2019 NRHA EUROPEAN AFFILIATE CHAMPIONSHIP: BENELUX REIGNS IN DENMARK!

NRHA EAC Intermediate Open Podium

The National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) European Affiliate Championship, managed by NRHA Denmark and NRHA Norway, provided yet another day of intense competition. It was a great day for Benelux as Tiara van Dongen of the Netherlands and Jody Fonck of Belgium clinched the NRHA EA Intermediate Open and Youth 13 & Under Championships respectively.

The $4,000-added NRHA European Affiliate Intermediate Open kept the public glued to their seats until the very last rider. Draw two in a field of 22 qualified riders, Anders Josefsson of Sweden, riding Maganic for owner Annika Bootsman Kleberg, set the bar by scoring a 218.5. In the last set of riders, Pete Perkiö of Finland aboard his Win-chesteratomic tied to lead until the last combination to go, Dutch Tiara van Dongen and Don Quintanas Whiz (owned by Kristel Wauters) performed to an impressive 221 and the European title. "I cannot believe we actually won, even though that was our goal," said van Dongen. "I knew this mare could do it because she's an awesome horse and really deserves this title. She's 9-years-old and I've had her in training since 2017 but haven't shown her very much. This year I told her owner that we needed to qualify her for the championship because I knew that we could win...and we did!" Both Josefsson and Perkiö were pleased with their co-reserve Championship. "My horse did really well for me today and, since the other horse I qualified was injured yesterday, he covered up for her," said an enthused Josefsson.

“This gelding, who I’ve had in training for three years, has always been really good for me and truly deserves this result.” Perkiö and his gelding came back to the pen with the 2019 NRHA EA Limited Open Co-Reserve Championship under their belts earned the day before: “Once again he was there for me all the way,” said the 25-year-old professional. “This is the second show together for us and going back home with two reserve championships is simply great.”

“When I went in the pen today, I knew I had to give it all we had...”

For Jody Fonck of Belgium, this was her first European Affiliate Championship and, with a great 218.5 riding Topgun Showtime, the young rider clinched the NRHA European Affiliate Youth 13&Under Championship. “I started riding a year and a half ago and my goal for the past year was to qualify for this event,” she said. “When I went in the pen today I knew I had to give it all we had but, during my run, because she kept her head so low in the circles, the left rein went over her neck so I had both reins on one side. I carried on trying to keep calm, and she was there for me all the way. I could not be any happier for this win!” Sliding to the second step of the podium with was yet another Belgian rider — Alicia Nouwen — who rode her Sheza Tuff Jacky to a 217. “I’m very proud of my horse because before this class, for some reason, she was very nervous. Once she went in the pen she calmed down and was just great for me,” said Alicia who was quick to credit her trainer, Wim Verveckken for her result. “I’ve had her for two years now, and thanks to my great trainer we managed to make it to the podium.” It was a special day for 12-year-old Oliver Svensson of Sweden who took third place honors with Shes Madonna, a mare his father [NRHA Professional Johan Svensson] purchased for him three years ago. “I am so proud of my horse,” said Oliver. “She is 16-years-old and when we bought her she was a lesson horse at a riding facility. My father helped me to train her but I have been the only one to ride her. This is a great day for me and, since she is in foal, this will be her last show...I really look forward to riding her baby!”

Friday NRHA Ancillary Action:

In a field of 46 riders, Evelyn Boots of the Netherlands rode to the $500-added NRHA Limited Non Pro win with her own MC Jacs Tuff Girl and a 143 score! Sweden’s Carl Bernadotte, riding Busy Make N Millions, and Teija Pietilä of Finland aboard her Remidoc tied for second place after posting a 141.

Belgium took the first three spots in the $5,000-added NRHA Non Pro counting 11 entries: Steve Vannietvelt took the win with a 221.5 riding What A Wave owned by Gina De Pauw. The 11-year-old stallion is the 2018 World Equestrian Games Individual Gold medalist and last week conquered the SVAG FEI World Reining Championship Individual Young Riders Bronze Medal with Nimroid Vannietvelt in the saddle! Piet Mestdagh and Reining Whiz took second honors and Dries Verschueren atop Smart N Sparking placed third.

Multiple past NRHA Open World Champion Ann Fonck rode to the win with a 222.5 in the $10,000-added NRHA Open riding Spook N Perla owned by Golden Paint Ranch. Fonck also took reserve honors posting a 217 aboard Made In Walla owned by Sabine Lisec and Chuck Klipfel. Miroslav Baniari closed in third place riding Kam Holly Instep for owner Eliza Olach.

ANN FONCK UNOFFICIALLY SURPASSES THE NRHA MILLION DOLLAR RIDER MARK AT THE NRHA EAC!

Saturday closed the great edition of the 2019 National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) European Affiliate Championship held at Tuse Creek Ranch, Regstrup, Denmark, managed by NRHA Norway and NRHA Denmark. Close to 150 horses made their way to the great facility where a total of over 450 entries made their way to the show arena!

Making the great Scandinavian event even more special was the last class of the day on Saturday when multiple past NRHA Open World Champion Ann Fonck unofficially surpassed the NRHA Million Dollar Rider mark winning the $10,000-added NRHA EA Open Championship aboard Spook N Perla. The talented lady rider with the pretty mare owned by Golden Paint Ranch between the reins had won the $10,000-added NRHA Open the day before and had placed second on Made In Walla for owners Sabine Lisec and Chuck Klipfel. "I'm really happy," said Ann Fonck. "Becoming a million-dollar rider was never in my plans! My priority was being a good mommy and for a couple of years, I showed very little. When I went back to showing again, I wanted to prove to myself that I could do something special in a 'man's world.' This is the outcome and I still cannot believe I made it, thanks to the great horses I have had the honor of riding."

The podium was all Belgian as Wim Vervecken scored a great 220 riding Janne Beate Melby's Wimpy Genuinediamond and NRHA Two Million Dollar Rider Bernard Fonck claimed third place honors aboard Missedouttinseltown, also owned by Golden Paint Ranch. "This was a great show, really well organized, and all my horses and non pro and youth riders did really well," said Vervecken. "It was great to be on the podium with Ann and Bernard Fonck. My horse is now 10-years-old and I had bought him for my wife. Since I qualified for the Open, I'm happy that I showed him here and am super proud of this result."

Prior to the closing Championship class, three European Affiliate Championship finals were held:

NRHA EAC Open Podium,

NRHA EAC Limited Non Pro Podium

In a field of 38 qualified riders, Leonoor De Bruin of the Netherlands riding Crome Dont Corrode owned by De Bruin Reining Horses and George Allen Sternberg of Great Britain aboard RS Barbaresco Blue (owned by Francesca Sternberg) between the reins both posted a 216 in the $500-added NRHA EA Limited Non Pro Championship. The two chose to run off for the title and, once they had both performed again, the highest step of the podium was for De Bruin! “This is a dream come true,” said De Bruin. “My horse was really nice to me and yes, I really wanted to make it to the highest step of the podium, especially after having taken part in the Affiliate Championship the past and never placing higher than third a few times. My 11-year-old horse is fantastic and I’ve been riding him for six years now. He truly deserves this Championship title.”

Settling for reserve honors, Allen Sternberg was pleased with his performance. “I had to go to the Belgian Futurity to get enough points to qualify my two horses here,” said George. “It was a goal to do well with both, but I must admit I do have a soft spot for RS Barbaresco Blue. I started riding and showing two years ago; he was the first horse I showed and has pretty much been the only one I’ve been showing. He has done really well for me, is really good minded and is a lovely mover. I would have liked to have been on top of the podium but am happy to have had the joint top score in the first run.”

MC Jacs Tuff Girl slid Evelyn Boots of the Netherlands to third place honors with a great 215.5 score. “I leased this horse just before the Belgian Futurity last year,” said Boots. “I wasn’t really thinking about qualifying for the Affiliate Championships but when I found out we had a second qualifying period, we went for it! She was shown quite a bit until she was 5 years old — she is now 11 — and was out of the show pen for about four years. We brought her back and is now winning everything. We are thrilled!” Boots thanked her trainer Jurgen Pouels who was unable to come to Denmark, and trainer Kim Verveken for helping her out during the Championship.

NRHA EAC Youth 14-18 Podium

The $100-added NRHA EA Youth 14-18 Championship counted 27 qualified young reiners from Europe. Nimroid Vannietvelt of Belgium did it again, this time aboard Nic Ricochet owned by Vannietvelt/De Pauw. With a great performance, he rode his mount to a 221 score and the Championship. “I really love this horse,” said Nimroid. “He already rode me to an Affiliate Championship two years ago, which is when I started riding him. He suffered a small injury three months ago and was in the pasture until two weeks ago. That’s when I started riding him again and he was right there for me. He’s 11-years-old and never tries to trick you in the show pen...he’s simply special!”

With only two horses left to go, Isabeau Keiser of Sweden performed a great run riding her own Gumps Hummer BB. Once they left the show arena, a 218.5 appeared on the scoreboard and the second step of the podium was theirs. “I’ve never scored a 72 with my horse before today and I am thrilled,” said the 15-year-old. “I’ve had my 7-year-old gelding close to three years ago. I fell in love with him when I tried him; he’s a sweet little horse, and was super special for me today.”

Nicoline Andersen Lau of Denmark riding Chic N Charme owned by Annette Andersen and Cora Kümmerling of Sweden reining Asa Kümmerling’s Freckles Whiz Delmaso posted a 213 thus sharing the third step of the podium.

Clinching the $5,000-added NRHA EA Non Pro Championship with a 218.5 score was Dries Verschueren of Belgium riding Smart N Sparkin owned by Golden Paint Ranch. “I am really proud of my horse because he was in the breeding barn until 3 weeks ago and once again when he was back to work, he did an excellent job,” said Verschueren. “My little boy is 11-years-old now and since he was 3-years-old he has done nothing but earn great results. I would like to thank Bernard Fonck for the work on this horse and my parents — without them, I would not have these great horses to show!”

Taking reserve honors was Great Britain’s Francesca

Sternberg who posted a 217.5 riding her own Spooks Gotta Lena and in third place, a point behind was Lia Freriks of the Netherlands atop Ready For Revolution. “This has been a fantastic show and we’ve come as a family, and each component of our family made it to the podium here,” said Sternberg. “My horse is technically Doug’s, who was kind enough to lend her to me for the non pro, and she was great for me: her heart is as big as a house!”

Once the curtain fell upon the Mega Arena at Tuse Creek Ranch, Sweden officially topped the 2019 NRHA European Affiliate Championship Country Standings with 413 points. The Swedish Reining Horse Association will receive $500 from the National Reining Horse Association for leading the standings!

The NRHA European Affiliate Championship Youth Team Tournament counted 14 teams, each composed of two 14-18 Youth and two Youth 13 & Under riders. The top 10 teams each received a medallion offered by NRHA and the winning team components each received Montana Silversmiths buckle.

Helping the Youth of the Reining Industry

ADH MOR RANCH/CRUSH ARE CRUSHING THE ENTRY FEES AT THE TULSA REINING CLASSIC!

Brad and Amanda Kelly and their Adh Mor Ranch have become known for supporting kids in the name of their beloved stallion, PS Mega Shine Chic, affectionately known as "Crush."

Their focus on youth continues at the Tulsa Reining Classic with a new sponsorship – Crushing the Fees – in which all youth entry costs will be paid. In other words, riders in all the youth classes at the TRC will have their fees paid, including entry, video, drug and judges fees!

"It is so exciting to be able to give something back to the youth who support the Tulsa Reining Classic. This was an idea that Fred Tremblay had for Crush and we are delighted to get all the details worked out," said Show Manager Cheryl Cody. "We feel that youth are the future of our industry and want to help make showing better for them. We are very happy to partner with the Kellys – and Crush – to make this happen."

Amanda Kelly noted. "We want to support you the youth because they are what keeps this industry going. Most horse show kids follow their parents and grandparents around dreaming of being them. This give the youth the opportunity to go into the show pen with a little less pressure. This industry is expensive and we as the owners of Adh Mor Ranch and Crush want to give them a break financially so they can just get on their horses and do what they really want to do there - go show!"

PS Mega Shine Chic "CRUSH" is a 6-year-old AQHA stallion by Shine Chic Shine out of Megas Sugar Baby. He was a 2016 NRHA Futurity Level 4 Finalist and 2017 NRBC Open Reserve Champion and has earned over $188,000.

Beside raising reining horses, the Kelly's ranch also produces top rodeo cattle. Their best bull, Double Bid, is currently on the Professional Bull Riders (PBR) Ford Tough Tour.

WCRHA STAR SPANGLED SLIDE

The Star Spangled Slide slid into action on July 4th at the West Coast Reining Horse Association's last affiliate show of the year. Red, white, and blue decorated the grounds of the Brookside Show Park in Elk Grove, California, from USA flags greeting exhibitors as they drove in to festive decor from the patriotically colored awards presented to class winners to the giant USA flag which was unfurled in the arena prior to the derbies. Many of the exhibitors use this show as a family "showcation", as there are plenty of post-show activities to keep everyone busy. On-site meals were available every evening, preceded by libations and appetizers beforehand at the Wine Down Bar conveniently located next to the Warm Up arena, and many families enjoyed the pool between and after classes.

Saturday was a busy day for the WCRHA Youth! Youth reining classes ran all morning. Then, youth riders and non-riders were kept busy with, not one, but two fund raisers! Daytime hours found the kids busy at the wash rack, holding their annual Horse Wash using grooming products generously sponsored by Farnam. Saturday night was extra special as the kids held a dessert auction at the "In Honor of Delbert Tullos" potluck dinner. Delbert was a past WCRHA president and loyal supporter of the WCRHA youth. Michelle Devine reported that the evening was filled with great food, love, and laughter! Ollie Galligan, WCRHA in-house auctioneer, was supported by spotters Mike Boyle, David Hanson, and Jason Richards in procuring bids for the yummy desserts which averaged $75 to $100 per item. The top selling dessert was a chocolate cake that brought $300! In order to boost the bids on the last couple of items, Auctioneer Ollie offered to display his dancing best. The bidders met his challenge, and Ollie enthusiastically responded with his native country's Irish Jig! Kudos to the youth and their advisor Tereasa Canada and supporter Michelle Devine for raising over $2500, proceeds of which will go towards the Year End Youth award saddles. Great job, WCRHA Youth!

Added Open Derby. Eighteen riders answered the challenge put forth by WCRHA trainers via facebook—"Are you in it to win it?" And, they did not disappoint when it came to executing speedy, precise maneuvers in the show pen on Saturday evening. Their efforts were rewarded by a "standing room only" crowd that encouraged every rider with enthusiastic and raucous cheers and whistles. In the $10,000 Added 7M Ranch Level 4, Jordan Larson took Champion and Reserve with two horses owned by Tzvika Knaani who resides in Israel. Gunnashine Ya earned a score of 148 and Rio Killer Gun scored 147. The two horses earned $10,000 for their efforts! With scores of 144.5, third place was a tie between Reddy Aim Shine On, ridden by Ollie Galligan and owned by Elizabeth Atkins, and The PI Guy shown by Chuy Chavez and owned by Linda Barsalou. Fifth place went to Mister Smartypants, exhibited by Gabe Davide and owned by Eileen Maxinoski. In the $3000 Added Level 1, Ollie Galligan emerged the Champion on Reddy Aim Shine On. Reserve Champion went to Sam Kawanishi's The Prima Ballerina with John Irish showing, scoring 143.5. Tying for third and fourth with scores of 143 were Thad Carr on his own Heza Mega Watt and Mister Smartypants shown by Gabe Davide. Fifth place awards went to Mob Dolled Up ridden by John Irish, owned by Deborah Walker, who tied with Whizky Drinkn Princess, shown for the McLeod Family Farms by Kelly Keenan.

The highlight of the show was undoubtedly the $13,000

*Brooke Boyle - $7,500 Carr Performance Horses/Boyle Ranch
L4 Non Pro Derby Champion*

The Non Pros came to play in their $7,500 Added Carr Performance Horses/Boyle Ranch Non Pro Derby! Nine hopefuls laid out their best efforts to claim money and prizes. In the $5000 Added Level 4, Brooke Boyle scored a 145.5 to emerge victorious on Sunset Nite, owned by her dad, Mike Boyle. Close behind for the Reserve Championship honors, with a 145, was Cam Essick on her own, home-bred and raised, Loveya. Scores of 140 were good enough to split third and fourth monies between Lady Bang Bang, owned and shown by Britta Jacobson, and Whizky Drinkn Princess, shown by Campbell McLeod and owned by the McLeod Family Farms. Fifth place went to Nicole Cox piloting her own Gotta Smart Whiz to a score of 138.5. In Level 1, congrats go to Britta Jacobson again for winning the Championship and to Nicole Cox for the Reserve Championship. With a score of 137, Derek Brummett came in third on Ima Shiny Mister owned by himself and his wife, Kelli. Rica Macalvey was fourth on Doree Sims' Got Guns A Blazin. Cam was Prime Time Champion with Britta coming in Reserve. Derek took third place honors with Vicki Dias coming in fourth on her own ARC Dun With Ya. Great job of showing from all the Non Pros!

A mega thanks goes to all those who financially supported the Open and Non Pro Derbies—7M Ranch, Grocery Outlet Bargain Market, Carr Performance Horses, Boyle Ranch, Galligan Performance Horses, Dr. Bo Felix, Dr. Marty Gardner, Larson Performance Horses, Hanson Performance Horses, Gilson Performance Horses, GD Performance Horses, Padilla Performance Horses, 55 Performance Horses, Chavez Performance Horses, and Walden Performance Horses. Aged Event Buckles were sponsored by Dave & Lisa Dentoni, Ed & Connie Glavis, Dave & Anne Driscoll, Geir & Jill Ramleth, Candice Thompson, Debbie Avila, Gretchen Vogelsang and Peterson Wealth Management.

Other exhibitors had great results with their reining steeds in the NRHA Affiliate and WCRHA classes as well as an assortment of AQHA approved classes. This was the last opportunity for WCRHA riders to qualify for the NRHA Regional Affiliate Finals to be held in October at the Idaho Horse Park. Pleasant temperatures, which continued throughout the show days, greeted Non Pro riders as they started the day on Thursday. Ken Hamilton laid down the winning run in the Novice Horse Non Pro Level 1 class on his wife's reiner California Girl with a 70.5. Close behind by just half a point was Derek Brummett on Ima Shiny Mister. There was a three-way tie for first place in the Novice Horse Non Pro Level 2. Scoring 70s were Tereasa Canada on her EZ On The Slide, Britta Jacobson with her Ms Benz, and Megan Lynch on Revolutionic owned by herself and Ashley Lynch.

Mike Boyle & Chics Dream - $2K Grocery Outlet Open Maturity L4

The Open riders hit the arena next. Earning the Championship in the $2000 Added Grocery Outlet Open Maturity Level 4 was Mike Boyle on Elizabeth McHugh's Chics Dream with a score of 145. Martin Padilla, on Cassandra Kindle's Ill Be Smokinum, scored a 144.5 for the Reserve Championship. In the $1000 Added Grocery Outlet Maturity Level 1, Kain Emmons took the Championship on Morgan Davis' Ghostsliderinthesky, earning a 141 from the judges. Christian Rammerstorfer on his faithful Maddox scored 139.5 for the Reserve. Mike Boyle also won the Open as Mr Twister Whiz, guided by David Hanson and owned by Lisa Dentoni, tied with Westside Rambler, shown by Martin Padilla and owned by Kurt Tate, for the second place awards. Mr Twister Whiz also won the Intermediate Open with his score of 144.5. Mister Smartypants was shown to a score of 143.5 by Gabe Davide to claim first place in the Limited Open as well as second in the Intermediate Open. Second in Limited Open was Chics Revolutions owned by Anna Lohr and shown by David Worley. The Prime Time Open class was the largest of the Open classes and was won by Mike Boyle and Chics Dream. Lady Bang Bang slid to a 138 to win second with her rider/owner Britta Jacobson.

The younger riders started off a beautiful Friday morning.

Logan Lindberg & Chicadero WCRHA Youth

With a solid 70, Logan Lindberg and his sister Tessa's trusty gelding Chicadero took the top prize in the WCRHA Youth class. Trevor Skadden, riding Bills Sparklindiamond, was second with a 66.5. Margaret Chancellor on her Dunit With A Shine was first in the AQHA Youth with 69.5.

The NRHA Green classes followed and were very competitive with close scoring taking the high placing spots. Besting a large class of 21 exhibitors in the Level 1, Rob Di Napoli rode Hand Painted Tag to a winning score of 71.5. Close behind with a 71 was Kelly Staley on her own Like Madd. Rob's score was good for second place in the Level 2 right behind Paley Capachi on her Lights In The Waves with a 72. Great showing from the Green reiners!

Martin Padilla & Ill Be Smokinum - Novice Horse Open Champions

The Novice Horse Open riders were next on the scene! Martin Padilla, riding Cassandra Kindle's Ill Be Smokinum, laid down a serious run of 73.5 which topped the Level 2 class. David Hanson was second on Melinda Gaw's Rockabilly Banjo with 72. Eighteen horse and riders showed up for the Level 1 class. The top two placings proved to be a family affair! Mike Boyle gathered first place awards with a 71.5 on Pam Hurst's Rock N Roll Baby while his sister, Jeanne Levine, was close on his heels with a 71 showing her own Dreaminofchicsncash.

Rob Di Napoli & Hand Painted Tag - NRHA Green Reiner Champions

The younger reiners were "up and at 'em" bright and early on Saturday morning to show the judges their best! Trevor Skadden on Bills Sparklindiamond and Madison Stephenson on Lil Miss Maddox shared first place honors in the Youth 13 & Under with scores of 69. Abby Lubin on Stars Revolution and Megan Lynch on Revolutionic turned in "revolutionizing" scores of 70.5 to share first place in the Youth 14 - 18. The two cowgirls also won the Unrestricted Youth class topping a class of eleven riders. As winners of the Unrestricted Youth class, Abby and Megan were presented with commemorative buckles sponsored by "Friends of Delbert Tullos." Then, Abby gathered her third first place win of the morning in the Youth Rookie as Madison Stephenson was second. Great job of showing your horses, WCRHA Youth!

Seven ten and under equestrians showed up to ride in the Short Stirrup class. Coming in first with a commendable score of 72 was Steven Allen, Jr. on his dad's Crome Topsail. Isabella Hall showed the renowned Reeboks Rerun, owned by McLeod Family Farms, to a score of 72 to gather second place honors. It was great to see the enthusiastic and very capable "up and comers" show their reiners!

The Non Pros filled the rest of the day with concurrent runs in ten classes of NRHA and AQHA classes. Kathleen Cook on her Chics Double Magnum was the happy winner

Kathleen Cook on Chics Double Magnum - Non Pro Champion of the Championship buckles in the NRHA $2000 Added Grocery Outlet Non Pro Maturity Levels 1 and 4 with a score of 144.5. Britta Jacobson on Ms Benz and Debi Murnan on Jacs Red Pine shared second place honors in Level 4 with 144 scores. Britta was also second in the Level 1. The three reiners were also the top of the class in the $500 Added Prime Time Maturity as well as the Non Pro affiliate class. Finally, Britta and Debi split first place monies in the Prime Time Non Pro affiliate class. Britta captured first in the Intermediate Non Pro and Terry Holland on Holly Rowdy Whiz was second with a score of 143. Way to go, ladies!

with Kathleen Cook proving that age is just a number. She took the class with her high score of 144.5. Mark Faley was second. Cam Essick won the AQHA Amateur class scoring 141.5 and Caitlin Fike was second with 138 in a class of 6 entries. Kathleen Cook was difficult to beat once again in the AQHA Amateur Select as she bested a class of eight reiners. Megan Lindberg was second. Congratulations to all the exhibitors for an afternoon of great goes in the Non Pro reining pen!

David Bunfill on Gunnatrashya Dream

A large class of 22 horses in the Snaffle Bit/Hackamore class began the last day of the show on Sunday. David Bunfill took the class with a score of 71.5 on his Gunnatrashya Dream. With scores of 70.5, David Hanson, on Anne Driscoll's Brooks and Gun, and Martin Padilla, on Tobyann Faingold's Nickis Special Nite, shared second place.

Megan Lindberg on Custom Banjo - Limited Non Pro Champion

Topping a class of 24 entries in the Limited Non Pro was Megan Lindberg on Custom Banjo with 142.5. Mark Faley was second on Crome Starlight with 141. Thirteen "60-years plus" riders showed off their expertise in the Masters class

Abby Lubin - Green As Grass Champion

Youth exhibitor Abby Lubin and her Stars Revolution continued with their winning ways as they won the Green As Grass class with a score of 70.5. Lauren Crutchfield, showing Mike Silva's Shewhiz Electric, was second with 68.

Kurt Tate on Westside Rambler - Roolie L1 & L2 Champion

The last classes of the show featured the Rookie reiners! Kurt Tate, scoring 72 on his Westside Rambler, proved victorious in Rookie 1 and 2, Prime Time Rookie, and the WCRHA Green classes. Danica Caravetta, reining on her Mister Big Gun, was second in the Rookie 1 as well as first in the AQHA Amateur Level 1 with a 71. Laetitia Loubser and her pretty palomino gelding, Coronas In Hollywood, was second in both Rookie 2 and Prime Time Rookie with a score of 71. Natalie Cook, on Marlana Got Nicd, shared second place in the WCRHA Green class with Casandra Kindle, on Ill Be Smokinum, with scores of 70.5. In the AQHA Amateur Level 1 Reining, Kelly Staley was second on her Like Madd with a 70.

A Ranch Riding Clinic was held on Thursday. Eighteen riders participated in the two-hour, informational and interactive clinic which was free to anyone who attended. It was conducted by AQHA Judge Chris Bugenig in an adjacent arena to where the reining classes were being judged. Following the final rider in the reining pen, AQHA-approved Ranch Riding classes were held. The Open Ranch Riding was won by Jeanine Burkart on Gunnabeatya. Rosie Irish came in second on Don't Mess Whiz Me. Placings were switched in the Amateur Ranch Riding with Rosie in first and Jeanine Burkart in second. Derek Brummett on Thischicsamistress won the Amateur Select Ranch Riding. Mike Barrington on Red Velvet Rooster was second. Next was the Ranch Riding Novice Amateur Level 1 which found Spook Me Now, shown by Joanna Brewer, on top of the class with Just shining and rider Connie Glavis in second. Winning the Youth Ranch Riding was Margaret Chancellor on Dunit With A Shine with Rita Kamali on Maddly In Love coming in second. The WCRHA Ranch Riding All Ages proved to be the largest class. It was won by Martin Padilla on TCR Gone N Dunit, and, in second, was Stephanie Munzinger on AUS High Whiz. A fun day with instruction and competition for the Ranch Riders!

All in all, the four day Star Spangled Slide, with $33,500 added money, provided great show conditions for the reining horses and their riders and exciting viewing for the spectators. Thank you to the WCRHA Board of Directors and all others who work behind the scenes to provide this great opportunity to show reining horses, coming from all over California, Oregon, and Nevada. Thanks again to all the wonderful and generous sponsors who made this a very special show! The next and last WCRHA show will be the Year End show on August 22 – 25. See you all there!

CIRA BAECK: READY FOR A NEW ADVENTURE WITH ELEMENTA

On July 16th, the announcement was made of a new partnership that promises great things: the collaboration between NRHA Million Dollar Rider Cira Baeck and Elementa. The Belgian rider has officially taken command of the Roman center's technical progress alongside the Brazilian trainer, Edvaldo Gonzalves, who has been there since last January.

Cira Baeck is so far the only professional horsewoman to have reached - and exceeded - a million dollars in NRHA lifetime earnings. This stands as a milestone in the history of reining, especially if you consider that she did so by competing in European events where the purses have, until now, been on average much lower than in the US. Having held the position of head trainer at Swiss CS Ranch for several years, Cira has now decided to embark upon a new adventure with the Elementa team. Although it has only recently appeared on the reining scene, Elementa has already been the focus of much attention for proposing two record-breaking events that will be a watershed in European reining: the richest circuit of special events ever (Elementa Masters, which will start in 2021), preceded by the richest event approved valid for NRHA Standings, namely the Elementa Masters Premiere, scheduled to take place at Verona's Fieracavalli this November. Standards of quality previously unseen in the world of reining and above all innovative ideas regarding competition rules based on transparency and absolute respect for horses are the distinctive and, in a sense, revolutionary aspects of Elementa's philosophy.

Cira's family owns the Eifel Gold Ranch in Belgium, a splendid center where many Champions have been raised, but she has always been convinced that you can only really improve and grow by "flying the nest": "I love my country", she comments, "but I'd rather go there on holiday than live there. Our ranch in Belgium is the perfect place to breed foals and raise them healthily and happily, then they will come to study at university in Rome!"

Cira picked up her first winning check back in 2002 as a Non Pro and thus began to accumulate the dollars that would take her closer to the Olympus of the Million Dollar Riders worldwide. She switched to the Open categories in 2011 and started winning more generous earnings. Cira immediately made her mark in a string of Futurity Championships through Europe taking Champion and Reserve Champion titles at Levels 1 and 2. In 2012, she had found the horse that would consolidate her reputation among the big players on the European scene, Whizasunnysailor BB, bred at the family's Eifel Gold ranch; together the pair would earn close to $150,000.

Here is a summary of Cira's show record up to April 2019: three times NRHA Open World Champion Top Five, twice the only digital magazine on an app entirely dedicated to the sport of reining, its horses and all its protagonists throughout the world

In the March magazine:

- Our cover trainer of March is Duane Latimer, reigning Champion of the NRBC Open, who we interviewed in the lead-up to the 2019 edition. The Canadian-born trainer talked about his system for teaching the stop and rollback, and how experience is healthy for a trainer to learn how to control his own stress as well as that of his horses and to understand when it is time to stop

- The 28th of February marked the deadline for presenting the 'non-binding expression of interest' in hosting the next edition of the World Championships in 2022 for the various equestrian disciplines: Italy stepped forward to take pole position in this great challenge, with the splendid facility of Elementa near Rome. At the very same time by coincidence, members of the McCutcheon family (Tom, Mandy and Cade) were present in Rome as guests of Maria Cecilia Fiorucci of Elementa. We chatted with them about the WEG, among other things...

- We present another four-legged star, getting to know more about the beautiful mare Dun It For Chex, owned by Cardinal Reining Horses (Aubrey, Tx) and NRHA Hall of Famer since June 2018. She looks to be the horse that will become the second Million Dollar Dam in history after Ebony Shines

- A much-appreciated guest in this issue is Doug Allen from Great Britain: a rider and judge at the highest levels, for the readers of Horsense he reveals all the secrets of the freeze-up as seen from the 'chair' as well as answering some more general questions on the work of an NRHA judge

- Finally, our journey continues among those companies proposing innovative ideas for the sports horse and reining in particular: this time we talk with Gianni Guidolin, of the international feed group that bears this surname. Gianni explains how despite its size it has retained an 'artisan's' vocation in a row NRHA Non Pro World Champion, six other Top Ten placings in the same division. Three-time FEI World Equestrian Games medallist: 2010, 2014, and 2018 Team Silver Medallist for Belgium. Of course, there is no lack of successes and lots of Top Ten placings in the major European aged events, among which in 2013 the IRHA-NRHA Derby Level 4 Open Championship with Whizasunnysailor BB and the following year the 2014 NRHA European Derby Level 4 Open Champion title with Colonels Shining Gun and her best score ever: a fabulous 231.5. The title that took her to Million Dollar status was the Reserve Open Championship riding NF Shining Whiz in Cremona's 2018 Big Futurity; she was also 2019 EuroFuturity Open Reserve Champion with the same horse.

“We are looking forward to working with Cira,” says Domenico Lomuto, Director of Communications for Elementa. “In addition to her undoubted technical skills, her reputation as a trainer who, together with her family, has been fighting for years for an ethical approach to reining that is devoid of any physical or mental violence on horses, made her perfect choice for us. Her training program is based on clear communication with her horses, who are visibly calm even when the pressure of such demanding competitions is inevitably felt. And for Elementa this is very important”. Cira confirms this: “I am absolutely certain that it is not a problem to train a successful horse and take him to the top of the classes without stressing him and respecting all the rules for his welfare. What you need for this is a good training program and a talented horse, one that is also willing to commit to becoming the best! People often forget that the horse needs to have a sporting personality as much as the rider: he must certainly be guided and motivated, but he must also share that adrenaline rush you get when showing, just like any rider.” And talking of adrenaline, Edvaldo Gonzalves is also enthusiastic about the latest addition to Elementa's team: “I welcome the chance to see a sports personality of Cira's caliber at work, so having her here will be very stimulating. I can't wait to start this new adventure together!”

TULSA REINING CLASSIC STAYS ON TRACK WITH BACK ON TRACK

The Board of Directors of the Tulsa Reining Classic welcomes Back On Track as a sponsor for the eighth consecutive year! Winners of a number of high-profile classes at TRC will again enjoy receiving Back On Track's high-tech therapeutic products as awards. The Tulsa Reining Classic, produced by Global Reining Sport Group, is a landmark reining event set for August 26-September 1.

Both the Tulsa Reining Classic and Back On Track appreciate the value of long-term partnerships like this one. The partnership provides a means of reaching more people with news of Back On Track's superb products plus the sponsorship provides reiners with high-quality prizes that they will look forward to using.

Global Reining Sport Group President Colleen McQuay said, "The Back on Track products allow us to do what is best for our horses both at home and on the road. Their ease of use allows us to be consistent with our therapy. Using the product myself confirms the amazing results we see with our horses!"

Manufacturers of state-of-the-art therapeutic products, Back On Track's joint and muscle protection items are manufactured from a ceramic textile. The textile is made up of fibers of polyester and polypropylene (some of the products are mixed with cotton fibers) with a ceramic powder fused into the fibers. The ceramic, which will never wash out, gives the fabric its unique property. When heated, the ceramic particles radiate warmth back towards the body. This reflected heat is long-wave heat radiation, which is also known as long wave infrared radiation. It is well established and documented that long wave infrared heat radiation increases blood circulation reducing inflammation and speeding healing.

To learn more about Back On Track and the diverse selection of products that it offers, visit www.BackOnTrackProducts.com.

In close to two decades, the Tulsa Reining Classic has grown into one of the National Reining Horse Association's top ten events in the world - one that stays on the yearly calendar of top reiners and reining programs throughout the country. It features three futurities and two derbies plus a full slate of horse show classes. It also hosts the NRHA's South Center Affiliate Regional Finals. A great location, facilities, show management and the growing support of reiners in the South Central area and beyond, as well as to the innovative and "niche" events the show has created have all contributed to its success. # MARKEL INSURANCE PRESENTS A NIGHT OF HIDDEN TALENT AT TRC!

Thanks to the support of longtime sponsor Markel Insurance, a new night of fun is set for Friday, August 30 at the Tulsa Reining Classic. The Markel Insurance Night of Hidden Talent will showcase reiners with a range of talent from dancing to singing and more. They'll perform to benefit the Reining Horse Foundation.

The evening will begin after the always popular View From The Judges' Chair, a seminar that helps riders understand their scores and how to best present their performance to judges. That takes place in the Ford Truck Arena Exhibit Hall, near the horse show office.

At the conclusion of the seminar, approximately 5-5:30, the party will begin, with food, drinks and fun served right there in the Exhibit Hall, adjacent to the classroom area. Longtime Tulsa Announcer Paul Sullivan and his wife, Dody, will provide live music to begin the night as people enjoy the catered meal thanks to Markel Insurance.

Then the competition begins with reiners competing for bragging rights and the win of the Talent Show. Attendees will vote for their favorites with pledges to the Reining Horse Foundation. Currently slated to be part of the fun are Casey and Nicole Deary, Cody Crowe, Jeff Petska and Frank Costantini. If you have a talent and are interested in performing to benefit the Reining Horse Foundation please contact info@tulsareining.com. Spaces in the contest will be limited so contact us soon!

Colleen McQuay, President of Global Reining Sport Group, which produces the event, is excited to partner with Markel Insurance to present the Night of Hidden Talent. "We are glad to have an opportunity to thank our exhibitors and supporters in this way, and to benefit the Reining Horse Foundation."

Markel Insurance Director of Western Disciplines Frank Costantini was glad to sponsor this event. "This will be an evening that is all about fun and time with friends. That's the great thing about the reining world; we are all part of a community that shares some very special times. I'm glad that Markel can sponsor a venue where our reining family can enjoy time spent together."

Markel Insurance is a mainstay not only in the reining world but also in the entire horse industry for decades, with over 50 years of expertise in insuring horses and horse-related businesses.

As a leader in the horse insurance industry, Markel pioneered many of the equine coverages available today. Its insurance products include: Horse Mortality, Private Horse Owner Liability, Farm/Ranch Property and Commercial Equine Liability. You can even purchase equine insurance online 24-hours a day! # SHAPLEY'S TULSA REINING CLASSIC BEST GROOM AWARD RETURNS IN 2019!

It takes a team to show horses and last year Tulsa Reining Classic joined with Shapley's Equine Products for the first ever Tulsa Reining Classic Shapley's Best Groom awards. This year, thanks to Shapleys, the groom of the best turned out horse will receive a silver engraved julep cup and a bucket of Shapleys Superior Equine Grooming products. The Tulsa Reining Classic, produced by Global Reining Sport Group, is a landmark reining event set for August 26-September 1.

"We are so glad to welcome Shapley's back and thank them for sponsoring these awards," noted Colleen McQuay, president of Global Reining Sport Group, which produces the Tulsa Reining Classic. "Shapley's products are a favorite of the reining world and all other disciplines and continue to meet the demands for products that are best for our horses. We appreciate that they choose the Tulsa Reining Classic to support!"

Grooms at the Tulsa Reining Classic can fill out a free entry form, then a panel of Tulsa Reining Classic judges including staff at all arenas will have the job of choosing the winners. Winners will be announced on Saturday at the conclusion of the Hollywoodstinseltown Open Futurity.

For over 75 years, generations of horsemen around the world have placed their trust in Shapley's Superior Equine Grooming Products. They offer an extensive line of products, all starting with their initial product - Original M-T-G. It's time to experience why so many horse lovers trust their horse's care and wellbeing to Shapley's! For information visit www.shapleys.com.

"Entries are open for the 53rd Annual Congress Super Sale, held annually with the All American Quarter Horse Congress produced by the Ohio Quarter Horse Association," announces Mike Jennings, of the Professional Horse Services, LLC team that manages the auction. "We encourage sellers to enter their good horses early this year. In 2018, the auction filled and we had to turn down some horses."

The 2019 Congress Super Sale will again feature three sessions. There will be two Yearling Sale Stakes sessions, one for Western Pleasure yearlings and, for the second year, a session for Hunter Under Saddle yearlings. The third session, the "Super Session", is open to show horses, broodmares, stallions and other prospects.

The 2019 Sales Stakes classes will pay large purses to yearlings that were offered

NRHA ANNOUNCES HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

Following the presentation of the Hall of Fame Committee's recommended nominees, the National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) Board of Directors and past Hall of Fame inductees voted to approve Snip O Gun, Roberto Cuoghi, and Claudio Risso for induction into the NRHA Hall of Fame, a project of the Reining Horse Foundation (RHF).

Snip O Gun

Snip O Gun, by One Gun and out of Miss Kim O Lena, was purchased by her current owner, Tammye Hutton of Hilldale Farm in Brashear, Texas, as a 4-year-old from Hill and Dollie Clements. While she has never shown in the arena, this exceptional mare has proven herself as a star dam from her first foal, producing some of today's most recognizable reining horses.

American Quarter Horse Congress Open Futurity and placed in the top 5 at the 2004 NRHA Open Futurity, 2005 National Reining Breeders Classic (NRBC) Open, and 2010 FEI World Equestrian Games.

This 1993 mare's 17 money-earning offspring have placed her fourth on the NRHA Leading Dams list, with a total of more than $930,000 in NRHA Lifetime Earnings (LTE). Snip O Gun's first offspring, by NRHA Three Million Dollar Sire New Chex To Cash, was Flash Me A Chex who was a 2013 NRHA Limited Non Pro Futurity finalist. She's produced 13 additional foals by Nu Chex To Cash, nine of which were NRHA money earners. Some of the pair's most successful offspring include:

Big Chex To Cash ($194,260 LTE) who holds the titles of 2005 NRHA Open Futurity Reserve Champion and 2007 NRHA Open Derby Reserve Champion. He's also a prolific sire of reining horses with offspring approaching the million-dollar mark in NRHA competition.

Hot Smokin Chex ($186,598 LTE) who won the 2004 All Chexmaster ($103,911 LTE) who was the 2014 NRHA Second Go Open Futurity finalist, 2015 Reining By The Bay Open Derby Reserve Champion, and two-time NRBC Classic finalist.

Snip O Satellite ($52,057 LTE) who was the 2015 NRHA Novice Horse Non Pro Level One Futurity Champion, a 2016 NRHA Derby L3 Non Pro finalist, and the 2018 NRHA Intermediate Non Pro World Champion.

Snip O Chex ($50,648 LTE) who was a 2006 NRHA Non Pro Futurity finalist and a 2008 NRHA Open Derby finalist.

Snip O Gun has also been matched with several other well-known NRHA stallions, delivering high achievers. Her most successful son in the arena is Inferno Sixty Six ($205,690 LTE) by Gunnatrashya, an NRHA Two Million Dollar Sire. She also produced Snip O One ($32,261 LTE) by A Sparkling Vintage, an NRHA Million Dollar Sire.

She had three offspring who were NRBC open finalists in 2019 and continues to produce quality offspring that leave

Robert Cuoghi

Roberto Cuoghi has been involved in the reining world for more than 30 years. Today, he's one of NRHA's most successful European owners, breeders, and nominators with offspring both on the top and bottom side of well-known, performing reiners. Cuoghi was the first owner to enter an Italian-bred horse, Master Snapper, in the NRHA Derby. Master Snapper went on to win all three divisions of the 2006 NRHA Open Derby with Kelly Zweifel. Cuoghi paved the road for many European breeders who've followed in his footsteps.

Cuoghi established Europe's successful Italian Reining Horse Breeders Association (IRHBA). He has an ongoing partnership with Eleuterio Arcese to purchase reining horses from the United States to use in the program. The IRHBA has played a vital role in the Italian Reining Horse Association (IRHA) through consistent sponsorships.

Beyond his success in the European breeding industry, Cuoghi has influenced other realms of the sport. He served as a board member of both NRHA and IRHA. He's served as IRHA President since 2007 as president of the NRHA European Council since its inception.

Additionally, Cuoghi supports and sponsors youth reining programs. His involvement spans the Federation Equestre Internationale (FEI) European Championships for Seniors, Juniors and Young Riders, the NRHA World Reining Championship, and his latest contribution hosting the inaugural NRHA/RHF/IRHA Global Youth Reining Cup in Cremona, Italy.

Cuoghi continues to be fundamental in serving as an intermediary between European members and NRHA leadership on important matters regarding the reining industry.

Claudio Risso

Claudio Risso's name is synonymous with reining all over the world. His NRHA membership dates back to the early 90s and spans many categories—owner, exhibitor, breeder, nominator, and mentor.

Risso is 14th on NRHA's Leading Owner list by breeding money-earning offspring that have accumulated more than $912,000 in LTE. Most recently, his horse Spat Olena made history as the first European horse to make NRHA's Million Dollar Sire list.

Not only has he supplied reining horses to almost all of Europe, but Risso is a big promoter of reining throughout Western Europe. He's mentored many well-known European reining trainers' careers including Maurizio Tonini, Mike Davis, Jim Kiser, Stefano Massignan, Martin Gamper, Nicoli Bruneli, Peirlugi Chiodo, Matteo Cunillo, and Matteo Nadalina. Risso is also an IRHA Past President and Board Member.

Risso has earned many accolades in the arena. Some of his top triumphs include 2002 NRHA European Championship Show Non Pro Champion, 2008 IRHA Non Pro Closed Futurity Reserve Champion, 2009 and 2011 IRHA Non Pro Futurity Champion, 2010 NRHA Breeder's Non Pro Snaffle Bit Futurity Champion, and 2009, 2013, and 2014 NRHA European Non Pro Futurity Champion. In the race for NRHA World Championships, Risso is the 2010 Non Pro Reserve Champion, 2011 World Champion, and 2012 World Champion.

He has also been instrumental in the promotion of the FEI Reining Championships in Manerbio and worked very closely with Cesare' Croce, the Italian Equestrian Federation, and the FEI to promote youth events around the world.

Hall of Fame Inductions

The inductees and soon-to-be-announced NRHA Lifetime Achievement Award recipient will be honored at Sliders'

Night Out on December 4 at State Fair Park in Oklahoma City during the NRHA Futurity. RHF is creating a special night recognizing new and previous NRHA Hall of Fame inductees. For details on how to become a Hall of Fame table host or major event donor, contact RHF Executive Director Leslie Baker at lbaker@nrha.com or (405) 946-7400.

ANN FONCK JOINS NRHA'S MILLION DOLLAR RIDER LIST

The National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) unofficially welcomes NRHA Professional Ann Fonck as the third female, and second European female, to join the list of Million Dollar Riders. Fonck's winning ride at the $10,000-added 2019 NRHA European Affiliate (EA) Championship in Denmark this past weekend pushed her past the earnings milestone.

Riding Spook N Perla, owned by Golden Paint Ranch, Fonck earned a score of 225 to take the NRHA EA Open title on Saturday. During Friday's action, Fonck rode Spook N Perla to a score of 222½ and the class win in the ancillary open. She also piloted Made In Walla, owned by Sabine Lisec and Chuck Klipfel, to a Reserve Championship with a score of 217.

The Belgian's earnings have come from European events. Fonck won her first NRHA paycheck in 2001 and has actively competed in European NRHA events ever since. Fonck has received multiple honors during the past decade and a half, including the following:

- Two-time NRHA Open World Champion: 2008 on Lenas Pegesis and 2014 on Ebony Spook
- Multiple FEI World Equestrian Games medalist: 2010, 2014, and 2018 Team Silver Medalist for Belgium
- Three-time NRHA European L4 Open Futurity Reserve Champion: 2010 on Gunspinner, 2013 on Roosters Minnie, and 2015 on Roses for Einstein
- Two-time NRHA European L4 Open Derby Champion: 2012 on Spook A Little and 2018 on Shiners Voodoo
- Three-time NRHA European L4 Open Derby Reserve Champion: 2013 on Ebony Spook, 2017 on Made In Walla, and 2018 on Made In Walla
- Two-time NRHA European Level (L) 4 Open Futurity Champion: 2016 on Roosters Attitude and 2017 on Shiners Voodoo
- 2016 NRHA Open Reserve World Champion on Ebony Spook
- Two-time NRHA EA L4 Open Champion: 2017 on Gunnerlicious and 2019 on Spook N Perla

NRHA extends big congratulations to Ann Fonck on this accomplishment!

DAVID SILVA, SR. TO RECEIVE DALE WILKINSON LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

In 2007, the National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) Hall of Fame Committee initiated the NRHA Dale Wilkinson Lifetime Achievement Award, supported by the Reining Horse Foundation (RHF). Each year, the NRHA Board of Directors and past Hall of Fame inductees vote to approve a worthy candidate for recognition. This year's recipient is David Silva, Sr.

When contacted about being the recipient of this award, David Silva reacted just about how you'd expect from a man who is known for his kindness and humility. "It was a total surprise," he said. "All these years I've just kept enjoying reining and plugging along so I never thought of anything like that. I'm sure there are other people more deserving."

The selection is a fitting reward for a man who readily admits that reining has had immeasurable impact on his life. "I've always said when you get involved in this reining world it changes your life. It is much more than just a hobby – it literally becomes your lifestyle."

That has certainly been the case for the Silvas. Dave and his wife Bonnie became more and more involved – as breeders, owner, with Dave showing as a Non Pro and they even tried their hand at putting on shows. Ultimately they left their home and business in Connecticut and moved to the heart of reining horse country in north Texas eleven years ago.

Now both their son David and daughter Debbie and their families have moved to the Lone Star state as well and three generations of Silvas have spent time in the show ring!

"Showing reiners is so good for kids," he noted. "They learn to be competitive, to manage their business and finances, and they learn if you don't put in the effort, you don't do well at the show!"

Silva is quick to credit Tim and Colleen McQuay for being the largest single factor in his success. "They are great people and great business people. They gave good guidance and we've been fortunate to raise some good horses!"

David Silva, Sr., and his wife, Bonnie, have both supported NRHA for well over 30 years as exhibitors, breeder, sponsors, and owners. Silva's loyalty to the sport has encompassed all levels of reining, from grassroots all the way to elite competition. Silva has been a major donor to the National Reining Horse Youth Association (NRHyA) as well as RHF. He's also sponsored a variety of shows throughout the Northeast Region. Together, the Silvas have served as leaders for both the Connecticut Reining Horse Association (CRHA) and the Eastern Pennsylvania Reining Horse Association (EPRHA), hosting meetings at their home, donating equipment, funding programs, and dedicating time to running the shows.

During his years in the industry, Silva has cultivated and provided support for several well-known and respected reining trainers including Tim McQuay, Randy Cutbirth, Luke Gagnon, Sam Schaffhauser, Roger Brazeau, Borak Gibori, Lars Mortenson, Barbara Williams, Debbie Brown, Melanie Petroll, and Brad Giesbrecht.

In 2012, David Silva was the sixth person to join the NRHA Million Dollar Owners list. Some of his more notable horses include Hollywoodstinseltown, an NRHA Two Million Dollar Sire, and NRHA Hall of Famer Miss Tinseltown. Silva has bred, raised, and shown several other top reining horses including Gunners Tinseltown, Footworks Finest, Hollywood Downtown, Shiny Workboots, Great Footwork, and Reminic N Dunit.

David Silva is a prime example of the dedication to and support of reining and its continued growth that NRHA's Dale Wilkinson Lifetime Achievement Award embodies.

SPIRIT OF THE AWARD

This award is named after the legendary reining horse trainer known as the “father of reining,” Dale Wilkinson, the first inductee into the NRHA Hall of Fame. Wilkinson is a multiple NRHA Futurity champion and one of the founding members of NRHA. Wilkinson was an educator, promoter, and mentor to all reiners—professional and non pro—exemplifying how riders should conduct themselves and train and exhibit their horses. Because of his unmatched lifetime of accomplishment in reining, it’s entirely appropriate that the NRHA Lifetime Achievement Award is named for Dale Wilkinson.

David Silva, Sr., will be recognized with this year’s class of NRHA Hall of Fame inductees at Sliders’ Night Out presented by Toyon Ranch on December 4 at State Fair Park in Oklahoma City during the NRHA Futurity. RHF is creating a special night, recognizing new and previous NRHA Hall of Fame inductees. For details on how to become a hall of fame table host or major event donor, contact RHF Executive Director Leslie Baker at lbaker@nrha.com, (405) 946-7400.

INTRODUCING THE MASTERS NON PRO CHALLENGE AT THE SWRHA FUTURITY SHOW

The SWRHA Futurity is annually one of the most-watched futurities of the season for the National Reining Horse Association and this year is set for October 22 – 27 at the Hardy Murphy Coliseum in Ardmore, Oklahoma. Participants come from across the nation and abroad for a last chance to tune and evaluate their reiners before Oklahoma City.

Along with the great futurity, the “Southwest” as it is affectionately called, is known for being innovative and fun. That should be the case for Friday night, October 25 when the Masters Non Pro Challenge makes its debut. The winner of this event for riders age 60 and Over will receive a trophy saddle and other special prizes!

The Masters Challenge will follow the traditional Friday Fun activities of the Markel Pizza Party, the Rein in Cancer

Dog Race and the Leadline and Walk-Trot classes so the stage will be set to continue the fun.

Lindsey McCutcheon serves on the Southwest Reining Horse Association Board of Directors and is the creator of the new event “I am so excited to introduce this new class and showcase the 60 and up riders! It’s going to be a lot of fun and some great prizes will be awarded,” she said. “The Southwest always tries to come up with new events and I’m proud to be a part of this brand new class.”

Participation will be limited for this jackpot class that will use pattern 12 and have a $100 entry fee. For more information about the Southwest Reining Horse Association or the SWRHA Futurity, call 580-759-2572 or visit www.swrha.com.

A VIEW FROM THE JUDGES CHAIR RETURNS TO TULSA REINING CLASSIC!

The Global Reining Sport Group has announced that the very popular “View From the Judges Chair” will return for 2019. This year conducted by Craig Schmersal and Ann Salmon, the seminar will take place on Friday, August 30 in the meeting area in the Ford Truck Arena Exhibit Hall at Tulsa’s Expo Square.

Schmersal, a Million NRHA Professional who currently serves on the National Reining Horse Association’s Judging Committee, feels strongly about the need for educating exhibitors and helping them learn the ins and out of the judging system. He said, “I am excited to participate in the Tulsa Reining Classic both as a rider and a speaker for the View From the Judges Chair. The Tulsa Reining Classic is always well managed and I enjoy showing at this venue.

Craig specializes in training, showing and selling Futurity and Derby horses and his list of titles has earned him over $4 million in arena competition. He is an NRHA Futurity and Derby Champion and has won the NRBC, he is also a multiple AQHA World Champion and FEI World medalist.

A National Reining Horse Association judge for over 2 decades, Ann Salmon Anderman currently serves Chair of the NRHA Judges’ Committee. She is also a member of the teaching panel for the NRHA Judges Program and has officiated at events all over the United States, as well as Argentina, Chile, Brazil, Germany, Italy, Canada and Mexico. Currently, the South Central Region member of the NRHA

Board of Directors, she enjoys teaching horses and of all levels, hosting clinics, and sharing their love of reining so leading the “View from the Judge’s Chair” seminar at the Tulsa Reining Classic is something she looks forward to.

She said, “I’m excited to help our exhibitors understand what the judges are looking for and help explain the maneuver evaluations.” Ann is well qualified to speak on success in the show ring. A multiple NRHA Open Futurity and Derby finalist she and her husband Monte show primarily in aged events along with managing Non Pros and rookies competing at the affiliate level.

The Tulsa Reining Classic, produced by Global Reining Sport Group, is a landmark reining event set for August 26-September 1. In close to two decades, the Tulsa Reining Classic has grown into one of the National Reining Horse Association’s top ten events in the world - one that stays on the yearly calendar of top reiners and reining programs throughout the country. It features three futurities and two derbies plus two full slates of horse show classes, as well as hosting the NRHA’s South Central Affiliate Regional Finals. The great location, facilities, show management and the growing support of the reiners both in the South Central area and beyond, as well as to the innovative and “niche” events the show has created have all contributed to its success. For information on the Tulsa Reining Classic, visit www.tulsareining.com.

“I’m excited to help our exhibitors understand what the judges are looking for and help explain the maneuver evaluations.”

2019 JUDGES ANNOUNCED FOR TULSA REINING CLASSIC!

Tulsa Reining Classic show manager Cheryl Cody has announced the officials for the 2019 show. Evaluating the action and handling the equipment checks in the three arenas will be Corey Hendrikson, Rick Weaver, Terry Thompson, Matt Lantz, Leo Fourre, Terry Wegener, Buddy Fisher, J.D. Roberson, Mark Turner and Mark Miller.

CONGRATULATIONS TO GUNNERS SPECIAL NITE!

Turnabout Farm and Tom McCutcheon Reining Horses has announced Gunners Special Nite has surpassed $3 Million Dollars in offspring earnings. He was the 2018 NRHA Leading Sire and has been the #1 Siring Son of Gunner for 2016, 2017, 2018 and is the current leading son in 2019.

They were quick to thank all the breeders, owners, trainers and riders who have supported their program and contributed to its success.

More news on this important milestone in the next issue!

THE ERCHA PRE FUTURITY TURNS EIGHTEEN!

*2018 ERCHA/NRCHA Open Pre Futurity Champions
Markus Schopfer & Chex Lectric Guns*

*2018 ERCHA/NRCHA Non Pro Pre Futurity Champions
Vaclav Vacik & Silver Black Okie*

The European Reined Cow Horse Association (ERCHA) is proud to announce that the ERCHA/NRCHA Pre Futurity, a competition open to 3-, and 4-year-old horses shown in a snaffle bit or hackamore, is celebrating its eighteenth edition at the Palacittá facility located in Travagliato, Italy.

The very first edition of the Pre Futurity was held at Arcese Quarter Horses, Italy, thanks to the support and passion for the working cow horses of Leonardo [Arcese], one of the founders of the ERCHA along with now President Markus Schopfer. This year, over 50 horses are expected to take part in the much-awaited for event which offers the $2,500-added Open, $200-added Limited Open, $500-added Non Pro and $100-added Intermediate Non Pro divisions. The Jackpot Novice Amateur will also take place class in class with the Non Pro Pre Futurity, a category that showcases the herd work, reined work and boxing.

Last year's Open and Non Pro Pre Futurity Champions — Markus Schopfer and Vaclav Vacik respectively — will be back this year to defend their titles!

Adding more fun and excitement to the two-day event will be the ERCHA/NRCHA approved $600-added Open, $100-added Limited Open Bridle, $300-added Open Two Rein, $300-added Open Hackamore, $250-added Non Pro Bridle, and $100-Non Pro Two Rein.

The European Reined Cow Horse Association's goal was that of expanding across Europe and one of the most successful programs so far has been the Regional Championship which comprises France, Italy, Sweden, and Central Eastern. As the show season moves along, regional finalists will be determined and the champions will be crowned during the ERCHA/NRCHA Autumn Show.
