2018 NRHA Futurity Open Level 4 Champions*

It's been called the Crown Jewel of Reining and the 2018 National Reining Horse Association Futurity, held November 22 - December 1, 2018, once again saw the world's best 3-year-old reining horses at Oklahoma City's State Fair Park. Nearly 400 horses were entered in the futurity and days of preliminary competition narrowed the field to the top 30 Level 4 entries. The stands were full and the atmosphere electric as NRHA Professionals and their elite equine athletes laid it all on the line hoping to be the one to take home the $150,000 purse.

When Jason Vanlandingham and A Vintage Smoke blew into the arena all conversation around the Jim Norrick Coliseum ended abruptly. It was clear that this inky black horse was “on” and his rider was locked in. When that run-in was punctuated with an earth-moving stop they immediately made thousands of fans both in the arena and around the world via live feed.

It was as if everyone could see there was a star emerging and it was impossible to look away. The intensity increased with every maneuver and so did the crowd noise as it grew to a thunderous combination of applause, cheers and whistles.

The approval rating escalated as they spun like a black tornado. With head low and hooves flying, the dark horse flew around his large circles like black smoke rolling, and then quickly slowed to an easy lope. The stops and roll backs were further proof-positive that history was being made and many rose to their feet to as they cheered the duo on to the final stop. When it was announced that they had taken the lead with a score of 225.5, the noise level increased even more. The lead would hold on throughout the remaining horses and earn a $150,000 reward for owner Diane Mesmer of Highlands Ranch, Colo.

Vanlandingham, who lives in Whitesboro, Texas, said,

“I’ve been in prayer about this deal quite a bit. Coming in here, the horse was not feeling good. I’ve been messing my turn-arounds up; I’ve been overdoing them a little bit. So, I was trying to just back off and get everything where I wanted it. Just warming up tonight, a tremendous amount of confidence came over me. I know that was God instilling that, and man, I went for it!”

He talked about his run, “I felt like running in and nailing that first stop was huge! The crowd went nuts! The turn-arounds – I knew it was in there, but I haven’t had those turns all week. He was as spot on as he could possibly be for the day. He circled as hard as his little legs would run, and he came right back to it, and then gave me all heart. Around the ends - he was pretty tired at that point in time and he didn’t weaken a bit. I think there are some horses that feed on a big moment, and he seems to be one of those.”

Diane Mesmer bought her first two reining horses as weanlings. One was A Vintage Smoke (A Sparkling Vintage X Lady Smoke Peppy) and the other, CSR Flash Mob (HF Mobster x Simply Paris), also placed in the Top 10 at the Futurity under Jordan Larson. She picked them out, raised them, and decided where to place them all on her own. She first sent them both to Vanlandingham, but he felt like CSR Flash Mob didn’t quite fit him and recommended he go to Larson.

Vanlandingham was quick to acknowledge that the 2018 Futurity field was tough and laded with talent. Referring to Reserve Champion Kole Price, he said, “That cat about put it to me. The next generation of guys are coming on strong. Kole made his first finals last year, and we were talking during the rider introductions, and he said, ‘I think I’ve got it figured out – how to go and make the finals.’ Then he puts three in there and he’s right there competing to win it so I think he does have it figured out!”

Hailing from Aubrey, Texas, Price scored a 225 on Isnt She Perfect (Walla Walla Whiz x Miss Silver Gun) for the Level 4 reserve title. Amy Medows, of Cuba, MO owns the aptly named mare who earned $130,353.

Pale Face Whiz and Michael McEntire Take the L3 Open Futurity Championship

Ione, Cali., resident, Michael McEntire won the Open Level 3 Futurity and the Prime Time Futurity on Pale Face Whiz. The sorrel stallion by Pale Face Dunnit out of Lady Naskiia is owned by Everett & Karen Wiggins from Peoria, Arizona.

McEntire had lots of good things to say about the nice colt, “This horse, I felt like I could trust him. He’s been so good all week. He’s such a show horse. Craig Schmersal trained him and his horses are so broke! Craig’s helped me with him. I just catch rode him. I rode him a week before the Futurity started and he’s just really a nice horse.”

Mike also won reserve in the Prime Time on a daughter of Pale Face Dunnit with a very similar name: Pale Faced Whiz is owned by A4L-Equine of Lafayette, Cali., and is out of Ms Maggie Whiz. They scored a 220 and the three titles brought his take to $35,156.

Dell Hendricks of Tioga, Texas, and Todd Bergen of Eagle Point, Ore., tied for the Open Level 3 Reserve Championship with a 221.5s. Hendricks rode Vintage Jewels (A Sparkling Vintage x Jewels Lil Sparkle) owned by Doddsville, Mississippi resident Kristi Clark. Bergen was in the saddle of Gunners Brite Nite (Gunners Special Nite x Stiletto Tag) owned by GBN Partnership. Each won $21,220 for the owners.

Gunna Stop Under Austin Lee Roush Wins Open Futurity Levels 2 and 1

It is a rare and special accomplishment when a Level 1 rider makes it to the Level 4 finals, but Austin Lee Roush of Pilot Point, Texas, did just that. His mount, Gunna Stop, did stop superbly in the final round. Together, they won the Level 2 Open Futurity and the Level 1 after scoring a 220.5. Owned by Alexandria Gokey from Encinitas, Cali., Gunna Stop is by Gunnatrashya out of Stop Little Sister.

About showing in the level 4 finals, Roush said, “I’ve dreamed about this for a long time. Just to show with all these guys and with a lot of really good horses this year, it means a lot to me.”

Gokey shared, “We got [Gunna Stop] as a long yearling – in February – and he wasn’t started. Austin has been the

Nite N Hollywood and Patrick Flaherty Win the Honorable Mention Futurity

The Honorable Mention Futurity was a new addition to the futurity format in 2018. It was open to a select number of Open and Non Pro riders who didn't make it into the Futurity finals giving the young horses another chance to get in the show pen. Nite N Hollywood, piloted by Patrick Flaherty, won the Honorable Mention Futurity with a 217 earning $331 for owner Marc Gordon. The palomino stallion is by Gunners Special Nite out of MJ Hollywood Barbie.

Hava Vital on Mr Gunna Chic took reserve in the Honorable Mention Futurity with a 214. The sorrel stallion by Gunnatrashya is owned by Misty Valley Performance Horses LLC and is out of Sanger Chic. Vital's take was $238 for the title.

THREE-WAY RUNOFF SETTLES THE NON PRO FUTURITY CHAMPIONSHIP IN FAVOR OF TISH FAPPANI ON ICECUBE

Samantha Smith earns the Level 3 Championship and Madison Steed Takes the Level 2 Title

The Non Pro Futurity finalists at State Fair Park put on a thrilling performance increasing the tempo with each run. Score after score came in as each rider tried to outdo those before them, and then Samantha Smith rode in on Never-thoughtiwould by Pale Face Dunit out of Shine Tini and laid down a 222.5. With a huge smile covering her face, she hugged the little Cremello horse when she finished the run.

Her score held for four more draws until Madison Steed rode Into The Nite and matched the high score. Into The Nite is by Gunners Special Nite out of Chexy Dun It. With a two way tie leading both Levels 4 and 3, the draw continued as rider after rider attempted to beat it.

The second to last in a field of 33 finalists, Tish Fappani pushed her colt, Icecube, to match the scores and sealed the three-way tie. Icecube is by SG Frozen Enterprize out of Taris Designer Genes.

In the ensuing runoff, Fappani was the last to go and tried desperately to help her horse catch his breath after the first run second to last in the draw. She worried whether the 3-year-old would have the energy to do it again. She focused on just trying to keep her run clean, but her talented mount had other ideas. To Icecube, the first run was just a warm up. He outdid himself when he increased his score to a 223.5 and won the NRHA Non Pro Level 4 Futurity!

Tish said, "I knew he could come back in strong, I just worried that he wasn't going to be able to catch enough air because I was late [in the draw]. I just knew I needed to be clean and I needed to make sure I got myself rolled back better. I just tried to stay relaxed and take every maneuver

She took $45,117 for the win, and after the futurity, is planning to hit the road with her son, Jeremy, who does Motocross.

Samantha Smith on Neverthoughtiwould and Madison Steed riding Into The Nite shared reserve in the level 4, but Smith's runoff score – a 218 – bested Steed's earning her the Level 3 Non Pro Futurity Championship and bringing her take to $53,580. Steed topped the Level 2 Futurity and accepted reserve in the Level 3 totaling her earnings up to $36,248.

Smith will take her horse home to Edmond, Okla., after the Futurity to enjoy a break before the spring show season begins.

Smith remarked, “In my first run, I knew there was a big score already, but I didn’t think about that. I was telling myself that I’m capable. I can do this now just go out and have fun and show the horse you have. Martin Larcombe had him so ready for me. My plan for the second run was the same. Just go do it again.” She was thrilled with how much the crowd was behind her as they cheered through her entire performance. She said, “This must have been what it feels like to show in the Open. It was AWESOME!”

Madison expressed her glowing emotions in the first run when she said, “After my last stop, I just couldn’t pet him enough. I was so thrilled with him. He just tried so hard; he was an awesome show horse. I’ve been in love with him since the beginning and to have that four minutes be a representative of the two years of hard work that I put in, that my trainer put in, that all the people that were here to support me... That four minutes was just so awesome! I was so happy with him and whatever the score was, whatever happened, I had the run that I wanted and had the feeling that I wanted, and I couldn’t ask for anything more!”

Displaying a defiantly positive attitude, she went on to say, “Obviously, the runoff wasn’t the run I wanted to have, but you know what? He’s 3-year-old. He’s learning. I’m learning. He’s tired. I’m tired. It’s been a long week, but I still love him to death, and I think he’s the best horse out there.”

*Madison Steed and Into The Nite
NRHA Futurity Non Pro Level 2 Champions*

Madison had a long list of gratitude including her trainer, Yonathon Baruch, her SMU Reining team and coach who came to watch her, and those friends who watched from home. She also thanked her mom, sister, uncle, and cousin who also came to watch and support her. She said everyone at the Baruch barn has become family and thanked them for their help and support they give her on a daily basis and for cheering her on from the in-gate as she won the $36,248 check.

Florida commented, “He ran in and stopped really cool. Then, that’s the best this horse has ever turned. His turns felt amazing tonight. I ran him as hard as he could go in my circles, and he was there for me every step of the way. He stopped big. I had a little trouble in one of my rollbacks, but it was awesome!”

Chad Clark and Stoney Russell Tie for the Prime Time Non Pro Futurity Championship

The Prime Time Non Pro Futurity ended in a tie between Chad Clark on Think Im Gunna Shine and Stoney Russell riding Whata Special Nite when they both scored a 216.5. The mare ridden by Clark is by Gunnatrashya out of Shiney Wranglers. Russell's stud colt is by Gunners Special Nite x SLJ Sweet N Juicy. Each rider earned $2,745 for the shared championship.

"I thought my run went about as good as it could." Chad began, then added, "Which is a rare, rare thing if you actually get to show [in the Level 4 Non Pro Finals]. It's hard! Look at all the great riders and high scorers. It's for real! You can call them Non Pros, but really, they're pretty good – in their own right, most of them. It's really hard to compete with them."

After the Futurity, Chad plans to find his filly a new home so he can focus on his two 2-year-olds coming up.

Stoney said, "I was trying to get through the pattern with no penalties, and obviously, that didn't happen. I had a one point penalty from my lead change and then I had an over spin, but the plan was to go in there and let it loose. He did really well. He was there for me the whole time. I just asked for the lead a little bit late, and that's what I got." When Stoney bought his colt, he was a little green, but he said that his trainer, Mathieu Buton did a great job catching him back up.

"Big John" will get about a month off before Buton gets him back to start preparing him for NRBC.

Michael Bulliard rode HA Trashy Tune to the second highest score, a 214.5. His Gunnatrashya gelding is out of HA Chic A Tune. Bulliard pocketed $1,660 for the title.

NON PROS GOT ANOTHER CHANCE AT THE FUTURITY FINALS

Mandy McCutcheon
NRHA Futurity Non Pro Level 4 Consolation High Score

New to the 2018 NRHA Futurity was the Non Pro Futurity Consolation round which provided one last chance for competitors to make it in to the Non Pro Futurity Finals. The top five highest scores plus ties in Levels 4 through 1 will advance to the finals. Mandy McCutcheon rode Cody Vintage to the highest score in the Level 4 Non Pro Futurity Consolation. McCutcheon and the bay stallion by Electric Code out of Whatta Royal Vintage earned a 218.5.

McCutcheon said, "I wish I would have had a run like that in the first round so I didn't have to go in the Consolation, but you know, they are 3-years-old and this is a hard event. The Non Pro is getting real tough. I mean, I don't know that it has ever taken a 215.5 to go to the level 4 finals in all the years I've been doing it." Mandy can now look forward to

The Dirt (Whizkey N Diamonds x Anne Get Your Gunner) with a 215.

Cameron Halliwell on Xtra Rubiesforwimpy (Wimpys Little Step out of Ruby Chic Olena) with a 215.

Kristen Avila on Playin Mega Ruf and Layla Choate on Chex Guns Rocknroll tied for first in the Levels 3 and 2 Non Pro Consolation Futurity with 214s. Playin Mega Ruf or “Chips” is a bay stallion by Not Ruf At All out of Mi Mega. Taylor Zimmerman had her sights set on riding Chips until she found another horse she wanted to take to the Futurity leaving Chips in need of a rider. Avila had just sold her futurity prospect at the Quarter Horse Congress so she needed another horse. She purchased Chips from Vaughn Zimmerman just after Congress.

Kristen said, “We were towards the end in the third section, and I thought for sure, with a 214, that we would have made the lower level finals. It has been a really tough year; there are a lot of really good competitors out there so we had to run for the levels 2, 3, and 4. I’m just really thankful that I made it back in the 2 and 3.”

Kristen shared that Chips runs faster than she is used to going so she hopes to be able to ride confidently enough to do him justice in the finals.

Layla Choate also topped the scores in the Level 1 Non Pro Consolation Futurity on her chestnut mare by Guntrashya out of Plus One Chex, and also made it back in the Level 2 with her other horse, Get Back Joejoe, a daughter of Lil Joe Cash and Bonitas Latin Chic. Choate scored a 211.5 with Get Back Joejoe.

Layla commented, “This mare is very special to me. She is out of the first reining horse I ever had, and that mare was very dear to me as well. So getting to bring back one of her babies and be successful here... She was really good for me in the first go. The bubbles were pretty high this year.

There’s a lot of tough competition so we got the chance to play again in the consolation. She actually even bettered herself by half a point and just gave it all she had out there. I’m really looking forward to getting another chance to get back in the coliseum and really go for it again.”

With a 213, Tami Nelson on Plus Me This Time had the second highest score in the Level 2 Consolation round. Plus Me This Time is a sorrel mare by Shine Big Time out of Skip The Hick O Lea.

The remaining riders to qualify for the Level 3 Finals were as follows:

Julie Boer on Lil Joker Cash (Lil Joe Cash x Joker So Great) with a 212.5, qualified in both Levels 3 and 2.

Sarah Ehrenreich on Gunners Special Gal (Gunners Special Nite x Dun Pretty Nifty) with a 212.

The following riders qualified in both the Level 2 and Level 1 finals:

Hannah Mitchell on FM Lovely Hollywood (Hollywoods tinseltown out of Lovely Colonel) with a 212.5.

Alicia Rapp on Play Ruf N Hollywood (Not Ruf At All out of Hollywoods Striker) with a 211.5.

Emily Winegar on Bring On The Whizkey (Whizkey N Diamonds x Remedys Sure Slide) and Meloney Morris on Cromed Out Chic Adee (Cromed Out Mercedes x Chic A Dee Hickory) tied for reserve and finished out the Level 1 Finals qualifiers. Both scored a 213.5.

JIMMY VAN DER HOEVEN TOPS THE NRHA OPEN

In the first class of ancillary action at the NRHA Futurity, the offspring of NRHA Leading Sires Wimpys Little Step and Topsail Whiz battled it out. Topping the field, Jimmy Van Der Hoeven scored a 221 on Whiz Gata Prize or “Shorty” to win the Open championship. The 5-year-old out of Topsail Whiz is owned by AC Quarter Horses from Argentina. He is out of Smart Little Prize.

“I brought him here to get to know him a little bit better. I’ve only gotten to show him once and that had a couple of bobbles in it, so I brought him here to prepare him for next year,” Van Der Hoeven explained. “He’s a big stopper, so every stop he makes adds one. He circled really strong, but the turns could have been a little better, I think. I was pretty

Stephen Archer on Carolyn Telepsen’s Smart Stepin Lena and Fred Thomsson on Arlosa Whiz owned by Euro Vets Inc. each scored a 219 to tie for reserve in the NRHA Open, and the win in the Intermediate Open, North American Affiliate Championship (NAAC) Open, and NAAC Intermediate Open bringing the take for each of them to $4,728.

Stephen will finish out the week helping Non both the NRBC and the Open Derby. The fateful day came just after the World Show when the horse was enjoying some turnout time – a little too much. He severely damaged his fetlock tearing through all the ligaments. Thomsson and owner/veterinarian Per Spangfors felt they would do well if they could at least make the horse pasture sound; however, they were fortunate that the vet clinic was onsite and went right to work.

Thomsson said, “The vets did such a good job with him that he got back sound, and now he is showing as a 9-year-old and he is a sound as any horse here today.” He went on to say, “He’s a once in a lifetime horse. He’s a very, very special individual. I was fortunate enough to work for Bob Loomis starting my career and was able to ride and handle Topsail Whiz. He is the sweetest horse I’ve ever been around, and Arlosa Whiz is just like him – he’s a carbon copy. He has just a fabulous mind on him!”

Mack Weaver was third in both the NAAC Open and NAAC Intermediate Open scoring a 218 on Wimpy Per Se and bringing his earnings to $1,660. The 12-year-old gelding owned by Ashley Weaver is also by Wimpys Little Step and out of Miss Perfect Peppy.

Kellmer said, “I didn’t want to run him super hard because my Non Pro showed him today and did really well

Double Loaded Gun and Nick Valentine win the NRHA Limited Open; NAAC Limited Open Champion is Whizkeys Hot Jewels and Jeff Kasten

As only the third rider in the draw, Nick Valentine on Double Loaded Gun laid down a tough to beat 218.5 winning the NRHA Limited Open title and $360. Deborah and Doug Forzani own the 8-year-old sorrel stallion by Colonels Smoking Gun out of KR Anniegityergun. Nick has only had “Timmy” for a few months, and they are still trying to get to know each other.

Valentine said, “Pattern 8 is a good pattern for him. He was really confident walking in the pen. He stood good in the middle and fired both turns right away. Then he was just hooked with me the whole time; he let me lean on him. He circled really good slowing down and waited on me in the lead change. He kind of stumbled but recovered from it after I changed leads the first way, and then he went on and really dug in and kept going. In the first stop, I was a little too quick in my rollback. I should have let him stand up a little bit quicker, so he didn't crack like he can. But his right rollback was really good, and his last stop and back up was really, really good so if I had two more stops, it would have been great!" He finished with a grin.

Although Nick's 3-year-old was injured, he has plenty to do at the futurity with Non Pros showing, prospects consigned in the sale, and a young horse to season. He also looks forward to slowing things down a bit after the futurity.

While the leaders in the NAAC Limited Open began to warm to the thought of winning, the second to last rider in the draw slid into the championship. Jeff Kasten rode Whizkeys Hot Jewels to a 217 also securing the reserve spot in the NRHA Limited Open. The 4-year-old gelding is by Whizkey N Diamonds out of Jewels Little Sparkle. Their earnings totaled $443 for owner White River Ag Products Inc of Ashland, Wisconsin.

Kasten said, "He was pretty honest in there. He was good in the circles and he stopped nice. He came back really hard, and was good through his leads. He turned good to the left, but he could have been a little bit better to the right. But all in all, he showed nice. I was pleased."

Scoring a 216, Kaleigh Geringer took both the NAAC Rookie Pro and the Rookie Pro on Lil Coded Jac by Jacs Electric Spark out of Hot Coded Candy. The 6-year-old gelding is owned by Susan Meyer. They earned $480 for the wins.

Geringer said that she had a blast riding Lil Coded Jac, "He was so much fun! He circled really good; he was super with me; turned great, stopped huge. I mean, I was super proud of him!"

Owner Susan Meyer commented, "He is a super talented horse. He's starting to trust us a whole lot, and it's great to see him do so well."

Kaleigh's boss, Jared Leclair will show Lil Coded Jac in the Limited Open class, and another trainer in the barn, Glen Estival, qualified Susan's mare in the semifinals so the Leclair barn has much to look forward to at the NRHA Futurity.

With a 215, Jesse Dillaman took reserve in the NAAC Limited Open, NAAC Rookie Pro, and NRHA Rookie Pro on James Dillaman's horse called Cornbreadn-

Lil Coded Jac and Jared Leclair Take Championships in both Levels of the NAAC Novice Horse Open

*Jared Leclair and Lil Coded Jac
NAAC Nov. Horse Open Levels 1 & 2 Champions*

*Josiane Gauthier and ARC Step Aside
Novice. Horse Open Level 2 Champions*

Continuing his winning ways, Lil Coded Jac carried Jared Leclair to win both levels of the NAAC Novice Horse Open with a 220. He recently won the NAAC and NRHA Rookie Pro classes with Kaleigh Geringer. The 6-year-old gelding owned by Susan Meyer is by Jacs Electric Spark and out of Hot Coded Candy. He earned $1,488 for the titles.

Leclair remarked, “This is a full brother to my stud, Electric Code. Kaleigh - who works for me – showed him yesterday, and I more or less just caught-rode him today and was kind of her Non Pro. She did a good job so it worked out good for me!”

Leclair is finished showing at the Futurity this year, but will help his customers with their horses as well as his associate trainer, Glen Estival, with the futurity horse that he qualified for the semifinals.

Jeremy Lipps took the reserve championship in the NAAC Novice Horse Open Level 2 and the $674 check on Custom Dazine (Custom Crome x Taris Modern Design) with a 218.5 Kenny and Deana Nell pocketed $674 for the performance of their 6-year-old mare.

Matt Palmer mounted on Cee Me Nic It was reserve champion in the NAAC Novice Horse Open Level 1 on Cee Me Nic It with a 217.5. The 4-year-old gelding owned by Thomas & Melanie Dale is by Smart And Shiney x Holly Cee N Nic. The title was worth $396.

As draw 80 out of a field of 81, Josiane Gauthier swept in and won the NRHA Novice Horse Open Level 2 on Nancy Alford's ARC Step Aside (Wimpys Little Step x Ms Clara Melody) with a 222.5. The 9-year-old stallion is by Wimpys Little Step out of Ms Clara Melody.

Gauthier has quite a history with the horse they call ‘Yellow’ around the barn. She explained, “I’ve had him since he was an early 5-year-old. I had a client who owned him, but they got separated so I had another client buy him. I got to show him in the Open a few years ago, and then the man took him home and then passed away last year. It was very sad, but his wife decided to send Yellow back to me. I’ve been riding him all year, and just trying to get him back in condition for this – doing the affiliate, and next year, the World Show. He’s really precious to us. I really love the family that owns him so it’s just great to do this for them.” Having earned $698 for these owners, Josiane looks forward to showing another horse in the Level 4 semifinals later in the week.

Scoring a 219 on Slidin Smartly, Dany Tremblay won reserve in the Novice Horse Open Level 2 and was Co-Champion for the Novice Horse Open Level 1 on Slidin Smartly. She is by Smart Spook out of Slidin On Sunshine. Canada-based Adh Mor Ranch owns the 4-year-old mare who added $1,122 to their earnings.

Tremblay said, "I showed that mare today, and she was really good. This is the second time I've shown that mare this year. Ethan [Willey] has been showing her. I showed her in Ardmore and won the open class over there, and showed her here. She was good. Pattern 3 is a little bit weird pattern, but it was fun to do."

Tremblay qualified both of his futurity horses for the semifinals, so he is focused on trying to progress them into the finals and beyond. He hopes to make it back to his home territory in Canada to visit friends and family after the futurity.

Also finishing his run with a 219, Guy Vernon on Face Dee Rumor shared the Novice Horse Open Level 1 Championship with Tremblay. The 5-year-old gelded son of Pale Face Dunit out of Dual Dee Bay is owned by Candy Sadowsky who pocketed $607 for the shared title.

Vernon admitted, "I have to say that this was probably the best run this horse has had. He's been a little bit difficult, and he was really good at the affiliate finals. I turned him five times so I didn't qualify for the North American there, but I decided to bring him here. Really that was the highest he's ever marked so I was really happy with him!" Guy will stay busy helping his youth and Non Pro riders through the rest of the week.

There was a three-way tied for reserve in the Novice Horse Open Level 1 between Jared Leclair, Sam Smith, and Melanie Wilhelm. Leclair rode the 8-year-old gelded son of Wimpys Little Step and GS Shot Gun Wedding owned by Susan Meyer: Steppin Down. Smith was mounted on Ginger Dwyer's Monochrome, a 6-year-old gelding by Custom Crome out of She Slides Wright. Wilhelm guided Whizzin Blue Sparks (Spooks Gotta Whiz x Blues Electric Spark). Kirk George owns the 5-year-old gelding. Each horse and rider team scored 218s and earned $293.

names in the Reining Horse world having won the NRBC Non Pro Derby for two concurrent years and “Heavy D” carried Casey Deary to team Gold in the World Equestrian Games earlier this year. Locker and Heavy D returned to the winner’s circle at the NRHA Futurity when they scored a 221.5 to win the Non Pro ancillary class. Owned by Hilldale Farm, the 7-year-old stallion is out of the last full foal crop of Nu Chex To Cash and his dam is Rondas Tio.

Locker said, “I haven’t gotten to show him since the 7 & Up Derby at NRBC earlier this year. We were really fortunate that Casey made the WEG team on him, so I’ve really only been preparing to show him here for the last couple of weeks. He ran through those gates like a champ and stopped big and turned for me. He was honest everywhere; he didn’t lean on me. He was perfect!”

Sarah who earned $1,350 for this title, will be showing Heavy D in the $20,000 NRHA Invitational Freestyle Reining later in the week, and hinted that she is a Patrick Swayze fan and will not be in the corner!

Reserve in the NRHA Non Pro went to Brittalynae

Goodlin on ARC Trashin Yer Chic. The 6-year-old gelding is by Gunnatrashya out of Wimpys Little Chic. The duo's 220.5 also won the NAAC Non Pro, NAAC Intermediate Non Pro, and the NRHA Intermediate Non Pro championships tallying up $5,699 in earnings. Brittalynae's parents, Gred and Kathy Goodlin own the standout palomino.

Brittalynae commented, "I didn't think I did that well, but when I came out and heard my score, I was like, 'Ooo, great!' I was really happy with him. He was really good for me." She then spoke about her horse which she calls "Stellar," "He's really a fun horse. He's kind of shy if he doesn't know you, but he likes to be scratched. He likes peppermints if he's good. He always gives everything he has. He never gets tired!"

The Goodlins are a generous Christian family who regularly contribute to charity. Each show season, through prayer, the family designates certain shows from which their earnings will be given to charity. Mr. and Mrs. Goodlin feel that this will teach their children to focus on others by not always showing for their own benefit. Brittalynae received $5,699 at this show.

Sarah Locker's sister, Jessicah Keller was reserve in the NAAC Non Pro, NAAC Intermediate Non Pro, and NRHA Intermediate Non Pro on Snip O Satellite (Nu Chex To Cash x Snip O Gun) with a 218.5. Hilldale Farm also owns the 8-year-old bay mare. She earned $3,021 for the titles.

Karen Shedlauskas swept both the NAAC Non Pro Prime Time and NRHA Non Pro Prime Time on Red Gun 2 with a 218. The 6-year-old red dun gelding by Colonels Smoking Gun is royally bred. His dam is Call Me N Hollywood, a daughter of Hollywood Dun It.

Shedlauskas has an interesting history with "Red" as she currently owns him for the second time. She explained, "I bought him as a 4-year-old – he was kind of a project. I had him for a year, and I got some things done on him, but I really needed a professional. I sold him, exactly one year later at the same horse show at the back gate to a friend of mine, Frank Costantini. Frank bought him and sent him to Brandon Brant. Brandon put the finish on him, truthfully. I was struggling with a right turn and a roll back, and Brandon did that. He had some success in the Open with him, and then

Frank was talking about selling him. When the opportunity came to buy him back earlier this year, I did right before the NRHA Derby."

Shedlauskas has a long list of trainers who help her with Red throughout the year. She thanked Mark and Shannon Rafacz, Brandon Brant, Margaret Fuchs, and Brad Hill. Karen will finish the week working her real job talking insurance as a Markel Insurance representative at the show.

Debi Murnan was reserve in the NAAC Prime Time Non Pro and the NRHA Prime Time Non Pro on her 8-year-old sorrel mare, Jacs Red Pine (Jacs Electric Spark x Shes Flamin Hot) with a 217.5.

Morris Kulmer returned to the pen on NVR What A Lucky Joe to win the USA Reining with a 217. He and the 4-year-old sorrel gelding by Lil Joe Cash out of What A Lucky Hit won the Level 1 in both the NAAC Novice Horse Non Pro and the NRHA Novice Horse Non Pro earlier in the show.

Kulmer joked about his gelding's dam sending a text earlier in the day. He said, "His mother is known as Chia. She just sent me and 'Joey' a text a minute ago, sending her love. So the mare sent a text to her son who was doing well, and I'm sure going to pass that love on to him!" Then on a more serious note, he added, "Lil Joe Cash is a great stallion and he's got a lot of nice horses here at the show. I thank Andrea Fappani for getting me that horse – he showed him last year. He just keeps getting better and better. I think he's going to be a great horse in the Derbies next year. So I really look forward to showing him. I'm lucky to have Andrea put the foundation on the horse, and I'm very lucky to be riding with what I consider to be the best Non Pro trainer and coach, Dan Huss."

The USA Reining Amateur reserve champion title went to Olivia Preston Garvin when she scored a 199.5 on her 15-year-old mare Buddys Gun Smoke (Ima Best Buddy x Designer Smoke).

Emily Coultrap Dominates the NAAC Limited Non Pro & the NRHA Limited Non Pro

As draw number 66 out of 73 riders, Emily Coultrap entered the pen feeling ready and in sync with her horse, Sparkys Shining Doll. While Coultrap hoped for a clean run, she enjoyed the ride of their life scoring a 220.5 – 4.5 points over that of her closest competitors. With seven more riders to sweat through, she finished with both the NAAC Limited Non Pro and the NRHA Non Pro Championships earning $432. Sparkys Shining Doll, also known as “Bud,” is a 6-year-old buckskin stallion by Friday Night Shiner out of BB Holly Doll.

Bubbling with excitement, Coultrap recapped her run, “He was on. We connected. He gave me the power, and he also gave me the control. He turned real hard both ways. My circles were phenomenal. I mean, he came back to that slow circle... he was like butter! He just slammed it to the ground. I was a little nervous about my right circles because they are a little more difficult, but he was great! I just drove him right up through and sat in my seat and heard Bobby [Avila] go ‘that’s enough!’ He slammed to the ground again in that small slow and we nailed our lead changes and come down to that first rundown and I felt him leaning a little bit and I said, ‘ride it! You know what? This is it! Ride it!’ He went down there and – this horse it doesn’t matter if you’re on his ears or on his butt, he’s going to stop – he snapped back hard and it felt awesome! Then he did it again! We stopped that last one and he backed up hard and it was all over!” She added, “Bobby has done a phenomenal job! I mean, he put me on the map!”

Coultrap was also grateful for the opportunity to purchase this horse from Santa Hill Ranch and for their honesty representing him. She said that he is everything that they said he would be – as Emily said, “The real McCoy!”

Reserve for the NAAC Limited and NRHA Limited Championships saw a three-way tie. Madison Gustin on Guns R Spooky (Smart Spook x Berry Yer Guns), McKinnon Larcombe on Taris Dreamer (Magnum Chic Dream x Taris San Cutter), and Patrizio Fumagalli on Darth Vintage (A Sparkling Vintage x Chex Drive) all scored 216s. They each earned $235.

Eitan Abu on Gunners High Roller wins the Novice Horse Non Pro L2 Championship NAAC Novice Horse Non Pro L2 Ends in a Runoff: Donahue and Kulmer

The ancillary action continued with the Novice Horse Non Pro Classes run concurrently with the NAAC Novice Horse Non Pro Classes, Eitan Abu traveled to Oklahoma City all the way from Canada with an intent to win. As the last draw in a field of 90, he piloted Gunners High Roller to score a 219.5 sweeping the Novice Horse Non Pro Level 2 championship and the $752 purse from the newly made reserve champion, Adam Donahue. Gunners High Roller is a 5-year-old sorrel stallion by Colonels Smoking Gun and out of Yoplait Light.

Abu remarked, “I bought this horse last year at the Derby. Barak Gibori helped me to buy him. Barak left to Israel and sent me to Billy Williams. I like this horse very much. He is very solid; he’s a good stopper and a very big spinner. When we ran in, I felt that he is really with me and I enjoyed it. It was fun!”

Adam Donahue’s performance was only two before Abu, and his 218.5 also tied him for the NAAC Non Pro Level 2 Championship with Morris Kulmer. Donahue was riding his 8-year-old sorrel mare, Thata Shiner. The daughter of Smart Spook and SLJ Smartlikewhinny and Adam were not finished, however, because a runoff was agreed upon. The gritty mare had been struggling with a bout of dehydration before her first run and was a bit tired, but she gave her best one more time and scored a 217 in the runoff winning the championship and bringing Adam’s take to $1,621.

Donahue commented, “In the first run, the mare was really good. She got circled like she normally does, except she ran out of gas there at the end, but she’s a mare that gives everything every time.” Adam continued to talk about the second run, “Basically, the mare went in there and made the exact same run just a little slower this time because she was winded. I only had about four horses and a drag to get her back ready, and with her being sick, she had a little trouble getting wind back, but she went in and gave me everything she had once again.”

Donahue has two futurity horses that he hopes to make the finals with.

Morris Kulmer on NVR What A Lucky Joe also tried his best in the runoff, but his 214 fell a little short of the championship. However, the 218.5 earned in their first run won them the NAAC Novice Horse Non Pro Level 1 and NRHA Novice Horse Non Pro Level 1 championship titles, and after the runoff took reserve in NAAC Novice Horse Level 2 with earnings totaling $2,045.

*Adam Donahue and Thata Shiner

“I decided to runoff, but that didn’t turn out so good,” Kulmer said with a smile. “I had a few penalty points in the runoff, and the horse that won it stayed out of the penalty box and ended up on top. My horse did really, really well so I was happy with him.”

Nancy Miller was reserve champion in both the NAAC Novice Horse Non Pro Level 1 and the NRHA Novice Horse Non Pro Level 1 on 6-year-old Custom Cromed Lolita (Custom Crome x Hollywood Lolita) with a 216. She pocketed $1,050 for the titles.

YOUTH TAKE THE SPOTLIGHT AT THE NRHA FUTURITY

Addison Welman Tops the Scores in the Youth 14-18 Class

Spectators had the opportunity to cheer on the future of reining at the NRHA Futurity during the youth ancillary classes that ran concurrently with the North American Affiliate Championship (NAAC) Youth Classes. Addison Welman topped the scores with a 219 on a horse owned by Heidi Srigley. Dunit in the Dark is an 11-year-old bay gelding by Brennass Golden Dunit out of Goody Goody Girl.

Welman said, “This was my last time showing in the youth. It was fun to just go out there and just kick him around there and make him go!”

Dani Latimer took reserve in the Youth 14-18 and won the NAAC Youth 14-18 and USA Reining 14-18 when she Dani smiled as she said, "He went in there and did everything exactly how I asked him to do it. He warmed up really good today, so I went in confident that he was going to do his job really nice. No matter how the score came out, I was going to be happy with him." The Latimers raised "Charlie" themselves and Dani's dad, Dean, trained him.

The Youth 13 & Under classes were ruled by none other than Tioga, Texas, resident Raeanna Thayn. On the newest addition to her string, Coded N Color, Thayn scored a 219.5 winning the 13 and Under ancillary class and the USA Reining 13 & Under. With her old pro, Coded N Karma, she championed the NAAC 13 & Under and took reserve in the ancillary class and USA Reining. Both of Raeanna's horses are by Electric Code. Coded N Color is a 4-year-old gelding out of RT Missy Olena and "Karma" is a 7-year-old gelding out of Whiz N Snap.

Thayn commented, "[Karma] was really good. He was just perfect for me when we went out there. I couldn't ask for more." Then about Coded N Color also known as "Kodak", she said, "He was really good. This was my first youth class with him, and he was just great for me when I went out there.” This was Raenna’s last competition in the 13 & Under classes, but judging by today’s results, she is more than ready to move up.

Addyson Schmersal took the reserve championship in the NAAC 13 & Under class when she scored a 216 on CC Enterprise (Wrangle Whiz x Rems Little Sugs) owned by Hickory Creek Ranch LLC.

Colt Mitchell on Playgun Chic Olena takes the 10 & Under Championship

In the Youth 10 & Under class, Colt Mitchell guided Playgun Chic Olena to a 217 and won the championship title. Named “Wes” by Colt’s sister, Molly, the reliable 12-year-old son of Smart Chic Olena is out of a mare called Mamas Packin. Molly owns the gelding, but had to stay home and go to school instead of coming to the show allowing Colt to show in her place.

Mitchell said, “He is a VERY good horse. I’ve only scored big on him. He is my sister’s horse, and she is not here right now.

*Colt Mitchell and Playgun Chic Olena
10 & Under Short Stirrup Champions*

She is back in Missouri watching me on her phone probably.” His other sister, Hannah, was showing in the Non Pro finals at the same time Colt was showing Wes in the youth class.

Cromer Out Whiz carried owner Kinley Reed to score 213.5 points and take reserve in the Youth 10 & Under class. The 7-year-old gelding is by Cromed Out Mercedes out of Ebony Whiz.

Megan Tice on Im Smart N Lucky Sweep the Rookie Competition

*Megan Tice and Im Smart N Lucky
Rookie of the Year*

The ancillary Rookie competition was tough with 115 entries vying for four championship titles including the NAAC and NRHA Rookie championships as well as the notoriety of winning the Silver Spurs Equine Rookie of the Year title. Megan Tice delivered a crushing performance on Im Smart N Lucky scoring a 217.5 and winning all five titles! Tice’s clean sweep earned more than $937 and for winning the Rookie of the year, she also received a saddle and a Morrison trophy.

Tice said, “I went a little bit faster than I normally go which helped out with a few points. He tripped really hard on me one time and it kind of shook me, but I just kept going for it. He was there for me. It was just so much fun. It was awesome!”

Tice has been leasing the horse she rode from her friend, Kim Friedman, since April this year and showed him for the first time in May. The 8-year-old bay gelding is sired by Smart Starbuck out of Dun Got It Lucky. Megan thanked her trainer, Patrick Flaherty, who said that the key to training the Rookie of the Year is to “get a good rookie horse, and a good rookie!”

The reserve championships were all won by thirteen and under youth. The NAAC Rookie Level 2 and NRHA Rookie Level 2 Reserve Champion was Addyson Schmersal on CC Enterprise, a 2009 sorrel gelding by Wrangle Whiz out of Rems Little Sugs. They scored a 217. Earning 216.5s, Ava Bush on Shes A Shining Gun (Hes A Loaded Gun x Lil Shining Suzana) and Madison Rafacz on Wizenboonsmal (Peptoleap x She Whiz A Star) shared the reserve titles in the NRHA Rookie Level 1, NAAC Rookie Level 1, and the Silver Spurs Rookie of the Year competition.

Randall Dooley on Nite N Gail Crowned OKC Convention & Visitors Bureau Invitational Freestyle Champion

Randy Dooley, with Jessica, Abigail and Matthew won the Freestyle Reining on Nite N Gail.

Randall Dooley wowed the crowd and the judges with his performance on Nite N Gail (Gunners Special Nite x Tari Trash) owned by Gail Klapper. He synchronized a series of precise reining maneuvers to the song Im Proud to Be an American by Lee Greenwood. As he rode the 5-year-old mare through her paces, he was accompanied in the background by the solemnity of the Oklahoma City Police Honor Guard standing in ranks.

Dooley entered the competition planning to donate his winnings to benefit the family of Zackari Parrish, an officer who was killed in the line of duty. Dooley explained, “He was killed last year in Denver right before the Ram Invitational Freestyle. I was having a hard time coming up with a routine for that. My wife and I were talking and came up with this routine to honor him and to give all the money to the Fallen Officer fund for his wife because he left two little kids behind. It was a very bad thing.”

While the Dooleys didn’t know Parrish personally, he lived in a nearby town and his story touched them deeply. The judges awarded the performance 227 points, and Randall will be contributing his $6,582 winnings to the charity.

With a 226, Kirsten Booth on Babys Got Blue Eyes was the Freestyle reserve champion. Babys Got Blue Eyes is a 6-year-old mare by Spooks Gotta Whiz out of One Stylish Chic. She pocketed $4,525 for the title.

CONGRESS CLARIFIES THAT HORSES ARE NOT "PETS," ADVANCES LANDMARK LIVESTOCK HEALTH MEASURES!

As the countdown to close the 115th Congress heads to the final stretch, on Wednesday, December 12, Congress passed the Agriculture Improvement Act of 2018 (H.R. 2), sending the legislation to the president, who is expected to sign the bill into law this week. Horse industry highlights include a revised statutory definition that excludes equines from a blanket definition of "pets" and funding for key livestock and international market development programs through Fiscal Year (FY) 2023. In the wake of extensive horse industry outreach, lawmakers struck language in the senate version that defined horses as "pets" within the context of a "Pet and Women Safety" (PAWS) measure. Industry requested that lawmakers delete "horses" from the proposed statutory definition of "pets," but retain "horses" as a stand-alone category. In response to industry messages communicated to congressional leaders during the past six months, the final conference report states that the bill "clarifies the definition of pet to include certain companion animals, while also providing protections for other animals such as horses, service animals, and emotional support animals." The revised definition helps preserve the long-standing classification of horses as "livestock," while allowing equines to fall within the scope of property damage subject to compensation within the parameters of the PAWS Act.

A preliminary review of the legislation shows that lawmakers are moving in the right direction with respect to funding important animal health programs. Unlike earlier versions of the bill, the legislation mandates rather than authorizes minimum appropriations totaling $150 million to fund the National Animal Vaccine Bank (NAVVCB), the National Animal Disaster Preparedness and Response Program (NADPRP) and National Animal Health Laboratory Network (NAHLN), among other programs, for FY 2019 to 2023. Of the $150 million of mandated funding, the bill stipulates that Congress will appropriate $112 million “to be allocated among the NAHLN, the NADPRP and the NAVVCB.” With respect to the NAHLN, a major priority for the horse industry, the legislation further authorizes up to $30 million per year over the five-year span of the farm bill, matching industry’s authorization request. Additionally, the legislation provides “$255 million in annual mandatory funding” for Foreign Market Development, the Market Access Program, and other programs that support the USDA’s Foreign Agricultural Service (FAS).

US EQUESTRIAN INTRODUCES LETTERING PROGRAM FOR YOUTH

Many young equestrians today are so completely committed to their time in the saddle that they don't have time for sports. Despite that level of commitment, should that mean that their Letterman's coats should remain undecorated? Not anymore. US Equestrian has introduced a program that will allow its youth members to earn varsity letters for equestrian activities.

Participating students must be in grades 5-12 and be a current USEF Member. If they compete at US Equestrian licensed competitions, they should apply for a USEF Competing Junior Membership. If they do not compete at US Equestrian competitions, they can still join as a non-competing Fan member.

Students must submit proof of enrollment in school, such as a current report card, current transcript, or certification of enrollment in a home schooling program. To earn the letter, youth must submit either proof of participating in three equine competitions or a log showing 100 hours actively working with a horse (not both). The program year runs from June 1 to May 31, and any hours or competitions within the program year may be used regardless of when a person signs up for the program.

Accepted verification of competition can be results printed from an online source, an invoice from competition, or a signed letter from a competition organizer. It must include the student's name as a competitor along with the competition's name and date. The following will not be accepted as competition – class lists, entry forms, photos of ribbons or awards, or year-end results.

The 100 hours of active equestrian activity can be time spent riding, lunging, driving, vaulting, hacking, and ground training. Do not include – barn chores, grooming, tacking up, cleaning tack, time driving to competitions/lessons, or time spent at competitions when you are not riding.

Applications can be found at USEF.org/Lettering. After the application and $15 fee ($25 for non-competing Fan memberships) is received, an email will be sent out with information about the program. To learn more now, visit the website listed above to learn more or email to Lettering@USEF.org or call (859) 258-2472.

SAFESPORT TRAINING REMINDER FROM US EQUESTRIAN

All USEF Competing Members 18 years of age or older are required to complete all three modules of the SafeSport Training by January 1, 2019.

On August 27, 2018, the US Equestrian Board of Directors approved a rule change requiring that, effective January 1, 2019, all US Equestrian (USEF) adult members with a Competing Membership must complete USEF's Safe

Sport training in order to be eligible to participate in USEF activities. Members can immediately access the free Safe Sport training directly through their member dashboard or can click here to learn more. The training consists of three modules, which take approximately 90 minutes to complete. All three modules must be completed in order for the certification to be valid. US Equestrian encourage members to complete the training as soon as possible.

Over the past several months, USEF has provided the following Safe Sport resources to assist in achieving its mission of raising awareness, assisting with reporting, increasing education, and providing support:

- Published a record of suspended and banned individuals that identifies the person by name and the reason for their suspension or ban. USEF updates the list as information is received from the U.S. Center for SafeSport;
- Sent a hard copy letter accompanied by the USEF Safe Sport Handbook to the parents of our junior members;
- Created the USEF Safe Sport Directory, a searchable database to help individuals, parents, athletes, and others in equestrian sport find the people within our industry who have completed the Safe Sport training and/or a criminal background check;
- Developed Safe Sport FAQs and SafeSport Training FAQs on our Safe Sport webpage;

- Held Town Hall and Affiliate meetings to raise awareness, educate, and field questions;
- Launched the #YouAreNotAlone campaign, including providing campaign materials to competition organizers to utilize at competitions;
- Developed Learning Center educational video content and PSAs for use by USEF, Affiliates and competitions;
- Expanded the monitoring of USEF and Affiliate Safe Sport compliance; and
- Hired additional support staff as needed for the Safe Sport Program.

In addition to the resources offered by US Equestrian and the U.S. Center for SafeSport, it is imperative that you are aware of legislation signed in February by President Trump, Protecting Young Victims from Sexual Abuse and Safe Sport Authorization Act of 2017. It requires amateur sports organizations and their members to report sex-abuse allegations involving minors to local or federal law enforcement, or to a child-welfare agency designated by the Justice Department, within 24 hours. Failure to do so is a crime.

Not only is reporting the right thing to do, it is critical to creating a safe environment for athletes and members. Sexual and non-sexual misconduct have two distinct reporting processes:

1. All sexual misconduct should be reported directly to the U.S. Center for SafeSport by phone 720-524-5640 or online at www.safesport.org.
2. All non-sexual misconduct or violations of the Safe Sport Policy should be reported directly to US Equestrian. Reports through US Equestrian can be submitted using the USEF Incident Report Form, or by email or phone to Teresa Roper, Safe Sport Program Coordinator, troper@usef.org, 859-225-6915, Sonja Keating, General Counsel, skeating@usef.org, 859-225-2045, or Emily Pratt, ep Pratt@usef.org, 859-225-6956.

Abuse has no place in our sport or our lives, and US Equestrian believes the safety and welfare of our members, especially our children, is of paramount importance. It is our collective responsibility to raise awareness and educate each other on the behaviors associated with abuse, both sexual and non-sexual, to keep members safe.
