earned a 220.5.

These two continued neck-and-neck at the top of the leader board after the second event, the rein work. Kelby and Hickory Holly Time were first to go, earning a 222.5 from the judges. Then draw two was Phillip Ralls and Call Me Mitch, just a point behind, with a 221.5.

The third event, the steer stopping, is notorious for shaking things up, but the two leaders continued on a roll. Kelby gained an advantage when he scored 224.5 – but Phillip remained a huge threat with his steer stopping score of 221.

Going into the fence work, Kelby and Hickory Holly Time had a four-point advantage. They were second in the draw, and earned a 223.5 from the judges. However, Phillip and Call Me Mitch were last to go down the fence and still had a shot. While this team had the high fence work score of the World's Greatest Finals – a 225 – it was not quite enough to take over the lead. Phillip and Call Me Mitch finished as Reserve – and Kelby Phillips celebrated his first World's Greatest Horseman Championship.

The DT Horses World's Greatest Horseman title came with a $40,000 paycheck, which elevated Hickory Holly Time's lifetime earnings past the $200,000 mark. Phillips also collected a custom ring from Sami Fine Jewelry; a custom saddle from Martin Saddlery, a Gist buckle and a CR Morrison Trophy sponsored by DT Horses, a watch from Catena Watches USA, Nile crocodile boots from Rios of Mercedes, a $500 gift certificate from NexGen compounding, a fleece cooler from Classic Equine and product from Platinum Performance and San Juan Ranch/Santa Cruz Animal Health.

About the NRCHA Celebration of Champions

The NRCHA Celebration of Champions is three shows rolled into nine days of competition.

Although the calendar says 2018, the World Championship portion of the Celebration of Champions marked the official conclusion of the 2017 show season, by determining World and National Champions in 15 different Open and Non Pro divisions. World Championship qualifiers earned an invitation to compete in Fort Worth by qualifying at NRCHA-approved shows last year. The World Championship contestants showed in a preliminary round, with the top 10 in each division advancing to the clean slate finals for a shot at the title.

Other action at the Celebration of Champions included the NRCHA Cow Horse Classic Derby for 4- and 5-year-old horses; special National High School Rodeo and Collegiate Invitational cow horse classes; and the crowd-pleasing World's Greatest Horseman, a grueling four-event test of the ultimate cowboy and cow horse, sponsored by NRCHA Corporate Partner DT Horses.

REIN IN CANCER CELEBRATES A YEAR OF GENEROSITY

Cancer is not something to celebrate. It is a debilitating, destructive disease that not only affects the person afflicted with it, but all of their loved ones as well. That's why Rein In Cancer was started and why there is reason to celebrate after all. For dozens of people affected by cancer in 2017, contributions from Rein In Cancer were the final thread of hope that they needed to beat the disease.

Those contributions were raised thanks to the generosity of people participating in many successful events: the Frisbee Tosses at the AQHA World Show and National Reining Breeders Classic, Betting On A Cure at Remington Park, the Dog Race and Costume Contest at Southwest Reining Horse Association Futurity, and the Silent Auction hosted by Tulsa Reining Classic.

Cheryl Magoteaux-Cody, one of the founders of the organization said, "Because of the financial effect that cancer can have on a person and their family, sometimes the funds from Rein In Cancer can make the difference when it comes down to buying hay for the horses, or even getting the gas to go to chemo treatments. Our contributions have even bought supplements to help people tolerate cancer treatments. Insurance doesn't often cover those things."

Rein In Cancer makes payments directly to the people battling cancer to be used where ever it is needed in their struggle. The organization also continues to support the Shirley Bowman Nutrition Center which it raised the funds to create in 2007 through the efforts of co-founders, Shorty Koger, Tracie Anderson and Cheryl Magoteaux-Cody. The Shirley Bowman Nutrition Center is at the Charles and Peggy Stephenson Cancer Center in Oklahoma City.

Rein in Cancer is a 501c3 Non Profit Corporation that, to-date, has raised over a million dollars. The organization has no employees – only volunteers – and over 98% of donated funds have gone directly to helping cancer patients. For information on how to contribute or how to host a fundraiser at an event or set up a bequest, visit the Rein In Cancer website at www.reinincancer.com.

2018 NRHA ROME SHOOT IN – KRONSTEINER AND FONTANA TIE TO WIN THE $23,400-ADDED NRHA ROME OPEN SHOOT IN

At the 2018 NRHA Rome Shoot In Rome, Italy held February 16-18 the excitement was palpable throughout the event. Once again the NRHA approved $55,560-Added Shoot In in Rome attracted Europe's best horses and riders as well as an enthusiastic crowd. Held during Cavalli a Roma, the annual three-day exhibition showcasing international horse show jumping, national pony show jumping as well as NRHA, NRCHA and AQHA approved competitions, counted over 25,000 visitors.

The NRHA Rome Open Shoot In

Guglielmo Fontana and Whiz Wild West Co-Champions NRHA Rome Open Shoot In

In a field of 59 entries, the $23,400-added NRHA Open Rome Shoot In, past NRHA Intermediate Open World Champion Guglielmo Fontana set the bar early in the draw by posting a 228 aboard Luga Quarter Horses' Whiz Wild West. Aboard the 5-year-old gelding, the Italian NRHA Professional had clinched the 2017 NRHA European Futurity Level (L)3 Open as well as the Italian Reining Horse Association 4-year-old L4 Open Futurity Championships. Following the winter break, the duo came back strong leaving their mark in the Italian capital's show arena.

Fontana held on to the lead until NRHA Million Dollar Rider Rudi Kronsteiner rode Jenny Nixdorf's 2017 NRHA Open Reserve World Champion AB Peppy Diamond. With the talented stallion by OT Taris San Peppy out of Mare Made, who boasts over $80,000 NRHA Lifetime Earnings (LTE), the Austrian NRHA Professional lay down a strong pattern paid back by the judges with a 228.

Both NRHA Professionals opted to share the highest step of the podium of the $23,400-added NRHA Rome Shoot In Open. "I don't believe I have ever ridden a horse as talented as Whiz Wild West," said Fontana about the gelding, aka Mosé. "He was the first horse I rode when I moved in as head trainer for Luga Quarter Horses and we immediately clicked. He was awesome today and it truly would have been unfair to run off for the win."

Kronsteiner agreed, adding that he had picked up his mount – aka Tony – from the breeding station three weeks prior to the show in Rome and had only ridden him a week before showing him. "He [AB Peppy Diamond] is an exceptional horse and proved his worth yet again," he added. "The level of competition here was very high. Guglielmo and his horse were certainly my favorite here and, after setting the bar so early in the draw, we all knew we had to step it up. Tony was great and it truly did not make sense to run off, especially considering we're at the beginning of the show season."

NRHA Professional Angelo Benedusi riding Little Hancock (Docs Tivio Hancock x Little Bay Solano), owned by Rebecca Folcia, took home first place honors in both the $12,000-added NRHA Intermediate Open and $480-added Limited Open with a 219.5.

The NRHA Rome Non Pro Shoot In

Winning the $13,200-added NRHA Rome Non Pro Shoot In, as well as the $6,000-added Intermediate Non Pro and $480-added Limited Non Pro with an outstanding 223 — in a field of 59 entries — went to 14-year-old Francesca Ferrarol aboard Tarisnap (Snapper Cal Bar x Tari Badgekin) owned by her father, Maurizio Ferrarol. "I have no words to describe how special my horse is," said Francesca. "I ride under the guidance of [NRHA Professional] Max Ruggeri who suggested we buy him. When we picked him up in January last year he was in the pasture with a couple of donkeys. We put him back in training – always respecting his age and knowledge – and he showed us all how patient and talented he is. Here he was spectacular and I am so proud of him. I knew he could do it but never expected to achieve this result – he is the best and I truly love him." Plans for the oldest horse in the competition, ridden by the youngest rider entered, are now to qualify for the upcoming FEI European Championships for Young Riders and Juniors.

Past NRHA Non Pro World Champions, Enrico Sciulli and Snips Gotta Bud (Nic It In The Bud x Snip O Chex), rode to second place in the Non Pro with a 219. Young Matteo Bonzano riding Highpoint Reiner, the gelding his father Manuel Bonzano rode to the NRHA Non Pro World Champion. Owned by 23 Quarter Horses Azienda Agricola S.S., the talented bay is by Sailin Ruf out of Scarlet High Listo.

Once again the sport of reining – showcased at its best in Rome – left its mark in the show arena and both on national TV and in national newspapers in Italy.

MARK BELLISSIMO LAUNCHES INAUGURAL GLOBAL EQUESTRIAN TRIFECTA OF WORLD EQUINE EXPO™, WEQX GAMES™ AND WORLD HORSE DAY™ TO RUN CONCURRENTLY WITHIN FEI WORLD EQUESTRIAN GAMES™ TRYON 2018

Mark Bellissimo, Managing Partner and CEO of the International Equestrian Group (IEG) and Tryon Equestrian Partners (TEP), announced in late February that the inaugural annual World Equine Expo™ that will include the WEQx Games™ and World Horse Day™ and will run concurrently with the FEI World Equestrian Games™ Tryon 2018 (WEG) between September 11-23, 2018.

The collective event theme is "Celebrate the Horse, Celebrate the Sport," which honors and highlights the unique connection between horses and humans across the world. The Tryon International Equestrian Center (TIEC) team, location of the 2018 WEG, today released its #Together video highlighting this powerful connection.

CLICK HERE to view the #Together video, honoring the relationship between horses and humans ahead of the FEI World Equestrian GamesTM Tryon 2018, World Equine ExpoTM, and WEQx GamesTM in September 2018!

The FEI World Equestrian Games™ Tryon 2018 will run from September 11-23, 2018 and is equestrian sport's most significant event featuring the World Championships for eight equestrian disciplines: Jumping, Dressage, Para-Dressage, Eventing, Driving, Vaulting, Reining, and Endurance. The Tryon WEG will have the highest attendance of any sporting event in the U.S. in 2018.

The World Equine ExpoTM (Expo) - whose yearly event will run during the WEG - will be an annual event intended to create a platform to honor, celebrate, and promote horses and horsemanship through a significant trade fair, demonstrations, educational seminars, clinics, panel discussions, an equine art and film festival, and conversations on topics critical to raising awareness, and strengthening, innovating and expanding global equestrianism.

The Expo will include the WEQx GamesTM, which are spectator-friendly derivatives of equine competitions highlighting the accessibility, diversity, athleticism, and passion for horse sport for athletes of all ages with the ultimate goal of finding formats that promote personal, spectator, and commercial interests in equestrian sport. More comprehensive details surrounding the competitions to be included in the WEQx GamesTM will be introduced in the forthcoming weeks.

Bellissimo commented, "All of our countries were discovered on the back of a horse. The horse and other equines (donkeys, mules) have been partners in humanity for over 4,000 years and remain a significant economic enabler in most developing countries with millions of equines supporting hundreds of millions of lives. These amazing animals continue to provide sustenance, transportation, security, entertainment, friendship, therapy, and sport throughout the world. The love of the horse is universal and profound. The opportunity is to better package the spirit of the horse and make it known and accessible to a broader audience."

The social media theme "#Together" highlights the convergence and shared interests of many dualities including the FEI World Equestrian GamesTM and the World Equine ExpoTM, east and west, horse and rider, equestrians and non-equestrians, athletes and spectators, and riders and grooms who all come together for the love and passion for horses. On the social media platform of Facebook alone, there are 250 million people that have horse-related interests. This compares with 7.9 million for ice hockey, 65 million for American football, 102 million for golf, 180 million for tennis and rivals American baseball of 288 million. Soccer leads the sporting disciplines with 762 million.

In addition, on Thursday, September 13, the World Equine ExpoTM will host and debut the inaugural World Horse DayTM, which will feature a charity gala.

"World Horse DayTM will be the ultimate celebration of the horse, an animal that has supported humans since the beginning of time. While often an unsung hero, this incredible animal is overdue for its turn in the spotlight. World Horse DayTM honors the horse and its unparalleled contribution to our world," said Bellissimo.

More details will follow over the following days, weeks, and months highlighting the details of the World Equine ExpoTM, the WEQx GamesTM, and World Horse DayTM, along with ongoing WEG announcements. Tryon is working in collaboration with the Fédération Equestre International (FEI) and the United States Equestrian Federation (USEF) to refine the formats of the WEQx GamesTM competitions.

The World Equine Expo[™] event media partner will be The Chronicle of the Horse (COTH), one of the U.S.'s oldest and most influential equestrian media companies which dates back to 1937. The COTH website is the most visited website in the equestrian world (non-racing) with over nine million unique visitors on www.coth.com.
