2018 FEI WORLD EQUESTRIAN GAMES TRYON INTERNATIONAL EQUESTRIAN CENTER

The Tryon International Equestrian Center opened its doors on September 11, 2018, beckoning to thousands of individuals from 68 different countries for the start of the FEI World Equestrian Games. The best of the best in horse and rider teams from around the globe congregated in the tiny North Carolina town of Mill Springs – population around 2,000 – not just for a mere common interest in horses, but for something much larger. These horse and rider teams each represented their own countries. They stood for something far greater than they, and each was filled with a passion for competition, and a burning thirst for victory, but at the heart of it all is the horse. That noble creature from whose back history was written and from whose vast ability another chapter in global Equestrian competition has become history. From this event, the best in the world was decided.

The World Equestrian Games (WEG) is held only once every four years, and has been hosted on US soil only once before, in 2010 in Lexington, Kentucky. There 57 countries were represented by 800 horse and rider teams. At the WEG, Olympic-class champions in 8 different disciplines – Jumping, Dressage, Para-Dressage, Eventing, Driving, Endurance, Vaulting, and Reining – are decided.

Reining is the only western sport at the Games, and there is no wonder why. The level of training and degree of athleticism, precision, stamina, and heart required of a reining champion is mind-boggling. How much more must those be multiplied for one to be deemed the preeminent reining champion on a global scale?

Reining Team USA Remains Undefeated at the World Equestrian Games

Unique to this level of competition, are the team competitions. Each country chooses its best riders to compete at the Games, and the top 5 scores are counted for the teams. With its roots deep in American history, reining has been ruled by Team USA since its inception into the WEG in 2002.

In the first section of team competition for the United States, Casey Deary on Hilldale Farm's 7-year-old chestnut stallion, Heavy Duty Chex (Nu Chex To Cash x Rondas Tio) started the team off with a 223.5, a moderate lead over the first Belgium rider, Dries Verschueren's, 219.5 on the 2008 son of Smart Chic Olena and Setting Off Sparks, Smart N Sparkin. Smart N Sparkin is owned by Golden Paint Ranch.

Deary felt well prepared to make the first run for his team as he commented, "I've had a lot of help from Tim [McQuay] and Tom [McCutcheon] and Jordan [Larson]. We've kind of all been helping each other get ready. So he's perfect for this event. He's settled in real good at the stalls, he's been a good boy all week. He had to deal with me trying to jump off of him in that right roll back, but other than that, he was where he was supposed to be!"

In Verschueren's first WEG competition, he couldn't share Deary's feelings but remained positive when he said, "For me, it was not so easy for the first time here. I [haven't done] a lot of big, big shows – for sure, not like this! I went in with my horse a little bit afraid, but he gave everything he could. There were a lot of Belgium people that cheered for us. So that gives you a really nice feeling!"

For Team Belgium, Ann Poels and Made In Walla (Walla Walla Whiz x Hollywood Made) took the lead back with a 225.5. Made In Walla is a 7-year-old gelding owned by Sabine Lisec.

Poels couldn't say enough about her horse, "He's a super solid horse. You can really count on him. He just gave me all he had, and he helps me out everywhere he can. He's just a super nice horse."

This was the first trip to the Games as a competitor for 18-year-old Cade McCutcheon and his grandparent's – Tim and Collen McQuay's – 7-year-old stallion, Custom Made Gun (Colonels Smoking Gun x Custom Made Dun It). With the lead in Belgium's hands, the pressure was on for the young rider. Cade handled it with an expertise that defies his age, as he delivered a smashing score of 229 which would hold as the highest score in the Team Competition!

McCutch-eon admitted to feeling some anxiety as he said, “Watching Casey, I was pretty nervous because I wanted to get off to a good start. He did a great job and took the pressure off of me because he had the score that he did.” He added, “Custom [Made Gun] was as good as he could have been. Every maneuver, he tapped off as good as I’ve ever had him in the show pen! I could not be happier with him!”

With two scores in the books and other teams had delivered high scores, Team USA had a short break to adjust its strategy. Team members watched as Belgium rider, Cira Baeck on Piet Mestdagh’s Gunners Snappy Chic laid down a 215 – not enough to take back the lead, but keeping her team in contention. Gunners Snappy Chic is a 2011 mare by Colonels Smoking Gun out of Chics Miss Snap.

Baeck said, “I had a different horse, but we switched horses only 2 months before. I didn’t have enough time, but it was ok.” Baeck felt like she let her team down, but remained happy for her team mates as she said, “I’m really, really happy that Ann and Bernard, and especially Dries –for sure for his first time – did so well. So I am super happy.”

Also on a mare was American rider, Dan Huss on Frederick Christen’s Ms Dreamy. Huss had dreamed of competing at the games for years, but had to wait on the right horse at the right time to take him there. Ms Dreamy proved worthy, delivering a 226.5 and keeping Team USA’s lead. Ms Dreamy, a 2010 mare by Magnum Chic Dream out of A Girl With A Gun, earned her place in history as the first reining mare to earn Gold at the World Equestrian Games.

Huss said, “I loved it! I’d take that run any day! [Ms Dreamy] isn’t the fastest spinner in the world, but she’s so honest. She’s like wine! The older she gets, the better she gets!” When asked how he felt as we watched his teammates’ scores coming in, Huss said, “I’m even more nervous when somebody else is riding. I’m always tapping my leg and trying to talk them through the pattern, so when the score shows up, I mean, it’s pretty exciting! I’m riding every step of the way that they are riding.”

As the last rider for Team Belgium, Million Dollar Rider Bernard Fonck shouldered the final weight for his country’s team. He skillfully guided Karl and Terri Robert’s 10-year-old stallion What A Wave (Tidal Wave Jack x Sunrise Enterprise] to match Huss's 226.5. However with still one more American rider left to go, it wasn't enough – this time.

Bernard explained his feelings as he exited the arena, "It is pretty special because I know I have a really good horse, and I know I have a good team, and I have a good vet, and I have a good steward, and I have a good wife, and I have everything amazing! I am pretty happy with what he did, what he gave to me today again is pretty big!"

American Jordan Larson was the only rider on his team to have competed at the World Equestrian Games before and had taken home Gold then. He rode the 7-year-old palomino stallion ARC Gunnabeabigstar owned by HDC Quarter Horses. "Big Star" is by Gunnatrashya out of Wimpy's Little Chic. The duo delivered a 225.5 sealing Team USA's undefeated record at the World Equestrian Games with a total of 681 points. Team Belgium earned Silver with 671.5 points.

Larson spoke of how going in the pen to compete felt to him, "It was intense! My horse definitely knew – he felt the moment. We had a big bobble right off the bat there, so my heart kind of sank to my toes, and then I just tried to show him as best as I could, and it turned out good."

Since the inception of reining at the Games, Team Germany has been just out of medaling, but the 2018 team made history as the first German Reining Team to medal at the World Equestrian Games. With boisterous support from their fans, Team Germany proudly took home the Bronze Medal!

Grischa Ludwig led Ruf Lil Diamond to earn the highest score for the team – a 223.5. Owned by Alexandra Schmitz and Olliver Schlieber, the 8-year-old mare is by Jazalena Diamond out of Jarmines Ruf Blonde.

Ludwig could hardly form words as he struggled to speak his feelings about the Team medal, "I was a member of every team since Spain. So this was my fifth WEG. At the time, when I showed in Spain, I never thought it was going to take so long until I go home with a medal, to be honest, because I almost cannot count how many times I have been fourth in individual or in the team, and most of the times, to be honest – by a half a point or a point – so this cost me a lot of nerves!" The WEG veteran continued with, "I was so nervous about it when I came out as the first rider [for the team] and I had a nice score, and I was quite calmed down until Markus [Suchting] came and made a nice score, and then I said, 'well, it really looks like we can do something this time!' And everybody had a nice score but at the end, we had to wait for Austria, and it was again by a half a point. So I was so nervous, you cannot believe! I couldn't watch! I watched us, and with all the other riders, I was in the barn playing cards!"

Piloted by Markus Suchting, 11-year-old stallion Spotlight Charly earned a 222. Spotlight Charly is owned by Susanne Schoning.

Suchting said, "Just wow!" as he couldn't find many words for his feelings, "We really worked hard for this, and we got it. We want to be happy with that, and just wow!"

Julia Schumacher rode Coeurs Little Tyke to a 221. The 2010 stallion is by Coeur D Wright Stuff out of Sweet Remy Chex and is owned by Hans-Georg Holzwarth.

A thoroughly excited Schumacher expressed her feelings with, "It is an amazing feeling! There are almost no words for it because this was the first time that I competed at WEG, and now we won a medal, and actually, we wrote German history because we are the first reining team that won a medal at the WEG! It's incredible to be part of that, to be here, and enjoy all the atmosphere!"

Wimpy Kaweah under Robin Schoeller's guidance rounded off the team's score with a 220. Julia Beth Henderson's 2011 gelding is by Wimpys Little Step out of Lil Ruf Remi.

- Lorenzo Lamagna's documentary devoted entirely to the sport of reining, now on-line, is sure to create much interest...

The combined score for Team Germany was a 666.5 for the Bronze medal.

Schoeller said, “This was my first WEG as a competitor, and to come here and be part of such a great team and have the opportunity to win a medal – that’s huge!” Robin continued, “I’ve been in the US for a long time now, but Germany is still my home country. It is just an honor for me, and what an incredible opportunity to be here and be amongst these guys and compete! We usually go down the road and we compete for ourselves and for our customers. This is just a whole different deal here, just to feel when I went into the arena – I mean you are nervous anyway – but then now you are not just competing for yourself and for your owner, but you compete for a team. You don’t want to let anybody down and you want to do the best you can and you want to get the team forward and in a position where they can win a medal. I think everybody in this group did everything possible and it worked out. I’m just thrilled and humbled to be part of this.”

BERNARD FONCK MAKES BELGIUM HISTORY AS THE COUNTRY’S FIRST GOLD MEDALIST AT THE WORLD EQUESTRIAN GAMES

Belgium is a small country among giants, but with the likes of Bernard Fonck riding for it, it is making a mark on global reining competition. Fonck was draw 20 out of 22 riders in the individual finals again mounted on What A Wave, a 10-year-old stallion owned by Karl and Terri Roberts and sired by Tidal Wave Jack out of Sunrise Enterprise. A 225 by Brazilian Joao Lacerda was the score to beat, but two of the United States’ best riders were still to come. Fonck knew that he had to give all that he and his capable mount could give if he were to have a chance. Bernard asked, and What A Wave delivered a tough to beat 227!

The next rider to go was Dan Huss on the first mare ever to win Gold in reining at the World Equestrian Games, Ms Dreamy. Frederick Christen owns the 8-year-old daughter of Magnum Chic Dream and A Girl With A Gun.

Huss shared, “[Ms Dreamy] is real honest right now because I've been on her fully myself for a year and a half – I haven't had to share her with a Non Pro." Huss continued, "She does her job and she's wanting to do something all the time, so if you use good horsemanship and good technique, she will perform for you. She has taught me probably more than I've taught her. That's one reason that horse trainers are in the game, is that they love the sport of reining and they love the communication and the training and the education that is involved between the horse and the rider." The consistent duo scored a 226.5 – the same that won them team Gold just a few days prior. The score earned them the Silver Medal in the Individual finals.

All that remained between Fonck and the Gold medal was the American youth, Cade McCutcheon, who with Custom Made Gun had topped all scores in the team competition with a 229. Cade's grandparents, Tim and Colleen McQuay, own the reliable stallion by Colonels Smoking Gun and out of Custom Made Dun It.

Bernard and his friends, family, and fans waited anxiously, eyes glued to the big screen – hardly daring to breathe – as Cade delivered his performance and began his exit from the arena. As the scores began to come in, a low murmur rose from their throats – could it be? The final score was announced a 225 and they all began to leap and shout at once! The first reining WEG Gold medal that Belgium had ever won was earned by Bernard Fonck and his excellent partner, What A Wave!

Bernard Fonck's Gold Medal Victory Lap

Dan Huss' Silver Medal Victory Lap

Cade McCutcheon's Bronze Medal Victory Lap

Bernard was asked at which point he felt like this could be the run that could win it all, and he answered, "I hoped this would be a great run, and I know Wave can do it because Wave always tries to do his best. I was a little bit [disappointed] about my left turn because if I didn't win it, then I let it fall there. I was lucky that the others also had a few mistakes. I was pretty lucky today."

When asked how he felt about hearing the scores coming in as the third to last rider, Bernard said, "It's not about the score, it's about the run and what you can give. I know what my horse can do, and in the finals, I know he can be good because in Europe, he also marked 76s and 77s. I know he can do something. It's not about the score, its about just the right time on the right moment."

The story doesn't end here, however, because Cade McCutcheon was now tied with Joao Lacerda for the Bronze Medal. They had to run off. Custom Made Gun had just left the arena after his impressive performance. Could he do it one more time? Cade's friends and family rushed to help cool the stallion off and prepare him for another go. Cade's team mates offered tidbits of advice.

Joao Lacerda was the first to go in. He rode Gunner Dun It Again – another son of Colonels Smoking Gun – to deliver an intimidating 227. The 7-year-old stallion owned by Paulo Fransisco Tripoloni is out of Dun Its Deja Vu.

a short 30 minute respite, but they had to give their best one more time. Would it be enough? They maneuvered expertly through the pattern as the electricity of the crowd urged them on. A pin drop could have been heard as thousands waited for the scores to come in. From the loudspeaker, a 228 was announced and the crowd thundered its approval! This young man at his first FEI World Equestrian Games Competition had earned the Individual Bronze medal in a nerve-wracking run-off!

“It was a lot of fun,” Cade said. “I had a bobble the first time that kept me from winning the gold, but that’s part of it. I was just happy that I had a second chance at it with that horse so I could finish on a strong note. I was safer in spots in the second run than I was in the first because I kind of thought they would mark me anyway if I was just cleaner, and they did!”

Cade plans to go home and prepare for the NRHA Futurity, but believes that no matter what he goes on to do from here, it won’t likely be as great as winning Team Gold and Individual Bronze at the FEI World Equestrian Games.

AMERICANA 2019 HOSTS ERCHA NATIONS CUP AGAIN

Finals will be part of the Evening Show on September 5, 2019

AMERICANA has been setting the pace in many ways, and for all fans of cattle disciplines, this event is #1 in Europe. Nowhere else will you see such high class cutting and cow horse classes at one show – which is no wonder if you look at the purse and the chance of riding in front of 6,000 visitors during the finals. From the beginning, AMERICANA has hosted the European Reined Cow Horse Association (ERCHA) Futurity. In 2017, another prestigious class was added: the ERCHA Nations Cup, which was initiated by ERCHA president and Cow Horse and Reining professional Markus Schopfer. In 2019, AMERICANA will host the Nations Cup again. The final is scheduled for Thursday, September 5, during the evening show.

Eight Teams competed at 2017 AMERICANA

In 2019, it will be the fourth ERCHA Nations Cup – which was claimed by Italy each year, so far. Eight teams competed in the Nations Cup of 2017 AMERICANA with Italy winning the Cup and Switzerland placing second. Germany followed in third place.

Show manager Sandra Quade hopes for at least as many teams in 2019, “AMERICANA is one of Europe’s big cattle events, and we are happy to offer this platform for the European Reined Cowhorse Association. The Nations Cup is a great idea, and we are proud to host this event again.”

A Festival of Western Riding: Sport, Fair and Information

For the riders, AMERICANA starts on September 1 with the first go rounds. Like the ERCHA Nations Cup final, the finals of the World Cup Cutting and the Bronze Trophy Reining as well as the Cow Horse Futurity will be part of the evening shows. The Open Reining Trophy final is scheduled for the Friday evening show, the World Cup Cutting Open and the ERCHA Open Cow Horse Futurity will be part of the Saturday evening show.

Europe's Leading Trade Fair in Western Riding

But AMERICANA is much more than only top class sports. Besides a world class show, there is the biggest European fair of western and leisure riding. Here you will find everything – from horse and riding equipment, clothes, and trailers to everything concerning the western lifestyle. The 51,300 visitors of 2017 AMERICANA were happy – 98 percent said they would recommend this event to their friends. Of the 331 exhibitors, 72 percent spoke of excellent or at least good sale success. Another 20 percent were very content.

AMERICANA is also the #1 information platform for western riding, breeding and horse management in general. During the five days in which the event is open to the public, experts share their knowledge – from starting and training horses in various disciplines to feeding or veterinary medicine. In 2019, topics like horse's health, riding tourism, and horse and dog will be increased. New topics include innovative horse management and kid's program.

Think of Christmas Presents now

A ticket for one of the AMERICANA evening shows makes a perfect gift for Christmas. Ticket Sale starts in November and you had better hurry then. The Friday and Saturday evening shows were sold out in 2017.

For all those who would like to get an feel for the AMERICANA, there is a number of video diaries of the 2017 event on the AMERICANA homepage: www.americana.de!

THE RIGHT PLACE, THE RIGHT MOMENT, THE RIGHT TIME: BERNARD FONCK

Sometimes you have to turn away from someone else's dream to discover your own. Such was the case for Belgium reiner, Bernard Fonck. After making a momentous decision, his wife, Ann, helped to drastically change the course of his life and bring him to NRHA Million Dollar Rider status and beyond.

Fonck was the third generation in a family of butchers. Beginning as soon as he graduated high school, Bernard worked a hundred hours per week with his parents – from midnight until 6 pm in a slaughter house that processed 40 head weekly. He would heft heavy slabs of beef up onto his shoulder and trudge up a long hill between the slaughter house and the butchering facility.

But, whenever time and a willing horse allowed, Bernard loved to ride at break-neck speeds through the forests near his home. His father didn't see the value in horses and refused to spend more than $50 more than their kill price to get Bernard a mount. These horses generally had behavioral issues and Bernard suffered two concussions in his youth from coming off of them. His father then purchased ten pony lessons for him which served as his only formal coaching before reaching adulthood.

When a horse had outlived its useful life, his father saw only one option for it. Bernard said, "I really loved the horses and I would always try to ride them, but some horses – it was not possible to ride them!" The looming consequence of failure drove Bernard try harder to ride better.

As the years passed and the family business grew, the Fonck's facility was becoming outdated. Bernard's father began making plans to build a new multi-million dollar facility, but he wanted Bernard's help. With this new commitment weighing heavily on his heart, Bernard struggled with a decision on the direction of his life.

Although the business was successful and his father planned for him to be a part of it, Bernard did not want to be a butcher. Due to the backbreaking work, Bernard had already had to have surgery leaving him with eight screws in his back. The surgery threatened his ability to ride, but Bernard refused to give up this enjoyable aspect of his life.

Finally, his doctor suggested that if ride he must, then he should get a quarter horse for the docile nature and smooth movements. The doctor also insisted that Bernard should take lessons and learn to ride properly to help minimize his risk of exacerbating his injury. Bernard agreed, purchased his first quarter horse and began taking lessons with Ann's sister, Christel Poels, who trained Western Pleasure horses at their parent's Rawhide Ranch.

Bernard quickly fell in love with Ann, but she and her parents had their doubts about him. In Belgium at the time, butchers were not well thought of: the stereotype was one of very dominant men whose wives had a place only under the thumbs of their husbands. They were also known for drinking and fighting. Bernard had his work cut out for him, but as he won Ann's affection, he also earned that of her parents, Gerry and Rita Poels. The two were married soon after.

Bernard made the difficult decision to leave his father's business at the cusp of its growth, and took a job cleaning stalls at Rawhide Ranch and tending bar at the onsite restaurant in the evenings. The relationship with his father was strained. He couldn't fathom why his son would leave a successful growing business to clean stalls.

At the time, Ann was a high-level dressage trainer who took in a few reining horses for her sister. She said, "Christel was riding pleasure horses, and she had a few customers that did reining. Some of them were having trouble with their lead changes, so she said, 'well maybe one of those horses with the lead change problem, give to my sister so she can try to fix it. In Dressage, she has a background with lead changes.' After that, I had a few more people come to me with problems with their lead changes. Some of them had a really hard time, but then after just one month, they were changed. After a very short period, I had more reiners in training than I had Dressage horses." After the books were balanced at the end of the month, Ann decided to switch her program to reining.

With the help of Tracy McReynolds, who happened to be in Belgium at just the right time, Ann concentrated her program on reining with Bernard learning beside her. Life went on for the Foncks with Ann being the main bread-winner training horses. Bernard was content with cleaning stalls and bar-tending for her parents. He would lope horses for her when time allowed, but he had no aspirations of becoming a horse trainer. He was happy to be out of the butcher business and helping his wife with her business.

Time has a way of changing things, and when they began talking about having a child, they faced a dilemma. Bernard knew that with Ann pregnant, her customers would go elsewhere and he worried that they wouldn't be able to keep up with the bills. It was at this time, out of necessity that Bernard had to learn to train. The Foncks bought ten inexpensive horses and Ann set about with the daunting task of teaching her husband to not only ride properly, but also to train at her level. "He was holding his reins like this..." she laughed holding her hands with palms facing upward and fingers clasped.

Bernard added, "It was not easy because when you have lessons from your wife, and all the time she is telling you it's not good. 'This is not good. That is not good. This is not good. This is not good.' I don't know how many times, I would get off of my horse and say, 'You know what? Do it yourself!' I would leave my horse in the arena, and I would go out – take a little bit of air, and then say 'Hmmm...maybe I'll go back.'" Then I would go back in the arena, take my horse back and then I would start to ride again." Bernard, with Ann's teaching, made reiners out of those ten horses.

"In 2002, I started to ride. In 2003, I was rookie champion..." Bernard began to say.

Ann corrected him promptly with a smile, "You were reserve champion – with a 67!"

Bernard continued un-fazed, "In 2004, I went Open. Now I have $1,850,000 in lifetime earnings. I want to have the $2 million from when I started in the Rookie – in 20 years. That's my goal." Bernard had found his dream.

Always modest, Bernard attributes the couple's success to the fact that "...we were in the right spot in the right moment at the right time. I don't know. I think it is good that we found each other. I am sometimes too much, and my wife is sometimes not enough. Then we switch horses, and she helps me and I help her. That is the big bonus."

Although she began as the teacher, Ann agrees with his sentiment as she said, "He helps me out all the time. Like really, all the time! If I am in the show pen, if I just hear his voice, I feel just that little bit more confident and I just give that little bit more. And in training also, if something doesn't work how I want it to, I try to fix it, and if it doesn't get better, I always have that second honest opinion."

Neither Bernard nor Ann ever dreamed of accomplishing the success that they have. Bernard was simply fleeing the family business and began training out of necessity. He soon discovered the joy of taking a young horse from its start to the highest levels of competition. Ann herself started riding because her sister was riding. She only started training because she didn't like school. In Belgium, there is a work program where she was able to drop out of school at the age of sixteen and work 4 days a week on a ranch, and ride horses for one day of the week.

Both Ann and Bernard share a driving character that makes them constantly strive to be better: the very driving force that helped them both to qualify to ride for Belgium in the 2018 FEI World Equestrian Games where they helped their team earn a Silver medal. It was that same great ambition that led Bernard to make history as the first Belgium reining Gold medalist.

Although Bernard's father passed away 9 years ago, he got to see many of his son's successes as a horse trainer and left this world filled with pride in his son's accomplishments.

GUNNERS SPECIAL NITE REACHES THE NRHA $2 MILLION DOLLAR MARK

After only three days of competition, the offspring of Gunners Special Nite secured an additional $10,000 in earnings, unofficially, pushing their sire over the $2 Million Dollar Mark and securing his place as the number one siring son of Gunner (Colonels SmokingGun).

With lifetime earnings of more than $235,000, Gunners Special Nite was born to perform and to produce. His sire is an NRHA $10 Million Dollar Sire and Hall of Fame Inductee. His dam, Mifs Doll, has produced offspring earnings of more than $400,500 making her one of NRHA's All-Time Leading Dams.

Gunners Special Nite was bred by Kim and Deborah Sloan. In 2010, Sarah Willeman of Turnabout Farm Inc. purchased the 2004 stallion and entrusted his future to Tom McCutcheon Reining Horses, Inc., in Aubrey, Texas, where he remains today.

NRHA Professional Tom McCutcheon said, "I am proud to be a part of Gunner Special Nite's career and of what this horse has accomplished. I am so thankful that Turnabout Farms and Sarah Willeman trusted me with him. We look forward to what his future will bring."

With McCutcheon and Marcy (Ver Meer) Starr at the reins, Gunners Special Nite won gold in both team and individual competition at the World Equestrian Games, became an NRHA L4 Open Futurity Reserve Champion and Level 3 Champion, and a finalist at the NRBC and NRHA Derby.

The elite sire's most remarkable offspring include:

- Modern Gun with NRHA LTE over $175,400
- Baileys Not Painted with NRHA LTE over $72,800
- Hollywood Nites with NRHA LTE over $72,700
- Wham Bam Gunner Man with LTE over $63,800
- Sunglasses At Nite with LTE over $55,500.

TULSA REINING CLASSIC: KALENA REYNOLDS TOPS ARC ROOKIE LEVELS 1 AND 2 WENDY HAUSNER TAKES ANCILLARY ROOKIE LEVELS 1 AND 2

*Kalena Reynolds and Gun Whiz It
ARC Rookie 1 and 2 Champion*

*Barbara Biddix
Rookie Prime Time*

The rookies of the sport were highlighted Friday at the Tulsa Reining Classic. Two riders dominated the class with their flashy reining horses.

Wendy Hausner took the win in the Rookie Level 1 and Level 2 classes with a score of 142.5 riding HQT Crazy Rich (Slip Slydun Away x Sparklin Chic).

Kalena Reynolds took home the wins in the ARC Rookie 1 and ARC Rookie 2 classes with a score of 141.5 riding Gun Whiz It (Colonels Smoking Gun x Roll Whiz It). 7-year-old mare had her for 2 years.

“She was really smooth, she felt really good,” Reynolds said of her run, which gives her a confidence boost going into Saturday’s classes.

Barbara Biddix and Zins Smart Peppy (Tejons Peppy Doc x Smart Rowdy Lady) took home the Rookie Prime Time win with a score of 137.5. The 11-year-old gelding has been with Biddix for four years and after a lot of hard work they were able to pull together to get this win.

“It was just a nice run. He didn’t stop like I like him to stop, he’s a great stopper, but we had a good run,” she said.

Biddix credits her trainer Brian Bell with their success saying that “Zin” was a bit of a handful before Bell got him show-ready.

TULSA REINING CLASSIC SHOWCASES YOUTH REINERS

The up-and-coming talents of the reining industry sported their skills in the show pen Saturday at the Tulsa Reining Classic in the youth classes held in the Super Duty Arena at Expo Square.

The 13 & Under Youth champion was Carlee McCutcheon riding Katy Dun It, a 2009 mare by Dun Gotta Gun and out of Dun Kissed Peaches. McCutcheon posted a score of 141 earning her the win as well as the 13 & Under USA Reining title.

take the win in the USA Reining Youth 14-18.

“Today was really good. It was a little hard to find the ground today, but she did her best and we just stuck with it,” McCutcheon said. “[My plan] was to just go in and whatever happens, happens.”

The plan paid off. McCutcheon and Katy Dun It have had a big week in Tulsa so far, starting off the week with Friday’s USEF 13 & Under win.

The Rookie Youth champion was Giorgia Medows riding Suprizentheprincess (Jerry Lees Surprise x Princess In Diamonds) with a score of 139.5. Surprizentheprincess is usually seen with Medows’ brother, Jack Medows, but in Saturday’s class Giorgia took the veteran reiner into the pen for the win.

*McKinnon Larcombe and Taris Dreamer
Youth 14-18 Champions*

In the Youth 14-18, McKinnon Larcombe and Taris Dreamer (Magnum Chic Dream x Taris San Cutter) took the win with a score of 145. The duo has already picked up checks in Tulsa and hope to continue their success in the affiliate classes on Sunday.

Giorgia Medows and Suprizentheprincess Rookie Youth Champions

“Coming out of the pen the other day from the win, I was kind of on a high and hoping he would go in there and be the same for me and he was,” Larcombe said of Saturday’s run. “I went in there with the mentality of not showing him too hard, because I want to save him for the affiliate stuff tomorrow and he was great for me.”

“This was actually my first time showing her, she’s been a broodmare the past couple years and she was Jack’s horse, so I just started riding her and she’s so consistent and she was so good and relaxed for everything.”

Margaret Sue Dunn and Spooks Smoken Wimpy (Wimpys Little Step x Please Don’t Spook) turned in a score of 138 to

In the Short Stirrup 10 & Under class, Colt Mitchell rode Playgun Chic Olena (Smart Chic Olena x Mamas Pakin) to the win with a score of 69.5.

*Colt Mitchell and Playgun Chic Olena
Short Stirrup 10 & Under Champions*

“He is a really, really good horse; probably one of the best horses we’ve ever had in the barn,” Mitchell said. “I’ve won a lot of stuff here on him, so I had high hopes for him.”

In the Youth Reining Horsemanship Class Becca Schaffhauser rode Dunitwithasmokingun (Colonels Smoking Gun x Dun It Doll) to the win. The 2009 gelding has been Schaffhauser’s main mount for several years and she says they have a special bond, which translates into the show pen.

“I had to make sure I did the maneuvers good and clean and make sure your horse understands what you’re doing,” she said. “You want your horse to always understand you otherwise you might not always be able to do the right things.”

Morris Kulmer wins again in the Novice Horse Non Pro

In the Mustang arena the non pros took center stage, again. The Novice Horse Non Pro champion was Morris Kulmer riding Nvr What A Lucky Joe (Lil Joe Cash x What A Lucky Hit) from a score of 143.

The Affiliate Regional Championships Novice Horse Non Pro winner was Kristen Avila riding Gunnersspecialplayboy (Gunners Special Nite x Shameless Playgirl) to a score of 142.5.

*Morris Kulmer
Novice Horse Non Pro*

“The run today was better. We’re getting a little better every time. He was really good today,” Kulmer said. “The horse is there. I just have to get my nerves settled down. One of these days’ we’ll get there.”

*Kristen Avila and Gunnersspecialplayboy
ARC Novice Horse Non Pro Champions*

“The run today was pretty good. Our goal was to get through the pattern without any problems, so it was good,” Avila said, adding that Gunnersspecialplayboy will also be shown in the Youth 10 & Under Lead Line with her son on Saturday night.

Emily Coultrap and Pale Of Gold (Pale Face Dunit x Sailors Starbuck) took home the Novice Horse Non Pro Level 2 and the ARC Novice Horse Non Pro Level 2 wins from a score of 144.5.

“He was on,” Coultrap said. “He was kind to me and it was just an awesome run.”

KID'S NIGHT!

Saturday night featured one of the fan favorite events, the Youth Lead Line and sponsored by Oklahoma Equine Hospital and Dr. Joe Carter. Some of the industry's brightest young stars made their mark in the arena to the applause of the Tulsa Reining Classic fans and contestants. All contestants received the signature Tulsa Reining Classic Commemorative Teddy Bears and a Breyer horse.

In the 10 & Under Walk/Trot Class Charli Dupree took home the win riding RLJ Ruff Like Juice.

Youth Reiners Shine at Tulsa Reining Classic

The Tulsa Reining Classic showcases some of the top reining horses and riders in the industry, but it also highlights the industry's prospective champions - youth reiners. Sunday in the Mustang Arena Youth riders showed off their skills in classes for riders ages under 10 all the way up to

*Taylor Bagby and Suzy Que Wrangler
ARC 10 & Under Short Stirrup Champions*

21.

Colt Mitchell took top honors in the 10 & Under Short Stirrup with a score of 147 riding, Playgun Chic Olena, who's by Smart Chic Olena out of Mamas Pakin. Mitchell and his 13-year-old gelding have had a big show, winning Saturday's 10 & Under Short Stirrup class, as well.

“He was great. He didn't do a single thing wrong,” Mitchell said. “He couldn't have run faster; we've never seen him run that fast.”

The 10 & Under Short Stirrup ARC champ was Taylor Bagby riding Suzy Que Wrangler (Starlights Wrangler x Spanish Dun It) to a score of 136.5.

“I had a few problems, but it was a pretty good run overall,” Bagby said. “She takes really good care of me and we get along really good.”

The Youth 13 & Under champion was Raeanna Thayn riding Coded N Karma. Thayn and “Karma” also earned the ARC Youth 13 & Under, the American Quarter Horse Association 13 & Under and the USA 13 & Under win. They added the Unrestricted Youth title, as well. Coded N Karma is a 2011 gelding by Electric Code and out of Whiz N Snap.

Coded N Karma will also be going to the World Equestrian Games with Glen Estival for Team France.

The Youth 14-18, ARC Youth 14-18 and USA Reining 14-18 champion was Margaret Sue Dunn riding Spooks Smoken Wimpy, a 2009 gelding by Wimpys Little Step out of Please Don’t Spook. Dunn said she had things to improve upon from Saturday’s classes and thanks to her trainer Yonathan Baruch’s advice she was able to accomplish her goal. Dunn and Spooks Smoken Wimpy scored a 145 for the win.

“I was really nervous, but my trainer said just stay calm and composed and he’ll do the same, so I did that and he was perfect,” Dunn said. “The hardest part for me was the change from big to small, slow circle in the lead change and he nailed it. I knew he would, but when I hit the middle my heart was pumping. He was super good. He stayed with me through everything.”

The Rookie Youth winner was Kylie Baker riding See U Saturday Night, a 6-year-old son of Star Spangled Whiz out of Wimpys Rose. The duo turned in a score of 141 for the win.

“I was really proud of him, because yesterday he got the whole day off,” Baker said. “He did really great and I’m really proud of him. It was a really great last run.”

*Raeanna Thayn and Coded N Karma
Youth 13 & Under Champions*

“He was really good. He circled the best he has in a long time and he ran down there and stopped really well for me,” Thayn said. “He’s always consistent and he loves to be rode.”

Non Pro Ancillary sees 3-Way Tie: Emily Coultrap ties herself and Stephanie Nelson

Non Pro riders competed for championship honors Sunday at the Tulsa Reining Classic, held at Expo Square.

A three-way tie in the Non Pro and ARC Non Pro classes saw Stephanie Nelson riding Custom Banjo (Banjo Whiz x Custom Bobbie) and Emily Coultrap riding Pale Of Gold and Sparkys Shining Doll share the co-championship with scores of 145.5.

Coultrap’s mount Pale OF Gold (Pale Face Dunit x Sailors Starbuck) is a 5-year-old gelding that’s been a solid mount for her both in their career together, but also in Tulsa.

“He was on. He was like a robot,” Coultrap said with a laugh. “He was just awesome. We connected and we were in sync. I couldn’t have asked for a better ride. It was great.”

Sparkys Shining Doll (Friday Night Shiner x BB Holly Doll) is a 6-year-old that Coultrap recently purchased and says the stallion is helping her to improve as a rider.

“I just purchased him at NRBC in April,” Coultrap said of Sparkys Shining Doll. “He’s a lot of fun. He’s teaching me a lot. He’s a strong horse and I have to step up to the plate and step up as a rider, and so far it’s working.”

Coultrap also tied herself in the Intermediate Non Pro, ARC Intermediate Non Pro, Limited Non Pro and ARC Limited Non Pro aboard her two mounts.

Mike Hancock took home the Non Pro Prime Time win riding Nics Custom Dually (Mister Nicadual x Custom Whizer) with a score of 143.

“This is my derby horse, so it was really just a nice easy ride,” Hancock said. “I wanted to go show him and not put a lot of pressure on him and that’s just what he did.” Had since 3 and showed in futurities and derbies and he’s done well.”

In the ARC Prime Time Randy Golden and A Great Red Bingo (Itsa Bingo Greyhound x Great Red Kalico) took the win with a score of 140.5.
