TULSA REINING CLASSIC – ANOTHER ONE FOR THE BOOKS!

Tulsa Reining Classic Brings Week of Excitement to Tulsa Expo Square

The 2017 Tulsa Reining Classic slid into Tulsa August 28 with classes running until September 3 at the Tulsa Expo Square equestrian complex. Despite entries and overall stall count being impacted by Hurricane Harvey, which resulted in over 35 stalls being cancelled, the Tulsa Reining Classic still posted an increase in both stalls and in overall entries. Hosting the South Central Affiliate Region Finals, the 2017 USEF Reining Championships and an array of Limited Age Events seems to be a formula for steady success for the show!

The Developing Horse Futurity is split into two events for the second consecutive year!

The highly popular Developing Horse Futurity was a showcase event for those not-quite-ready-for-primetime horses – and the competition was intense. Global Reining Sport Group, which produces the Tulsa Reining Classic, once again made a landmark decision. Due to the large number of horses entered in the Developing Horse Futurity, it was divided into two sections – each with equal added money and each with its own set of awards.

This was a decision that was made for the second year in a row- and again it came when the entries for the futurity closed and there were an astounding 115 horses entered! Colleen McQuay, President of Global Reining Sport Group noted, “Each section had the same amount of added money – $10,000 – and awards as previously planned for the entire event. Each section was awarded in its entirety and pinned as an individual event.”

FERNANDO SALGADO WINS LEVEL 4 SECTION A ON TOUR

Fernando Salgado rode Tour to the highest score of the Developing Horse Futurity, 220.5, at the Tulsa Reining Classic on August 30 to win Level 4 of Section A. The victory earned $3,522 and a Bob’s Custom Saddle sponsored by McQuay Stables.

Salgado says the win is meaningful because he was able to improve on his efforts from last year on a different horse in addition to seeing Tour (Gunnatrashya x She Slides Wright) step up to the plate over the past few weeks.

“Last year I won the Level 2 here on pretty much a full brother to this horse for the same owners [Cam Essick], so to come back and do it again and win the Level 4; it was a hard show,” Salgado said. “The last three weeks he’s getting so much better. He’s stepping up and feels like a show horse, so it was actually very easy and enjoyable to get him ready to show.”

Salgado says he was able to relax and enjoy showing Tour since the stallion has started maturing. The Gainesville, Texas-based trainer adds that he only needs to finesse the horse’s training before the big futurity.

“In a show situation he’s getting better and better, so I actually had fun,” Salgado said. “I am excited for him for the future, because I still had a couple penalties in there and could have scored even higher, so I’m very, very excited. [I need to fix] some little spots to be ready one-handed—I showed him two-handed today—so I don’t think I need to change anything, I just need to keep riding and be more one-handed and be ready for the NRHA Futurity.”

Salgado thanked Tour’s owners and his support team.

“Thanks to Cam Essick, she really trusted me and let me do my job,” Salgado said. “Thanks to my whole family; my wife Sabrina always supporting me, and my whole team: my horseshoer Seth Jordan, our vet Marcello, and my assistants. It’s a blessing to come here.”

Tom McCutcheon finished reserve aboard Guns Last Chance (Colonels Smokingun x Shiners Woman), owned by White River Ag Products, with a 219 for $2,121.

Stefano Calcagnini clinched both Levels 2 and 3 with a 218.5 aboard Shines Smokin Gun (Shine Chic Shine x Gunners Miss Oak), worth a total $3,613. Calcagnini says he was pleasantly surprised with the horse’s efforts in the arena. The class is all part of his preparation leading up to the NRHA Futurity in December.

Stefano Calcagnini Developing Horse Futurity Section A Levels 2 & 3 Champion

“He is owned by Amabile and Strusiner; they’ve been longtime customers of mine,” Calcagnini said. “I haven’t had this horse very long. He was at Nathan Piper Reining Horses, and I kept training him after Nathan. He was pretty broke, so we got along right away and started to play around.”

The Pilot Point, Texas-based trainer has had Shines Smokin Gun since May and says it’s been smooth sailing since he got the horse in training.

“I feel pretty good and pretty confident,” the Italian native said. “The horse actually showed pretty good for me, and I’m looking forward for the next one: the Southwest Futurity in preparation for the big futurity.”

In Level 3, Tim McQuay rode Lil Jersey (Yellow Jersey x Whiz N Darlin) to a 218 for reserve honors and $1,191 for Saddle Horn Farms, LLC. Garth Brown and Tinseltowns Dollface (Hollywoods Tinseltown x Gunners Doll Face) earned second in Level 2 with a 217.5, earning $838.29, for owner Domingo Alvarado.

Barak Gibori rode Xtra Black Fantasy (Wimpys Little Step x Footworks Fantasy) to a 218 to win Level 1 for $734. Gibori has only ridden the mare for a short period, but they are already firing on all cylinders.

“I just got her two months ago from Xtra [Quarter Horses], and I really like her,” Gibori said. “Eyal Carmon from Israel bought her, and I’m still getting to know her but she’s a really special mare. She’s really sweet and keeps getting better every day. We’re still adjusting to each other and getting to know each other, but she’s really nice.”

Gibori says the horse performed every maneuver well in their winning run, and he looks forward to his future with her at the big futurities.

“She did everything good today; she was there for me ev-

Jason Vanlandingham and Smoking Oak Gun; Franco Bertolani on FM Cottonwood Level 4 Developing Horse Futurity Section B Co-Champions

FRANCO BERTOLANI, JASON VANLANDINGHAM TIE FOR LEVEL 4 DEVELOPING HORSE FUTURITY SECTION B

Two Paint horses sired by Gunner rose to the top of Level 4 in Section B of the Developing Horse Futurity at the Tulsa Reining Classic on August 30. Jason Vanlandingham showed Smoking Oak Gun to a tie for first place in Level 4 with Franco Bertolani and FM Cottonwood, both scoring a 220 and earning $2,833. Vanlandingham has had Smoking Oak Gun (Colonels Smokinggun x Kachina Oak), who’s owned by Lazaro Elizondo, in training since the start, and he knows the stallion inside and out.

“We started him; they sent him to us as a coming 2-year-old and we’ve done all the work on him, so I know the horse pretty good,” Vanlandingham said. “He’s always had a lot of style and look going around, and he’s a very stocky-made horse so he’s able to handle different types of ground, so that part of him is good.”

Although it was Smoking Oak Gun’s first time in the show pen, the Whitesboro, Texas-based trainer says the stallion showed like a seasoned veteran.

“He seemed like a really good show horse today, it was his first trip out so I didn’t really know what we were going to have. He went in there and stayed locked in the whole time, so I was pleased with him,” Vanlandingham said. “The way he circles, he’s real low-necked and when he slows down he sticks his hock way up underneath him and makes a nice smooth transition. I really love the way he circles; that’s what stands out the most.”

Vanlandingham will continue preparing the stallion for the fall futurities and play it by ear as the big December futurity approaches.

“He’ll go to the Southwest Futurity, and then we’ll see where he falls into my string from there,” Vanlandingham said. “I want to thank my wife Adrienne; I wouldn’t be anywhere without her, and we know all this good stuff comes from God.”

Franco Bertolani also scored a 220 to tie for first riding Carlton and Khris Crowe’s horse FM Cottonwood (Colonels Smokingun x Sonita Lena Chick).

Gunner progeny continued to rule in the Developing Horse Futurity. Eduardo Salgado won Level 3 on Gunners Bar Fly (Colonels Smokingun x Blonde At The Bar), owned by Roseanne Sternberg, to a 218.5 for $2,375. The score also notched third place in Level 4 for $2,035.

Yonathan Baruch took second in Level 3 with a 218 riding Yank Your Guns (Colonels Smokingun x Rowdys Money) for $2,009.

Hava Vital piloted Loaded Lady Bug to a $2,172 victory for winning Levels 1 and 2 with a score of 219. The 3-year-old mare by Hes A Loaded Gun and out of BH Lady Bug is owned by Mary Jansma and has been in Vital’s hands for about a year.

“I’ve had her since she was 2, so it’s been a long road, but we finally did it,” Vital said. “Hopefully we can keep up the good work and do it again.”

Vital, who works for Justin “Gunny” Mathison out of Tioga, Texas, says her mare stayed tuned in during the futurity class, which gives Vital confidence moving forward.

“She felt really good, very honest and super ‘with’ me,” Vital said. “I can count on her; she was just awesome. We’re going to the Southwest and then the big futurity.”

In Level 2, Stefano Calcagnini took second place with a 216.5 riding Shine Superboy Shine (Shine Chic Shine x Spooks Stylin) for a paycheck of

MANDY MCCUTCHEON TIES TO WIN SMARTPAK NON PRO DERBY – WITH HERSELF!

It was an epic day for Mandy McCutcheon in Thursday's SmartPak Non Pro Level 4 Derby when she tied for the win with herself aboard two standout horses. McCutcheon scored a 222.5 aboard Hollywood Starburst and Baileys Not Painted for the dual championship, earning a saddle sponsored by Bob's Custom Saddles.

Hollywood Starburst a 4-year-old mare by Hollywood Dun It and out of Chic Olena Starbuck and recently led McCutcheon to the NRHA Non Pro Derby championship. The mare continues to be a force in McCutcheon's arsenal.

"They are both really nice great minded horses. The buckskin mare I just recently won the NRHA Derby on, so there is always that nervous part of 'I don't want to make her look like a fool after a big win,'" McCutcheon said with a laugh.

The mare looked like anything but a fool turning in a stellar performance in Tulsa.

Baileys Not Painted, who is by Gunners Special Nite and out of Darlins Not Painted, and has only been with McCutcheon for three days. Although the gelding has been in Tom and Mandy McCutcheon's training program since the start Mandy took the chance to buy him only recently.

"When the opportunity came up to buy him I jumped on it," McCutcheon said of purchasing the gelding.

The decision proved successful when he turned in an equally impressive run as McCutcheon's mare.

"They were both very similar [in their runs today]," McCutcheon said. "They were just easy and showed honest and pure and just tried to be good horses."

And the two horses also tied to win the SmartPak Novice Horse Non Pro Derby, earning another $799 each.

The Level 3 saw another tie, this time between Kara Gray-Frye and Catherine Crandon with scores of 220.

Frye rode Juice N Silk (Smart Like Juice x Silk N Sable Pine) to the co-championship, who has been with Frye since he was 3. The now-6-year-old has been a great addition to Frye's program.

"He's definitely a special guy, he doesn't take any training you just keep him fit and get on him and go show," she said. "He steps up and if I call on him he's there."

Crandon took home a plethora of prizes when she topped the Level 3, Level 2 and Prime Time with her score of 220.

The 5-year-old gelding RC Fashion Chic, who's by RC Fancy Step and out of Shesa Fashion Chic has only been with his owner since March and stepped up in Tulsa to prove his worth in the reining pattern.

"This was kind of the first time we've shown and we're penalty free," she said. "That was quite an accomplishment for us today, so we're pretty excited. I could not be happier. We just kept trying and trying and I knew we'd get it eventually so I was pretty happy."

MANDY MCCUTCHEON, KEVIN BALL SHARE TURNABOUT FARM NON PRO FUTURITY CHAMPIONSHIP

The Turnabout Farm Non Pro Futurity held Friday, September 1, saw smart maneuvers and big stops in the Ford Truck Arena. Mandy McCutcheon and Kevin Ball shared the Turnabout Farm Level 4 Non Pro Futurity championship with scores of 220.5, each earning $4,404. The win came with a custom award saddle from Leson Classic Saddles.

McCutcheon rode her home-raised mare One Last Gunner by Colonels Smoking Gun and out of One Last Corona. McCutcheon says she owes the existence of the mare to her son, Cade, who asked to breed One Last Corona to “Gunner.”

“I think she was supposed to be Cade’s,” McCutcheon said with a laugh, adding that when the mare landed in her hands she was happy to claim ownership.

McCutcheon has already had success in Tulsa sharing the co-championship in Thursday’s SmartPak Level 4 Non Pro Derby. Even with the success thus far McCutcheon says one of the highlights of the week was sharing the win in Friday’s Non Pro Futurity.

“She was really good and really solid,” McCutcheon said of her mare’s run, adding praise for the mare’s performing in the tough field at Tulsa. “This is a really tough futurity, it’s one of the best ones in the country. It’s been a great week and I couldn’t be happier.”

Ball rode This Chic Guns It, a 3-year-old by Colonels Smoking Gun and out of This Chic Dun It, to not only the Level 4 win, but the Level 3 and Level 2 championships as well. Ball purchased the mare rather unexpectedly when Nathan Piper found her only one day after Ball mentioned he was looking for a 2-year-old.

“I called Nathan and said ‘Hey let’s look for a 2-year-old to purchase at the end of the year.’ He called me the next day and said ‘You need to watch this video and buy this horse,’ and I said ‘What about the end of the year didn’t you understand?’” Ball recalled with a laugh.

Even though Ball said he wasn’t initially ready to purchase a horse he said couldn’t pass up the opportunity to buy This Chic Guns It, and hasn’t regretted a moment with the mare.

“I saw her and it was just the right place, the right time kind of a deal,” he said. “She’s come along better and better and she’s just been a joy to be around.”

Ball says the mare has only been hauled and shown a hand full of times, but continues to progress each time.

“I knew she could do it; I knew she had a lot of talent,” Ball said of his mare’s win. “I just wanted to showcase her the best I could, take it step by step and not over show her either.”

Sandy Eustace rode Chex With A Dream to the Turnabout Farm Non Pro Futurity Prime Time with a score of 221.5.

Friday’s win was extra special for Eustace, because the 3-year-old daughter of Magnum With A Dream and out of Lee San Chex is Eustace’s first home-raised show horse.

“I’m just happy that she’s made a reiner,” Eustace said. “She’s a little behind, but she’s coming quick.”

Eustace says going into the futurity, she was concerned with her turnarounds because it’s admittedly a weak spot for the mare. Chex With A Dream stepped up for her owner when it counted and nailed her turnarounds, which helped lead her rider to the win.

“I feel wonderful,” she said of her win. “I’m just glad that she did well.”

MATT MILLS CLAIMS 2017 ADEQUAN USEF CHAMPIONSHIP GOLD MEDAL

Franco Bertolani Wins CRI3

Friday night's competition at the Tulsa Reining Classic was filled with national and international competition when the USEF and CRI classes were showcased. The riders dazzled the crowd with big stops, fast spins and smooth moves. Both the professionals and the young guns of the sport had the opportunity to show off their skills in the special night sponsored by Markel Insurance.

Matt Mills rode Wimps Cool Breeze to the Adequan USEF Open gold medal with a score of 221.5 for owner Janice Dickson.

Wimps Cool Breeze is by Wimpys Little Step and out of QHR Jamaica Express and is a 7-year-old buckskin stallion, which Mills has grown to appreciate for both his style and heart in the arena.

"I love that horse," Mills said. "He is exactly what you want when you talk about a horse with heart and guts. He never quits. Really he's what I call a gamer. He's always up to it, whether I have two horses to get him ready or a month to prepare it doesn't matter when I walk through the gate that horse is going to be at the bare minimum where he was tonight."

Friday Mills used his relationship with Wimps Cool Breeze to prepare him properly before the run as well as show him just right in the show pen.

Matt Mills took home the silver medal aboard Wimps Cool Breeze with a score of 221.5.

“I thought the entire run was solid. We’ve definitely scored a whole lot higher before, but at this particular run we didn’t need to be spectacular we needed to be real good,” Mill said of he strategy for the run. “We have plans to qualify for the WEG next year, so it’s always trying to be careful not to do too much, but yet you always want to be coming out on top when the dust settles.”

Casey Deary claimed the silver medal riding Reeboks Rerun to a score of 219.5 for owner Owen Deary. Deary also took the bronze medal riding Who Dat Hot Chic with a score of 218.5 for owner Neiberger Performance.

In the CRI3*, Franco Bertolani took the gold medal with a score of 222 aboard Guns R For Shootin. Bertolani and the 7-year-old stallion had become quickly acquainted only becoming partners three weeks ago in preparation for the CRI in Tulsa.

Guns R For Shootin is by Colonels Smoking Gun and out of Chelsea Lena, who’s by Smart Peppy Doc, and owned by Ryan Humphrey. Bertolani says one of the best parts of showing in the CRI is showing for his home country of Brazil.

“Those international competitions I really like and when you show for your country,” Bertolani said. “I’m going to try to qualify for the World Equestrian Games next year.”

Cade McCutcheon Wins Gold in USEF 14-18 Championship

In the 14-18 USEF class Cade McCutcheon was the gold medal winner riding Anne-Marie Burns' 5-year-old REF Sturgis. The win was outstanding for McCutcheon, because it was the first time he had ever ridden the horse.

REF Sturgis is by Custom Harley and out of Chics Time To Rein and he stepped up for McCutcheon when he needed a mount for the class.

"The first time I ever rode him was tonight before I showed him, but he's pretty easy to get along with," McCutcheon said. "I wanted to show in this class and I didn't have a horse and Anne-Marie was nice enough to let me show him."

McCutcheon hopes to follow in his parents' footsteps and rise to the top of the USEF competition.

"It's different than showing in the NRHA classes that I show in every horse show, so it's a different experience and hopefully it will get me ready for the next young riders competitions if I go," McCutcheon said.

Kalena Reynolds riding Gun Whiz It won Gold in the 13 & Under Youth USEF

Kalena Reynolds rode Gun Whiz It to the 13 & Under youth USEF gold medal with a score of 212.5. Gun Whiz It is a 6-year-old mare by Colonels Smoking Gun and out of Roll Whiz It and this year marks the first year of her partnership with Reynolds.

"We had a little bit of trouble getting together at first, but we've clicked and we've gotten better and she's taught me a lot," Reynolds said.

The Tulsa Reining Classic was Reynolds first show to compete in the USEF classes and she plans to continue competing.

Carlee McCutcheon won the silver medal riding Whatta Royal Vintage with a score of 208.

The Hollywoodstinseltown Open Futurity took the spotlight on Saturday at The Tulsa Reining Classic, held at Expo Square. Big stops, fast spins and flashy horses were showcased in the open futurity in the Ford Truck Arena where 85 entries battled for championship honors.

Andrea Fappani turned in a crowd-pleaser to score a 224 aboard All American Vintage for owner Morris Kulmer to claim the Hollywoodstinseltown Level 4 Open Futurity championship and a custom saddle from Kyle Ranch Tack.

All American Vintage is 2014 stallion by A Sparkling Vintage and out of All Ruffed Up.

“I was nervous today just because we’ve had this horse for two years and I really believe in him, but it’s the first time we’ve ever shown him and every time you show them for the first time you’re going to find out for sure if what you thought was right or wrong,” Fappani said of Saturday’s performance.

time he saw All American Vintage he felt he would be a perfect fit for his program.

“He’s a really feely horse, a smart horse,” Fappani said. “He hasn’t been the easiest just in the fact that you have to spend a lot of time with him, but those are the type of horses that I really find challenging and the ones that I think at the end of the day give you a lot of reward because they try really hard.”

Although Fappani’s mount took a little extra time to mature, he says the 3-year-old has blossomed over the last several months, proving so in the show pen in Tulsa. Fappani has big plans for the talented athlete and plans to take him onto the bigger futurities.

“I couldn’t have been any happier with him,” Fappani said. “I love taking [my horses] to this horse show, because it’s a nice big arena, there’s places to warm up everywhere, and so through the years I’ve been taking my best ones to this pre-futurity, because it’s a nice environment for the young horses.”

“The run went great. The horse was there for me and it went just like we planned,” Boechat said of the home bred and trained 3-year-old, which he says makes the win even more special.

In the Hollywoodstinseltown Level 2 Open Futurity Roberto Berti and Jordan Kole Price shared the co-championship with scores of 221.

Berti rode High Voltage Pep, a 2014 mare by Gun Smoke Dennis and out of Electropep. The mare is home bred, which Berti says made the win more meaningful.

“It makes it really special,” Berti said. “I haven’t owned a horse that I’ve shown in quit some time and she made it special.”

The next stop for the mare is the NRHA Futurity in Oklahoma City and then the rest of her career will be planned one step at a time. Berti is hopeful for her successful future, in part because of her willing personality.

Price rode Checksworthy, a 2014 mare by Big Chex To Cash and out of Banjoes Shinning Star for owner Terry Leffew.

Price felt from the beginning of the run it was going to be a notable score, because of the way his mare warmed up and then because of her beginning maneuvers.

“She’s a very consistent mare, but when I walked into the warm up pen she kind of shifted to a whole different mentality. She’s probably the first horse I’ve had that when you get on her in the warm up pen it’s like ‘Hey, let’s get serious,” he said. “I would say she’s probably going to be a show horse.”

Price plans to show her at the All American Quarter Horse Congress and then at the NRHA Futurity in Oklahoma City and expects big things from the mare he’s had for two years.

“The best thing that mare does is she’s very consistent,” Price said. “I think what separates her from my other horses is that she rides like she shows every night.”

David and Bonnie Silva have been strong supporters of the Tulsa Reining Classic for years and in 2017 returned to sponsor this Open Futurity named for the Silva’s phenomenal stallion, Hollywoodstinseltown.

Hollywoodstinseltown, by $6 Million Sire Hollywood Dun It out of NRHA’s All-time Leading Mare, Miss Tinseltown, was destined to be a champion. Equipped with a royal pedigree, flashy good looks, exceptional movement, and an outstanding mind, he gained quick rewards in the show pen. Now he’s already become an NRHA Million Dollar Sire.

David and Bonnie Silva are well known as breeders and owners in the reining industry. In fact, in 2012, David was honored as a NRHA Million Dollar Owner. He has been involved in the sport of reining for over 30 years and continues to be an active Non Pro competitor and to enjoy the opportunity to give back to the industry that he loves.

Huss had a big day in Tulsa with the win in the Level 4 and he also dominated the Level 3 and Level 2 with his score of 224.5 aboard the 2011 gelding owned by Morris Kulmer.

Chics Dream is by Magnum Chic Dream and out of First Ex Flame and he more than proved his worth in Tulsa for both owner and rider. "It felt great, he was really honest and real willing," Huss said. "Usually he's a little lazy, but today he was looking to be good."

Huss says he was chasing the win on Sunday and his mount stepped up when he needed him.

"I always go in to win," he said with a laugh. "Sometimes you have to make adjustments, but I wanted to mark a 75 or higher and [he made it happen today]."

Four days earlier Kulmer rode the horse to an AQHA Select Reining World Championship. Chics Dream had a short break after the Tulsa Reining Classic then he headed to the High Roller Reining Classic in Las Vegas. Huss hoped to capitalize on the momentum going into the future.

A two-way tie in the Level 4 between Huss and Jason Vanlandingham riding two mounts - Shining In Town and Ruf Nite - ended up with Vanlandingham taking the co-reserve title in the Level 4 and the co-championship in the Whiskey N Diamonds Novice Horse Open Derby Level 4, with scores of 224.5. Vanlandingham made the decision to save his horses and not do a runoff for the Level 4 championship, which resulted in him claiming the reserve title.

Vanlandingham's first horse shown, Shining In Town is a 2013 stallion by Hollywoodstinstown and out of Shine Ann, and owned by Jon Sather. Sunday's performance is the pairs' second time to show together and each time has resulted in success.

"He was really good just did exactly what I asked him to do on every maneuver. I was really excited," Vanlandingham said. "He's a show horse. He has such a cool look to him whenever he's going around there and you can just drape your reins to him and him go do his thing."

Ruf Nite also showed up in top form, turning what Vanlandingham called an admittedly shocking performance, even still Vanlandingham said he was gunning for the win.

"He caught me off guard," Vanlandingham said of Ruf Nite's run on Sunday. "I wasn't expecting him to be quite that good. He's really green, we haven't had him that long and my son showed him at the [NRHA] Derby and he some penalty points and I brought him here and I was trying to win it. We were going hard and he stuck with me everywhere. He's a huge, huge stopper so he did that for us all four times."

Ruf Nite is a 2012 stallion by Gunners Special Night and out of Dunit A Lil Ruf owned by Sather Family Partnership. The stallion will go home after the Tulsa Reining Classic and fine tune his skills with Vanlandingham.

Vanlandingham was proud of both mounts finishing the Tulsa Reining Classic on a high.

"It was one of those things where you were asking a lot out of your horses and they both gave you everything you wanted and they both came out the same," he said. "I was tickled for them."

FREE EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES ABOUND AT THE TULSA REINING CLASSIC

Youth Horsemanship and Reining Clinic with Martin Larcombe

The Youth Horsemanship and Reining Clinic with Martin Larcombe was held Friday, September 1 and the clinic provided a remarkable opportunity to learn from a National Reining Horse Association Professional who is a respected trainer and proven competitor with multiple victories in the U.S. and around the globe in Italy and Australia. The Australian native has more than $685,000 in NRHA earnings and holds two NRHA Open World Champion titles, four Italian Open Futurity wins and four Australian Open Futurity wins.

Larcombe has 25 years of experience as a trainer, having spent eight of those years training reining horses in Europe. Tom McCutcheon Reining Horses of Aubrey, Texas, hired Larcombe as a resident trainer in 2016. This year's clinic was a valuable experience for the youth reiners who attended.

Also on Friday was the Non Pro Clinic with Matt Mills which presented a remarkable opportunity to learn from an NRHA Professional who is a great motivator and proven trainer. Consistent NRHA Top 20 Professional Matt Mills is a multiple finalist at NRHA major events and has also been a successful Non Pro and Youth coach over the years as well as Gold Medalist at the World Equestrian Games.

Mills said, “I really enjoy the challenge of helping Non Pro riders reach their goals and I have coached several very successful Youth and Non Pro riders over my career. I believe a good foundation is the key to a successful Non Pro. I have spent considerable time developing a series of “real life” training videos for all riders that emphasizes good communication and I enjoyed sharing my knowledge with this great group of Non Pros!”

A View from the Judges Chair with Craig Schmersal

NRHA $3 Million Rider Craig Schmersal joined the line-up of clinicians at the Tulsa Reining Classic, presenting “A View from the Judges Chair”. Craig, who also currently serves on the National Reining Horse Association’s Judging Committee, feels strongly about the need for educating exhibitors and helping them learn the ins and out of the judging system.

He said, “I’m excited to help our exhibitors understand what the judges are looking for and help explain the maneuver evaluations.”

Craig specializes in training, showing and selling Futurity and Derby horses. He has trained and shown multiple Futurity & Derby winners, nine world reining champions, and every one has had its own unique style. He prepares every horse as an individual and finds a way to maximize its strengths and minimize its weaknesses. The seminar was held at the Ford Truck Arena Exhibit Hall.

by Santa Hill Ranch and Star Spangled Whiz owned by Story Book Stables.

Storybook Stables owner, Brenda Joyce, was excited about winning the drawing and appreciative of the participation of Quarter Horse News.

Joyce said, "It is always a thrill to come to Tulsa to show at the Tulsa Reining Classic, and to participate in the Tulsa Stallion Auction. A big thank you to everyone involved, from all of us at Storybook Stables, and from Star Spangled Whiz!"

Joyce added, "Star Spangled Whiz exemplifies the IDEAL that we as breeders strive to achieve in our breeding programs. He is an amazing athlete, he is beautiful and charismatic, and most importantly, he is great minded. He stamps his babies with his stellar qualities. He not only has a great show record but, to this day he still holds the highest score EVER marked in Europe – 236."

Bob Santagata, owner of Santa Hill Ranch, said, "We are thrilled about The Kids Gotta Gun winning the Quarter Horse News advertising package. The timing is great for this up and coming stallion. 2017 was his first breeding season, and we received so much excitement and great success in getting mares in foal. We can hardly wait for his foals to arrive. This advertising package will be a nice contribution to our efforts in promoting him."

OKLAHOMA EQUINE HOSPITAL SPONSORS YOUTH LEADLINE

As always the most popular event of the Tulsa Reining Classic was the Youth Leadline Class held on Saturday evening. Sponsored by Joe Carter's Oklahoma Equine Hospital, the participants each year receive commemorative teddy bears!

This year's participants were a stellar group of up-and-coming young riders.

Chloe Larson rode Miley. Chloe's parents are Jordan and Taylor Larson and Chloe is 4 years old. From Whitesboro, Texas, she enjoys riding, swimming, painting, singing and dancing and wants to be a unicorn when she grows up.

Charlie Johnson is 6 years old and rode Timber Zak. He plays ice hockey on his team, the Calvary and wants to be an Air Force Pilot when he grows up. His parents are Meg and Jared Johnson and the Johnsons live in Keller, Texas.

Audrey Jo Johnson, daughter of Sean Johnson, rode Mr Pickles and she is from Glenpool, Oklahoma.

Lani Pool is 4 years old and rode Commanded A Dance. She is from Weatherford, Texas – the daughter of Trey and Luci Pool. She enjoys running with the dogs, playing with friends and painting her nails. When she grows up she wants to be a firefighter on Sundays and a teacher on Mondays.

William Horner is 6 years old and the son of Kim and Ken Horner. He rode Bullet Proof Benz today, but other days he likes driving tractors and playing football. When he grows up, he wants to be a pilot.

Carson Ramsey is the son of Clint and Kimberly Ramsey of Collinsville, Okla. He's 4 years old and likes riding horses, riding bikes, and bucking like a bull. When he grows up, he's going to be a fireman or bull rider but today he's happy to be riding Cowboy.

Joy Deary is 5 years old and the daughter of Casey and Nicole Deary. She rode Reebok, which is her brother, Owen's horse. When she is not riding, she likes swimming, singing and playing piano. When she grows up, she wants to be a Christian cowgirl singer.

Tulsa Reining Classic is teaming up with the Texas Equine Veterinary Association to offer aid to the horses and horse owners affected by Hurricane Harvey and subsequent flooding. TEVA is coordinating large-scale distributions of feed and veterinary supplies, securing temporary animal housing and more.

TEVA is already on-site helping victims, knows the needs of horse owners and has the necessary resources to carry out those needs.

TEVA has established multiple hubs throughout the affected area to distribute feed supplies, buckets, halters, shavings, wound care and more to those in need.

TULSA REINING CLASSIC SENDS RELIEF TO HURRICANE HARVEY VICTIMS

Frank Costantini Donates Saddle

Everybody wanted to do something. The telecasts and videos of what was going on in South Texas with the flooding from Hurricane Harvey were more than compelling. Frank Costantini came up with the idea of donating a saddle for which people could donate to the Harvey Relief cause and get a chance to win a saddle. A donation of $50 or more got a chance and the ultimate winner was Shawn Stratman.

The promotion earned over $4,000, 100% of which was donated to Texas Equine Veterinary Association to help in providing care, supplies and feed to livestock impacted by the storm.

Costantini noted, “The Houston community, in particular Katy has been very welcoming to reiners over the years. I just felt we needed to do something to help in their time of need. Donating a saddle to the Harvey Relief Project seemed like the right thing to do. The Veterinarians certainly understand the needs of horse people better than most. Susan and I, along with Colleen McQuay and Cheryl Cody, thought they would be a great resource to accept our donation. I just wish it could have been more!”

VAUGHN ZIMMERMAN WILL BE 2018 NRHA HALL OF FAME HONOREE

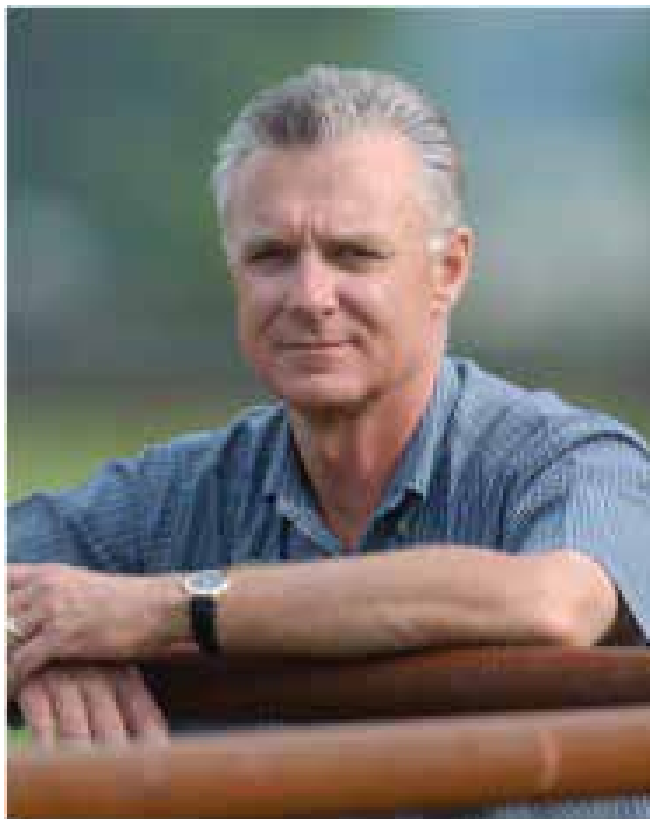

Following the presentation of its Hall of Fame Committee's recommended nominees, the National Reining Horse Association Board of Directors and past Hall of Fame inductees voted to approve Vaughn Zimmerman for induction into the NRHA Hall of Fame in 2018.

A lifetime member since 1994, NRHA Million Dollar Owner Vaughn Zimmerman of Rogersville, Missouri, served on the initial board of the Reining Horse Foundation from 2001 through 2004 and is an RHF Gold Donor. He served several years as an NRHA Board member (2005-2009) and was a member of the NRHA Finance, Sale, Hall of Fame, and Sire & Dam Committees. His recommendation to the NRHA Board created the Million Dollar Owners award in an effort to recognize and encourage owners' long-time involvement in the sport.

An NRHA Corporate Partner and National Reining Breeders Classic Gold Sponsor, Zimmerman has provided sponsorships at many regional and major events such as the Tulsa Reining Classic and the High Roller Reining Classic. He has provided support to NRHA Affiliates through donations of his stallion breedings to many breeding program auctions.

In addition to owning top caliber performance horses, Zimmerman consistently brings highly sought-after consignments to the NRHA Markel Insurance Futurity Sales. In 2011, he consigned the top seller, Commanders Lil Step, which sold for $200,000. The next year, he consigned Not Ruf At All. However, he made what can certainly be deemed now as a very wise decision and chose to keep the colt, who went on to win the 2013 NRHA Futurity, 2014 NRHA Derby, and 2016 NRBC.

Zimmerman is also involved in other areas of the horse industry including reined cow horse and Thoroughbred racehorses, but his passion is the reining horse. His contributions have made, and will continue to make, reining a great sport. He has paved the way for his grandchildren -- Taylor and Jacob Zimmerman – to continue the Zimmerman reining legacy. Both are very active in aged events, and they also share the same passion Vaughn has for reining.

NRHA will proudly honor the 2018 inductee during the 2018 NRHA Winter Meeting to be held February in Oklahoma City.

Founded in 1966, the National Reining Horse Association is a nonprofit association dedicated to promoting and encouraging the development of and public interest in the sport of reining. The focus is on developing and maintaining suitable standards of performance and judging and in providing a fun filled, family-oriented atmosphere.

BERNARD FONCK & WHAT A WAVE CLAIM WORLD CUP OPEN TROPHY

This finals of the $ 50,000-added AMERICANA World Cup Open Bronze Trophy will stay in everybody's mind for a long time as it was one of the most exciting AMERICANA's ever had. Twelve world class horses and riders had made it to the finals. Ann Fonck, who had three horses in the finals was the first to go aboard the 6-year-old stallion Made In Walla (Walla Walla Whiz x Hollywood Made, owned by Sabine Lisek and Chuck Klipfel). Her close-to-perfect speed control, fast spins and long slides were rewarded with a 229.5 by the judges and loud cheers from the almost 5,000 spectators.

Grischa Ludwig and Nu Chexomatic (Nu Chex To Cash x Tejons Texie Lena), the 10-year-old palomino gelding owned by Jacpoint QH won the AMERICANA Open trophy in 2015 with Cody Sapergia in the saddle who also rode him to the NRHA World Championship Open. Grischa had only a few chances to ride the horse before AMERICANA, but the two had a great run in the final posting a 230 with the excellent turnarounds Nu Chexomatic is famous for as well as fine stops.

Everybody held their breath when NRHA World Open-Champion, What A Wave (Tidal Wave Jack x What a Sunrise, owner Steve & Gina Vannietvelt) and NRHA Million Dollar Rider Bernard Fonck entered the arena. Bernard and his stallion had had the second best score of the go round.

And then the big show arena exploded with cheers when the two presented a brilliant performance in every maneuver. What a Wave melted into his last stop backed up fluently – and left the arena with a 231! This was the AMERICANA World Cup Open Bronze Trophy Championship with Grischa Ludwig and Nu Chexomatic placing second and Ann Fonck and Made in Walla placing third.

“I am very happy,” said Bernard after his run. “I knew I had to go to the max, and we made it. What A Wave is on a good way to his third World Champion Open title now, and I think he should be my horse for the 2018 World Equestrian Games.”

“Today, everything worked out fine,” said Grischa Ludwig happily. “Nu Chexomatic is a powerful horse with lots of talent and a great mind – simply a great reiner. I had sold the horse to Jacpoint QH and always wanted to show him once. AMERICANA was the perfect stage for this. It was a lot of fun.”

Ann Fonck also rode Spook N Perla to fourth place for owner Goldenpaint Ranch posting a 228 as well as Gunnerlicious to seventh place for owner Steve & Gina Vannietvelt with a score of 222. Cira Baeck who had had the best run of the go round with two horses placed fifth aboard Gunners Snappy Chic for owner Piet Mestdagh (225.5) and eighth aboard KR When in Rome for owner Katarzyna Roleska (220.5). Bernard Fonck also had another horse in the final: Smart N Sparkin whom he rode to sixth place honors for owner Goldenpaint Ranch scoring a 224.5. Gennaro Lendi and Dont Miss My Guns (owner David Roux) placed eighth (220.5), Rudi Kronsteiner and Jennifer Nixdorf's AB Peppy Diamond placed tenth (220) with Markus Gebert aboard Wimpy Crashed Ice (owner Simon Bilger) following on eleventh place (219) and Egon Gerstgrasser and Cashworthy (owner Deanna Kasper) on 12th place (217) .

Belgian riders had dominated the 35-horse Go-round, both in numbers and quality: seven out of the 12 finalists came from Belgium. As the second rider of the go, Cira Baeck earned a brilliant 221.5 aboard KR When in Rome (Spooks Gotta Whiz x Crome Shiner) for owner Katarzyna Roleska. The 5-year-old bay mare with the white face could plus in every maneuver. Cira whose NRHA LTE exceed $827,000 got the mare as a yearling and was NRHA European Futurity Reserve Champion Open as well as third at the IRHA Futurity 2016. Then Cira Baeck managed to ride Gunners Snappy Chic (Gunner x Chics Miss Snip) for owner Piet Mestdagh to a 221.5 as well. With this 5-year-old mare, Cira was 2017 French Derby Open Reserve Champion and NRHA European Affiliate Reserve Champion Open.

"I was really scared when I saw the draw list," said Cira laughing afterwards. "All those fine horses and riders.... My goal was to ride a 220 to reach the final, and it worked.

These two mares are fantastic – they are extremely consistent and have got big hearts."

Only half a point behind them, NRHA Open World Champion, Bernard Fonck and What A Wave (Tidal Wave Jack x What A Sunrise, owner Steve & Gina Vannietvelt) followed in third place. The stallion who was Open World Champion twice and whose NRHA LTE exceed $200,000 NRHA LTE showed a run full of his usual finesse – without the ½ point penalty in the right spin, he would have been the third in the lead of this go round.

Fonck also rode Smart N Sparkin to fourth place for owner Goldenpaint Ranch with a score of 220 – tying with Ann Fonck aboard Gunnerlicious (owner Steve & Gina Vannietvelt). Spook N Perla (owner Goldenpaint Ranch) as well as FEI World Champion Gennaro Lendi aboard Dont Miss My Guns (owner David Roux).

Grischa Ludwig placed eighth aboard Jacpoint QH's Nu Chexomatic (219) with NRHA Million Dollar Rider Rudi Kronsteiner placing ninth aboard Jennifer Nixdorf's AB Peppy Diamond (218). Kronsteiner is leading the NRHA Open ranking with this gelding at the moment. Three tied for tenth place posting a 216 each: Ann Fonck aboard her third horse Made In Walla (owner Sabine Lisec & Chuck Klipfel), Markus Gebert aboard Wimpy Crashed Ice (owner Simon Bilger) and Egon Gerstgrasser aboard Cashworthy (owner Deanna Kasper).

Uli Kofler wins Höveler NRHA Bronze Trophy Intermediate Open

The NRHA Bronze Trophy Intermediate Open was claimed by Uli Kofler aboard Patricia Escoda's Nu Reds Spat Delmaso (Spat Olena x Reds Ant Star) who scored a 217. The two were 2015 AMERICANA Reserve Champions in this class.

Egon Gerstgrasser and Cashworthy (Big Chex To Cash x Banjos Shining Star, owner Deanna Kasper) placed second (216) with Arnaud Girinon and Saturday Whiz (Saturday Night Custom x Anjolena Whiz, owner Marianne Benais) following on third place.

Ewald Rifesser & Al Zan It Rooster win NRHA 3 & 4-Year-Old Non Pro Futurity

With a 213.5, Ewald Rifesser claimed the NRHA Futurity Non Pro 3 & 4 year old Championship at AMERICANA aboard his 4-year-old gelding Al Zan It Rooster (Zan It In The Dark x TH Smack Me Rooster). The Italian whose achievements include the 2013 NRHA Breeders Derby Non Pro Championship, was third with this gelding in Jackpot SBHR Non Pro 4-year-old horses at the Breeders Derby 2017. Adriano Meacci rode Al Zan It Rooster to the 2016

TRHA Futurity 3yr Int. Open Co-Championship and Open Reserve Championship.

Andre Engelmann and his 4-year-old Girly Gump BB (Little Gump x BH Golden Girl) became Reserve Futurity Non Pro Champion posting a 209. Eifelgold Ranch bred the horse. Laura Dalla Gassa and DG Icy Soul followed in third place.

ONE YEAR UNTIL FEI WORLD EQUESTRIAN GAMES™ COMES TO NORTH CAROLINA, USA

Host Venue Tryon International Equestrian Center Announces Ticket Sales Date

The one-year to go countdown to the FEI World Equestrian Games™ Tryon 2018 (WEG) was launched today. With more than 500,000 people expected to attend the 2018 Games, the 12-day spectacle of equestrian champions is one of the biggest events on the global sporting calendar and will be the largest equestrian event in North Carolina's history. Mark Bellissimo, CEO of host venue Tryon International Equestrian Center (TIEC) in Tryon, NC, announced today that tickets will go on sale to the public on Monday, October 16, 2017. Competition action at WEG 2018 runs from September 12 through September 23, 2018, with the Opening Ceremony scheduled for September 11.

A variety of ticketing types and prices will be offered such as an All Games Pass for each week of competition or both weeks, an All Session Day Pass, All Session Discipline Pass, as well as individual event tickets, and opening and closing ceremonies. Ticket prices vary, but include an inexpensive Day Pass that gives attendees access to event grounds and expo only. A complete list of ticketing options will be available online at www.tryon2018.com or www.ticketmaster.com.

In addition to announcing ticket sales, TIEC has today released a "Destination Tryon" video to showcase the region where the 2018 Games will be held. Prior to winning the bid to host WEG 2018, Polk County, North Carolina dwelt as a hidden gem, tucked away in the bucolic Blue Ridge Foot-hills, bordering South Carolina. Surrounded by bold mountains and scenic foothills, the area is conveniently located within an hour of top cities including Asheville and Charlotte in North Carolina and Greenville in South Carolina. The rural community now joins the league of iconic destinations around the world - like Normandy, Stockholm, Rome and Aachen - to host equestrian sport's most distinguished championships.

For WEG 2018, Bellissimo is focusing on the love of horses to bring added attention to equestrian sport and touch a broader audience of horse enthusiasts globally, highlighting the important role horses have played throughout history.

"All of our nations were discovered on the back of a horse and these amazing animals continue to provide livelihood, transportation, security, entertainment, friendship, therapy, and sport around the world. The love of the horse is universal and profound. The Games is an incredible stage to show the world how important and valuable this creature is and celebrate our relationship with them," said Bellissimo.

Fédération Equestre Internationale President Ingmar De Vos shared his excitement about the forthcoming Games at TIEC.

"Marking one year to go to the FEI World Equestrian Games is always a very exciting time and we're really looking forward to the spectacular event that Tryon will bring," Ingmar De Vos said. "The Games are the greatest gathering of the best athletes and horses from across the globe and hundreds of thousands of people will have the opportunity to enjoy the magic of equestrian sport as world champions are crowned across the eight FEI disciplines. The USA is renowned as a country of horse lovers and is also hugely successful in the sport so we are delighted to have this, the FEI's flagship event, back in America once again."

United States Equestrian Federation (USEF) President Murray Kessler is pleased that the WEG is coming back to the United States for 2018 and will be hosted all at one venue at TIEC.

"We are confident that Mark Bellissimo and his team at Tryon will host an exceptional World Equestrian Games next year. Having the Games in the U.S. gives us an opportunity to celebrate the joy of horse sports with millions of Americans in a way that will help grow engagement and participation in all equestrian sports in this country," said Murray Kessler, President U.S. Equestrian.

The Games are expected to have tremendous economic impact to both Western North Carolina and the South Carolina Upstate. The previous WEG held in Normandy (FRA) in 2014 had an estimated economic impact of $400 million and attracted 575,000 spectators. North Carolina Governor Roy Cooper praised the organizers' success in bringing the Games to the Carolinas.

"The World Equestrian Games are an incredible opportunity for North Carolina, and we are pleased to host this event in our state," said Governor Cooper. "We applaud the efforts of Mark Bellissimo and the organizers at Tryon International Equestrian Center to bring this global event to North Carolina and stimulate tremendous economic growth for our state as a result."

Held every four years alternating with the Olympic Games, the FEI World Equestrian Games™ combines the world championships for jumping, dressage and para-dressage, eventing, driving, reining, vaulting and endurance into one massive 12-day event.

SAFESPORT WEBINAR SERIES FOR PARENTS OF ATHLETES, COACHES, AND SPORT ADMINISTRATORS

by U.S. Center for SafeSport

The U.S. Center for SafeSport has announced a three two-part webinar series for parents of athletes, coaches, and sport administrators, featuring expert training from Michelle Peterson, a nationally renowned child-abuse consultant, investigator, and researcher.

Among other issues, Michelle will address the sport administrator's role in championing athlete well-being by providing facts and best practices related to:

- Forms of misconduct
- Risk factors and statistics
- Behaviors to look for

- Reporting and responsiveness
- Implementing SafeSport programs locally
- Engaging constituents (including athletes and coaches)

Webinars will be held in two parts, each lasting 90 minutes. Please find specific dates and times along with registration links below. Please note all times are listed in Mountain Time. To accommodate as many attendees as possible, the U.S. Center for SafeSport will be offering each two-part series twice. These series will cover the same information, and participants should choose which sessions best fit their schedules. For those who cannot attend live, the Center will record the trainings and will circulate playback links in late October.

To help the Center ensure they are best addressing your needs, participants will be asked to complete a brief online survey upon registration. This link will also be sent to all registrants directly from the webinar platform.

To learn more about Michelle, please visit <http://www.mpetersonconsulting.com/about/>.

To register, please select which of the below sessions best fit your position and availability and use the associated links to sign up.
