NATIONAL REINING BREEDERS CLASSIC STILL GOING STRONG

The National Reining Breeders Classic has become an event where everyone expects to be treated to exceptional performance, unforgettable moments, and sterling memories.

From the sheer power of Duane Latimer's big Open Finals run on Modern Gun to the big smile from Non Pro Champion Jose Vasquez there were all of the above and more. When Dr. Jim Morgan surpassed the $1 Million Dollar mark in career earnings, there was an arena full of happy tears as his many friends shared the achievement. Jack and Viola Scott were all smiles as well as their super sire, Magnum Chic Dream, became a $5 Million sire at the show.

Four Million Dollar rider Andrea Fappani was surprised to hear that he had become only the second rider to surpass the million-dollar mark in NRHA earnings. Watch Andrea's interview with Virtual Horse Help.

A new buzzword came to life in Yellowstone as Taylor Sheridan and his team became a part of the NRBC, and reiners worldwide are planning to watch the first episode on June 20 on Paramount Network! What a thrill for Yellowstone Rookie Shootout Champion Jennifer Neudorf to take home a custom golf cart!

And as always, the hospitality was through the roof with sponsored parties, receptions and special activities throughout the week set against the backdrop of the beautiful Great Southwest Equestrian Center

LATIMER WINS NRBC OPEN CLASSIC ON MODERN GUN

The highlight of the NRBC each year is always the Open Classic Finals and this year's edition was one for the history books as Duane Latimer rode Modern Gun (Gunners Special Nite x Taris Modern Design) to a score of 228 to top the Level 4 and be crowned the NRBC Open Classic champion. The win was Latimer's first Open Classic title since 2000 when he won the title on Conquistador Whiz. This year he also topped the Prime Time to become the first Level 4 winner to also win the Prime Time.

"It's been a little while," Latimer said with a laugh, adding that the 5-year-old stallion performed outstandingly. "He was dialed in really, really good today. I was really happy."

As is custom in the sport camaraderie and the love of the horse shines through above all else and the crowd's response to Latimer's run was a prime example of the excitement and appreciation of reining that abounds at NRBC.

"[The crowd was really behind me] - it was awesome!" Latimer said.

Latimer has had Modern Gun since he was a 2-year-old and knows his style well. He said Modern Gun had been showing and schooling well all week, which set him up to push his horse to his full potential.

"My strategy is pretty much always the same - you go in thinking you can do it," he said. "I didn't warm him up much or do too much outside, just loped him around and worked on some steering and then went down there stopped and did our deal. I thought I had him up to it, but you never know."

Duane collected $75,000 for owner MS Stables along with one year's use of a Deluxe four-horse Trailer from Twin Cities South Trailer Sales, a custom saddle sponsored by Bob's Saddles, a Gist Silversmiths championship buckle, Anderson Bean boots, Santa Cruz products and an array of other awards and NRBC trophies.

Andrea Fappani and Pedro Baiao each marked a 225.5 to share the reserve co-championship in the Level 4. Fappani rode Epic Titan (Colonels Smoking Gun x Princess In Diamonds) owned by Clinton Anderson. Baiao rode Michael Garnett's Spooksgottachicolena (Spooks Gotta Gun x Braz Us). They each received $41,000 for the reserve co-championship.

BAIAO WINS OPEN CLASSIC LEVEL 3

Pedro Baiao earned the Level 3 championship riding

Spooksgottachicolena (Spooks Gotta Gun x Braz Us) to win $20,582. Baiao said he got a few words of special instruction from his boss, Martin Muehlstaetter.

“Martin said to me, ‘Pedro, just see how fast he can go,’” Baiao said with a laugh.

Baiao didn’t disappoint his employer when he and Spooksgottachicolena marked a 225.5 to ultimately win the Level 3 and tie for reserve honors in the Level 4.

“He was really good riding out here the whole week and that was my plan,” he said. “I didn’t know it was going to mark that, but my goal was to test his speed.”

*Pedro Baiao rode Spooksgottachicolena

The score was Baiao’s highest score of his career, making the NRBC championship an extra special moment.

“I knew after my second circle I was doing good,” he said with a laugh. “I could hear the crowd yelling and stuff. He hit the first stop so good and I knew some good score would come - not 225.5, but a good score. When I heard the 25 I was so excited. It was the best run of my life.”

NICOLAZZI WINS OPEN CLASSIC LEVEL 2

Ricky Nicolazzi guided Spooks Show Time (Spooks Gotta Whiz x Dolittle Lena) to a score of 219 to win the Level 2 and earn $8,128. Nicolazzi has had the 5-year-old gelding, owned by Rancho Oso Rio, since September 2017 and the duo has been progressing well together sharing a highlight win at NRBC.

“I’m very happy about this horse and the winnings, especially for Rancho Oso Rio,” Nicolazzi said. “They always give me good horses to ride, so I’m really happy about it.”

Nicolazzi admits the Texas humidity took a toll on his mount, which resulted in him riding a little more conservatively than he would have liked.

“[My run] felt really good. He was a little tired at the end I couldn’t push him the way I wanted, but he’s not used to the humidity,” he said. “I don’t warm him up a lot, but I could feel I didn’t have as much horse as normal, but he did really good and showed hard.”

“It’s been a privilege to ride behind Andrea (Fappani) and get to show [Thebettertohearwith] his 6-year-old year,” Maddox said.

The win at NRBC is Maddox’ first major championship which makes the NRBC a special memory for him.

“My goal was just to have a cleaner run,” Maddox said. “We still had an over-turn, but other than it was really the week spent at NRBC.

“It’s been awhile since I’ve been back [in reining competition] and I don’t know that this is the show I would have picked, I mean this is the toughest dadgum reining there is so to come out here and hang with these guys it’s an honor and a privilege,” Dawson said.

Borges rode Checksworthy (Big Chex To Cash x Banjoes Shining Star) owned by Terry Leffew. Borges hasn’t had the 4-year-old mare long, having taken over the reins only in January, but the short time hasn’t hindered their performances together.

“Our second show together was here at the NRBC,” Borges said. “She’s pretty solid in her runs and she’s really nice.”

The NRBC was Borges’ first time to compete in the Level 4 finals, which was both a milestone and a learning experience.

“I feel I can get a little more out of her. It’s my first Level 4 finals so I got a little nervous in the turns, so I didn’t nail the marks but she can mark better than that,” Borges said with a laugh.

VAZQUEZ TOPS NON PRO CLASSIC

*Jose Vazquez rode Like Shiner
Non Pro Level 4 and Prime Time Classic Champion*

The National Reining Breeders Classic has seen top-shelf competition throughout the week. Reiners from across the country have traveled the miles, put in the hard work and showed up in Katy, Texas, in top form to battle it out for championship prizes and bragging rights.

Friday Jose Vazquez rode Like Shiner (Smart Like Juice x Wind Her Up Shiner) to a score of 223.5 to top the Level 4 and be crowned the NRBC Non Pro Classic champion and $30,000. Along with his Level 4 win Vazquez also took home the Prime Time championship. This is Vazquez’ first NRBC Non Pro championship since 2009, which makes today’s win special.

“To come here and win is really difficult, the top horses come here, the top riders come here, but I have to sneak in somewhere sometime,” Vazquez said with a laugh.

Prior to entering the pen Jose knew Jack Medows and Chicsdreamofdiamonds were leading the Level 4 with a 222. Vazquez said he used that as motivation to lay it all on the line.

“There’s pressure every time you go in, because if there’s not a 222 [before you] there will be a 222 behind you,” he said, “so the pressure is that it’s not over until it’s over. When I come to a show my hope is to make the finals, but when I make the finals then it changes and I want to step up a little bit and hopefully it will be my day.”

Along with the cash Vazquez received one year’s use of a deluxe two-horse Horse Trailer from Gary and Tammy Raak of Twin Cities Trailer Sales, a custom championship saddle sponsored by Kyle Tack, a Gist Silversmiths championship buckle sponsored by NRBC, a crystal trophy from NRBC, an NRHA bronze trophy, Anderson Bean boots, Whisper Bit from M3 Products, Ultra Cruz Equine Wellness and Joint Care plus other NRBC sponsored products like a custom embroidered cooler, a commemorative champion medal, and champion ribbon collar and roses.

BLAKE TAKES LEVELS 1 AND 3 NON PRO CLASSIC CHAMPIONSHIPS

Mark Blake rode Hot Hollywood Whizky to a score of 218 to win the Non Pro Level 3, Level 1, and the reserve championship in the Prime Time. Along with the $8,400 Blake picked up for winning the Level 3, his Level 1 finish garnered him another $1,553 while his Prime Time finish earned him $1,008.

“It truly was awesome,” Blake said of his run. “I could tell he was ready to roll from the get-go. He was listening and he was with me,” Blake said. “Everything just started to click, the whole pattern just got stronger, so it felt great.”

Hot Hollywood Whizky is by Topsail Whiz out of Hot Hollywood Jewels and has been performing well for Blake in several shows they’ve entered together, which Blake admits allowed his nerves to come into play during the Prelims.

“I was nervous going in, because I felt a lot of pressure from the last two shows that I’ve shown him. We’ve won everything that we entered, so I felt a lot of pressure and it probably showed in the Prelims,” Blake said. “Today that wasn’t there, it just felt great.”

Blake received a custom saddle sponsored NRBC, a Gist Silversmiths championship buckle sponsored by NRBC, an NRHA bronze trophy, Whisper Bit from M3 Products, Ultra Cruz Equine Wellness and Joint Care from San Juan Ranch and Santa Cruz Biotechnology. Plus, other NRBC sponsored products such as a crystal trophy, a commemorative champion medal, a custom embroidered cooler and champion ribbon collar and roses.

Reserve champion in the Level 3 was David McGee riding Knaughty-byknature (Magnum Chic Dream x Princess In Diamonds) with a score of 216. McGee received a Gist Silversmiths reserve champion buckle sponsored by NRBC, a custom embroidered cooler and commemorative reserve champion medal from NRBC, as well as Ultra Cruz Equine Vitamin E Plus from San Juan Ranch and Santa Cruz Biotechnology.

OPELL WINS NON PRO CLASSIC LEVEL 2

Emily Opell rode Spook N Reyn (Smart Spook x Reyn Chex) to a score of 216.5 to win the Level 2 as well as the reserve championship in the Level 1. Opell had a busy day picking up wins in the youth classes aboard other horses as well, but the Non Pro victory was her favorite, because it's her first time to enter the Classic.

"He's a really, really talented horse," Opell said of her 6-year-old mount. "I'm so blessed to have a horse and come out here and do this and the run [felt awesome]. He ran in and stopped and I thought, 'Man, this is going to be a good run.'"

Opell pocketed $4,000 for the first place win, plus $945 for the second place Level 1 finish. She also received a custom saddle sponsored by Scottsdale Western World, a Gist Silversmiths championship buckle sponsored by NRBC, Whisper Bit from M3

DR. JIM MORGAN BECOMES NEWEST NRHA MILLION DOLLAR RIDER

While competing in the Non Pro Classic Finals Jim Morgan, 73, crossed the $1 million mark as a rider with the help of Shiney Workboots (Smart And Shiney x Reminic At Work) and Reining-withthestars (Spooks Gotta Whiz x Wimpys Memorabilia). Aboard Shiney Workboots Morgan tied for fourth in the Level 4 with a score of 219 with William Rhoads and Megga Maggie Mae. Morgan and Shiney Workboots also finished third in the Prime Time. With Reining-withthestars Morgan finished 28th in the Level 4 and tied for 17th in the Prime Time. All totaled Morgan earned more than $11,000 in today's Non Pro Classic, which pushed him over the $1 million mark.

"I've been riding horses since I was a little kid. We never really did it for the money, we just did it, because we did it," Morgan said. "I love riding reining horse and it's taken me a long way in my life."

A veteran in the industry Morgan says although the crossing the million-dollar mark was a goal of his he cherishes the moments with his wife, friend and family above all else.

"It was fun today for a lot of reasons, but it's my wife's birthday today and so she drove all the way down, five hours, to watch today. It was fun to share it with her," he said. "It's not just about the million dollars it's about all your friends and all the horses. It's an accomplishment, but there's so much more that surrounds it than just the number."

(Whiz N Tag Chex x Kachina Oak Olena) has been performing well for Neudorf all week picking up paychecks in the rookie classes to qualify her for the shootout. The pair showed big in the Coliseum to turn in a crowd-pleasing performance and earn a score of 72.5 to top the class and win the Yellowstone Rookie Shootout.

“It was my first time [showing in the Coliseum] and it felt really good. I had a lot of fun,” Neudorf said. “I pushed him more in my circles and I just put my hand down and said ‘whoa’ in his stops and it felt really cool to win [the Shoot-out] and I’m really happy.”

Rafacz became the reserve champion riding Whizenboonsmal to a score of 72, followed by Bush with a 71 on Shes A Shinging Gun. Neiberger finished fourth from a score of 70.5 on Who Dat Hot Chich, and Brugato finished fifth riding Mister Black Magic.

Taylor Sheridan, writer, director and producer of Paramount Network’s new series “Yellowstone” - the namesake of the new rookie challenge - and Cole Hauser, one the show’s stars were on hand to present awards to the rookies, including the custom golf cart awarded to Neudorf.

MAGNUM CHIC DREAM BECOMES $5 MILLION SIRE AT THE NRBC

By the end of Friday night’s NRBC Open Reining evening, Magnum Chic Dream (Smart Chic Olena x Sailin Barbie) became an NRHA $5 Million Sire. The 14-year-old stallion achieved the feat through the efforts of his foals’ performances at the NRBC. Owners, Jack and Viola Scott were on hand to witness the milestone.

Jack and Viola Scott Owners of Magnum Chic Dream

“I log on every Friday and write it all down,” Jack said of keeping track of “Magnum’s” earnings and status. “I was pretty sure yesterday afternoon that he’d crossed it, but

Cheryl (Cody) told me this morning [that he crossed the mark.]”

“I think Jack’s been [tracking the stats] for a year now,” Viola said with a laugh. “We’re pleased to death for [Magnum crossing the $5 Million mark as a sire.]”

Viola also noted that it was interesting to realize that Magnum crossed three of his million-dollar marks - $1 Million Sire, $3 Million Sire, and now $5 Million Sire - all at NRBC.

2018 CACTUS REINING CLASSIC

Provided by BMG Events

On March 19, exhibitors arrived from as far away as Florida, Pennsylvania and Canada with great enthusiasm for competing in the 13th Cactus Reining Classic at West World in Scottsdale, Arizona. When it comes to winter weather, Scottsdale is the place to be. Warm days and cool nights are just what a great horse show such as the Cactus Reining Classic hopes for and that's what was ordered up for this year's event. Several hundred talented competitors made the trip to this fabulous city and experienced the first of five Brumley Management Group, LLC's events in 2018.

This year's event setting did not disappoint. More than $150,000 in cash and prizes was offered and with it brought a significant increase in attendance. The competition began with the Ancillary Open and Non Pro slates. A fixture of BMG Events are the coveted High Point awards. Based on the riders placings in each slate determines the Champion and Reserve Champion High Point winners. Loren Booth from Orange Cove, California rode her mare Taris Little

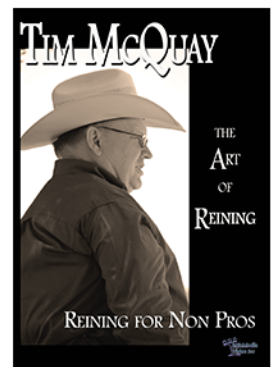

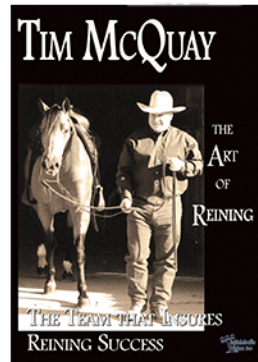

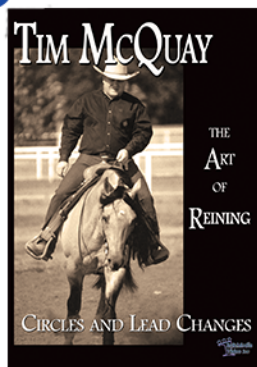

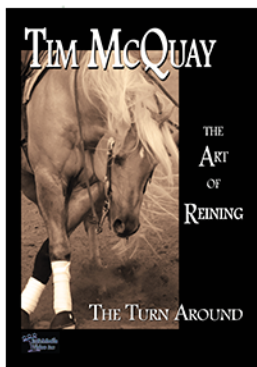

Gunner, a 2011 mare, by Gunner and out of Taris Modern Design, to win High Point Champion in the Non Pro, Intermediate Non Pro and Prime Time Non Pro divisions.

"Loren was super consistent with the mare", comments Tracer Gilson her trainer. "The two have really come together in the last year. She won the Select Amateur Circuit at the Sun Country show last month and was a finalist at the AQHA Select World in 2017."

Rick Christen's mare Msdreamy (Magnum Chic Dream x A Gal With A Gun) won the Open High Point Championship with rider Dan Huss. Whizen Big Chex (Big Chex To Cash x Whizgun) won both the Intermediate and Limited Open High Point Championship with rider Gary Roberts for owner Kimberly Laser. The Reserve High Point Intermediate Open Championship was awarded to the 2010 gelding Holier Than Thou (Jacs Electric Spark x Slide Me Again) owned by Nicole McDevitt of Woodside, California and ridden by Eric LaPorte.

row was the National Arabian Reining Horse Association (NARHA) Ancillary divisions.

“We are slowly starting to see exhibitors from the Arabian industry come to our events,” notes Amanda Brumley the event’s producer. “Avid Arabian enthusiasts now have venues to show off their talented and beautiful working western horses and can win cash and prizes. NRHA reining events are open to all breeds, as a producer I want to see more breeds at our shows.”

The NARHA Open High Point Championship went to Twylite Zone, (Basic Four x JB Dos Jalepenas) a 2007 Half Arabian ridden by Jessica Bein for owner Ashlye Caruth Daniel. Reserve High Point Champion went to TCR Gone N Dunit, (Shiner Dun It x All Laced Up) a 2014 Half Arabian ridden by Martin Padilla for owner Isabelle Ord.

NRHA Professional and Arabian reining trainer Jessica Bein from Scottsdale, Arizona, had this to say about bringing Arabians into mainstream NRHA events, “The opportunity to bring our Arab clientele to Cactus (Reining) Classic allows our riders to see national level reining horses, without intimidating them. Having separate divisions for the Arabs allows a natural progression to raising their level of expertise.” Bein continued, “Brumley Management utilizes the needs of growing the industry and bridging the gap between entry level shows and upper level competition.”

Consistently the largest Ancillary divisions entered at BMG events are the Limited Non Pro and Rookie divisions. “I love to see large entry numbers in these divisions as these are the exhibitors buying the older horses, lengthening their careers and strengthening our industry as a whole,” notes Brumley. “We look to reward these large classes by offering custom High Point Champion trophy saddles. The competition to win these saddles is fierce. Those who win them have definitely worked and showed their tails off.”

Winner of the Limited Non Pro High Point Championship and taking home the Silver Spurs Saddle sponsored by Scottsdale Western World was Katherine Dazendorf and her horse Olenas Bright Star, (Starlights Starbright x Olenas Frecklemint). Rookie Level 2 and Prime Time Rookie High Point Champion, Carla Odetto riding Wimpchester 73, (Wimpys Little Step x Whiz N Darlin). Rookie Level 1 High Point Champion went to Ava Bush and Shes A Shining Gun, (Hes A Loaded Gun x Lil Shining Suzana) and the Desert Reining Horse Association (DRHA) Rookie High Point Championship Bob’s Custom Saddles trophy saddle was awarded to Quanahs Last Alex, (Alexander Pep x Quanah Dawn Doc) owner/rider Desiree Hardin.

NRHA Professional Bub Poplin, from Colorado, coaches Dazendorf and Hardin and had this to say about the event.

“We look forward to the Cactus (Reining Classic). It starts our show season for the year. We love to get to the warm weather this time of year. The show is so well run and there is always somewhere to go ride. Neither of my riders knew they were up for trophy saddles. They knew they were up for circuit buckles and were so excited about that. Once they found out about the saddles there were a lot of joyful tears. Awesome show!”

Bob’s Custom Saddles Vice President Chris Weaver notes, “Bob’s Custom Saddles is very pleased to be able to work with Brumley Management by placing the saddles in divisions where it could potentially be someone’s first achievement award saddle.”

The saddles awarded at Brumley events aren’t just trophy saddles, there is a big difference between a ‘trophy’ saddle and an award saddle. “We are very particular about the saddles we award to our exhibitors, as with all the awards. This is why we choose the best manufactures in our industry, Bob’s Custom Saddles and Scottsdale Western World’s Silver Spurs line of saddles,” comments Brumley. “We work closely with our saddle manufacturers to make sure these saddles are not only beautiful, but ride well for years to come. We want exhibitors to be proud to ride them and show them off.”

The Youth divisions witnessed an increase this year with 70 overall entries. The youth riders marked some impressive scores for these young Reiners. Ava Bush once again entered the winners circle on Shes A Shining Gun, (Hes A Loaded Gun x Lil Shining Suzanna) winning the Youth 13 & Under High Point Championship and Reagan Vokoun riding Dunitwithashinyface (Pale Face Dunit x Shine On Tejon) took the Reserve High Point.

Jennifer Neudorf showed her strength for consistency winning the first slate of Youth 14-18 and took reserve in the second slate aboard her horse Blue Collar Tag (Whiz N Tag Chex x Kachina Oak Olena). Neudorf’s efforts awarded her High Point Champion. Shelby Clausen and Xtra Voodoo Pal (Shiners Voodoo Dr x Wimpys New Pal) gave Neudorf a run for her money narrowly missing the championship by 1.5 points. However Clausen still took home the High Point Reserve Championship custom trophy buckle.

The growth and popularity of the SmartPak Maturity divisions proved evident at this year’s Cactus Reining Classic. Forty seven exhibitors competed and the performances were impressive. After the dust settled on the last rider, Chandler Winard with her score of 220 on her eight year old gelding, Tags Golden Star (Whiz N Tag Chex x Boogies Smart Star), to win the Level 2, 3 and 4 divisions, three Gist custom trophy buckles and a check for $1,489.29. $69.95

Gotta Gun x Lookie Lu) marked a 219 to win the Level 1 and took reserve in Levels 2, 3 and 4. While Cady Shaw, a California native, showed off her talented horse Dream Whiz Me (Magnum Chic Dream x Whiz Out Chex) to win the Prime Time division while placing second in the Level 1, and third in Levels 2, 3 and 4 claiming her piece of the pie, a check for $1,496.95.

The Arabians also enjoyed success in the Maturity. A Maturity is designated as a competition for horses seven years of age and older, while for the Arabians and Half Arabians it is six years of age and older. Michelle Betten took the championship aboard SH Invaguelysurprised winning $585 while Cotton McNutt claimed the reserve with her pretty grey mare Wheres Wanda RA and a check for $455.

The days were long, but the competition just kept getting better. The Non Pro Derby presented a big jump in entries over 2017. With $42,000 in added money no one was holding back. Mark Blake, riding Hot Hollywood Whizky (Top-sail Whiz x Hot Hollywood Jewels) laid down a score of 220.5 to win his first Cactus Reining Classic Derby claiming Levels 1,3,4, Prime Time and Masters Derby Championships and a paycheck of $15,009.09. A huge win for Blake! A consistent face in the winner's circle, Rick Christen gave Blake a run for his money marking a 219.5 on Xtra Voodoo Step (Wimpys Little Step x Voodoo Chic) winning reserve in the Level 3, 4, Prime Time and Masters, taking home a check for $7,755.44. Winner of the Level 2 Non Pro Derby was Kylie Warn riding Lenas Shining Gun (Gunners Special Nite x SL Lenas Chick).

For the first time the Cactus Reining Classic offered two youth divisions in the Non Pro Derby, the Buckshot Farms 13 & Under Youth Derby and the Mr Electric Spark 14-18 Youth Derby. Luca Fappani riding the darling four-year-old mare, Off Whiz A Spook (Smart Spook x Whizin Off Sparks, marked a 215.5 to win the 13 & Under. Kylie Robinson riding Xtra Bamstep (Wimpys Little Step x Miss Bam Bam Command) laid tracks to win the 14-18 division.

"I am very grateful to the sponsors of these youth divisions," notes Brumley. "A Derby can be tough! To have these kids out here competing against adults with decades of experience is a lot to expect from them. These divisions, which help level the playing field, provide encouragement and instills confidence for these young Reiners."

The week's competition culminated in the highly anticipated $70,000 Added Open Derby that brought the 'big guns' out to play. Seventy two horses were lined up to compete. Andrea Fappani riding Ifwhizswereguns (Spooks Gotta Gun x Ifwhizsweredollars) for owner Rancho Oso Rio, wasn't going to let being draw three deter him. With the 'Fappani style' determination Ifwhizswereguns marked a 229.5 while the exuberant crowd whistled and cheered. The electricity and anticipation of what was coming next was giving everyone watching goosebumps. Draw twelve, Martin Muehlsteatter aboard his wife Kim's horse, Spooks Grand Slam (Spooks Gotta Whiz x Shiney Diamond Lady) knocked Fappani right off his lead by marking an outstanding 231. Spectators thought they had witnessed the winning run. The high scores kept coming, Marco Ricotta marked a 228.5 on his wife Jenny's homebred mare Miss Whizzletown (Hollywoodtinseltown x Rewind N Whiz). To be in the top ten scores it took a 224.5. At draw 65 Muehlsteatter was still holding onto his lead. Then, once again Andrea Fappani entered the arena. This time on his third and last entry draw 66, the stunning five year old stallion Epic Titan (Colonels Smoking Gun x Princess In Diamonds) owned by Clinton Anderson from Stephenville Texas. Avid Reining fans know Fappani will keep trying to outperform others and himself all the way down to his last draw. Once more Fappani walked calm, cool and collected into the arena, started his pattern and after the first set of plus 1.5 spins the crowd knew they were watching something special. 'The Score'... 233.5 Epic!

What is it like to judge a reining competition of this caliber? Darren Stancik, NRHA Professional and Judge was sitting in the judge's chair and has this to say, "I watch what these guys are accomplishing with their horses. The athleticism of the horses and riders amazes me. As a judge, to be able to mark horses of this quality, with the consistency of my peers in the chairs next to me, was an honor. This was a great reining!"

The popular series of west coast reining competitions begins with the Cactus Reining Classic, Scottsdale, Arizona, followed by the Wild Card Reining Challenge, Las Vegas in May, Reining by the Bay, Woodside, California in July, and the High Roller Reining Classic, Las Vegas in September. These events are all on the NRHA's Top 15 list of world-wide events and are considered not to be missed. "We would like to thank our sponsors for their support of BMG Events, as without them, and our loyal exhibitors, these events would not exist. Rancho Oso Rio, Markel, Lucas Oil, Tamarack Ranch, Rhodes River Ranch, Xtra Quarter Horses, Silver Spurs Equine, SmartPak, Bob's Custom Saddles, and Scottsdale Western World just to name a few. There are so many more I would like to mention, the list goes on and on," notes Brumley. "It is a blessing to be able to produce such premier events. We are very fortunate and thankful for the opportunity."

JESUS REIGNS YOUTH REINING CLINIC GEARS UP FOR 2018

The Jesus Reigns Youth Reining Clinic was begun in 2015 by NRHA Million Dollar Rider, Jordan Larson and his wife, Taylor, at Larson Ranch in Valley View, Texas. Its purpose was and is to reach reining youth with life lessons from a biblical perspective to improve both in and out of the show pen.

Other Christian riders soon saw the value of the clinic and began to help. The clinic was moved to the world class Cardinal Reining Center in nearby Aubrey, owned by Jaos Marcos, and the Larsons asked Million Dollar Riders Casey Deary and Jason Vanlandingham to help teach. The clinicians help the kids improve their reining skills and also become role models to the kids by sharing testimonies about how God has worked in their lives.

The 2018 Jesus Reins Youth Reining Clinic will begin June 16 at 8 a.m. with introductions and prayer. The clinicians and kids will ride over 8 hours on Saturday working on reining maneuvers. The clinicians also help teach the youth about the importance of compassion, and its role in true leadership. Both lunch and dinner will be catered to the facility for all who attend including family members.

Sunday, June 17th will begin at 9 a.m. with a Cowboy Church service officiated by ordained minister, Christian missionary, and horse trainer Ed Harrison. Ed's messages truly motivate those who listen to seek a deeper relationship with the Son of God, Jesus Christ. Ed's missionary work in Africa and his incredible personal experiences with God make him an inspiring speaker. He also has a gift for teaching and a special way with kids as he also works with the Short Stirrup 10 and Under riders in the clinic.

Taylor and Jordan Larson, Jason and Adrienne Vanlandingham, and Casey and Nicole Deary

2017 Attendees and Clinicians

After church, a competition will test the skills learned in the clinic. The students will can make a run and an NRHA judge and scribe will keep track of the scores. After each run, the judge will explain his/her scorecard and give a few pointers. The young rider will then leave the arena to watch the instant replay with their mentor pointing out both things done well and areas to improve upon.

Awards are given to the top 5 of each age division, plus there is an award for the most improved rider. The champions each receive custom belt buckles.

The clinic depends on sponsorships to make the clinic a life-changing experience for each of these children. Donations provide for the judge, scribe, and videographer, and also supply t-shirts, catered meals, awards, belt buckles, and coolers filled with bottled water.

GENNARO LENDI AND COLONELS DANCING GUN WIN THE NRHA EUROPEAN OPEN FUTURITY

Provided by Simona Diale – On Saturday night the curtain fell upon the National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) European Futurity, the largest reining show held outside of North America. Closing the prestigious event was the €143,750-added Open Futurity. Counting 53 finalists in the four divisions, it was truly showtime in Cremona!

The public was glued to their seats until the very last horse-rider combination entered the pen. Leaving the best for last, was the 2018 NRHA European Futurity Open Level (L) four horse and rider that took the title: NRHA Professional Gennaro Lendi and Quarter Dream's Colonels Dancing Gun. Aboard the American Quarter Horse stallion by NRHA Ten Million Dollar Sire Gunner and out of Dance Little Spook, Lendi performed a powerful and precise NRHA pattern #10; the crowd loved it, and so did the judges. The winning score was a 226.5! "I am thrilled with my very first [European Open Futurity] title," said the Italian professional. "In the qualifier, we had a major penalty, so we made it to the finals through the Consolation. I've had this horse since the beginning of this year. He is truly a star, and I cannot thank the owners enough for giving me the opportunity to show him here."

Owned, bred and nominated by Quarter Dream of Italy, Pietro Marseglia — owner of the Italian facility — was thrilled with the win. "We bred this horse and his dam, Dance Little Spook, won the Italian Open Futurity with [NRHA Million Dollar Rider] Rudi Kronsteiner in the saddle. Winning this event is twice as special for us!" he said.

NRHA Professional of Germany Dominik Reminder had set the bar early in the second section by scoring a 223 aboard Call Me Mr Voodoo (Shiners Voodoo DR x Arc Sassy Snapper), a stallion owned, bred and nominated by Elisabetta Zoccarato. The duo settled for the L4 Reserve Championship.

With two horses qualified for the finals, NRHA Professional Lukas Czechowicz of Poland clinched the L3 Open Futurity Championship with a 221 riding CGS Piggimove, a stallion by Colonels Shining Gun out of Roosters Hot Piq, owned, bred and nominated by Katarzyna Roleska. A half-point behind, Czechowicz also took co-reserve honors riding Winchesteratomic (Colonels Shining Gun x BRS Freckles Payday), a stallion also owned, bred and nominated by Katarzyna Roleska. "These are my first European Futurity titles, and I could not be any happier," said the young Polish professional who works out of Roleski Ranch. "I started working for Roleski four years ago and this was the first foal crop I broke and trained. It's all very special, and I would like to thank Kate and all the Roleski team for supporting and trusting me with these super horses."

Katarzyna Roleska's breeding program proved its worth in Cremona. The Polish reining enthusiast, host of the past NRHA European Affiliate Championships, owned, bred and nominated five horses that made the Open finals.

Tying for reserve honors in the L3 division was NRHA Professional Mirko Midili of Italy with Angelina Shining Gun (Colonels Shining Gun x Miss Alex Cody) for owner Asia Vimercati. The mare was bred by Tamara Pavlovic and nominated by Fabio Polese.

It was a special night for NRHA Professional Adriano Meacci who took both the Championship and Reserve Championship in the L2 Open division. The Italian professional claimed first place honors with a 214.5 aboard Topsail Chic Dunit (LMC Im Topsail Dunit x Topolena Pride) for owner Alessandro Tedone. The stallion was bred and nominated by Shenandoah Ranch. With a 214 score, Meacci rode Im A Bad Diamond (AB Captain Badger x Im A Queen Diamonds) for owners Amleto Angeletti and Romina Rossi to the Reserve Championship. The gelding was bred and nominated by Angelucci Quarter Horses.

With a 213.5 score, NRHA Professional Petra Van Ede of Holland tied to win the L1 Open Championship —her first NRHA European Open Futurity title — with Cee U In Tinseltown between the reins. Owned and bred by Gisela Haas, the mare by NRHA Million Dollar Sire Hollywoodstinseltown out of Miss Wimpy was nominated by Haas' husband, Paulus Beurskens.

NRHA Professional Andrea Napolitano riding Calimero Whiz (Hesa Mega Whiz x Geny Olena), a stallion owned by Alessandra Sacchetti, bred by Sara Bevilacqua and nominated by Andrea Castrucci, tied for the L1 Championship.

Once again the NRHA European Futurity, open to 4-year-old horses nominated in the NRHA Nomination Program, proved to be a success. With over 15 nations represented, reining was showcased to its best.

A special thank you to the 2018 NRHA European Futurity main sponsors KL Performance Horses, presenting sponsors Markel Insurance —Official Insurance of NRHA — and all the platinum, gold, silver and bronze sponsors recognized at <http://nrhaeuropeanfuturity.com/sponsors>

CARLO AMBROSINI AND SATURDAYNIGHT TAG SWEEP THE NRHA EUROPEAN FUTURITY NON PRO LEVEL 4 AND 3 CHAMPIONSHIPS

Provided by Simona Diale – The National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) European Futurity, the largest reining show held outside of North America, this year celebrated its 10th anniversary; tonight, in Cremona, the €58,760-added

European Non Pro Futurity closed the day and the first 2018 champions were celebrated.

Saturdaynight Tag, ridden by Carlo Ambrosini, was first to enter the pen in the second section of the clean-slate finals which counted 38 horses in the four divisions. Once the last horse walked out of the CremonaFiere arena, the 217 posted by the duo remained the highest score and the pair swept both the Level (L)4 and L3 Non Pro Futurity Championships. “It was worth waiting until the second section was over tonight, even though it was nerve racking” said the 19-year-old Italian rider. “This win is so special for me because my parents gave me Saturdaynight Tag — who is by our stallion, Saturdaynight Custom, and out of one of our broodmares, Kachina Tag — when he was 2 years old for my 17th birthday. He’s always been very special to me and he is super-talented. I didn’t realize until my last stop how well he had performed for me tonight.”

Ambrosini was quick to thank his parents for always being by his side and gave credit to his trainer, NRHA Million Dollar Rider Rudi Kronsteiner, for his work as well as NRHA Professional Marco Pettinari, who has been working for Ambrosini QH for the past five years. Saturdaynight Tag was bred and nominated by Ambrosini QH.

Lara Lorengo of Italy rode Magnum Chic N Chex to the L2 European Futurity Non Pro Championship as well as the L4 and L3 Non Pro Reserve Championship with a 216.5 score. The pretty mare by NRHA Four Million Dollar Sire Magnum Chic Dream out of Buenonics Doughter is owned by PL Reining Horses — a breeding and training facility owned by Lorengo and her boyfriend, NRHA Professional Giuseppe Prevosti. The talented mare came to the NRHA European Futurity with the Italian Reining Horse Association (IRHA) L4 Open title to her name with Prevosti in the saddle and, before making her way to Cremona, boasted over $37,700 NRHA Lifetime Earnings (LTE) to her name. “Giuseppe gave me this mare to ride with the intent of me showing her here in January,” Lorengo said. “I was afraid I would not be able to ride such a talented and powerful horse. She’s small but she has a big heart and she showed me that from day one. I am very happy with our results tonight and cannot thank Giuseppe enough for all the support and for believing in me.”

Victoria Stanco of Poland had already left her mark in the European Futurity Non Pro qualifier by posting the highest score. The 16-year-old rider from Poland did it again on finals night when she claimed the L1 Championship, with a 212.5, as well as the L2 Non Pro Reserve Championship. Stanco rode to top honors aboard her Remy Rooster SG, a stallion by Remin Whiz and out of Tea Rooster, a stallion bred and nominated by Italian Silvia Gandolfi. “I got this stallion last year two months before the Italian Futurity where I showed him and won the go round in the Level 1 non pro division,” said Stanco following her win. “I’ve always really liked him and I have to thank my trainer, Lukas Brucek, for doing a great job with him. The intention was that of showing him here this year but, before making the final decision, I showed him at the show held at Roleski Ranch in March where I won the NRHA Intermediate Non Pro class. At that point we decided we would come and he was great from day one. When you ride this horse, he makes everything seem so simple; all you need to do is trust him and he does the rest.”

The L1 Non Pro Futurity Reserve Championship went to Matteo Bonzano of Italy who rode Dyro Big Chex (Big Chex To Cash x Miss Pickie Cody), a mare owned and nominated by 23 Quarter Horses Az. Agricola SS, to a 210.

CONGRESS DELAYS ELD ENFORCEMENT FOR LIVESTOCK TO SEPTEMBER 30, 2018

On the heels of the U.S. Department of Transportation's March 13 issuance of an additional 90-day exemption from ELD enforcement requirements for livestock, the omnibus bill includes a provision that would defund enforcement to at least September 30, which is the official end of the fiscal year. The delay will provide DOT and industry stakeholders more time to educate livestock haulers on the proper scope of the ELD mandate, which has caused uncertainty since being finalized in late 2015. Furthermore, the industry's September 2017 request to push back the compliance deadline by a full year is still outstanding, leaving the possibility of another enforcement delay for livestock haulers.
