2018 ALL AMERICAN QUARTER HORSE CONGRESS

Casey Deary Dominates the Level 4 Congress Futurity

The All American Quarter Horse Congress is the world's largest single-breed horse show boasting 24,500 entries in 2017. Held at the Ohio Expo Center in Columbus from October 2 – 28, 2018, the show attracts 650,000 people, and generates $382 million in the central Ohio economy. The All American Quarter Horse Congress is hosted by the Ohio Quarter Horse Association, a state affiliate of the American Quarter Horse Association. For nearly a month, the event showcases the extensive versatility of the American Quarter Horse kicking off with the reining events. As the second leading Reining Futurity, the Saturday night event garnered more than $140,000 in added money and filled the stands with the promise of viewing the nation's best three year olds.

Some men set high standards, but Casey Deary of Weatherford, Texas, set his sights on a supermodel: Americas Supermodel to be exact. The first foal out of Americas-nextgunmodel – which Deary won the 2012 NRHA Futurity on – carried him to the Congress Open Level 4 Futurity Championship in Deary's first trip to Congress! The spectacular filly is by Walla Walla Whiz.

Deary said, "She is a lot like her mother! They're quirky and a little aggravating at times, but just can do some incredible things! She was great in the go-round, and she was really good here tonight. She stopped a ton, and she's just a really, really fun horse to go ride."

He continued with the story of her purchase, "Lyle and Marie Whitmarsh from Canada own her. They bought her the first part of her two year old year. Rob Curtis bought her from Arcese, and then they bought her from Rob. I remember the day she was born – that’s the ‘Gunmodel’s’ first foal. So we went over and looked at her. On the drive over there, Rob said, ‘I’m not buying this horse, so don’t ask me!’ I said, ‘its fine, I just want to go see her! I think you’d enjoy seeing her.’ [Rob said,] ‘Whatever happens, I’m not buying the horse!’ So we go and look at her and of course, I loved her – from a baby foal, everything about her – she reminded me so much of her mother. The next day, Rob called me, and he said, ‘what do you think?’ and I said, ‘well, Rob, I felt that way about one other female and I married her.’ The rest is history in the making.

The 227 score was three points higher than the reserve score also earned by Casey on a horse called Gunnarickashay owned by Jody Puno. Gunnarickashay is by Gunna-trashya out of Rondas Tio.

Renda Gunna Shine carried Gabriel Diano of Purcell, Okla., to the Congress Level 3 Open Futurity Championship with a 219. Owned by Maria Buey Arietti, he is by Gunna-trashya out of Shiney Sushi.

is a Spanish singer, and the owners love that guy so we put ‘Maluma’ to him. He rocked today so it was good! He was a superstar!”

Italian native, Francesco Martinotti took the reserve title in the Open Level 3 Futurity with a 218.5 – a one point improvement over the score that earned him the Open Level 2 Championship also on MMB Spook Gotta Girl. The flashy sorrel mare owned by Giovanni Cioli is by Spooks Gotta Whiz out of Coronas Major.

Diano said, “He’s out of Shiney Sushi – a good broodmare that we own. I’ve raised him since he was a baby, and we started him. It is a good feeling because this is the first generation of Alpha [raised horses] that we own and to have a horse that already won the level 3 here at Congress is good, it is a different feeling. His barn name is ‘Maluma’, which Martinotti talked the reluctant owner into buying what he thought was merely a “nice” mare, but he’s glad he did as he said, “She did AWESOME! She was really easy to show. She is a small mare, but with a big heart. She did really good this year. We didn’t expect that because we bought her as, kind of, a normal horse, and now she is starting to be special!”

Francesco Martinotti piloted MMB Spook Gotta Girl to the Level 2 Open Futurity Champions

Martinotti went on to explain what he first saw in the mare that compelled him into talking Cioli into the purchase, “I saw in her a great mind and a big, big heart, seriously. Every time I teach her something - the next day - she always remembers. She tries every day really hard to do her job. It is good when you have a big partner like that to ride.” The special little mare with the big heart earned $3,808.

Cody Sapergia and George Bell’s horse, Mr Royal Hollywood had to settle for Reserve in the Open Level 2 Futurity. They scored a 217 and the $2,318 check. Mr Royal Hollywood is by Hollywoodstinseltown out of Cee Miss Hollywood.

McGee Farm’s Deadly N Dangerous carried Whitesboro, Texas, trainer Todd Sommers to the pay window in the Open Prime Time Futurity when the duo scored a 219.5. The young stallion is by Whizkey N Diamonds out of Miss Brim Star.

Sommers said, “The Congress pen can be a little spooky. All the people sit on one side. And the ground here was a little tough. It was a little wet when they put it in, but my little horse tried real hard, and we got back to the [Level 4] finals!” He pocketed $886 for the title.

Rocky Dare of Woodstown, NJ took the Open Prime Time Futurity Reserve title aboard Tinkers Hot Chillie with a 216.5. The sorrel mare by Tinker With Guns out of Ghost Buster Baby is owned by High Hopes Farm of West Grove. The team earned $762.

Jose Vazquez on SLJ Corazon Valiente Wins Non Pro Stakes at Congress

Jose Vazquez of Markham, Illinois, led the Non Pro Stakes with a 217 aboard SLJ Corazon Valiente. The home-

raised sorrel is by Smart Like Juice out of Wind Her Up Shiner.

In the October magazine:

- Another great 'cover trainer': Tom McCutcheon, who is actually much more than a trainer. He is also a great entrepreneur in the reining industry, a person who has taken the right steps since a very early age. In short, a person who has much to impart to anyone who loves the world of reining...

- Let's meet the first Million Dollar Dam in history, Ebony Shines. The news of this great mare's historic title was officially communicated just a few weeks back...

- South American reining takes us to Jango Salgado and its Brazil, a nation that gave a generous performance in Tryon 2018, claiming a magnificent fifth position...

- A instructive chat with Gabriele Seghetti, one of the very first farriers to have decided, more than thirty years ago, to specialize in shoeing for our discipline and who joins the staff of the US National team every time they compete in Europe

- All the secrets of how to ensure you have a sound ground for reining from one of the best-known experts in the world: Jim Kiser, of Kiser Arena Specialist

Vazquez said, “We showed really conservatively and he did good enough to win it. I’ve been riding him only four or five times, and to come up here and win the Congress. That’s something pretty special with a special horse. I hope he will keep on growing with me and be ready for the big futurity.”

Vazquez had planned for his trainer, Alejandro Ortiz Vazquez, to show the young stallion in preparation of the Futurity, but things changed as Vazquez explained, “[Alejandro Ortiz Vazquez] showed this horse in Las Vegas, and he did really well. The plan was for him to show him in the Futurity. I gave him the horse at the beginning of the year, and he said, ‘no, I think you have a better chance’ and he gave him back to me. I appreciate that. It takes a lot for somebody who works as hard as him [to do that].” Then he laughed as he said, “You know me, if somebody gives me the horse back. I’m going to show!”

The aptly named stallion also took Vazquez to the Prime Time Championship bringing his take to $9,392.

Winning the Level 3, Level 2, and Reserve in the Level 4 Non Pro Stakes was Kristin Avila riding Xtra Voodoo Sin

Bar. Hailing from Rogersville, Missouri, Avila has had the palomino mare since she was a yearling. Josh Murphy trained the mare up until August this year when Kristen’s husband, Bobby, took over to give her the feel that Kristen is used to when riding his horses.

Kristen said of the daughter of Shiners Voodoo Dr out of Wimpy Little Sinbar, “I think if I could just get out of her way and let her do her job, we would have been catching up with Jose. She was awesome. She is one of those horses that you just get on and make sure that she’s quiet and relaxed and you kind of test out the maneuvers, and if she’s doing everything, then you just go show her. She is pretty incredible.” And Kristen did show her! The duo was just a half of a point behind Jose with a 216.5 and earned $13,085.

What are your future plans?

I have no plans for college, but I do plan on going to the Open at some point in the not too distant future.

How long have you been reining?

I've been reining as long as I can remember. My first show was at the very first short stirrup in 2007, but I'm sure I've been riding since I was two or three. I mean, there're pictures of me on horses as a baby.

How has reining impacted your life?

It has impacted my life in every way possible. I have met so many great people through reining and developed a lot of relationships that never would have happened without reining. It means a lot to me, and I don't know what I'd be without reining.

Who is your coach and what impact has he or she had on your future plans?

I have more coaches than anybody else probably, and nobody knows who the main coach is. I think all of them have had a big impact on shaping me into who I am now and what I want to do later.

I've taken big pieces of advice from my grandma, my grandpa, both my parents, both my grandparents actually, I mean, everybody in my family has a been a huge help to coach me.

What do you consider the biggest achievement you have made?

Winning the [team] gold medal [at the World Equestrian Games] and marking a 229 is definitely my biggest achievement – bar none, not even close – that is my greatest achievement!

Tell me about the horse you rode to this achievement?

I won my first major event on [Custom Made Gun]. I've won over $100,000 on him.

All of the highest scores I've ever marked were on him. He has been as good to me as I could have asked, and he gets better every time I show him, it seems like. I hope he gets better one more time.

Cade was preparing to make his run for an individual medal at the World Equestrian Games the following day where he won Bronze.

Where do you hope to see yourself in five to ten years?

As one of the top open guys, I guess. I feel like I can do it. Ten years from now, I'd love to be a Million Dollar Rider if everything goes the course.

Do you have any advice for younger riders coming up?

Just keep working. Get in the saddle as much as possible. That's the best way to learn.

YOUTHS TIE TO WIN REINING HORSE FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIPS

High school rodeo and the reined cow horse competition is leading to college scholarships for Josh Briggs of Pilot Point, Texas, and Brie Wells of Le Mars, Iowa, thanks to a partnership benefiting competitors at the National High School Finals Rodeo (NHSFR). For the third consecutive year, the Reining Horse Foundation has joined with the National Reined Cow Horse Association (NRCHA) to provide a scholarship to the student athlete marking the highest score in the reining during the NHSFR, held July 15-21 in Rock Springs, Wyo. Following a tie, both Briggs and Wells were awarded $1,250 scholarships and Morrison bronzes courtesy of the National Reining Horse Association (NRHA).

In his final year of high school competition, Briggs scored a 149 in the rein work during the second go-round to mark his high score. He was riding Ricochet Shine (Ricochet San x Shiney Tea Pot Doc), a 2010 chestnut American Quarter Horse gelding. In a field of 101 reined cow horse contestants, Briggs was the event champion finishing first overall with a total score of 877. Ricochet Shine is owned by Steve and Carol Metcalf of Pilot Point, Texas, who are prominent in the reining and cow horse disciplines. After completing his final year of high school competition, Briggs is now attending North Central Texas College (NCTC) in Gainesville, Texas, where he is competing on both the equestrian and ranch horse teams.

Wells, a junior in high school, scored a 149 in the rein work during the short go to capture her scholarship and bronze. She was riding BFR Igniting Sparks (Shining Spark x Sliden Wright By), a 2009 palomino American Quarter Horse stallion. Wells was able to finish seventh overall, as well as finishing sixth in the all-around cowgirl title hunt. The versatile BFR Igniting Sparks is owned by Wells and is also her head horse for team roping as well as her tie-down roping horse. His sire is NRHA Hall of Fame stallion Shining Spark. In 2017, BFR Igniting Sparks won the American Quarter Horse Association Lucas Oil Superhorse Award.

In late 2014, the National High School Rodeo Association (NHSRA) began offering reined cow horse as an event. It joined a lineup of bareback riding, bull riding, saddle bronc riding, tie-down roping, steer wrestling, team roping, and cutting for boys; and breakaway roping, barrel racing, pole bending, goat tying, cutting, team roping, and the queen contest for girls.

While reined cow horse might not be a traditional rodeo event, NHSRA, NRCHA and NRHA acknowledge that reined cow horse can elevate the riding ability of NHSRA members. As part of the reined cow horse competition, contestants must complete a reining pattern, commonly referred to as dry work.

“Providing youth scholarships is a core program of the Reining Horse Foundation,” said Mandy

McCutcheon, a $2 million NRHA rider and Foundation Board member. “It is our hope that by reaching out to the youth contestants of high school rodeo, more students will be introduced to reining and reined cow horse and ensure these sports grow and succeed for generations to come.”

Based in Oklahoma City, Okla., the Reining Horse Foundation is the philanthropic arm of the National Reining Horse Association. Core programs for the 501(c)3 nonprofit organization include youth scholarships, the Dale Wilkinson Memorial Crisis Fund and the NRHA Hall of Fame.

SOUTHWEST REINING HORSE ASSOCIATION FUTURITY

Growing in 2018!

According to show management, the Southwest Reining Horse Association Futurity and Show, set for October 23-28, looks to be on the grow again in 2018! The numbers are certainly up, with stall count at capacity for the Hardy Murphy facility in Ardmore, Oklahoma.

With the Billingsley Open Futurity set to change to a one-go round format, there is an aura of innovation. Likewise the welcoming of a new naming sponsor for the OE Nutraceuticals Non Pro Futurity creates some excitement.

In addition, this year the popular Nutrena-sponsored Thursday night party will again host the Doggie Halloween Costume Contest along with the new Calcutta of the Open L4 Futurity. There will also be a live auction of an embryo transfer sponsored by Pinnacle Equine and Dr. Chelsea Makloski.

Also a favorite, the Markel Pizza Party follows the OE Nutraceutical Awards presentation on Friday, October 26 and the entertainment will be as great as ever featuring the Rein in Cancer featuring Rein In Cancer dog race, plus the costumed Lead Line and Walk-Trot kids continue the excitement. Then the stage turns to the popular SWRHA Rookie Challenge which is sponsored this year by SunReining and Baruch Reining Horses.

On Saturday, the Billingsley Ford Open Futurity takes place in two sections, with the Level 4 entries going in the second section which begins at noon.
