Bernard Fonck soars and reins Spook Sunburst to the NRHA Germany 3-year-old Open Breeders Snaffle Bit Futurity

GERMAN BREEDERS FUTURITY 2018

6-12 October – Kreuth, Germany

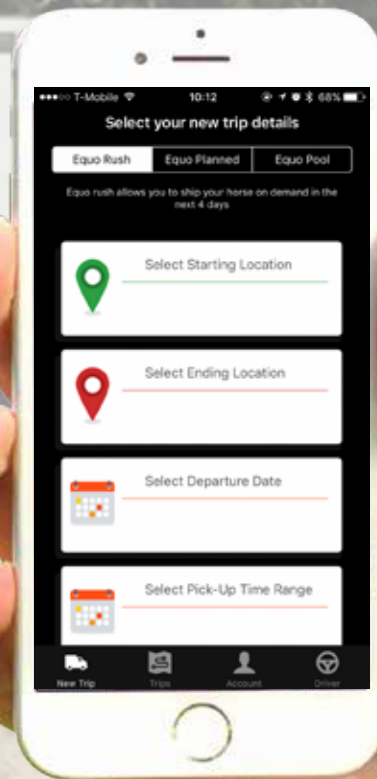

Provided by Simona Diale

With a whopping 228 score, Bernard Fonck and Spook Sunburst (Great Sun Burst x All About Spook), a gelding owned by Koen Symoens, claimed the Level (L)4 Open NRHA Germany Breeders Snaffle Bit Futurity Championship. Last to enter the Ostbayernhalle arena, the NRHA Million Dollar Rider had to beat the 225.5 scored by Cira Baeck aboard David Perneel's NF Shining Whiz (Colonels Shining Gun x Whowhizthispeppyhic).

“My intention was not to lay down that kind of run, but he was there for me, he’s an incredible athlete, and I knew that I could ask and he would deliver,” said Fonck about the gelding bred by Manuel Bonzano. “He reminds me so much of his sire [Great Sun Burst] who I won so much on, and I know exactly what buttons to push!” Just as enthusiastic was owner, Symoens, who has been involved in Belgian western riding first, and then reining, since 1985.

her run worth a 219. “Winning on a mare that we bred is the best thing that could ever happen. It was a tough final and I could not be any happier,” said Anita. Making the win even sweeter was the L3 Open Snaffle Bit Championship her husband, Emanuel Ernst, claimed in the Open the same day. Tying for the reserve championship in the L4 were Andrea Pedrotti riding Saturday Big (Saturday Night Custom x Kachina Tag) and Maria Otten aboard The Spook Coop (Best Spook x Kaliz Golden Happily). Both riders closed their run with a 213.

The Level 1 Championship,

The NRHA Germany Breeders Futurity offers a 3-year-old Snaffle Bit Futurity and a 4-year-old Open Futurity. Over 300 horses made their way to compete in the prestigious Futurity as well as the full-slate of NRHA ancillary classes, German Equestrian Federation (FN) Senior, Junior and Young Riders, and NRHA Germany Championship classes.

GENNARO LENDI AND COLONELS DANCING GUN OUTSHINE AND CONQUER THE 4-YEAR-OLD OPEN BREEDERS FUTURITY CHAMPIONSHIP

Provided by Simona Diale

The NRHA Germany Breeders 4-year-old Open and Non Pro Futurity finals matched the weather in Kreuth: Beautiful.

A repeat of the 3-year-old Snaffle Bit Futurity, the 4-year-old Open Bit Futurity kept the [over 3,000] spectators glued to their seats until the very last horse-rider-combination: Gennaro Lendi and Colonels Dancing Gun. Aboard the stallion by NRHA Ten Million Dollar Sire Gunner out of Dance Little Spook, owned and bred by Quarter Dream Srl, the Italian professional, with a 228 score to beat, performed all the maneuvers outstandingly and, once he closed his run, a 231 appeared on the score board.

“I truly felt the pressure when I walked in the arena but tried to leave that feeling in the warm up pen,” said Lendi who in April also conquered the 2018 NRHA European Futurity Open Championship with his mount. “This is a great horse with a lot of potential. I tried to concentrate completely and when we concluded with his last incredible stop, I knew we had marked what we needed to top the competition. I would like to thank all my team and Pietro [Marseglia] for being such a phenomenal owner. In this moment, my thoughts go to the amazing horses who lost their lives on the road at the end of September. This victory is dedicated to them and to their owners.”

Reserve honors went to German Dominik Reminder who posted the 228 to beat riding Call Me Mr Voodoo (Shiners Voodoo Dr x Arc Sassy Snapper), a stallion owned and bred by Elisabetta Zoccorato. “My horse was incredible tonight and I cannot hide the fact that although I am truly happy with this result and with the way he showed ... I would have been happier had we won — it’s the name of the game!”

I'm really happy!"

Taking the L3 reserve championship as well as the L2 championship with a 218.5 was German Oliver Stein who rode Shine Lil Whiz (Topsail Whiz x Lil Wanda), a stallion owned and bred by Silke Stein. "I'm really happy with the way this horse my wife and I bred went here tonight," said Stein. "In the qualifier he stumbled but we managed to make the finals and this result is great; I trained and rode his mother, who was really an easy horse to show, and he has taken quite a few traits from her which is great!"

Fellow country man Alexander Ripper closed his ride a half-a-point behind aboard Will Work For Guns (Gunner x Fabulous Footwork). He took home the reserve championship aboard the stallion owned by Dalila Okbani-Machs and bred by David Silva Jr.

Dutch Petra Van Ede rode Cee U In Tinseltown (Hollywoodtinseltown x Miss Wimpy Hollywood) to the L1 Championship for owner and breeder Gisela Haas with an outstanding run worth 221. "I love this mare so much and, considering the fact that a bobble in the qualifier kept us out of the other levels, winning the level 1 is just great," said Van Ede. "This is the last show of the year for us so closing with this results is special." The reserve

“I really wanted to go in and win because I knew we could do it — when I heard our score I was thrilled. A special thank you goes to all the Ambrosini team, my girlfriend Francesca, my best friend Andrea Pedrotti, to my parents and to my trainer, Rudi Kronsteiner. I could not have done this without them all.”

Ambrosini had a score to beat; the 217 posted by Stephanie Blessing-Kuenzli aboard her RB Lil Ruf Two (Lil Ruf Poco Peppy x GP Amelia Pocodo), a stallion bred by Thomas Kühnel. The Swiss rider settled for reserve honors in both the L4 and L3 and celebrated her win in both the L2 and L1 divisions. “This is a pretty cool and special horse that I’ve had since the beginning of the year,” she said. “I came here with the goal of trying to bring home a championship because I knew he could do it. I am thrilled with these titles.”

Tying for reserve honors in the L2 with a 213.5 score were Germans Pia Borgwald and Sharpshiner (Sharp Dressed Shiner x Walla Wanda Whiz), a gelding bred by Pia Kalle, and Andreas Dick riding A Shining Gun (Shine My Gun x Lady Buena Freckles), a stallion bred by Maile/Ludwig. The latter also took reserve honors in the L1 division.

Claiming the NRHA Germany Snaffle Bit Futurity Youth Championship with a 210.5 was 16-year-old Georgia Wilk of Germany aboard her ND Kit Kat Spark (Jacs Electric Spark x ND Miss Sailor Jac), a mare bred by Nathalie De-

rua. The young rider purchased the mare as a yearling and broke and trained her herself. A few months prior to the Futurity, Wilk and her mount rode under the guidance of Guy Zemah, head trainer for La Mesa Performance Horses LLC. Reserve honors went to Julia Boppelar, also of Germany, who reined Helga Boppelar’s Hollywood Shiningboy (Sharp Dressed Shiner x Dun Spun Around), a gelding bred by La Mesa Performance Horses LLC., to a 205.5.

The very first edition of the NRHA Germany Breeders Derby was held in 1993. Leading the get of sire list of the German Open and Non Pro Futurity is NRHA’s only Twelve Million Dollar Sire Topsail Whiz, with offspring having won Euro 140.550 followed by Spat Olena (Euro 113.179) and, in third place is NRHA Ten Million Dollar Sire Wimpys Little Step with Euro 83.693.

The NRHA Germany Breeders Futurity offers a 3-year-old Snaffle Bit Futurity and a 4-year-old Futurity. Over 300 horses made their way to compete in the prestigious Futurities as well as the full-slate of NRHA ancillary classes, German Equestrian Federation (FN) Senior, Junior and Young Riders, and NRHA Germany Championship classes.

SJR DIAMOND MIST AND COREY CUSHING ARE CROWNED THE 2018 NRCHA SNAFFLE BIT FUTURITY CHAMPIONS

Watch Corey's NRCHA interview here!

Saturday, October 20, was a record-breaking evening for NRCHA Professional Corey Cushing, Scottsdale, Arizona, as he piloted SJR Diamond Mist (CD Diamond X Cat Mist X High Brow Cat), bred and owned by San Juan Ranch, to the 2018 National Reined Cow Horse Association Snaffle Bit Futurity Open Championship. Under the spotlights in the historic Will Rogers Coliseum, Cushing became a three-time Snaffle Bit Futurity Champion and Two Million Dollar Rider!

In 2012, the Arizona horseman rode CD Diamond, sire to this year's champion, to the Open Snaffle Bit Futurity win, crossing the million dollar mark at the same time. In 2014, Good Time was the horse to carry him to the Open Snaffle Bit Futurity Championship. Just four years later, we are watching history repeat itself yet again!

With four horses in the finals, Cushing commented, "I felt great about my chances [of winning the futurity]. Each horse that I rode tonight had a great shot at winning the futurity and placing well. I knew it was going to be a tough match. There is so many great horses and great riders, and I feel very, very fortunate, and blessed that it ended up the way it did."

Cushing said about his mount, "He has been a great horse the whole way through. He doesn't like to be in trouble. He only wants to do great things and tries to please every day, and he takes constructive criticism great! I mean, he's something real special! I'm just super proud of him. His father holds a special place in my heart. To come back with the second foal crop, and have another futurity champion, I mean, there's something to be said about that. There are a lot of great horses out there, and I'm sure there's going to be more." He went on to talk about his cow work, "I tell you what, he was on target today. All the energy in here, I think, he was feeding off of that. I mean, he was only trying to do the best he could."

Cushing remarked on how he handles the electricity of the crowd, “It gets your adrenaline going; It gets you pumped up! I’ve had to tell myself in the past that all I can do is just take it one stride at a time, one horse at a time, you know. Don’t get too excited and make random decisions and choices that are going to put my horses in jeopardy of them not knowing what I’m asking for or what we’re setting up.”

Cushing marked a 213 in the herd work, 223 in the rein work and a 222.5 down the fence. The composite score of 658.5 secured the $125,000 win check. The Cushings have always made horse shows a family event, and this evening was no exception as their friends and family celebrated so many milestones together on the arena floor.

An incredible 226 fence score from Clay Volmer and SDP Hy Rey Bound (TR Dual Rey X SDP Hydriven Hicapoo X Hydrive Cat) secured the Intermediate Open Snaffle Bit Futurity Championship, for owner SDP Buffalo Ranch. Volmer, Millsap, Texas, rode the 3-year-old stallion to a composite score of 660 (216 herd/218 rein/226cow) and $30,000 paycheck.

was going to be close coming into the fence work, so I knew I was just going to go be as big as I could be. When it comes to the cow events, you can’t force anything, so I just tried to work my cow as fast and as close as I could.”

Tonight’s win makes Volmer’s second Snaffle Bit Futurity championship; in 2016 he won the Limited Open Futurity aboard Hesa Royalena.

Jordan Williams had a busy day preparing two horses for the Intermediate and Limited Open Finals. His hard work paid off as he was crowned NRCHA Snaffle Bit Futurity Limited Open Champion.

Williams remarked, “It was a little touch and go for me. I didn’t get her shown as well in the prelims as I would have liked, but we were able to mark a 16 in the [herd work] finals. She was really good for me, and honest, in the reining to mark an 18.5. I couldn’t really tell you about the fence work, but luckily, she took a hold, and took the reins, and took care of me more or less to say!”

Williams rode Angel In Blue Jeanz (Metallic Cat X Heavens Little Angel X Smart Little Lena) to $15,748 payday with a 216 in the herd, 218.5 in the reining and 217.5 down the fence. Williams was quick to thank his clients, Wes and Sarah Williams, for all of their support and encouragement.

Level 1 Limited Open Snaffle Bit Futurity Championship is won by Carol Metcalf and Annies Code

A last minute decision to make a rider substitution paid off in a big way for Steve and Carol Metcalf, Pilot Point, Texas. Due to a recent injury, Steve turned the reins over to his wife Carol. Carol piloted Annies Code (Electric Code X Annies Nu Lena X Nu Cash), a mare she owns with her husband Steve, to the Level One Limited Open Champion title, and to a $10,200 payday. The composite score of 640.5 also earned the pair a place in the Intermediate and Limited Open clean-slate finals.

Carol explained the situation, “About five days before we came here, my husband had a horse accident and separated

Hope Miller rode Seven S PrettySmart (Dual Smart Rey X Lena Pretty Playboy X Freckles Playboy) to the 2018 National Reined Cow Horse Association Snaffle Bit Futurity Non Pro Championship.

Despite Miller’s trepidation of going down the fence, “Birdie” gave it her all in the arena and turned goals into actions. After having lots of success the past couple of years, Miller is going to have to take some time off. What better way to end a show season than with the highest accolade many riders strive to capture.

About her winning mount, Miller said, “She is a really cool horse! She just tries, and tries, and tries. And that is all that mare does is just try!”

Miller and Seven S PrettyFace earned a 214 in the herd work, 213.5 in the rein work and a 214 down the fence. The pair’s composite score of 641.5 was accompanied with $21,856 and an abundance of prizes: Bob’s Custom Saddle, CR Morrison Bronze Trophy, Gist Custom Buckle, Catena USA Watch, Boots by Rios of Mercedes, 100X Custom Hat, Classic Equine Fleece Cooler, CINCH Jacket, CR Ranch-Wear Shirt and product from Platinum and UltraCruz.

Debbie Crafton rode Shiney Lil Belles to the Novice Non Pro Snaffle Bit Futurity Championship

Debbie Crafton's first NRCHA Snaffle Bit Futurity was a dream come true. The Colorado cowgirl and Shiney Lil Belles (Shining Lil Nic X Dual Reys Belle X Dual Rey) won the NRCHA Novice Non Pro Snaffle Bit Futurity with a composite score of 625.5 (207herd / 216 rein / 202.5 cow), collecting a $3,086 paycheck.

Crafton was quick to credit NRCHA professional Luke Jones on a great job of training the 3-year-old stallion she purchased just a few short months ago. "He showed this horse's mother to somewhere around

2018 APHA WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP SHOW

Ruben Vandorp and Spooks Gotta Shoot Win Big in the 3-year-old Reining Challenge

The American Paint Horse Association is celebrating the successful conclusion of its 2018 World Championship Show, which was held September 17-30 at Will Rogers Memorial Center in Fort Worth, Texas.

Like in other arenas, the reining pen saw dreams realized and hopes validated. Champions were named in the 3-Year Old Reining Challenge, the 4, 5, and 6 year Old Reining Challenge, Senior, Junior, and Novice and Amateur classes each with its own array of payouts and awards.

In the 3-year-old Reining Challenge Open Level 4 and Level 3, Ruben Vandorp conquered the field on Spooks Gotta Shoot at only the talented young stallion's second show. The bald-faced bay, owned by Laurie Hauck, is by Spooks Gotta Gun out of Lipstick Lies. The duo scored a 224 for the win.

Ruben said, "I couldn't be happier with the horse. He showed really good for me everyday [at the Paint Horse World]. One of the big perks about showing there is there is just so much time in the arena during the day, so I really got to get him really relaxed and really easy. He felt ready when I rode him in, and I couldn't be happier with him." He went on to remark on the colt's winning record, "I showed him the first time in Tulsa in the Developing Horse Futurity. I won that on him, and the second show was the Paint World, and we won that!"

Mirjam Stillo took reserve in the Levels 3 and 4, and Championship honors in the Level 2 Open 3-year-old Reining Challenge aboard Gunnertime. Owned by Kimberly Tillman, the flashy palomino is by Hollywoodstinstown out of Bubblegun. They scored a 219 for the titles.

Stillo said of the youngster that carried her to the championship, "He was very good everywhere. He's a very big stopper - he excelled in that! He circled pretty, and turned good. He was just very relaxed, very quiet. I was very pleased with him. He is just getting better and better. He's very level-headed and very mature for a 3-year-old - body-wise and mentally. He's just been a lot of fun to train and show as we work our way to the big futurity. He just wants to be a show horse so I am very happy!"

in the past.

Ben said, "It's been neat to stay affiliated with that horse and his mother's offspring, and get to ride the siblings. He's a nice horse." Then he went on to talk about his run, "It was a run in pattern and he ran in and stopped big, and turned big, circled good, and then finished with three big stops and a really clean, crisp left rollback I was really happy with. We've been preparing him for the reining futurity. We thought we'd just go down to the paint show, get him some schooling in, and see how he does."

Also mounted on a horse by Gunnatrashya, Nicole Schneider-West had to settle for reserve after she rode Painted Kiki Trashy to a 207. Painted Kiki Trashy is out of Painted Akeelah Whiz and owned by Pamela Loomis.

Catherine Crandon Dominates the Non Pro 3-Year-Old Reining Challenge on One Fashion Whiz

Catherine Crandon of Ocala, Florida championed both the Level 4 and Level 3 of the 3-year-old Non Pro Reining Challenge mounted on One Fashion Whiz. She rode the filly by Spooks Gotta Whiz out of Shesa Fashion Chic to a 216 for the titles.

Crandon said, "It's the first time we've shown. It was just a nice quiet ride on him. He's just such a nice horse!"

Shesa Tinker Toy carried Heather Weisz to take reserve in Levels 4 and 3, and to take the Championship title in the Level 2 Non Pro 3-year-old Reining Challenge with a 214. Shesa Tinker Toy is by Tinker With Guns out of Smartest Jarvis Anderson rode his own horse named Shocked At Nite to the Level 2 Reserve status with a 215. Shocked At Nite is by Colonels Nite Special out of Miss Electric Shock.

In the Open Level 1 3-year-old Reining Challenge, Ben Baldus of Bowie, TX rode Brooke Wharton's horse, Lil Trash Talk to the win with a 214.5. Lil Trash Talk is by Gunnatrashya out of Dainty Little Step. This is a horse that he knows well having shown his mother and several of his siblings

Sister.

Heather said, "I think I ran her down a little better here than I did in Tulsa, and she got stopped really good so that was a big positive for me! I was happy with her here. She just went out there and tried hard." Heather continued speaking of her future plans for the filly, "We will go to the Southwest Futurity to school. She didn't come back really good for me here, so we're going to address that. Here, I showed her two-handed, and the Futurity is a one-handed deal so we'll work on just getting her more consistent."

From Palm Beach Gardens, Florida, Nadine Galbraith piloted Gunnerbe My Mercedes to a 199.5 and the reserve spot in the Level 2. Gunnerbe My Mercedes is sired by Cromed Out Mercedes and is out of Gundelion.

Ruben Vandorp Wins Big Again Now on Diamond Studded Guns

Ruben Vandorp returned to the winners circle, this time for winning both Levels 4 and 3 in the 4, 5, and 6-year-old Reining Challenge on Diamond Studded Guns. The dependable son of Gunna-trashya and Like To Flo is owned by Bailey Kolsun.

Vandorp was very impressed with the horse as he commented, "It went really well. Bailey Kolsun is one of my Non Pros and I've had this horse in training since he was a late three-year-old. This is only the second time I got to borrow him and make a run on him, and I had a blast! He's an awesome horse. Shoot! He's been showed hard and he showed great for me. Bailey actually won the Challenge last year on him and the year before that. I was beyond happy with him. He felt so good. He drug his butt, turned around really hard, circled nice, I mean, he did it all!" They earned a 224.5 for their efforts.

Fernando Salgado took reserve in both levels 4 and 3 mounted on Payaso Rojo Gunner, by Colonels Smokingun out of Shining Sprats Vanna. Pedro Hernandez Guerrero owns the horse that scored a 219 for the titles.

In the Open Level 2 4, 5, and 6 Year Old Reining Challenge, James "Trey" Pool III took top honors when he guided Snipers Smoking Gun to a 217. Owned by Heath Jones, Snipers Smoking Gun is by Colonels Smokingun out of Miss Starlight Smoke.

Cade McCutcheon Conquers the Level 4 Non Pro 4, 5, & 6 year old Reining Challenge on Me and Julio

As a rising young star in Non Pro reining competition, Cade McCutcheon didn't let his fans down when he rode Me and Julio to a 223.5 securing the Level 4 Non Pro 4, 5, & 6 year old Reining Challenge World Championship title. Me and Julio is a sorrel son of Colonels Nite Special out of Darlins Not Painted.

Cade said, "He was really good. We just got there like the day before or two days before. He's just an easy horse, and I just cruised him through and he was as good as he could have been – he ran and stopped good and that's where I got

Trey said, "That horse has been shown hard this year, so for him to show up at the end of the year and show so pure, I was tickled with him! He'd just gotten off the trailer coming home from Vegas and got one night in his stall at home and then we hauled him up here. He got turned around decent, got circled good, and stopped pretty decent. We've had better runs, but we've darn sure had worse runs. He was pretty good. He's probably one of the more gifted horse I've ever had the chance to go horse show on!"

Tanya Jenkins rode A Smalltown Gal to the reserve spot in the Level 2 after scoring a 216.5. Sired by Hollywoods-tinseltown, Adriana Alfaro Villicana's mare is out of A Gal With A Gun.

With a 211, Kaleigh Geringer and Jenifer Schreur Seago's The Dun Gun won the Open Level 1 division in the 4, 5, and 6-year-old Challenge. Sired by Colonels Smokingun, The Dun Gun is out of Fabulous Footwork.

Geringer said, "Kate' is such a show horse. She circles really nice, turns really good. She stops huge. She is super fun to stop. She makes it seem so easy!"

Jeff Buckley of Melissa, Texas rode yet another horse by Colonels Smokingun, The Green Gun, to the Level 1 reserve title in the 4, 5, & 6 year old Reining Challenge with a 207. The Green Gun is out of The Green Jacket.

my points." Cade continued to remark on 'Julio's' demeanor, "The only thing about him is, you've got to make sure he's awake. He's really, really quiet!"

Ryan Humphrey slid into second in the Level 4 on Gunology with a 218. Gunology is by Colonels Smokingun out of Hollywood Footprints.

Diamond Studded Guns carried another rider to a Championship title, this time, his owner Bailey Kolsun won the Level 3 Non Pro Challenge with him. Earlier, he carried his trainer, Ruben Vandorp to the Levels 4 and 3 Championships in the Open 4, 5, and 6-year-old Reining Challenge. All of this at the end of a demanding show schedule. Diamond Studded Guns is by Gunnatrashya out of Like To Flo.

Kolsun said, "This was the last derby that I'm going to show him in. So it was cool to finish off his derby year winning the level 3 here. We did like 3 shows in a row there; he went to the Tulsa Reining Classic, and then he went to the High Roller Reining Classic, and then to the Paint World like one day after we got home from Vegas. He put four runs together there in the span of about three and a half weeks with no schooling in between, so I was proud of him!" Bailey continued to brag about her incredible athlete, "He won the level 3 and the 4 the day before with Ruben, so that was pretty cool that he went and marked a 224 with Ruben, but he was still kind enough for me to jump on the next day with no schooling in between, and we were a 217."

Kolsun spoke of her ownership of this wonder horse, "We got him as a 3-year-old that had never been shown. After the Paint World, his earnings are at $68,000. That's pretty impressive for a horse not to be shown in all those futurity events and to still make that much!"

Earning her place in the Level 3 reserve spot was Heather Weisz of Gunter, Texas and Fille Code, the 6-year-old daughter of Electric Code and Smartest Sister. The duo scored a 214 to take the title.

With a spirit of adventure and the backing of a rather

The Dun Gun and Jared Leclair win Sr Reining World Championship; My Berry Best Gun and Mirjam Stillo take Junior Reining World Championship

The Dun Gun laid down an incredible performance with Jared Leclair in the Senior Reining competition. Under the scrutiny of a five-judge panel, the duo earned 360.2 points for the Senior Reining World Championship Title. The Dun Gun also carried associate trainer Kaleigh Geringer to the Level 1 Championship in the 4, 5, & 6-year-old Reining Challenge. She is by Colonels Smokingun out of Fabulous Footwork.

Leclair said, "Last year, I won the Jr. on her, and then this year, she's a senior horse. The customers wanted to try to show her again and do it again this year in the senior. She was a big stopper, big turner - she stopped really big on the competitive group of men, Kathy Thompson on Baileys Sidekick spun into the Level 2 Championship as well as the Level 1 Championship in the 4, 5, and 6 year old Reining Challenge after a run-off. Bailey's sidekick is a 5-year-old gelding by Colonels Nite Special out of A Shining Sidekick.

Kathy said, "I went in for my first run, and I wasn't very happy with my spins, but you know, you just put that first maneuver behind you and you move on. I didn't have a clue where I was standing. It didn't feel like it was my best run ever, but it felt pretty good. They didn't announce scores so, honestly, I didn't have a clue where I was." When she was called in for awards, Kathy was given the option to either run off or flip for the tie. Weisz left the decision up to Kathy. "It was like a flood of emotions just went through me all of the sudden. My son was sitting in the stands watching and he's kind of one of those kids who says, 'Mom, if you're not first, you're last.' My husband has always been one that's like, 'if there's money on the table, don't leave it.' My dad has always been like, 'all or none.' So all these thoughts went through my head, and I was thought, 'you know what? You only live once. Let's have some fun! Let's create some excitement!' So I said, 'well then, let's run it off!'"

Kirsten Booth of Temecula, California came in third in the Level 2 earning a 210.5 on I Think I Gotta Whiz by Spooks Gotta Whiz out of One Stylish Chic. Belinda Black rode into the Level 1 reserve championship on Spooks Smoken Chex earning a 210. The 5-year-old stallion is by Colonel Sugar Chex out of Spooky Lil Lena.

first stop. She was really easy to show. I've shown her a lot and she's been really good to me. She was really great that night to." He went on to say, "We bought her as a three-year-old. She wasn't going to make it as a 3-year-old and we knew that when we bought her. You could just tell she had a lot of talent and a lot of heart, and she's really responsive. The owners were willing to take their time with her and listen to me. They've let me do what I need to do with her to get her broke and put a good foundation on her. That's what we've done and had a lot of success with her."

Tanya Jenkins had to settle for the reserve title when she scored a 315.91 on A Smalltown Gal. The 6-year-old mare is by Hollywoodstinseltown out of A Gal With A Gun.

My Berry Best Gun guided by Mirjam Stillo of Pilot Point, Texas earned 360.2 points to take the Junior Reining World Championship title. The 4-year-old mare is by Colonels Smokingun out of Berry Dun It Best.

Mirjam said, “She was amazing actually. That was probably the best run I’ve ever had on her. I was a little disappointed two days before when I showed her in the Challenge – I had a penalty on her. We were just not as good as we hoped to be, and then we came back in the Junior and I just kind of stepped it up, and really pushed her to her stops; she really stopped amazing! She turned good she circled really, really good. I was very pleased with her. She has so much talent, so much physical ability. She is a very big, strong mare. We haven’t been very lucky in the last couple of shows. We did really good at the beginning of the year at the Cactus Classic in Scottsdale, but as we found, little things were not going the right way, then finally it all came together. In the Junior Reining, she really was awesome!”

Pale Faced Dancer and Thomas Rodden of Tucson, Arizona scored a 315.05 to take reserve in the Junior Reining Championship competition. Pale Faced Dancer is by Pale Face Dunit out of Dancer Nic.

Spooks In Starlight carried Christie Batson of Scottsdale, Arizona to the Solid Paint-Bred Reining Championship with a 210.5. Spooks In Starlight is a 5-year-old gelding by Spooks Gotta Whiz out of Spooks Jazz Olena. Batson was not available to comment.

Donna Duvall Mcshan took reserve in the Solid Paint-Bred Reining Championship on Nite Gambler, a 4-year-old gelding by Colonels Nite Special out of Gunnin For Rey. The horse and rider team scored a 206.5.

Kirsten Booth on I Think I Gotta Whiz is Crowned Amateur Reining Champion

Kirsten Booth of Temecula, California earned the Amateur Reining Championship title when she rode I Think I Gotta Whiz to a 360.2. I Think I Gotta Whiz is a 6-year-old daughter of Spooks Gotta Whiz and One Stylish Chic, a holds a very special place in Kirsten’s heart.

Kirsten said, “I’m super competitive! She won the Paint World Last year, and so I was really hoping to be able to do it again. The way I was showing earlier in the week, I was like, ‘Um, you just got to pull your head out girl!’ I have a great horse! My trainer is Joe Schmidt. He has done a wonderful job on her.

*Kristen Booth and I Think I Gotta Whiz
Amateur Reining Champions*

She is super easy to ride, but you know, when you are pushing the envelope, to try and win something, it is really easy to get in the penalty box. So Joe just told me, ‘try and be smart about what you are doing. Relax!’ In the warm up pen, I’ve got it won, but then we walk in the show pen, we get tight. I was really happy to be able to relax and my mare did a really good job – the little blue-eyed beauty!”

Kirsten chose the mare over the stud colt that she thought she wanted when “Frankie” was still a foal. Since then, the mare has helped her through some very troubling times.

Kirsten explained, “In her 3-year-old year, I was diagnosed with cancer. Shawn Florida was training her for me at that point, and my whole goal was to go to the Futurity with her, but the doctors told me I couldn’t go. I had had a couple of surgeries at that point including a double mastectomy. I’d started Chemo. I just finally said, ‘you know what? Screw it. Life is short.’ I didn’t even know if I’d be alive the next year.

“I had a round of chemo and my dad brought the truck and trailer to the hospital where I had my chemo and we drove to Oklahoma. Shawn brought the mare from Ohio. I hadn’t ridden her in over a year because I’d been sick during that time. I showed her there, and it was the most amazing experience, for me just as a person, and to have that experience with my mare and she was so darn sweet with me. She remembered me. Before I walked in the pen that day, I was sort of balling - just crying - right before I walked to my class that day. It was a lot of emotion with this horse and I came out of the pen grinning from ear to ear because I did it!

“That’s kind of what this mare has given me. I love to show her, but as a horse - I really feel like she has gotten me through all of this. It was a lot going through chemo and radiation. She didn’t even get shown through all of her 4-year-old year because I was really sick during that time. I would just go out to the barn and brush her and sit - I’d cry on her - talk to her, I’d just walk her around. This horse has gotten me through a lot! She has gotten me through cancer; she’s gotten me through my divorce. So she may be a world champion reining show horse, but she’s the world champion of my life. I know people like to say a horse is special to them, but this one is a hundred times beyond that for me.”

Tracy Higginbottom took reserve in the Amateur Reining with her 7-year-old stallion, Chics Dig Gunner. He is sired by Colonels Smokingun out of Smart Scooter. They scored a 315.5 for the title.

*Juli Stone Moran and Diamonds In My Dreams
Amateur Solid-Paint Champions*

Hailing from Cave Creek, Arizona, Juli Stone Moran guided Diamonds In My Dreams to the Amateur Solid Paint-Bred Reining Championship title, scoring a 360.2. Diamonds In My Dreams is by Like A Diamond out of Brennass Dream.

Julie also spoke highly of her horse, “He is probably one of the best athletes we have in the barn. The good news is when you go in that show pen, you know you’re going to get the right athleticism out of him. It’s really all about the pilot doing the right thing and not making a mistake. As long as I don’t make a mistake, he won’t make a mistake. It’s a horse that has really given me a lot of confidence because I really learned how to notice when I start to see something or when I’m misguiding him or he’s confused; I’m able to catch up with it really quickly so we don’t have something go wrong in the show pen. He’s a very, very consistent and very good minded horse. It’s really given me a lot of confidence in the show pen.”

S. Lynn Walker, native to Shreveport, Louisiana, piloted Gunner Got Out to the reserve spot in the Amateur Solid Paint-Bred Reining competition. Gunner Got Out is by Colonels Smokingun out of Miss Taris Rey. They scored 316.05 points.

Sometimes things just come together at the right time. Facing many obstacles to her confidence as she approached the Paint World Championship show, Cherie Bachon on Phoenix, Arizona almost didn’t come. Through an inexplicable twist of fate, she decided to bring her 6-year-old gelded son of RR Star and Katie Get Your Gun. R Gun Will Travel carried her to a 203.5 and the Novice Amateur Reining Championship.

Cherie said, “He has not been [an easy horse to show]. He is a youngster at 6 years-old, and, obviously, I’m a Novice Amateur rider. We’ve had a little bit of a hard time getting together, clicking, and actually being consistent. About a month to six weeks before the Paint World, all the sudden everything started to click and to fall into place. Prior to that, like several months before, I was kind of worried about going because my trainer, Ashley Kelkenberg-Luffy, is pregnant and she was due right at the time that we would be leaving. And so I was kind of worried. We were just going to be going with our assistant trainer [Jordan Sweeten], and I was just not being consistent with the horse. I had all these concerns and then literally about a month before, everything just started to fall into place and we just had consistently good rides every time I was out there, and Jordan [Sweeten] kept us focused all week long and [R Gun Will Travel] was a superstar all week!”

Over 1,120 horses were on display during the APHA World Championship Show generating more than 16,000 entries, all vying for more than $900,000 in cash and prizes. The show saw an increase in both entries and horses over the 2017 World Show.

APHA named 205 world champions over the course of 14 days, and held a total of 299 classes. Forty-four U.S. states, five Canadian provinces, Denmark, Mexico and Sweden were represented.

The show also saw an increase in several key areas over the 2017 Open/Amateur World Show including Amateur Walk-Trot classes (up 40%), Novice Amateur classes (up 8%), Amateur Solid Paint-Bred performance classes (up 15%), Amateur halter classes (up 47%), Breeders’ Futurity classes (up 12%) and added-money classes (up 42%).

The Breeders’ Trust Pleasure Stakes classes saw impressive payout increases with a total payout of $78,360—a 15.8% increase over 2017. The 2-Year-Old Western Pleasure Stakes alone paid over $35,000 with the winner taking home $10,526. The Breeders’ Trust Pleasure Stakes consist of Western pleasure and hunter under saddle classes in two age categories each—2-year-olds and 3- and 4-year-olds.

APHA once again welcomed cutters to Fort Worth for the American Cutting Horse Association (ACHA) Cowtown Cutting. The event drew 211 entries and 81 horses came from all around to compete for more than $23,000 in prize money.

In addition, APHA partnered with the World Conformation Horse Association (WCHA) to offer big money to halter enthusiasts through two premier halter events: the APHA World Championship Show and the (all-breed) WCHA Breeder’s Championship and Big Money Futurities. All in all, more than $500,000 was up for grabs for halter horses—that included more than $118,000 in APHA Platinum Breeders’ Futurity classes, over $31,000 in Gold Breeders’ Futurity payouts, $20,000 in the Breeders Halter Futurity bonus payouts, $18,750 from the Lynn Simons Memorial Halter Futurity and $314,000 in the WCHA Breeder’s Championship and Big Money Futurities. The WCHA events alone drew 705 entries. All in all, APHA show entries totaled 15,215 (3,043 x five judges) bringing the total entries for all combined events to 16,131.

In addition, the knowledge and skills of young judges were put to the test September 20 during the APHA HorseIQ World Championship Judging Contest, held in conjunction with the APHA World Show. Featuring both collegiate (junior and senior) and youth (18 & under) divisions, the contest presented both team and individual awards in halter, performance, reasons and overall. Black Hawk College Team A took home the top spot in collegiate teams overall while Hunt County 4-H captured the overall top youth team victory.

With the help of some dedicated APHA sponsors, two lucky Amateur competitors walked away with incredible prizes September 25 at the 2018 APHA World Championship Show, just by entering Amateur classes at the event. Through a random drawing of entrants in select Amateur classes, Scott Woodall of Edmond, Oklahoma, took home a custom APHA Western performance saddle with an estimated value of $15,000. The saddle was provided by APHA World Show sponsor Harris Leather & Silverworks. In addition, every entry into all Amateur classes at the show qualified exhibitors for a random drawing for a three-horse slant gooseneck trailer with an estimated value of $20,000. The trailer was provided by Platinum Trailers in conjunction with APHA corporate partner Cowboy Trailer Sales. Denise Vick of Taylorsville, North Carolina, was the lucky winner.

The American Paint Horse Foundation also held the inaugural Marked For Greatness Gala on September 26 in conjunction with the World Show. This free event—held at Whiskey Ranch just 15 minutes from the show grounds—drew over 150 attendees ranging from World Show exhibitors to business partners, and offered food, fun and spirits while educating guests on the association’s upcoming move to the world-famous Fort Worth Stockyards.

“We couldn’t be more pleased with this year’s show,” said APHA Executive Director Billy Smith. “The increase in participation has been outstanding, but the increase in prize money back to the competitors has been unbelievable to watch. All of this combined confirms our members like what we are doing and that is what it’s all about.”

Watch for more World Show wrap-up information in the December 2018 issue of APHA’s official publication, the Paint Horse Journal.

The American Paint Horse Association is the world’s second-largest equine breed association, registering more than a million horses in 59 nations and territories since it was founded in 1962. Its mission is to promote, preserve and provide meaningful experiences with Paint Horses. For more information about the American Paint Horse Association, visit apha.com or connect with Paint Horse fans glob-
