Eduardo Salgado $500 Novice Horse Open Level 1

EDUARDO SALGADO WINS $500 NOVICE HORSE OPEN LEVEL 1, MARCO RICOTTA TAKES LEVEL 2

Gainesville, Texas-based trainer Eduardo Salgado rode Lil Dreamer to a score of 144.5 on Tuesday of the Tulsa Reining Classic to win the $500 Novice Horse Open Level 1.

The Brazilian native says his 5-year-old mare by Magnum Chic Dream and out of Myo Starlight by Paddys Irish Whiskey had a near perfect ride.

"I love her – she has a really good mind, all her maneuvers are good, plus she's smart," Salgado said. "She turns good and circles really good; she's a big stopper. I loved the run."

Salgado has ridden Lil Dreamer since the beginning of the mare's career, despite a setback due to injury last year. The pair is now back in winning form for 2017.

"I started her as a 2 year old, so I have ridden her for 3 years," Salgado said. "When she was four, I didn't show her, because she had a problem with her hock. But I've shown her all this year, and she is really good. I show her every time, and she's never anticipated. She's a really good mare."

Jody Brainard rode Hokiss Pokiss to the reserve position for owner John Vance, scoring a 144. The 2013 gelding is by Whizs Chic A Dee and out of Shades of Amos by Primary Pine.

In the $500 Novice Horse Open Level 2, Marco Ricotta piloted See U Saturday Night to a 145.5 to win the class. The 2012 stallion owned by Story Book Stables is by Star Spangled Whiz and out of Wimpys Rose by Wimpys Little Step. Salgado and Lil Dreamer's 144.5 took reserve in the class.

ROOKIE REINERS TAKE THE STAGE IN MUSTANG ARENA

Rookie Reiners had their chance to shine Tuesday evening, Aug. 29, in the Mustang Arena at the Tulsa Reining Classic.

Tolbert "Buster" Foster marked a 142.5 aboard Wimpys Memorabilia to win the $100 Rookie Level 2 and the JP Prime Time Rookie classes

"We hope for bigger and better things. I'll be out of rookie this year, but I'm hoping she can get me that elusive 72 score, which I've never gotten," Foster said. "Our 142.5 today is up there with the best we've done, but I feel sure she's got enough to take me to another level."

Wimpys Memorabilia is a 2009 mare by Wimpys Little Step and out of the famed Memorable Affair by Major Vaquero.

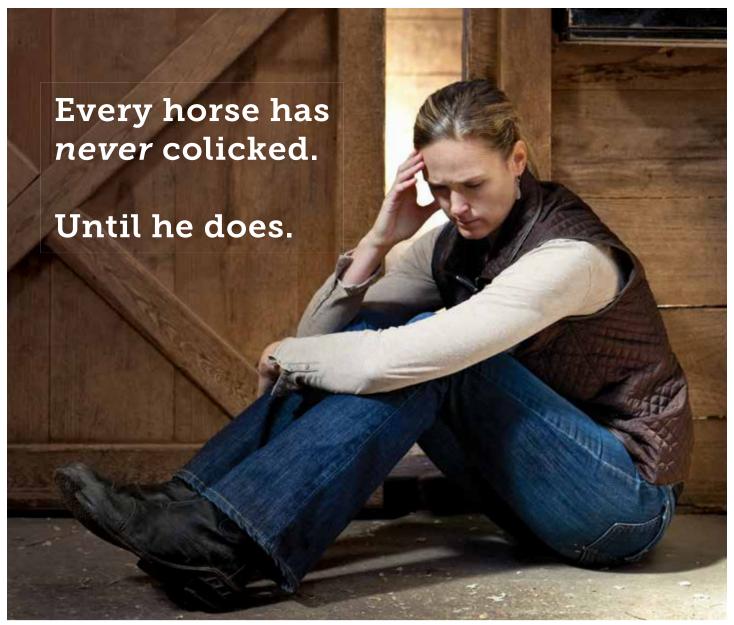

Tolbert "Buster" Foster Rookie Level 2 and JP Prime Time Rookie Champion

"Her mother, Memorable Affair, is a pretty famous mare in the reining business who won over $100,000 – a bit of a star," Foster said. "[Wimpys Memorabilia] had a good non-pro career with Dr. Jim Morgan, and the last time he showed her was the NRBC as a 4-year-old. We had lameness problems later that year... she had three babies and hadn't been in the show ring for four years until this year, and she's just been super every time."

Foster says his mare is the perfect confidence booster, even after her long hiatus from the arena.

"Her biggest thing is her stop. She's a big mare, so in the spins, she doesn't have a lot of speed but she has a lot of style," Foster said. "I've got a lot of confidence showing her; you don't have to worry about anything."

Foster owns a breeding business and has worked closely with the McCutcheons to build his breeding operation into a quality herd.

"I am a breeder, I moved up to Collinsville, Texas, to be closer to Tom and Mandy McCutcheon," Foster said. "I raise these Quarter Horses, and Tom and Mandy helped me get several really nice horses, so I look forward to breeding some nice babies – it's really exciting."

Kelly Shepherd took reserve honors in the class with a 141.5 aboard Magarita.

In the Rookie Level 1, Krista Marshall and Cromed By Rooster scored a 140 to take the victory.

Marshall purchased the 6-year-old gelding by Cromed Out Mercedes and out of Peekaski Cielo by Gallo Del Cielo last June in Gainesville, Texas. She says "Cromey's" biggest asset is his big stops and honest ability.

"We had a little trouble in our turns but we pulled through it, and our rundowns were nice, stops were deep, and he was a good boy today," Marshall said. "He's like a big dumb hunk! He doesn't want you to be in his face, he wants you to trust him, and today he proved why you should be able to trust him."

2017 is Marshall's first full year in an affiliate circuit and her first time to show in Tulsa. By day, the Minot, North Dakota, resident and her family own a truck stop. Riding and showing reining horses are her escapes from the day-to-day work.

"This is the farthest we've traveled this year, and we're happy to be here," Marshall said. "We run a 24-hour business, and I show horses to get away from the hustle and bustle of work. It's a great outlet and keeps me focused, and it's a lot better than going to the lake."

In a two-way tie for second, Jon Gilbertson and Kool-whiz N Wranglers tied with Walter Saunders and Shur Sheez Juice, both notching a 138.5.

SAM SCHAFFHAUSER WINS AQHA ALL AGE REINING

Riding Lil Rene Gun, Sam Schaffhauser of Eads, Tenn., took first in the American Quarter Horse Association All Age Reining Class with a score of 71.

"She felt good, it was a cruising run to make sure everything was good – she was just an angel," Schaffhauser said.

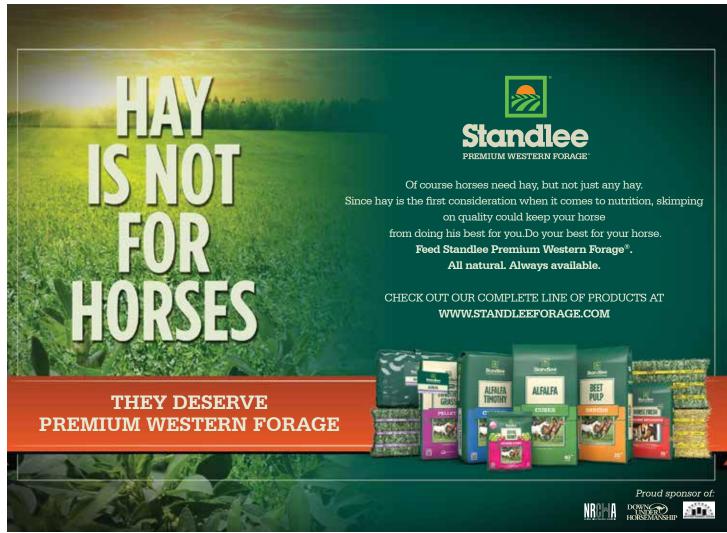

The 2012 mare is by Colonels Smokingun and out of Sail Away Rene by Cee Blair Sailor and is owned by James Fanello of Lucas, Ohio.

"She's been very good, really easy and really fun to ride. [The Fanellos] brought her to me late in her 3-year-old year and she was still green, so she's gotten a slow start in her show career," Schaffhauser said. "We've shown her and made the finals at the NRBC and the Derby. We're hopefully doing the same things with her next year, and then she'll be a broodmare."

Sarah Cunningham came in second place aboard Gotta Get A Diamond, a 2013 mare by Spooks Gotta Whiz and out of Brilliant Diamantes by Shining Spark, owned by Cross C Ranch of Maysville, Okla.

GREEN REINERS SHINE IN MUSTANG ARENA

Kayla Neill and Timber Tomorrow Green Reiner Level 2 Champions

Green Reiner classes kicked off in the Mustang Arena on Thursday at the Tulsa Reining Classic, with Kelly Shepherd and Kayla Neill taking top honors.

Kayla Neill rode her horse Timber Tomorrow to victory in the Green Reiner Level 2 class with a score of 72. Neill says her 7-year-old gelding by Boggies Timber Jack and out of Footworks Finest Lace is a major confidence booster.

"He's super easy going, very honest in the show pen and a big clown. Huge stopper, great turner, and he's really built my confidence," Neill said. "He was fabulous in his spins – the best set of spins we've ever done. His circles, he'll pick up speed and then comes back really hard which is what I really like about him. Lead changes we need to work on a bit, but then his stops are phenomenal. Super fun to take down the pen, easy stopper and rolls back very nice."

The former Western pleasure competitor from Poolville, Texas, has only been reining for a few years but has always been immersed in horses and the agricultural industry, especially through her work with 4-H.

"I've shown pleasure horses all my life and just started showing reiners about 3 years ago," Neill said. "I'm the County Extension Agent for 4-H and Youth Development for Parker County, so I actually have two of my 4-H-ers here; Kate Lilley and Maddie Gustin are here showing, so that's been fun."

Maddie McGee Pritchett took second place in both Levels 1 and 2 riding Reeboks Rerun (Reeboks Kid x Worksman Fisty) to a score of 70.

In the Green Reiner Level 1, Kelly Shepherd took the victory with a score of 71 on her horse Magarita. Though she's only owned the 2012 mare by Magnum Chic Dream and out of Pretty Pirate for about three months, Shepherd says it was an easy transition.

"She's been easy. She's won a lot of money already; she's a nice horse," Shepherd said. "The spins started out kind of rough, but it didn't look as bad as it felt. Circling she was good, her lead changes and rundowns were good, and everything felt really good."

Shepherd has had a busy schedule after recently moving to Gainesville, Texas, and getting married only two weeks before the Tulsa Reining Classic to trainer Kinzy Donnelly. She has a long background with horses and has recently taken up reining.

"I team roped and did cutting, so I just got into the reining a couple years ago," Shepherd said.

The Mustang Arena hosted several Open classes Aug. 30 at the Tulsa Reining Classic.

Georgetown, Kentucky-based trainer Mike Flarida marked a 143.5 aboard Xtra Playful Chic to win the $1,000 Open. Patrice Schreiber owns the 6-year-old mare by Custom Crome and out of Play For Chic.

"My mare was good today, honest all the way through the pattern, easy to show, easy to prepare – she's been a nice mare," Flarida said. "Patrice has been great to work for, she's given a lot of time to train that mare up and prepare her for a show."

Flarida says Schreiber's patience in allowing the mare to blossom has been imperative. He adds that his history with Custom Crome has helped the training process.

"I'm very happy to have her, and I know how to ride the Custom Cromes because I trained him and won the Futurity on him in 1993," Flarida said. "She's been a little slow getting here, but she's actually turned into a very good show horse – the owner has been very patient."

Mirjam Stillo came in second place riding Gunna Sassya (Colonels Smokingun x Shining N Sassy) for Janet Peterson.

In the $750 Intermediate Open, Trent Harvey and Baileys Sidekick claimed victory with a score of 144. The

Trent Harvey $750 Intermediate Open Champion

Deary Performance Horses trainer is riding the 2013 gelding by Gunners Special Nite and out of A Shining Sidekick for owner Kathy Thompson. Harvey used Tulsa to prep him for the High Roller Reining Classic.

"He belongs to a non-pro customer of Jordan Larson's, and we're taking him to Vegas for the 4-year-old Derby and Stakes, so here I wanted to just get him prepped and ready and see what I had in a show situation before I went there," Harvey said. "He felt very good, there's a couple spots I need to get him where he moves fluid and more forward, but for the most part I have him broke like I needed to."

Flarida and Xtra Playful Chic's 143.5 placed second in the class.

Leslie Bingham and Who Dat Hot Chic swept the $500 Limited Open and $500 Rookie Pro classes with a 144.5. The 6-year-old Neiberger Performance Horses-owned mare is by Wimpys Little Step and out of Smart Chic Aloha.

Ashley Stroh and Jerrys Mizzen Money (Jerry Lees Surprise x Miss Moth Money) placed second in the Limited Open with a 141.5. Glen Arthur Estival's 142 on Gunners Goldster (Colonels Smokingun x Spooks Goldstar) was good for second in the Rookie Pro.

ADAM DONAHUE, KIM SAUERWEIN TIE FOR $500 NOVICE HORSE LEVEL 1, STEPHANIE GRIPP WINS LEVEL 2

Stephanie Gripp $500 Novice Horse Level 2 Champion

Non Pro Riders filled the Super Duty Arena sponsored by Yellow Jersey on Wednesday morning, Aug. 30 at the Tulsa Reining Classic. In the end, Stephanie Gripp rode off with the $500 Novice Horse Non Pro Level 2 title aboard Gunners Glory with a 142.5, while Adam Donahue and Thata Shiner tied for Level 1 with Kim Sauerwein and Commandersparkinchic, both scoring 141.5.

Gripp says it took about a year to get into winning form with her 5-year-old mare (Colonels Smokingun x Dun It Fir Chex) in the Non Pro Division, but the pair has really come into form this year.

"In June, we won the Non Pro NRHA Derby Levels 3, 2, 1 and Youth, and we showed her today in the Novice Horse. She's been phenomenal for me all year," the 16-year-old of Sheffield, Illi., said. "We got her in 2016 from Cardinal Reining Horses, and it took about a year to dial her down to Non Pro where we wanted her."

"Glory" performed exactly how Gripp hoped in Tulsa, and they both kept a level head in competition.

"Today she was so focused and calm, and that's exactly what we wanted," Gripp said. "We didn't want to get her riled up at all, and she was perfect for me."

Jessicah Keller placed reserve in the Level 2 with a 141.5 aboard Malena Chic Olena (Hickory Chic Olena x Malena Chex).

In Level 1, Donahue and his talented 2009 sorrel mare Thata Shiner (Smart Spook x SLJ Smartlikewhinny) continued their prosperous year with another victory. Donahue had a banner week in the ancillary classes at the NRHA Derby in June, which was his first show in 16 years. His mare was supposed to be a broodmare, until Donahue decided to bring her back into the show pen.

"We bought her three years ago from Jose Vazquez. She was just standing in the pasture, so we thought she needs a little more money on her," Donahue said in an interview at the NRHA Derby.

Donahue says Thata Shiner never fails to give her all in the show pen, even with a few mistakes in the run. His favorite traits about the mare are her sweet demeanor and work ethic.

"It was a nice run. We had a few issues – she was tired today. But she's a really nice mare and I just enjoy showing her," Donahue said. "She's a real kind horse. She doesn't require a lot of work – I just go ride her every day and she shows up."

Sauerwein tied with Donahue for the firstplace victory with her 141.5 aboard Commandersparkinchic. She used the class to prepare for her runs in the derby later this week.

Adam Donahue (Top) and Thata Shiner Kim Sauerwein and Commandersparkinchic (Bottom) $500 Novice Horse Non Pro Level 1 Co-Champions

"We're preparing for the derby, so that was my trainer Jason Torpey's plan for me, to get ready for the derby," Sauerwein said. "I guess we did a good job getting ready, because we ended up tying for first. I'm pretty happy!"

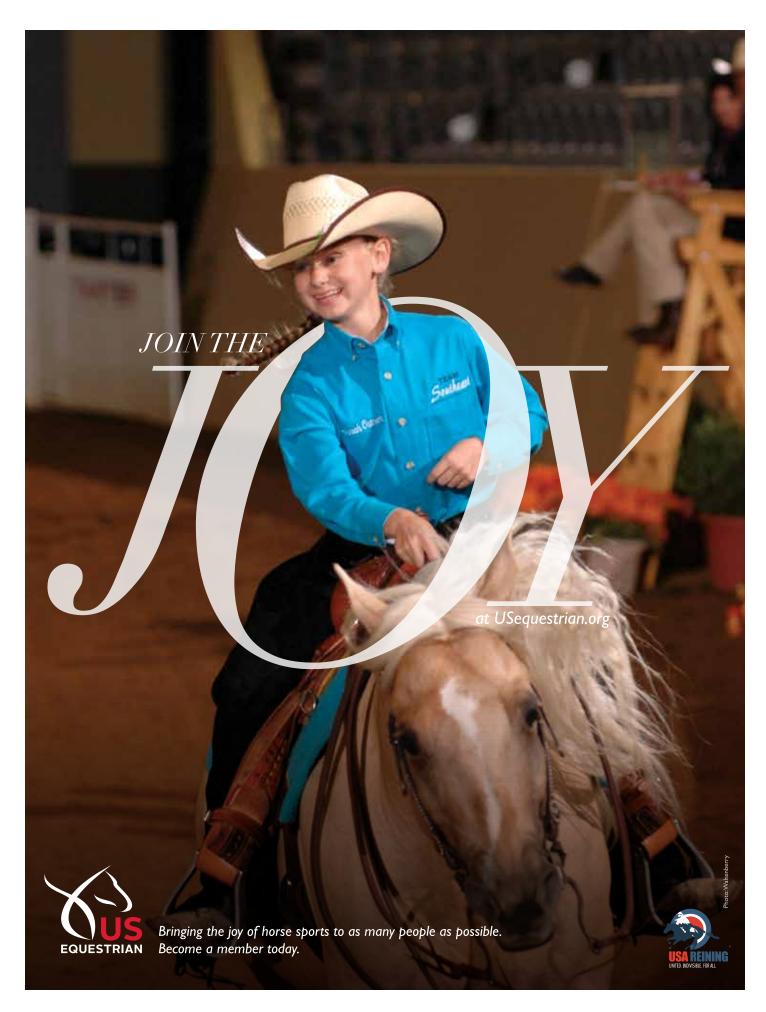

Sauerwein's 6-yearold mare by Commanders Nic and out of Sparkin Personality has performed well for her and has a future in the Rookie Classes with Sauerwein's husband.

"I've had her for two years now. We were here at Tulsa the first year I had her, and then she got hurt in the pasture so she had her whole 5-yearold year off," Sauerwein said. "Actually she's going to be my husband's horse, he's a Rookie Rider so we're hoping that in addition to being a Novice 1 winner, he'll do really well in the Rookie on her."

ANCILLARY CLASSES SHINE IN TULSA

The Tulsa Reining Classic had an impressive day Thursday, part of which included impressive runs from riders in the Non Pro ancillary classes, USA Reining Amateur and Green Reiner Levels 1 and 2, all held in the Mustang Arena.

Mandy McCutcheon and Emily Morris shared the win in the National Reining Horse Association Non Pro ancillary class with a score of 145 to earn $531, each.

McCutcheon rode Always A Specialnite, who is by Gunners Special Nite and out of Always A Dunit. Tom and Mandy McCutcheon have owned the star athlete since his 3-year-old year and the talent continues to shine in the show pen. The now-5-yearold had been off for a year due to injury prior to the Tulsa Reining Classic and came back in prime form.

"He's had a year off, so that's why I showed him back in this class here instead of in the Derby just to give him a chance to get his horseshow wheels back on," McCutcheon said "He was very good, very easy to show. I'm proud of him."

McCutcheon also took home the championship in the USA Reining Amateur class with a score of 145 aboard Always A Specialnite.

Morris rode Cross Step Wrangler, who is by Starlights Wrangler and out of Hollywood Two Step, to the winning score. Morris has been partners with the 8-year-old since he was 3 and has formed a special bond over the years.

"I had a really good run today. He was very solid with his stops and his circles and was running very good for me," Morris said. "He has improved for me greatly in this past Stephanie Nelson riding Custom Banjo (Banjo Whiz x Custom Bobbie) topped the Intermediate Non Pro with a score of 144.5 to earn $470. Nelson also earned third in the Non Pro for an additional $348.

Stephanie Nelson and the 9-year-old gelding had a great showing in Tulsa, which set them up for the NRHA regional affiliate finals.

"He's given me the confidence back in the pen and getting me back into being competitive," Nelson said. "We're world show bound as well, so we're hoping we'll peak at the right place."

Alexa Lovejoy rode 6-year-old ARC Chics Sparkle to the Limited Non Pro win with a score of 143, worth $311. ARC Chics Sparkle, who is by Smart Chic Olena and out of Sparkle On Top, who is by Topsail Whiz, led her rider to the win with her smart maneuvers inside the show pen. The duo was especially proud of their showing today because it means they are one step closer to an NRHA world title.

"We're second in the [NRHA] world right now, so we're trying to get back up to the first spot," Lovejoy said. "She's a good horse all around. She's always pretty calm."

Lovejoy and ARC Chics Sparkle also earned third in the Intermediate Non Pro and fourth in the Non Pro.

Laura Day rode Chics Dream About Me to the Prime Time Non Pro win with a score of 142.5. The duo also earned second place in the Limited Non Pro and fourth in the Intermediate Non Pro.

The 11-year-old athlete holds a special place in Day's heart and continues to impress his rider in the show pen.

"He's probably the nicest horse I've ever had," Day said. "I can count on him turning perfectly, I can count on him stopping perfectly – he's just that kind of horse. I just love showing him."

Today's win for Day was extra special, because she hadn't ridden in five weeks prior to the Tulsa Reining Classic because of an injury.

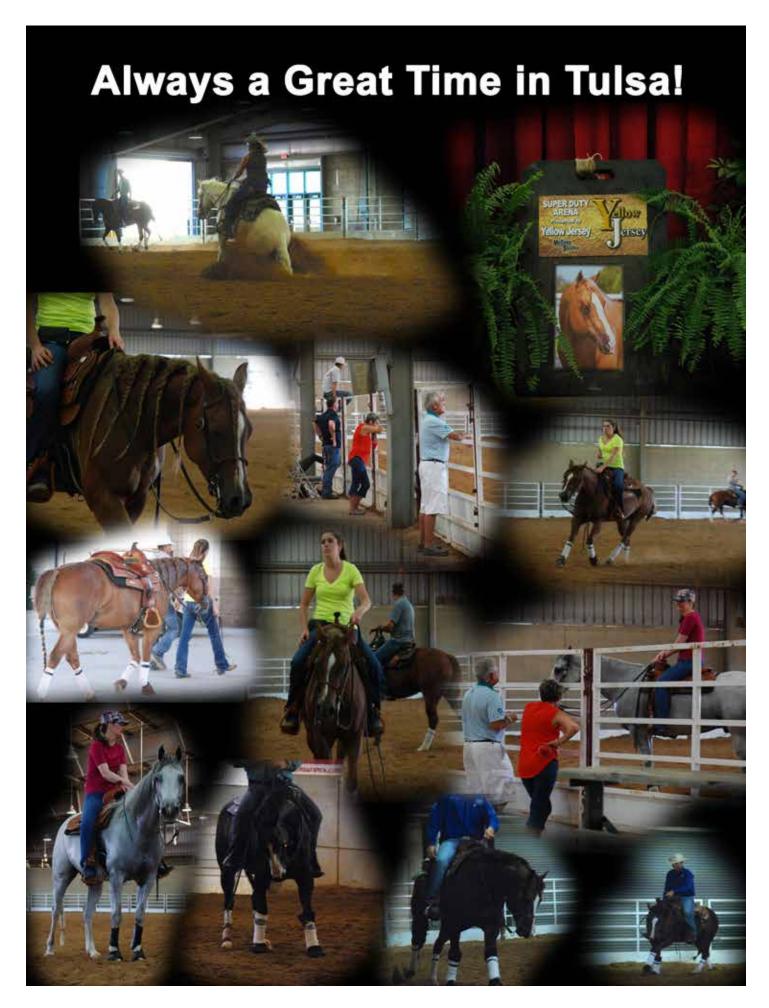

"There were places where I thought [my run] could be better, but we all think that," Day said. "All in all it was really good, really fun. The most important thing was I had a great time out there."

Maddie Pritchett riding Reeboks Rerun dominated the Green Reiner Levels 1 and 2 with a score of 71. Pritchett and Reeboks Rerun, owned by Deary Performance Horses have only been partners for a short while, however they have united as a great team in the show pen.

"I've only shown him a few times, not too many," Pritchett said. "He's a huge stopper and he's got a lot of turn. Getting him to settle down in the middle has been my trouble this week, but he was a lot better for me today."

Pritchett and Reeboks Rerun, who's by Reeboks Kid and out of Workmans Fisty, finished their week Friday in the Rookie class.

ANCILLARY RIDERS WIN BIG IN TULSA

The Tulsa Reining Classic featured stylish reining horses in Thursday's ancillary classes held in the Super Duty Arena.

Mirjam Stillo riding Ruff Spook, who's by Smart Spook and out of Ruffle Me Up, scored a 146 to top the NRHA Open for owners Shannon and Hershel Reid. The team has been together for several months of 2017 and Stillo's goal is to ride in the FEI World Equestrian Games aboard Ruff Spook. Today's performance inched them one step closer to the end goal.

"He was really good today and we just had a smooth ride," Stillo said, adding that they will show again in Friday's CRI class. "[Today's run helps keep] building confidence more and more. I tried to push him a little harder on some things and he was with me all the time. I think we are becoming a team."

The NRHA Affiliate Open championship was shared between Fred Thomsson and Josh Murphy with a score of 145.5.

Thomsson rode Arlosa Whiz, owned by Euro Vets Inc. to the Co-Championship. Thomsson and Arlosa Whiz have been a part of each others' lives since he was a foal, which Thomsson said made the day extra special.

"I was really happy with the horse, he was right on. I should have showed him a little better in one maneuver, but other than that we were real pleased with how today folded," Thomsson said.

Thomsson and Arlosa Whiz have been a part of each others' lives since he was a foal, which Thomsson said made the day extra special. Arlosa Whiz is an 8-year-old son of Topsail Whiz and out of Dream Olena Chic.

"We do this for the love of the horse and when the horse gives you everything he can it's a special feeling, no matter how you acquired him," Thomsson said.

Josh Murphy rode Got That Iowa Shine, who's by Smart And Shiney and out of SLJ This Is My Juice, to the Co-Championship. The now-4-yearold has been with Murphy since his 2-year-old year and has shared success in the show pen already in his young career. The journey hasn't been easy however. Got That Iowa Shine colicked this spring and came back to win Thursday's class.

"He's come back really strong for me," Murphy said. "[Today] he went out there and did his thing. He's just a pretty great horse to show."

Tell Edgmon topped the Intermediate Open and Intermediate Open Affiliate Finals riding Show Your Guns (Colonels Smoking Gun x Good Time Show Girl) with a score of 143.5. The pair have been partners for five years and they have developed a working relationship fortifying their success in the show pen.

"Usually I have trouble getting him to turn and he went in there and fired off both ways, after that I felt good about the rest of the run," Edgmon said.

Winona Walker rode BOS Peppy And Smart, owned by Michelle Young, to the Limited Open and Limited Open Affiliate championships. The duo turned in a score of 143 for the win. They also earned second in the Intermediate Open and Intermediate Open ancillary classes.

"I think he had a really good run," Walker said. "We [played it safe] in our stops, but he really gave me a good run."

Leslie Bingham and Who Dat Hot Chic (Wimpys Little Step x Smart Chic Aloha) topped the Rookie Professional. Who Dat Hot Chic is owned by Neiberger Performance Horses and earned Bingham the title with a score of 142.

"I realized this morning that she hadn't been in the pen yet," Bingham said with a laugh. "She was kind of looking around checking things out and cost me a little bit in the circles, but other than she was great."

Josh Tishman riding Chics Love Me Wimpy (Wimpys Little Step x Dream About Magic) topped the Rookie Pro Affiliate Finals and second in the Rookie Pro with a score of 141.5 for owners DAG Ventures LLC.

"We've been pretty competitive this entire year, I think we are sitting first or second in the yearend standings," Tishman said. "We thought we would go for the year-end title in the affiliate and he's been very consistent."

NOVICE HORSE OPEN RIDERS CROWNED IN TULSA

Friday featured the Novice Horse Open Levels 1 and 2 plus the Novice Horse Open Level 1 and 2 Affiliate Regional Finals in the Super Duty Arena at the Tulsa Reining Classic held at Expo Square in Tulsa, Okla. Top riders earned honors as champs were crowned.

Brian Bell rode Xtra Adorable Step for owner Kalyn Sanders to a score of 145 for the win in the Novice Horse Open. Xtra Adorable Step is by Wimpys Little Step and out of Dora Whiz and has been a great mount for her owner, but Sanders made the decision to hand the reins over to Bell for Friday's performance.

"I hadn't planned on showing her but Kalyn asked me to and I just wanted to have a smooth run and do good enough to win some money, but not go too crazy. She does everything pretty enough that I was able to do that, so I was excited about that," Bell said.

The mare has been in Bell's training program for a year. When the previous owner decided to sell her Bell suggested Kalyn purchase the 4-year-old and the rest is history.

"She's like pedaling a bicycle around, every step you want to go faster you have to tell her to go faster and she always waits on you really good like that, so that's probably my favorite thing about her," Bell said about one of the qualities which makes her a winner.

Sanders plans to continue riding her to hopefully progress together as a team.

Shauna Larcombe topped the Novice Horse Open Affiliate Finals and shared the Co-Championship in the Novice Horse Level 2 Affiliate Finals with Tell Edgmon.

Larcombe rode Setting Off Smart to the titles. Setting Off Smart is by Smart Spook and out of Setting Off Sparks and led Larcombe to a score of 146 for the win. Larcombe is set to show the mare in the Open Derby on Sunday and therefore didn't want to over-work the mare.

"I didn't want to over tax her too much, just wanted a nice clean run and she gave it to me," Larcombe said of her 6-year-old mare.

Edgmon rode Show Your Guns, owned by Sergio Elizondo for the win. Show Your Guns is by Colonels Smoking Guns and out of Good Time Show Girl

"It's hard to find a horse that – as the show moves on – gets better and better," Edgmon said, adding that riding for Elizondo makes his job easy.

Dany Tremblay rode Misters Temptress to the Novice Horse Level 2 Championship, which is admittedly one of his favorite horses to ride.

"She's so honest in there and I'm so glad she did good again," Tremblay said. "We're going to go the Congress next year again with that horse for the Novice Horse, we're leading the year right now, so hopefully we can end the year in the lead."

Misters Temptress is a 5-year-old mare by Mister Dual Pep and out of Colonel Pepinic and owned by Adh Mor Ranch, Brad and Amanda Kelly.

In the ARC Novice Horse Non Pro Level 2 Avila shared the win between Mercedes Dot Tari and KR Ima Dreamer, a 2011 stallion by Magnum Chic Dream and out of KR Ima Tejon. # TULSA REINING CLASSIC SHOWCASES YOUTH REINERS

The up-and-coming talents of the reining industry sported their skills in the show pen Saturday at the Tulsa Reining Classic in the youth classes held in the Super Duty Arena at Expo Square.

The 13 & Under Youth champion was Raeanna Thayn riding Coded N Karma, a 2011 gelding by Electric Code and out of Whiz N Snap. Thayn posted a score of 143 earning her the win as well as the 13 & Under USA Reining title.

"[My run] felt really good today, I just kind of sat there and he did it all himself," Thayn said, adding that it's "Karma's" craft in the show pen that she likes most. "I like that he does it and he's not going to [do anything wrong]."

Thayn and her mount have been partners for a little over a year and have quickly become successful in the show pen. They earned titles at the National Reining Breeders Classic earlier this year.

In the Youth 14-18 Sidney Perdue and Margaret Sue Dunn shared the win with scores of 144.5.

Perdue rode Shirley Shesa Tag, a 2011 mare by Whiz N Tag Chex and out of Pines BH, to the win. Perdue said

Carlee McCutcheon Rookie Youth Champion

Saturday's win was unanticipated simply because she was using the youth run as preparation for Sunday's classes.

"It was kind of unexpected, because I wasn't really trying to win today," she said. "We were just trying to go test everything out and make sure she was going to listen and she happened to get it all together in one ride. It was pretty fun."

Dunn rode Spooks Smoken Wimpy, a 2009 gelding by Wimpys Little Step and out of Please Don't Spook. Spooks Smoken Wimpy was shown in Friday's CRI class by Yonathan Baruch and scored a 220.5, which Dunn said made the opportunity to ride the gelding special.

"He's being very consistent at the show and I couldn't ask for a better horse," Dunn said.

Along with sharing the 14-18 win, she also claimed the Unrestricted Youth win with Spooks Smoken Wimpy with the same score of 144.5.

The Rookie Youth Champion was Carlee McCutcheon riding Whatta Royal Vintage with a score of 140. Whatta Royal Vintage is a 2009 mare by Hollywood Vintage and out of Whatta Royal Star.

In the Short Stirrup 10 & Under class, Owen Deary rode Reeboks Rerun to the win with a score of 72. Reeboks Rerun is a 2002 gelding by Reeboks Kid and out of Worksman Fisty and gives Deary an ample amount of opportunity to enjoy success.

"I like his stops," Deary said. "[Today's run] felt really good."

In the Youth Reining Horsemanship Class Anna Woolsey rode Lil Red Rawhidey to the win with a score of 71.5.

In the 10 & Under Walk/Trot Class, Chayda Carpenter rode Jackson to the win.

"I'm really happy, because this is my first show ever, so I was really nervous at first, but I'm really excited," she said.

Carpenter says she's been practicing a lot to get prepared for the show and all of her hard work paid off when she earned the win, but most importantly, she had fun.

Medows' 2006 stallion by Wimpys Little Step and out of Pinesail is a horse he pulled from retirement for the Platinum Performance Young Rider Team in Switzerland and has enjoyed riding the great mount since.

"He showed absolutely perfect today and it was really cool to get him out [and show]," Medows said.

Medows also won the AQHA Non Pro title with Wimpys Show Stopper.

Kathleen Armenta riding Notalotacrome (Cromed Out Mercedes x Dual Reys Jewel) claimed the Non Pro Prime Time and ARC Prime Time championships.

Armenta had a busy day on Sunday helping her daughter show in the youth classes as well as trying to focus on her own runs, but her mount handled the pressure well.

"He's becoming a little soldier," she said. "Even in a hurry-scurry situation he came through for me. Sometimes you have to go in there and hope your experience gets you through and I guess it did."

The Tulsa Reining Classic showcases some of the top reining horses and riders in the industry, but it also highlights the industry's prospective champions - youth reiners. Sunday in the Mustang Arena, Youth Riders showed off their skills in classes for riders ages 10 & under all the way to 21.

Owen Deary took top honors in the 10 & Under Short Stirrup, plus the short stirrup Affiliate Regional Championship riding Reeboks Rerun to a score of 144.

"It was really good," he said of his run Sunday, adding that one maneuver was his favorite - Reebok's stops.

The Youth 13 & Under Champion was Raeanna Thayn riding Coded N Karma. Thayn and "Karma" also earned the ARC Youth 13 & Under, the American Quarter Horse Association 13 & Under and the USA 13 & Under win. They added the Unrestricted Youth title, as well. Coded N Karma is a 2011 gelding by Electric Code and out of Whiz N Snap.

"My horse just went out there and did it. I just sat up there," she said with a laugh. "He's really honest. My run was really good."

The Youth 14-18 Champion and ARC Youth 14-18 Champion was Dani Latimer riding Sparklin Nite, a 2012 stallion by Gunners Special Nite and out of Getaway Spark.

"I'm excited for this guy, he's come a long way in the past year," Latimer said. "As a young horse he was a really slow learner. He's still getting the hang of it, but he's proven 14-18 Championship with a score of 143. himself to be a really good show horse."

SAVE THE DATE FOR THE AHC'S 2018 ANNUAL MEETING & NATIONAL ISSUES FORUM

Meeting to take place June 10-13, 2018

The AHC is pleased to announce that its 2018 Annual Meeting and National Issues Forum will take place from June 10-13, 2018 at the Capital Hilton in the heart of Washington, DC.

The Capital Hilton is a new venue for our Annual Meeting," said AHC President Julie Broadway. "The past several years we have been at the Washington Court Hotel which was just a few blocks from Capitol Hill. In 2018, we decided to give meeting attendees a glimpse of a different part of DC with a hotel that is just two blocks from the White House, as well as making some changes to the schedule to ensure attendees are able to attend the meetings that they would like to."

Historically, the AHC's Annual Meeting, when all AHC Committees and the Unwanted Horse Coalition meet, has taken place on Monday. While the AHC's five main committees will still meet on Monday, the Unwanted Horse Coalition meeting will now take place on Sunday.

"With the growing industry and public interest in aftercare and retraining/rehoming, we felt it was best to shift the 2018 meeting schedule around to allow more time for a robust discussion during the UHC's meeting," said UHC Director Ashley Furst.

The National Issues Forum, sponsored by Luitpold Animal Health, will take place on Tuesday, June 12th. The agenda is still being finalized, but at this time topics include a Youth Panel, Tax Reform, Data Insights and Implications, Immigration, and Aftercare.

Please check the Events tab on the AHC website for information as it becomes available. For more information about the Annual Meeting and National Issues Forum, please contact the AHC at 202-296-4031 or info@horsecouncil.org.

REINING HORSE FOUNDATION AWARDS SCHOLARSHIP TO ZAYLE DAVIS

High school rodeo and the reined cow horse competition are leading to a college scholarship for Zayle Davis of Blackfoot, Idaho, thanks to a partnership benefiting competitors at the National High School Finals Rodeo (NHS-FR). For the second consecutive year, the Reining Horse Foundation has joined with the National Reined Cow Horse Association (NRCHA) to provide a $2,500 scholarship to the student athlete marking the highest score in the reining during the NHSFR, held July 17-23 in Gillette, Wyo.

In her final year of high school competition, Davis scored a 151 in the rein work during the short go to capture the award. She also received a Morrison bronze courtesy of the National Reining Horse Association (NRHA). She was riding Reymanator (Dual Rey x Savannah Hickory), a 2006 American Quarter Horse gelding. In a field of 107 reined cow horse contestants, Davis finished fourth overall with a total score of 874.5; the event champion is Daxon Buttars of Snowville, Utah. Reymanator is owned by Sandy Semanik of Jacksonville, Fla., but is a full-time member of the Davis family.

Davis also had the high reining score in the preliminary round and knew she needed to perform a clean pattern in the finals. Of her winning run, she said, "I've been practicing a long time. Once I walked into the pen, I cued him right, and I've never had him stop like that before. He was being really good. It takes a lot of teamwork to have a run like that."

Davis and Reymanator were the 2017 Idaho State High School Rodeo Champions in reined cow horse. A true example of versatility, the gelding is also her mount for barrel racing and pole bending and her brother Dawson's horse for tie-down roping. cutting for boys; and breakaway roping, barrel racing, pole bending, goat tying, cutting, team roping, and the queen contest for girls.

While reined cow horse might not be a traditional rodeo event, NHSRA, NRCHA, and NRHA acknowledge that reined cow horse can elevate the riding ability of NHSRA members. As part of the reined cow horse competition, contestants must complete a reining pattern, commonly referred to as dry work.

"Providing youth scholarships is a core program of the Reining Horse Foundation," said Mandy McCutcheon, a $2 million NRHA rider and Foundation Board member. "It is our hope that by reaching out to the youth contestants of high school rodeo, more students will be introduced to reining and reined cow horse and ensure these sports grow and succeed for generations to come."

Based in Oklahoma City, Okla., the Reining Horse In late 2014, the National High School Rodeo Association Foundation is the philanthropic arm of the National Reining Horse Association. Core programs for the 501(c) 3 nonprofit organization include youth scholarships, the Dale Wilkinson Memorial Crisis Fund and the NRHA Hall of Fame.

COLICARE CELEBRATES 5 YEARS OF PROTECTING HORSES & THEIR OWNERS

As a company that stands for healthy horses and happy riders, SmartPak is excited to celebrate the 5-year anniversary of their ColiCare program. Since 2012, thousands of horse owners have changed (and in some cases saved) their horse's lives, thanks to ColiCare, which provides up to $7,500 in colic surgery reimbursement.

"We are honored to be a member of so many horses' health care teams through our ColiCare program," said Sarah Mann, Vice President of Brand and Customer Experience at SmartPak. "We're horse owners ourselves, so we always love hearing success stories on how our supplements have helped horses live healthy lives. And, for those horses that we have been able to help when the unexpected has happened, it's incredibly meaningful to know that we've helped provide the financial resources needed to give them the care they deserve. It's truly a dream job"

Along with this milestone, SmartPak is taking their ColiCare-eligible supplements to the next level with a new and improved digestive ingredient: Diamond V® Yeast.
