2017 NRHA FUTURITY HIGH-SELLERS

The NRHA hosts three premier reining sales each year, held during the NRHA Futurity & Adequan North American Affiliate Championships: the Marketplace Sale, the Futurity Prospect Sale, and the Select Yearling Sale,. These sales have consistently offered an outstanding group of two-year-old reining prospects, yearlings, stallions, broodmares, and show horses from leading breeders, owners, and trainers. The quality and integrity of the NRHA/Markel Futurity Sales is reflected in the graduates of the previous sales - they have won millions in NRHA earnings since the first 2-year olds sold in 1993.

The 2017 NRHA/Markel Futurity High-Seller and Futurity Prospect High-Seller was Sparky Jac Dun It a stand-out sorrel colt by Electric Code (LTE: $215,402) out of Memories In Progress (Hollywood Dun It) dam of 5 money earners. Muehlstaetter Performance Horses consigned the colt that Dean and Cherie Spence purchased for $81,000.

Sparky Jac Dun It will be put into training with Jared Leclair who said, “Martin did a great job with this colt. He has such a big stop on him. He really has a lot of presence and is just a gorgeous colt. We reviewed the videos and watched the preview. Afterward, I asked Dean what he thought, and he said, ‘there is only one horse here that we need to buy.’ It is just an added bonus that we happen to own the stallion that he is by. We look forward to showing him next year at the futurity.”

Cam Essick of Pacific Range Ranch consigned the high-seller to the Select Yearling Sale for the second year in a row. Loveya To Love Me is a bay filly by Gunnatrashya (LTE: $233,757) out of Love Em N Lena (Smart Little Lena)(LTE: $114,191). The promising filly was purchased by Amy & Jeff Medows for $35,000.

Chic With Guns, consigned by Matt Florida - agent for Jennifer Kersey - topped the 2017 Marketplace Sale. Chic With Guns is a 9-year-old gray mare by Smart Chic Olena out of Playguns Smoking. Carlos and Laurie Deleu became the proud new owners when they raised the bid to $35,000 for the spectacular gray mare.

Laurie said, “Great mares that owners are willing to part with are hard to find and when we saw Chic With Guns at the sale we really liked everything about her. Her bloodlines, conformation, performance record and color really caught our attention. She is in foal to Wimpys Little Step and her yearling stud colt sold for $32,000 at the futurity so I think we made

LANDMARK TAX BILL CROSSES THE FINISH LINE

The Senate hustled early Wednesday morning, December 20 to pass the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017 by a vote of 51-48. Although the House passed the bill Tuesday afternoon, congressional budget rules required the Senate to return the bill to the House for a revote on Wednesday to address technical changes. While details related to the 1100-page conference report on the final legislation continue to emerge, please see the below highlights that will have the most direct impact on the horse industry:

Business Provisions

Corporate Taxes: The new tax law reduces the corporate income tax rate from 35% to 21% and takes effect January 1. AHC members filing as "C corporations," which are generally identified by the suffix, "Inc.," will see an immediate reduction in their official, or statutory tax rate. AHC members filing as "C corporations" would include racetracks, makers of pharmaceuticals and agricultural equipment, and large breeding operations governed by officers and a board of directors, among others. While many policy experts believe that the new tax code will be easier to navigate from a business perspective, corporate taxpayers' effective liability will vary to the extent they are able to utilize the new code's remaining deductions, some of which are outlined below.

Small Business, "Pass-Through" Deduction: The Tax Cut and Jobs Act establishes a 20% deduction for the first $315,000 of joint income, or $157,500 for individual filers, from "pass-through" entities such as partnerships, sole proprietorships and S corporations. This new provision could benefit small businesses that generally report incomes at or near the new threshold level. While various types of "pass-throughs" constitute the fastest growing segment of AHC members, they also include the majority of U.S. farms. According to Department of Agriculture data, 85% of domestic agriculture production comes from "pass through" entities.

Bonus Depreciation of Equipment: The House and Senate conference report includes 100% bonus depreciation – an increase from the current 50% rate - through December 31, 2022, for property placed in service after September 27, 2017. Beginning in 2023, bonus depreciation is reduced from 100%, to 80% in 2024, then falls by 20% increments each year through 2026. Farm equipment used in a business operation, breeding stock and according to a preliminary reviews of the final language, race horses will benefit from the robust deduction.

Losses at the Racetracks: The final law preserves the deduction of losses "sustained ... on wagering transactions to the extent of the gains" realized "during the taxable year." However, the law clarifies that the "limitation on losses from wagering transactions applies not only to the actual costs of the wagers, but to other expenses incurred by the individual in connection with the conduct of that individual's gambling activity." For example, the law subjects the deduction for travel expenses to and from a racetrack to the cap established by the amount of the gains. Like many of the deductions in the bill, the provision sunsets after 2025.

Alternative Minimum Tax (AMT) – The new law repeals the corporate AMT, ending the need to calculate tax liability twice for a single filing.

Individual Provisions

Estate Tax: The final law ultimately preserves the estate tax, but doubles the current exemptions of $5.49 million for individuals and $10.98 million for married couples. Raising the statutory threshold will reduce the number of farms and family businesses subject to the tax. It will also spare many family-run businesses from jumping over accounting hurdles to avoid the tax altogether.

State and Local Taxes (SALT) – The tax law includes a significantly downsized, itemized deduction for up to $10,000 of state and local property taxes. This provision – which eliminates the unlimited, longstanding deduction for state, sales and local property taxes – may pose challenges for AHC members who file returns in high-tax states next year.

Mortgage Interest: The new law reduces the current $1 million cap on mortgage interest to $750,000, which the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) will apply to homes purchased after January 1, 2018.

Charitable Contributions: In cases of individual cash contributions, the final law increases the percentage-limit deduction from the current rate of 50% of the donor's adjusted gross income (AGI) to 60% of AGI.

Now the Real Work Begins

Tax policy experts predict that the fast moving tax law will result in a lengthy bill in 2018 to address technical corrections to clarify ambiguous provisions. The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) will also begin a years-long process of promulgating regulations to implement the new law. AHC recommends that members consult their accountants or other tax professionals to begin assessing the new tax landscape for 2018 and beyond. NEW FORMAT FOR NRHA FUTURITY COLLEGIATE JUDGING CONTEST

The National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) champions opportunities to develop the future of the sport of reining. One great illustration of this is the return of the Collegiate Judging Contest at the 2017 National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) Futurity & Adequan® North American Affiliate Championship Show.

The contest began with a penalty clip and rulebook test designed to measure contestants' technical knowledge of the sport. Next, participants judged two sets of live runs during the Level 4 Open Silver Spurs Equine Semifinal. During the judging, the senior division served as scribes for the junior division and vice versa, with scribe pairs being predetermined prior to the start of the competition.

An awards breakfast at Heritage Place rounded out the competition. There, students enjoyed a Chic-Fil-A breakfast prior to the presentation of awards. Competition results are listed below. Congratulations to all participants for a great contest.
