MORE OPPORTUNITIES, MORE ENTRIES, MORE FUN FOR APHA YOUTH WORLD SHOW AND SURROUNDING EVENTS

The American Paint Horse Association successfully concluded the 2018 AjPHA Youth World Championship Show after 10 days of premier competition for youth age 18 and under aboard American Paint Horses. The event took place at the Will Rogers Memorial Center in Fort Worth, Texas, June 25–July 8 in conjunction with the Appaloosa World Championship Youth Show, the APHA Youth World Games, the Western Horseman Fence & Boxing Challenge, the inaugural Ranch Work Championship, and the ACHA Cowtown Cutting.

This year, the APHA Youth World Show offered more than $110,000 in scholarship prizes to AjPHA members competing at the show. Included were scholarships for top finishers in 86 world championship performance and halter classes, along with scholarships for randomly selected entries and other special events. All this in addition to the customary prizes awarded at the show, such as trophy buckles and saddles. Scholarship money was provided by the American Paint Horse Foundation, as well as private donations from APHA members and industry supporters.

With the chance at some wonderful incentives, the show attracted nearly 1,200 entries and 249 horses from 32 U.S.

youth exhibitors proved they were the best of the best, capturing the show's All-Around and High-Point titles. The All-Around titles were awarded to Rebecca Figueroa, 14-18; Lauren Hall, 13 & Under; Ella Storch, Novice Youth; and Sabine Lazo, Solid Paint-Bred. Four additional High-Point awards were presented to top-placing Youth: Amanda Walsh earned the High-Point English Youth award, Jennifer Stanley took home both the High-Point Western Youth and High-states and Canada. Each class paid out $1,300 in scholarships. Several areas saw growth in entries over the 2017 show: youth halter classes grew by 65%; solid-Paint bred halter classes were up 75%, and solid Paint-bred performance classes grew by 108%, just to name a few.

“Our Youth Show exemplifies what an amazing group of kids we have in our association, and this year was no exception,” APHA Executive Director Billy Smith said. “They work extremely hard to get to the World Show, and we are honored to provide them with the opportunity to save for their future education while they show their horses.”

Another exciting aspect of this year's show was the inclusion of the biennial Youth World Games. With nine countries represented, each country or combination of countries entered one team composed of five exhibitors and a coach. One rider from each team competed in classes aboard randomly selected mounts. This year the top three teams were United States, Team United (representing France, Italy & Slovakia) and Canada. Competition brought youth from all around the globe to showcase their skills and love of Paints.

AjPHA members and clubs were also recognized for their hard work and accomplishments outside of the show pen. Amanda Nelson of North Logan, Utah, was named the AjPHA Youth Member of the Year. Amanda is an AjPHA National Director and the Utah Paint Horse Club Youth President. She was awarded a $1,000 scholarship and a custom Gist Silversmiths trophy buckle. The Garden State Junior Paint Horse Club was honored as AjPHA's Youth Club of the Year; they also earned the From the Heart award, which is presented to the club that provides the most support to the AjPHA Presidential Service Project.

The Robyn Hanna Memorial Sportsmanship Award honors an exhibitor selected by an anonymous panel of judges as someone who exemplifies what it means to be a role model in and out of the arena. Amanda Walsh, 13, of Thornton, Colorado, received this year's award, along with a $1,000 scholarship and a custom Gist Silversmiths trophy buckle.

The Western Horseman Fence and Boxing Challenge took place July 5 – 6 and presented a unique opportunity for cow horse and ranch horse competitors to exhibit in cow work only. This exciting event featured $5,000 in added money plus jackpotted entry fees, which were paid out in a 4D format modeled after the barrel racing divisional payout system. The event, which was open to all breeds of horses and all ages of exhibitors, attracted 73 entries and paid out a total of $8,425.

This year, another fun and lucrative event was added for those looking to compete in cow and ranch horse events: the inaugural $10,000-Added Ranch Work Championship, sponsored by Classic Equine. This all-breed, all-ages event took place July 7 and paid out a total of $13,550 with 71 entries. The Ranch Work Championship paid out in a 3D format, similar to the Fence and Boxing Challenge. The response was extremely positive and happy exhibitors left planning their return next year.

"It was a great event and very well run," said competitor

Trevor Carter of Farwell, Texas. "It was great fun. I showed four horses and had a blast doing it."

Also returning this year was the popular ACHA/APHA Cowtown Cutting. The all-breed, all-age event, which is approved by the American Cutting Horse Association and APHA, took place July 7-9 and attracted 291 entries and paid out $31,358.

NRHA REINER

AUGUST MARKS NEW CHAPTER FOR NRHA REINER MAGAZINE

The National Reining Horse Association has announced that beginning with the August issue of the NRHA Reiner magazine, many will notice changes to the monthly publication. NRHA is in the process of writing a new, exciting chapter with the magazine after implementing new standards for its production, editorial, advertising sales and printing.

In this new chapter, NRHA develops an even stronger joint-publishing relationship with Active Interest Media (AIM) of Boulder, Colorado. AIM publishes 55 magazines, including several in the equine industry; owns two associations and several trade shows; has approximately 500 employees; and offers many efficiencies in production, sales and printing. The company is also the publisher of the Pro Trainer magazine for NRHA Professionals, which has received rave reviews for nearly two years and is a highly valued benefit of an NRHA Professional membership.

For many years, NRHA has worked with contractors for several aspects of the Reiner. For example, all or part of printing, design, ad sales, and editorial have been contracted to outside resources. Given the size of AIM's publication activities, the company has far greater resources and economies of scale, making them an excellent partner. Taking advantage of this efficiency should translate into maintaining NRHA's profitability in the short term and should also improve profitability over time.

survey, the NRHA Reiner's editorial content will be more oriented to the lifestyle of the reining competitor with more training and educational components for the majority of the members who attend the average weekend NRHA event. Additionally, event coverage, NRHA program information, and tips ranging from fitness to a competitive mindset will be highlighted to meet the needs expressed in the survey. The magazine will provide better service to members and leverage the NRHA website to offer more event results and advertising opportunities.

The NRHA Reiner will arrive in member mailboxes at a consistent time each month to meet reader and advertiser expectations. As a continued benefit with applicable memberships, association leadership felt this was important for our members. Additionally, readers will see a new, more forward design, along with many other improvements for an on-target, more desirable publication. Members and fans can also still expect to have access to the online Reiner each month.

NEW CONTACTS

Taking the lead in terms of content and production in August will be AIM Editorial Director Jennifer Paulson, NRHA Chief Communications Officer Christa Morris-Stone, and AIM Art Director Michelle Miller.

Additionally, NRHA's Bucky Harris and AIM's Mitch Miller will serve as advertising sales contacts. Harris will focus on breeder and member accounts while Miller will handle and pursue commercial advertisers.

NEW NRCHA SNAFFLE BIT FUTURITY OPEN FINALS FORMAT

The NRCHA Snaffle Bit Futurity is one of the largest and most prestigious events in the Western performance horse industry, held at the historic Will Rogers Equestrian Center in Fort Worth, Texas, October 7 – 20. The National Reined Cow Horse Association (NRCHA) Board of Directors has implemented a new Open Finals format for the 2018 NRCHA Snaffle Bit Futurity; one that puts the health and safety of our beloved equine athletes first.

New for 2018, riders that advance to the Open Finals and any additional lower divisions will only make one run in each of the three events during the Open Finals. The scores earned in the Open Finals will be carried to the lower divisions. For example, if a rider qualifies for the Open and Intermediate Open Finals, he/she will complete their herd work, rein work and fence work during the Open Finals; they will not show during the Intermediate and Limited Open Finals. If a rider qualifies for the Intermediate and/or Limited Open Finals only, he/she will compete in the Intermediate and Limited Open Finals as usual.

The Board of Directors took their time making this decision, considering every aspect of this new policy. After much deliberation, the Board members determined the overall health of our young equine athletes was priority. “We constantly worry about our horses’ physical and mental well being throughout the process. Not only do we want them to be successful at the Futurity, we also want them to have long, happy and productive careers beyond their 3-year-old year. The best cow horses are those who continue as happy, sound derby/hackamore horses, two rein horses and bridle horses,” said NRCHA President Todd Crawford.

In addition to limiting the number of runs a multi-divisional Open Finalists will make, the Board also approved a schedule that minimizes the number of times a horse will show in one day. Historically, 3-year-old Finalists complete their herd work, rein work and fence work all in one day. This year, all Finals herd work will be held on Thursday, October 18, while the rein work and fence work will be dispersed over Friday and Saturday.

By implementing this new format, the NRCHA Board of Directors hopes to decrease the wear and tear on our young horses and to help secure the longevity of their future show career. Reined Cow Horse is a demanding sport where horses must be able to compete in three events with excellent athleticism, ability and stamina. Our 3-years-olds rise to this challenge at the Snaffle Bit Futurity. The NRCHA is honored to host an event where these young triathletes can showcase their amazing talent. We are looking forward to the new format at the 2018 NRCHA Snaffle Bit Futurity and hope you can join us in Fort Worth, Texas, October 7 – 20.

TOPSAIL WHIZ MAKES THE RECORD BOOKS ONCE AGAIN

Before the commencement of the 2018 National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) Derby, NRHA all-time leading sire Topsail Whiz was sitting only $11,000 shy of hitting the historic 12 million dollar mark, and with only a few offspring competing in the open and non pro derbies, it was unclear whether the legendary stallion would cross the threshold during the summer's premier reining event. It only took one ride, however, to push 'Whiz' over – making him the only NRHA 12 Million Dollar Sire.

Topsail Whiz comes from a lineage of sires that greatly impacted the sport of reining. The 1987 chestnut stallion was sired by NRHA Million Dollar Sire and Hall of Fame Inductee Topsail Cody and out of Jeanie Whiz Bar. Bred by Tom and Susan McBeath and owned by Bob Loomis Reining Horses, Whiz passed away in 2009, leaving a hole in the reining world that only his progeny could fill.

With owner Bob Loomis on board, Whiz showed at six NRHA-approved events from November 1990 to April 1993. Boasting nearly $50,000 in NRHA Lifetime Earnings (LTE), the stallion's top finishes in the show pen include:

- 1990 NRHA Open Futurity – Third Place
- 1991 NRHA Level (L) 4 Open Lazy E Classic Champion
- 1991 NRHA L4 Open Derby – Fourth Place

The stallion's most obvious success, however, came within the breeding shed. Producing many talented offspring, he has sired many champions, including seven NRHA Open Futurity champions and four NRHA Open Derby champions. His offspring also include three NRHA Million Dollar Sires and two NRHA Two Million Dollar Sires. At the 2018 NRHA Derby, Topsail Whiz had two offspring make the Open Derby finals. Dun It For Whizkey and Franco Bertolani finished third in the L4 Open and Whizkey N Cash and Tanya Jenkins finished fifth in the L2. The two horses earned nearly $36,000 making Whiz the first NRHA 12 Million Dollar Sire.

His most notable offspring include:

- The Great Whiz (out of Pines BH): NRHA LTE over $256,470
- Easy Otie Whiz (out of Miss Poco Easy): NRHA LTE over $233,610
- Whizkey N Diamonds (out of Princess In Diamonds): NRHA LTE over $216,335
- Dun It For Whizkey (out of Dun It For Chex): NRHA LTE over $214,803
- Smoking Whiz (out of Glendas A Smokingun): NRHA LTE over $208,838

Founded in 1966, the National Reining Horse Association is a nonprofit association dedicated to promoting and encouraging the development of and public interest in the sport of reining. The focus is on developing and maintaining suitable standards of performance and judging and in providing a fun filled, family-oriented atmosphere.

TULSA KIDS' TIME

One of the most popular activities at the Tulsa Reining Classic, August 29 – September 2, takes place not in the arena, but nearby in the Ford Exhibit Hall! Tulsa Kids' Time offers exciting interactive activities for the little ones, hosted by daycare veteran Bess Bouley.

“We are glad that we are able to continue growing our children's program at the Tulsa Reining Classic,” Show Manager Cheryl Cody stated. “Bess will return to provide daily sessions for kids, ages ten and under.”

Bouley, from Maple Plains, Minnesota, began her career working with kids in a special education program and has thirty years of experience in child care and preschool. Cody noted, “The children love ‘Ms. Bess’ and her innovative and fun approach to learning is one that fits well with the horse show atmosphere. For years her Rainbow Daycare and Preschool was a mainstay for her area and we are thrilled to have someone with her experience here at the show!”

Bess has simple but important goals for the program. “I always want to provide a safe and educational environment where I can help children grow and become comfortable in their independence. Even away from home at a show, we want the kids and their families to feel cared about and have something special to look forward to each day.”

The sessions are daily Monday through Saturday. Each session includes a craft project, physical activity and fun learning activities. Cody concluded, “The kids at the show have so much fun with Bess. She understands the challenges of carving out special time for younger kids within the fast-paced show environment because of her deep roots in the horse business. Our emphasis is on taking the time to make younger kids feel welcome and included at the show. A new feature this year for the kids will be a special table with bible coloring books and crayons that will be set up during the church services each Sunday.”

Of course the kids who attend Tulsa Kids' Time are often the ones seen in the popular Leadline Class, once again sponsored by Dr. Joe Carter's Oklahoma Equine Hospital. Not only do participants receive a special Tulsa Bear, but the whole group – including Bouley – gets to cheer each other on.

QUARTER HORSE NEWS

Tulsa Reining Classic Stallion Service Auction

August 15 – August 31 at 7 p.m.

QUARTER HORSE NEWS CONTINUES AS SPONSOR OF TULSA REINING CLASSIC ONLINE STALLION SERVICE AUCTION

Quarter Horse News has returned for the seventh consecutive year as the sponsor of the Tulsa Reining Classic Stallion Service Auction. The Tulsa Reining Classic, scheduled for August 27 – September 2 is an exciting reining event with something for everyone, including the US Equestrian Open and Youth Championships plus Futurities, Derbies, and the National Reining Horse Association's South Central Region Affiliate Finals along with a full slate of ancillary classes.

Along with all that activity, the Quarter Horse News Tulsa Reining Classic Online Stallion Service Auction has become a highlight each year. People from all over the world and on-site at Tulsa bid for breedings to some of the reining industry's greatest stallions. Images of each of the stallions are prominently featured against the signature red background across the end of Expo Square's Ford Arena.

Quarter Horse News became the title sponsor of the Stallion Service Auction in 2012. According to Tulsa Reining Classic Manager Cheryl Magoteaux Cody, the twice-monthly publication is an invaluable tool for reiners and the industry. "Quarter Horse News has been the reining industry's most committed supporter for years. We so appreciate having this essential media resource as a part of our show. We always feel it adds prominence and prestige to our event!"

Patty Tiberg, Publisher of Quarter Horse News, also values the relationship between Quarter Horse News and the Tulsa Reining Classic. "In this – our fortieth year – we continue to feel strongly about the importance of stallion owners and breeders, as they are such an integral part of the western performance horse industry. The Stallion Auction is the perfect avenue for us to show our support."

That support has been tangible for all those forty years and continues today. Cody noted, "In the print publication, you'll find easy-to-read coverage from the events along with the complete results. The unique stories uncovered by the QHN writers are featured as standalone articles in the magazine to highlight the reining industry's horses, owners, breeders, trainers and competitors."

Tiberg added, "The management of the TRC always produce a quality event and our writers will be on the scene, covering the reining events in person. Look for updates on social media for breaking news and check out QuarterHorseNews.com for detailed articles about the winners and their runs."

The stallion auction begins on August 15 and concludes at 7pm August 30, giving mare owners plenty of time to plan and prepare for the next year's breeding season. Bidders may bid both online at TulsaReining.com and in person at the Quarter Horse News Tulsa Reining Classic Stallion Auction display at the show.

Cody added, "We deeply appreciate the support of stallion owners who choose to be a part of this auction. Because of their participation, we work to keep the stallions in the forefront during the entire show."

Stallions are heavily promoted during the event as well as prior to and after the show and stallion owners who donate a breeding receive sponsorship benefits at the event. Thanks to Quarter Horse News, each stallion is entered to win one of two stallion promotion packages valued at $5,000 that contains both print and electronic advertising.

For information on the auction and a list of stallions, or to learn more about the Tulsa Reining Classic, visit the web site at TulsaReining.com.

SILVAS RETURN TO SPONSOR HOLLYWOODSTINSELTOWN OPEN FUTURITY AT TRC

David and Bonnie Silva have been a part of the reining world for decades and their success in reining has given them a distinct place in the industry. At Tulsa, the Silvas continue their support as sponsors of the 2018 Tulsa Reining Classic Hollywoodstinseltown Open Futurity set for Saturday, September 1. The event features $60,000-added purse and is named for the Silva's phenomenal stallion, Hollywoodstinseltown.

When Hollywoodstinseltown, by $6 Million Sire Hollywood Dun It and out of NRHA All-Time Leading Mare, Miss Tinseltown, was born, it was quickly evident that he had the makings of a champion. With a royal pedigree, flashy good looks, exceptional movement, and real presence in the show ring, he gained quick rewards with such titles as 2009 NRBC Intermediate Open Champion, 2009 NRHA Derby Reserve Champion and Intermediate Open Champion, and Member of the 2010-Gold-Medal-Winning World Equestrian Games team. Due to that record of success, Hollywoodstinseltown's lifetime earnings exceed $185,000.

It was soon apparent that his foals were inheriting and displaying his signature looks. Plus their trainability and show presence have already boosted Hollywoodstinseltown to the honor of being titled a NRHA Million Dollar Sire.

David and Bonnie Silva are well known as breeders and owners in the reining industry. David has been honored as a NRHA Million Dollar Owner and most recently received the NRBC Markel Non Pro Commitment Award. He has been involved in the sport of reining formore than 30 years and continues to be an active Non Pro competitor. Often, three generations of the family can be seen at reining events.

Silva enjoys the opportunity to give back to an industry that he loves - plus watching good horses has never grown old for him. "I love watching the Hollywoodstinseltown Futurity in that big pen. There is great ground and great horses and we are always proud to be part of this exceptional show." He added, "As always we wish good luck to everyone!"

Global Reining Sport Group partner Colleen McQuay noted, "There are few people who have done as much for the reining industry as the Silva family. In the last 40 years, Dave and Bonnie and their family have been active as owners, breeders, and exhibitors and they understand the importance of their involvement in events like this. We greatly appreciate their commitment and support."

BIG MONEY UP FOR GRABS IN USEF YOUTH REINING CHAMPIONSHIP

$15,000 Added in Youth US Championships!

There is a lot on the line at the 2018 US Equestrian Youth Championships set for Friday, August 31 at the Tulsa Reining Classic! Of course, a national championship is an important title and more than reason to enter, but as the trending emphasis on youth activities continues to expand there's even more!

According to US Equestrian Director of Reining Bryn Wells, "With the program revamped and upgraded for 2018, youth will ride for very significant rewards. Added money in the 19-21 age group is a whopping $7,500, with $5,000 added in the 14-18 and $2,500 added in the 13 & Under for a total of $15,000 added for the championships that will take place on Friday, August 31 in the Ford Arena at Tulsa's Expo Square."

Plus, there are generous prizes – belt buckles and coolers for the champion in each age group and coolers for the reserve champions. Ribbons will be awarded to placings through 10th and the payout will be made according to National Reining Horse Association payout guidelines.

Group, which produces the Tulsa Reining Classic, noted, "It goes without saying that our youth are so important to our industry and, of course, to Tulsa. We are glad USEF has chosen to emphasize the importance of the young riders. We also appreciate the support of Markel Insurance, – another strong proponent of youth activities which sponsors the USEF Championship night at the Tulsa Reining Classic."

Tulsa Reining Classic show manager Cheryl Cody noted, "It makes for a great night of reining as people will get to see the best of USA Youth, then watch as the nation's best professional riders compete for the United States Equestrian 2018 Adequan Championships. This is one more reason for those ages 21 and under to plan to attend the Tulsa Reining Classic. Along with the Affiliate Region Finals, a double slate of NRHA classes and the broad selection of Limited Age events, there really is something for everyone."
