*Fernando Salgado and Stars And Sparks
2018 SWRHA Billingsley Ford Open Levels 3 & 4 Futurity Champions*

FERNANDO SALGADO WINS SWRHA BILLINGSLEY FORD OPEN FUTURITY ON STARS AND SPARKS

The Southwest Reining Horse Association Billingsley Ford Open Futurity was held Saturday, October 27, at the Hardy Murphy Coliseum in Ardmore, Okla. This year, the Futurity featured a record number of entries – 112! That’s up from 75 in 2017.

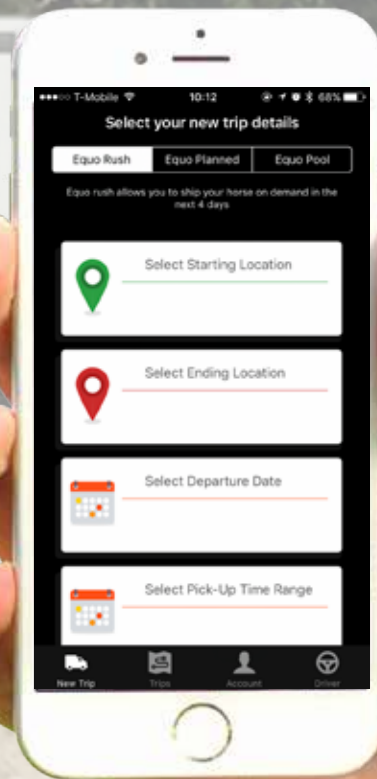

“We were thrilled to see the increase in Open entries this year,” said Cheryl Cody, President of Pro Management, Inc., which manages the event. “We know there are many places for our exhibitors to compete, and we’re glad they joined us here in Ardmore.”

Billingsley Ford has been a sponsor of the SWRHA Futurity for several years. “Billingsley Ford has been an important part of this event for many years, and that’s why I, along with many other reiners, choose to buy vehicles there,” Cody said.

With top riders from across the country converging in southern Oklahoma for a last-chance run through before the National Reining Horse Association Futurity in Oklahoma City, it was Fernando Salgado of Aubrey, Texas, who topped the leaderboard.

Salgado was riding Stars And Sparks, by A Sparkling Vintage out of Belle Starr Dun It, owned by Oldenburg Farm LLC. Salgado, who works for Tom and Mandy McCutcheon, had his eye on the talented mare long before he ever got to ride her.

"I always saw Tom riding her and she looked really nice, and one day he came to me and said he thought I should ride her since I'm in the Level 3, and they wanted to put some earnings on her to be a broodmare one day. I was very, very happy," Salgado recalled.

Stars And Sparks lost some time near the beginning of the year, but was able to show at the Tulsa Reining Classic. "She was ok, but still showing some green spots. At the beginning of this week, I schooled her, and didn't plan to show her here, but Mandy said I was going to. She thought I was ready and that it was best for the mare and me to get ready for Oklahoma City. She entered us without me knowing it." Salgado added, "It ended up working. I love that mare. She fits me really well!"

Salgado actually won the SWRHA Futurity two years ago with the same score, and then went to Oklahoma City and made the Level 4 finals. "I hope I can do it again this year! This show is really important. It's our test drive for the futurity and it pays so well. It lets us know where we need to work more," he said. "I had a bad show in Arizona and my confidence level was low, but this was great."

Salgado has worked for the McCutcheons since the beginning of 2018. "It has been perfect. They take care of me, support me, and I couldn't be happier," he said. "I thank them for the opportunity, and the whole team. Thank you to my wife Sabrina who is with me good and bad."

In addition to checks totaling $25,988, the win (and the win of the Level 3 Open) came with an SWRHA Golf Cart and a saddle sponsored by Scottsdale Western World. Stars

Ann Salmon-Anderman and Tinseltown Joe Win Billingsley Ford Open Level 2

Former SWRHA President Ann Salmon-Anderman piloted Tinseltown Joe to win the Open Level 2 with a 220, earning $3,695. The pair also placed in the Level 3, worth an additional $3,280. It was a special win for Salmon, who raised the young stallion.

"We raised him, my husband started him, and I have been riding him ever since. A very good friend of ours, Dr. John McCarroll, owns him, so it's a real family project," Salmon-Anderman said with a laugh.

Salmon-Anderman noted that Tinseltown Joe, by Hollywoodstinseltown out of Joe Cat Jac, was a little bit of a late bloomer, but that changed around August. "He didn't know if he really wanted to be a reiner, but one day he just woke up and said, 'This is easy!' and he's been a dream ever since. This is our third show, and he just keeps getting better. He's actually better in the show pen than the warm up. I don't know how he knows, but he just gets focused," she said.

With the Futurity a month away, Salmon-Anderman explained her plan to make things smoother. "We'll get it a little cleaner, easier, and dynamic, because it's tough in Oklahoma City," she said.

Although she resigned from the board a few years ago,

Salmon-Anderman still loves the SWRHA Futurity. "This show has been going on a long time. We're so happy that it continues to be successful. It's fun to win a little piece of it. It is a lot of fun to be able to just come and enjoy it, especially with a horse like this," she said, and then added, "Thank you to John for letting me show this horse, believing in us, and being a wonderful customer to be a partner with."

Max Fontana and Wimpysred Gaylena Win Billingsley Ford Open Level 1

With a score of 216.5, Max Fontana and Wimpysred Gaylena held on to win the Open Level 1 Championship and the reserve title for the Level 2. It was the first big win for the pair, who won $4,126. "I'm very happy. I was a little nervous, but she was really good today. It was our second time to show, and she was very comfortable through all the maneuvers," Fontana said.

Wimpysred Gaylena, a mare by CFR Centenario Wimpy out of Baby Red Gaylena, is owned by Mary Scott Brown of San Angelo, Texas. Fontana began riding her in May of 2017. "We started training and felt she had a good disposition and ability, and a good feel. She's very smart and that helped me. She's very talented and steps up every day," he said.

Originally from Italy, Fontana now works at XCS Ranch. "I worked with him a long time ago. He helped me very much on all the horses. I think I have a very good opportunity to ride with him," Fontana said.

There was a three-way tie for third in the Level 1 between Lee Deacon and Benz Special Nite (Gunners Special Nite x Best By Benz), Joe Schmidt and Gunna Cash Ya (Lil Joe Cash x Gunners Blonde Chic), and Marie Kleiner and Xtra Voodoo Shine (Shiners Voodoo Dr x Xtra Vintage Step). All marked a 216 to win $911.

Mandy McCutcheon and Whizzenintohenite Win OE Nutraceuticals Non Pro Futurity

The OE Nutraceuticals Non Pro Futurity was held Friday, October 26, at the Hardy Murphy Coliseum in Ardmore, Okla. The one go-round event provides reiners looking towards Oklahoma City a chance to compete for big money and last-minute experience. It was the first year that OE Nutraceuticals has sponsored the event, and Representative Lisa Stafford was on-hand to discuss the products and present awards.

Mandy McCutcheon and Ms Whiz Dunit won the SWRHA Level 4 Non Pro Futurity in 2013. This year, McCutcheon returned on Ms Whiz Dunit's foal Whizzenintohenite to win this year's championship with a 220.

"He's by Gunners Special Nite and we raised him. There are definitely a lot of similarities between him and his dam – they both have a lot of personality," McCutcheon recalled. "He was good everywhere. I think I had a little turn penalty one way, but other than that he was really pretty solid the whole way."

McCutcheon has only shown Whizzenintohenite one other time, and the result was less than stellar. "It didn't go great. I feel better about the (NRHA) futurity after this,” she said. The Championship came with a check for $5,411. The McCutcheon’s also accepted the SWRHA Golf Cart for Turnabout Farm, owner of Gunners Special Nite.

McCutcheon, her son, Cade, and daughter, Carlee, will all compete at this year’s NRHA Futurity, but there’s still a question about who will show what horse in Oklahoma City.

“We’re still trying to decide who’s showing what, so the good news about this one is that he’s too little for anyone but me and Carlee,” McCutcheon said with a laugh. “Cade has been riding five so he has to decide which ones he wanted to give up.”

McCutcheon actually rode one of Cade’s horses, Cody

Vintage, for the first time at the SWRHA Futurity, and won the Reserve title with him. “Cade’s been showing him all year and doing all the training on him. He did a great job getting him ready. He’s very broke, and really easy and fun to show,” she said. The Reserve Championship was worth an additional $3,293.

As always, McCutcheon credited her team for her success. “It takes a village to get us ready. Debbie Brown has done a lot of work on the horse, and Fernando Salgado has ridden that horse a little for me. When I got here, Dell Hendricks gave me a few pointers circling. I try to pick everyone’s brain,” she said. “Tom, Debbie, Fernando, Cade – they’re all amazing.”

Lawrence, Brown, and Russell Tie for OE Nutraceuticals Non Pro Levels 3-1 Championships!

There was a three way tie for the Championship of the OE Nutraceuticals Non Pro Levels 3, 2, and 1 with all exhibitors scoring a 215.5. George Lawrence, Stoney Russell, and Jillane Brown all also tied for third in the Non Pro Level 4. Lawrence won $4,815, while Russell and Brown, who also tied for the Prime Time title, took home $5,512.

Lawrence was riding his horse Time For The Gunshow, by Gunners Special Nite out of Miss Timed To Shine. “He was really pure in there. He turned really well. We could have stopped better, so we’ll work on that, but he was good. He was about as honest as it gets,” Lawrence said. “I didn’t have a game plan for today. We just winged it and he was fun.”

George and his wife Chloe purchased the gelding as a yearling. While Luke Gagnon rode the colt for half of his two year old year, George and Chloe have been the main ones training and riding him with help from Casey Deary.

“The horse is good. I just need to make fewer mistakes as a rider. The fewer I make, the better he’s going to be,” Lawrence said.

The OE Nutraceuticals Futurity was the colt’s second event, having won a little over $1,000 at the Tulsa Reining Classic. Lawrence’s mother, a fan of the show Vikings, named the colt, by Gunners Special Nite out of Miss Times To Shine, after the show’s protagonist, Ragnar. It’s an unlikely moniker for a horse about which Lawrence said “likes cookies. He’ll drag you to a cookie jar!”

*Jillane Brown
SWRHA OE Nutraceuticals Non Pro Levels 3, 2, 1 & Prime Time
Co-Champions*

Jillane Brown purchased her mare KR Ima Dream from Casey Hinton. “I bought her from him at the Denver show where he did well with her. I’ve had her a couple weeks. She’s with Sam Smith now, and I love her,” Brown said. “We were just wanting to go in and have a nice quiet run. I knew she’d be there in my circles for me, so I ran her harder there. I wanted to be quiet in my turnarounds, and knew she’d be there in my stops. She nailed every stop.”

KR Ima Dream is by Magnum Chic Dream out of KR Ima Tejon. “She’s sweet, quiet and curious, and very good-minded,” Brown said. The next stop for the pair is the NRHA Futurity, and Brown noted that the win in Ardmore was a big confidence booster. “Thank you to Sam for all his work, and to Casey for selling her to me.”

Stoney Russell of Longview, Texas, didn’t expect his score with Whata Special Nite to hold, so after competing he went back to work. “I went early in the draw. Mathieu called me before the end and said it was still holding, but I couldn’t get back for the awards in time,” Russell said.

Stoney and his wife, Stuart, purchased Whata Special Nite, by Gunners Special Nite out of SLJ Sweet N Juicy, from Lindy Longfellow. “We went and rode him. He was actually for my wife, and for some reason they didn’t fit, so we swapped horses,” Stoney said. “He’s a really nice horse.”

Stoney showed "Big John" at the Tulsa Reining Classic, and marked a 215.5, placing in the top five. Unfortunately, he hadn't entered the Level 4 because it was the pair's first event. "I should have. This time Stuart put us in everything and it worked well," he said.

Stoney noted that Mathieu Buton has been riding Big

Dana Pastorino Wins Sun Reining/Baruch Reining Rookie Challenge on Jac Bee Whiz

Reining horse action in the Hardy Murphy Coliseum kicked off Friday morning with ancillary classes in both arenas. With great prizes and money on the line, everyone brought their A-game.

The final ancillary class of the day was the Sun Reining/Baruch Reining Rookie Challenge, and Dana Pastorino won the class on Jac Bee Whiz. It was the second win at Ardmore for Pastorino, who had a busy morning showing both of her horses twice each – once in the Green Reiner and once in the Rookie.

Pastorino won the Green Reiner Prime Time Championship and tied for Reserve in Level 2 with Jac Bee Whiz and tied for second in the Green Reiner Prime Time on her horse Mister Nicashine. She and Jac Bee Whiz also finished in a tie for third place in the Rookie Level 1 and a tie for sixth place in Rookie Level 2.

"My schedule actually worked out perfectly today. I went first on Jac in the Rookie and then the Green, and then did the same with Micky," Pastorino explained. "I couldn't have planned it better and will show in both sets of classes again tomorrow."

Pastorino, of California, has owned her gelding Jac Bee Whiz for several years, having purchased him from Kristin Titov. Although he typically lives with her on the west coast, she recently shipped him to trainer Dany Tremblay of Overbrook, Okla., to spend some time. "I'm going to do a little more riding out here because my 4-year-old, which I was second on in this class, lives out here. Normally, Jac is at home with me and I get to ride him every day," she said.

Of her morning run on Jac Bee Whiz, Pastorino said, "My run was good. It was my first of the day and he was really solid. My rundowns were good, which is what I've been working on, and it was great."

For her win in the Sun Reining/Baruch Reining Rookie Challenge, Pastorino gave credit to Tremblay. "It was definitely because of good prep work from my outstanding trainer Dany. My horse didn't take me as much on the rundowns as he sometimes does. He was very good," she said.

"I thank Ethan, Angie, Raphie, Magalie, Andres, Dany, and my barn-buddy Ruth for all cheering for me," Pastorino added.

Pastorino tied for the Green Reiner Prime Time Reserve on Mister Nicashine (Mister Nicadual x Shining Miss) with her friend Ruth Hamlin. Hamlin rode Colonels Flashy Gun (Colonels Lil Gun x Shesgotalotafash).

Awards for the event Sun Reining/Baruch Reining Rookie Challenge were augmented by support from Merrills Salon & Spa.

Jason Vanlandingham and A Vintage Smoke Win SWRHA Novice Horse Open Levels 1 & 2 [1]

The Southwest Reining Horse Association Futurity began Tuesday with the Novice Horse Open and Non Pro classes. The Novice Horse Open, held in the Coliseum, featured 111 entries.

With Jason Vanlandingham at the reins, A Vintage Smoke topped the Novice Horse Open Levels 1 & 2 with a 74, winning $2,055. Although the 3-year-old stallion won the High Roller Reining Classic in Las Vegas, Nevada, in September, Vanlandingham, a National Reining Horse Association Million Dollar Rider, elected to only show in the Novice Horse classes. "I just brought him here to cruise him around to make sure everything was feeling good before we go to Okla. City for the NRHA Futurity," Vanlandingham explained. "He was really good. I think we pretty much had a plus-half on everything. On the right side he plussed-one, but everything else was pretty much straight halves, which was what I was shooting for. He fired a little harder on the right side, but that was fine. I like it when they're trying hard."

A Vintage Smoke, owned by Diane Mesmer, is by A Sparkling Vintage out of Lady Smoke Peppy. Mesmer decided a few years ago to purchase a couple reining horses. After careful research, she decided she wanted one by A Sparkling

Jason Vanlandingham

Vintage, as well as one by HF Mobster. "Diane has been great. This horse and the buckskin horse Jordan Larson is showing (CSR Flash Mob, by HF Mobster) are the two she bought as weanlings and are the first reining horses she's ever had. Jordan won the RMRHA Summer Slide in Colorado on his, and I won Vegas, so she's getting spoiled," Vanlandingham said with a laugh. "That doesn't happen for everyone. She's a great lady and a lot of fun when she comes to the horse shows. I think she's having a great time and it's awfully fun to ride for someone like that."

Although A Vintage Smoke is done for the week, Vanlandingham will stay busy, as he's also got two entries in Saturday's Billingsley Ford Open Futurity.

Mamas Tickin Time, owned and ridden by Scott McCutcheon, took second in the Level 2 with a 72.5, winning $751. The 6-year-old stallion, by One Time Pepto out of Stylish Amanda, also tied for second in the Level 1 with Lil Dreamer and Eduardo Salgado, worth an additional $621. Lil Dreamer, a 6-year-old stallion by Magnum Chic Dream out of Myo Starlight, is owned by Renata Lemann.

Lambert Wins Novice Horse Non Pro Levels 1 & 2 [1] at SWRHA Futurity

The 2018 Southwest Reining Horse Association Futurity and Horse Show kicked off with the Novice Horse Non Pro [1].

Victoria Lambert, of Hempstead, Texas, had made her mind up not to show at this year's event, planning instead to cheer on trainer Colin Fitzpatrick, who's riding her and husband Carl's horse Good Time Tinseltown, in Saturday's Open Futurity. Fitzpatrick, however, had a different idea, and convinced Lambert to enter the Novice Horse Non Pro Levels 1 & 2 on Chics Love Affair.

"I haven't shown much this year because my mom passed away, and so Colin had to encourage me to come and show," Lambert said. "He almost had to tie me down and make me do it, and I'm glad he did!"

Lambert and Chics Love Affair scored a 72, winning both classes and $840. The 5-year-old mare, by Shine Chic Shine, is particularly special to Lambert. "She's the last horse I have out of Memorable Affair. We didn't show her much her 4-year-old year because she had injured herself as a 3-year-old." She added, "Colin had her ready for me. All I had to do was get on, just breathe, and go forward."

Lambert noted that Chics Love Affair's willingness was a major factor in the day's success. "She was great. I had a really, really good time, and basically stayed out of the penalty box, which is big for me. She just waited on me everywhere and listened and was just amazing. It was a lot of fun," Lambert said.

Always appreciative, Lambert made sure to mention the special people who supported her. “I thank Colin for doing such a great job, and his wife Breanne who is so supportive and always makes sure to tell me to have a good time, and my husband Carl who encourages me.” She added, “And thank you to my mom for having bought all these horses for me. I know she’s in Heaven watching and having a really good time, because she was always my best cheerleader.”

cedes out of Sunset Whiz. The duo scored a 71 and won $425.

There was a three-way tie for second in the Novice Horse Non Pro Level 1 between Mary Anne Hall, Chloe Lawrence, and Cheryl Lauder, who all marked a 70. Hall rode Shezmylilwhizkeygirl (Whizkey N Diamonds x Relaxin With A Bud), Lawrence piloted Daddys Got a Gun (Gunner x Miss Sugar Whiz), and Lauder rode Who Whiz Smartin Off (Who Whiz It x Little Smart Jac). All took home $152.

Jared Leclair and Trey Pool Win the Novice Horse Open Level 2 [2]

*Jared Leclair

*Trey Pool
SWRHA Novice Horse Open Level 2 [2] Co-Champion*

A bit of rain during the Southwest Reining Horse Association and Futurity in Ardmore, Okla., did little to dampen the competition going on in the Ancillary Arena of the Hardy Murphy Coliseum. The scores were so close that ties were seen in both the Novice Horse Open Levels 1 and 2.

In the Novice Horse Open Level 2, draw number 10, Trey Pool on Jolene Cash entered the arena and laid down a 73. The lead held almost to the last of 50 horses, but draw 45, Jared Leclair on Smart Voodoo Doctor, swept in and matched the high score. Each rider earned $361 for the shared win.

Described by Pool as “pretty cool customer,”

Jolene Cash is by Lil Joe Cash and out of Snip O Gun. Trey and her owners, Rails, Bales & Tails have high hopes for the 3-year-old mare at the NRHA Futurity.

Trey said, “I’ve shown her a couple of times, but didn’t feel like I had got tapped into her like I wanted to so we brought her here just to check a few places that I’ve been working on. Those places seemed to work. She cruised around today. She was nice. I didn’t call on her for everything and hopefully, she’s got just a little more left in the tank so we can make three more runs when we get to Oklahoma City.” With the nine horses that Pool brought with him to Ardmore, he has a busy week ahead of him.

Having taken “Voodoo” into his program early in his 3-year-old year, Leclair has had a successful history with the horse. In fact, he has already won about $40,000 on the now 4-year-old gelding. Owned by Dean Spence, the athletic chestnut is by Shiners Voodoo Dr out of Smart As A Sister.

Leclair said, “I’m getting him ready for the [AQHA] World Show, and I just wanted to come out and show him a little bit to get him ready for it. I’m just going to school him for the rest of the week. He’s always been a fun horse to show. He’s got a lot of personality, and the girls really enjoy grooming him. He’s just a fun horse to be around.” Jared plans to show a couple more horses, help his Non Pro’s with their horses, school some 3-year-olds, and watch his employees show for the remainder of the week.

Jarvis Anderson of Whitesboro, Texas, and his mount Wimpys Gotta Whiz scored a 72 as 33 in the draw. His Novice Horse Open Level 1 lead was short-lived however when the very next rider, Martin Larcombe also of Whitesboro, rode in on Chicowhiz and equaled his score. It looked like a two-way tie until draw number 42 out of 50 horses slid in with yet another 72. It was Sam Smith from Marietta, Okla., riding Monochrome who completed the three-way tie for first place in the Level 1. Each earned $247.

Owned by Julia Sullivan, Wimpys Gotta Whiz is by Spooks Gotta Whiz out of Make A Little Step. Although Jarvis Anderson has had the horse in training since the NRHA Derby, this was his first show on the 4-year-old gelding. After today’s results, the horse will be bound for Montana so his owner can take over the reins.

Anderson said, “I’d never shown the horse, so I was just testing the waters and he was good! I didn’t have to fix much.” He went on to list the reasons that he feels the horse will make a good Non Pro horse. “He was very simple. He was quiet. He didn’t try to make moves on his own; he waited for me to tell him to do his job.” He will show a different horse in the Open ancillary class tomorrow, and then finish the week with three entries in the Open Futurity on Saturday.

Chicowhiz is by Smart Chic Olena out of She Slides Wright and is owned by Larissa Rizzi from Switzerland. Larcombe is preparing the 3-year-old stallion for the NRHA Futurity next month.

Larcombe said, “I schooled him yesterday in the other Novice Horse class and just zeroed in it. I decided that if everything went ok, I would just continue going through the pattern today. It wasn’t too bad, so we just kept going and got a score.” Larcombe will be busy with Non Pros showing throughout the week and this horse entered in the Open Futurity on Saturday.

Smith’s mount, Monochrome is owned by Ginger Dwyer from Florida. He is a 6-year-old gelding by Custom Crome out of She Slides Wright.

Smith said, “We bought this horse six or eight weeks ago for Ginger to show in the Rookie. He was trained by Arno

Samantha Smith Takes the Novice Horse Non Pro Level 2 [2]

Samantha Smith guided her dad's, Lance Griffin, Dun Its Shiny Son to the Novice Horse Non Pro Level 2 Championship after scoring 71.5 points. Dun Its Shiny Son is by Hollywood Dun It out of Shining N Sassy.

Smith said, "Duane Latimer had 'Dennis' in the Open Futurity last year, and we bought him about Christmas time. My dad showed him this spring a little bit, and then I got to show him at the Derby and it was pretty fun because that was the first time that I've been able to get back in the finals since I got hurt and I couldn't show for a little while. He let me get back in the Non Pro finals so that was pretty cool for me. He's a special horse. He's a character, but he's going to be fun to keep showing!" Smith pocketed $310 for the win. She also earned the Circuit Buckle sponsored by her family's Griffin Quarter Horses for her

Michael Bulliard Wins the Novice Horse Non Pro Level 1 [2]

Michael Bulliard piloted his own HA Trashy Tune to the win in the Novice Horse Non Pro Level 1 with a 71.5. HA Trashy Tune is a 3-year-old son of Gunnatrashya and HA Chic A Tune. Bulliard pocketed $182 for the win.

He said, "I'm getting 'Trashy' ready for the Futurity on Friday. I went and rode with Steve Archer about a week ago. Steve and Andrea have just given me so much help with this horse. Today was just a little practice run just to kind of stay on course, let him cruise through it, and kind of see what we need to work on tonight, and tomorrow, I'm going to school him in another Ancillary class. Hopefully, we can prepare and take care of some of the mistakes from today, and get them out of the way to get him ready for Friday." Bulliard was quick to express gratitude for the support of his wife Trudy, his daughter Kelly, and his parents.

Shauna Larcombe riding Designed With Shine earns Open [1] Championship

Her trainer, Shauna Larcombe of Pilot Point, Texas chose the SWRHA Futurity and Show as the venue to bring her back into competition. Owned by Rosanne Sternberg, the 7-year-old palomino mare proved that she was ready for more after the duo scored a 73 and took the win as the second to last draw. She is by Smart And Shiney out of Taris Designer Genes.

Larcombe said, "She has had a week off because I have been here, and we just brought her up yesterday. I wasn't really sure how tuned in she would be, but I just wanted a nice, neat run because she is going to the World Show. She was good for me." Shauna will have two 3-year-olds to compete on in the Billingsley Open Futurity on Saturday,

Rookie Professional [1] Co-Champions*

Native to Italy, but now residing in Aubrey, Texas, Giorgia Codeluppi placed 3rd in the Intermediate Open, and tied for reserve in the Limited Open and in the Rookie Professional Championship. She was riding a 4-year-old mare by Colonels Smoking Gun out of Shining Survivor. Smoking Angel, owned by Cardinal Hill Training Center, scored a 71 and $619 for her rider.

Codeluppi said, “My daughter started riding her, so that is a big success too! She was the first baby that I foaled out at Cardinal Ranch, so it was from the start until the end. I really love her. She is very nice. She is very talented. She is a little bit green yet because she is not ready - this is her first time out and I’m happy with what she did.”

Hailing from Purcell, Okla., Doug Millholland shared the tie for reserve in the Limited Open with Giorgia. He was riding his own Ima Blond Chic. The 4-year-old mare is by Magnum Chic Dream out of Im Not Blonde. Millholland pocketed $208.

LLC's 9-year-old mare, Highlanders Scandal. Highlanders Scandal is by Conquistador Whiz out of HR Short Wheel Base.

Faust said, "She is really easy to get ready. Sally (Berg -her owner) had a pretty good run this morning, but she had a little steering trouble so we tried to smooth that out. That was the only plan for this run, and she did pretty good."

Mandy increased her earnings by $118 for this win, while she looks forward to showing "Tater" again in the Rookie Pro on Sunday and a Futurity Horse on Saturday this week in Ardmore, Okla.

Non Pro [1] Champion*

The weather was damp, but spirits were not at the close of the first slate of Non Pro classes. Amidst the cheers of her friends, and through her own happy tears, Victoria Lambert emerged victorious as the Non Pro Champion of the day. Lambert rode her own Chics Love Affair to a 73.5. Lambert's mother, who passed away earlier this year, loved the 5-year-old mare by Shine Chic Shine. Plus she is their last offspring out of Memorable Affair, a beloved mare they no longer own. As a result, the win was extra special to her.

Lambert said, "My little mare was just perfect once again. She rode really great, and she is just super fun. We've not had the opportunity to show her very much, but I think we'll have a really great year next year. This has been a lot of fun to show her." Lambert was also very grateful for the work her trainer puts into the mare as she commented, "[Colin Fitzpatrick] always has them perfectly prepared, so I really don't have to do much. I pick out the shirt and make sure I know what the pattern is. And show my horse the pattern book to be sure she knows what the pattern is. Then I just have to come in and do my thing! He had her perfectly prepared. She was relaxed, quiet, and calm. We turned a little, loped around a little, and that was it!" Victoria pocketed $860 for the win.

Jessicah Keller & McKinnon Larcombe share the Intermediate Non Pro [1]

Taking reserve in the Non Pro and tying for the Intermediate Non Pro win with a 73 was Madill, Okla., resident Jessicah Keller on Snip O Satellite. The 8-year-old chestnut mare is by Nu Chex To Cash out of Snip O Gun. The titles brought Keller's take to $1,369.

Keller remarked, "That mare has been getting better all year. When we started out, she was a solid 71 to 72 horse, but the past few horse shows, she's been a 73 every time so I couldn't ask for a better horse!" Keller thanked her trainer, Trent Harvey, under whose program, 'Snippy' continues to improve. She also thanked her mom, her boyfriend, Will, and everyone taking care of things at home so that she can be away showing horses. This week at Southwest, she looks forward to showing again on Sunday and watching her sister, Sarah Locker, show Snippy's daughter in the Futurity on Friday.

Sharing the Intermediate Non Pro championship with Jessicah is McKinnon Larcombe of Whitesboro, TX. McKinnon was riding her trusted and proven performer, Taris Dreamer, which she calls "Bobby." Taris Dreamer is an 11-year-old gelding by Magnum Chic Dream out of Taris San Cutter.

Larcombe explained the things she and Bobby have been working on leading up to the show, "The biggest thing for us is just having a nice, smooth rundown. He's been shown a lot and hard every time so just getting a nice smooth rundown has been a bit of a challenge for me. At home, we worked on it [a lot]. We've had a bit of a game plan coming in for what we needed to do, and I wanted to see if we could play it out and he was really good so I was happy." McKinnon and Bobby were also the Limited Non pro Champions which brought her earnings up to $638.

Sliding into the Limited Non Pro reserve spot was Julia Kraetschmar on Gun Smoke Dennis. Gun Smoke Dennis is a 13-year-old gelding by Lil Dry Peppy out of Gun Smoke Denise. The horse and rider team scored a 72 to gain the title.

Teresa Grier Claims Rookie Level 2 and Prime Time [1]

Teresa Grier topped both the Rookie Level 2 and the Prime Time Rookie with a 71 on her horse Spooks Lil Princess.

"This is the second time I have shown this horse. I got her earlier in the year and we took her in the Non Pro yesterday for practice. We just tweaked it today and she did everything we asked for," Grier said of her 4-year-old mare. "I call her Josie because she's a little cow-girl. She 'cowgirls up' a lot."

Grier found Spooks Lil Princess, by Smart Spook and out of Slide By Shiner, with the help of NRHA $2 Million Rider Tim McQuay.

Skinner and Taris Little Steps also took fourth in the Level 2. It was the first time for Skinner to show his new horse. "I got him about two months ago so I wasn't really sure what to expect. I just went in and rode him like I do at home, and it worked great. We learned a couple things to improve on, so next time we'll do better," Skinner said.

Skinner, a regional safety manager, travels a lot for work, but rides and keeps his horses at home. "I'm just trying to get used to him. My wife is showing in the green reiner, and I'll show in the Rookie again on Sunday," he said.

Jubilee Stringfellow and Nite Game (Gunners Special Nite x Doc Santa Belle) took second in the Rookie Level 1 with a 68.5.

Faith Horner Wins Green Reiner Levels 1 & 2 [1] on Bit Of Magnum

Faith Horner and her veteran gelding Bit Of Magnum topped the Green Reiner Levels 1 & 2 with a 71. Horner, a 12-year-old from Dallas, Texas, gave credit to her veteran partner. "He was really good. He pretty much did everything for me. He does a lot by himself so it's really fun," Horner said.

Bit Of Magnum, by Magnum Chic Dream out of Bitsy By Remedy, is fifteen years old, and is one of Magnum Chic Dream's top earners. ## McKinnon Larcombe Claims Youth 14-18 [1] Title with Taris Dreamer

*McKinnon Larcombe
Youth 14-18 [1] Champion*

After winning the Intermediate and Limited Non Pro Ancillary classes on Wednesday, McKinnon Larcombe knew she needed to just have a smooth, relaxed run in the Youth 14 - 18 with Taris Dreamer. The 17-year-old accomplished that goal, and in the process won the class with a 72!

"I just wanted to have a nice, easy run. We went a little harder yesterday, so today was just to come in and cruise around and let him know everything could be nice and easy," Larcombe said.

During the interview after winning the class, Larcombe referred to Taris Dreamer as a "War Horse." The 9-year-old gelding, by Magnum Chic Dream out of Taris San Cutter, has seen his share of the show pen. Owned and ridden by Ron Thompson during his futurity and derby years, the talented gelding became the highest money-earning offspring of Magnum Chic Dream and won the Non Pro at both the National Reining Horse Association Derby and the National Reining Breeders Classic.

Larcombe and Taris Dreamer have been a team now for a little over a year. "Ron and Becky Thompson are good friends of ours, and knew I was selling my old horse and moving on to something else, and this all fell into place,” she explained. “Ron wanted him to move on and do something, but not the hard stuff, so he let us lease him. It’s been a long process trying to figure each other out, but it’s been good.”

Originally from Australia but now living in Whitesboro, Texas, Larcombe still has a busy week. She plans to show in the second slate of Non Pro and Youth ancillary classes on Saturday and Sunday, and then compete at the NRHA Affiliate Finals in Okla. City in November. “Thank you to my parents. Thank you to Ron and Becky Thompson for leasing me this horse. Thank you also to our barn mates and helpers, Samantha Smith and Andrin.

Marilyn Rawls took home reserve honors on Dun Its Red Berry (Hollywood Dun It x Great Red Berry) with a 70.

Raeanna Thayn Tops Youth 13 & Under [1]

Riding Coded N Karma, Raeanna Thayn won the Youth 13 & Under class. She and the 7-year-old gelding, by Electric Code out of Whiz N Snap, marked a 71.5. “He was really good and ran really good for me,” the 14-year-old said. “He’s really fun and he just does everything himself. He’s best at stopping.”

Raeanna’s parents Robert and Robbin Thayn have owned the now 14-year-old gelding since he was three years old, and purchased him from Shawn Johnson. Raeanna, who lives in Tioga, Texas, has ridden reiners since she was six years old, and trains with Kole Price.

“I thank my parents and Kole Price, and everyone else who has helped me,” Thayn said following her win. She will show again in the Youth class on Sunday.

Sorrel Brooks Schreibvogel and RS Twistin Nic (Nic It In The Bud x Twisters Enola Gay) took Reserve honors in the Youth 13 & Under with a 70.5.

Her father might be an NRHA Million Dollar Rider, but it’s Emma Vanlandingham who does the tuning on Okie Jo Wrangler, a 9-year-old gelding by Jo Topline out of Wranglers Leo Lena. “Dad tells me all the stuff I can fix on him, but he just ropes on him,” Vanlandingham explained.

She and “Okie” won the Short Stirrup class. “He was really good. He came out of his stop a little bit on the last one but he was really good. I can work on it,” she said.

Vanlandingham, who is nine years old, thanked her parents Jason and Adrienne.

The Short Stirrup Reserve title went to Gracie Weeks and Spunky Sprattin, an 18-year-old gelding by Sprattin out of Gertie Floyd.

William Horner and Bit Of Magnum Win Walk/Trot

Bit Of Magnum pulled double-duty during Friday's events. Earlier in the day, he and his owner Faith Horner won the Green Reiner Levels 1 & 2, and the talented gelding finished the evening winning the Walk/Trot with William Horner! "I thought I was going to be second or third, but I ended up being really good and got in first," Horner said following his victory. "This is my sister's horse. She let me ride him because she got to do her stuff on him earlier."

The 8-year-old, dressed as a Dallas Cowboys football player, said he was "very excited" for the win. He mentioned his plan had originally been to be the Grim Reaper but elected against that costume because "It was too flappy to be on a horse."

Horner, who wants to be a famous YouTuber when he grows up, thanked the judges and the interviewers.

Sarah Lambrecht and All Star Mega Jac Win Ride & Slide Open Level 1 [1]

*Sarah Lambrecht
SWRHA Ride & Slide Open Level 1 [1] Champion*

In the first slate of Ride and Slide classes, Sarah Lambrecht and All Star Mega Jac won the Open Level 1. Growing up, Lambrecht always had a passion for horses and training. “I had someone tell me if you could train a reining horse you could train anything. I’ve been at Scott and Kathy McCutcheon’s for four years and fallen in love with how broke a horse has to be for it, and how awesome it is when everything is correct,” she said.

Lambrecht was excited for the opportunity to show All Star Mega Jac, an 11-year-old stallion by Marthas Mega Jac out of Two Starlight. “He hasn’t shown too much so it was perfect for me to get to show him. He’s a gorgeous palomino and is fancy.” She added, “He felt pretty good. Not showing a lot, it happens fast for me, but this horse felt good and builds easy. He is so talented running and stopping - he’s an awesome pleasure to ride.”

Lambrecht and All Star Mega Jac, owned by Cristin Guenther, will get the chance to compete again in the second set of Ride and Slide classes on Saturday. “I think that will be enough for me,” she said with a laugh. “I can’t say thank you enough to Scott and Kathy. What an awesome opportunity I have to even ride that horse. Scott has his futurity horses, but he’s still over here helping me.”

Lambrecht also finished second with Bingos Smart Gambler (Smart Spook x Bills Bingo Beauty), owned by Lynnette Payne.

Matt Gomulak and Angelica Top Non Pro Ride & Slide Non Pro Level 1 [1]

Matt Gomulak won the Non Pro Ride and Slide Level 1 and finished second in the Level 2 with his horse Angelica. The win was extra special, because the 4-year-old mare, by Colonels Smoking Gun out of Marcellas Smart Chic, was one Gomulak had raised. “It’s been nice this year for her to do so well. She’s probably going to get a little break after this. It’s been a tough weekend for her, but she’s doing well,” he said.

Gomulak, a veterinarian in Gainesville, Texas, made sure to thank Mirjam Stillo. “Thank you Mirjam and Summer for getting my horse ready to show. This mare has been solid all year for me and been really competitive. We’ve won or placed at almost every show we’ve gone to. I’m glad she’s stayed together and healthy and that Mirjam has kept me going,” he said.

Renata Lemann and Lil Dreamer (Magnum Chic Dream x Myo Starlight) finished second in the Non Pro Level 1 [1].

Logan Brumfield Claims Ride and Slide Open Level 2 [1] Title with Dun For Glory

With a score of 71, Logan Brumfield and Dun For Glory topped the Ride and Slide Open Level 2 [1]. It was a great experience for the 3-year-old mare, by Sparks Of Glory out of Dun It Queen. “She was really, really quiet for me. I was proud of her. This was her first time in the show pen. She was really good and honest, and I was very pleased with her,” Brumfield said.

Although there is another slate of Ride and Slide classes this weekend, Brumfield explained Dun For Glory would probably not compete again here. “We just wanted to get her out and see how she’d be,” she said.

Brumfield started riding reiners as a youth, and has been working for Yonathon Baruch of Marietta, Okla., for the last three years. “Thank you, Yonathan, and to Marc and Kathy Gordon for letting me show this great mare. Thank you also to all of our team at Baruch Reining Horses.”

Brumfield also tied for second in the Level 2 on Butch hunsucker’s JNS Electric Express (Electric Code x Whizmatized) with Sarah Lambrecht and Bingos Smart Gambler (Smart Spook x Bills Bingo Beauty) owned by Lynnette Payne.

Renata Lemann Wins Ride and Slide Non Pro Level 2 [1] with Lil Dreamer

Renata Lemann and her horse Lil Dreamer won the Ride and Slide Non Pro Level 1 in 2017 and returned to do the same this year! “Last time I rode her was a year ago, then I showed her here and won. Then I went a year again and won, so I’m very happy,” Lemann said after the class.

Lemann had been living in Brazil, but moved to Miami, Florida, in August. “Now I’m going to have a chance to ride her every month with Eduardo (Salgado) in Gainesville, Texas. I hope I can see her more. She is beautiful, solid, and has a wonderful mind,” she said.

Those attributes were on display Friday. “She was great. I didn’t have to do anything. She did almost everything for me. It all worked. She’s a huge stopper with beautiful circles,” Lemann said.

Lemann and Lil Dreamer, a 6-year-old mare by Magnum Chic Dream out of Myo Starlight, will show again Saturday and Sunday. “I thank Eduardo my trainer. The way we work together is wonderful, and I’m glad he’s 100% now and

Dana Pastorino Wins Green Reiner Level 2 [2] and Prime Time Circuit Buckle

*Dana Pastorino
SWRHA Green Reiner Level 2 & Prime Time Green Reiner
Circuit Champion*

It was a great week for Dana Pastorino. On Friday, October 26, she won three classes, including the Sun Reining/Baruch Reining Rookie Challenge, and she returned Saturday, October 27, to win the Circuit Championship, as well as the classes, for the Green Reiner Level 2 and Prime Time!

She won all those awards on Jac Bee Whiz, a 10-year-old gelding by Conquistador Whiz out of Cinch Up Cowboy.

“My run today was pretty good. His spins were a little faster. My rundowns were way better, and of course that leads to a better stop, and that’s what did it,” Pastorino said of Saturday’s runs.

With all the winning she’s done lately, Pastorino will likely be moving to higher levels of Non Pro competition. “I think I’m ready to step up. I just need to build my confidence. My horse can do it, but it’s me that needs to learn,” she said. “I’ll probably leave my horse here in Oklahoma and fly out to ride a lot more.”

Pastorino, of California, still had more to do in Ardmore – she was showing both horses in Sunday’s Rookie classes.

Cailyn Simonis took second in the Green Reiner Level 2 on Barbies Fancy Charm (Barbies Dun It x KMZ Fancy Step). Kristi Clark and Living Loving Maid (Starlights Wrangler x Hangten Spanish Lady) tied for second in the Green Reiner Prime Time with Pastorino’s other entry, Mister Nicashine (Mister Nicadual x Shining Miss).

Emily Berry Claims Green Reiner Level 1 Circuit Buckle

Emily Berry has only been riding reiners since around March of this year, but she won the Green Reiner Level 1 Circuit buckle on her horse Red White And Wimpy. “What I really liked about my runs today was the speed, and what I didn’t like was how my lead changes were. They could have been smoother,” she said.

“Thank you to my mom for bringing me here, and to my trainer, Clint Thomas, for getting me this far. I’m excited about the buckle - it’s my first!” Berry, of Farmersville, Texas, has only been riding Red White And Wimpy, by Wimpys Little Step out of Little Bonita Whiz, for about three months. “I just did trail rides and stuff with my mom and dad before. I thought reining looked fun and that’s why I started,” the 11-year-old horsewoman said.

Along with the Level 1 High Point title, Berry took second in Saturday’s Level 1 class.

Layton Atwood Wins Green Reiner Level 1 [2]

*Layton Atwood
SWRHA Green Reiner Level 1 [2] Champion*

Layton Atwood has never showed a reiner before, but when she got the chance to show Chics Love Me Wimpy, owned by Debbie Good, in the Green Reiner, she jumped at the opportunity.

“Last week Debbie told me if I wanted to show him I could,” Atwood said. “I’m hooked now. I don’t know if I’ll show him again, but it was fun.”

Atwood and Chics Love Me Wimpy, nicknamed Duke, scored a 71 to top the class. “It was really fun. This was my fourth or fifth time to be on him. I rode him last night to make sure I felt comfortable, and he felt great. He was awesome warming up and was just as honest today as he was yesterday,” Atwood said.

Chics Love Me Wimpy, by Wimpys Little Step out of Dream About Magic, was the NRHA Rookie Professional Reserve World Champion for 2017 with Josh Tishman.

Atwood is currently in chiropractic school, and will graduate in December.

Ruth Hamlin Wins APHA Green Reiner High Point Buckle

The American Paint Horse Association is presenting high point paint buckles in several classes at the SWRHA Futurity. Ruth Hamlin won the Green Reiner buckle on her horse Colonels Flashy Gun. The buckle was unexpected; in fact, Hamlin had left the grounds and was changing hotels when Fred Tremblay called her. “Fred told me to come back and said there were awards, but I didn’t know what I would have won. He insisted,” she said.

It was the first buckle Hamlin has won herself. “I just started bawling when I got in there,” she admitted. “I had no idea this was even a possibility. It’s amazing!”

Her partner for the show, Colonels Flashy Gun, is by Colonels Lil Gun out of Shesgotalotafash. “Fred actually found PeeWee (Colonels Flashy Gun), and he’s the only horse we looked at. I tried him, and he was the one for me,” she said. “I have so many people to thank. My list is huge. Thank the whole Tremblay team, and all my barn friends - everybody!”

Logan Brumfield Takes Ride & Slide Open Level 2 Circuit Buckle

Logan Brumfield won the Ride & Slide Open Level 2 Circuit title on Dun For Glory, a 3-year-old mare by Sparks Of Glory out of Dun It Queen. The mare is owned by Marc Gordon. “This is a really sweet mare we’ve had for a few months now. Yesterday was our first time in the show pen together. She was really honest and good for me, and I was really proud of her.” Brumfield added, “One of the things we focused on was making sure she waited everywhere because she’s still kind of green. She stopped huge for me today!”

Although done showing herself, Brumfield will stay busy. She works for Yonathan Baruch and brought more than 20 horses to the event. “He’s showing three today, and then we’ll school a bunch and several of our non pros are showing tomorrow as well,” she said.

SWRHA Ride & Slide Open Level 1 Circuit*

Riding Bingos Smart Gambler, Sarah Lambrecht won the Ride & Slide Open Level 1 and 2 classes on Saturday. With the wins she also tied herself and her other entry, All Star Mega Jac, for the Level 1 High Point Championship! “I’m still a little in shock about it,” Lambrecht said about the buckle she won for the Circuit Championship. “I just came to get in the show pen and this is a total bonus on top of it. It’s my first reining buckle and it’s awesome!”

Relatively new to the show pen, Lambrecht gave credit to Bingos Smart Gambler, owned by Lynette Payne. “He’s a super quiet and good horse to be around and show. I’m starting to be able to think more and more about what I’m doing when I show. He’s so honest and patient and did everything I asked, even when I might have been a little quick,” Lambrecht said. “Both horses were really good.”

Bingos Smart Gambler is by Smart Spook out of Bills Bingo Beauty. All Star Mega Jac, by Marthas Mega Jac out of Two Starlight, is owned by Cristin Guenther. “Thank you to Lynette and Cristin for letting me show their nice horses. I give a big thank you to Scott and Kathy McCutcheon. Thank you to Raffie who helped me and my husband, Chase, for supporting me in all of this.”

Matt Gomulak Wins Ride And Slide Non Pro Levels 1 & 2 Circuit Buckles Ties Green Reiner Level 1 Circuit

Matt Gomulak didn’t plan to win anything at this year’s SWRHA Futurity, but with several first and seconds in his classes, he won or tied for three high point buckles on his horse Angelica! “It started a little rough because she didn’t want to stop near the judges, so that surprised me, but we worked on it. My nerves got to me a little bit and I just needed to focus, and when I did that she did great,” he said. “Every class we went in she improved from the last. She’s going to get a break now.” The duo also won the Ride &

Slide Level 1 class.

Gomulak raised Angelica, by Colonels Smoking Gun out of Marcellas Smart Chic, and his daughter named her “Angel.” She was started by Mirjam Stillo, and it was quickly apparent she’d be nice.

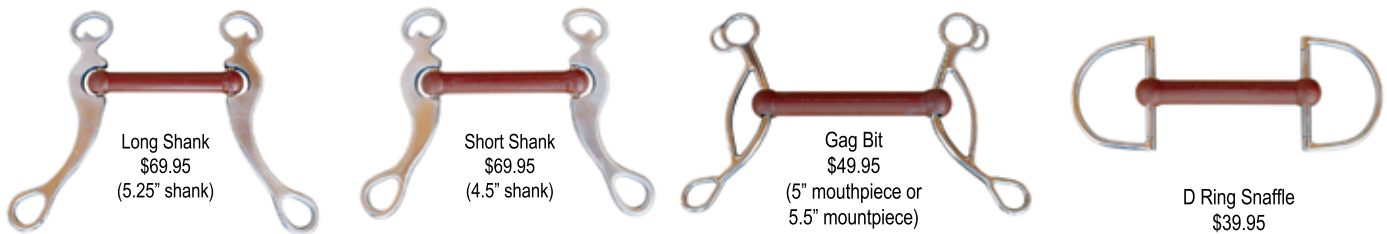

“We decided to go the Non Pro route with her. I was itching to get on and try it out, so after she turned four I got on

On Friday, Bradley Skinner and Taris Little Steps won the Rookie 1 class and returned to the show pen on Saturday to win the Ride & Slide Non Pro Level 2 with a 70.5. It was a weekend of learning for the pair, as Skinner only purchased the gelding in August. "I bought him two months ago at the Tulsa Reining Classic. I took him home to get used to him and get him ridden. I brought him here to see what he'd be like in the show pen," Skinner explained.

Taris Little Steps, by Cromed Out Mercedes, stepped up to the challenge. "I showed him yesterday and there were a few things I wanted to work on, so I showed him again today and we did a little better," Skinner, of Lubbock, Texas, said. "On the ground he's a little goofy. He wants to mess with everything. When you're on him, though, he rides like a finished horse."

Having grown up showing arabians and doing all-around events, including reining and cutting, Skinner just recently started back riding reiners. He purchased Taris Little Steps from Becky Shelton. "I maintain him at home, but Becky has given me tips and helped me out with him," Skinner said. "I thank my wife, Lisa, for helping me out and Becky as well."

The SWRHA Futurity & Show continued with the crowning of the second slate of open ancillary champions. It was Dany Tremblay who bested the scores with his 73.5 earned on Slidin Smartly. The 4-year-old mare owned by Adh Mor Ranch is by Smart Spook out of Slidin On Sunshine. The Open [2] class was sponsored by Rod Teuscher Bits & huge stopper.” Dany will talk to her owners about their future plans for the mare that helped him earn the $536 check.

Shauna Larcombe rode Designed With Shine (Smart And Shiney x Taris Designer Genes) to the reserve co-championship scoring a 72 and bringing her take to $335. Larcombe also won the Open Circuit Champion buckle for her performances in Ardmore.

She said, “The other day, I won the first slate of Opens with Designed With Shine, and she was great actually. She had some time off after WEG, and then not really a huge preparation, but she was good. Today, same thing again, she just came up here this morning. She’s been back at the ranch. I just jumped on her and went in. I think I was tied for second today. She wasn’t as pure as she was the other day, but she was okay. So we’ll school her a little bit tomorrow and get her ready for the World Show.”

Gloria Spiaggi won the Intermediate Open [2] Championship and earned $276 and the Intermediate Open Circuit Champion buckle. She was riding Reign Quarter Horses' 5-year-old mare Mizzen You. The mare is by Jacs Electric Spark out of West Coast Mizzen.

Spiaggi said, "[Mizzen You] was really good. She was always with me. She's been good for all of the show since Monday, when we got here. I am happy with her." ## Jessiah Keller Tops Non Pro and Intermediate Non Pro [2]

Jessiah Keller won the Intermediate Non Pro earlier in the week with a 73. Improving on that score by a half point in the second slate earned her the Non Pro and Intermediate Championships titles as well as the Circuit Champion Buckles for both of those classes. Keller rode her 8-year-old mare, Snip O Satellite by Nu Chex To Cash out of Snip O Gun. The duo earned $878.

"I went in and I got lost and I minus halfed my first stop, and then I went plus half, plus one so that made up for it. And then we went on from there!" Jessiah said with a laugh. She elaborated on the story as she continued, "Having to walk in and line up the way we did this morning - that mare has not done that to my knowledge. She just kind of walked in and went, 'huh?' Then she went on and she was good. She is one of the easiest horses I've ever had. She is easy to prepare; she takes no riding; she is happy all the time. There is nothing to her, she is just easy."

Kathryn Rippetoe was Reserve in the Non Pro and Intermediate Non Pro and earned the Championship in the Limited Non Pro when she scored a 72 on Electric Sailor. Known around the barn as "Captain", the 5-year-old gelding is by Jacs Electric Spark out of Sailors First Chic.

Rippetoe said, "It went really good. I had some improvements from the other day. I got him stopped today which was the big deal and he turned nice, so it went well." She pocketed $662 for the titles.

Rippetoe is currently a sophomore at Okla. State University studying Ag Business. She is planning to go the NRHA Futurity to show in some of the ancillary classes there.

Sabrina Pickett earned reserve in the Limited Non Pro after scoring a 71.5 on Lil Ruf Rhinestone (Lil Ruf Peppy x Lucy McGillicutty).

Kraetschmar spoke of the two runs that got her to the high point buckle win, "I showed him on Thursday the first time. He was a 72 there. He was being very good. Today, I was a 71. I had a couple of mistakes that were on my part. I didn't really do like my trainer told me to." She continued to talk about the close relationship she has with her horse. "I brought him from Germany to here when he was seven. I've owned him since the day he was born. He's just been a fantastic horse. He's the perfect horse in every way." 'Dennis' is a multiple Open Bronze trophy champion and a USEF Bronze medalist.

horse that she has only owned for a very short time. She calls the 4-year-old mare “Sage,” but the daughter of Wimpyneedsacocktail and BH Silver Enterprise is registered as Its Cocktail Hour. Rachael also won the Circuit buckle on this mare which was a personal goal for her.

Munday said, “This is my favorite show of the year! I’ve been fortunate to win a [high point] buckle each year I’ve been here. This is going on the third year, so I’m really, really excited! I didn’t know if I could pull it off since I’ve only had the mare for about 10 days. I got through Friday really well, marking a 70.5 and didn’t really ask anything of her. I just had a clean, correct run. Today, I put on the gas a little bit more, and she did everything I wanted and marked a 71.5. This buckle really means a lot to me. I’m very excited and I can’t wait to see what we have in store for next year on her!”

Gentry Clark was mounted on Whizzen Out West, his 14-year-old gelding by West Coast Whiz out of Jack Sprat Oak. Clark doesn’t get the opportunity to show in reining very often so he was very pleased with the outcome.

“For a 71.5, on only the second time in the reining pen in over two years for both of us, I can’t complain at all,” he said. “He gave me more than I asked for so I’m pretty happy with the way it panned out this weekend. I couldn’t ask for more from a horse.” Clark thanked his trainer, Dell Hendricks, his mother for helping him and his sister for keeping him in line.

This was the first time back in the reining pen in five years for Kristen Cantacuzene. She was in the saddle of Gunner Be Custom, a 4-year-old mare by Colonels Smoking Gun out of Custom Made Dunit. Cantacuzene has only been riding the 4-year-old mare for a couple of months after they moved to Gainesville, Texas so she could ride with trainer Yonathan Baruch more often.

*Cherie Bugg
SWRHA APHA Rookie High Point Buckle*

Cantacuzene remarked, “It was really fun! This is a phenomenal mare, and I’ve never had the opportunity to ride such an amazing horse so I’m very happy about that.” She went on to mention the trainers who have been helping her, “[Yonathan Baruch] is fantastic! He’s the best Non Pro coach ever! Also Cody Thomas helped me a lot whenever I was still living in Midland.” Kristen also won the Rookie Level 1 and the Prime Time Rookie.

For reserve in the Rookie Level 1, there was also a three-way tie; this time, between Dana Pastorino, Bradley Skinner, and Kimberly Colvin-Lyon who all scored 71 points. Kimberly Colvin-Lyon rode Spark Electric Style. The 8-year-old gelding is by Jacs Electric Spark out of Gun Towns Style.

Dana Pastorino was again on her top mount, Jac Bee Whiz. Jac Bee Whiz, by Conquistador Whiz out of Cinch Up Cowboy. He also carried her to win reserve in the Prime Time Rookie as well as the Rookie Prime Time Circuit Champion buckle sponsored by Buster Foster and Double F Ranch for the high point in both slates of classes.

Pastorino and “Jac” have enjoyed a good year as she said, “This year has been out of the park, seriously! I just can’t thank the Tremblay barn enough for such tremendous support and outstanding training and guidance. They are absolutely amazing!” Dana lives in California, but travels to Oklahoma to ride with Dany Tremblay.

Bradley Skinner guided 4-year-old Taris Little Steps to the reserve title. Although the horse is new to Skinner, he also helped earn the Rookie Level 1 High Point buckle for him.

Bradley said, “This buckle means a lot. We worked hard all weekend. We’ve been working hard leading up to the show trying to learn all about my new horse, and we’ve figured out something new every time we went in. Today was our best run, so it all worked out and I’m very proud of him.” Bradley plans to return to Ardmore in February for the Winter Slide and then continue showing his horse in Derbies.

Cherie Bugg Takes the Rookie APHA High Point Buckle

Cherie Bugg took the Rookie High Point Buckle with her appropriately named horse, A Girls Best Friend. The 16-year-old gelding is by Like A Diamond out of Sugs Amber Cat.

Cherie said, “He’s great! He puts up with a lot. I use a step stool to get on him, and I climb off of him. Everybody is, like, amazed at what a great horse he is, but he is very athletic and has great stops. I love him!” Cherie added, “I love that the APHA gives buckles! Sometimes you get really down-hearted at your runs and you still have a chance at winning a buckle and it’s really nice. I think the APHA is really great for doing that!”

McKinnon Larcombe on Taris Dreamer Wins 14 & Under [2] Class and Circuit Buckle

Bright and early at the Hardy Murphy Coliseum in Ardmore, Okla., the future stars of reining made their debut. McKinnon Larcombe on Taris Dreamer earned their second 14 & Under Champion Championship at this show which also earned them the High Point Circuit Champion Buckle! They went in for a nice, easy pattern for which the judges awarded them 70.5 points.

Larcombe stated, “I’ve shown him hard twice this week already and I’m getting ready for the Futurity. I thought, ‘well, we just need to go in there and remind him that everything is nice and easy. I did, and he loped through – and he was a little ready to rock and roll, so it was very beneficial to go in there and have a run like that. He turned really, really, well so I think that is where we picked up the points.”

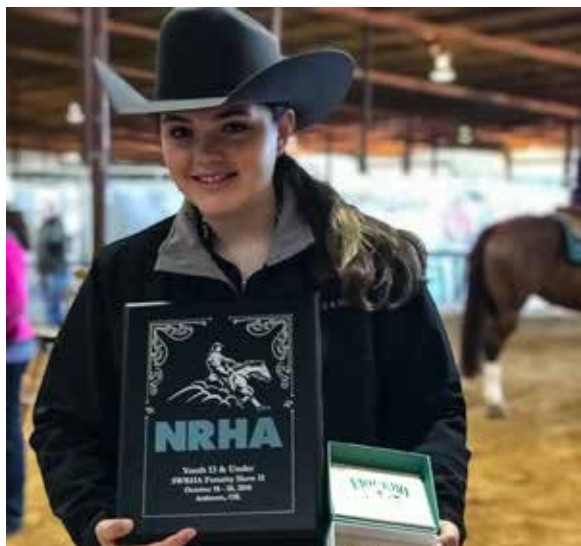

Marilynn Rawls picked up the reserve championship with 69.5 points on Dun Its Red Berry (Hollywood Dun It x Great Red Berry).

Emma Vanlandingham Dominates Short Stirrups [2] Class on Okie Jo Wrangler

Emma Vanlandingham has a good start in the reining industry as her dad, Jason, is an NRHA Million Dollar Rider; however, it isn't her dad who tweaks the details on Okie Jo Wrangler (Jo Topline x Wranglers Leo Lena). Emma lets her dad rope off of the 9-year-old gelding, and then she does the finer tuning herself. Emma's 72.5 finished a full four points over than of her closest competitor.

Emma said, "I was super proud of him! He didn't try to get ahead of me at all. He didn't try and do anything bad, he was just perfect!" Emma's advice to her horse trainer father is just to keep doing what he is doing and he will be fine.

Since Emma won both slates of Short Stirrups classes at the SWRHA Futurity and Show, she also earned the Circuit Championship buckle sponsored by Luke Gagnon as well.

Gracie Weeks rode Spunky Sprattin to the reserve championship with a 72.5. The 18-year-old gelding is by Sprattin out of Gertie Floyd.

THE FEI WORLD EQUESTRIAN GAMES™ TRYON 2018 DELIVERED RECORD TOTAL REACH OF 4.7 MILLION VIEWERS IN THE UNITED STATES ACROSS NBC NETWORKS

Global Media Reach Skyrockets to Over 4.5 Billion Impressions with Coverage
Published in More Than 65 Countries

More than 4.7 million U.S. viewers tuned into NBC Sports' presentation of the FEI World Equestrian Games™ Tryon 2018 (WEG) across NBC, NBCSN and The Olympic Channel on September 11-23, 2018. Over the duration of the two-week period, the WEG received 11 airings of equestrian competition totaling 65 hours of coverage with 57 hours of live coverage. Viewership peaked for the last day of Jumping competition, which was broadcast live on NBC on Sunday, September 23, 2018. Viewers watched in awe as Simone Blum of Germany was crowned the victor, going down in history as the first female to ever win an individual gold medal in Jumping at a WEG. The event also included record setting FEI digital viewership of 16.5 million video views, 84.2 million impressions and 1.6 million in engagement. Within the next few weeks, global viewership numbers will be released. The event also delivered incredible media exposure for equestrian sport, totaling more 4.5 billion global media impressions and was referenced in over 14,000 articles.

Some of the equestrian sports broadcast from the WEG included: Dressage Team & Individual Grand Prix competitions, Endurance Team & Individual rides, Eventing Cross-Country, Eventing Jumping, Vaulting Individual Female & Male competitions, Vaulting Squad, Vaulting Freestyle, Jumping Teams, Jumping Individuals, Driving Marathon, and Driving Cones.

“Two of our core goals for hosting the WEG were to introduce equestrian sport to a broader U.S. audience and to promote sponsorship within the sport. This level of viewership exceeded our expectations and will position us to attract even greater levels of sponsorship. We are incredibly thankful to NBC Sports for continuing to see the value of covering equestrian sport and for partnering with us on the 2018 FEI World Equestrian Games with an investment of more than 60 hours of unprecedented coverage. The 4.7 million unique domestic viewers are a testament to the increasing level of interest people have for horse sport and an important milestone in our mission to grow the equestrian industry,” said Mark Bellissimo, Managing Partner of Tryon Equestrian Partners and CEO of Tryon International Equestrian Center.

“The FEI World Equestrian Games is the sport’s most diverse event as it features championships for all eight disciplines and NBC’s expertise in sports broadcasting meant we had the opportunity to offer first-class coverage of the Games to the widest possible American audience,” Ralph Straus, FEI Commercial Director said. “This collaboration with NBC resulted in unparalleled exposure of our sport being broadcast live across the network which was a huge step forward in gaining a new wave of interest in equestrian and the ideal platform for expanded exposure of our athletes, our sport and our partners.”

“Further, a number of new major national sponsors have entered the industry including Coca-Cola, Bank of America Merrill Lynch, U.S. Trust, Mars, Inc., Pedigree, Polaris®, Johnson Controls, United Rentals, Atrium Health, Sharp Electronics, and New Holland, to name a few. Many of these sponsors have signed up for multi-year deals across our properties,” added Bellissimo.

The WEG received extensive coverage showcasing the best equestrian athletes in the world. For many athletes and teams, the WEG was the qualifier for the upcoming Tokyo 2020 Olympic and Paralympic Games. As history was being made at the WEG, NBC Sports was there, immersed in all the action. One of the highlights was Team USA clinching the gold medal in Jumping for the first time ever at a WEG, followed by Team USA’s first gold medal for Driving. NBC Sports caught all the live action, as well as the priceless expressions in the awards ceremony, from competitors and fans alike.

Where do you hope to see yourself in 5-10 years?

I don't know. I just hope to be successful whatever endeavor I go in to. I hope I achieve many great things showing horses and whatever career I choose.

What is your dream career?

I love photography. I love the horse industry. So, I hope to incorporate those two in together and have some sort of maybe marketing business. Along the lines of marketing, photography business managerial. I love that kind of stuff.

Your dad is your trainer, has he had any impact on your career choice?

He's great because he doesn't push me to do anything that he wants me to do. He wants me to do what I would like to do. With the photography side of it, he's great. He always puts up with me practicing. So, he's just a great supporter for sure.

How has reining affected your life?

For our family, this is our whole life. Really any time we go anywhere it's to a horse show. Rarely do we go on vacations, so horse shows are our vacations. Horse shows and reining are our whole lives. It's our every day commitment, you know, I go to the barn every day, so it's a full time thing, that's for sure.

What is your most memorable win?

I've had a lot of special runs and I've had a lot of great horses, but lately, would be when I won, I think it was the Limited Non Pro and Intermediate Non Pro at the Tulsa Reining Classic on Taris Dreamer. I marked a 146 and actually I marked my highest score there too, with one of the judges marked me a 73.5. Up until then I was having a little bit of trouble on that horse, not necessarily bad things, we hadn't clicked yet and that run he was great for me.

What is your advice for younger reiners?

You know, there's times when you think "Boy, I'm not good at this." or "What am I doing wrong?" or "I don't like this horse! I want to get rid of it." But, keep pushing on. You may never think that you will never get over that mountain, but just keep pushing because there will be a point where you will start to click whether it be a small problem or a large problem, you're going to get there. You will have small wins and you will have big wins, but those challenges help you to savor those large wins. That's happened to me a lot. I've had quite the journey with the horse that I have now. He's not a bad horse, but he's an old war horse and he's been quite tough for me to learn to show, but he's brought a lot out in me. He's taught me a lot. So, just keep going with what you have and one day, you'll click.
