different plan getting him ready,” McGee said. “I changed his bridle and put a little smaller bit in and today he rode like he's supposed to, and we didn't run him too hard. He's a nice horse we were just kind of schooling, playing and showing at the same time.”

Karla Leclair Rides Codes Electric Step to Win Rookie Level 1 (1)

The Rookie Level 1 Champion was Karla Leclair riding Codes Electric Step to a score of 70.5. Codes Electric Step is by Electric Code out of Nics Wimpy and has been with Leclair for only three months.

“He's great minded and extremely talented, but he is able to come down to my level,” Leclair said. “I'm not nearly as talented as this horse, but he is great minded and awesome for me in the show pen and stays with me.”

The Rookie Level 2 Champion was Jill Pfisthner riding Black N Boom (Boomshernic x Blazin In Black) to a score of 71.

The Rookie Prime Time Champion was James Belden riding Dun Git A Nicadual (Mister Nicadual x Gotta Git Ya Dun) to a score of 70.

In the AQHA classes, Jessica Sternberg took the win in the Amateur Reining riding Designed With Shine with a score of 72, and Loren Booth riding Taris Little Gunner topped the Amateur Select Reining with a score of 73.

Josh Tishman Earns Limited Open and Rookie Professional NRBC Gist Buckles on Chics Love Me Wimpy

Josh Tishman

In the Limited Open and Rookie Professional (2) classes Josh Tishman took top honors riding Chics Love Me Wimpy, who's by Wimpys Little Step and out of Dream About Magic, to a score of 73. "Duke" is owned by Deborah Good, who wasn't able to make the NRBC and sent Duke for Tishman to show in her place. Tishman has had a great week with the gelding, winning Tuesday's Limited Open and Rookie Professional classes as well, for which he became the overall NRBC Limited Open and Rookie Professional Champion.

"He's real fun to show. That's probably the best run we've had, he's just real easy and fun so it just worked out well," Tishman said. "He followed me right around and went as fast as I asked and as slow as I asked and just did everything as hard as he could."

Troy Koehl riding A Ruf Master (Lil Ruf Peppy x Shiners Mistress) to a score of 71 took second in the Limited Open while Lindsey Seewaldt riding Katy Dun It (Dun Gotta Gun x Dun Kissed Peaches) took second in the Rookie Professional with a score of 71.5.

Tremblay – DeFreitas Tie for Novice Horse Open Level 2

Dany Tremblay and Misters Tempress

In the Novice Horse Open Level 2 a tie between Dany Tremblay and Peter DeFreitas took the first place win, with a score of 147. Tremblay rode Misters Tempress, who's by Mister Dual Pep and out of Colonel Pepinic, while DeFreitas rode Colonel Missile, who's by Hang Ten Surprise and out of Sweet Ginger Chic.

Tremblay has been riding and showing Misters Tempress with much success this year and says the mare continues to improve with each ride.

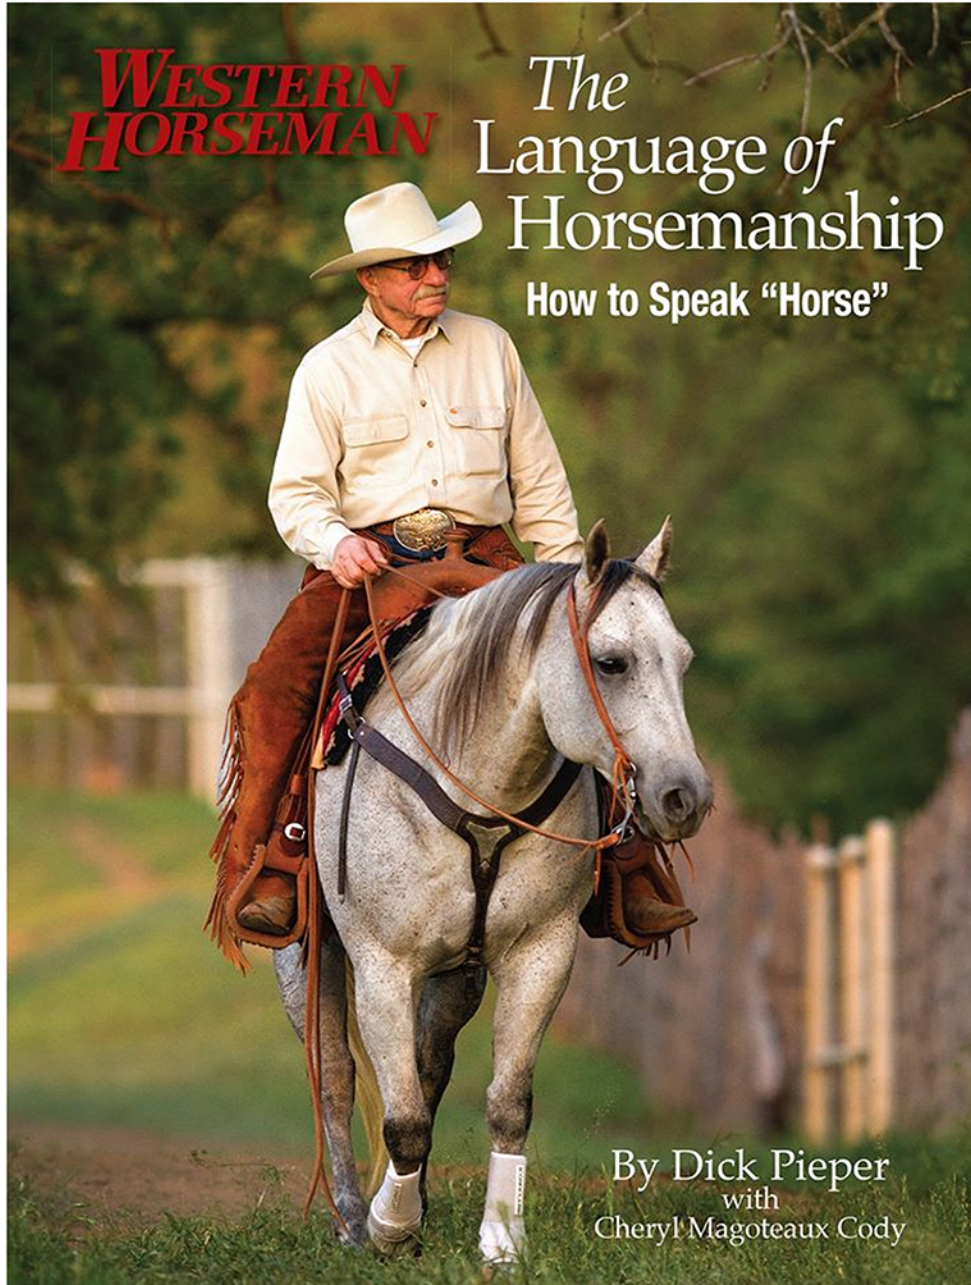

"Every time I show her she scores 73s and 73.5s, so she's consistent and she likes to go in the show pen now and I love it," Tremblay said.

Peter DeFreitas

DeFreitas also took the win in the Novice Horse Open Level 1 aboard Colonel Missile with the score of 147. DeFreitas showed the 4-year-old gelding as a 3-year-old and had success then as well. The duo came to the NRBC with intentions of continuing to improve in the show pen as well as find a potential buyer for Colonel Missile. DeFreitas says showing in the Novice Horse Open was a nice change of pace and made the win memorable.

“He’s very simple, he’s always the same every time I show him. He’s a lot of fun to show, because he does his thing and it’s easy,” DeFreitas said. “I was happy to come here and get to show in the Novice too, usually I just show in the Classic part, but it was fun to show in the Novice Horse and to get a win always helps.”

Jared Leclair rode The Dun Gun (Gunner x Fabulous Footwork) to a score of 144.5 to take third place in the Novice Horse Open Level 2 and second place in Level 1.

In the AQHA classes, Tremblay and DeFreitas were also co-champions in the AQHA Junior and Senior classes with a score of 147 aboard the same mounts.

Paul Queen Tops Limited Non Pro on Outta Dough

Paul Queen and Outta Dough

Paul Queen rode Outta Dough (Gallo Del Cielo x Dough Olena) to a score of 146.5 to top the Limited Non Pro, plus take home the overall championship Gist buckle. Queen took home a National Reining Horse Association Championship trophy, a Nutrena Feed gift certificate and Cosequin bucket.

Queen has had the 12-year-old stallion for 10 years and over the years, they’ve formed a special bond, which reflected their abilities in the show pen during his run at the NRBC.

“I look out for him and he looks out for me,” Queen said. “My run felt really good. I know he can do those fast circles and I knew when we got in there we’re going to get them, and I know he can plant it in the ground when it’s time. So, we had a good time.”

In second place was Hannah Loverien riding Tom and Mandy McCutcheon’s That Kind Of Nite (Gunnars Special Nite x Doc Santa Belle) to a score of 142.5.

Youth Action – Van Duys/Reutimann Led the Pack!

Bo Van Duys

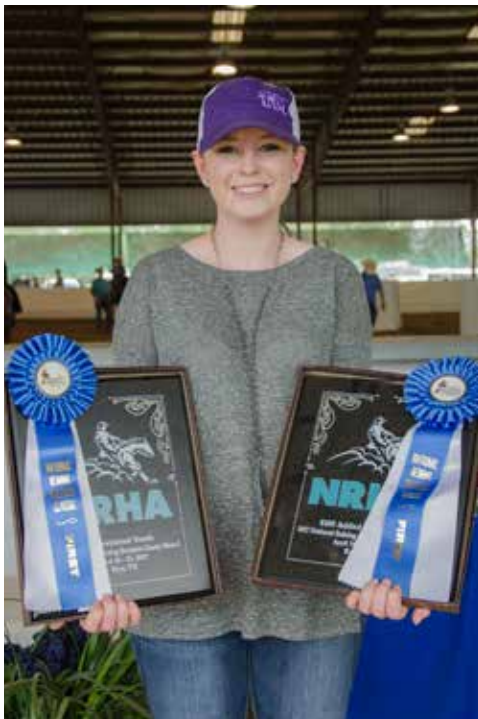

In youth action the kids of reining were turning in their own sharp maneuvers. Bo Van Duys riding Aim Your Pistol, and Emilia Reutimann riding Black Hails Gold, shared the win in the CRI Junior with scores of 69.5.

Aim Your Pistol is by Custom Pistol and out of Topnotch Melody and Black Hails Gold is by Shine Like Hail and out of Dun Its Black Gold.

Emilia Reutimann

Larcombe Tops Youth 14-18 Larcombe and Thayn Tie for Unrestricted Youth Win

McKinnon Larcombe

McKinnon Larcombe rode My Nu Mercedes Rox (Cromed Out Mercedes x Roxana Chex) to a score of 71.5 to win the Youth 14-18. She also split the win in the Unrestricted Youth and the American Quarter Horse Association Youth 18 & Under with Raeanna Thayn.

Raeanna Thayn

Larcombe took over the reins of My Nu Mercedes Rox from her mom about a year ago and has had a lot of success in the show pen. She's taken home wins at the Southwest Reining Horse Association as well as the Tulsa Reining Classic.

"I've been showing him here, there, everywhere and recently we were a 215 at the Derby in Tulsa, so that was a good confidence booster,” Larcombe said. “He showed really well today, he’s getting better and better and so am I showing him.”

Thayn has a special bond with her mount and a few of her favorite things are his mane and his heart. Thayn has already earned titles on him this week in the Limited Non Pro and hopes to continue her winning streak in other youth classes.

“He tries really hard,” Thayn said. “Our run was really good today and he stayed with me in the pen.”

Luca Fappani rode Custom Spook (Smart Spook x Custom Spinderella) to a score of 72 to top the Youth 13 & Under.

Madison Rafacz

Owen Deary

Rafacz and Deary Share Short Stirrup (1) Championship

Madison Rafacz and Owen Deary took top honors in the 10 & Under Short Stirrup, with scores of 71 and 70.5, respectively.

Rafacz rode Iboom (Boom Shernic x Bonitas Latin Chic) to the win in Saturday’s class. She received a National Reining Horse Association plaque and other prizes from Nutrena Feeds. Rafacz has a special bond with the 6-year-old stallion and even though he has his own special quirks, she says he did his best in the show pen.

“He’s a little goofy sometimes, but he was really good today,” she said. “Today was the first time I’ve shown him and I marked a 71. My favorite thing about him is that he can turn really big and he can stop really good if you ask him the right way.”

Deary rode Reeboks Rerun (Reeboks Kid x Worksman Fisty) and with his scores from yesterday’s short stirrup class, his combined points earned him the overall 10 & Under Short Stirrup Championship. He placed second in today’s class and received a prize bucket from Nutrena Feeds and a Gist Silversmith Championship Buckle for overall win. Deary says he can count on his equine partner to always do his best.

“He’s a really good horse and I really like him,” Deary said of his mount. “On this run I liked the stops the most and on my last one I liked my spins.”

Ribbons were also awarded to first through sixth place and each entry received Cosequin buckets.

Shauna Larcombe and Setting Off Smart Top Novice Horse Open Levels 1 and 2

In the ancillary action, Shauna Larcombe rode Setting Off Smart to a score of 73.5 to win the Novice Horse Open Levels 1 and 2. Setting Off Smart is a 6-year-old mare by Smart Spook and out of Setting Off Sparks. NRBC only served as the mare's second competitive show.

"She hasn't had a lot of showing yet, so I'm just trying her out to see how it's going," Larcombe "I was pretty happy [about her run], like I said I haven't done a whole lot of riding on her lately. So she's only been ridden the last couple of weeks properly, and then we came down here and each day she's gotten a little bit better. Today I thought I would see what she could do and she was really good for me."

Leclair Claims Novice Horse Open Level 1 Circuit Championship Tremblay Takes Novice Horse Open Level 2 Circuit Title

Jared Leclair

Jared Leclair rode The Dun Gun, who's by Gunner and out of Fabulous Footwork, to the high-point win in the Novice Horse Open Level 1. He also picked up second place in Level 1 and split second in the Level 2 with a score of 73.

"She's a really nice mare and shows really well. She's a big stopper and a big turner," Leclair said. "It's exciting [to win the high point], it's really cool and it's a great horse show and they give away great awards and I was happy to be a part of it."

Dany Tremblay rode Mistess Tempress (Mister Dual Pep x Colonel Pepinic) to the High-Point Novice Horse Open Level 2, for owners Brad and Amanda Kelly of Adh Mor Big Luck Ranch. In Saturday's action, Tremblay rode the 5-year-old mare to a score of 73 to tie for second with Leclair in the Level 2. Tremblay and Mistess Tempress have had a big week in Katy, Texas, and the mare has continued to show up and prove her worth for both her rider and owners.

"All of this is all about a team effort and I think we have such a good team going and that's why our week has been so successful," Brad Kelly said. "So, kudos to everyone involved with our team, back home in Canada and here as well."

Jeff Sizelove Rides Bit of Magnum to Green Reiner Levels 1 and 2 Championships

The Green Reiner Levels 1 and 2 Champion was Jeff Sizelove on Bit Of Magnum. Sizelove and “Chico” have only been partners for eight months, however he says the well-rounded equine athlete knows his job in the show pen.

“We call him ‘The Professor,’ because he knows what to do,” Sizelove said with a laugh. “It’s been a good journey here, an early journey, but it’s been great.”

Bit Of Magnum is a 2003 gelding by Magnum Chic Dream and out of Bitsy Bye Remedy and led Sizelove to a score of 71 in Saturday’s class. Sizelove thanked Cedar Ridge Ranch and Casey Hinton for all of the support.

Sandra Martin and Diamond Dappled Win Non Pro and Intermediate Non Pro

Michael and Sandra Martin with Diamond Dappled

To win the Non Pro and Intermediate Non Pro Ancillary Classes, Sandra Martin rode Diamond Dappled, who’s by Shining Spark and out of Sun Dappled, to a score of 146. Martin and her mount have been long-time partners and the win at the NRBC was extra special for the champ.

“I still can’t believe it,” Martin said of her win through tearful eyes. “To come here and win the class, I was hoping just to place well not even win with some of the people who were in the class.”

Gustin and Reutimann Lead the Youth Riders

Madison Gustin and Guns R Spooky

In the youth classes two tough riders dominated the competition. Madison Gustin took home multiple championships in the NRHA Youth 13 & Under, the NRBC Youth 13 & Under Classic Challenge, Unrestricted Youth, the American Quarter Horse Association Youth 18 & Under Reining and the USA Reining Youth 13 & Under. Emilia Reutimann was the other multiple champion of the youth classes taking home the championships in the NRHA Youth 14-18, the NRBC Youth 14-18 Classic Challenge and the USA Reining 14-18.

Gustin rode Guns R Spooky, who's by Smart Spook and out of Berry Yer Guns to mark a 145.5 for the win. She received an NRHA Trophy, Nutrena Feed gift certificate, Cosequin bucket and NRBC commemorative prizes for each championship. Gustin also took home the youth 13 & Under High-Point Championship, for which she received a Gist Silversmith trophy buckle.

The 7-year-old gelding has been in Gustin's hands for two years and the pair have won several championships together. Gustin says she will always remember the NRBC, because of the huge personal redemption.

"It's been so much, after coming back from falling off in our run yesterday, it was a lot of fun and we did so well," Gustin said. "This was our highest score ever and I am so proud of him."

Reutimann rode Black Hails Gold, who's by Shine Like Hail and out of Dun Its Black Gold, to the score of 145 for the wins. She received an NRHA Trophy, Nutrena Feed gift certificate, Cosequin bucket and NRBC commemorative prizes for each championship. Reutimann also took home the youth 14-18 high point championship, for which she received a Gist Silversmith trophy buckle.

Reutimann said although she and Black Hails Gold have only been partners for a short while they continue to improve in the show pen. She was proud of her mount for leading her to multiple wins, especially the high point award.

"I've only had him since October, so this is only my second show with him, so I was really happy with him. He was really honest with me and he was really good," Reutimann said. "He walked in and he was a little bit looky, which I was nervous about, but we got to the middle and he turned and circled really good. His first stop wasn't as good as I would have liked it to have been, but he stopped huge on the other two, so I was really happy."

Luca Fappani wins Curtis Burlin Perpetual Youth Award

Luca Fappani

Each year at the NRBC the highest-scoring competitor in the youth competition is awarded the Curtis Burlin Perpetual Youth Award. This year, Luca Fappani took home the honor.

Fappani rode the standout gelding, Custom Spook, who's by Smart Spook and out of Custom Spinderella to a score of 144.5 in today's Youth 13 & Under classes, combined with yesterday's winning score of 72 to win the honor. Custom Spook is owned by Rancho Oso Rio, and was under direction of his father, Andrea Fappani in his earlier career. Luca Fappani was lucky enough to be given the honor of exercising the gelding on his off days and as such has formed a special connection with the gelding, which made his transition to full time rider easy.

"I just started showing him this year... his owner, Pat Warren, rode him and showed him after my dad rode him in his derby years and then she didn't want to show him anymore, but she didn't want to sell him, so she let us lease him and I'm really thankful for that," Fappani said. "When Pat told me I could go show him I was really excited. He's really nice to ride. He's so quiet and just lopes around and he stops huge.

Jennifer Robinson Wins NRHA Open (2) on Snowy River Whiz

In the NRHA Open (2) Jennifer Robinson rode Snowy River Whiz to a score of 140.5 to win the class. She also took home the win in the USA Reining Open. Robinson was surprised about her win and although she says she had a great run she wasn't expecting it to hold. Robinson says it was a great honor to win.

"This is a really, really big venue to show at and for a Level 1 NRHA professional it's really excellent to be noticed here," Robinson said. "It was a great run and it was really fun. He's always a little bit weird and goofy in the warm up pen everyone thinks I'm crazy for showing him, but then he gets out there in the show pen and he really lays it down."

Robinson thanked Chris Hawkins for letting her ride the 2010 stallion by Topsail Whiz and out of Steadys Smart Gal.

Jennifer Robinson

Joe Schmidt Wins Intermediate Open

Joe Schmidt and Sally Berg

In the Intermediate Open, Joe Schmidt rode CBK A Nu Kinda Spark for owner, Terry Ranch, to a score of 146 for the win. The 2011 stallion, by Jacs Electric Spark and out of HR Wright On Cash, stepped up for Schmidt in the show pen, proving to have a bright future.

“It’s actually the first time I’ve showed him. In the Non Pro Julie Terry made the Level 1 Finals in the Non Pro derby on him. He’s a ginormous stopper and a pretty easy point-and-shoot,” Schmidt said. “He’s just a good minded horse. He’s 6, so he’ll finish out the derby years and I told Julie she’s got to keep this one, because he’s one of those ones that stops and everyone needs.”

Jessica Sternberg Tops Novice Horse Non Pro Level 1 Shares Level 2 Title with Stephanie Gripp

Jessica Sternberg and Lil Ruf Chrome

In the National Reining Horse Association Ancillary Classes, Jessica Sternberg had a big day in the Novice

Stephanie Gripp and Gunnors Glory Gun N For

Horse Non Pro Levels 1 and 2. She took home the Championship in Level 1 and shared the Co-Championship in Level

2 with Stephanie Gripp. Each marked a 145.5 for the wins.

Sternberg rode Lil Ruf Crome, who is by Custom Crome and out of Lil Ruf Sara. Sternberg has only shown the 4-year-old mare three times. Although they are a fairly new partnership, Sternberg awards the success to the mare's demeanor and training, as well as her great mind.

"The plan today was just to keep her smooth and quiet and just try to do everything nicely and she was honest and right there with me," Sternberg said. "[I feel] really, really lucky and excited going forward as well."

Sternberg pocketed $277 in the Level 1 and she and Gripp each earned $526 in the Level 2.

Gripp rode Gunners Glory Gun N For, who's by Colonels Smoking Gun and out of Dun It Fir Chex and Gripp said they redeemed their earlier performance in the Non Pro pulling through to win the championship honors, plus an NRHA trophy, Nutrena Feed gift certificate and other prizes.

"We decided to enter the Novice Horse and she was great today, she's a big turner and big stopper," Gripp said. "I'm so excited about the win. I really, really wanted the win and the horse was just perfect. We worked a lot on me these past few days instead of the horse and it feels great [to redeem myself]."

Each champion received an NRHA trophy, plus the cash.

Jerry Davis and Hot Coded Shine Earns Novice Horse Non Pro L1 High Point Gist Buckle

Jerry Davis rode Hot Coded Shine (Shine Chic Shine x Hot Coded Candy) to a score of 136, which combined with his Wednesday's score of 141.5 earned him the Novice Horse Non Pro Level 1 high-point buckle.

"It was really good," Davis said of his week at NRBC. "This is my third year here at the NRBC, but the first time I've ever placed here."

Jerry Davis

Jennifer Anderson and Ruf Hearted Jac Top Rookie Level 1 Anne Roy Shares Rookie Level 2 Title

In the Rookie Level 1, Jennifer Anderson rode Ruf Hearted Jac to a score of 143.5 to top the field. Ruf Hearted Jac is by Lil Ruf Peppy and out of Miss Jac Of Hearts and is one of Anderson's favorite horses to ride.

"He's so honest and so easy to ride," Anderson said. "He did awesome, I couldn't have asked for a better run today. This is what I came for, because it was a qualifier and my plan [was to qualify] and today it worked."

Anderson also shared the Co-Championship in the Rookie Level 2 with Anne Roy, who rode Cee Another Wimpy. The 9-year-old gelding has been with Roy for two years and she says she's learned a lot from him.

"My run today was good, he knows when he gets in the show pen that it's show time, which helps my confidence as a rookie," Roy said. "We decided we weren't going to hold anything back and really let him go and I did and it was a lot of fun."

Roy thanked Steve and Andrea Archer.

James Belden Wins Rookie Prime Time Championship Kristen Dunn Tops Green Level 1 & 2 Championships

James Belden and Dun Git a Nicadual

Kristen Dunn and Comanders Shiney Nic

James Belden rode Dun Git A Nicadual (Mister Nicadual x Gotta Git Ya Dun) to a score of 142.5 for the Rookie Prime Time Championship. Through tearful eyes, the 77-year-old rider says he's a lifetime horse owner and this horse was his once-in-a-lifetime mount.

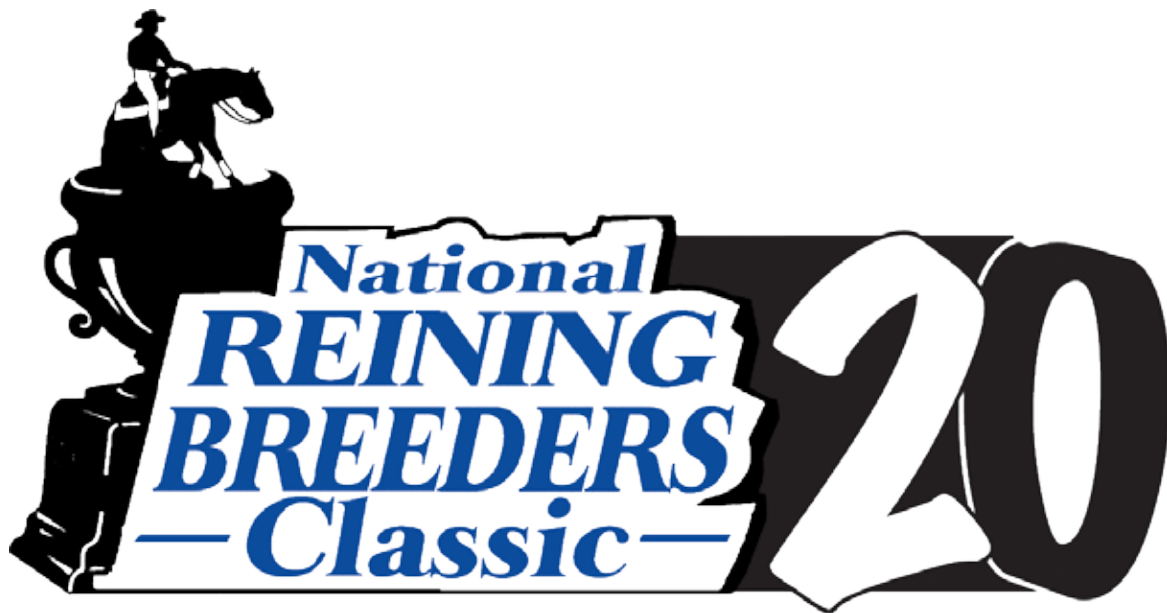

Kristen Dunn rode Commanders Shiney Nic (Commanders Nic x Shine On Tejon) to the Green Level 1 and 2 Championships, plus finished the week as the High-Point Champion. The 6-year-old gelding has only been with Dunn for a little over a year and the two formed an instant connection.

“I was fortunate enough to buy him from, my trainer, Mark (Rafacz), because Mark already knew everything about him and he was able to teach me everything about [Commanders Shiney Nic] and how he likes to be asked. He definitely knows his job and it’s been a learning process for me to get together and learn how to ride him,” Dunn said. “I feel really good about the win. I’m excited that we had a good ride and he was really good and I’m definitely excited to be out here at the NRBC, because it’s a really good show and we’ve enjoyed being out here.”

For her winning runs she received two NRHA plaques, NRBC overreach boots and a total of $103.

CHEFS DE MISSION MEETING BRINGS TOGETHER TOP NATIONAL FEDERATIONS IN PREPARATION FOR THE FEI WORLD EQUESTRIAN GAMES 2018

In preparation for the FEI World Equestrian Games Tryon 2018 (FEI WEG), Tryon International Equestrian Center (TIEC) held the first Chefs de Mission meeting from Monday, April 30, through Wednesday, May 3, welcoming organizational leaders of National Equestrian Federations from around the world to the venue, as preparations for the Games continue.

Leaders from fifteen National Federations attended the meeting to discuss event logistics, travel, hospitality, lodging, and sport with the event's Organizing Committee, comprised of both the TIEC leadership and key members of the Fédération Equestre Internationale (FEI).

“It is such an honor to host the FEI World Equestrian Games™ Tryon 2018 here at this facility and this week really brought it home as we had our first official meeting of the Chefs de Mission on-site,” said Sharon Decker, Chief Operating Officer and member of the Organizing Committee. “We have a lot of work to do over the course of the next eighteen months and an amazing team to do it. We are incredibly excited for this opportunity and we are pleased with what we accomplished this week.”

Michael Stone, President of the Organizing Committee added, “The meeting was a great success and the response from both the Chefs and the FEI Discipline Directors was very positive. We have a lot of work to do, but I am confident that with such great support, we will deliver the best Games yet.”

Representatives were delighted with their introductory experience at TIEC and commented on the vastness and convenience the facility offers to athletes, officials, and spectators.

“This is a great venue. It’s very big and it’s something that we don’t see often. Everything can be put in one single location,” said Wendy Laeremans representing Belgium. “The plans are that all of the disciplines will be in the same location and for us, as a federation, it’s very good. It makes the logistics much simpler for us and our athletes.”

Cheryl Magoteaux Cody, Reining Discipline Manager for the Games, agreed. “It’s certainly an honor to be part of this tremendous and important equine event. The Tryon International Equestrian Center is so impressive and the construction of the arena that will be used for both reining and vaulting is well underway. It’s exciting to have this special arena – which will be 83 meters by 42 meters (approximately 272 ft.X 137ft.) and seat 5,000.”

Members of the National Federations for participating nations arrived at the venue on Monday and spent their two-and-a-half day stay discussing imperative details surrounding the success of the event, which will span two weeks in September 2018, beginning Tuesday, Sept. 11, and continuing through Sunday, Sept. 23.

“It’s a puzzle that we’re just beginning to fill in the pieces together,” said Evelyn Niklaus representing Switzerland. “It’s the FEI, the other National Federation leaders and the Organizing Committee who help to provide the information to us so that we can begin making decisions and reviewing our budgets, which is very important. This was a very informative week and we’re excited to begin this process.”

Federation members were given the opportunity to ask detailed questions regarding the process of equine importation and exportation, travel, lodging, and competition logistics. They also spent time experiencing and exploring the amenities of Tryon Resort, as well as the Blue Ridge Mountains region, which will welcome more than 500,000 spectators throughout the duration of the two-week event in 2018.

“There is a challenge with this event, both as an organizer and for our riders, because they typically travel as equestrian businessmen and women with several horses during the year. Then, when they come to championships, they have a week with only one horse. They get bored quite easily and we have to keep them happy, occupied, and busy,” said Andre Shopmann of Germany. “This location has so many great activities, like the clay shooting and golfing, that it will be a very fun experience for our teams, riders, and staff.”

JOSH TISHMAN AND OTTIS WAGNER WIN NRBC DOUBLE TIME AWARDS

The board of the National Reining Breeders Classic has done their best to grant recognition and distinction to as many of their hard-working competitors as they can. At the 2017 NRBC, such recognition was earned by Open rider, Josh Tishman and Non Pro rider, Ottis Wagner who received the Double Time Award and the $1000 check that goes with it.

Open rider Josh Tishman and Chics Love Me Wimpy (Wimpys Little Step x Dream About Magic), owned by DAG Ventures won the Double Time Award with a total of 42 points. They earned 9 points for their second place win in the Intermediate Open on Tuesday, 10 points for winning the Limited Open, and 8 points for winning the Rookie Pro class. They came back on Thursday to win both the Limited Open and the Rookie Pro classes and racking up a combined total of 15 points.

The Non Pro Double Time Award winner, Ottis Wagner, rode two horses at NRBC. Double Down Gun is by Colonels Smokin Gun and out of Wimpys Double Step, and Wimpys Bambino is by Wimpys Little Step and out of Ms Rowdy Pines. Double Down Gun earned 47.5 points for multiple placings in Green Reiner Level 1 and 2 classes, and Rookie Level 1, 2, and Prime Time classes. Wimpy's Bambino tipped the scale with 14.5 points. Wagner's two horses earned him a total of 62 points and the Double Time Award.

Non Pro and Open Double Time Awards are given to the high point horses and riders that participate in both slates of NRHA classes held during the Classic. A point system is used to calculate the points, with 10 points for first place, 9 for second, and so on, in each class. The awards were created in 2002 to recognize the ancillary class participants.

OQHA ANNOUNCES NEW LOCATION, EXPANSION

The Ohio Quarter Horse Association (OQHA), host of the All American Quarter Horse Congress, has announced plans to relocate its headquarters from Richwood, Ohio to Columbus, Ohio.

“For many years we have recognized the importance of having OQHA closer to central Ohio,” said Dr. Scott Myers, OQHA CEO. “The new headquarters will support the continued growth of OQHA and the All American Quarter Horse Congress.”

The relocation will occur later this year following a complete renovation of the 26,000 square foot office building at 6325 Zumstein Drive. The close proximity of the new office to the Ohio Expo Center where the All American Quarter Horse Congress is held will allow OQHA and the All American Quarter Horse Congress staff to provide greater service to Congress patrons, sponsors and exhibitors.

The month-long All American Quarter Horse Congress is the world's largest single-breed horse show, with 23,500 entries in 2016. The show attracts more than 650,000 people and generates $285 million in the central Ohio economy each October.

“The association has been considering the move for more than two years,” Dr. Myers said. “It was not a decision made lightly, but one we feel will help us continue the legacy of this great association which started 56 years ago in Richwood.”

OQHA is committed to setting the standard in the equine industry by engaging equine enthusiasts through world-class competition, recreational activities, education and engagement of the next generation of participants and industry leaders.

NRHA'S NEWEST MILLION DOLLAR SIRE HOLLYWOODSTINSELTOWN SHINES BRIGHTER THAN HOLLYWOOD

The National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) announced its newest unofficial earner of the Million Dollar Sire milestone, Hollywoodstinseltown. The 2004 AQHA Palomino stallion, owned and bred by David Silva, Sr. joined this elite club after his offspring's great success at the 2017 National Reining Breeder's Classic (NRBC). Together, Hollywoodstinseltown's offspring unofficially earned over $52,000 throughout the event.

Hollywoodstinseltown is by NRHA Hall of Fame Inductee and Six Million Dollar Sire Hollywood Dun It and out of NRHA Hall of Fame Inductee Miss Tinseltown. His success isn't limited just to the breeding shed; Hollywoodstinseltown earned over $185,800 NRHA lifetime earnings during his show career.

The flashy palomino's accomplishments include: 2007 NRHA Futurity Open Prime Time Champion and Open Level 4 finalist with NRHA Hall of Fame Inductee and Three Million Dollar Rider Tim McQuay; 2008 NRBC Open Level 4 Finalist with Tim McQuay; 2009 NRBC Open Level 3 Champion and 2009 NRHA Derby Open Level 4 Reserve Champion and Level 3 Open Champion with Marco Ricotta; 2010 NRBC Level 4 Open Finalist with March Ricotta; 2010 Alltech FEI World Equestrian Games™ Team Competition Gold medalist and Individual Competition fourth place.

Hollywoodstinseltown's highest money-earning progeny include:

Tinseltown Fly Guy (out of Fly Flashy Jac):

NRHA LTE over $249,300

Smokinghot Hollywood (out of Smoking Rose):

NRHA LTE over $79,300

Tinseltown Flash (out of Billie Gun Flash):

NRHA LTE over $57,100

Missedouttinseltown (out of Miss Sliding Peppy):

NRHA LTE over $30,800

Woodys Toy Gun (out of Gunners Pearl):

NRHA LTE over $29,500

David Silva was excited about the milestone for Hollywoodstinseltown and was quick to credit others for his success.

"We thank everyone who has chosen to breed to Hollywoodstinseltown and we are also very appreciative of the McQuays and the staff at McQuay Stables for their guidance and insight," Silva said. "We look forward to seeing what the future holds for Hollywoodstinseltown."

Founded in 1966, the National Reining Horse Association is a nonprofit association dedicated to promoting and encouraging the development of and public interest in the sport of reining. The focus is on developing and maintaining suitable standards of performance and judging and in providing a fun filled, family-oriented atmosphere.

CASEY HINTON RIDES GUARANTEED A MAGNUM TO NRBC DEVELOPMENT DIVISION WIN

Casey Hinton enjoyed added benefits at the NRBC as he rode Guaranteed A Magnum to mark a 219 and win the Development Division of the Classic. Guaranteed A Magnum is by Magnum With A Dream, and out of Guaranteed By Amos. Casey and his wife, Kathy, own the 4-year-old bay stallion.

The Development Division was debuted in 2016 for Open Classic entries that for one reason or another were not quite ready to be competitive earlier in their careers. Open classic entries that had not won $2,000 by March 31, 2017 were eligible. Competition was tough with 47 entries in this $10,000-added division and Hinton pocketed $8,600 for the title!

“I showed him at Congress and at the Futurity. We didn’t feel together enough there as I’ve only owned him since September. I really liked the way he felt [at NRBC], and I feel like we are coming together now.” Casey said of Guaranteed A Magnum. “We are going to start working toward the Derby, and I feel like we are going to keep improving, and he will begin to show his true talents. He is a good show horse.”

Sebastian Petroll slid into second scoring a 217.5 to earn $6,829 aboard Chexy Gun (Colonels Smoking Gun x Chexy Dun It) owned by Lisa Byrne Klaus.

Patrice St Onge riding Wimps Chickee (Wimpys Little Step x Aleena Starlight) and Yonathan Baruch on Saras Special Nite (Gunners Special Nite x Sara Goes Hollywood) tied for third place, each taking $3,794 for the purse. Wimps Chickee is owned by Cache Performance Horses, and Saras Special Nite is owned by Randy Shepherd.

ADEQUAN® SELECT WORLD REMAINS IN AMARILLO

Last winter, the American Quarter Horse Association solicited host-site bids for the 2018 AQHA Select World Championship Show, presented by Adequan® (polysulfated glycosaminoglycan). After carefully reviewing the submitted bids, the AQHA Executive Committee has made the decision to keep the 2018 Adequan® Select World at the Tri-State Fairgrounds in Amarillo.

“The Association is committed to meeting the needs of its valued members,” said Pete Kyle, AQHA Chief Show Officer. “The Association, City of Amarillo and Tri-State Fairgrounds have had a great working partnership and economically beneficial relationship over the years. With this new contract, the city and fairgrounds will continue to make improvements to meet the needs of this world-class event.”

Kyle continued, “It is important to us to make changes that our exhibitors want, for example, updating the show schedule in 2017. We will continue to evaluate the schedule, facility, location and several other factors in the future to enhance the show and the competitors’ experience.”

The Adequan® Select World is the world’s largest, single-breed world championship horse show open exclusively to amateur exhibitors age 50 and over. This is the pinnacle event for Select amateur competitors around the world who must qualify for the event by earning a predetermined number of points to secure a spot in each of the classes, representing English, Western and Halter disciplines. Amarillo has been home to the Select World since 2003. For more information on the Adequan® Select World, visit www.aqha.com/selectworld.

Adequan®, the official equine joint therapy of AQHA, is a proud sponsor of the Adequan® Select World. When you choose a joint therapy for your horses, choose Adequan®.

Founded in 1940, the American Quarter Horse Association is the largest equine breed organization in the world. With headquarters in Amarillo, AQHA has a membership of more than 250,000 people in 86 countries and has registered more than 5 million horses in 95 countries.

HORSE TRAINING CHALLENGE OFFERS $10,000 IN PRIZE MONEY

Bluebonnet Equine Humane Society is now accepting entries for the Bluebonnet Rescue Horse Training Challenge.

The Bluebonnet Rescue Horse Training Challenge is a competition in which amateur horsemen and horsewomen and professional trainers work with a Bluebonnet Equine Humane Society foster horse for four months (horse pickup starts June 1st) and compete in the Challenge at the 2017

Bluebonnet Horse Expo on Oct. 21, 2017 in Austin, Texas.

Bluebonnet Equine Humane Society Executive Director Jennifer Williams says, “This is such an important part of our mission with Bluebonnet. It is a chance to show the public what rescue horses can do and helps many of our horses find adopters.”

The goals of the Challenge are to:

- Introduce the public to talented rescue horses
- Showcase the training abilities of Bluebonnet amateur and professional horsemen and horsewomen
- Produce horses who are ready to go to work for their adopters

This year's event includes the following divisions: Professional Trainer, Foster Horse Needs Finishing (under saddle), and Foster Horse in Hand, and Youth in Hand (ages 12-17). The Foster Horse classes will be open to amateur horsemen and horsewomen and to approved youth riders/handlers.

Horse/handler teams will compete over obstacles and in a freestyle competition on Oct. 21 in Austin, Texas. All horses will be offered for adoption to pre-approved adopters that day.

This year the Bluebonnet Rescue Horse Challenge has a new coordinator, Jennifer Matthews Williams. She's excited to be working with the great trainers and amateurs who will compete in the Challenge and help these awesome horses find new homes.

"There is a myth that rescue horses are not of good quality. That is just not true. Many of the BEHS horses I've seen compete in previous BEHS Challenges have gone on to successfully compete in eventing, dressage, western performance, competitive trail, and more. I'm excited to help make this happen for more horses!"

For more information, please contact Bluebonnet Equine Humane Society at (888) 542 5163 or info@bluebonnethorseexpo.com.

AMERICANA 2017 OFFERS NEW WARM UP AREAS FOR PARTICIPANTS

For an optimal preparation of the horses, AMERICANA 2017 offers new warm up areas now. An indoor warm up arena of 30 x 50 m (without columns!) will be built close to the show arena. For the cuttings, there will be a 15 x 45 m tent. And of course, there will be a covered round pen in Hall 4. After the evening shows, participants will have the opportunity to prepare their horses in the main show arena. Entry forms will be published shortly on www.americana.de

At AMERICANA, every western fan should find the right thing for himself / herself and his / her horse. The huge versatility of western horses and western riding will be presented here at international top level. Europe's premier western event is unique for riders. Where else have they got the chance of showing their horses in front of 5,000 visitors? But sports are only one part of this unique event. With 370 exhibitors and more than 50,000 visitors altogether in 2015, AMERICANA offers the biggest fair in western and leisure riding plus lots of shows and entertainment.

Tickets for the evening shows as well as for day time visits can be booked online at www.americana.de. Tickets for the Friday and Saturday Night Shows include the admission to the fairground sand show arena during the day as well. For those who don't want to miss anything, a whole show pass might be the right option.
