Andrea Fappani steering All American Vintage All American Congress Champions

ALL AMERICAN VINTAGE WINS THE ALL AMERICAN CONGRESS

The National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) Congress Reining Futurity on October 7 filled the stands with promises to watch some of the best 3-year-olds in the industry – and the show did not disappoint. Top-notch riders from across the country maneuvered NRHA Pattern 5 and with 38 in the draw, the competition was steep.

As the second leading Reining Futurity, the Saturday night event garnered more than $140,000 in added money sponsored by the Friends of the Congress Reining.

The stakes were high. The exhibitors and horses continued to up the challenge throughout the night. Andrea Fappani and All American Vintage (A Sparkling Vintage x All Ruffed Up) ran 12th in the draw scoring a 232.5, ultimately being named the NRHA Congress Reining Futurity Champion and winning $29,955.75.

Owner, Morris Kulmer, described his wife and his feelings as, "simply elated", as reality replaced their earlier nerves.

"I went to the draw party and [drew number 12], and felt bad about it," said Morris. "But Andrea told me not to worry about it, and then went out there and [won]."

He smiled as he continued, "We had people sitting next to us who didn't know who we were and said that the lights should be turned out after his run."

The Kulmers bought Vintage as a two-year-old and trusted Andrea's wisdom with horses when the horse was deemed a "good one" by the renowned trainer.

The Congress win marks the second win for Vintage after he won the prestigious Tulsa Reining Classic Futurity Level 4 with a score of 224 in September.

"I keep pinching myself," said Morris. "God has been so good to us – better than we deserve. And this horse, it was almost like destiny. With a name like All American Vintage, why shouldn't he win the All American Quarter Horse Congress?"

Shawn Flarida and Missin My Tinsel owned by Garry Ray Smith were named Reserve Congress Champions earning $18, 233.94.

Dean Brown and Dun It With A Blond won the Level 3 Futurity Congress Championship with a 226. Bob Santagata of Campbell Hall, New York owns Dun It With A Blond. The horse and rider team held fast to the top all the way from the preliminaries where they won in the Level 3 and tied for the lead in the Level 4.

Peter De Freitas of Leland, North Carolina rode Conquistadors Dun It to the Level 3 Reserve Congress Championship garnering $7013.78.

Sam Schaffhauser and The Last Smoking Gun owned by Chris Sullivan won the Level 2 Reining Futurity Congress Championship earning $2,985.00.

Sam said that this is only second time that he has shown

Colic affects horses of every breed, age, and discipline. At SmartPak, we're on a mission to support healthy horses and happy riders, and that's why we created ColiCare.

this horse, and the only the first time that he has shown him one-handed. He said, "[The Last Smoking Gun] was right there for everything. Everything went really smooth and the way it's supposed to go. He was right there for me when I needed him."

Jordan "Kole" Price and Checksworthy owned by Terry Leffew earned $1,816.98 as they were named the Level 2 Reserve Congress Champion.

Garth Brown of Gainesville. TX tied himself on two different horses for the win in the Open Prime Time Futurity Championship and Reserve Championship. The horses were a mare named Tinseltowns Dollface (Hollywoodstinseltown x Gunners Doll Face) and a stallion named Gunner Smart (Colonels Smoking Gun x Smart Starfish). Both horses are owned by Domingo Alvarago of Monterey, Mexico and earned scores of 218. Garth pocketed $1,161 for the wins.

Garth said, "[Domingo Alvarago] bought Tinseltowns Dollface in the Gunner Smart is a stud that Domingo raised himself there in Monterey, Mexico. He is a very, VERY, very talented horse. I had a soft little run with him, and he gave me a very nice, smooth run. Both horses made it back to the Open finals for me so I was really happy."

> Preliminaries for the event were held Wednesday, October 4 and finalists were invited to a draw party sponsored by NRHA on October 5.

Before the Futurity Finals began, the Congress, Friends of the Congress Reining, and NRHA congratulated the Platinum Performance U.S Junior Reining Team, Emilia Reutimann, Emma Lane, and Sam Flarida for their World Reining Championship silver medal, and to Gabriella Kammerer for placing 7th in the individual finals.

Fred Win USA Para Reining National Champion

FRED WIN CROWNED 2017 USA PARA REINING NATIONAL CHAMPION

Columbus, OH - For the first time, the OQHA All American Quarter Horse Congress hosted the USA Para Reining National Championships drawing riders who qualified from six states. Grade 4 rider Fred Win's smooth run on Smokin Lil Mercedez earned the highest score to clinch the championship.

Win has been an early and ardent supporter of para reining believing that sports and especially horsepower are positive equalizers that puts the focus squarely on ability while raising the competitive bar.

As a busy attorney in NJ, Win credits his reining family at Santahillranch.com for their ongoing support. "I can't thank my amazing coach Dean Brown enough, all the sponsors and especially, Bob and Arlene Santagata for letting me lease and show one of their best horses," he says.

Close on Win's heels, fellow Grade 4 rider Beth Kelley took the 2017 National Reserve Champion honors riding Czgunnacashbigchez owned by Mike Yaple.

Flying in from California in a wheelchair solo is not easy, but Kelley said her reunion catch riding the palomino made the trip memorable. "Soup gave me everything I asked for, what a special horse. Also, a tremendous thank you to his generous owner and to Jen and Tom Hoyt's for all their help and coaching."

Flanagan from SC, worked with trainer Steve Kutie of Kutie Performance Horses in TX to prep her new mare, Smart Zone, for the event after showing at the Western Dressage World Show in Okla. just the week prior.

Kutie says he's impressed by the attitude among para reiners. "The riders and trainers I have had the chance to work with have a drive and determination not just to compete but to win. The focus is on talent and ability."

Flanagan from SC, worked with trainer Steve Kutie of Kutie aims to give a wide variety of athletes more opportunities Performance Horses in TX to prep her new mare, Smart for serious competition.

Hoyt also hopes to reach out specifically to American Vets. "I believe that para reining is a perfect fit for our disabled vets who want to experience the thrill of equestrian sport."

Alongside the AQHA's tradition of promoting inclusive sport, and the NRHA's early support, USA Para Reining's goal is to build awareness and develop the discipline for more riders to experience the adrenaline partnership in riding a reining horse at both national and eventually, FEI levels. For more info: usareining.us

Lidia Pedrozo on Nite Time Chic Rookie Reining Champions

THE CONGRESS BEGAN WITH SPECIAL WINS

The beginning days of the Congress are special for anyone in attendance. The air gets cooler while exhibitors and spectators alike begin to experience that unmistakable feeling because – the Congress is here.

For one cowgirl/mare team, the 2017 Congress was marked as a lifelong memorable event. As the reining events took off, these two athletes were named Congress Champions for the first time.

Lidia Pedrozo and Tania Powell met five years ago in at the Columbus Airport when Lidia, an Ohio State Equestrian team member was asked to pick up Tania and take her to the All American Quarter Horse Congress.

Five years later, Lidia walked out of the Celeste Arena a Congress Champion in the Rookie Reining riding Tania's horse, Nite Time Chic (Gunners Special Nite x Pocita Senorita), also known as Julep. Lidia leased Julep from Tania earlier this year and has only ridden the mare for the past month. Under the guidance of Robin Schoeller, Lidia and Julep hit it off.

As they traveled to the Congress, Lidia admits, "The goal was to make the Top Ten. But, I guess, that's really everyone's goal."

Tania was able to travel from her home in Australia to watch the pair compete.

"Lidia's like a daughter to me," explained Tania.

Julep, a 5-year-old mare, surprised both Lidia and Tania. Tania explained that she has owned the mare since her 2-year-old year and although she missed her Futurity year in the show pen, maturity has aided in the mare's success. However, earlier this year, the mare was diagnosed with EPM and Tania was not for sure if the mare would be able to show. Tania never expected that less than two months later, the mare would become a Champion and earn over $316 for it.

"I'm completely over the moon," exclaimed Tania. "I couldn't ask for this mare to be any better. Bring on next year!"

For Lidia, her win means everything.

"I never started showing horses until I got to college. So to start from a beginner rider trotting around to getting into the sport and making friends and now to be a Congress Champion – it's surreal."

Brittany Ray was named a Reserve Congress Champion after she rode Skeets Nifty to a score of 213.5. She earned $193 for the win.

In the Senior Reining, Robin Schoeller of Ringgold,

GA rode Wimpy Kaweah (Wimpys Little Step x Lil Ruf Remi) to the win and the $400 purse. The six year old son of (Gallo Del Cielo x Shining Little Angel) to the Reserve Wimpys Little Step is owned by Julie Elizabeth Henderson. championship and the $350 check with a score of 220.

horse. He said, "He is so easy to show. My greatest challenge with him, probably, was learning that he shows better than he rides at home. He sometimes has problems that we have to work on at home, but when we get to the show, he is always ready. He is very easy to get along with and is a super good horse."

Robin added, "I showed him at the Woosley Derby in July and won it, and he was third at the Buckeye Derby there in Arizona. This is about his fourth show."

Dany Tremblay on Magnums Guns R Reddy Novice Horse Open Level 1 Champions

TREMBLAY DOMINATES IN THE NOVICE HORSE OPEN AT CONGRESS

Dany Tremblay of St-Hy-acinthe, Quebec took it all in the Novice Horse Open Classes at Congress. In the Level 2, he won on Misters Temptress (Mister Dual Pep x Colonel Pepinic), a 5 year-old black mare owned by Adh Mor Big Luck Ranch, which also owns the emerging super-star stallion, PS Mega Shine Chic, better known as "Crush."

Dany shared that he is competing for the World Title

Novice Horse
in the Novice Horse Level 2 and he believes that this win will put her back in the lead for it. He added, "She has won many Novice horse shows this year. I've showed her maybe 10 times this year, and she has always scored really high. I'd love to win the World in the Novice Horse [with her]."

Dany also won the Level 1 Novice horse on the first horse he showed that day, Magnums Guns R Reddy (Magnum Chic Dream x Guns R Reddy) owned by Ruth Hamlin.

Dany said of the 5 year old mare, "She has such a great mind and the biggest heart that a horse can have. She is always such a good show horse, and she came in and did what she could do one more time!"

Dany also thanked this mare's owner for all the success that the duo have enjoyed in the show pen this year including Level 4 Open Finalists at NRBC, L4 Open Finalists at the NRHA Derby, a L3 NRHA Derby Champions, and they also won the L3 Open Derby at the High Roller Reining Classic in September.

Dany pocketed over $1,700 for the wins.

Brandon Brant won the Level 1 and Level 2 Reserve Championships riding Frank Costantini's horse, Dual Reality (Mister Nicadual x Snip O Chex) to score a 221.5 and win the $277 purse.

In the Novice Horse Non Pro action, Leslie "Indy" Roper took top honors riding Skeet Shooting Spook, a six year-old gelding by Smart Spook and out of Snappy Skeet.

Indy said, "He has a unique story. We bought [Skeet Shooting Spook] out of the Futurity sale when he was a the trailer, Mom said that she didn't know that we went to buy a pony. He was really little. Watching him progress has been really cool. He's a show horse. He has a lot of grit; a lot of heart. He wants to win as much as I do."

Indy says that he will stay in the family indefinitely now. Her dad plans to use him as a Rookie horse, and she has twin nieces who a fighting for him to be their Short Stirrup horse when they are old enough. He earned $940 for Indy with this win.

Shannon Dudley was named Level 2 Novice Horse Non Pro Reserve Congress Champion after she scored a 215.5 riding Tullula Can Hula (Skeets Peppy x Top Spin Jaci). Shannon received $456 for the win.

Aubrey Galbraith took the Level 1 Novice Horse Non Pro Championship aboard Cortez Conquistador (Con-quistador Whiz x Magnum Done It) with the odds stacked against her.

Aubrey explained, "I was awake for 36 hours that day, and I was exhausted. I was draw number 2 out of 131 horses. I didn't really think that the lead would hold till the end. He was just so good because the less pressure I put on myself, the better he does. And that's what he did. He just went out there and took care of me."

She went on, "Cortez has probably been the coolest horse that I've ever been able to ride. His bloodline includes stubbornness. With Cortez, I have to be careful with the buttons that I push. He can get kind of annoyed. We have a really cool bond that I've never had with another horse. He is just so calm when we go into the show pen, and he trusts me and I trust him. I feel so blessed to have him."

Aubrey and "Cortez" earned $402 for the win.

Valerie Fites-Sturgeon on Shiney Juice Green Reiner Level 2 Champions

Nadine Galbraith rode Gotta Good Gun (Spooks Gotta Gun x Holly Golly Miss) to the Reserve Championship with a score of 215.5. She earned $321 for the title.

In the Level 1 Amateur Reining competition held on the same day, Shannon Dudley rode her mare, Tullula Can Hula (Skeets Peppy x Top Spin Jaci) to the win and pocketed $200.

Shannon said of the 5 year-old mare, "My dad bought her when she was a baby and then sold her. We got her back when she was 4. I tried her at the first horse show I'd been back to after 5 years out of the show pen and I just loved her. That was five years ago. We were both green reiners. We didn't have any earnings, either of us. I just loved her, and I bought her. I've been showing her ever since. She has since earned loads of medals {awards}. Every year, she just gets a little better and better. Our plan is to retire her after this year and let her be a good broodmare for us. She really does love to be a show horse though. When the trailer is being loaded, she is there at the gate begging to go show."

Emily Coultrap won Reserve honors on Pale Of Gold (Pale Face Dunnit x Sailors Starbuck) with a score of 211.5. Emily pocketed $180 for the win.

Valerie L Fites-Sturgeon overcame her fears to win the Green Reiner Level 2 on the 9 year-old Palomino gelding Shiney Juice (Smart Like Juice x Wind Her Up Shiner) and pocketed the $535.

In Valerie's own words, "I almost didn't show because I was draw 4 out 131 riders. I was thinking that it wasn't a good draw, and I haven't been doing the reining very much. I show in Hunter Jumper, and this is just kind of our older horse. When we go to Shawn {Flarida}'s and my son rides, I just ride with him so both horses are getting worked. I was going to show one handed, because I felt like that might give me some bonus points, but I decided to go two handed because of the run in at that beginning. I'm glad I did now because I felt a lot more comfortable.

Logan Kendal took Reserve after he rode Gotta Magnum Dream (Dun It Gotta Gun x Magnums Enterprise) to score a 212 and earned the $327 check.

arenas with high scores.

With a score of 220.5, Emma Lane from Gates, North Carolina skyrocketed to the top of the 14-18 class to secure the Congress Championship title. The 14-year-old made her presence known in her first year in the age division. She is no stranger to the Congress Championship, as she was named the 2016 13 & Under Reining Champion at the 50th Anniversary show last year. She described her feelings after winning her consecutive title as "exciting!"

Her dad, who is her trainer/coach, was just as excited and proud of his daughter although he could not be present at the eats everything." show since he is a working farmer in the middle of harvest season. He was just a phone call away for Lane though.

"My dad has taught me everything," she said. "I definitely couldn't do it without him."

She rode her gelding, 9-year-old Gunner Gump (Colonels Smoking Gun x Little Patrasha Gump), also known as Grump.

"I knew there were going to be a lot of good horses here

The success continued as the youth dominated the Reining this year in the older division, so I was not expecting to win," said Lane. "However, Grump, was really good and it definitely paid off."

> In the 13 & Under Reining, 10-year-old Madison Rafacz from Citra, Florida dominated. Named the 13 & Under Champion this year, Madison won the NRHA Short Stirrup in 2015 and 2017 marks the fifth time she has shown at the Congress.

Rafacz is confident beyond her years and was really proud of her horse, 17-year-old, Better Not Rest (Custom Crome x Rest Stop). Rafacz calls him Cookie Monster "because he

She said "He did really well in our pattern. He stops really good, you just have to ask him the right way." In addition to showing, Racfacz's favorite part of the Congress is shopping, specifically for Brever Horses and rhinestone show vests.

The future of the Congress and the future of the horse show industry looks bright with young women like Lane and Rafacz taking charge both in and out of the arena.

LEEMAN REIGNS IN THE NON PRO STAKES

Katsy Leeman of Massillon, OH rode her trusty steed Odds In My Favour (A Shiner Named Sioux x Who Whiz Baby Blue) to the win in both the Level 4 and Level 3 Non Pro Stakes Championships at the All American Quarter Horse Congress with a score of 218.5.

Katsy was one proud rider as she said, "She really loves to show. She walked out with her head down, and kept her ears up. She looked at the judges and then looked around at the crowd. She circled good and stopped good, but she loves to spin. My trainer told me not to turn her really hard, but she really loves to spin so she went out there and spun her hardest even though I wasn't really asking for that much. She nailed all her stops, even though I don't probably practice those as much as I should, but she went out and plus half-ed all of them as if she has been doing it all along."

Terri-June Granger led the Level 2 in the Non Pro Stakes and took Reserve honors in both the Level 3 and Level 4 riding a new horse named Gunnin For The Gold (Pale Face Dunnit x Gorgeous Like A Star). Terry just bought the three year old gelding in August this year.

She said, "I've only been on him five times before I showed him, and that is including practicing here at Congress. It went really well. [Gunnin For The Gold] was really good for me. This is only his second show, and Congress is a really hypedup show, so I was really pleased with how calm he was in the show pen. He stayed very focused and really dialed in on me and the cues I was giving him."

Terri-June went on to praise her explain a certain challenge that her new horse brought to her. "He is deaf, and he's the first horse that I've ever had that was deaf. He's just different for me because I'll start clucking to him or saying 'whoa' to him, and my trainer will say, 'you know he can't hear that, right?' I just do it anyways though. It has been a positive thing too because loud noises don't scare him. Like at the shows with all the noise, and the crowd applauding. It doesn't bother him at all." Terri-June praised her trainer by saying, "Craig Schmersal is such a phenomenal trainer. He trains them so that just anyone can ride them. [Gunnin so quiet. It is just amazing. I am thrilled with him!"

Terri-June earned over $10,000 for the wins.

Charlie Wiederholt rode Chrome Me Out (Chromed Out Mercedes x Rest With Me) to the win in the Non Pro Prime Time Stakes pocketing more than $773.

Charlie said of the run, "I was happy with my horse everywhere. I had a little problem myself and got a half point penalty on a shut off on one of my spins. My horse was really good though. I couldn't ask for any better. He was really easy to show, and was with me for the whole show"

While Chrome Me Out had a little bit of a rough start to his career. Charlie remains positive about his future. He has him entered in the NRHA Futurity in December in Oklahoma City, and then plans to keep him to show in the NRHA Derby next year.

YOUTH GET THEIR TIME TO SHINE AT CONGRESS

The future of reining is bright as its youth were showcased on Saturday at the All American Quarter Horse Congress.

Jessica Batton took the field in the NRHA Youth 14-18 Class riding a horse with a sweet name! Goodtime Chocoholic is an 8 year-old gelding by Chocolate Chic Olena and out of Good Time Show Girl. The pair scored a 220.5 and earned the 270 check.

In the Youth Reining 13 & Under, Samuel Flarida emerged the champion aboard Wrighteous Man (Lenas Wright On x Sugar Pop Gun) with a 215.5 and took the $127 payout.

Madison Rafacz took top honors in the Short Stirrup competition riding Dun McLean (Lean With Me x A Lil Bit of Dunnit) to a score of 216. Madison pocketed $100 for the win.

Dany Tremblay on Magnums Guns R Reddy NRHA Open Reining Champions

TREMBLAY WINS AGAIN IN THE OPEN ANCILLARY ACTION

Dany Tremblay and the stand-out mount, Magnums Guns R Reddy (Magnum Chic Dream x Guns R Reddy) won the NRHA Open Reining at Congress with score of 226. Magnums Guns R Reddy is a 5 year-old mare owned by Ruth Hamlin.

Dany was very happy with the run as he said, "It was awesome, actually. I drew really good. I was draw 88 out of 90. The bar was set high; I had a 224 to beat, but again Magnums Guns R Reddy gave me her big heart like she always does."

While the win was definitely exciting, it is even more special to Dany that it happened at Congress. He said, "I was super happy to get to go back to Congress with their new barn. I haven't been to Congress in 7 years. I won the Level 3 Open Futurity 7 years ago, and it's really cool to go back now and get these three wins here."

Dany earned $2137 for the win.

Jordan "Kole" Price was thrilled for the chance to ride one of his Non Pro's mounts to the win in the Intermediate Open Reining and the Reserve in the Open Reining. Gun N For Glory is a 5 year-old mare with an unusually pale, ghostly-grey coat that defiantly helps her stand out. She is by Colonels Smoking Gun and out of Dun It for Chex, and is owned by Stephanie Gripp.

Kole says, "I knew she was doing so good with Stephanie so I never asked to show her, but finally the asked me to, so I jumped all over the chance! I was absolutely ecstatic about it. I actually showed her back when we first got her, but we had a few bobbles then. She has really changed a lot since we first got her. She is really confident now, and I knew I just had to let her go and do it. I knew I could just let her go, and she is a horse that would go run and really stop. She did really well, and I had as much fun showing her as I could have hoped for!"

Kole pocketed $1,139 for the win.

The Intermediate Open Reserve Champion was Martin Audet on Gunnersstarbucksnite (Gunners Special Nite x Starbucks Cocoa Bean) owned by Clark Reining Horses, LLC. The duo scored a 221, and Martin pocketed the $693 check

Daniel Gibbs rode Lotsa Big Dreams (Magnum Chic Dream x Lotsa Train), owned by Jennifer Ludeman, to the Limited Open Championship with a score of 217.

Daniel said, "I showed her twice at the Mid-Atlantic. This is only my third time showing her. She's a really big stopper, really honest. She is a fun horse to show. I really think she's just going to get better, honestly."

Daniel pocketed $418 for the win.

Dane Johnson won the Limited Open Reserve Championship title and the $301 check after he rode June Kretzschmer's horse, Chics Lil Trash to a score of 215.5.

Mark Rafacz rode Peter and Courtney Morgan's mare, Mistress Gotta Gun (Dun It Gotta Gun x Shiners Mistress) to the Prime Time Open Championship, scoring a 216 and earning the $344 check.

Rusty Dare was the Reserve Prime Time Open Champion riding Drop Your Guns (Spooks Gotta Whiz x Custom Comboonation) to score a 213.5. Drop Your Guns is owned by Michell Kimball. Rusty pocketed the $236.5 check.

Emelia Reutimann loves it when a plan comes together. She won the Level 1 Youth Reining riding her 7-year-old horse, Black Hails Gold (Shine Like Hail x Dun Its Black Gold) to a score of 218.5.

Emelia explained her strategy, "I've shown the past two days in the youth classes. It wasn't going as well as I wanted it to, so because this would be my last time showing [here]. I decided to just go for it all and see what happened. I was really lucky. He was super good and right there with me. He was listening really well."

She went on to say, "I bought Hailer at Congress last year so it was cool to come back and win at this show with him. I was chosen to go to Switzerland for the FEI Young Rider and Junior Rider World Championships. That was really cool, and I feel so fortunate to have him because he really is a once in a lifetime horse who has given me so many opportunities that I never thought I would have. He's really special, and I'm really lucky to have him.

The Level 1 Youth Reining Reserve Champion was Jessica Mcallister on DA Chick Olena Dunit (Magnum Chic Dream x Hollywood Smoke Babe). The duo scored a 215.5 and Jessica pocketed the $90 check.

Leslie "Indy" Roper on Skeet Shooting Spook Non Pro Champions

THE LITTLE HORSE THAT COULD DOES IT AGAIN

Leslie "Indy" Roper wins again at the close of the Non Pro Ancillary classes at Congress on Monday riding her handy little gelding, Skeet Shooting Spook (Smart Spook x Snappy Skeet) to score a 223.5 and pocket the $2,562 purse.

Indy said, "I went in with the intention that it would probably be the last time that I would show him. This was the hardest that I've ever shown him, and he came through for me. He was locked in and ready to go. It was a lot of fun. It was one of the best rides I've ever had. He came to the show prepared, and he showed just how he had to. As a family, we've really been excited for the horse – winning in a big one!" old bay, "He's a horse that I've had his whole 3 year-old year. He's absolutely a gorgeous animal. by Spooks Gotta Gun and out of Melimelo Kid. She scored a 219.5 and pocketed $162 for the win.

Kara Gray Fry took Reserve on Juice N Silk (Smart Like Juice x Silk N Sable Pine) with a score of 217.5 and pocketed $117.

Shawn Flarida won the AQHA Junior Reining scoring a 220 on a horse called Luckie Moonstone (Spooks Gotta Gun x Luckie Moonstone) and earned $400.

Shawn said of the 4 year-old bay, "He's a horse that I've had his whole 3 year-old year. He's absolutely a gorgeous animal. It was a walk in pattern. He is an awesome spinner. He plussed in his spins both directions. I didn't push him hard in my circles because I knew he could really run and stop. I plan to qualify him for the World Show for next year, and I'll show him in the Derbies next year also."

Shawn added that his biggest challenge with this horse has been making him be patient. He said, "He Sometimes he tries to read your brain and tries to do what he thinks you

It DOES look different - and it WORKS! You'd be surprised at the people who have a whisper bit in their tack room or trailer. People like

TIM McQUAY * BOYD RICE * CHARMAYNE JAMES

Don't let the name fool you - this bit speaks volumes - and horses just keep winning in the Whisper Bit! Elite riders know that the Whisper Bit communicates clearly to the horse and allows guidance and correction without intimidation. It's forgiving of a rider's mistakes - even when nerves and adrenalin can make hands move a litle too fast.

APHA BUCKLE PROGRAM RETURNS TO SOUTHWEST REINING HORSE ASSOCIATION FUTURITY & SHOW

The American Paint Horse Association is again partnering with the Southwest Reining Horse Association, giving exhibitors riding registered Paint Horses the opportunity to earn extra awards along with 2018 APHA World Championship Show qualification credit.

Top-finishing Paint Horse exhibitors at the 2017 SWRHA Futurity will be awarded custom Gist Silversmiths trophy buckles in the following six classes:

- o Open Futurity
- o Non-Pro Futurity
- o Open
- o Non-Pro
- o Rookie
- o Youth

"We're thrilled to welcome the American Paint Horse Association back to the Southwest Futurity," said Cheryl Magoteaux Cody, whose Pro Management, Inc runs the event. "Thanks to APHA those exceptional Paint reining horses will get extra recognition and extra awards. We so appreciate being a part of this great program!"

The annual event is scheduled for October 23–29 at Hardy Murphy Coliseum in Ardmore, Oklahoma. The SWRHA Futurity and Show features more than $115,000 added money in the futurity classes, as well as a brand-new Rookie Challenge sponsored by Lucas Oil and Protect the Harvest.

All Paints that compete at this year's SWRHA Futurity are eligible to use the show as qualification for the 2018 APHA World Championship Show. In 2017, the World Show takes place September 20–30.

Kurt Crawford, Director of Business Development for the American Paint Horse Association is glad to partner again with the SWRHA. "We look forward to a successful time in Ardmore. For more information on the American Paint Horse Association, visit apha.com.

The SWRHA is a non-profit organization dedicated to the promotion of the reining horse, including breeding, training and exhibition. For more information about the Southwest Reining Horse Association or the SWRHA Futurity, call 580-759-2929 or visit www.swrha.com.

CAST YOUR VOTE NOW FOR THE NRHA INVITATIONAL FREESTYLE FAN FAVORITE!

Beautiful horses, talented riders, exciting music, and costumes – it's easy to see why everyone loves Freestyle Reining. The National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) is excited to announce that the Invitational Freestyle Reining is back again at the 2017 NRHA Futurity. But that is where we need your help!

NRHA has partnered with the Oklahoma City Convention & Visitors Bureau so that you can help us choose four additional riders to compete in the 2017 NRHA Invitational Freestyle presented by the Oklahoma City Convention & Visitors Bureau. Your votes will help NRHA determine who those four additional riders will be!

NRHA will select five random voters to receive a NRHA Futurity prize pack, complete with a four pack of passes to the NRHA Invitational Freestyle Reining so they can come see Freestyle riders and horses compete for $20,000 in prize money!

To place your vote, go to visitokc.com/nrha

The freestyle competition will take place Thursday, November 30, at 7:30 p.m. in the Jim Norick Arena during the 2018 NRHA Futurity, which will be held November 23 – December 2 at State Fair Park in Oklahoma City. More information about the NRHA Futurity & Adequan® North American Affiliate Championship Show, including ticket information and a complete schedule, can be found at NRHAFuturity.com.

The world's best reining horses and competitors come to Oklahoma City to compete for an estimated total purse and cash prizes of more than $2 million. This is one event NRHA does not want Oklahoma City, North America and the entire world to miss!

MARKEL INSURANCE RETURNS TO SPONSOR BACK GATE PIZZA PARTY AT THE SOUTHWEST REINING HORSE ASSOCIATION FUTURITY

The 2017 Southwest Reining Horse Association Futurity and Show is set for October 23 – 29 at the Hardy Murphy Coliseum in Ardmore, Oklahoma. The prestigious event is annually one of the most-watched futurities of the season for the National Reining Horse Association and participants come from across the nation and abroad.

Competition is intense and exhibitors take advantage of the last chance to tune their reiners before Oklahoma City, but there is still time for camaraderie and fun!

This year special fun is set for Friday, October 27. Following the awards for the Scottsdale Western World Non Pro Futurity, the action will stay in the in-gate area, where everyone is invited to the Markel Insurance Exhibitor Pizza Party. It's a great time to visit and to be entertained by a couple of high-intensity events – the Lead-line and Walk-Trot Reining classes for kids! Kids wear their Halloween Costumes in the class, so be prepared for anything from ghosts to princesses! And if that's not enough there is the annual Rein in Cancer Dog Race. This year's edition will feature two divisions – aptly named little dogs and big dogs!

From there, the evening concludes with The Incredibullz/ Merrill's Salon & Spa Rookie Challenge, an event slated to bring out the very best Rookie competition.

Frank Costantini, Director of Western Disciplines for Markel Insurance enjoys the opportunity to sponsor a social function for reiners. "Markel is committed to this industry and it's always a fun event! I look forward to seeing everyone."

SWRHA Show Manager Cheryl Cody said, "It's more than that. Frank is unique to the reining industry; he's a rider, an owner, has given his time to working for the National Reining Horse Association and the Reining Horse Foundation PLUS he represents Markel. We so appreciate his being part of the Southwest Reining Horse Association family. Both Markel and Frank are essential parts of the reining world."
