NATIONAL REINING BREEDERS CLASSIC ATTENDEES ENJOY 21ST SHOW

The National Reining Breeders Classic ended its 21st anniversary show April 22, 2018, enjoying more than $20 million in pay out over the course of 21 years.

The show began on Sunday, April 15 with a church service officiated by Ed Harrison, paid warm-ups, opening riding, a Come and Go Reception for sponsors and an Open Riders Meeting.

Sponsors enjoyed wine and cheese during the Come and Go Reception.

Open riders discussed rider and horse safety and a new eligibility workshop in the annual meeting.

“Safety in how we ride is important to maximize the quality of practice for riders,” said Casey Hinton, professional riders’ committee chairman. “To highlight the safety diagram remember people running the fastest get the right of way on the outside.” Hinton also invited professionals, owners and any other riders who would like to attend, a first of its kind, eligibility workshop to be held in Denton, Texas, June 12 and 13.

John McIlravey Conquers the SmartPak Texas Hold’em Tournament

*John McIlravey
SmartPak Texas Hold’Em Champion*

During the SmartPak Texas Hold’em Tournament at the National Reining Breeders Classic, John McIlravey won the pot and took home top honors when he became the poker champion. Although the tournament is a fun pastime event for the reiners, it also offers a charitable aspect. Part of the proceeds from the poker tournament went to Rein In Cancer, a charitable organization which, to date, has raised more than a million dollars for cancer patients in the reining industry.

McIlravey, not being much of a poker player, said his strategy was more of beginner’s luck than a well-versed poker player’s would have been. His main goal was to outlast his wife’s trainers and coaches Dany and Fred Tremblay.

“My strategy was to stay away from Dany and Fred Tremblay, because they are such good players,” McIlravey said. “I’m the only one really around the Tremblay’s team

“Dave Silva has been involved with reining for a very long time and has supported the industry and the NRBC consistently,” said Markel’s Director of Western Disciplines Frank Constantini. “He’s a Million Dollar owner with great - even Hall of Fame - horses, but he’s always been much more comfortable behind-the-scenes.”

This award was created to recognize the commitment of the Non Pros in our industry and Dave was deemed a most worthy recipient.

“He was really good; pretty much everything was perfect. He can really run and stop. I had a little late lead change, but that was all me,” Archer said with a laugh. “With this horse all you have to do is count and say ‘Whoa’ and you’ll be good.”

Smart Stepin Lena has been with Archer for six months and although he was originally purchased for Tellepsen to ride, she offered the 6-year-old stallion to Archer and he jumped at the opportunity to ride him for the year.

“We bought him for [Carolyn] and I just stole him for the year,” Archer jokingly said. “[After this year] I’ll give him back to her.”

Chris Dawson and Shiney Outlaw Win Limited Open

In the Limited Open, Chris Dawson rode Shiney Outlaw (Shiners Nickle x Mereyda) to the win with a score of 142. Although the duo turned in a great showing Dawson nearly missed his run as he had been at a friend’s house working 3-year-olds on cattle and miscalculated the time. When Dawson pulled into the Great Southwest Equestrian Center and unloaded Shiney Outlaw from the trailer, the pre-check judge was already calling his name.

“I didn’t get to brush him or put my chaps on or anything else,” Dawson said with a laugh adding that it didn’t frazzle

Morris Kulmer and What A Lucky Joe Novice Horse Non Pro Levels 1 & 2

In the Tellepsen arena the Novice Horse Non Pros skillfully piloted the pattern for top honors. Leading both the Level 1 and 2 was Morris Kulmer with a score of 144. Kulmer rode NVR What A Lucky Joe, who's by Lil Joe Cash out of What A Lucky Hit to the win. Kulmer and his mount also topped the AQHA Select Amateur class with a score of 144.

"Today's run was good. I was relaxed, he was relaxed; we had a good time," Kulmer said. "He's a great horse and a lot of fun."

Kulmer has had the 4-year-old stallion since the 2017 NRHA Futurity and the pair has found an easy partnership in the show pen. Kulmer's looking forward to future success and coming back to NRBC next year.

Neudorf and Rafacz Top the Rookie Levels 1 and 2; While Prime Time Rookie Sees a Five-Way Tie for the Win

In the Wheless arena, the first slate of Rookie competition began with fierce competition. Along with ancillary classes, the first round of the Yellowstone Rookie Shootout began.

Madison Rafacz topped the Rookie Level 1 with a score of 71.5. Rafacz rode Whizenboonsmal (Peptoleap x She Whiz A Star) to the win and hopes to clean up a few things for tomorrow's Rookie classes.

"He's very sweet," Rafacz said. "Today's run was really good. I would have gotten a little higher score, but I over turned and my left set of circles were sloppy, but oh well."

The duo has only been together since the AQHA Congress. Their early success foreshadows a bright future for the pair to get the kinks worked out and continue winning in the pen.

was Laura Muntean-Sumrall riding Guns N Whizes (Gunners Special Nite x Ima Remin Whiz) to a score of 143.5. Laura Fourre rode Lime A Rita (Custom Legend x She Slides Wright) to the second place finish in the Level 2 with a score of 143.

Another rider boasting early success with a new horse is the Rookie Level 2 winner Jennifer Neudorf riding Blue Collar Tag (Whiz N Tag Chex x Kachina Oak Olena) to a score of 72.

Jennifer said, “I’ve only had [Blue Collar Tag] for not even a month yet. He felt really in tune with me, and it just felt like everything really came together.” For winning the Level 2 Neudorf earned an NRHA plaque plus a NRBC Cobalt vase.

A five-way tie from a score of 71 took the No. 1 spot in the Rookie Prime Time between Maria Renzi, Nancy Brugato, Linda Jacobs, Denise Pippin and Terry Saxton.

Renzi rode Cat Shiner by Cats Moonshine out of Toulouse Lena, and the 2011 gelding’s original profession was as a cutting horse. He’s transitioned almost flawlessly from the cutting world to the reining industry and continues to impress Renzi in the show pen.

“I’ve been riding him for two years and I love him; he’s very honest,” Renzi said of her mount. “He’s going to end up with me for the rest of his life! He’s a good boy, he’s honest and hopefully he’ll stay that way.”

Brugato and Mister Black Magic (Mister Dual Pep x Lenas Black Witch) have been partners for two years and Brugato hopes to make the Yellowstone Rookie Shootout. The 2010 stallion performed well for Brugato in Wednesday’s class, even despite a minor hiccup.

“It felt great. He tried to cheat me a little bit, but overall he was really good,” Brugato said with a laugh of Mister Black Magic’s run.

“I’ve never shown at a major [show] before [NRBC]. I didn’t make the finals for Non Pro, so I entered the Rookie and it was a lot more fun because I finally had a chance to take a breath!” Jacobs said with a smile.

Pippin and Chant For Chics, who’s by Hesa Smart Chic and out of Doc Otoe Chant, have been partners for a short time and have been progressing well together. Pippin has big plans for her 6-year-old mare and was excited about their showing together in NRBC so far.

“It was awesome; lots of good things happened,” Pippin said of her run. “My plan is to take her to the [NRHA] Derby.”

Saxton rode Jacs Electric Whiz (Jacs Electric Spark x Whizards Baby Doll) to the shared win. Saxton has owned the 2011 gelding for two years, and they have found their stride at NRBC. Marking only their fourth show together in the show pen, Wednesday’s win promises a bright future for the pair.

“I really had a blast on him! I had nice slides and everything came together on him,” Saxton said.

Ethan Willey took top honors in the Limited Open and Elisabeth Bourassa won the Rookie Professional.

Ethan Willey rode Slidin Smartly, (Smart Spook x Slidin On Sunshine) to a score of 73. Slidin Smartly is a 4-year-old mare owned by Brad and Amanda Kelly. The partnership with Willey and Slidin Smartly is young, but is proving successful.

“I’ve only shown her one time before here and she was really good both times I’ve shown her,” Willey said. “She was really fun [today] I just tried to stay out of her way and let her do her thing. She’s a good mare.”

Bourassa won the Rookie Professional riding RR

Gundun, who’s by Colonels Smoking Gun and out of Dun It With Grace, to a score of 72.5. The relationship between Bourassa and her 8-year-old gelding can be seen from across the show pen. Bourassa holds “Bear,” as he’s affectionately known, close to her heart and it’s easy to see why.

“Usually older horses will cheat you somewhere, but he just lets me show him,” Bourassa said. “He was so good. I really love my horse. This was my first show here and the plan was just to come here and get ready and I’m really glad for my first show to have that rhythm.”

Glen Estival won the High Point Rookie Professional buckle riding Thatza Good Question (Wimpys Little Step x Sheza Bonita Whiz), owned by Janine Inmon. Estival and “GQ” won Tuesday’s Rookie Professional and tied for third with Leslie Bingham on two of her horses, in today’s class.

Rookie Levels 1, 2 and Prime Time, Yellowstone Rookie Shootout Finalists shared the win in the Rookie Level 1 with scores of 143.5.

Rafacz rode Whizenboonsmal (Peptoleap x She Whiz A Star) and also qualified for the Yellowstone Rookie Shootout with the 2012 gelding earning a composite score of 215.

“I didn’t have any bobbles today like I did yesterday,”

Rafacz said. “I had a nice clean run and I made it to the top five [Yellowstone Rookie Shootout].”

Rafacz and Whizenboonsmal topped Wednesday’s Rookie Level 1 class and combined with today’s win she says she’s excited about the shootout. She plans to give it her all in Friday’s finals.

“I’m going to run really fast,” Rafacz said with a laugh of her game plan for the shootout.

Tesmer rode the 2009 stallion Itsa Last Wimpy (Wimpys Little Step x Itsas Last Chic) to the co-championship.

Tesmer and Itsa Last Wimpy have been partners for a little over a year. Tesmer is new to the game having only been reining for about a year, but her standout partner makes her job as a rider easy.

“He’s a really good boy. He’s calm and he really does what I ask him to do,” Tesmer said.

Rookie 2 winner was Jennifer Neudorf riding Blue Collar

Tag (Whiz N Tag Chex x Kachina Oak Olena) with a score of 146.5. Neudorf says she enjoys riding the 10-year-old gelding for many reason, including his laid back personality, but she especially enjoys his big stops.

“He’s fun to ride and fun to stop, and I’ve never had a good stopping horse, so it’s really cool to ride him,” Neudorf said. “Today felt way better [than yesterday during the rookie classes], I felt more concentrated today... and our run felt way better.”

BERTOLANI DOMINATES ON WIMPYS LITTLECOLONEL

Franco Bertolani took home big wins in Friday night’s NRBC Open Reining Night presented by Kimmel Reining Horses. Bertolani was first in the draw and scored a whopping 226 which held up through thirty riders and won the National Reining Horse Association $25,000-added Open, the NRBC Open Classic Challenge and the CRI 3.

“I have a couple of horses that I listed before I started to try to be a part of the Brazilian team and Wimpys Littlecolonel was on my list. I talked to the owners and they were pretty excited,” Bertolani said. “I will decide after NRBC which one I will choose for WEG.

“This is a very big pen, so the judge has a lot of time to look at you, so it’s very important that you stay out of the penalty box,” he continued. “If you want to mark you need to run. If you go slow, or if you go medium speed it looks too slow, because it’s so big. So, I tried to show hard and stay out of the penalty box. He’s a good horse; he has a big heart.”

Although the big check was a welcomed reward, Bertolani said being able to represent Brazil is always a noble and humbling moment.

“It’s always nice, I like the international competition. It’s like you are giving back to your country,” Bertolani said. “The reining isn’t as big in Brazil as it is here in the US, but they follow along and watch on the internet and cheer, so I think the way I represent my country is the way I give back to them also.”

Jordan Larson rode ARC Gunnabeabigstar (Gunnatrashya x Wimpys Little Chic) an 7-year-old stallion owned by HDC Quarter Horses to a score of 225.5 to take the USA Reining championship, reserve in the Open Challenge, reserve in the NRHA Open, and tied for second in the CRI 3 with Casey Deary.

YOUTH SPOTLIGHT – MATTIE GUSTIN

The young men and women reiners are the future of our reining industry. We decided we wanted to highlight some of our top youth reiners. Our first pick was Mattie Gustin, who is in the top 10 of all classes she participates in.

- 2018 SWRHA History & Champions Non Pro, Intermediate Non Pro, Limited Non Pro and 14-18 Champion

Mattie Gustin
15 years old
9th grader
Reining for 7 years

VHH/WWS: Do you have any advice for Younger Riders?

Mattie: One of the biggest things that brought to be the rider that I am today is figuring out if I come out of the show pen and I didn’t have a good run, that 99 percent of the problems were my fault and just realizing that, ok, I did this wrong, and I need to fix that later. I think that has definitely helped me in being able to read the different feelings of my horse and everything that’s going wrong.

VHH/WWS: How has reining impacted your life?

Mattie: It is my life really. It has taught me so many things from learning how to lose. That’s gone in to so many aspects of my life or even it has definitely improved my grades in school, and my time management and work ethic, and everything really. I don’t know where I would be without it.

We heard that you train your own horse under the guidance of Casey Deary, will you tell us about that?

Mattie: So, 3 years ago, Casey helped up find him. And it’s been a great experience. We’ve always kept him at home. I’ve always done the training. We are only 15 minutes from Casey, so we haul him out there 3 to 4 times a week we get help if I need it, but I do most of it. It’s awesome!

VHH/WWS: What do you want to be when you grow up?

Mattie: I want to go into Equine Science and hopefully breeding management.

VHH/WWS: Has Casey had an influence on what you want to be?

Mattie: He has definitely taught me more stuff about horses which has led me to getting into that area.

VHH/WWS: Where do you see yourself in 5-10 years?

Mattie: I hope I’ll be on an equestrian team, still showing, and doing what I love. Hopefully, I’ll be doing good in breeding management if I’m still going on that path, and just happy.

Mattie: What colleges are you looking at going to?

Pretty much anywhere that is in the Top Ten in the NCA right now. I’m only a freshman right now, so, we are going to start doing unofficial visits and official visits and just see what happens.

SPOOKS GOTTA WHIZ HITS THE NRHA MILLION DOLLAR MARK

Many successful riders, owners and horses in the reining industry spend a lifetime chasing an illustrious National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) Million Dollar title. For Spooks Gotta Whiz, however, it took only seven years in the breeding shed to reach the million. After a spectacular run at the National Reining Breeders Classic (NRBC) by many of his offspring, Spooks Gotta Whiz is unofficially an NRHA Million Dollar Sire.

Spooks Gotta Whiz is by NRHA Million Dollar Sire Spooks Gotta Gun and out of Prettywhizprettydoes. Bred by Clint Haverty, the 2007 stallion is owned by Michell Anne Kimball, who purchased the horse from Duane Hicks in 2009 after meeting him at the High Roller Reining Classic. “Baby” currently stands at Cinder Lakes Ranch in Valley View, Texas.

The bay stallion may have crossed the NRHA Million due to his success in the breeding pen, but Spooks Gotta Whiz had his fair share of glory within his competitive career, accumulating NRHA Lifetime Earnings (LTE) in excess of $345,147. His prominent wins include:

- 2010 NRHA Level (L)4 Open Futurity Champion ridden by Jordan Larson
- 2012 NRBC L4 Open Classic Champion ridden by Shawn Flarida
- 2012 NRHA L4 Open Derby Champion ridden by Flarida
- Alltech FEI World Equestrian Games™ (WEG) 2014 Normandy Individual and Team Gold Medalist ridden by Flarida

Baby began his breeding career in 2011 and has produced offspring who have achieved much notoriety within the show pen. The young stallion sired the 2016 NRHA L4 Open Futurity Champion, the 2016 NRHA L3 Non Pro Futurity Reserve Champion and the 2017 NRHA L4 Non Pro Derby Reserve Champion, in addition to numerous finalists within many of the industry’s top tier shows

The stallion’s most notable offspring include:

- Spooky Whiz (out of Myo Starlight): NRHA LTE over $181,727
- Gotta Twist It Up (out of Make It With A Twist): NRHA LTE over $90,105
- Thebettertohearwith (out of Chex Out The Cowgirl): NRHA LTE over $75,670

31<sup>o</sup> SALONE CAVALLO AMERICANO A CREMONA

25-27 MAGGIO 2018

CREMONA, THE HUB OF EUROPE'S REINING

Cremona claims its place as the capital of world reining outside the US. Throughout the year the city hosts some of the world's most important events for this fascinating equestrian discipline that has come to us from the US. This year, from 8 to 16 December, it will also provide the location for the debut of what everyone is now calling the Big Futurity: a competition for three-year-old horses that boasts stellar prize money, ranking it fourth in the world for payout after the huge American special events (NRHA Futurity, NRHA Derby and NRBC), and the top competition if we consider the ratio between expected revenues and the prize money paid.

Enrico Sciulli, 2017 NRHA Non Pro World Champion

This splendid year of top reining will kick off at the highly efficient Cremona Fiere during the 'Salone del Cavallo Americano 2018' with the IRHA-NRHA Derby, offering 84.400 Euro in prize money. The competition will take place alongside a range of interesting classes for the 'sliders'. With last entries received on April 30, the next date on the agenda of the reiners coming from all over Europe is Monday 21 May when the gates of the Fair will officially open for the go-round(section 1) of the Derby Non Pro. The event opens to the public on Friday, May 25 to coincide with the first of the two big finals, namely that of non-professionals; as always Saturday will see the Open final, with online ticketing already available to ensure a place in the stands through www.salonedelcavallo.com. The reining Open final will be preceded by the finals of the reined cow horse Derby, promising a thrilling day of shows.

This year again sees riders competing in the much-loved "Oklahoma style" oval arena in two CRI *** competitions and all the Ancillary NRHA events.

The staff

As always, presiding over the Derby is a top international jury: Joe Hayes and Nic Baar will be over from the US (respectively Texas and Ohio), Swede Rick LeMay from Spain, where he lives and works, Julie Rossner from Germany, while the Italian Lara Maiocchi will be playing at home, so to speak. Carol Telford, an American now residing in Rome, will be officiating at bit inspection and German Maik Bartmann will be at the monitor.

Last year's efficient secretarial and arena staff will be back this year: Vittorio Gaetano and Federica Caimi, coordinated by Cristina Serra, will guarantee the technically perfect performance of the secretarial procedures, while the doorman will be Nick Puscas, with Alessandro Dezzutto and Harry Quint working as stewards, and the demanding job of ensuring a good ground in the show ring will once again be entrusted to drag master Giorgio Mondini.

Live scoring and live streaming will be guaranteed respectively by Alexander Quinte of showmanager.eu and by the Andrea Bonaga studio: both will be accessible via the button on the home page of www.salonedelcavallo.com.

What is there to see?

- The Derby, which is the second-most important Special Event of the discipline after the November Futurity. Reserved for horses from 4 to 7 years, it comprises a division for professional riders (Open) and one for amateurs (Non Pro), both divided into 4 levels depending on the career-earnings of the riders. Level 4 sees the most experienced riders competing in the show ring. The event attracts many top athletes from all over Europe.

- The CRI *** Senior and the CRI *** Junior + Young Riders consist of a single go-round. The Senior competition will enable riders to be assessed and possibly selected for the Team Italy that will compete at the World Equestrian Games in Tryon (US) next September, while riders in the latter division are vying to qualify for the European Youth Championships to be held at the end of October during Equità Lyon.

- The NRHA Ancillary classes are valid for the prestigious NRHA World Standings that each year crown the strongest pairs of 'sliders' in the world. The Reining World Championship, promoted by the US National Reining Horse Association, is decided on the results from official competitions held in countries across the globe. Recent years have frequently seen European, and especially Italian, riders stepping up to collect the award, thanks to the excellent prize money offered in Europe. In fact, the 2017 Non Pro World Champion is a young Italian rider from Molise, Enrico Sciulli.

MORGAN KNERR BREAKS A TIED SCORE TO WIN NRHA INDIVIDUAL REINING

Morgan Knerr from University of Findlay and her best friend, Tyler Kirby from Ohio State University were tied at 148 points after their first reining pattern. The judges asked the two top contenders to swap horses and return for a showdown. Knerr, who rode Karen Black's Brie in the first round mounted up on Gunny, also owned by Black. In the end, the judges gave Knerr the top prize.

"She was so good," Knerr said. "I knew it was a tough competition with Tyler. I know he's a good rider. I was excited to go back in the arena and do it again."

Knerr is a freshman studying pharmacy. She hopes to have a career in hospital pharmacy and continue riding. "Both my parents are involved in reining and I've grown up in the reining industry," she said.

Before joining the University of Findlay, Knerr and Kirby rode at Autumn Rose with the Griffiths and competed together in the NRHA.

The IHSA National Championship resumes Sunday with the reining phases of the AQHA High Point Rider, the conclusion of the Western Individual and Team competition and presentation of the awards.

2018 NRBC DOUBLE TIME AWARD AND HIGH POINT BUCKLE RECIPIENTS ANNOUNCED

It pays to enter both slates of ancillary classes at the National Reining Breeders Classic. Some such entries earn cash in addition to the purse and others earn custom Gist belt buckles! High point belt buckles were awarded in a specific selection of classes, and two Double Time Awards are given: one for the highest scoring Non Pro and one for the Open.

A point system is used to calculate the winner for both awards with ten points given for first place, nine points for second place, eight for third place, and so on. High Point buckles are awarded by counting points earned for riders in both slates of designated classes. The Double Time Award is determined by counting the points earned by Open and Non Pro riders on every horse they entered in both slates of each of the ancillary classes.

Sam Smith won the $1,000 Open Double Time Award after earning 56.5 points riding Sherry Sumpter's Magnums Lil Hercules (Magnum Chic Dream x Great Black Cody). Nancy Brugato earned the $1,000 check for the Non Pro Double Time award on her horse, Mister Black Magic (Mister Dual Pep x Lenas Black Witch). The duo garnered 48 points for the win.

The Gist High Point Buckles were awarded as follows:

INTRODUCING THE NEW BAY SIDE SLIDE AND BOB AVILA CLINIC, PRODUCED BY BRUMLEY MANAGEMENT GROUP, LLC

Bob Avila has successfully exhibited his commitment to the American Quarter Horse and the industries that surround the breed for over thirty five years. That dedication has led Avila to a life time of records and accomplishments that are truly amazing. With over thirty seven American Quarter Horse Association (AQHA) World Champion or Reserve World Champion titles in events ranging from western performance to halter, Avila is acknowledged by his peers as one of the most versatile and accomplished horsemen in history. From being the first recipient of the AQHA Professional Horseman award to capturing the prestigious title of World's Greatest Horseman twice, Avila has gone on to win in excess of 1.7 million dollars! Bob Avila won both the $100,000.00 National Reined Cow Horse Association (NRCHA) three year old Futurity and the $100,000.00 National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) three year old Futurity. A feat only accomplished by one other individual.

Bob Avila is renowned as being "the trainer's trainer". Over the past three decades, many apprentices have learned and studied the remarkable horse training abilities and business practices that he is so well respected for in the horse industry today. Many of these young trainers have gone on to become Million Dollar Riders themselves in both the Reining and Reined Cow Horse industries. One such Avila apprentice is NRHA and NRCHA Professional and Million Dollar rider Todd Bergen, who happens to be the only other professional to win both the NRHA and NRCHA three year old Futurities.

Along with his talented horsemanship, Bob Avila is recognized and respected for trusted professionalism. Because of that, for over twenty five years, Bob has been asked to represent and endorse several major top brands such as Professional's Choice, Rios of Mercedes, Bob's Custom Saddles and Farnam Horse Care products to name a few.

It is with great pleasure that Brumley Management Group, LLC is offering a one day clinic with this equine master. The Horse Park at Woodside, in Woodside, California will host the first Bay Side Slide. Saturday June 16th is the Bob Avila Clinic, limited to twelve riders, starts at 9:00AM Pacific time, followed by a fun, relaxing BBQ for all. Sunday, June 17th begins the day with an 'unsanctioned' jackpot reining competition, where the learning continues as NRHA Judge Tina Riley, from Cave Creek, Arizona, will take some time to review the penalties in reining that many don't understand.

The Bay Side Slide is designed to be a relaxing atmosphere of education and fun for all. Spectating and parking is free. Make plans to be at the Horse Park at Woodside June 16th and 17th to join us for a fabulous weekend of everything reining in the beautiful San Francisco Bay Area.
