"BATTLE FOR THE SADDLE" ROLLS THE DICE TO DETERMINE THE WINNER

What is horse showing if not a roll of the dice? Each and every time we walk into the show pen, we are "throwing the dice" that today is the day that our horse is prepared and willing and that we will remain on pattern and keep our wits about us. Each time we cross the threshold of an open arena gate, we are taking a gamble that our horse is focused and swift and that we as riders guide our charges through their paces with ease and perfection, running our pattern with the buckle, blue ribbon, or trophy in mind. Each time we send in our entries, load the trailer, and saddle up to show, we are gambling on the fact that Lady Luck is on our side. So how fitting that at a facility by the name of Rolling Hills Casino and Equestrian Center, the West Coast Reining Horse Association should create a class where everyone is welcome to try their hand first inside the arena aboard their trusty steeds, and then after the fact with a Roll of the Dice to determine who would ultimately take home the trophy saddle?!

Confused? Well, let me explain. "Battle for the Saddle" was created in conjunction with Rolling Hills Casino and Equestrian Center in Corning, California, in order to provide every entry, whether they be in the Open or the Non Pro or even both, with the chance to win a trophy saddle regardless of age, experience, or caliber of horse. How exciting to know that even though you may not be riding the best horse in the hunt, that a pair of dice might permit you take home a brand new trophy saddle. For the 21 entries on the night of March 3, that is exactly what happened. Paying a mere $75 entry fee, a comopetitors entered the "Battle for the Saddle", execute the run of their choosing . . . maybe fast and furious . . . maybe clean and correct . . . maybe something in the middle . . . and at the conclusion of the class, roll a pair of giant red dice whose total would then be added to their score, providing an added element of suspense as to who would proudly take home a custom ordered Silver Spurs Saddle of Scottsdale sponsored by Rolling Hills Casino and Equestrian Center.

Comprised of Youth riders, a Green as Grass rider, both seasoned and less seasoned Non Pros and a handful of Open riders, the field of 21 was set to "gamble for the saddle." The strategy of some riders was to run big and amass as many points as they could in the sand, leaving less chance to the dice, while others showed clean and steady in hopes of rolling a high number in order to supplement their score, and then there were those entries who were in it to participate, support a fun new class, and hope that a clean pattern and a big roll would be the combo that would take home one of the great awards offered up to all of those who paid their entries and took a chance.

The evening event began with 13-year-old Maggie Chancellor, who despite the fact that her horse Steady Like a Star, challenged her at every step, exited the arena to the cheers of a supportive crowd, a smile ear-to-ear, and the beaming pride of her mom Sandy and coach, Amy Walden. Behind Maggie came sport newcomer and Green as Grasser, Stephanie Munzinger and her brand new gelding Aces High Ace who hauled off and laid down a clean pattern on their maiden voyage together in the arena. Again, smiles all around as Stephanie exited the arena, heart pounding and thrilled to be competing, anxious to see what her roll later in the evening might contribute to her total. And so the evening progressed with scores ranging anywhere from a 146 to a 127, nothing would be taken for granted until each rider rolled their dice at the end of the evening.

At the completion of the class, a pizza party sponsored by Osphos and Jessica Marvis commenced at the in-gate for riders, sponsors, trainers, coaches and anyone who had been there to clap and cheer; while the magic dice and buckets of awards were schlepped to the center of the arena, where only minutes before riders had been spinning and sliding their way to possible stardom. With everything in place, the dice were warmed up and ready to roll as each contestant took their turn at adding up to 12 free points to their final score. Rolling in order of their go, Maggie Chancellor was the first one on the podium and managed to roll a two and a three, adding five points to her original score. Stephanie Munzinger, who entered both the Non Pro and the Open, was permitted two throws, one for each class. Snake eyes would do little to gain her the saddle in the Non Pro, but a total of six would help move her ever so slightly up the Open placings. Martin Padilla had knocked out the second highest score of the evening with a 146.5, but luck would not be on his side as the dice turned up a whopping total of three, making his total a 149.5, two and a half points shy of the top spot. Three riders in, Martin's total was still the high score, but it was anyone's guess how long that would hold. Following Martin, Dave Hanson would see the lucky side of the dice as he managed to roll a six, bringing his total to a 150 and putting him in the top position where he would remain for the next five riders. But his reign would be brief as Kain Emmons managed to woo Lady Luck once more, rolling a six and taking the lead with a total of 152. Six more riders to roll . . . each to the cheers and jeers of his or her fellow competitors as each one willed their pair of dice to outshine those who had rolled before them. When the dust settled and the points were tallied, Kain Emmons and Tereasa Canada's Ez On The Slide would be the Open victors with a 152 total, leaving the Reserve Champion position to be split between Dave Hanson and Laetitia Loubser's A Wayward Revolution and Kelly Keenan riding Paola Troia's Suga Suga.

Britta Jocobson and Ms Benz with an arena score of 142 and one of the highest rolls of the night, an eight, would have a total of 150 and take home the custom order Non Pro saddle for her efforts, leaving the Non Pro Reserve Champion position to Bailey Alexander and her horse Ima Ugly Stick, with a total score of 148.5 after an eight was added to her arena score of 140.5.

However, all was not lost for those who fell short of the top spots because thanks to the hard work and dedication of Britta Jacobson, who worked tirelessly gathering a host of awesome sponsors, every entry went home with something fabulous to commemorate their participation in the 2nd Annual Battle for the Saddle. Of course, there were the Silver Spurs Saddlery of Arizona saddles sponsored by Rolling Hills Casino and Equine Center, but in addition, there were beautiful show blankets provided by Michelle Miola and The Show Pads, Horslic sponsored buckets full of goodies to every entry, Shorty's Caboy Hattery sponsored gift certificates and hat cans, Equine Oasis tack courtesy of Tim Bauer and super cool embroidered ball caps thanks to California Embroidery. Thank you to everyone who sponsored, entered, supported and cheered for our Battle in the Saddle entries! What an exciting start to another great year out on the West Coast!

GIUSEPPE PREVOSTI LEADS THE NRHA EUROPEAN FUTURITY OPEN QUALIFIER

In a field of 104 horse-rider combinations, NRHA Giuseppe Prevosti posted a 223 to lead the Level (L)4 division riding Walla Golden Arrow, a stallion by NRHA Million Dollar Sire Walla Walla Whiz out of Nu Chucka (pictured at right).

"I got this stallion in training shortly after the 2017 Italian Reining Horse Association (IRHA) Futurity where he was ridden by [NRHA Professional]

Pierluigi Chioldo," said a thrilled Prevosti, who also placed on his second mount in the Open finals. "Chioldo moved to the south of Italy and his owner, Francesca Bertazzi, did not want to be so far away from her horse so - along with Chioldo - they thought he would be a good match for me. He is a very charismatic and talented horse who was nominated and bred by his owner, who is also the owner of his dam."

Leading the L3 division with a 220 score were NRHA Professionals Stephan Rohde of Germany and Lukas Czechowicz of Poland. Rohde rode Michaela Maltz Szrama's Glamshot, a stallion by I Am Shotgunner out of Boomernics Command, nominated by Sabrina Bojes. Czechowicz was seen riding CSG Piggiemove, a stallion owned, bred and nominated by Katarzvna Roleska.

With a 216.5 score, two lady reiners tied to lead the L2 Open division: NRHA Professional Mona Dorr riding G Whiz Gus (Inwhizable x Peppiment Patti), a gelding owned by Martin Bachmann and nominated by Heike Melanie Ebler, and NRHA Professional Petra Van Ede riding Cee U In Tinseltown (Hollywoodtinseltown x Miss Wimpy Hollywood), a mare owned, bred and nominated by Gisela Haas. Van Ede and Cee U In Tinseltown also lead the L1 Open division.

CHEXY OAK, Q-42009

Major Show Career Highlights: NRHA Open Non Pro Champion, Equitana Asia Pacific Non Pro Champion, VRHA State Non Pro Derby Champion, NRHA of Australia Hi Point Open Non Pro, NRHA Open Non Pro Reserve Champion, NSW Non Pro Derby Reserve Champion, VRHA State Ladies Champion, VRHA Saddle Series Non Pro Champion, Buckle up and Slide Open Non Pro Reserve Champion. Reining Australia top 20 money earning mare, and a $25,000 NRHA Producer, as well as money earning Campdrafters & Cutters.

Chexy Oak (Strawberry) was bred and is owned by the Smith family. She was foaled in 1997. She is by the legendry Doc's Freckles Oak (the number two all time leading sire for all events NCHA Austria with progeny earnings of $1,214,297.00) and out of the mare Tweed Phillipa Chex (NRHA Non Pro Derby Reserve Champion, NRHA Non Pro Derby Champion, NRHA Open Non Pro) who was by the renowned broodmare sire Kings Phillip (imp) an own son of Peppy San Badger, and out of the great cowhorse mare, Clover Roanoka, an own daughter of Easter Chex.

and trained by Greg as a futurity horse through to the first year of her derbies with great success. Following this Strawberry earned her money the "old way" she was shown by Greg in Open, Open Non Pro and aged events, and by Sam in the Ladies, Rookies and Limited Non Pro events It would not be uncommon to see her shown 6 times a show, at all levels. In fact in one state show she won the Non Pro Derby, the Ladies, the Rook-

Strawberry was mare. She was shown always a special

ies and the Open Non Pro events. This speaks volumes for her ability to adapt to riders' levels and her dead set honesty and reliability.

For more information, email Cheryl at Cheryl@WorldWideSlide.com or call (580) 759-2572. Following her last Derby year Strawberry was happily retired to the broodmare paddock. Flash forward another 6 years and Tyler decided she might like to ride reiners.

"Look out Strawberry you are it! I don't know who was more shocked, Strawberry, or Tyler, when she came back into work it was literally like she had not had a day off," Sam said. Four weeks later the pair went to their first who in Tamworth and came home with all blue ribbons, from here on Tyler got more serious.

Over the next show season Tyler and Strawberry really worked hard together forming a special bond "Tyler loved Strawberry and Strawberry tolerated Tyler". The Smiths could see Strawberry thinking "OK I'll cart the kid around, but she better hang on and get it right." As a first reining horse, Tyler is blessed to have had Strawberry, she had taught Tyler so very much about showing, training and horse maintenance. In only 2 years this pair went from Green Rider level to top be in the top 10 standings in the Open (6th) and Open Non Pro (4th)!

The fact that at 20 years old this mare was able to win this title is a testament to her breeding, the care and attention she has received and a sound training program. Strawberry is now happily re- retired and looking forward to becoming a mother again.

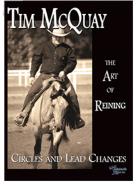

Strawberry has taken every member of the Smith family to multiple top 10 awards and State to National titles, there are not too many horses who have done that.

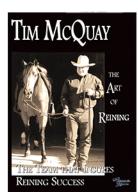

To the Smith family, Chexy Oak is not only the "Non Pro Mare of the Year, but also, she is The Mare of Our Lifetime."
