*Natalie Leisinger
2018 NHSFR Reined Cow Horse Reserve Champion*

The contestants' hard work and determination was evident, as they shined through each performance. The NHSFR is comprised of three go-rounds; first, second and then, the top twenty riders advance to the short-go, carrying their scores from the previous go-rounds. The improvement seen in these young competitors, and their horses, over the past four years was astounding. The judges rewarded their efforts with big scores right out of the gate. It took a score of 71 or better, across the board, to advance to the short-go.

After four years of competing in the NHSRA reined cow horse, the Pilot Point, Texas, cowboy Josh Briggs finally captured the 2018 NHSFR Reined Cow Horse Championship with a composite score of 877. The 2018 graduate came into the short-go with a composite score of 589. Mother nature was not kind to Briggs; as he entered the outdoor arena, the wind picked up and dust started to fly. Briggs and his mount, Ricochet Shine (Ricochet San x Shiney Tea Pot Doc x Tejons Peppy Doc), battled against the weather and their cow, scoring a 288. Briggs' championship title was accompanied with romal reins from Traditional Rawhide Braiders and a $1,500 scholarship from the NRCHA Foundation, all in addition to the NHSFR awards. Briggs will be attending North Central Texas College this fall, where he will ride on the equestrian and ranch horse teams.

Natalie Leisinger, Highmore, South Dakota, was crowned the 2018 NHSFR Reined Cow Horse Reserve Champion. Leisinger began her cow horse journey on a rope horse, when the event was first added to the NHSRA line-up. Four years ago, she fell going down the fence during the second go-round of the NHSFR in Rock Springs. The past few years of perseverance and persistence, to improve her horsemanship skills and horsepower, paid off as she finished second place in the same arena where she once faced challenges. Leisinger's composite score of 874.5 (290.5 first go/288.5 second go/295.5 short-go) earned her a pair of romal reins provided by Traditional Rawhide Braiders and NSHFR awards. We have not seen the last of this 2018 graduate; she will be attending Casper College this fall and continue her love of the sport by showing in the NRCHA.

For the second year in a row, The Reining Horse Foundation (RHF), the philanthropic arm of the National Reining Horse Association (NRHA), provided a $1,500 scholarship and beautiful bronze trophy to the highest reining score of all three go-rounds. Josh Briggs, Pilot Point, Texas, and Brie Wells, LaMars, Iowa, tied for the win with a score of 149. The recipients will split the scholarship and each receive a trophy. A big fence work score of 152.5 landed Reece Ullerich, Humboldt, South Dakota, the highest cow work score of all three go-rounds, a $1,000 scholarship provided by the NRCHA Foundation and a Gist custom buckle. All top-twenty Finalists received an invitation to the 2018 NRCHA Celebration of Champions in Fort Worth, Texas, where they will compete in the High School Rodeo Challenge.

It is with great pleasure, that the NRCHA partnered with Goodness Knows and Pedigree as sponsors for the 2018 NHSRA reined cow horse event. The unwavering support from Goodness Knows and Pedigree is greatly appreciated and ensures continued growth and recognition of the reined cow horse. The increase in participation and high level of competition is directly connected to the constant effort of NRCHA Professionals and Members. Thank you to everyone who volunteers their time, livestock, facilities, and shares their knowledge with young cow horse enthusiasts. Your hard work and support does not go unnoticed and will pay dividends to the future of the sport we all love. The 2019 National High School Finals Rodeo will return to Rock Springs, Wyoming, where we plan to see another stellar year of reined cow horse competition.

COUNTDOWN FOR 2019 AMERICANA BEGINS – AND MARTINA ANNOVAZZI TO PROMOTE EUROPE’S PREMIER WESTERN EVENT

Martina Annovazzi is the face of the 2019 AMERICANA, and she will be seen many times during the next few months. Annovazzi was the 2017 World Cup Cutting Open Champion and will be seen on ads, posters, leaflets and websites. Six thousand visitors were fascinated as they watched her final run when she scored a 154 aboard the American Quarter Horse stallion, Highbrow Time.

“The 2017 AMERICANA was the most exciting and most emotional success I ever had,” Annovazzi said. “It is such a great show! I will never forget the feeling of riding in front of so many visitors! It was almost like a dream, and I could hardly believe it! In Augsburg I scored the first 77 in my life – aboard this fantastic horse which also won the Non Pro with his owner, Damiano Avigni, in the saddle. A big thank you to the AMERICANA show team who made all this possible. We will definitely come again in 2019.”

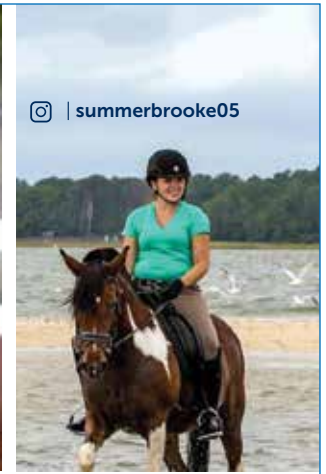

Martina Annovazzi, 33 years old, started cutting when she was 13 and showed her first horse soon after. She trained with Sheri Mason and, later on, with Gianluca Munarini, whose assistant she became at 19. She went to the United States several times riding with Lindy Burch, Russell Harrison and others. Three years later she went to Ongaresca in northern Italy and soon started her own business. At the age of 30, Martina went to Rosy O’Grady’s Cutting Horses, a facility she calls one of the best of Europe.

Annovazzi said, “This is one of the few European Ranches that do not only train horses, but breed as well.” Here, Annovazzi trains along with Pietro Valeri. Rosy O’Grady’s organizes an NCHA show each year with a clinic featuring one of the top U.S. trainers, like Bubba Matlock, Matt Gaines, Michael Cooper and, just recently, Phil Hanson.

Annovazzi’s achievements include, 2010 & 2012 Italian NCHA Derby Open Champion, 2012 Challenge Futurity Open Champion, 2014 & 2017 Italian NCHA Futurity Reserve Champion. Besides winning the AMERICANA, she also claimed the 2017 Airone Trophy Open in Cremona aboard one of her best horses, Iminent Cat. She also placed second in the AMERICANA World Cup with him.

“I couldn’t be happier with our facility,” Annovazzi said. “I’m so proud of our team. The owners, Marco Salvatori and his wife, Rosanna Bazzani, are very special people, and we are lucky to have fine clients as well.”

Annovazzi continued, “In all those years, I learned one thing, the only way to keep improving is keep learning . . . everyday from everybody. And share everything you know with as many people as you can. This is what Pietro and I do everyday.”

Augsburg Faiground Enlarges: Hall 2 Will Not Be Available in 2019

At AMERICANA 2019, it may be possible that not every company will get its desired place on the fairground. The new Hall 2 is being built, with 8,000 sqm, the biggest hall of the Augsburg fairground. Unfortunately, it will not be finished before the AMERICANA. Project Manager Knobl advises all exhibitors to book as soon as possible. After the excellent exhibitors’ turnout in 2017, a run for exhibition space is expected.

Forms for exhibitors for AMERICANA 2019 (September 4 – 8) will be available on the AMERICANA website in October. All those who already exhibited at AMERICANA will receive the form via email.

Think of Christmas Presents Now

A ticket for one of the AMERICANA evening shows makes a perfect Christmas gift. Ticket Sale starts in November, and then you had better hurry. The Friday and the Saturday evening shows were sold out in 2017.

For all those who would like to get a feel of the AMERICANA, there are a number of video diaries from the 2017 event on the AMERICANA homepage, American.de!

How has reining impacted your life?

It has taught me a lot. It has taught me to work hard, and to never give up. It has impacted my life a lot.

What do you want to be when you grow up?

I want to be an equine vet. I want to help horses and help them to feel better, and just be able to work with them.

Tell us about your trainer.

There's really not much to say. He's my dad, and he's really cool.

Has your dad had any influence on what you want to be when you grow up?

This is something that I've just always wanted to do when I grow up, to be able to work with the horses and all the equipment.

Where do you see yourself in about 5 to 10 years?

I see myself in about five to ten years as a youth rider, having a good horse, and winning a lot of classes.

Which horse were you riding when you won at the Florida Classic?

Blackberry Pistol

How long have you had Blackberry Pistol?

I've had him for about a year.

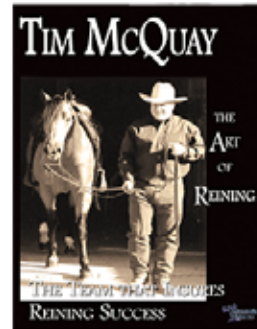

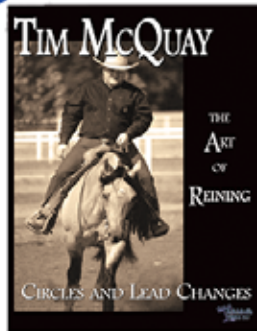

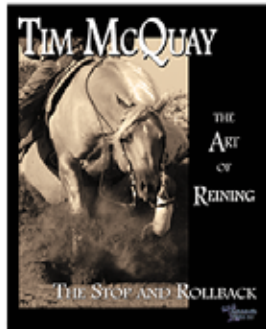

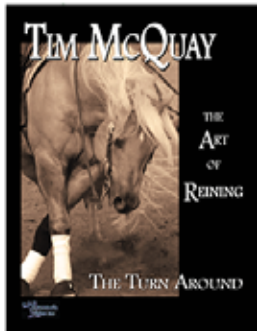

Do you have any advice for younger riders?

Practice makes perfect.
