2018 TULSA REINING CLASSIC – ONE FOR THE BOOKS

The Tulsa Reining Classic kicked off Monday, August 27 inside Expo Square in Tulsa, Oklahoma, and was a showstopper as promised. The event has continued to grow throughout the years and by the end of the show on Sunday, September 2, it booked the most stalls in its history in 2018.

Besides record breaking stall counts – as in years past – the venue is chock-full of something for everybody! From the Exhibitor’s Party on Wednesday night where a dinner was catered to all who wanted to attend, to the array of educational opportunities including a Youth Clinic presented by Sebastian and Melanie Petroll, a Non Pro Clinic put on by Kole Price, the View from the Judge’s Chair Clinic headed by Anne Salmon-Anderman, and a Show Management Seminar!

Tulsa Kid’s Time lead by daycare veteran, Bess Bouley was held daily Monday through Saturday from 1pm-4pm provided a fun learning environment for the young horse show attendees. Cowboy Church with Pastor Ed Harrison was held twice during the week so Christian horsemen and women wouldn’t miss their times of worship.

The Tulsa Reining Classic hosted meetings led by NRHA officials that included the Affiliate Summit Meeting and the OKYRHA hosted NRHYA Meeting and Ice Cream Social.

Duane Latimer Wins Hollywoodsinseltown Open Futurity

The Hollywoodsinseltown Open Futurity took the spotlight on Saturday at The Tulsa Reining Classic. Big stops, fast spins and flashy horses were showcased in the open futurity in the Ford Truck Arena where 116 entries battled for championship honors.

Duane Latimer turned in a crowd-pleasing run to score a 222.5 aboard Oh Starry Nite for owner XCS Ranch to claim the Hollywoodsinseltown Level 4 Open Futurity championship. Oh Starry Nite is a 2015 mare by Gunners Special Nite and out of Chic Olena Starbuck and earned $15,116 for her efforts in the futurity.

“It’s a good start [to the futurity season]. The destination is the fall at the NRHA Futurity, but she was excellent,” Latimer said. “I was very happy with her.”

Latimer said that going into the Tulsa Reining Classic, he had confidence in his mount; however, he added that you never know until you’re in the show pen.

“I hoped that she would be solid and she was. She turned good, I thought she stopped excellent - but that didn’t surprise me,” Latimer said. “I can’t pick her apart at all, she was excellent.”

PREMIUM PERFORMANCE

DEMANDS PREMIUM FORAGE

“The foundation of a healthy horse’s diet is high-quality forage. Finding exceptional forage can be difficult to do. Luckily, Standlee Premium Western Forage makes it convenient for all of us.”

Latimer emphasized his belief in his mare saying that she's been talented and easy to get along with - even if she does have a few idiosyncrasies - since the beginning.

"She's a little bit of a different cat, because she can get scared of something, but if you show it to her then she's good," Latimer said. "The same thing riding and training.

She's an over-achiever sometimes and you have to slow things down. She's been good."

Andrea Fappani rode Money Carlo (A Sparkling Vintage x Chex Drive) for owner C. Ross Conner to reserve championship with a score of 222, worth $9,201.

Ruben Vandorp Takes Level 3 in the Hollywoodstinseltown Open Futurity

In the Hollywoodstinseltown Level 3 Open Futurity Ruben Vandorp took Spooks Gotta Crush to a score of 220.5, worth $5,564. Vandorp said he was proud of his mount and has no regrets for the run with the 2015 stallion by Spooks Gotta Whiz out of Megas Sugar Baby.

"It feels awesome. It always feels good to win here," Vandorp said. "I was super happy with him." This is probably as good of an arena and as good of ground as you can get, and probably one of the deeper futurities of the year, so it gives you a pretty good idea of where you're going to be later in the year, so I felt really good about the horse and how he showed."

Vandorp said the Tulsa Reining Classic is one of his favorite shows and that he always enjoys the opportunity to show in Tulsa, but it's even better to win.

"It feels awesome," Vandorp said of his win. "It always feels good to win here. I was super happy with him."

Mathieu Buton rode Smart As Hail (Smart Spook x Hailstorm Jaci) to the Level 3 reserve championship, worth $3,387 for owner Addie Shelton.

Justin Mathison Tops the Level 2 Hollywoodstinseltown Open Futurity

In the Hollywoodstinseltown Level 2 Open Futurity, Justin Mathison rode Gunshine On Line for owner Mary Jansma to the championship with a score of 219.5, worth $2,379.

The 2015 mare by Shine On Line out of Guns R Reddy and has been with Mathison since the beginning of her training and has been promising from the start. That effortless training process translated into the show pen in Tulsa and resulted in the win.

Justin "Gunny" Mathison and Gunshine On Line

"It was easy-peasy," Mathison said of his run. "Nothing super crazy, but just sweet and consistent."

Mathison said that the win was an emotional one for him because of the relationship he has with the mare's career and legacy.

"She's by a stud that I bought for a customer of mine and she's out of a mare that I bought for the same customer," he said. "It feels good to have contributed that much to her being a part of my business and career."

The next stop for the mare is the High Roller Reining Classic and then the rest of her career will be planned one step at a time. Mathison is hopeful for her successful future, in part because of her willing personality.

Joe Schmidt wins the Level 1 Hollywoodtinseltown Open Futurity

Joe Schmidt and Codalicious won the Hollywoodtinseltown Open Futurity Level 1 championship, as well as the Level 2 reserve title for owner Barn 66 LLC for earnings of $2,307.

“She was very easy to prepare all week and just kept getting better,” Schmidt said. “She’s a really good minded mare and super fun to be around. She’s been really easy to train from the beginning.”

Now he’s already become an NRHA Million Dollar Sire.

David and Bonnie Silva are well known as breeders and owners in the reining industry. In fact, in 2012, David was honored as a NRHA Million Dollar Owner. He has been involved in the sport of reining for over 30 years and continues to be an active Non Pro competitor and enjoys the opportunity to give back to the industry that he loves.

The duo turned in a score of 218 to win the titles. Schmidt said he came into the Tulsa Reining Classic with high hopes for the talented mare.

For more information on Hollywoodtinseltown and Silva Reining Horses, visit the website at www.silvareining.com.

“I knew I had a shot at being decent, I just had to keep everything together,” Schmidt said. “I’ve been preparing for this and I made sure that I practiced to be ready, but I thought I had a chance at marking big.”

Todd Crawford rode Whizkeybenthellbound (Whizkey N Diamonds x Desire A Chic) to a score of 217.5 for the Level 1 reserve championship for owner MC Performance Horses and $523.

David and Bonnie Silva have been strong supporters of the Tulsa Reining Classic for years and in 2018 returned to sponsor this Open Futurity named for the Silva’s phenomenal stallion, Hollywoodtinseltown.

Hollywoodtinseltown, by $6 Million Sire Hollywood Dun It out of NRHA’s All-time Leading Mare, Miss Tinseltown, was destined to be a champion. Equipped with a royal pedigree, flashy good looks, exceptional movement, and an outstanding mind, he gained quick rewards in the show pen.

*Madison Steed and Into The Nite
Turnabout Farm Levels 4, 3, and 2 Non Pro Futurity Champions*

MADISON STEED WINS TURNABOUT FARM NON PRO FUTURITY

The Turnabout Farm Non Pro Futurity took center stage at The Tulsa Reining Classic on Friday. The Non Pro Futurity featured smart maneuvers and big stops while two competitors topped the day.

Madison Steed nearly swept the Turnabout Farm Non Pro Futurity taking home the championships in the Level 4, Level 3 and Level 2 from a score of 220.

Steed rode Into The Nite, a 3-year-old stallion by Gunners Special Nite out of Chexy Dun It, that's she's had since he was a yearling. Steed just came off of a collegiate championship prior to the Tulsa Reining Classic and says the success has been almost too good to believe.

"I don't think it's hit yet. He obviously was super good for me and just wanted to be my buddy in the arena and I couldn't have asked for anymore from him," Steed said.

Steed said her plan was to trust her mount and let him do his job in the pen. The strategy paid off with the big score and ultimately the championship titles. Steed says that although at first she was a little anxious once she got into a groove in the pen and Into The Nite settled in as well then she was able to relax and enjoy the moment.

"He really just gave me the confidence of an old broke show horse and he's been a lot of fun and I'm really thankful for him," she said.

While Steed credits her trainer Yonathan Baruch for both her and Into The Nite's success she was proud to say she helped in the training process.

"I've had him since he was a yearling and it was really fun to watch from the beginning to where we are now," she said. "So, it was cool to be a part of that process and see where we are from point A to point B.

"I rode [Into The Nite] for the summer of his 2-year-old year. This was a learning thing for me and I wanted to do as much as I could on him. I did the very first lead change on him, whether or not that was a good call or not I don't know," she said with a laugh, "but I can say I did that."

Michael Bulliard takes the win in Level 1 and Prime Time Turnabout Farm Non Pro Futurity

Michael Bulliard rode Ha Trashy Tune (Gunnatrashya x HA Chic A Tune) to the Turnabout Farm Non Pro Futurity Level 1 and Prime Time championships. In the Level 1 the duo marked a score of 218.5 for the win, while in the Prime Time they scored a 221.5. The 3-year-old gelding has been with Bulliard since February 2018 and says he really came into his own while his wife, Trudy, was riding him. In fact, he credits his wife to their success, saying she's the first to fully recognize the gelding's talents.

"Trudy said we haven't had a good one like this since 2009 (When Michael won the 2009 NRHA Futurity Non Pro Prime Time championship with My Royalty Chex), and Trudy said “[Ha Trashy Tune] was the best 2-year-old I’ve ever ridden since then,” Bulliard said adding that they took the chance and the rest is history.

“Even through all the little bumps we’ve been through with him, he was really always a pleasure to work with,” he continued. “I’ve grown into really, really liking him a lot.”

Bulliard says he’s excited to get the win and that it’s a testament to the quality of horseflesh he’s riding, adding that HA Trashy Tune is the highest top-tier stallion’s offspring he’s ever had.

“It means a lot when you’re trying to compete at this level,” Bulliard said of HA Trashy Tune’s pedigree. “I was pretty confident going in - all this week preparing and getting ready. I listened to the advice Steve had and applied it and the run today was just really fun. His engine got going and I felt a different horse.”

Bulliard thanked Steve Archer, his wife, Trudy, Brian Bell, Casey Deary and Todd Martin for their support.

The Turnabout Farm Non Pro Futurity offers $31,500 in added money. It is fitting that such a major event would be sponsored by Sarah Willeman’s Turnabout Farm as it is a name known for high achievement in the equestrian world.

Founded in 1994, Turnabout Farm was originally focused on the hunter and jumper world. Willeman competed successfully at the highest levels of the sport throughout the years.

From the beginning, the success of Turnabout Farm came from Willeman’s eye for quality horses, devotion to fundamental horsemanship, and commitment to each horse’s long-term well-being and athletic development. Those same standards were continued in 2005 when Willeman turned her attention to reining. To ensure the continuation of this formula for success, she based her reining horse breeding program in Aubrey, Texas with Tom McCutcheon Reining Horses.

Now, a short twelve years later, Turnabout Farm is also renowned as the home of exceptional reining horses and proven producers. Turnabout Farm’s star stallion, Gunners Special Nite, has over $235,000 in lifetime earnings and was the Individual and Team Gold Medalist at the 2010 World Equestrian Games as well as USEF Horse of the Year. He’s also a Million Dollar Sire!

ABBY LENGEL WINS TULSA REINING CLASSIC OPEN DERBY

The Tulsa Reining Classic Open Derby took the spotlight on Sunday. Big stops, smart maneuvers and stylish reining horses were shown in the open derby in the Ford Truck Arena where 83 entries battled for top honors.

Abby Lengel rode ARC Gunna Mark Ya to claim the Level 4 Open Derby championship, as well as the Level 3 Open Derby championship with a score of 226 - the highest marked score of the show.

Lengel had a big day in Tulsa with the win aboard the 2012 mare by Gunnatrashya out of Shiney Miss Marker that she’s ridden to other big titles such as the NRBC Level 2 Open championship and great success at the NRHA Derby. One of the things Lengel feels most proud of is how the mare has matured with her.

“She’s felt so good. At home she’s been riding better than she ever has,” Lengel said. “She’s totally different in the show pen and that’s been one of the hardest things about her

- that she's so much different when you're showing her than when you're riding her, but she's felt so good [lately]."

Lengel picked up a total of $11,576. "She turned the best she ever has, didn't have any penalties and she stopped really, really good," Lengel said. "It's hard to find a place to complain. She was with me the whole time."

Lengel said she feels

*Abby Lengel and ARC Gunna Mark Ya
Levels 4 and 3 Open Derby Champions*

blessed to get the win with this mare in the last year of her derby career.

"I had the attitude of she only has a couple of shows left, so I'm not holding anything back. I've worked hard on her, and I just wanted to get the most out of it," Lengel said. "She just let me show her. God has blessed us with her and these runs have been pretty amazing."

Debbie Brown on Spooks Lil Princess wins Levels 1 & 2 Open Derby Championships

*Debbie Brown and Spooks Lil Princess
Levels 2 and 1 Open Derby Champions*

Debbie Brown rode Spooks Lil Princess to the Tulsa Reining Classic Open Derby Level 2 and Level 1 championships with a score of 221 for owner Teresa Grier. Brown has only had a couple of months to prep the 2014 mare for the Tulsa Reining Classic.

"She was really good," Brown said. "The biggest thing I wanted to get done today was to trust her in her run. She's been riding good all week and so I wanted to make sure I trusted her and showed her [correctly]."

Brown said she was proud of the 4-year-old mare by Smart Spook out of Slide By Shiner for showing up in top form and was pleased with their success together in the pen. The duo picked up $2,483 for their efforts in Tulsa.

Jason Vanlandingham and Gunna Spark Conquer the Novice Horse Open Derby

Jason Vanlandingham and Gunna Spark (Gunnatrashya x Roylenas Spark) scored a 221.5 to win the Novice Horse Open Derby Level 4 championship, worth $3,551 for owner Rosanne Sternberg.

Vanlandingham has had the 4-year-old stallion since he was a yearling and taken him through his training until Sternberg purchased him. Now Vandlandingham and Gunna Spark are having success in the show pen.

"He showed well, there's a few things we have to work on; I wish he would have had a little more cadence in his turns, but other than that the run was great,” Vanlandingham said.

Cade McCutcheon and Me and Julio SmartPak Non Pro Level 4 Derby Champions

CADE MCCUTCHEON WINS SMARTPAK NON PRO DERBY

Cade McCutcheon took home the championship in the SmartPak Non Pro Level 4 Derby when he claimed the win aboard Me And Julio (Colonels Nite Special x Darlins Not Painted) with a score of 220. The 2014 gelding turned in a big performance for McCutcheon, who says it was a confidence booster for their future.

“We bought him after the NRBC this year and we were still getting to know each other at the NRHA Derby and we had a little trouble,” McCutcheon said. “So, it was good to get this run before we go into the majors next year and get that confidence and get going together.”

McCutcheon and Me And Julio earned $4,967 for their efforts in Tulsa. Last year McCutcheon’s mom, Mandy McCutcheon took home the Non Pro Derby win and Cade says it’s a good feeling to trade the win with his mom.

Gina Schumacher rode Slideomatic Spook (Spooks Gotta Whiz x Shiney Diamond Lady) owned by XCS Ranch to a score of 219 for the SmartPak Non Pro Derby Level 4 Reserve Championship.

Baily Kolsun Takes the SmartPak Non Pro Level 3 Derby Co-Championship

Bailey Kolsun and Diamond Studded Guns (Gun-natrashya x Like To Flo) marked a 218.5 to share the co-championship in the Level 3. They also took third in the Level 4.

Kolsun purchased the 6-year-old gelding three years ago which has been an easy horse for Kolsun to team with and show.

*Bailey Kolsun and Diamond Studded Guns
SmartPak Non Pro Level 3 Co-Champions*

“He was awesome today, he was on his game,” Kolsun said. “He’s a very talented horse and he’s been awesome for me for years.”

The win brings Kolsun confidence going into the High Roller Reining Classic. Together, the team earned $4,164 for their efforts in Tulsa.

Anne-Marie Burns Shares the SmartPak Non Pro Level 3 Co-Championship: and Ties Herself in the Levels 2 and 1 Championships

It was an epic day for Anne-Marie Burns when she shared the championship in the SmartPak Non Pro Level 3 Derby with Bailey Kolson, plus shared the win with herself on two different horses in the Level 2 and Level 1. Burns also took home the championship in the Novice Horse Non Pro Derby.

Burns said the win is extra special, because of the year she spent working on herself.

“Last year I was plagued with pilot errors so I was so pleased to get them both shown today,” Burns said. “It’s been a long year and this is my last class this season, so it’s a great way to end it.”

Aboard REF Sturgis (Custom Harley x Chics Time To Rein) Burns marked a 218.5 to share the co-championship in the Level 3, Level 2, Level 1 and took the championship in the Novice Horse Non Pro.

The 2012 gelding has had a long road to the winner’s stage. He was injured after the first show of his 3-year-old year and put on stall rest for an entire year. Burns says she was able to keep the faith and REF Sturgis pulled through to

*Anne Marie Burns, REF Sturgis and Lil Jersey

Novice Horse Non Pro Derby Champions (REF Sturgis)*

Riding Lil Jersey (Yellow Jersey x Whiz N Darlin) Burns shared the win with herself in the Level 2 and Level 1 with a score of 218.5. Burns purchased Lil Jersey last year and said their relationship hasn’t been as easy as with REF Sturgis.

“Lil Jersey and I have taken a little longer to make friends,” she said with a laugh. “Again, I was so happy to get him shown today. I showed him first and he did so well. I was very excited.”

become the horse he is now.

“We brought him back after a year in the stall and four months of being turned out and he was just awesome,” Burns said adding that he continued to build strength in the show pen. “This year he made the finals in the NRBC in the Level 1 and 2, and he made the Derby finals in levels 3, 2 and 1. I made pilot errors in both finals. So, it is very satisfying this being his last derby that I was able to get him shown.”

Jillane Brown tops the SmartPak Non Pro Derby Prime Time

Jillane Brown won the SmartPak Non Pro Prime Time championship from a score of 220 aboard Xtra Voodoo Sailor. The 2014 mare by Shiners Voodoo Dr out of Always Sailing Smart also led Brown to the Novice Horse Non Pro reserve championship and third in the Level 2 and Level 1.

“She’s an amazing horse,” Brown said. “She circled really good for me and her turn arounds are great and her rundowns are probably the best. She’s a really big stopper. [This win] means a lot to me. We got checks in all the divisions, so I’m really pleased with her this week.”

Brown earned $2,238 in Tulsa and said it marked her biggest win on Xtra Voodoo Sailor thus far.

For a total of $858, Frederick Christen won the Prime Time reserve championship riding Blonde Ambishen (Shiners Voodoo Dr x Relax-in With A Bud) to a 217.5 as well as third place riding Xtra Voodoo Step (Wimpys Little Step x Voodoo Chic) from a score of 217.

VANDORP AND CALCAGNINI CLAIM EQUO AND TAMARACK RANCH DEVELOPING HORSE FUTURITY CHAMPIONSHIPS

The Tulsa Reining Classic continued with the advent of two highly competitive but separate futurities.

Ruben Vandorp and Spooks Gotta Shoot (Spooks Gotta Gun x Lipstick Lies), owned by Laurie Hauck, topped the Equo Developing Horse Futurity in both Level 4 and Level 3. Vandorp and Spooks Gotta Shoot scored a 218 to claim the championships.

Vandorp and 3-year-old stallion work well as a team despite their short partnership together and their showing in Tulsa promises a bright future.

“We’re just getting to know each other,” Vandorp said. “I had a blast on him. He did everything I asked him to do and I was so happy; he felt like a real show horse in there.”

Vandorp says the win is special for him, because Wednesday was the first time Hauck had the opportunity to watch him show, which made the win especially emotional for the team. All totaled they collected $5,586.

Stefano Calcagnini and KR Crackerjack won the championship in the Tamarack Ranch Developing Horse Futurity in both the Level 4 and Level 3 with a score of 219.5 for owner Donadeo Stables ASD.

For their first time in the show pen Calcagnini says he couldn’t be more proud of the 3-year-old stallion by Smart Spook out of A Ruf Mistress.

“My run was consistent. I just tried to stay out of his way,” Calcagnini said. “He was pretty focused and went through the pattern really easy.”

For Calcagnini it was two in a row as he won the Developing Horse Futurity in 2017 as well. He and KR Crackerjack earned a total of $5,603 for their efforts in the Tamarack Ranch Developing Horse Futurity.

Nicole Schneider-West takes Levels 2 and 1 in the Equo Developing Horse Futurity

The Equo Developing Horse Futurity Levels 2 and 1 champ was Nicole Schneider-West riding Donttinkerwithmygun, owned by Triple U Quarter Horses. The duo marked a 217 to take the win.

“This horse can really, really stop,” Schneider-Westset said admiringly. “She’s a pretty special mare with a big heart and always tries.”

Schneider-Westset said she took every maneuver one at a time and focused on showing the 3-year-old mare correctly.

“I tried to show the horse I had and not over-show her and it worked out,” she said.

Schneider-Westset and Donttinkerwithmygun also took home the reserve championships in the Equo Developing Horse Futurity Level 4 and Level 3. All totaled the duo banked $5,444.

Patrice St Onge claims the Tamarack Ranch Level 2 Developing Horse Futurity

Patrice St Onge and Little Thunder Whiz topped the Tamarack Ranch Developing Futurity Level 2 with a score of 217.

The duo’s first time in the show pen together started rather conservatively; however, they finished strong for the win. St Onge said the 3-year-old by Who Whiz It out of Little Smart Jac came into his stride during the run.

“I could have trusted him a little bit more in his turn around – that was my fault,”

*Patrice St. Onge and Little Thunder Whiz
Tamarack Ranch Level 2 Developing Horse Futurity Champions*

St Onge admitted. “The more he went the more I felt like he was really hooked up and doing his job, so I just relaxed and let him do his job and he got better and better. I’m very, very excited about it.”

St Onge has had Little Thunder Whiz since he was a yearling and after this performance is hopeful for his future. The duo has a great start to their career picking up $1,310 for owner Cheryl Lauder.

Mike Flarida Tops the Tamarack Ranch Developing Horse Level 1 Futurity

Mike Flarida and Xtra Little Playgirl scored a 216 to claim the Tamarack Ranch Developing Horse Futurity Level 1 championship worth $792 for owner Patrice Schreiber.

Flarida took the opportunity to school the 3-year-old mare by Wimpys Little Step out of Playin For Crome in Tuesday’s schooling class, which boosted his confidence going into Wednesday’s show.

“I let her down a little bit in my last stop, because I kind of leaned back, I didn’t look forward and I leaned back,” Flarida admitted, “but she was good everywhere else. She showed really true.”

Xtra Little Playgirl’s joyful personality made an impression on Florida, which he credits to the ability to enjoy riding her and showing her well.

“She’s probably one of the most fun horses I’ve show in a long time. She’s very easy to show and she’s got a lot of personality,” he said. “She’s an easy horse to get along with.”

JOSH CRAWLEY WINS ADEQUAN USEF OPEN CHAMPIONSHIP

Friday night’s competition was filled with national and international competition when the USEF Youth and USEF Open championships were showcased. The riders dazzled the crowd with big stops, fast spins and smooth moves. Both the professionals and the young guns of the sport had the opportunity to show off their skills.

Josh Crawley and Spin N Wimp (Wimpys Little Step x Spinning Beauty) won the Adequan USEF Open championship with a score of 73.5 for owner Denise Hobbs. Crawley says it’s special to compete and win for your country, but the win was made even more noteworthy because of the team he has on his side.

*Josh Crawley and Spin N Wimp
Adequan USEF Open Champions*

“Denise has shown Spin N Wimp here in the Green Reiner a couple of times this week and I just cannot say enough about this horse; he is extremely honest and just went in there and tried his heart out every single time,” Crawley said. “We’re all very, very blessed to be a part of this horse’s career. He’s truly an amazing individual.”

Shane Allen Brown took home the silver medal riding

Give Me Starbucks (Walla Walla Whiz x Starbucks Rosy Blend) while Emily Emerson rode Wind Er Up Wimp (Wimpys Little Step x Wind Her Up Doc) to the bronze medal.

Jack Medows earns Gold in the USEF Youth 19-21 Championships

Jack Medows and Surpizentheprincess (Jerry Lees Surprise x Princess In Diamonds) to the USEF Youth 19-21 gold medal. The duo has had a lot of success together in the show pen including an NRHA Derby Level Non Pro championship, NRBC Non Pro championships and other big accolades.

“This is a mare I’ve shown a lot,” Medows said. “She was pretty good tonight. It’s really exciting to get her back out and start showing her again.”

Cade McCutcheon Keeps USEF Youth 14-18 Championship for the Second Year in a Row

Cade McCutcheon rode REF Sturgis, owned by Anne-Marie Burns to the USEF Youth 14-18 gold medal with a score of 218.5 to defend his title from 2017. Cade expressed his pride in his mount's consistency and talent saying Friday's run was the first time he's ridden the 6-year-old since last year's USEF Youth class.

"It's always fun to win something for USA," Cade said. "He's a very easy horse. He's laid back and quiet."

*Cade McCutcheon and REF Sturgis
Adequan USEF Youth 14-18 Champions*

The first time I've rode him since last year when I won this was last night - I've only rode him to show him in this class. He's real easy to get along with and made it easy on me."

REF Sturgis is by Custom Harley out of Chics Time To Rein and not only earned McCutcheon the 2017 USEF gold medal, but also led his owner, Burns, to big wins at the 2018 Tulsa Reining Classic SmartPak Non Pro Derby on Thursday.

Carlee McCutcheon gets the Gold in the USEF Youth 13 & Under Championships

Carlee McCutcheon rode Katy Dun It (Dun Gotta Gun x Dun Kissed Peaches) to the USEF 13 & Under gold medal with a score of 211.5. Katy Dun It is owned by Shawn Stratman and Carlee said the mare showed well on Friday. The young McCutcheon was pleased to improve from last year's USEF championship where she finished second.

"I was a little too 'Come on, let's go, let's get this,'" Carlee said with a laugh, "but she was really good and tried hard and we ended up better than I thought."

Raeanna Thayn and Coded N Color (Electric Code x RT Missy Olena) took the silver medal with a score of 204.5.

Larcombe and Pulley Share the win in the Novice Horse Open

*Shauna Larcombe rode Shining Spook Dancer
Novice Horse Open Co-Champions*

In the Novice Horse Open Shauna Larcombe and Sean Pulley shared the win with scores of 143.

Larcombe rode Shining Spook Dancer (Smart Spook x Shining Dancer) to the co-championship for owner Rosanne Sternberg LLC. The 2013 gelding has been with Larcombe for a year and a half a few circles on him before showing. "It was a good test for him and he did well for me."

Pulley rode Spooks Shiner a 2014 son of Smart Spook out of Ebony Shines to the co-championship. Pulley says Spooks Shiner greatly resembles his parents in terms of success and talent and was proud of his showing in Tulsa.

*Sean Pulley rode Spooks Shiner and they've been progressing well together. Larcombe and Shining Spook also topped the Novice Horse Open Level 2 with a score of 143.

"I just wanted to make it easy for him," she said adding that due to showing another horse, she only had time to lope

"I'm pretty stoked," Pulley said. "He's a horse that keeps going in the pen and wants to do his thing and that's pretty neat to have a horse like that; he's been really fun."

Dana Pastorino Makes a Clean Sweep of Rookie Classes

Dana Pastorino riding Mister Nicashine (Mister Nicadual x Shining Miss) swept the Rookie classes taking home the win in the Rookie Levels 1 and 2 and Rookie Prime Time with a score of 141.

Pastorino said the win was made extra special because three months ago the 4-year-old nearly died from an episode that resulted in colic surgery.

"I got teary eyed when I landed in Tulsa on Saturday thinking, 'my gosh, I almost didn't even have a horse to ride here,'" she said.

Healthy and ready to show Mister Nicashine did well according to Pastorino who says she's happy, but there's always room for improvement.

"The run was good. I've been working really, really hard on keeping him straight in between me, because he keeps drifting out and everybody knows you can't stop well if they're not straight," she said. "That's been hard,

Mitchell Scores Big in Novice Horse Non Pro Level 2 Kulmer takes Level 1

In the Novice Horse Non Pro Level 1 Morris Kulmer and Nvr What A Lucky Joe (Lil Joe Cash x What A Lucky Hit) topped the field with a score of 140.5.

Kulmer admitted that Wednesday's run wasn't as perfect as he would have liked.

"It wasn't my best run, for sure. Matter of fact, I didn't think I'd be [collecting awards] today," Kulmer said. "I was getting ready for the derby and I always like to get in a class before a derby run. It was pretty good, but we have some things to work on." Still, the 4-year-old pulled through to take the win and make his owner proud.

Steven Mitchell took home the top two places in the Novice Horse Non Pro Level 2 aboard Tinsletown Tuffly and Playgun Chic Olena, respectively. The wins were special for Mitchell, because both horses have been with his family for seven years and his kids typically are the ones riding these two particular horses.

*Steven Mitchell and Tinsletown Tuffly

*Morris Kulmer rode Nvr What A Lucky Joe

Tinsletown Tuffly is a 2011 gelding by Hollywoodstintown out of CT Raffian and does well in the show pen for both Mitchell and his children. On Wednesday, he showed up in top form for Mitchell and scored a 142.5.

"My kids always show him and they are usually the only ones that show him and I never get to, so I thought, 'you know what I'm going to show him,'" Mitchell said. "So it was fun, because all my life this is all I've done and I love the competition."

Playgun Chic Olena is a 2005 gelding by Smart Chic Olena out of Mamas Packin and scored a 142. Typically the gelding shows with Mitchell's son in the short-stirrup classes.

"We've owned this horse probably seven years and my boy has been showing him... [the kids] haven't gotten here yet, so I snuck him in the pen," Mitchell said with a laugh. "He's kind of tricky, because he's old so the biggest thing is just to get him to not think about what you're going to do. It was good though and he stayed in the show pen."

Stephen Archer Crowned Open Ancillary Champion

*Stephen Archer and Smart Stepin Lena
Open Champions*

In the Open classes held in the Mustang arena competitors showed up in top form to claim honors and prizes. Steve Archer and Smart Stepin Lena (Wimpys Little Step x Smart Shiny Lena) took home the win with a score of 144. Owned by Carolyn Tellepsen, Smart Stepin Lena has been in the hands of Archer for a little over a year and is proving his worth in the show pen.

"We're trying for the [Affiliate Regional Championships], so we're going to do that tomorrow and I'm going to show him in the derby on Sunday," Archer said. "He's a special horse."

tion x Coronas Major) topped the Intermediate Open with a score of 146. Wednesday's class was the first time Giesbrecht had the opportunity to ride the 2012 gelding owned by Don Byrne.

"I was happy with the run. I'm going to show him on Sunday, so I was just kind of testing him," Giesbrecht said. "He showed how I wanted him to, so I was real happy."

*Sean Pulley rode Setting Off Spookles
Limited Open Champions*

Sean Pulley and Setting Off Spookles took home the win in the Limited Open with a score of 143.5. The 5-year-old mare has been with Pulley since July, but Tulsa is their first show together.

"She's a nice, gritty mare and she's pretty fun to ride and show she's pretty athletic and talented and just pretty cool," Pulley said. "I'm pretty excited to go on with her next year."

Sheely and Prior: Rookie Professional Co-Champions

*Courtney Sheely rode Taylor Made Jac
Rookie Professional Co-Champions*

Courtney Sheely and Jess Prior shared the championship in the Rookie Professional with scores of 139.5.

Sheely rode the 15-year-old Taylor Made Jac, whom Sheely says allows her to be confident in the show pen. Sheely used the Open classes to prep the veteran reiner for tomorrow's classes.

"He's been around the block and today I was just taking him in to see how he felt in there, because I have a Green Reiner that's going to show him tomorrow," she said. "He was good, he's a simple as they come. He's a gem that's for sure."

Prior rode Take A Boww, owned by Tim McQuay, to the co-championship. Prior had been working recently on her lead changes and took the opportunity Wednesday to make a laid-back, but correct run.

"I was just trying to have a nice, relaxed run," Prior said.

“I schooled her yesterday and she was going a bit more than I was happy with how relaxed she was.” I wanted her to, so today I was just working on leads and I

Felicia VaughnStuhr Sweeps Green Reiner Levels 1 and 2

Felicia VaughnStuhr and Customs Pistol Pete (Custom Pistol x Docs Lil Pepolena) swept the Green Reiner Levels 1 and 2 with their score of 71. The 7-year-old owned by Fred Berschauer resides at Right Lead Ranch and VaughnStuhr says he’s been a great horse for her. Wednesday marked the team’s first time at the Tulsa Reining Classic and they are hopeful for their future.

“I’m excited,” VaughnStuhr said. “He’s a great horse and he showed well, so I’m excited to show the horse out.”

excited to show again tomorrow.”

AQHA All Age Reining champ from Monday and Tuesday’s classes, Trevor Dare rode 4-year-old Xtra Magic Doctor to the win.

“That horse is just here to prepare for the [High Roller Reining Classic],” he said. “He’s been a really good horse for us. I needed to make some adjustments on myself and I think it helped

Paul Queen tops the Non Pro Ancillary

Paul Queen riding Outta Dough (Gallo Del Cielo x Dough Olena) scored a 144 to top the Non Pro held in the Mustang arena for owner Dorothy Queen. Paul has a long relationship with the 13-year-old that shines through in the show pen. Outta Dough was first Queen’s mother’s horse, but soon she handed over the reins and the rest is history.

“He’s been in the family a long time. My mom rode him for a long time after Mike Berg trained him. I had just gotten out of school and asked Mom if I could show him and she said ‘he’s yours,’” Paul said. “I don’t show him that much, but he’s just as honest as he ever was.”

The duo also took home the reserve titles in the Intermediate and Limited Non Pro. All totaled they earned $1,102 for their efforts on Thursday.

McKinnon Larcombe and Taris Dreamer topped the Intermediate Non Pro and Limited Non Pro with a score of 146. The duo has taken home big wins together, but Larcombe says Thursday’s performance was their best so far.

“Everything put together was the best it’s ever been. It’s the highest I’ve ever scored on him,” Larcombe said. “Everything was as good as it could have possibly been.”

*McKinnon Larcombe rode Taris Dreamer
Intermediate and Limited Non Pro Champions*

Taris Dreamer is by Magnum Chic Dream out of Taris San Cutter and owned by Ron Thompson. The 9-year-old led Larcombe to a total of $738 on Thursday. Larcombe says over the past several years they’ve build a strong relationship and Thursday’s wins gave her a confidence boost for the remainder of the Tulsa Reining Classic.

“We’ve been working a lot on his run downs. He’s been shown so much in his life that he’s so experienced in that section that he thinks ‘Oh, I’ll show you the way, kid,’” Larcombe said with a laugh. “Today he let me pilot him instead of him piloting me, so I was very happy with him.”

Keri Sigman had a great showing in Tulsa on Thursday taking home the championship in the Non Pro Prime Time with a score of 143.5 aboard Wimpys Quixote Cody.

*Keri Sigman rode Wimpys Quixote Cody

“The run was pretty good today, there were a few little bobbles, but he tried really hard, so it was fun,” Sigman said.

The 12-year-old gelding by Wimpys Little Step out of Cody Kay Quiote has been with Sigman since the end of his 3-year-old year and Sigman says he holds a special place in her heart. On top of the Prime Time win Wimpys Quixote Cody also earned the reserve co-championship in the Non Pro, tied for third in the Intermediate and Limited classes.

Jared Leclair deemed Open Ancillary and ARC Open Champion

In the Open ancillary and Affiliate Regional Championships Open classes Jared Leclair and Smart Voodoo Doctor (Shiners Voodoo Dr x Smart As Sister) took home the NRHA Open and ARC Open wins from a score of 146.5 for owner Dean Spence.

Stephen Archer and Smart Stepin Lena followed up their Wednesday wins with the Intermediate Open and ARC Intermediate Open wins on Thursday. The duo scored a 143.5. Smart Stepin Lena is by Wimpys Little Step out of Smart Shiny Lena and owned by Carolyn Tellepsen and has been a standout horse for the Archer-Tellepsen partnership.

“Everything was good, I missed my middle stop a little bit, but that was my fault,” Archer admitted. “He was good, he’s always good.”

Nick Valentine and Mandy Faust shared the win in the

*Jared Leclair and Smart Voodoo Doctor
Open and ARC Champions*

NRHA Limited Open ancillary class with scores of 143.

Valentine rode Double Loaded Gun (Colonels Smokin Gun x Anniegityergun) to the win for owners Doug and Deborah Forzani. Valentine has only had the stallion for one month and used the Tulsa Reining Classic as a trial to understand the horse’s riding style.

“I brought him here for him to get to know me and for me to get to know him and test him out,” Valentine said. “He’s seasoned, he knows his job, so we’re just testing the waters to see what we can do together.”

*Stephen Archer and Smart Stepin Lena
Intermediate Open and Int. Open ARC Champions*

Faust rode Highlanders Scandal (Conquistador Whiz x HR Short Wheel Base), owned by Barn 66 LLC, to the win. Faust doesn’t normally show the 9-year-old mare, but says Sally Berg gave her the opportunity. Faust also shared the co-championship in the NRHA Buffington will take the 7-year-old gelding into the show pen Friday for the youth classes.

Argentero rode Skeattle Slew (Skeets Peppy x Starlite N Oak) owned by Ginger Dwyer to the win.

In the NRHA Rookie Professional division Kaleigh Geringer shared the win with Faust with a score of 143 aboard Lil Coded Jac owned by Susan Meyer. The duo also took home the ARC Rookie Professional win. Lil Coded Jac is by Jacs Electric Spark out of Hot Coded Candy.

Todd Martin rode Conquistador Rox ARC Limited Open Co-Champions

The ARC Limited Open champions were Todd Martin and Matteo Argentero with scores of 139.5.

Martin rode Conquistador Rox (Conquistador Whiz x Roxie Boom) for owner Allison Buffington, who is one of Martin’s youth competitors.

“[Buffington] is showing him in the affiliate championships and I school him throughout the year and I got qualified on accident I didn’t realize that we got qualified,” Martin said with a laugh, “so we brought him up here and I got

“He’s an awesome horse he’s so cool and super honest in the show pen,” Geringer said. “He was really with me and really quiet today, the run felt really good.”

Jennifer Richards wins Green Reiner Level 1 and Level 2 Championships

Jennifer Richards topped the Green Reiner Levels 1 and 2 riding Gunna Spook You with a score of 71. Richards said she’s been working on stepping up her game with the 7-year-old gelding by Gunnatrashya out of Sugarplum Chic and accomplished her goal on Thursday.

“We’ve been trying to challenge the pattern a little bit more, so today I kind of

Jared Leclair earns Top Honors in Novice Horse Open Level 2 Gabe Hutchins wins Novice Horse Open Level 1

*Gabe Hutchins rode Shinhollywoodshine
Novice Horse Open Level 1 Champions*

*Jared Leclair rode Smart Voodoo Doctor
Novice Horse Open Level 2 and ARC Nov. Horse L2 Champions*

Friday featured the Novice Horse Open Levels 1 and 2 plus the Novice Horse Open Level 1 and 2 Affiliate Regional Championships in the Super Duty Arena, while the Mustang arena featured the Rookie and Rookie ARC classes at the Tulsa Reining Classic. Top riders earned honors as champs were crowned.

Gabe Hutchins rode Shinhollywoodshine for Tamarack Ranch to a score of 143.5 for the win in the Novice Horse Open Level 1. Shinhollywoodshine has been a great mount, which Hutchins hopes continues to improve.

“My plan is for him to be competitive in the Level 4 in the derbies next year, so it’s been nice to be able to come here this week, do a little schooling, show him today and then I plan to put him in the Novice derby on Sunday.” Hutchins said, adding that his mount performed well in Friday’s class.

*Kristen Avila and Gunnerspecialplayboy
ARC Novice Horse Open Level 1*

Jared Leclair topped the Novice Horse Open Level 2 and the Novice Horse Open Level 2 ARC with a score of 145.5 riding Smart Voodoo

Doctor for owner Dean Spence. Smart Voodoo Doctor is by Shiners Voodoo Dr out of Smart As Sister and has led Leclair to a lot of success including a qualification to the NRHA Open Futurity Finals.

“I was just kind of showing him to qualify him for the affiliate [championships] so that I can show him at the Futurity,” Leclair said. “He was really good to show and has been really good to show and he’s just a really fun horse.”

Kristen Avila rode Gunnerspecialplayboy (Gunnars Special Nite x Shamless Playgirl) to a score of 143 to win the Novice Horse Open Level 1 ARC. Avila said the 5-year-old has been with her for about year and was a little behind in his training and maturity.

“He was a little bit behind and he wasn’t even ready to show until about May of this year,” Avila said. “That was the first time we’ve shown him and so we’ve been doing all the novice events with him.”

Despite his late start Avila says his calm personality makes him a joy to ride and be around.

“He’s just a big dog. My son gets to ride him a little bit with my husband, because he’s quiet and nothing really bothers him,” she said. “He’s just kind of an easy-going fella.”

Kalena Reynolds tops ARC Rookie Levels 1 and 2 Wendy Hausner takes Ancillary Rookie Levels 1 and 2

*Kalena Reynolds and Gun Whiz It
ARC Rookie 1 and 2 Champions*

The rookies of the sport were highlighted Friday at the Tulsa Reining Classic. Two riders dominated the class with their flashy reining horses.

Wendy Hausner took the win in the Rookie Level 1 and Level 2 classes with a score of 142.5 riding HQH Crazy Rich (Slip Slydun Away x Sparklin Chic).

Kalena Reynolds took home the wins in the ARC Rookie

1 and ARC Rookie 2 classes with a score of 141.5 riding Gun Whiz It (Colonels Smoking Gun x Roll Whiz It). 7-year-old mare had her for 2 years.

“She was really smooth, she felt really good,” Reynolds said of her run, which gives her a confidence boost going into Saturday’s classes.

Barbara Biddix and Zins Smart Peppy (Tejons Peppy Doc x Smart Rowdy Lady) took home the Rookie Prime Time win with a score of 137.5. The 11-year-old gelding has been with Biddix for four years and after a lot of hard work they were able to pull together to get this win.

“It was just a nice run. He didn’t stop like I like him to stop, he’s a great stopper, but we had a good run,” she said.

Biddix credits her trainer Brian Bell with their success saying that “Zin” was a bit of a handful before Bell got him show-ready.

How has reining impacted your life?

It has impacted it tremendously. It has given me something to put my time into, and gives me something to be responsible for other than myself.

Tell us about your trainer?

My trainer is Brandon Brant and he's a hoot to be around. He's fun. He's always joking around and asking me if I'm grouchy – whether I am or not!

What do you want to be when you grow up?

I'd love to be a top Non Pro or Open rider.

How has your trainer impacted that decision?

He thinks I should stay a Non Pro for a while - which I agree! I've got a lot of work to do, but he helps me with whatever horse I'm on, and encourages me to do my best.

Tell us more about where you hope to see yourself in five to ten years?

I'd love to see myself as a Top Non Pro and then gradually get into the Open - hopefully, a top rider. I want to be with the best.

What is your advice to younger riders?

Don't slack off! I can always tell when I haven't been riding as much as I should. It doesn't always show up at the barn, but it definitely does in the show pen.

STARS FROM ACROSS THE GLOBE FLY THE FLAG FOR EQUESTRIAN SPORT AT FEI WORLD EQUESTRIAN GAMES™ TRYON 2018 OPENING CEREMONY

The FEI World Equestrian Games™ Tryon 2018 were officially opened with a stylish two-hour ceremony at the Tryon International Equestrian Center (TIEC) on Tuesday, September 11, 2018.

Some of equestrian sport's most famous names took a central role for their countries during the traditional parade of flags that highlighted proceedings at a packed Tryon Stadium before a crowd of athletes, grooms, National Federation staff, and spectators. Rising country musician Joe Lasher opened for Grammy-nominated artist Hunter Hayes, while athlete representatives were welcomed into Tryon Stadium to officially commence the start of competition.

The FEI World Equestrian Games™ Tryon 2018 began with a spectacular Opening Ceremony, as competition is set to commence tomorrow and continue through Sunday, September 23 at Tryon International Equestrian Center.

Carrying the American flag was dressage sensation Laura Graves, who said, "Tonight is really special for me. It is September 11, so getting the chance to raise this flag was very emotional."

"I am looking forward to a really great next few days of competition. It is going to be exciting for us in Dressage and it looks like all the horses have a terrific venue and great facilities. We are ready to get going,” she continued.

Triple Olympic Team Eventing Gold medalist Andrew Hoy had the honor for Australia and he said, “Last time I rode in a World Eventing Championship in America it was in 1978, so it is absolutely wonderful to be back.

“It is a great honor to be a flag-bearer for my country. I’m looking forward to getting out there and the competition starting.”

Renowned country music artist, Hunter Hayes, played for an enthusiastic crowd in Tryon Stadium.

Dressage rider Julio Mendoza, who represents Ecuador, but lives relatively locally to the venue, added, “I’m really excited to be here in Tryon. This is my first FEI World Equestrian Games and I am beyond happy to be here representing my country and to have such a great opportunity. To be in the same ring with such amazing athletes and great horses is so exciting and I can’t wait for the competition to get started tomorrow,” he concluded.

Eventing icon Ingrid Klimke (GER), a winner of numerous major championship medals, did the honors for Germany and she commented, “I am really happy to be here with my horse. We are ready for the next adventure. We have a wonderful venue and I am very proud to be here and be a part of it all.”

China’s Alex Hua Tian is also set to be among the field when Eventing gets under way on Thursday.

“I am here in the U.S. for the first time ever, competing in my second FEI World Equestrian Games. It’s the largest equestrian festival in the world, so to fly the flag for China for the first time ever in Eventing is a wonderful thing.”

Meydan Endurance Set To Launch Competition at FEI World Equestrian Games™ Tryon 2018

Meydan Endurance will have the honor of launching the eighth FEI World Equestrian Games™ Tryon 2018 (WEG) on Wednesday, September 12, at Tryon International Equestrian Center (TIEC) located in North Carolina, USA. Eight different equestrian disciplines governed by the Fédération Equestre Internationale (FEI) will be showcased throughout the duration of the two-week event, which will conclude on Sunday, September 23.

The discipline of Endurance takes center-stage from before sunrise, beginning at 6:30 a.m. EST, when competitors tackle a course of 100 miles (160 kilometers) that will traverse through the states of both North and South Carolina.

An impressive 40 countries will be represented during Meydan Endurance competition, which will begin at 6:30 a.m. EST.

More than 100 athletes from 40 countries will head into the countryside with the winner expected to return home and across the finish line later in the evening.

The long-distance competition, viewed as the ultimate test of the partnership between horse and rider, is against the clock and tests speed and stamina of both horse and rider, challenging each combination to ensure an effective use of pace and navigational skills of undulating terrains. Mandatory veterinary inspections are required following each course loop, where horses are cooled, their heart rates monitored, and jogged for soundness in order to further continue. Rest periods are also a key aspect of the competition, ensuring horse and rider welfare throughout the 100-mile test.

The Tryon 2018 track will feature the region’s natural and spectacular terrain, starting and finishing on the main TIEC property.

The horse inspection took place on Tuesday afternoon, with a bumper nominated entry list being highlighted by defending champion HH Sheikh Hamdan bin Mohammed Al Maktoum from the UAE, who won the world title in Normandy four years ago.

A strong finish is also expected of Spain’s Jaume Puntigons, who starred when his country won 2010 Team Endurance Gold and is aiming for a top finish in this year’s competition.

Host Nation Aiming To Rein In Their Rivals At Tryon 2018

It should come as no surprise whatsoever that the United States remains Johnson Controls Reining’s dominant force, which begins competition as one of three disciplines showcased at the venue tomorrow.

Other countries have barely had a look-in since the WEG first welcomed the discipline of Reining during the early 1990s. The United States has won a remarkable seven titles, with only Canada breaking that sequence 12 years ago.

Cade McCutcheon and Custom Made Gun jog up before Johnson Controls Reining competition begins at 9:00 a.m. EST tomorrow.

Reining originates from the working movements of horses and riders when herding cattle and is a judged event designed to show the athletic ability of ranch-type horses in an arena setting.

With large fast circles, flying lead changes, 360-degree spins and sliding stops all required within individual performances, Reining is a truly thrilling spectacle. It is also the only western discipline showcased at WEG.

There is also considerable crowd involvement, with the audience clapping and cheering loudly at every turn as competitors go through their paces. Team USA newcomer Cade McCutcheon, a first time WEG competitor, comes from a long lineage of top Reining competitors, and will take center stage at the international event.

Dark Horses Face Each Other In First Day of Helgstrand Dressage Competition

Dressage is predictable people say, but it won't be at the FEI World Equestrian Games™ Tryon 2018. A number of strong contenders will go head-to-head for the first time when the competition opens in the U.S. Trust Arena on Wednesday at 9:00 a.m. EST.

Horses from 31 countries were declared fit to compete on Tuesday following their jog inspection. Discipline competition opens with the Grand Prix over two days and deciding the medals for teams, to be handed out on Thursday. The top 30 move on to the Grand Prix Special on Friday with the top 15 showing their Grand Prix Freestyle to music on "Super Sunday" on September 16, concluding the first week of WEG.

Isabell Werth from Germany might add more gold to the already incredible seven WEG medals she already holds. Werth stunned insiders by her decision not to bring her top horse Weihegold OLD, instead opting to bring her favorite mount, Bella Rose, who has recently returned from a long-term illness.

Steffen Peters and Suppenkasper will take to the U.S. Trust Arena with Team USA in Helgstrand Dressage competition, who are a medal favorite.

One of Werth's strongest contenders will be one of her own teammates. The scores for Sönke Rothenberger and Cosmo have been rising since they were members of the winning 2017 European Championship team for Germany.

The United States' has hopes set on Laura Graves and her ride Verdades, breathing down the current necks of both Werth and Rothenberger since the 2016 Olympic Games in Rio de Janeiro, where they finished fourth, followed by a second place finish at the FEI World Cup™ Finals in early 2018.

Adding to this roster of elite riders, the defending champion from the WEG in Normandy, France, as Charlotte Dujardin and her new partner, Mount St John Freestyle will represent Great Britain. The mare is only nine and the "dark horse" of the competition. "I'm not sure what to expect, but she's felt brilliant this far and taken everything on board, so we'll see what the next few days bring," Dujardin said confidently.

Team Germany won their 11th World Championship Gold medal in Normandy 2014 and brings a strong squad to Tryon, to complete the dozen. Fourteen other teams will attempt to prevent that, with the USA, Great Britain, the Netherlands and Sweden set to be the most optimistic for a medal.
