CADE MCCUTCHEON AND SUPER MARIOO CLAIM LEVEL 4 OPEN CHAMPIONSHIP

Ten days of intense, world-class competition culminated Saturday, Dec. 7, with the National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) Futurity Open Finals. The NRHA Futurity, held at State Fair Park in Oklahoma City, featured top horses and riders from across the globe.

When the curtain fell as the final horse left the arena, it was 19-year-old Cade McCutcheon who emerged victorious, not only winning the Level 4 Championship but also tying for the Reserve title.

It's been a banner year for Cade McCutcheon, who turned in his non pro card in January to become an NRHA Professional. Prior to the NRHA Futurity, he had won more than $706,616 in lifetime earnings, not including the $307,500 he won in August at the inaugural Run for a Million event.

Still, he wasn't counting on winning the Level 4 Open Championship at the NRHA Futurity. "I didn't expect to win it my first time here as a professional, but that's everyone's goal," he said.

McCutcheon had three shots at finishing in the top spot of the Level 4: Deja Vu With A Gun, Super Marioo, and Guns And Dynamite. He competed first on Deja Vu With A Gun (owned by David Silva), marking a 212.5.

Next up was Super Marioo, and the pair scored a 224.5. "I ran in and hit my first stop. I got turned big, and before I loped off, I thought to myself, 'Just make sure you lope off on the correct lead. Don't screw it up,'" he recalled. "That horse was there for me the whole way. There are a couple things that could have been better, but overall, what can I say?"

Just five horses later, NRHA Six Million Dollar Rider Shawn Florida entered the arena on the 2018 NRHA Markel Insurance Prospect Sale high seller Shine Colt Shine. With gracefully executed circles and powerful stops, it looked like McCutcheon's lead could be in jeopardy. When the score was announced, Florida and Shine Colt Shine fell just short with a 223.5.

Competing in the third from last set, McCutcheon rode Guns And Dynamite. The 19-year-old trainer piloted the colt through another great run, resulting in a 223.5, tying Florida for second.

After that, McCutcheon couldn't have told you how the last seven horses scored, but he could have given you an update on college football. "I went to the bus and was watching Wisconsin vs. Ohio State and doing my best not to pay attention to it. I was just waiting for my mom to call me," he admitted.

Unbeknownst to him, his scores held, and McCutcheon won not only the Level 4 with Super Marioo, but also Levels 3 and 2, for $196,175 in earnings. Super Marioo's nominator, Hillis Akin Family Partnership Received $9,808.

McCutcheon also tied for Reserve in the Level 4 on Guns And Dynamite, and took sole possession of the title in Levels 3 and 2. Combined with his earnings on Deja Vu With A Gun, McCutcheon's winnings for the evening came to $341,899. That unofficially pushed him to NRHA Million Dollar Rider status.

Super Marioo, owned by Story Book Stables, is by Gunnatrahya out of HA Chic A Tune. McCutcheon began riding the colt in early fall when he was purchased from Gunny Mathison by Freddy Brassfield. “Gunny sold me this horse this summer. He did a phenomenal job training him, and I just had to pick him up and do some of my things. Without Gunny, this never would have happened,” McCutcheon said.

Shortly after McCutcheon showed the colt at the Best of the West Futurity, he received a phone call from Brenda Joyce, owner of Story Book Stables. “She said she wanted to have a horse with me and asked about Super Marioo. She bought him from Freddy, and has been amazing to work with ever since,” he said. “This is the first horse I’ve had with her, and I’m really excited for the future, whatever she decides to do.”

McCutcheon and Kirstin Booth’s Guns And Dynamite, by Gunners Special Nite out of Chic Olena Starbuck, won a total of $145,724 across the three levels. Nominator Turnabout Farms received $7,286.

“I thank my parents and grandparents for doing whatever it takes to make me as good as I can be,” he said. “There are hundreds of people who played into this, and I’m lucky I had the right horse to win tonight.”

Florida and Shine Colt Shine pocketed a check for $110,752 for the Level 4 Open Reserve title, with nominator Sally Amabile receiving $5,637. The Shine Chic Shine colt, out of Gunners Miss Oak, lived up to the high expectations of being the 2018 Markel Insurance Prospect Sale high seller. The colt is owned by Gaynia Revenberg.

Jacob Ballard and Flashin Benjamins Win Level 1 Open Championship

On October 6, Jacob Ballard took Flashin Benjamins into his training program. He was familiar with the horse, who he started as a 2-year-old, but the stallion had spent the last year-and-a-half with Kole Price. The pair only had two months to sync back up before the NRHA Futurity, but Ballard rose to the challenge, and the duo scored a 218 to win the Level 1 Open, and place in Levels 3 and 2.

Ballard, who apprenticed under Price before going out on his own at the beginning of 2019, said it was a testament to Price’s program that he was able to click with the horse so quickly. Since he only had two months before the NRHA Futurity, he knew he needed to make every ride count. Schooling at his local college gave him a place to practice in a show setting, which he thinks gave him an advantage.

“I’ve dreamed about being in the finals of the [NRHA] Futurity forever, and to pick off the Level 1 was pretty exciting,” said Ballard, who is 26 years old. “I can’t describe it.” Prior to running pattern 10, Ballard said he knew if he could execute the run-in, stop, and back-up well, everything else would fall into place. The horse didn’t let him down, turning even better under the bright lights than he did in the warm-up arena.

“After I loped off [from my turns], I knew that he was locked in and I could go and push him in his circles,” Ballard said. “By the time I got done with my second lead change, I knew I was home free. All I had to do was turn the corner and go stop him. He just killed the ground like he does every time.”

Flashin Benjamins (Gunnatrahya x Shiners Hot Flash) was owned by Leann Spurlock at the time of the NRHA Futurity and was nominated by Nicole Miller. Ballard said the horse’s owners have been very involved, which he respected and appreciated.

“You can’t get to where I am without having good owners,” he said. “Everyone wants to talk about the horse and other factors, but the owners are a huge part of it.” The stallion may be moving on to new things, as his owners received an offer on him at the NRHA Futurity. Ballard has some other prospects waiting in the wings, but he won’t forget the colt he started and then rode to an NRHA Futurity L1 Open Championship.

“I remember stopping him when he first got sliders on, and he stopped really smooth — about 10, 12 feet,” he said. “He has that same effect, only now he does it with 25 feet. He hasn’t changed a whole lot as far as talent goes, just a lot of the buttons are different and more progressed.”

“It’s been a long road of ups and downs, but I’m thankful for all of it,” he added. “I wasn’t sure it was the best move in January [to go out on my own], but God is on my side as far as the events and people he’s put in my life to get me where I am.”

The Level 1 Reserve Championship was won by Josh Tishman and Lanas Lil Joe, by Lil Joe Cash and out of Elanachics. Lanas Lil Joe is owned by Steve Carr and was nominated by Rainbow Ridge Equestrian.

Martin Larcombe Wins Prime Time Open on Shines Like Spook

reiners in Europe, and the relationship continued when his family moved to the United States. “I thank Rosanne. She’s had horses with me the past few years and has been a great customer. I also thank my crew, which is basically my family,” he said. “I also thank my great customers who support me.”

Larcombe went one-two in the Prime Time, taking Reserve on One Sensationaldream, owned by Neylon Performance Horses LLC. The pair marked a 217.5, worth $11,410, with nominator Kathy Bagnell receiving $498. One Sensationaldream is by Magnum Chic Dream and out of Dun Up Sensational.

It didn’t take much convincing when Rosanne Sternberg, and NRHA Million Dollar Owner,* asked Martin Larcombe to ride Shines Like A Spook. The royally bred colt is by NRHA Six Million Dollar Sire Smart Spook and out of Ebony Shines, who recently became one of two NRHA Million Dollar Dams. “Rosanne bred this horse, and owns both the sire and the dam, so this is a pretty good promotion for her brand. You can imagine in April when she said she had this colt that it didn’t take much to get me to try him,” Larcombe said with a laugh.

Larcombe and Shines Like Spook qualified for the Level 4 and 3 Open Finals, as well as the Prime Time. Their score of 220 equated to good checks in the Level 4 and 3, and the win in the Prime Time. All totaled, the pair took home $42,672 in finals cash. “I’ve taken him to a couple pre-futurities, and he’s been respectable. I know he has a lot of ability and a lot of stop. I think he will mature a bit more and get more solid as a show horse,” Larcombe shared. “Even saying that, I can’t complain about how good he’s been this week. He has stepped up all week. He’s going to be a show horse.”

Sternberg and Larcombe have a long history together. They got to know each other when Larcombe was training

Josh Murphy and CBKtinseltownsparty Win NRHA Honorable Mention Futurity

Riders not advancing to the finals had the option of entering the $1,000 Added Honorable Mention Futurity, and CBKtinseltownsparty and Josh Murphy were victorious. The pair marked a 217.5 to top the class and get a bit of redemption.

“We call her Hazel. She’s by Gunners Tinseltown out of HR Wright On Cash. I’ve ridden several of her siblings, and they’ve all been a joy to ride,” Murphy shared. “We had some bad luck in the first go, and felt like we left some stuff on the table, so we brought her back today, and I feel like we redeemed ourselves.”

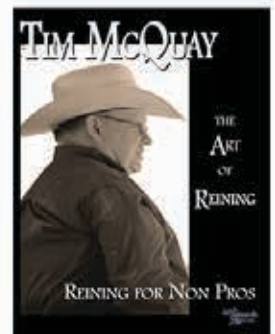

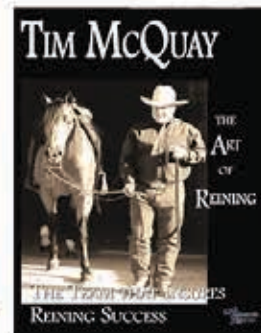

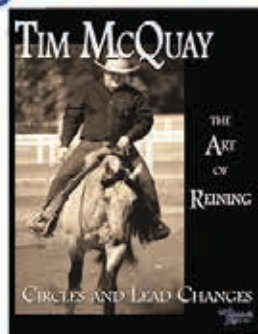

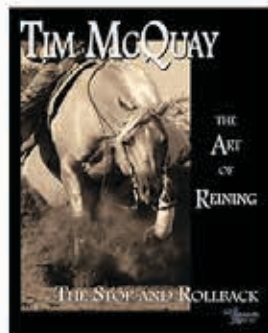

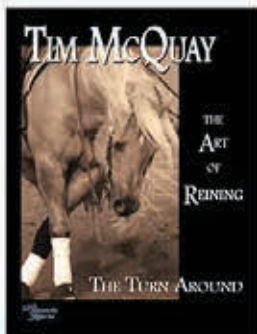

Murphy noted that the mare really showed her true colors in the Honorable Mention Futurity. “She was really honest for me. She ran hard and turned big like I know she can. It all came together today,” he said. “I thank Bill and Corliss Kellogg, Kalyn Sanders, and my whole group.”

Taking second in the Honorable Mention Futurity was Keiran Moses and FM Lovely Nite with a 212. FM Lovely

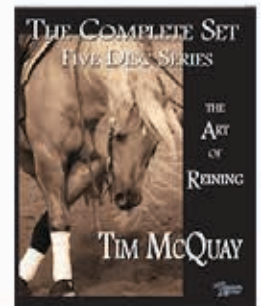

Nite, by Gunners Special Nite and out of Lovely Colonel, is owned by Cameron Halliwell.

JESSE ASMUSSEN AND RUF STYLE OF PLAY WIN NRHA CINCH NON PRO FUTURITY

Great horses and riders were shining under the Friday-night lights of the Jim Norick Coliseum at State Fair Park in Oklahoma City. The National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) CINCH Non Pro Futurity featured the top horses and riders from the preliminary round, and the champion was decided in an exciting runoff.

Jesse Asmussen and Ruf Style Of Play drew the dreaded No. 1 position for the CINCH Non Pro Futurity finals, but the pair made it count, marking a 220 to take the lead of Levels 3 and 4. As rider after rider took a shot at the lead and fell short, Asmussen and his team worked hard to stay busy. “We were back at the stalls sitting around, pacing, sweeping, and doing anything to just stay busy,” he said. “You don’t really expect a tie. You think someone will come in and beat you.”

Luca Fappani had a wild run-in with a dog that jumped into the pen during his finals’ run, even though State Fair Park requires leashes for all dogs and were checking them at the door. Fappani was given the option of running again after the last draw. “I was just waiting for Luca to go at the end, and then he also marked a 220. We decided to run off, and we had only 15 minutes to get ready,” Asmussen explained. “This mare has been at Kole Price’s, and he told me to just trot her around and that she’d be good to show. It was nerve-wracking, but she was great.”

Rules dictate that the runoff occurs in the same draw order as the original, so once again Asmussen knew he had to set the pace. Once again, the 3-year-old mare gave her best, resulting in a 222. “She was phenomenal in the runoff. I couldn’t believe she was better there than the first time I showed her in the finals,” he said.

The win came with a bounty of prizes, and checks totaling $61,455. “Winning this is a dream every year, and until it happens, it is hard to imagine.”

Asmussen purchased Ruf Style Of Play, by Not Ruf At All and out of UB Stylin With Me, from Vaughn Zimmerman earlier this year. “Bobby Avila Jr. called me in June and told me I needed to buy her. I didn’t need another horse at the time, but he kept calling me and talking to me about her, so we ended up buying her without ever trying her,” he explained.

After showing the mare a couple times, Asmussen elected to send her to Kole Price. “We live in Iowa, and the weather was really bad, so I sent her to Kole’s and he did a phenomenal job getting her ready to come here. She felt so well-trained and easy. I owe him a huge thank-you. I couldn’t have done it on my own. Kole’s wife, Kelsey, did a great job of getting her pretty and making sure everything looks nice,” he said. “I also thank my wife and boys. It’s been a long week, and the boys have been great. My wife does so much at home and keeps me from self-destructing. My mom and dad are also huge supporters. I thank them so much.”

Making this win extra-special for Asmussen is that his long-time friend Dave Kunkle was able to be present. “Dave is the guy who got me started, and both times I’ve won it before he’s been in Iowa, so him being here was pretty special,” Asmussen said.

Luca Fappani & Gotta Get Diamonds — CINCH Level 4 & 3 Non Pro Futurity Reserve Champion, Level 2 & Youth Champion

Luca Fappani didn’t know he’d get to show his horse three times in the non pro finals at his first NRHA CINCH Non Pro Futurity. While competing as draw 30 in the finals, Fappani was completing his second set of circles when a dog catapulted itself into the ring and tried to herd Fappani and his horse.

“The first run was going pretty good. I saw something black and white run out in front of my horse, and I kept going, but the dog kept cutting the circle. I didn’t want to run him over, so I stopped. I’d never seen anything like it,” Fappani said.

Fappani and Gotta Get Diamonds were given the option of a re-run at the end of the finals, but that only gave him nine horses to prepare for yet another run. “He was pretty good the first time, so I trusted him the second time, and he was great. He did everything I wanted,” Fappani said.

When the score of 220 was announced, Fappani had taken the lead of the Level 2 and Youth divisions but was tied with Jesse Asmussen for the lead of the Level 4 and 3. “My horse was great, but I wasn’t sure he could do the same in the runoff. Before the runoff we stayed here and gave him some water and just touched on a few buttons,” Fappani said.

runoff, finishing as reserve champions in Levels 4 and 3. Still, earnings for the day came to $56,910. “This was my first futurity, and it was definitely one to remember,” Fappani said.

Luca’s parents, Andrea and Tish, purchased Gotta Get Diamonds, by Spooks Gotta Whiz out of Tinker With Diamonds, from Rancho Oso Rio in October. “Dad showed him a couple times, and marked a couple 218s, I think. I tried him at Best of the West, and then had a game plan coming in here to make the finals,” Fappani shared. “I took him out there and opened him up. He gave it everything.”

The 15-year-old was gracious, thanking the many people who supported him. “Thank you to my mom and dad and my brother. My whole family supports me,” he said. “Thank you to Rancho Oso Rio for letting us buy him.”

Finishing second in the Level 2 Non Pro was Jessicah Keller and Snips Shining Gun with a 218. Keller and Snips Shining Gun, by Colonels Shining Gun out of newly inducted NRHA Hall of Fame mare Snip O Gun, also placed in Levels 4 and 3. Keller and Snips Shining Gun, owned by Hilldale Farm, pocketed $37,030.

Blair McFarlin Wins CINCH Level 1 Non Pro Futurity on Starlights N Dreams

Blair McFarlin had never shown at the NRHA CINCH Non Pro Futurity before, but she made it count, qualifying for the finals of the Level 1 through Level 3. In the end, she and her horse, Starlights N Dreams, won the Level 1 Championship with a 215. "I'm extremely excited to even be in the finals. I had a futurity horse a few years ago, but this is the first one to bring here," she said. McFarlin's earnings for all levels came to $20,760.

McFarlin and Starlight N Dream, by Magnum Chic Dream out of Strike A Star, had to make an extra run to earn a finals berth. "The first time I went in there and let her do her job, and she was good for me, but not good enough to make it back, so we rode in the consolation round on Wednesday," she explained. "That really solidified for her and me where we are and what we need to work on."

McFarlan's trainer, NRHA Professional Nathan Piper, did most of the prep work on the mare. "He would ride her early in the morning, and then I'd just cruise her around before we went in," McFarlin said. "Before the finals, Nathan told me to go have fun and stay out of the penalty box."

McFarlin felt confidence from the first stop of the run. "She ran in and dragged her butt, so I knew we had started on a good note. She got turned well for me, and that's been her weak spot, so when we got through that I knew we were golden," she said.

McFarlin, of Franklin, Tennessee, has been riding reiners since she was 12 years old but spent the last four years in college. "I've been out of the loop a little bit, but she's been a fun horse to get back into it," she said. "I thank my dad, Mike McFarlin, for sticking with me and supporting me all these years."

Sally Berg and Had Us At Hello (REF Black Mamba x Dunit N Continental) finished as reserve champions in the Level 1, and placed in Levels 2 through 4, winning more than $21,645.

Jose Vazquez Tops CINCH Prime Time Non Pro With Xtra Winding Step

Over the years, Jose Vazquez has built an impressive breeding program and has made an impressive career on the resulting foals of his program. He won the Prime Time Non Pro title and placed third in the Level 4 Non Pro on one of those foals, this one a colt named Xtra Winding Step.

"It was a fun run," Vazquez said of his 219-point run in the finals, which resulted in a $20,862 paycheck. "He showed he can compete at a high level. I showed him two times before here. He came out here and put together two quality runs. Of course, you want to win every time, so I hope our turn is right around the corner."

Xtra Winding Step is by Wimpys Little Step out of SLJ Smartlikewhinny. "This is a horse we raised. I showed his grandmother, mother, granddaddy. The first good horse I showed was his grandmother," he added. "This one is a

2019 NRHA NORTH AMERICAN AFFILIATE CHAMPIONSHIPS & HORSE SHOW CLASSES AWARD CHAMPIONS

In addition to the Futurity that took place in the Jim Norick Coliseum, the National Reining Horse Association Futurity featured the Adequan® North American Affiliate Championship.

Lauren Rufo, NRHA Affiliate Program Representative, was excited to crown these 2019 Adequan® NAAC Champions. She explained that the Adequan® NAAC helps spotlight a variety of members and horses from across North America. "It's a great opportunity to recognize our grassroots program riders and horses at the most exciting NRHA event of the year," she said.

This year, each of the Adequan® NAAC Champions will be recognized the next day in the Jim Norick Coliseum Arena, where they will receive their Adequan® NAAC champion vest.

Mirjam Stillo claimed the Adequan® NAAC Open title on Steppin Little Lena with a 219.5. In addition to a check for $1,957, the pair also won a saddle from Bob's Custom Saddles, an Adequan® champion vest, a Platinum Performance jacket, a custom Montana Silversmiths trophy buckle, gift certificates to Bluebonnet and SmartPak, as well as Classic Equine product.

Mirjam Stillo Wins Adequan® NAAC Open with Steppin Little Lena

"It was a good ride and I was happy with it. We just ran in and he was phenomenal stopping. He did that great, and we stayed clean everywhere else. He stayed with me all the time and gave it his all," Stillo recounted.

Steppin Little Lena, owned by Heidi Pichotta, is by Wimpys Little Step out of Collena O Lena, and Stillo says he's exceptionally easy to take care of. "He's super easy at home. We don't work him very hard. He's had a really busy show season, so we give him time off and then prep him right before each horse show. This show was different. We practically just came back from the World Show, and didn't have much time, but fortunately it worked out," she said. "He still has a busy week. I'll show him again in the Novice Horse Open, and his owner will show him in the Rookie. After that he'll get a well-deserved winter break."

Stillo and her crew will stay busy this week with Futurity and ancillary entries, as well as a couple horses in the NRHA/Markel Insurance Futurity Sale. "I thank the owner who allows me to ride him and trusts me with him. We had a plan to step him up slowly and it all worked out. I also thank my team, my husband, and everyone at home who takes

The cool thing that she’s 12, and we showed the first time right at the end of the class. For her to go back in and show again like that is great. She was tired but did her job and didn’t anticipate at all. She’s unbelievable.”

Bombshell Banjo is owned by Garrison’s girlfriend Brogan Lee, who typically shows in the rookie classes. Garrison and Bombshell Banjo, by Banjo Whiz out of Bob Acre Badgerlena, actually qualified for the Adequan® NAAC in four divisions – the Rookie Professional, Limited

Warren, who’s representing the Rocky Mountain Reining Horse Association in the Mountain Region, was excited to win the NAAC title. “This has gotten so much more prestigious, and they’ve been working hard with the sponsors to make this a bigger part of the show. The owners are more apt to send them down here, so that makes it nice,” Warren said.

The Colorado native will stay busy this week, not only showing his futurity horses but also working with his youth and non pro riders. “I thank my wife Joleen. stopped hard all three times and circled really quiet. She turned really hard like she always does and managed to get shut off without over-turning.”

Lipps knew what score he and Some Likeit Hot, by Wimpys Little Step out of Princessontheprowl, would have to beat. “I felt pretty good about it. I knew I needed to be quiet and consistent, and stay out of the penalty box. We sure don’t like being there,” he said.

McKinnon Larcombe & Designed With Shine Take Adequan® NAAC Non Pro & Int. Non Pro Championships

On Tuesday, the longest day at the Adequan® North American Affiliate Championship featured 98 stellar non pro riders competing to earn titles in a multitude of classes. In the end, McKinnon Larcombe and Morris Kulmer each managed to win more than one division.

When McKinnon Larcombe and Designed With Shine enter the arena, people notice. That’s because the team, although they only began competing together earlier this year, have racked up several big wins in their short time together. Earlier this week, they won the Adequan® NAAC Reserve Championship in the Limited Non Pro and followed that victory with titles in the Adequan® NAAC Non Pro and Intermediate Non Pro today.

“This is amazing. It’s the cherry on top for me. She’s been wonderful all year – so consistent time and time again. For her to come here and finish off strong like this, well, I couldn’t be happier,” Larcombe, who competes in the South Central Region in the Southwest Reining Horse Association, said following the awards ceremony. “She was fantastic earlier in the week in the Limited Non Pro, and even more so today.”

at it a while, and been close, so to win this now is amazing.”

Designed With Shine is owned by Larcombe’s aunt Shauna Larcombe. “First and foremost, I thank my aunt Shauna. She’s the one who lets me show this mare, and without her I wouldn’t be mounted on such a great horse. I also thank my parents. They pay for everything, and without them I wouldn’t be here,” she said. “Of course, I thank everyone at the barn – the whole Larcombe team and the Sterling Ranch crew.”

Larcombe and Designed With Shine, by Smart And Shiny out of Taris Designer Genes, marked a 220 in today’s class – a half-point higher than their Limited Non Pro run. “My dad (NRHA Professional Martin Larcombe) rode her a little bit since we showed on Friday. I was a little concerned I was getting in her way a bit, but when I went in today, I did so with the mentality of just showing like I always do – nice and easy,” Larcombe explained.

Not only did the two win the NAAC titles, they also won the ancillary classes that ran concurrently, bringing the day’s take to $6,379. As for prizes, Larcombe got several, including two saddles from Bob’s Custom Saddles, Adequan® champion vests, Platinum Performance jackets, two Montana Silversmiths trophy buckles, gift certificates to Bluebonnet and SmartPak, as well as Classic Equine product.

“It’s so exciting. You’re running for a saddle and a big trophy, and it’s a prestigious thing for the riders and older horses. The fact that it’s ran with the Futurity, too, gives the NAAC an overall excited atmosphere. I appreciate how big of a deal NRHA makes about this, because it gives people that aren’t in the Futurity something to run for,” Larcombe said. “Ever since we have moved to the United States it has been a goal of mine to have that one horse that could go in there and have a good chance of winning. I’ve been working

Although they had a winning run, Kulmer shared that it could have been better. “We had a bobble coming in. I was one of the last on the ground, so I was a little nervous about finding the right part of dirt, and I didn’t know which way to go. I wound up doing something I don’t do very often – I

Yarbrough said her husband, NRHA Professional Dan Yarbrough, gave her some great advice before she went in the show ring. “He told me to look up, put my hand down, and keep driving,” she recalled.

The Yarbroughs purchased Xtra Rubiesforwimpy, by Wimpys Little Step out of Ruby Chic Olena, from one of Martin Larcombe’s customers earlier this year. “I haven’t had her very long - just enough to get her qualified for regionals. We won the Level 1 and Level 2 at the Regional Affiliate finals, so my husband said he’d bring me out here to show,” Yarbrough said. “I thank my husband. He’s my best friend and coach, and we do everything together. I also thank our family and friends who do so much to help us. Most of all I thank God for the opportunity, the ability, and of course the horses.”

Flarida may be done showing for the week, but he’s staying busy helping his father, NRHA Six Million Dollar Rider Shawn Flarida, get ready to show in the Futurity. “My dad is the one who gives me all the advice and helps me with everything I do,” Flarida said. “I thank my whole family, and everyone who helped me here. Kyla Thurlow Wins Adequan® NAAC Rookie Level 2 on Kachina Olena Tag

"I never thought I would win here. I did the Rookie of the Year many years ago, and it's changed for sure. Now you have a lot of steps to get here, and you have to conquer them all. It's been wonderful," Thurlow said.

Although Thurlow lives in Massachusetts, her horse, Kachina Olena Tag (Whiz N Tag Chex x Kachina Oak Olena) resides in Florida with Mark and Shannon Rafacz. "I fly down for the weekend a couple times a month to see him and ride. I don't get a lot of time in the saddle, so I'm fortunate he's as nice as he is," Thurlow said. "I thank Shannon and Mark. I owe them. They make this possible for me. I also thank everyone who has a hand in this – my mom and dad, Madison Rafacz, and my boyfriend Steven."

Kyla Thurlow wasn't feeling too confident riding into the Adequan® Arena for the NAAC Rookie Level 2. The night before, her horse had shown he had his own ideas. "I was a little nervous, but he was wonderful today. When we got in the arena I knew he was going to let me show him," she said of their run. "We had a penalty to the right, but he circled better than he ever has, and he stopped really good for me. I couldn't have asked for more from him."

Kalena Reynolds and Gun Whiz It Win Toyon Ranch Rookie of the Year

Kalena Reynolds has had her eye on the Toyon Ranch Rookie of the Year title for several years, and on Thursday evening, that dream became reality. She and her horse, Gun Whiz It, marked a 215.5 to win not only the Toyon Ranch Rookie of the Year title, but also Reserve in the Adequan® NAAC Rookie Level 2. "I can't describe how excited I am. This is amazing," Reynolds said following the class. "I'm so incredibly grateful for it all. Just to have the chance to win is absolutely amazing. I'm so thankful to have it and I owe it all to my mare."

Although Reynolds has won quite a bit with Gun Whiz It, she still had some setbacks during the year. "I almost fell off in the finals at the (AQHA) youth world, and that hurt my confidence a bit. Then I didn't have a great run at the Run For a Million, but I was still happy to be here," she said. "I pulled it together, and had the mindset of whatever happens, happens. I walked in, and she spun so well for me, and she was good for the entire performance."

Reynolds won a Bob's Custom Saddle, an Adequan® champion vest, a Montana Silversmiths buckle, product from Classic Equine, and gift certificates to Bluebonnet, Platinum Performance, and SmartPak.

The 16-year-old, who competes in the Oklahoma Reining

Horse Association and represents the South Central Region, has owned the mare for 3.5 years. The 8-year-old mare is by Gunner and out of Roll Whiz It. “She’s my absolute best friend in the entire world. I love her so much. She loves oranges and hanging out with people,” Reynolds shared. “I thank her for always being there. I thank my mom who is my number one supporter. I also thank Fred and Dany Tremblay, and Ethan and Angie Wiley.”

There was a tie for reserve in the Toyon Rookie of the Year and the ancillary Rookie Level 1 between Jenna Webb and Sydney Friedman. Both riders marked 214s on their

Debbie Good Wins Adequan® NAAC Rookie Prime Time on Chics Love Me Wimpy

Debbie Good and her 9-year-old gelding Chics Love Me Wimpy (Wimpys Little Step x Dream About Magic) marked a 213 to win the Adequan® NAAC Prime Time Rookie. Winning an NAAC title has been a goal of hers since purchasing the gelding three years ago. “It feels absolutely amazing. I can’t even express it. Josh (Tishman) won so many awards on this horse, and I’ve just been trying to win one of my own,” Good shared.”

The first ever Adequan® NAAC Prime Time Rookie Champion received a saddle from Bob’s Custom Saddle, as well as an Adequan® vest, a Platinum Performance jacket, a Montana Silversmiths buckle, Classic Equine product, and gift certificates to Bluebonnet and SmartPak.

“We’ve been practicing in the arena all week and working on our circles. We were finding the holes we had and working on them. I broke my shoulder nine weeks ago, and my horses. Webb rode Ima Blonde Chic, a 5-year-old mare by Magnum Chic Dream out of Im Not Blonde. Friedman rode her 7-year-old stallion Spooks Full Throttle, by Spooks Gotta Gun out of Angierilla Boom.

Webb and Friedman split prizes which included a Montana Silversmith’s buckle, Adequan® vests, Classic Equine products, and gift certificates to Platinum Performance, Bluebonnet, and SmartPak.

goal was just to get back here,” Good said. “Our goal was to go in the arena and not get overwhelmed by it. I felt very confident when I walked in. He was locked into me, and we really went for it on our rundowns, slides, and rollbacks.”

McKinnon Larcombe and Designed With Shine capped off a stellar week with yet another Adequan® NAAC title in the Youth 14 – 18, after winning both the Non Pro and Intermediate Non Pro earlier this week.

In Saturday’s competition, the pair marked a 220, winning a saddle from Bob’s Custom Saddles, a Montana Silversmiths buckle, an Adequan® vest, a Platinum Performance jacket, product from Classic Equine, and gift certificates to Bluebonnet Feed and SmartPak.

“I went in today with the mentality that I didn’t need to run her as hard as I did the other day for the Non Pro. She was so good for me then, she didn’t have to do anything more for me to make me happy, but she went in there and did it once again,” Larcombe said. “She was perfect. She turned remarkably well for me, circled like she always does, and ran and stopped really well. I was so happy with her.”

Designed With Shine, by Smart And Shiny out of Taris

Designer Genes, is owned by McKinnon's aunt Shauna Larcombe. "When I rode her the first time, I told my aunt I could easily take her into the show pen the next day. She's so well-trained and easy to get along with, but I never imagined we would be this successful. I never thought in a million years I would have a horse like this to show. I'm very lucky," she said.

Winning an Adequan® NAAC title has been a goal of Larcombe's for many years. "There are some incredibly great horses in these classes, and you have to bring your A-game when you walk in the pen. There are great sponsors that make it possible for you to compete for saddles and big trophies, not to mention all the other fantastic prizes you can win," she said. "It's exciting because you know you have something to run for."

Larcombe shared how thankful she was to her great family and friends who support her. "Thank you to my auntie Shaua. Without her I wouldn't be mounted on such a good horse. I thank my parents who pay for this hobby which is not cheap. My dad is a great coach who helps me every day. I thank everyone at the barn from Team Larcombe and Sterling Ranch. I thank my great friends. It takes a crew and there are too many people to name, but I'm appreciative of all of them," she said.

Taking second in the Adequan® NAAC Youth 14 – 18 with a 213.5 was Raeanna Thayn and Coded N Karma (Electric Code x Whiz N Snap). They won an Adequan® vest, a Platinum Performance jacket, a Montana Silver-smiths buckle, product from Classic Equine and SmartPak, and gift certificates to Platinum Performance and Bluebonnet Feed.

Reserve in the ancillary Youth 14 – 18 was won by Alexia Tordoff and Blue Collar Tag with a 218. Blue Collar Tag is by Whiz N Tag Chex and out of Kachina Oak Olena.

Madison Rafacz Wins Third Adequan® NAAC Title with Wimpys Dun Twistin

Madison Rafacz has had quite the week. She traveled from Ocala, Flo., hoping to do well in the Adequan® NAAC competition. She started off strong by winning the NAAC Limited Non Pro on her gelding Whizenboonsmal. The pair followed that up with another NAAC title three days later – this time in the Novice Horse Non Pro.

She capped off her time in Oklahoma City on Friday by winning the Adequan® NAAC Youth 13 & Under, but this time on Wimpys Dun Twistin. "It was a really good run today. I was just trying to have a clean ride, and she was really good for me," Rafacz said. "It was great to win these classes. I came out here to show seven times, and was hoping I could win something, so to win these three was great."

Wimpys Dun Twistin is by Wimpys Little Step out of Totally Dun Twistin. "She's been in our barn since she was three or so, and she's around 13 now. A customer owned her, and she (Wimpys Dun Twistin) went away for a while to have babies, but now she's back and we own her," Rafacz explained. "She's back in shape now and winning, and she's just perfect. She's the favorite in the barn."

Although his stablemate won the title, Whizenboonsmal (Peptoleap x She Whiz A Star) still pulled off a run that was good enough to mark a 214 and win second in the NAAC Youth 13 & Under. "He is so tired. He showed four times and he's just over it and ready to be home, but he was good, too," Rafacz said.

The 12-year-old took home many prizes, including a Bob's Custom Saddle, Adequan® vests, Platinum Performance jackets, Montana Silversmiths buckles, product from SmartPak and Classic Equine, and gift certificates to Platinum Performance and Bluebonnet. "I thank my mom and dad, Kyla Thurlow, Steven Borgia, Jenna Webb, Stephen Graycheck, McKenna Ivey, my grandma back home, and everyone for being here for me," she said.

Colt Mitchell Wins Short Stirrup Championship on Playgun Chic Olena

Charismatic Colt Mitchell claimed the Championship of the Short Stirrup division on Playgun Chic Olena. The pair wowed the judges, earning a 217.5. “He was great. The only problem I had was I slowed down after the center. That was our only bobble, but the rest of the run was really good,” Mitchell explained.

Mitchell’s family has owned Playgun Chic Olena, by Smart Chic Olena and out of Mamas Packin, for several years. “He’s actually my sister Molly’s horse, but I stole him from her. He’s 16 years old now, and we’ve had him since he was about seven.” Mitchell added, “He’s just a great horse that is really good at everything. He does it all right. I love him.”

The Short Stirrup title isn’t the only thing Mitchell is taking back to Missouri with him. He also got a new beagle puppy. “His name is Hank. I’m going to use him to hunt rabbits,” he said.

Mitchell, who will turn 11 next year, still has a year of Short Stirrup eligibility left. “I thank the good Lord for keeping me safe and giving me a nice run, and I thank all my family members for coming to watch and support me,” he said.

Becca Schaffhauser took the Short Stirrup reserve title on Dun Got My Rest with a 212.5. Dun Got My Rest, by Hollywood Dun It and out of Got My Rest, is owned by Becca’s father, Sam.

EMILY EMERSON & GIVE ME STARBUCKS WIN NRHA INVITATIONAL FREESTYLE

Easily one of the most entertaining events of the National Reining Horse Association Futurity took place Thursday evening, when the Oklahoma City Convention & Visitors Bureau presented the $20,000-added Invitational Freestyle.

Ten riders were invited to compete, and the pool was chosen from winners and crowd favorites from other freestyle events. Swash-buckler Captain Jack Sparrow, Santa, and more fantastic characters made an appearance in the Jim Norick Coliseum of State Fair Park.

Taking top honors in the Invitational Freestyle, and winning a big check for $6,936, were Emily Emerson and Give Me Starbucks. They performed to Gary Allen’s hit song, “Every Storm Runs Out Of Rain,” and marked a 223. “I didn’t have the greatest year, and I did this song a few years ago. It hits a certain spot inside of you when you had a year you had hoped would be better. Doing this song and coming out at the top is a great way to start out the new year,” Emerson said.

Emerson was riding Give Me Starbucks, a 9-year-old mare owned by Kelly Rainford. “This was the first time I got to be super serious with her and so the fact that I took

The pair entered the arena missing a very vital piece of equipment – the bridle. “I was feeling confident. When she walked in, she was really good. When I first loped her off, it didn’t go like I planned, but she locked in and gave me the run I was hoping for,” Emerson said.

SLIDERS’ NIGHT OUT HONORS NRHA ELITE

It was a night of honor and tradition as the Reining Horse Foundation (RHF) hosted the annual Sliders’ Night Out, presented by Toyon Ranch, during the 2019 National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) Futurity and Adequan® North American Affiliate Championships. New members were added to the NRHA Hall of Fame and two outstanding individuals were recognized for their contributions to the sport of reining.

NRHA Hall of Fame Inductees

Snip O Gun

Snip O Gun, by One Gun and out of Miss Kim O Lena, was purchased by her current owner, Tammye Hutton of Hilldale Farm in Brashear, Texas, as a 4-year-old from Hill and Dollie Clements. While she has never shown in the arena, this exceptional mare has proven herself as a star dam from her first foal, producing some of today’s most recognizable reining horses.

Roberto Cuoghi

Roberto Cuoghi has been involved in the reining world for more than 30 years. Today, he’s one of NRHA’s most successful European owners, breeders, and nominators with offspring both on the top and bottom sides of well-known, performing reiners. Cuoghi was the first owner to enter an Italian-bred horse, Master Snapper, in the NRHA Derby. Master Snapper went on to win all three divisions of the 2006 NRHA Open Derby with Kelly Zweifel. Cuoghi paved the road for many European breeders who've followed in his footsteps.

Claudio Risso

Claudio Risso's name is synonymous with reining all over the world. His NRHA membership dates back to the early 90s and spans many categories—owner, exhibitor, breeder, nominator, and mentor. Risso is 14th on NRHA's Leading Owner list by breeding money-earning offspring that have accumulated more than $912,000 in NRHA Lifetime Earnings (LTE). Most recently, his horse Spat Olena made history as the first European horse to make NRHA's Million Dollar Sire list

2019 Dale Wilkinson Lifetime Achievement Award: David Silva

David Silva and his wife, Bonnie, have both supported NRHA for well over 30 years as exhibitors, breeder, sponsors, and owners. Silva's loyalty to the sport has encompassed all levels of reining, from grassroots all the way to elite competition. Silva has been a major donor to the National Reining Horse Youth Association (NRHyA) as well as RHF. He's also sponsored a variety of shows throughout the Northeast Region.

2019 NRHA Reiner of the Year: Taylor Sheridan

The NRHA Hall of Fame Committee developed a new award supported by RHF to recognize the NRHA Reiner of the Year. This new accolade allows NRHA to honor a person or entity who enacts a measurable, positive influence on the industry. The inaugural recipient of the Reiner of the Year award is Taylor Sheridan.

A horse enthusiast since childhood, Sheridan started reining after his Hollywood acting and directing career took off. He elevated his commitment to reining by producing The Last Cowboy, a reality-based TV program on Paramount Network, which tied to August's Run for a Million event in Las Vegas, Nevada. The Last Cowboy put reining center-stage by chronicling the journeys of eight reining professionals as they prepared elite horses for the Million Dollar Invitational, the marquee event of the Run for a Million. Both the television series and the event in Las Vegas brought reiners together in a unique way and exposed a new audience to the sport of reining.

Find more information about these honorees, here and here.

Sliders' Night Out, presented by Toyon Ranch, benefits the non-profit branch of NRHA—the Reining Horse Foundation. Dinner and dancing are both staple elements of the evening, but the awards presentation and live auction get the blood pumping.

Thanks to the generous donors and bidders, RHF is able to support its philanthropic efforts. This includes the Dale Wilkinson Memorial Crisis Fund, providing scholarships for NRHyA members, and perpetuating reining's legacy.

Without members and sponsors, NRHA and RHF wouldn't exist. Both entities are thankful for the support they continue to receive year after year for Sliders' Night Out as well as their many other events and fundraising efforts. For details on how to become donor, contact RHF Executive Director Leslie Baker at lbaker@nrha.com or (405) 946-7400.

XTRA HALF N HALF TOPS NRHA/ MARKEL MARKETPLACE SALE

On December 7, during the 2019 National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) Futurity and Adequan® North American Affiliate Championships, 56 horses walked through the ring at the NRHA/Markel Marketplace Sale. As Xtra Half N Half strode into the sale arena, bidders sat up and took notice.

The handsome 2018 sorrel colt (Shiners Voodoo Dr x Cremes Chic Olena x Smart Chic Olena) brought a final bid of $64,000 from Jimmy Nichols, of Templeton, California, making him the highest seller of the day. Consigned by Heritage Farms, he is a half-brother to the earners of more than $250,000. Xtra Half N Half is enrolled in the NRHA Nomination Program and the National Reining Breeders Classic (NRBC).

“We just liked the way he's bred, the way he's made. He's so pretty-headed,” Nichols said. “Watching him in his video, he's just really physical, but he seems really quiet-minded.”

Nichols plans to send the colt to Mathieu Buton for training.

Nichols and his wife, Nancy, also purchased the second-highest-seller Lil Whizin Inferno (Inferno Sixty Six x Miss Jacspins Whiz x Conquistador Whiz), a 2018 red dun filly who was consigned by Terry and Warnetta Martin. Nichols said he saw the same characteristics in her that interested him in Xtra Half N Half.

“She's not very big, but she's so physical,” he added. “We're going to take her home, and I'll ride her myself and get her ready. I've shown in the Open all my life and trained there in California, and we've had our own now for five or six years. I'm actually considering going back and doing the non-pro with her.”

Lil Whizin Inferno was in training with Josh Visser for 60 days at the time of the sale. She is five panel negative and enrolled in the NRHA Nomination Program, NRHA Euro Nomination Program, and NRBC.

The gavel fell at $31,000 for Heritage Farms/Parker Slavin Performance Horses consignment HF A Winforthechics, a 2018 buckskin filly. Purchased by Gabriel de la Torre, the mare (HF Mobster x Win Smart Chic x Smart Chic Olena) is a half-sister to National Reined Cow Horse Association (NRCHA) money-earner and American Quarter Horse Association (AQHA) point-earner Duallers Smart Chic.

HF A Winforthechics is enrolled in the NRHA Nomination Program and NRBC.

The NRHA/Markel Marketplace Sale wrapped up the NRHA Futurity Sales. Complete results can be found online at nrhafuturity.com/lives.

Inferno On Ice Tops NRHA/Markel Futurity Select Yearling Sale

The NRHA/Markel Futurity Select Yearling Sale took place December 5 during the 2019 NRHA Futurity and Adequan® North American Affiliate Championship, and an outstanding group of yearlings was showcased at the event. Two colts, both by Inferno Sixty Six, topped the sale, bringing $80,000 and $70,000, respectively.

The top seller was hip number 1039, Inferno On Ice, a grey colt that brought $80,000 and applause from the crowd. Rick Christen signed the ticket on the colt, who was consigned by Pro Fit Equine LLC, an agent for Lotti Quarter Horses.

“We think he’s an amazing prospect, and we’re really fortunate to get him into our program,” Christen said. “We’ve bought some nice horses from Lorenzo [Lotti], so we feel fortunate that we were able to get him purchased.”

The colt is out of Unquestionably Crome (by Custom Crome), an NRHA Level(L) 2 Non Pro Futurity Champion who earned more than $62,000 in NRHA Lifetime Earnings (LTE). Inferno On Ice is five panel negative and is enrolled in the NRHA Nomination Program.

Comehellorhiwater, a bay colt consigned by Sergio Elia, brought the second-highest bid of $70,000 as hip number 1049. He is a half-brother to NRHA Open Derby finalist Gunnafoolya, an earner of $79,000 LTE; NRHA Open Futurity finalist Berry Best Step; and APHA World Champion My Berry Best Gun.

Out of Berry Dun It Best (by Hollywood Dun It), the colt is enrolled in the NRHA Nomination Program and the NRBC.

Toward the end of the sale, the hammer fell at $66,000 for hip number 1094, Gunnin For Fri Dee, a palomino filly consigned by Toyon Ranch LLC. She is a daughter of Gunnatrasha out of Dun It Fri Dee Nite (by Hollywood Dun It), a full sister to $44,000-earner Dun It By Chick.

Custom Vintage Berry Tops Markel Futurity Prospect and Select Broodmare Sale

The National Reining Horse Association (NRHA)/Markel Futurity Prospect and Select Broodmare Sale, held December 6 during the 2019 NRHA Futurity and Adequan® North American Affiliate Championships, kicked off by auctioning breedings to 12 stallions to benefit the National Reining Horse Youth Association (NRHyA). A total of $20,400 was raised to support youth activities and scholarships.

The evening was topped by the $175,000 sale of Custom Vintage Berry, a 2017 bay roan colt (A Sparkling Vintage x Custom Roan Berry x Custom Crome). Steve Simon consigned the horse, who was then purchased by Elementa.

“She [Elementa owner, Cecilia Fiorucci] loved the horse from Europe as soon as she saw him,” said agent Domenico Lomuto of Slide or Die LLC. “He will go to Elementa, and I think Cira [Baeck] will show him at the next [European] Futurity. I think that with him, it will probably be one of the best stables in Europe for sure.”

Custom Vintage Berry was in training with Nici Schneider West for 335 days by the time of the sale. His dam is a full sister to American Quarter Horse Association (AQHA) World Champion Custom Red Berry, an earner of more than $187,000. Custom Vintage Berry was enrolled in the NRHA Nomination Program and the NRBC.

A bid of $67,000 made Xtra Kiss Me Again the second-highest seller. Consigned by Gabriel Diano, the 2017 sorrel colt was purchased by Karl Roberts.

Xtra Kiss Me Again (Boom Shernic x SS Kiss Me Kate x Wimpys Little Step) is a grandson of One Tuf Muffin, an earner of nearly $78,000 who was an NRHA Non Pro Reserve World Champion. He was enrolled in the NRHA Nomination Program and the NRBC.

The third-highest seller went for a price of $62,000 and was a young broodmare. Im Mizzen Gunner, a 5-year-old palomino mare consigned by Toyon Ranch LLC, was purchased by Russell Coiles.

Im Mizzen Gunner (Colonels Smoking Gun x Mizzen Shine x Shining Spark) was injured as a yearling and sold as broodmare sound. She had carried two foals in the past but was reset this year, and sold with an embryo conceived May 9, 2019, by SG Frozen Enterprize. Enrolled in the NRHA Nomination Program, NRHA Euro Nomination Program, and the NRBC, the mare was five panel negative.

For those looking for a good deal on a quality reiner, the NRHA/Markel Marketplace Sale will start tomorrow, December 7, at 9:30 a.m. in Barn 3 at State Fair Park in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, following the Quarter Horse News Sale Breakfast at 8:30 a.m.

Gunnin For Fri Dee is enrolled in the NRHA Nomination Program, NRHA European Nomination Program, and the NRBC, and is five panel negative.

HORSEWOMAN OF THE YEAR AWARD RENAMED TO HONOR BECKY HANSON

The National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) is pleased to announce that the Horsewoman of the Year award has been renamed to honor NRHA Professional Becky Hanson, past NRHA board member and professional from Clements, Calif.

“Becky exemplifies what we look for in the Horsewoman of the Year award,” said Shane Brown, NRHA Professional and Executive Committee member. “We feel like it sets a good example to continue the award in her name.”

The newly dedicated Becky Hanson Professional Horsewoman of the Year award will be voted on by NRHA Professionals and announced with the other Professional of the Year awards at the NRHA Awards Banquet in June. Becky is known for her incredible photos of the Western lifestyle, horsemanship, her philanthropic heart, witty humor, and constant willingness to lend a hand wherever it is needed.

Becky is always willing to help out and volunteer, no matter where she’s needed, from coaching to tasks at the barn, and from the affiliate level to a national level; she is always willing to help everyone around her,” Brown said.

Before stepping away from training horses herself, Becky had spent five years training reining horses in Italy, made multiple NRHA Derby finals, earned North American Affiliate titles and major event titles across the country, and coached endless non professionals to victory. Now her support is never far from her husband, NRHA Professional David Hanson who still trains and competes.

“She did it all, from sending entries to working with clients and helping find good horses and making their local affiliate run,” Brown shared. “There was not one part of this business that she didn’t have her hand in, one way or another.”

In naming this award in her honor, the Professionals Committee hopes she will serve as a continuous reminder about what it means to be named Horsewoman of the Year.

“She’s been an inspiration to people in this industry at all levels,” said Patrick Flaherty, NRHA Professionals Committee Chair. “She’s a huge influence, and I strongly believe her affiliate is successful today because of what she put into it.

She and David set up an incredible business because of how they complemented each other. Their support was pivotal to their business and our industry.”

Becky exemplifies what it means to be an NRHA Professional through her tenacity, morals, philanthropic heart, and the way she has continuously poured into every aspect of the reining industry for so many years. She has spent her life working to promote and grow the sport of reining through world-wide and local affiliate efforts, as well as serving on the NRHA Board and multiple committees.

“We all wish the Professional of the Year awards existed when she was actively training and showing horses because she would have won it five years in a row,” Flaherty said. “Now that the professionals have come up with this award program, we want to be sure it pays homage to her, and this felt like the perfect way to do it.”

Wishing You and Yours a Very Merry Christmas and a Wonderful New Year!
