IT'S ALL ABOUT NRHA EUROPEAN DERBY FINALS IN KREUTH!

Hat trick for Ann Fonck as she claims her third NRHA European Derby Open Championship!

In the ninth edition of the National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) European Open Derby Finals, it was the first horse-rider-combination in the second section that held the top score all the way through the end of the 19 finalists. NRHA's newest Million Dollar Rider Ann Fonck of Belgium rode Diego Dalla Gassa's Gunners Specialolena (NRHA Two Million Dollar Sire Gunners Special Nite x Dolly Jac Olena) to a 222 score that clinched top honors in the €50,000-added * Level (L)4 Open. "I'm really, really happy; it's my third European Derby L4 Championship! My son, Justin, for the first time, drew for me and picked draw

#1, so I told my husband that maybe next time I would do it myself. In the end, it looks like it was a good draw! My horse was good, she is a really nice mare, but once again, I didn't really expect to win, because when I was riding during the training sessions, I saw really great horses and such good riders competing...in the end, it all worked out and I'm really happy." The 5-year-old mare was bred and nominated by Luigi Parise and counts over $25,000 NRHA Lifetime Earnings (LTE).

L4 Open Reserve Championship: Nico Sicuro rode the 7-year-old stallion Sugar Little Step (NRHA Ten Million Dollar Sire Wimpys Little Step x Ah Sugar Sugar) owned by Quarter Dream Srl to a 220.5 score, also claiming the €35.000-added* L3 Open Championship. “I started riding him in February this year. He is already known for his great achievements with Gennaro Lendi and Markus Gebert in the saddle,” says the 23-year-old, head trainer for Quarter Dream, a breeding and training facility based in the south of Italy. “Our first show together was the NRHA European Futurity where we won the NRHA Intermediate Open class. I then showed him at the Italian Reining Horse Association (IRHA) Derby where we won the L2 and L3 Open divisions, and placed third in the L4 with a 223 score. At this show, he was nice all week long; I always rode him trying all the maneuvers we had in the finals. Tonight he was super and did everything I asked him and he was always with me.” Sicuro was quick to thank the owner of Quarter Dream, Pietro and Helena Marseglia, as well as the whole team behind him both at home and during the show. Sugar Little Step was bred and nominated by Wolf Dieter Luft and boasts over $59,000 NRHA LTE.

x CN Missilenium), exited the arena after her run with a full-house cheering on for her suggesting the highest score of the first section of the finals. “My horse was really good during the whole run tonight. Our circles were really great, the turns could have been better, but I was happy with them,” said an emotional Neveux. “He was a little fast in the rundowns but stopped really great. I want to thank Thomas [Soutric] and also the owners of CM Quarter Horses who have trusted me for more than ten years now with my program.” Frankiegoestoholywod was bred by Angelo Capitelli and nominated by Edoardo Bernardelli.

Sharing the L4 Co-Reserve Championship was Italian Mirko Midili aboard Luigi Parise’s 5-year-old stallion Maytheforcebewhizyou (NRHA Million Dollar Sire Spooks Gotta Whiz x Jac Golden Faith), bred and nominated by Claudia Hahn.

German Sylvia Rzepka took reserve honors in the L3 Open riding Winnie The Boo (NRHA 10 Million Dollar Sire Wimpys Little Step x Ah Sugar Sugar), a 7-year-old gelding owned by Florian Aubruner scoring a 220. Claudia Hahn is the breeder and nominator of the gelding.

Second to last to enter the pen in the first section of the Open Finals was Doerr with Martin Bachmann’s G Whiz Gus. “I’m really happy because this is my first NRHA European Derby and I won it. My horse is a really lovely gelding with a big heart. He is always listening and tonight he gave me everything,” said the NRHA Professional of Germany. “I want to thank all the people behind me, and of course a special thank you goes to the owner Martin [Bachmann] and to my trainer Dominik Reminder; he helped me a lot here at the show and at home.” The 5-year-old gelding was bred and nominated by Heike Melanie Ebler.

Tying for the €20.000-added* L2 Open Co-Reserve Championship were the €10.000-added* L1 Champions: Clémence Neveux of France and Mona Doerr of Germany who closed their performances with a 219 score. Neveux, riding Thomas Soutric’s 8-year-old gelding Frankiegoestoholywod (NRHA Million Dollar Sire Hollywoodstinseltown

Mid Summer 4-year-old Futurity as well as a full-slate of NRHA Ancillary classes and was managed by IRHA in collaboration with NRHA Germany. Over 320 horses made their way to the Ostabayernhalle and contributed in the success of the NRHA European owned event.

Ann Fonck takes the NRHA Open Pre Futurity title Wolfgang Hammer sweeps the Non Pro Pre Futurity

All finalists of the ninth edition of the National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) European Derby — open to 5-6-7-8-year-old horses enrolled in the NRHA Nomination Program — were determined following the Open Derby Consolation held on the third day of great reining in Kreuth.

Along with a full-slate of NRHA ancillary classes, this year's edition of the Euro Derby also offers the €12,000-added NRHA 4-year-old Mid Summer Futurity and the €5,000-added NRHA 3-year-old Pre Futurity. The latter was held following the Open Consolation and, taking the title in the Open Level (L)4 Championship was NRHA's newest Million Dollar Rider Ann Fonck of Belgium with Lil Trouble Spook owned by Ingrid Vermeiren/Codan NV between the reins. "It's really special for me to ride this horse and see him do so well here because we own his mama, we bred him and we started him ourselves," said Fonck about her mount by NRHA Five Million Dollar Sire Smart Spook out of Lil Trouble Miss. "Ingrid [Vermeiren] purchased him at the beginning of this year and I am very grateful to her for trusting our program and leaving him in training with us."

Manuela Masson. "We purchased this horse as a weanling and he's been with me since," said an enthused Bourgeois. "He's always been really nice to train, today was his first time in the show arena, and I could not be any more pleased with him — he was easy and thought he was at home!"

Wolfgang Hammer's winning streak this year moves on as he went on to claim both the Pre Futurity L4 and L2 Non Pro titles, this time riding his own Baddestchicintown (NRHA Million Dollar Sire Hollywoodstinseltown x Smart Chicody Sue). "I purchased this mare as a yearling from Tanya Jenkins in the U.S. and brought her to our place in Austria immediately after," said Hammer. "Our trainer, Tomas Martinek, started and trained her and did a really good job with her...that's the reason she is easy to ride! We wanted to try her out in the show pen, this is her first time being shown ever and she showed us that she is very talented and very good minded."

Closing the day in Kreuth was the €1,875-added NRHA Open won by Austrian Anna Lisec riding her This Wimps So Fly (NRHA Ten Million Dollar Sire Wimpys Little Step x Fly Flashy Jac) owned by her mother Sabine Lisec. The flashy palomino boasts close to $67,000 NRHA Lifetime Earnings (LTE) as well as many prestigious titles with Anna in the saddle including the 2015 NRHA European Derby Levels 4-3-2-1 Non Pro Championships and 2017 NRHA European Derby L4 Non Pro title.

It was all about Israel and Switzerland in the €800-added Intermediate Open and €400-added Limited Open classes with Tal Paz of Israel riding One Shining Dream (NRHA Five Million Dollar Sire Magnum Chic Dream x Shining Sienna) for owner Swiss Larissa Rizzi riding to top honors with a 212. “I showed my horse at the NRHA Germany Breeders Derby but we didn’t make the finals and the same happened here in the Euro Derby Open,” said the Israeli professional. “My run today was way better and managed to fix the bobbles we had in the go round. Our circles were the best maneuvers, where he really looked good, and the spins were also pretty good. In two weeks’ time, I plan to show him in the Swiss Derby in Mooslargue, and after that, we will see, after all he is still young... I would like to thank the owner Larissa [Rizzi] for trusting me with this horse and the whole team behind me back home.”

French Adeline Caron rode her own Ruff Gun (NRHA Eleven Million Dollar Sire Gunner x A Ruf Mistress) to reserve honors with a 210.5. Taking the second spot in the Limited Open with a 211.5 was Germany’s Niklas Ludwig atop Shine N Step (NRHA Ten Million Dollar Sire Wimpys Little Step x Shiney Sparks) owned by Oliver Schliesser.

Bernardelli and Hammer tie to win the NRHA European Non Pro Derby; Francesca Ferrarol sweeps the L3, 2 and 1 Championships

pean Derby offered competition for all with 4-year-old horses performing in the NRHA Mid Summer Futurity and 5-, 6-, 7- and 8-year-old horses riding for the €20,000-added* European Level 4 Non Pro Derby. Once the sun went down on the Ostbayerhalle arena, Edoardo Bernardelli of Italy and Wolfgang Hammer of Austria opted to tie for the European Level (L)4 Non Pro Championship and a young Francesca Ferrarol left the arena with three Non Pro Derby Championships to her name.

garita, a 6-year-old stallion by NRHA Ten Million Dollar Sire Wimpys Little Step out of Custom Margarita laid down an impressive NRHA pattern #9 with only two horses left to go in the first section of the Non Pro Finals. The judges paid her back with a 217.5 and her score held until the very last combination putting her firmly in the lead in the levels she had qualified for: the €15,000-added* L3, €9,000-added* L2 and €5,000-added* L1.

The win was, of course, three-times as special for 15-year-old Ferrarol. “I still cannot believe all this is happening,” she said. “I didn’t really feel comfortable with my horse in the go round, plus we made the Level 3 finals through the Consolation. Tonight, before entering the pen, I thought to myself: 'If I am here, there must be a reason, so I should give my best no matter what the final outcome will be.' It went really well and I'm extremely happy – this horse has a heart of gold and tonight he knew I was hoping he could give me all he had ...and he did!"

Draw 2 in the second section of the Finals, Wolfgang Hammer and his Mr Ricochet (Ricochet Rooster x Docs Oak Rosy), a 6-year-old stallion bred and nominated by 23 QH Az. Agr. SS, performed to a 217. The duo — leaders of the L2 Non Pro Derby qualifier — set the bar in the L4 division until Edoardo Bernardelli and his Whiz Wild West came back to match their score. The Italian rider and his 6-year-old gelding bred and nominated by Mattia Camisi, already leaders of the L4 and L3 in the qualifier, settled for the L4 Non Pro Derby Co-Championship and also took the L3 Reserve Championship along with Hammer and his mount who also claimed reserve honors in the L2 division. "I'm really happy with the way my horse performed tonight," said Bernardelli. "Everything I asked for he did well. We missed one stop, but that's ok; he topped the qualifier and tonight he repeated his performance in the finals. I would like to thank my family, who is always there to support me, and my girlfriend. A big thank you to Andrea Na-politano and Andrea Grazi for helping me before the finals.” Just as thrilled was Hammer: “Sometimes you feel like your run is bad but in reality, it’s good. This time around, he felt super and it was so much fun to show him. He did everything we trained for and everything I know he can do... He was amazing today and I could not be any happier.”

Closing with the L1 Non Pro Derby Reserve Championship, as well as third place in the L3 division, was Marie Guensner and her Hot Spark Olena, a 6-year-old gelding by Shiner Olena out of Roosters Hot Piq, bred and nominated by Katarzyna Roleska. (*subject to change in nominations)

Giridon takes the NRHA Mid Summer Futurity Open Championship; Kuenstner-Mantl wins the Non Pro title

Opening the day in Kreuth was the NRHA Midsummer Futurity open to 4-year-old horses. Taking the Championship in both the €5,000-added Level (L)4 and €2,500-added L3 was French professional Arnaud Giridon riding Valerie Fontaine’s BHB Wimpy Choco Gun, a mare by BHB Mr Wimpys Royal out of BHB Kateberry Stargun. “I’ve had this mare in training since she was 2 and I’m pretty satisfied with my run today,” said Giridon. “I had no bobbles and she had nice circles and stops, particularly on the left lead. In two weeks, we are going to the Austrian Futurity and then Belgian Futurity at the end of September. Sadly, she is not enrolled in the NRHA Nomination Program — which is also one of the reasons why I showed her here today — and future plans may also include showing her in Cremona, Italy, at the end of the year.”

(NRHA Million Dollar Sire Hollywoodstinseltown x Custom Sugar Pop).

Mid Summer Non Pro Futurity

dam, Fancy Bingo Star, is in California,” said the multiple past NRHA Non Pro Champion. “[NRHA Professional] Martin Muehlstaetter started her as a 2-year-old and I have been riding her since the middle of her 3-year-old year. She was nice for me today, even though from the fast to the slow circle she fell out of lead. The score could have been a lot higher, but she was nice to show as she is a really big stopper. I’m not sure whether I will be competing with her again this season since I have a futurity horse in the U.S. that I would really like to bring to the NRHA Futurity.”

With a 208 score, Ewald Rifesser placed second in the L4 division riding Rooduster (Rickory Rooster x Miss Little Alejos) owned by Petra Burger. The Italian rider also settled for reserve honors in the €1,500-added L3 behind Katharina Skalnik who claimed the Championship with her own Slim

Jim Whiz (NRHA Ten Million Dollar Sire Wimpys Little Step x Spark N Whizzen). The duo also went on to win the €400-added L2 Championship where Janine Ketterer rode her Roadgunner (Gunwork x My Diamond Dunit) to a 204.5 and the Reserve Championship.

NRHA Intermediate Non Pro

Riding to the winner's circle in the Intermediate Non Pro with a 211.5 score was Tabitha Sternberg Allen aboard FS Gunner Got Lucky (NRHA Ten Million Dollar Sire Gunner x My Lucky Moonstone) owned by her mother, Francesca Sternberg. "My horse is 8-years old and I've had him for the past two years. I bought him in the States, showed him there, and when I started university, we brought him over to England and I've shown him in Europe since then," said the talented young rider from Great Britain. "In the States, I showed him at the NRBC where we made the Level 2 and 1 finals and also in Las Vegas at the High Roller Reining Classic Derby where we won the Limited Non Pro. In Europe, this is our third show in a row now: I showed him at the FEI Young Riders World Reining Championship and made the Individual Finals. We then went to Denmark to show in the NRHA European Affiliate Championship and we just cruised around there. I showed him in the Derby here where we had a really good run, but we had one stop where we crossed the middle line — which was not expected — and so we got a zero which is why I'm in this class. At least we redeemed ourselves! He was really good during my run today, stayed with me the whole way and we didn't have any bobbles, so I was really happy. What makes me even happier is that he really struggled with his lead changes from small slow to fast circles when we first got him and today he did both of them perfect and that was an achievement. I ride with my dad, Doug Allen and I would like to take this opportunity to thank my parents, my brother [George] for being supportive, and our groom, Jolie, who has been fantastic this week." Future plans for FS Gunner Got Lucky include a well-deserved rest to get ready for either Equita Lyon or Verona later in the year.

Non Pro Action

Past NRHA Non Pro World Champion Tina Künstner-Mantl went on to win the €1,500-NRHA Non Pro with a 216.5 aboard Jacpoint QH's Mizfire. "My horse is 8-years-old and I've had him for about two years," said the Austrian rider about her mount. "I purchased him through Arno Honstetter and right after that I showed him at the High Roller Reining Classic Non Pro Derby in Las Vegas. Last year I won the Italian Derby and NRHA Germany Breeders Derby on him. Today he was pretty lazy, but after all it's the last day! I showed him in the Derby here, but he kicked out in the lead change, so we were out of the finals. I entered him today and he was nice; he can really stop nice, even though he is not the best turner. I now hope to be showing him again this year at the Americana." With a 214, Anna Lisec tied for second place honors aboard This Wimps So Fly (NRHA Ten Million Dollar Sire Wimpys Little Step x Fly Flashy Jac), owned by Sabine Lisec, along with Florian Koehler riding his own Betta Be Toughenough (Hesa San Jo X HC Whos My Dad).

Julia Gaupmann-Lechner of Austria rode Guns Still Smokin (NRHA Ten Million Dollar Gunner x Scoot Lil Bo) to second place, after performing to a 210, for owner LG Quarter Horses.

Gay Light Star) owned by her husband Wolfgang Hammer to first place honors in the Limited Non Pro. “My husband and I purchased this horse as a 2-year-old, he’s now 8 and has been with us since we got him,” said Nadja following her win. My husband showed him successfully until last year and then I took over the reins. I feel good about my run today, especially our left circles which were really good for me and probably our best maneuver. I’m not sure about future shows with ‘Starlit,’ since he is out of aged classes, but maybe we will show in some ancillary classes. I am really happy with how things went today and I would like to thank my husband, our trainer Tomas Martinek, and, of course, the whole Hammerhoff team!”

Tying for second place honors with a 208.5 was Germany’s Manuela Blechinger riding MS Sesolita Fury (Linas Little Fury x Nu Rum To Smoke), owned by Thomas Blechinger, and Florian Köhler aboard his own (Betta Be Tougenough x Hesa San Jo x HC Whos My Dad).

Winning the NRHA Youth 13 & Under with a 205.5 score was Sophia Staub riding Gunslinger Lil Step (NRHA Ten Million Dollar Sire Wimpys Little Step x Playguns Rose) owned her mother, renowned non professional rider and breeder Sabine Schmid. “My horse’s barn name is Bob and my run today was really good—all his maneuvers were good!” said the 13-year-old from Switzerland. “I didn’t have any best maneuver, because everything was really good. My next show is the Swiss Derby in Mooselargue, France, where I will show Bob in the youth classes and I am really looking forward to it.” In second place, with a 201.5, was Lynn Baten riding Kathrin Baten’s Dunit Money Penny (Lil Peppy Dunit Right x Boemil Topitasail).

Riding to first place in the NRHA Youth 14-18 aboard her own PM Jackson Olena (Spat Olena x ND Jazzy Step On It), after performing to a 211.5, was Celine Beisel. “My horse’s barn name is Jackson and my run today was very nice,” said the German 18-year-old. “Yesterday, I was in the Non Pro Derby Finals and today I just wanted to ride him without pressure and it worked out. Our next stop will be the NRHA Germany Futurity.” In second place with a 208.5 was the duo made up of Lisa Auer and Whizagun (Laredo Whiz X Princess Golden Gun).

In a field of 16, Celine Beisel of Germany took home first place honors in the Rookie Level 1 riding her PM Jackson Olena who she purchased six months ago. For the duo, this was their second show together. Second place in both the Rookie Level 1 and Level 2 was for Bernice Engel, also from Germany, riding her own Spookslimitededition.

Taking first place in the Rookie Level 2 was Sophia Staub, proud to be able to show her mother’s [Sabine Schmid] Gunslinger Lil Step. “My mom showed this horse until last year and, since January, I took over the reins,” said the 13-year-old rider from Austria. “I really like him; he’s so good minded and is a lot of fun to show.”

The eighteenth edition of the ERCHA/NRCHA Pre Futurity, open to 3-, and 4-year-old horses shown in a snaffle bit or hackamore, filled the Palacittá facility in Travagliato, Italy, on July 27-28 with over 50 horses from Europe performing to the best of their abilities.

Following two days of intense competition, claiming the $2,500-added ERCHA/NRCHA Pre Futurity Open title was Markus Schopfer aboard Silverstone's Ranch Oh Cay Mc. Aboard the talented 4-year-old stallion by 23 Million Dollar Sire [NRCHA Two Million Dollar Sire] Metallic Cat and out of Oh Cay Meriah, the Italian professional closed with a 219 composite (herd work, 71; reined work, 73; fence work, 75). "I like everything about this horse, from his attitude in the herd and fence work to his ability in the reined work. He has a great mind, is easy to handle and has tons of style. Regarding his breeding, well, there isn't much to say about his sire [Metallic Cat]; his offspring earnings say it all, and his dam is just as fancy. Once again he proved he's a great performer and here he truly showed off his ability in the fence work," said Schopfer who purchased the flashy sorrel at the NRCHA Futurity in Ft. Worth, TX, for Silverstone Ranch directly from [NRCHA Two Million Dollar Rider] Todd Crawford.

The duo also took home the $200-added Pre Futurity Limited Open title.

Andrea Santini of Italy rode Meradas Dual Cat (Hydrive Cat x Blue Boons Lil Sue) to a 209.5 composite (herd work – 69 reined work – 70 fence Work - 70.5) and third place honors in the Open for owner Soc. Agr. Le Fattorie Di Matilde and also took the Limited Open Reserve Championship.

ERCHA/NRCHA Non Pro Pre Futurity

Marco Piersanti scored a double win by clinching both the $500-added Non Pro and $100-added Intermediate Non Pro Pre Futurity Championships riding his own Bar Baby Stylish! Aboard the 4-year-old mare by More Than Stylish out of Resketta, the Italian rider closed with a 205.5 composite (herd work 68; reined work 71; fence work 66.5). ERCHA/NRCHA – ERCHA – ERCHA REGIONAL ANCILLARY ACTION

Aboard Thaz A Boy, an 11-year-old gelding by ARC Tora Tora out of Snap and Twist owned by Cleo Pugnetti, Alessandro Coppari claimed the $600-added ERCHA/NRCHA Open Bridle win with a 147 (reined work 72; fence work 75). "My horse was really great, even though I didn't man-very good in the reined work, we still have to work down the fence... Today I was lucky; I won by half a point, and I must admit Lady Luck was on my side!"

The Reserve Championship in both divisions, as well

Peter Trixner & CR Tuff Boon Pickens

as the Novice Amateur title, was all for Peter Trixner and his CR Tuff Boon Pickens (Woody Be Tuff x CR Dees Boon Meow), a 4-year-old mare the Austrian rode to a 205 composite (herd work 69.5; reined work 69.5; fence work 66). "I only got this mare about three weeks ago and have not ridden her more than ten times. I feel I was really lucky to make it through the show," said the Austrian rider with a smile. "I am very confident that we will have a good preparation during the month of August so that we can be prepared for the Americana and try to compete there as well as we can. What I love about this mare is that she is very 'cowy,' quick-footed, nice down the fence, and she likes to stay out of trouble. She has a huge heart and the will to please! I would like to take the time to thank ERCHA for the organization of this wonderful show."

The duo closed in front of Vaclav Vacik of the Czech Republic who closed with a 195.5 composite (herd work 60; reined work 64.5; fence work 67) in both divisions atop his own 4-year-old mare Silver Acres Missy (Acres Of Time x Brassy Dual).

GUNNERS SPECIAL NITE'S OFFSPRING SLIDE HIM ONTO THE NRHA THREE MILLION DOLLAR SIRE LIST

Gunners Special Nite does it again: He has unofficially become the newest National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) Three Million Dollar Sire. He reached this milestone less than one year after joining the NRHA Two Million Dollar Sire list in September 2018.

Gunners Special Nite, by NRHA Hall of Fame inductee and Eleven Million Dollar Sire Gunner and out of Mifs Doll, was bred by Kim and Deborah Sloan. In 2010, Turnabout Farm, Inc., purchased the 2004 stallion and stood him at Tom McCutcheon Reining Horses, Inc., in Aubrey, Texas, where he remains today.

Gunners Special Nite made a name for himself in the show pen before moving on to the breeding barn. With NRHA Professionals Tom McCutcheon and Marcy (Ver Meer) Starr at the reins, the stallion earned NRHA Lifetime Earnings (LTE) of nearly $220,000. His top finishes include:

- 2007 NRHA Open Futurity Reserve Champion and Intermediate Open Champion with Starr
- 2009 National Reining Breeders Classic (NRBC) Level (L)4 Open Derby Finalist with Starr

- 2010 NRBC L4 Open Derby top-10 finisher with Starr
- 2010 World Equestrian Games Individual and Team Gold Medalist with McCutcheon

This sire has produced foals that have become NRBC champions as well as NRHA Futurity and NRHA Derby finalists.

His most notable offspring include:

- Modern Gun (out of Taris Modern Design): NRHA LTE more than $175,400
- Baileys Not Painted (out of Darlins Not Painted): NRHA LTE more than $107,840
- Lenas Shining Gun (out of SL Lenas Chick): NRHA LTE more than $90,440
- Gunners Brite Nite (out of Stiletto Tag): NRHA LTE more than $86,650
- Hollywood Nites (out of NRHA Hall of Fame inductee and Million Dollar Dam Dun It For Chex): NRHA LTE more than $83,750

Congratulations to Gunners Special Nite and Turnabout Farm, Inc., on this outstanding achievement!

OKLAHOMA HORSEWOMAN DEBBIE SCHAUF DIES

Debbie Schauf, executive director of the Oklahoma Quarter Horse Racing Association, passed away on August 11, 2019.

The respected horsewoman was serving on the AQHA Racing Council, and worked tirelessly to help horse racing not only in her own state, but the rest of the world. She worked to represent horse racing in regard to racing laws, rules and regulations, medication issues and promotional efforts.

An AQHA life member, she served as a member of the AQHA Racing Committee, the AQHA Affiliate Council and as an AQHA director. She was the recipient of the Mildred N. Vessels Special Achievement Award in 2001 and also accepted the John Andreini Special Recognition Award on behalf of OQHRA in 2009.

All of her life, Debbie had an immense infatuation with the horse business, and has always been involved since she got her first horse at 8 years old. For over 20 years, Debbie was a real estate broker and owned and managed a residential construction and real estate company.

She was recognized with many special awards for her work in Real Estate and continuing education. In 1986, Debbie was elected to two terms in the legislature before taking up a new career providing representation for Quarter Horse racing horsemen. After her four years in the Kansas Legislature, Debbie became the director of the Kansas Horsemen's Association.

In 1991, she accepted a position as general manager of the Pacific Coast Quarter Horse Racing Association, and from 1994 through March 1996 she was director of racing and executive director of the Texas Quarter Horse Association.

Since then, she served in her position with OQHRA, but more than that, she served as a consultant in Quarter Horse racing issues for Idaho, Wyoming, Florida, Georgia, Indiana, and a number of other racing jurisdictions.

"Debbie Schauf's leadership, intellect and tireless dedication to Quarter Horse racing was unsurpassed," said Remington Park general manager Scott Wells. "She was a major positive influence nationally as well as regionally, but it is in Oklahoma where her impact was greatest. She will be sorely missed by all of us here at Remington Park and across the industry."

Debbie was quoted as saying her favorite role in the horse industry was being a grandmother and watching her grandchildren grow in their love for the horses in their lives, and still being able to go to work every day and help make racing as good as it can be for horsemen. She says she could not dream of a life she would like any better.

Services will be held August 22 at Heritage Place. More details are pending.

Our condolences go out to Debbie's family. She will be greatly missed.
