Fifty-seven finalists entered the arena at the 2018 IRHA/NRHA Open Derby with a final that had the crowd holding their breath to the end. It looked as though we were in for a thrilling run-off between two of the sport's top riders, Gennaro Lendi astride the magnificent Sugar Little Step owned by Quarter Dream, and Cira Baeck aboard Gunstep owned by Corinna Shumacher's CS Ranch. Both had marked a score of 222.5. Instead, back on the throne was go-round leader Saturdaynigh Mizzen after a daring run with Pierluigi Chioldo.

Pierluigi pulled out all the stops, in every sense, as the last to enter the final and brought the crowd to its feet with a whopping 224 – one and a half points clear of the competition – and sufficient to assure him the titles of Champion at levels 4 and 3 with Saturdaynigh Mizzen. Chioldo, now head trainer at Angelucci QH, who had started and trained the gelding, slipped back into perfect accord after a break of two years.

There was no sign the duo, who had led the go round with a 223.5, were feeling any pressure. “In fact,” underlines Pier, “I was really nervous before entering the show pen because I wanted to do well. I wanted to express the horse to his best and repay Susanna for the faith she had shown me.”

Was there anything he would have changed in his approach to the run? “I could have been a little less agitated, but I really wanted to win, for the horse especially. Tonight he was ready to give 100%; he’s an exceptional horse,.” Chioldo said.

The gelding, a son of Saturdaynight Custom and West-coast Mizzen, was bred by Ambrosini QH in Pontoglio (Brescia) and is owned by Susanna Sodi, who purchased him following the horse’s victory in both Levels 4 and 3 of the IRHA/NRHA Open Futurity 3-year-olds in 2015 with Chioldo himself in the saddle.

Chioldo, who took over the reins of Saturdaynight Mizzen again just one month ago, added, “This is a super horse and he has been managed impeccably in these two years by Elio Simonini and Alessandra Ischia. He was really fit when I started riding him recently.”

As for the future? “For now, he is going back to Susanna, who wants to show him at the Derby European Non Pro. This was a happy interlude, for which I am really grateful,” Chioldo said.

Sharing Reserve Champions honors, and both riding horses sired by Wimpys Little Step, at Level 4 with a richly deserved 222.5 were Gennaro Lendi on the 6-year-old gelding Sugar Little Step (out of Ah Sugar Sugar) and one of Belgium’s star riders, Cira Baeck, now working as head trainer at CS Ranch. The dam of the 6-year-old stallion, Gunstep, is Snow Gun.

Commenting on their run Cira explained, “Because of the hot weather he was maybe a little bit tired, although I didn’t ride too hard I was aware he was feeling the heat – but then it was the same for everyone. Other than that, he was really nice; we had a little miscommunication on the first turn, but that aside, he gave everything and I’m really proud of him.”

Gennaro’s spins produced a real vortex of perfection, enthusiastically acclaimed by the public, but the judges did not add those extra half points awarded by the crowd. Despite a slight error on the first stop, the duo claimed the Reserve Championship, along with a trip to the US for Sugar Little Step whose owner, Pietro Marseglia, had decreed that to earn the honor of competing in the US Derby, the stallion would have to gain his stripes in the arena here.

The Level 3 Reserve Champion was Lombardy professional Massimiliano Ruggeri who rode 5-year-old Wimpy to a 220. Wimpys Little Step also sired the L 3 Champion, out of Custom Margarita. Owner of the stallion Maurizio Ferrarol is the patron of La Scuderia Ferrarol near Trento, where Ruggeri now works after a long and fruitful period with Le Colombare QH (MN).

A clean and energetic 216 brought victory at Level 2 for Chica Little Step, excellently shown by Aldo Lorenzoni.

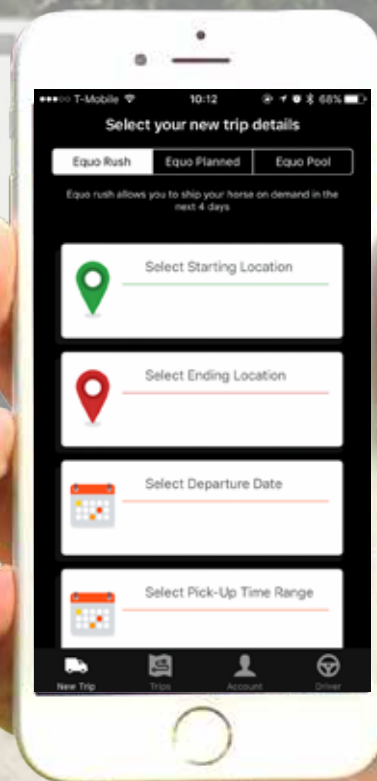

“I’m really happy!” exclaimed Lorenzoni, the trainer from Lombardy. “It’s been a difficult week because there was an old injury playing up and so I rode her very little ... Just ten minutes before pay time, and 40 before the competition. But she has a big heart and I was lucky!”

The sweet 6-year-old mare, like other highly prestigious finalists – e.g. the two Co-Reserve Champions in the Level 4 – is a daughter of Wimpys Little Step out of Smart Chica Rooster. Bred by Roberto Barbè, she was purchased by her current owner as a 2-year-old. At three years, she was a Futurity Finalist Level 4 Open with Francesco Martinotti. At four, a Euro Futurity finalist with Pierluigi Chioldo and IRHA/NRHA Futurity Finalist at the first special event outing with her current trainer following a win at the LR Futurity Non Pro ridden by Greta, daughter of owner Claudio Zocchi.

“An unusual female with a strong personality,” continued Lorenzoni. “Cool, collaborative and so talented, as could be seen from her run, but at the same time very easy to ride. She’s both a solid mare for Open events and a good partner for a Non Pro; one of those rare horses that are good in both situations and can, in a certain sense make life difficult, as it’s never easy to decide which career is right! Now, when we get home we have to get her fit again and then we’ll decide whether to take her to the Euro Derby or use her as a broodmare.”

Thirty-year-old German rider, Kim Obenhaus, rode Gk Puro Pepp (aka “Merlin”) to take the Reserve Champion title in the Level 2. The 7-year-old, bay stallion was sired by A Shade Peppy out of Chic Sugar Plum and is owned by Timo Aulbach. The pair finished half a point behind the L2 leaders with a 215.5. Kim currently runs QK Performance Horses with her companion, Quentin Galliere, having started her professional career in reining as assistant trainer for Duane Latimer in Oklahoma (US) then working for two years with Rudi Kronsteiner.

Entering the show pen half-way through the final, and the first designated Champion at the Derby in Cremona this year on Saturday evening for Level 1, was Massimo Villa who completed his run with companion Hollywood Gun Kid to earn 213 points and snatch the victory by one half point. The stallion – a son of Hollywood Gun Dunnit (NRHA total money earner of $54,336.00) and Miss Puro Kid – is owned by Edoardo Bernardelli, with whom this 5-year-old Quarter Horse was crowned Reserve Champion in the 2016 IRHA/NRHA Futurity Non Pro Level 4 3 year-olds.

“I have been riding ‘Kid’ since October and for the special events, I am assisted by Team Brighenti. Last year we made the finals of the IRHA/NRHA Futurity 4-year-olds,” explained Massimo. “For all the time we have been here in Cremona the horse has behaved really well. I am very pleased with the way we have worked together: throughout the go round, he was with me and he was strong through to the final.”

Massimo, from Lombardy, manages his Monsereno Horses, specialized in horse-therapy, in Imbersago (LC). The centre is currently involved in a pilot scheme for para-reining supported by FISE. “We now have about ten athletes actively involved – and we are always on the lookout for sponsors and support,” added Massimo.

Second step on the L1 podium was occupied by Polish reiner Alicja Kula, 22, who upped her go-round score by no less than 2.5 points to achieve tonight’s 212.5. Her companion was the 5-year-old bay Shiner Whiz Olena (Shiner Olena x Golden Flashy Whiz) owned and bred by the Roleski Ranch, where Alicja has been working for three years. The mare took second place in the Polish Futurity 2017 with Adrian Motyka in the saddle.

“I’ve been working her since March and we get on pretty well. She’s easy at home and honest in the show pen. We had a really nice show here,” Kula said.

IRHA/NRHA DERBY NON PRO: THE FINALS

There were 52 finalists in the Non Pro event with sparks expected to fly following the lead up from the go round that had been dominated by Gina Schumacher, with her three horses having placed among the top four. But this evening, it was no holds barred for Tina Kunster-Mahl, who had two horses in the final of the IRHA/NRHA Non Pro Derby in Cremona and put together two great runs. She finished the evening with top honors at Levels 4 and 3 aboard Mizzfire, who slid to a powerful 222 that had the crowd whooping, and a Reserve Champion Title at Level 3 accompanied by Theo Boom Shernic, with a score of 216.5. Both horses are owned by Jacpoint QH, Tina's superb facility in Lermoos, Austria. Tina bought Mizzfire, the 7-year-old gelded son of Colonels Smoking Gun and West Coast Mizzzen, bred by Tom and Mandy McCutcheon in the US, in late August of 2017.

"I competed with him for the first time in Las Vegas in September and we scored a 215 there, even after such a short time together, before returning to Europe," explained Tina. "He's an amazing horse, really calm at home, more like a dog. He's a funny horse, you put him in the trailer and he puts his head down and sleeps at home he eats and lies down and sleeps, but then he's great to ride in the show pen."

"Theo", a 6-year-old gelding by Boom Shernic out of Smoken Cromed Cutie was bred by Houde Lucie, but is rather trickier to hold in the arena. "I felt really good with both horses during the warm-up, but with Theo it helped that it was warm today, it calmed him down a bit," comments Tina, "It meant I could send him on the fast circles as I knew he would not have the energy to run off." Tina has a long and glorious record in Non Pro events, most recently she was crowned Champion at the NRHA European Derby in Lyon last November on Nu Chexomatic, snatching the title from Gina Schumacher who finished her run there just one point behind Tina's 222.5.

Tina continued, "After Lyon, I had a long winter break and then started competing again at the Austrian Maturity last week."

In Cremona, Gina once again had to settle for reserve honors at Level 4, despite a great run on the powerful gelding Xtra Step N Diamonds (Wimpy Little Step x HA Ruby N Diamonds) owned by CS Ranch, with the pair finishing with a strong 220.5. Despite leading the go round on Wham Bam Gunner Man, aka "Woody", Gina had confided before the final that her hopes were pinned on the 5-year-old Xtra Step N Diamonds bred by Xtra QH. "He is strong, but easier to show, he is not oversensitive and that helps when I am nervous myself."

Regarding the level of competition overall at the Italian Derby this year, Gina commented, "Competing in an event like this, where there are a lot of strong horses is in any case very stimulating, even if it makes winning more compli-

Silvia Racco had to wait for another 16 riders to complete their runs, before being sure that she had managed to secure top spots in Levels 2 and 1 astride IM Gunner Slide, the 7-year-old paint mare, which she put in a convincing 215.5 immediately before the break. The 24-year-old rider from Lombardy, who trains with Mirko Midili, was competing in her first special event.

“Here last year at the Derby, we missed entering the final by just half a point, so this year we were really going to make the best of it!” Silvia said.

The plural here refers to herself and her IM Gunner Slide, actually owned by her dad, Sandro, who Silvia wishes to thank for letting her show his horse, “Though now he doesn’t want to let me have him again, maybe not even for the prize-giving,” joked the young rider.

The daughter of One Gun and a dam that has practically the same name, Gunna Slide, was bred by Giorgio Romanotto. “She’s a super horse,” explained Silvia, “and the improvement compared to last year is all thanks to Mirko’s magic touch; he added whatever was missing.” She was started late due to bad health and the Racco family bought her and managed her themselves up until last year when she was started by Midili. Silvia started riding early, hacking out, but then had to stop as she was allergic to horse hair: “But my passion was stronger!” concludes Silvia. Mirko

Midili defines her as a “super-competitor who only needs a little encouragement.”

It would seem that the young trainer’s encouragement worked as the position of Reserve Champion in this Non Pro Derby Level 1 also went to the same facility thanks to the well-matched pair of Roberta Gianformaggio and GP Magnificent Dream, bred by Dyck Marleen. These “two great girls” pulled off a super triple last November in the finals of the 2017 IRHA-FISE Championship: Non Pro, Intermediate Non Pro and Non Pro Over 50. The “hard Lady” of Non Pro reining is back in the spotlight with her 6-year-old mare – bred at 23 Quarter Horses and daughter of Magnum Chic Dream and Chili Chili Coco Bop – that Roberta purchased when the mare was two years old. Roberta adores this attractive mare that suffered a nasty case of colic when young which impacted her training: “She needed special treatment and it would seem she appreciates all the effort I put in then and over the long-term. We developed a very special feeling,” Roberta said.

Behind Silvia Racco at Level 2 is the talented rider, Ulrike Krueger on SL Shesgotmesparklin (Jacs Electric Spark x Shes Customized), an athletic 6-year-old palomino mare that Ulrike trained herself. The duo is strong and consistent; in fact, they were Champions at the same Level of the Non Pro Derby in 2017. The German rider lives in Austria and rides alone, though she is assisted in competitions by Bernard Fonck.

ERCHA/NRCHA REINED COW HORSE: THE DERBY

The Western Horse Fair “Salone del Cavallo Americano”, hosted the prestigious 2018 ERCHA-NRCHA Derby, a special event, reserved for 4- and 5-year-old horses.

The show consisted of a go-round, where competitors have to complete herd work, fence work and rein work. The composite score of these three runs determined the finalists of the Open, Non Pro, and Novice Amateur classes, and also the champions of the Limited Open and Limited Non Pro classes. The Final consisted of an additional Fence Work run, whose score would be added to the go-round composite to determine the winner of each class.

There were 21 horse-and-rider combinations competing in the ERCHA-NRCHA Derby: 14 competitors in the Open section, seven in the Limited Open, seven in the Non Pro, four in the Intermediate Non Pro and three in the Novice Amateur class, in this last section, open to 4-, 5- and 6-year-old horses, riders have to perform only the boxing instead of the fence work, both in the go-round and in the final.

Luca Terzi, an Italian rider from Viareggio, Tuscany, gained the ERCHA/NRCHA Derby Intermediate Non Pro Championship, for the second year in a row, riding his 5-year-old mare Bling My Ride, born in the States by Metallic Cat and out of a Dual Pep mare (Scooby Dooby Dual), and trained in Italy by Samuele Poli. The pair scored 71.5 in herd work, 72.5 in fence work, and 68 in rein work, for a total score of 212.

“She is a nice, big earthed mare,” said Luca after his win. “She won the IRCHA Pre-Futurity last year, and was good also at the Americana, but unfortunately she got injured and therefore we had to stop her twice, to let her recover. She was back to training for the Derby only two weeks ago, but she is so good on the cows – thanks to her cutting bloodline – that she scored good. In the reining, she was less consistent, but it is only my fault.” Luca, who is a doctor specializing in psychiatry, usually rides twice a week with Samuele Poli, at Samisa Ranch, in Sarzana.

shared the Reserve Champion title, as they both scored a composite 201 in the go-round. The former rode his nice sorrel gelding, SA Rock N Ruf (Sailin Ruf x A Time To Rock), and scored 67 in all the three disciplines. Marie rode MRE Little Smoke, a 5-year-old sorrel gelding, by Haidas Little Smoke x Okies Little Shadow. The pair started with a poor 63 in herd work, but then recovered, scoring 69 both in fence work and rein work. Thanks to their composite, both riders also gained their place in the Non Pro and Novice Amateur Finals of Saturday afternoon.

The title of ERCHA-NRCHA Derby Limited Open Champion went to Italian rider Pietro Tuberga riding Legacy Little Cat, a 5-year-old sorrel mare, by ANS Wyatt Pep x Miss N Holly (by Miss N Cash). The pair started with a 72 in herd work, followed by a 71 in fence work, and concluded with 71.5 in rein work. Their total composite, 214.5, was not only worth the Champion Title, but also granted them a place in the Open final fence work.

“She is a good mare, and I have been riding her for one and a half years now,” said Pietro, who works as an assistant for Giovanni Campanaro, after being an assistant to Markus Schopfer for three years. “She is less consistent in reining, but despite this she did a good job in the show pen, scoring 71.5. I enjoyed the herd work most, it was the best herd work run, ever, for us.”

Reserve honors went to French trainer Marine Richard, riding her beloved GS Top On Whizard, by Sail on Top Whizard out of Miss Tari Jez (by Doc Tari). The pair scored 69 in herd work and 70 in fence work, but gained a fantastic 73.5 in rein work, for a total composite of 212.5.

On Saturday afternoon, the ERCHA/NRCHA Derby final took place. There were 10 competitors riding for the Open title, five for the Non Pro honors, and three in the Novice Amateur final, performing only in boxing.

In the end, the go-round leader, Giovanni Campanaro, who placed two horses in the final, took the lead and won the ERCHA Derby Open title astride Hot As Wasabi, scoring a consistent 74 in the fence work. The pair had a composite of 222 after the go-round, and were the leaders.

“She is a nice mare,” said Giovanni, who won the ERCHA Open Derby for the third time in a row. “She’s definitely the most enjoyable horse I have ever ridden. She is very cool, but at the same time, she is lively and cooperative in the show pen. She behaves much better during the competition than at home, or in the warm up arena.”

The mare, owned by Giovanni Lagaren, is by Little Dulces Rey (by Dual Rey) and out of a High Brow Cat Mare (Whirlacat), and was born in the States in 2014. She arrived in Italy when she was two-and-a-half years old, and Giovanni had some trouble with her at the beginning of the training, “We didn’t get on very well, at first.” he said. “But when we managed to understand each other, I realized that she was actually one of the best cow horses I have ever trained.”

Samuele Poli was the Open Derby Reserve Champion, astride A Smart Lil Dancer (Itsgoodtobelucio, by Boonlight Dancer x Smart Sarah), a 5-year-old chestnut stallion, owned by Lorenzo Sivori. The pair scored 72 in the final fence work, for a total composite of 290.

How long have you been riding?

I've been doing reining since I was six years old, and started riding and horsemanship when I was five.

Do you have a goal that you hope to accomplish in reining?

I don't necessarily have a big picture, but I have small goals that I would like to work my way up to.

How would you say that reining has impacted your life?

I've definitely learned how to handle successes and how to handle losses. Not all things go as planned, and how to work hard and to take care of animals.

Who is your trainer?

I ride with Kari Klingenburg. She trains out of Scottsdale, Arizona.

Tell us about her.

She is very supportive of me and my horse as a team. She has faith in both of us. I consider her to be my friend and a role model, and everything I could ever ask for.

What do you want to be when you grow up?

I would eventually like to become either a vet or a rehabilitator for horses.

Who has had the greatest influence on that choice?

Definitely Kari and my vet up here in Spokane, and my parents.

What do you consider to be your biggest win so far?

I would have to say the Rookie Shootout at NRBC. [I was in] the top 5 out of 60. We were able to compete in the big Equi-dome, and all the seats were packed, and it was a lot of fun. Even though I didn't win, I consider it to be a big accomplishment.

Which horse were you riding then?

I was riding Shesa Shining Gun.

Can you tell us about her?

She has blue eyes. She is very sweet. She is a Paint and Quarter Horse. We work well together. We definitely compliment our circles together and our stops. She's up for any task, but she doesn't like birds or puddles, or sudden movements.

What does she do when she sees those?

She kind of like sidesteps.

We've heard that you have a secret to your success.

Can you tell us about that?

Well, last year on my 12th birthday, Kari gifted me some quotes. They're like little popup books, and every time before I show, I turn on my music, run my pattern on foot, and open up a quote. That's what I do.

Can you tell us one of the quotes that she gave you?

"Fate loves the fearless."

Where do you hope to see yourself in 10 years?

I hope to see myself in college with an internship somewhere with large animals, and I'd like to attend WSU. Afterward, I'd like to come back to Scottsdale and work with Kari.

What advice would you give to beginning riders?

I'd have to say that success isn't about money, but your attitude and how happy you feel about yourself and your ride. And to set goals and find a place where you can focus within; whether it be listening to music or talking to your horse or your trainer. And always remember to chase your dreams.
