IT IS ITALIAN REINING HORSE FUTURITY TIME AGAIN!

An impressive €527,000 was up for grabs at the upcoming IRHA/NRHA Futurity, which opened its gates on November 20, 2019 and completed its final run on November 30 bringing to close a busy season for this sport that has grown in strength and vitality on a worldwide scale over the last two years. The event staged in the magical oval of the Cremona exhibition center presented a purse that made the Italian Futurity the fourth richest Special Event in the world after the US golden three (NRHA Futurity and Derby + NRBC Derby).

The Italian Futurity was also the site of the first National Final for the Italian Championship of FISE Para Reining. Last year being the first that this specialty was present in the Federation, a single competition was held, but this year these reiners also have worked their way to the appointment in Cremona through a series of qualifiers at regional level and will be accorded the opportunity to showcase their skills at a highpoint of the event, immediately prior to the Futurity Open final on Saturday evening.

Two pairs of Co-Champions sharing levels 4 and 3 made this 2019 IRHA-NRHA Open Futurity rather unusual. After the grueling marathon of two go-rounds before the final that only the 3-year-olds must go through, this year's riders displayed their sensitivity towards their horses' needs by resisting the proposal of a run-off. Considering this together with the serene acceptance this year of a Co-Championship out of respect for the horses that was seen at the prestigious

The Run For A Million, we may be witnessing a trend.

“To be honest it's never an easy choice,” says Max Rugeri, Level 3 Co-Champion together with Mirko Piazzi. “When you leave the competition, the adrenaline is high and you think, ‘I would like to go back and try to do even better.’ But we also need to be objective, to remember that we have young horses that have a whole career ahead of them and both Mirko and I agreed it was not right to put them through a run-off. They had already given us so much, so for tonight this is fine.”

Level 4 Co-Champion Mirko Midili confirms: “I didn’t have a moment of doubt about not doing a run-off and I want to underline this because many may think that at the Level 4 Futurity, we should have done it. But it wasn't necessary. Moreover, Łukasz and I are great friends, we spent three weeks together while he was staying with me before this Futurity, and we always promised each other that if we won a competition together, we would choose the Co-Championship. In fact, sharing the podium was our dream! I have great respect for him and him for me.” After the win the two riders improvised a unique “mini-show” with a couple of spins and stops, even swapping horses during the lap of honor, thus clearly demonstrating their satisfaction for this shared victory.

So, let's get to know the six champions produced in the 2019 IRHA-NRHA Futurity 3YO Open. Level 4 saw Co-Champion Mirko Midili and Not Black At All and Łukasz Czechowicz on Copyride tie with a score of 223.5.

A visibly tired Mirko recapped his commitment to this event: Eleven Non Pro horses to follow plus his own two 3-year-olds: “I had to leave my 4-year-old horses at home because I knew I would have too many and I preferred to concentrate on the younger horses. I tried to stay as clear-headed as possible and to do things correctly, but to be honest I was very worried because in the last few weeks Not Black At All wasn’t showing the form he has had throughout the year: he had very big stops and lately I had lost him a little bit in that maneuver. In the competition there were at least four or five horses that were stopping much bigger. I trusted him because I knew he has a very big heart, but I still didn't know if he also had the talent that others were showing.” However, a show horse exhibits his true colors when he enters the arena and Not Black At All did not disappoint. Son of Not Ruf At All and Lenas Poco Dunit (also dam of the horse with which Mirko won the Limited Open Derby in 2011), he was bred at Luga QH, the current owner. Mirko’s only outing with him was at the Belgian Futurity earning a 219.5 despite an over spin of -1.

“His mother is now in foal by Not Ruf At All, so this horse will soon have a full-brother. He is a truly great horse and we only chose to castrate him, not because he was difficult, but because last year I had three horses, all stallions, with which I could win the Futurity and in the Final, it gave me some problems, so I preferred to castrate them all,” Mirko explains. “I am convinced that for a Non Pro, this could be a winning horse for years: at this moment I could put the saddle back on him and do the same run again, if not better. These are his best qualities: constancy and solidity.”

Entering the arena last, Łukasz Czechowicz pulled off a great run to draw even with Midili aboard Copyride, another talented horse sired by Colonels Shining Gun, this time out of Finest Copyshot, and bred by Anja Deutzmann. The performance proves that this young Pole has found his niche... at the top of European special events! Bought as a yearling by Katarzyna Roleska, Copyride has been in training with Łukasz since his two-year-old year and was previously Reserve Champion in the Belgian Futurity: “It is great to win the Futurity,” says the head trainer from the Roleski Ranch, competing in his third Futurity final, “and winning on a horse I have trained from the beginning makes this a special, special moment. I have had two great 3-year-olds this year, but I thought the other one was stronger - I didn’t make the final with him but then Copyride was exceptional in the show pen. I knew he was strong, but this was unexpected!”

Despite his continued success, having climbed through the NRHA rankings in 2018 to classify 9th among the sport’s Top 20 professionals thanks to another two products of Colonels Shining Gun, CSG Piggimove and CSG Copshot last year, and then as winner of the IRHA/NRHA Derby Open Level 4 in Cremona on CSG Magnifique Gun this year, 24-year-old Czechowicz remains modest: “Everyone gets excited before the 3-year-old event, but to win it you also need a bit of luck. Tonight, we had a competition full of good horses and I had that luck, together with Mirko. Both horses were unbelievable, standing up to the strain of two go-rounds and then the noise and the pressure of the final... one of the reasons why my friend Mirko and

I decided not to have a run-off.” He concludes, “My thanks go to Katarzyna Roleska for the great horses and the great chances she has given me and for just being how she is, as well as my wife and all the team at the Roleski Ranch. This was the very best way to finish a wonderful year, both professionally and... because I got married this year!”

Go-round leader Max Ruggeri (where he tied with Stefano Angelucci and Zag Ebony Gunn) and the beautiful palomino mare Tinselmartin clinch the title of Level 3 Co-Champions. The performance of the mare Tinselmartin, owned by her breeder Marino Pilotto, confirms the strong mark left in this Futurity by the small, quality Italian breeding that has been so important through the history of European reining. The daughter of Hollywoodstinstown and Tarismartin, along with Max she was both Open Co-Champion at the Lombardy Futurity and Champion in the ARTA:

“[This has been] a week I will not easily forget,” says a still incredulous Max, referring to the fact that in recent days he had also won Level 4 and 3 of the 4YO Futurity and that his Non Pro Gabriele Carrarini won level 2 of the 3YO Non Pro Futurity, also placing Reserve in levels 4 and 3. “Tinselmartin was bred by Marino Pilotto, a great friend and client over the years and a real horseman. The mare he used to compete with became his leading broodmare and produced several champions; one of her daughters then took her mother’s place and this is Tarismartin, mother of Tinselmartin. Marino has sent me many horses to train but often the really strong ones were sold before I had the chance to show them. This time I think Marino wanted to give me a little gift, and I’ll always be grateful to him.” The characteristics of this champion, according to Max, are, “an incredible athleticism, the desire to stop, and she’s beautiful in the circles - and she can improve further. Obviously, these are young horses and there is always some room for growth. We started her a little later than the others because she was still quite slight in January, so we decided to leave her time to strengthen physically and then started her in May 2017. Since then, she has worked well, developing consistently.”

Ruggeri’s score of 216 was also that of Bolognese trainer Mirko Piazzi who showed Spooks Of Genius a bay stallion son of Spooks Gotta Whiz x A Sparks Of Genius, bred by Carlo Sala and now belonging to Vittorio Rabboni.

A determined Mirko made a fierce run, in his own inimitable style: “This horse is extraordinary,” he said. “I started and trained him from the outset, and he has never given me any kind of problem. Our first outings confirmed my expectations: we won the Lombardy Pre-Futurity and finished third at the LR Futurity, and then we came here to Cremona. In the second go, unfortunately, a break in gait kept us out of the Level 4 final and I regret this because the horse deserved it. I liked him from the first time I saw him, but Vittorio wasn’t entirely convinced, so we bought him together.”

What strikes his trainer about this horse is his surprising mental balance: “He is always calm; never on the defensive. Despite being a stallion, he is very, very cold. He felt good in the final, and I tried to enter and express his ability, because this is a good show horse. Unfortunately, he was a little tired for the stops, because he is normally a great stopping machine.” Mirko, who has been working as a trainer for 31 years, has his own center and collaborates with Vittorio Rabboni at the magnificent Rabboni QH facility.

As a veteran, Piazzi made some considerations for this 2019 Futurity: “This year I saw some really good horses. Honestly, after 10 days of competitions, I didn’t exactly understand the judges’ yardstick: the scores seemed rather tight and I regret this as it works against the show and the development of these young horses.” Unfortunately, we will not be seeing this combination in action again as Spooks Of Genius is already sold, and will go abroad. “You don’t find horses like this every day. Unfortunately, this is also part of our work,” concludes Mirko, who warmly thanked both his wife and Vittorio Rabboni for their constant and lasting support.

Giacomo Ronchi & Magnetic Master

Giacomo Ronchi, born in 1971, a psychologist with a great passion for horses, is the new Futurity 3 YO Level 2 Champion with Magnetic Master, chestnut stallion, son of the illustrious Master Snapper (the only horse bred and trained in Italy to have won an aged event in the States, in all categories), and of the mare San July Jo Magic, who was Giacomo's own show mare. The duo, that produced scores of 214.5 and 216 in the go-rounds, marked 214 in the final. Ronchi bred this young stallion himself and he has been trained by Giacomo alone. Non Pro rider but turned professional in 2017, when he decided to devote more time to horses and to their training, although his primary occupation is still as a psychologist. “A series of issues led me to this choice; however, reining horses are a part of my life. Having chosen to withdraw my mare from competitions, and to see how she produced as a broodmare, this path seemed a good solution,” says Ronchi. “The foal is a product of my collaboration with Roberto Cuoghi, and I thank him for his encouragement.” Describing his competition partner Giacomo says: “He is very playful, and I really like him. Sometimes he makes me impatient, because he is never calm nor easy. He is very lively, but when it comes to work, he listens. He has a generous heart and a great will to do what you ask him, and he has shown this fully throughout this Futurity. He also has a great physique: tonight, he was as fresh as the first day we arrived. This also shows that he takes things serenely.”

“His mum was a Chic Magnetic that I bought as a two-year-old, and I trained myself. It was almost a ‘love-affair.’ In the Non Pro categories, we won everything we entered and she only ever competed with me. I wanted to keep her, and cultivate projects like this colt,” says Ronchi who was satisfied with his performance here despite some slips. He comments: “Tonight, I competed with a different spirit. A ‘heart run’, and I know this led to flaws, but that’s the risk you take and I’m happy with the way we played it!”

This is a first win for Giacomo, who lives in Emilia Romagna, as an Open Rider, but he boasts a remarkable Non Pro show record including a historic triumph with the mother of Magnetic Master at the 2012 Futurity 4 YO Non Pro Level 4, 3 and 2 and the IRHA Derby in 2014, Level 4. With this victory, a new chapter in his reining story begins.

The Reserve Champion Level 2 title went to Nic Cordioli, riding Late Little Whiz, son of Walla Walla Whiz x Late Little Jaba, bred by Silvia Sgaggio, and belonging to Andrea Pengo. The pair marked 213.5 in the final.

Entering with his second finalist on the stallion Great Dolomythic (RS Great Jac Feona x Dolomythic), a horse he owns himself, Mattia Nadalini marked 213 to top Level 1. The 28-year-old rider from Verona who is currently working at Mandaletti Quarter Horses, in Bergamo, describes this stallion bred by Alois Kompatscher, as a horse “with a strong personality and slightly nervy.” Mattia added “but when you find the right balance, he really gives you a lot and can get some good credits on his maneuvers. He was beginning to feel the strain this evening; he had some big stops, but the rollbacks were non super.” Having discovered reining through Nic Cordioli, he chose to further his experience immediately after leaving school with a trip to Texas, where he stayed a year with Jim McCutcheon before returning to Italy where he went to work with Luga QH. a period working independently, he spent two seasons at Claudio Risso's Roberta's Stables, winning reserve honors with Rs Apple Lena in the 2018 Futurity 4YO Open Level 1, before moving closer to home at the beginning of this year. His week at Cremona has been fruitful with the title of Intermediate Open Italian Champion gained aboard Miss Gunnagunna, a mare with which he also won the title of Derby Open Level 1 Reserve Champion in May this year. Looking forward to the future together with Great Dolomythic Mattia comments: "He did everything he had to do tonight, but I am sure he has more potential... I am hoping he will show us exactly how much at the EuroFuturity next year!"

Sharing reserve honors int level 1 were Markus Süchting, 30, from Germany on the chestnut stallion Mello Yello Jersey (Yellow Jersey x Smart Okie Lena), bred in Canada by Lucie Houde and owned by Kay Schroeder; and Italian Genni Lazzarini riding her own stallion Ds Little Ottavio-gun (Gfc Quixote Gun x Little Pie Di Cuori, bred by Sandra d'Amico) who slid to the title with a score of 211.5.

IRHA-NRHA Futurity 3YO Non Pro

As first big final for three-year-old horses, the Non Pro hit the stage of the large and prestigious Cremonese arena, highlighting not only the Champions themselves but also the smaller, quality breeding that made reining great in the past and today is sometimes slightly overlooked. The first example of how much it still has to offer our discipline is the stallion that, together with Edoardo Bernardelli, climbed to the top of the podium at levels 4 and 3 with a 215.5. In fact, Shine Pop, son of Shine Chic Shine x MM Lollipop, was bred at Alessandro Cazzaniga's facility that boasts a few, carefully selected mares and a lot of passion that over the years have ensured good and constant results. Edoardo, 29, is one of Italy's best Non Pro riders and has a rich show record that includes 2012 NRHA European Derby Non Pro L3 Champion & L2/1 Reserve Champion; 2014 NRHA European Futurity Non Pro L3 Reserve Champion and IRHA/NRHA Futurity Non Pro 4YO L3 Champion; 2016 IRHA/NRHA Futurity 3YO L4 Non Pro Reserve Champion and 2017 IRHA/NRHA Futurity L4

Non Pro Reserve Champion.

After finishing his studies, Edoardo decided to devote himself totally to his passion: reining horses. He went to the US to gain experience alongside some of the best in the industry and has now set up his own center in Olgiate Molgora, Bernardelli QH, where he breeds and trains his competition horses.

"I'm really happy! Shine Pop behaved well, and we have finally managed to bring this title home! I have been trying for quite some time." Edoardo bought his partner in the show pen when he was just a month old and held on to him after he was weaned, taking care of his training entirely. "I bought him because I liked his pedigree, but as he grew, I began to appreciate his development, his charisma and physical appearance. This horse has very strong maneuverers and a personality to match, but he is always collaborative and willing to work."

Despite his youth, Edoardo is a veteran of the show pen and knows how to control his nerves: he expressed a gritty and determined run: “I was focusing on the stops, which are Shine Pop’s strongest maneuver. We missed one because of a misunderstanding, but fortunately the circles went very well, so in the end, we produced a good performance. Probably, without that mistake we could have marked a higher score, but in the end, we got where we wanted.” Bernardelli thus concludes a year that has been highly successful, with a victory at the European Derby, one at the Maturity held at Bo Ranch and a second place at the Italian Derby with his “Mosè”, or more formally, Whiz Wild West. “I want to thank my family for their continuous support, my assistant Fabio Torino, and Guglielmo Fontana for his help here in Cremona,” he concludes.

Gabriele Carrarini & CG Smart N Gold

Exactly 20 years after his first national Futurity in 1999, and after reaching the finals eight times without ever claiming a title, here is the first top spot on the podium in the 3-year-old competition for 35-year-old Gabriele Carrarini: Non Pro 3YO Futurity Level 2 Champion and Level 4 and 3 Reserve Champion (score 204). Despite his relatively young age, Gabriele’s approach to reining and philosophy is that of an old-style Non Pro and he is proud of it!

He is convinced that this discipline is “a path” that can be long and often demanding, but therein lies its beauty. He said, “I didn’t get the top title, but for me the victory at level 2 is a triumph seeing that it is my first time ever. I would like to add that this victory is not mine alone: it is the victory of all those horses that don’t cost a fortune to buy and that have not been trained by Million Dollar riders. It is the victory of those Non Pros who dedicate themselves to this sport with passion and perseverance, who know how to wait and pursue their objectives by working every day to achieve them. It is the victory of those assistants who bring their team’s weakest horse into the show pen and manage to place him in the final at level 1, and for them maybe it’s the competition of a lifetime. It is the victory of the trainers who become great because they “make horses” great, and not because they ride the top horses. One of these is Max Ruggeri, who has been supporting me for 10 years and whom I followed to the top of the Alps. Despite the current trend that would see us all travelling to the US to buy horses that are trained and ready and focusing only on the million-dollar races, for me reining is the sport that developed in Italy where anyone could nurture the talents of his own little horse in his own backyard and dream of getting to a Futurity.” And that’s exactly what Gabriele did with Cg Smart N Gold, known as Goldy, bay gelding son of his stallion Clinton (Arc Surprising Smart) and his mare Arc Girl Chic N Gold.

“Bred and raised by me in our stables at Buttiglieria D’Asti, he was started by Cris Lucchina and Cristina Fiscella and then I personally trained him under Max’s fundamental guidance. Together we won the ARTA Futurity and the LR Non Pro. But the Italian futurity is another thing entirely! We risked not getting here at all! A week ago he caught a cold and had a temperature of 41.5°C, then I thought about how strong he is and said to myself: let’s go for it! We each invested our hearts in this feat, and we managed it.”

It is the first time that Carrarini has tried his hand at the total management of a horse with only three months of training, and preparing him for the Futurity himself: “I do everything for him: it goes beyond just riding him, I have taken care of him entirely for over two years, and I think

In the March magazine:

- Our cover trainer of March is Duane Latimer, reigning Champion of the NRBC Open, who we interviewed in the lead-up to the 2019 edition. The Canadian-born trainer talked about his system for teaching the stop and rollback, and how experience is healthy for a trainer to learn how to control his own stress as well as that of his horses and to understand when it is time to stop

- The 28th of February marked the deadline for presenting the 'non-binding expression of interest' in hosting the next edition of the World Championships in 2022 for the various equestrian disciplines: Italy stepped forward to take pole position in this great challenge, with the splendid facility of Elementa near Rome. At the very same time by coincidence, members of the McCutcheon family (Tom, Mandy and Cade) were present in Rome as guests of Maria Cecilia Fiorucci of Elementa. We chatted with them about the WEG, among other things...

- We present another four-legged star, getting to know more about the beautiful mare Dun It For Chex, owned by Cardinal Reining Horses (Aubrey, Tx) and NRHA Hall of Famer since June 2018. She looks to be the horse that will become the second Million Dollar Dam in history after Ebony Shines

- A much-appreciated guest in this issue is Doug Allen from Great Britain: a rider and judge at the highest levels, for the readers of Horsense he reveals all the secrets of the freeze-up as seen from the 'chair' as well as answering some more general questions on the work of an NRHA judge

- Finally, our journey continues among those companies proposing innovative ideas for the sports horse and reining in particular: this time we talk with Gianni Guidolin, of the international feed group that bears this surname. Gianni explains how despite its size it has retained an 'artisan's' vocation it is precisely this profound knowledge of my horse - that maybe other Non Pros with less time or less desire to do this, can never have of their horses - that made it easier for me to manage this young, and obviously inexperienced horse, in the three-year-old competition. It is not true that you can only win a Futurity on a superhorse: it is the will-power that makes the difference; it is staying in the stables through the cold of winter and heat of summer, it is saying to yourself every evening: 'Okay, even if it means getting to bed later again tonight, I want to get there'." Moreover, Goldy is not exactly easy: "He is overenergetic", continues the Piedmontese rider: "This morning I had lunge him and he was bucking as though he hadn't been out of the stable for a week... I think he has the power and also the qualities to be able to do so much, and that's why next year I'd like to give him to Max for the 4YO Open Futurity [which Ruggeri won brilliantly in the 2019 edition two days ago]; but his character needs quietening, as we saw tonight from the shameful lap of honor he performed," adds Gabriele laughingly. "Max was great with me from the beginning, he said to me, 'Gabri, look, you don't have to fight him, you have to get his attention, engage him, if it comes to an argument, he is smarter than you!'"

It was a blonde Dutch rider, Sharon De Groot, 25, who currently lives and trains in Antwerp, where she studies physiotherapy, to claim (with a 210) the titles of IRHA-NRHA 3YO Level 1 Champion and Level 2 Reserve Champion riding her splendid buckskin stallion Tinsel Whizington: another horse that was born and raised at home. He is the son of Tinsel Jac x Conquistador Sis, the mare with whom Sharon started competing in reining and that she rode in events throughout Europe for many years; she and the bay mare were also part of the Dutch young riders team that participated in the FEI European Championship in Manerbio in 2013. This young stallion is the first product of her mare and Sharon has cared for him since his birth. She has always been passionate about horses and has been reining for about 10 years. However, this year was the first time she has shown a 3-year-old. "Tinsel Whizington is really sweet, and does everything for me," she says. "We really have an excellent relationship and an intense understanding. He is really a very good horse. Although sometimes he can be a bit difficult when working at home, once in the arena he gives me everything!" The horse performed strong stops and good, fluent circles to secure this result. Sharon and her stallion competed in the Austrian Futurity, and were Level

3 Intermediate Non Pro Reserve Champions, scoring 214. In addition, they showed at the Belgium Futurity and were Level 1 and Level 2 Champions, and L3 and L4 Reserve Champions, and in the French Futurity they took home the Level 4 Non Pro Championship. "We have had a really, really great year" Sharon says, "I still can't believe what has just happened! Tonight, we did not perform our best run: I made a few mistakes as I was really nervous, but in the end, it turned out to be enough!" Sharon enjoyed the atmosphere and the organization of the IRHA Futurity in Cremona as she said, "It was really nice to show here! You really get the feeling of a big event and the ground was great for showing!" After this hard show season, the buckskin stallion and his owner need a long rest to recover. "He deserves a good holiday now!"

IRHA-NRHA Futurity 4YO Open

The first three reining professionals to come out of the Cremona oval arena wearing the smile of Futurity Champions are all Italian! Max Ruggeri took the 4YO Open Futurity title for levels 4 and 3, while Stefano Ferri triumphed at Level 2 and Alberto Ferrara was Level 1 Champion.

Carrying them

to their respective wins were three magnificent stallions: Mr No Guns In Town (score 219), Ub Electric (score 219), and Little Bingo Player (212). The payouts of both this Open and the Non Pro competition were higher than ever before thanks to the sponsorship of Elementa, a group that has chosen to encourage competition for 4 year-old horses in line with its concept of horse welfare.

The first two horses have in common the fact that they have only recently made the acquaintance of the riders who guided them to the podium. Max Ruggeri spotted Mr No Guns In Town (Gunstar x Dunnit With Cash), bred by one of his clients, Max Rudari, as a yearling while still in the paddock.

“His attitude was really nice and he moved well,” Max says, “so when he was two years old I convinced Lino Santobuono to buy him: he is the current owner, and a friend of mine. I did not start training him immediately for a variety of reasons and partly because I moved from Mantua to Trentino. He was started using the Parelli method, then was trained by different professionals and I lost track of him. Five months ago, I heard from Lino and we discussed bringing him back to my stables. When I took him over his training still needed some completion and he had little experience in the show pen. He was a bit confused and green. Yet he is very athletic and possesses many natural qualities

Max Ruggeri & Mr No Guns In Town

- especially his stops and his elegant form. I just had to set to work with him patiently.” Max continued “Moreover, he has a really good mind and though time was short, he learned everything necessary. I am delighted that he is back with me and has given such satisfaction to the breeder and the owner who have both been customers and friends of mine for several years.”

Max, who hails from Asola, near Mantua, is now working at the Alps Coliseum stables in Egna. He has spent thirty of his 44 years with horses and has been a finalist in all the main special events, but his greatest triumphs have come in events with older horses, for example the Maturity at which he has won three times at L4 with the well-known stallion Mister Little Uno. As Max himself confirms, “Yes, perhaps this is one of my characteristics; I like to give horses the time they need to mature. Many horses are talented but not physically ready at the age of three, while others, and this was the case of Mr No Guns In Town, there may be problems that delay their training. I definitely “prefer” the four-year-old Futurity - it's a show that I really like. Moreover, I'm in favor of giving a chance to horses that physically or mentally are a little green compared to the average to compete in a prestigious event - a few additional months of training can help them a lot.”

Max was quick to thank his friend Lino, and the whole team that works with him: “If things go well for the rider it is because of all the support of those behind the scenes,” he concludes. And now, is it time to think about the Derby? “We'll see,” he replies, laughing. “You never know!”

Stefano Ferri & Ub Electric

pion Level 3), also met his partner just a few months ago. The beautiful French facility Bo Ranch, where Stefano Ferri is head trainer, bought him from Luga QH after the Belgian Futurity, where the horse was finalist between the reins of Mirko Midili. Ub Electric was bred in the USA and is by Electric Code out of Ub Stylin With Me.

“Mirko is a friend and a trainer who I respect a lot,” says Stefano. “Even though Ub Electric and I didn't know each other well - which is still true today - we made the finals of the Breeders Futurity in Germany almost immediately. This is only our second show together, however my training system is similar to that of Mirko. The experience I have gained working with two-year-olds has also helped me to “classify” each horse according to its characteristics and then act appropriately. This enabled me to quickly create an understanding with this horse and so get results - although, of course, there is still room for improvement.”

Stefano’s training for young horses is rather unusual and it is impossible to describe it in just a few lines. It enables him to create a short and stress-free training program for his young horses. Many of Europe’s major stables call upon him for this purpose. His theory (and practice) is based on first identifying the ‘type of horse’. “I would classify Ub Electric as a “water” horse, for example, he is emotional, and that its emotion is directed towards introspection. Although a stallion, he is actually shy, sensitive and thoughtful. So, I know that he feels safe with routine and lighter work sessions, keeping the pressure constant.”

Stefano started his reining career with Filippo Masi in 1999; for three years, he was Stefano Massignan's assistant at Claudio Risso's stables, and he then moved to 23 QH, where he spent many years working alongside Ricky Nicolazzi, Daniel Schlomer and then the Fonck family. For the last year, he has been head trainer at fantastic Bo Ranch, owned by Gregory Morat, actual owner of Ub Electric: Stefano is extremely grateful to him for the opportunity to show this nice horse.

Like Max Ruggeri, he’d rather support the enhancement of the 4-year-old Futurity, as he stated, “I certainly prefer showing 4-year-olds. Generally, they are both physically and mentally more mature and so I can prepare them better. In fact, I left my 3-year-old horses at home. In my opinion, a 4-year-old shows a better-quality reining.”

Alberto Ferrara & Little Bingo Player

Alberto Ferrara, now 35, started his career in reining

when he was just 18. He won the title of IRHA-NRHA Futurity 4YO Level 1 Champion riding Little Bingo Player. This stallion is by multiple cow horse champion Peptos Lil Bingo out of Supertramp Out, a daughter of Playing It Out that also belongs to Little Bingo Player's owner, Riccardo Morichi. Alberto knows this spirited young horse, that was part of an unusual project, well, saying, "I spent six years working in Tuscany, where I met Riccardo and we became friends. When I came back to Piedmont, I worked with Markus Schöpfer for one year and got to know his stallion, the "Pepto". I liked the foals of his that I rode. I therefore suggested to Morichi to cross this stallion to his mare. It was a bit of a gamble. Although the horse was a little late developing, we are now delighted with this decision."

Ferrara, who started and trained Little Bingo Player, defines him as very athletic horse; not easy to handle but very good and powerful. "There is still room for improvement in all the maneuvers. I am happy with this result, especially for the horse as he truly deserves it! He's a little green because he's very nervous and a little bit scared when you teach him something new, but when he understands and learns, he is really super, honest and reliable."

Being still green, Little Bingo Player did not participate in the 2018 3YO Futurity, but this year, before Cremona, he has already won the Intermediate Open 4YO Piedmontese

Futurity. Alberto, who was already a finalist in the 2019 European Futurity, currently works on his own in Mazzè, in the facility owned by Andrea Nobile, where he moved two years ago, after spending five years in Peschiera QH of Caluso (To). After high school, Ferrara had left Italy to go to the States, to work for some of the big names in the US reining scene: Scott McCutcheon, Bob Avila, and Brent Loseke at Green Valley Ranch, for a short time. He also spent two years with Rob Lawson, who was very helpful, and finally with Schöpfer.

Reserve honors in the Level 4 went to Manuel Cortesi, riding PC Tinsel Nic (score 218.5), a stallion by Hollywoodtinseltown x PC Sliderina Whiz, bred by Azienda Agricola Cortesi Piero, and owned by Marcus Levin, while in the Level 3 the Co-Reserve Championship went to Czech rider Tomas Martinek astride Call Me Lil Josie (score 218.5), a Quarter Horse mare owned by Wolfgang Hammer, by Lil Joe Cash x Call Me N Hollywood, bred by Sergio Elia.

In the Level 2, Pierluigi Fabbri placed second, riding Hurricane Jaba (score 217), nice gelding by Broadway Jaba x Lydia Chex, bred by Az. Agricola Pollarini and owned by Igor Rozman; in the Level 1, Reserve honors went to Angelo Benedusi and Whizkeyfortheladies, a quarter horse stallion by Whizkey N Diamonds x Smart Blue Frost, owned by Sergio Elia and owned by Christian Simonazzi (score 211).

IRHA/NRHA Futurity 4YO Non Pro

Andreu Nogue Puig & A Whiz N Cash

The first Futurity Champions to be crowned in the great arena of Cremona were, as usual, the Non Pro riders aboard their 4-year-old horses. Topping the rankings is a pair that exactly one year ago made history in the world of reining: a sixteen-year-old boy aboard a 3-year old horse, from a country where reining is still in its infancy, who won all 4 levels of 3YO Non Pro Futurity, bear in mind also that this was the richest Futurity in the history of European Special Events.

Should anyone have thought, after the unlucky runs Andreu Nogue Puig had at the IRHA Derby in May, that the gritty Spanish teenager and his A Whiz N Cash were a one-hit wonder on the international reining scene, this performance will have clearly disproved that idea: the pair triumphed with a score of 218 in the Futurity Non Pro 4-yrs-olds Level 4 final to become 2019 IRHA/NRHA Futurity 4YO level 4 Champions.

Andreu, now 17, left school at the beginning of 2019 and currently works in the family business in Lloret de Mar, near Barcelona. He started riding reining horses in 2015 under the supervision of Eugenio Latorre, and, in 2017, qualified to be part of the Spanish National team in the FEI World Reining Championship for Juniors, in Givrans, but unfortunately did not have a suitable horse for the event. On that occasion, Mirko Midili saved the day by lending Andreu his beautiful black horse, Arc Sparkle Magnetic. It was the beginning of a partnership that, under Mirko's guidance, led the young Spaniard to meet and buy his current champion, A Whiz N Cash (by Custom Cash Advance x A Whiz N Wranglers by Topsail Whiz), bred by Carlo Sala, and started by Mattia Nadalini. Andrea is now supported technically by Bernard Fonck, and travels back and forth between Spain and Belgium to train with the Two Million Dollar Rider.

"Whiz N Cash has always been a super horse," comments Andreu. "He is a quiet, cool and great minded - a truly fantastic horse. In this last year we have had more time to work together and get to know each other, we have deepened our understanding."

After the Italian Derby, Andreu took the horse to the family facility in Spain, where he rode him on his own until three weeks before this trip to the Italian Futurity. He competed in Equità Lyon, where the duo won the Grand Prix Non Pro, after which they entered the Elementa Master Premiere Show in Verona. They then had a week riding with Bernard in Belgium before setting off for the IRHA Futurity.

"This show was tough for me, because my grandmother passed away one week ago," the young champion explains. "She was not particularly fond of horses, but she was really in love with this one. She said he was the best and strongest horse I have ever had, and winning here, for me, is very emotional and I dedicate my show here to her. I can't describe what I feel... she was with me there, in the arena. It was her gift, she brought me luck."

Fabienne Kuratli-Suter & Alpha Top Gun

Confirming her consistency, Swiss rider Fabienne Kuratli-Suter, a 31-year-old entrepreneur, already go-round leader at levels 4, 3 and 2 in the 4YO Non Pro Futurity, won the levels 3 and 2 with her fantastic Alpha Top Gun, a flashy palomino gelding by Hollywoodstinstown out of Shiney Walla Wanda. Her horse, bred in Oklahoma at Alpha Quarter Horses and started by Jonathan Gauthier, was previously 2018 Belgium Futurity Open Reserve Champion L4 between the reins of Grisha Ludwig (Fabienne's current trainer). The duo, last to enter the arena following young Andreu's superb performance, really went for it with a truly aggressive run. A mistake on one of the stops robbed the pair of the victory at Level 4, but the final 214.5 clinched the two titles for the blonde rider.

"I am very happy with my final run. The horse was great, he was with me all the time. I made a mistake on a stop and we lost half a point; however, I am really pleased with how honest Alpha Top Gun was. We have not trained him since the Breeders Futurity in Germany, and yet in this race he gave me everything he could. I think Andreu is the rightful winner of this Futurity, today he had the best ride ever and I'm really happy for him. I think our horses are both equally strong, but there is no doubt he made the better run."

Despite being the last to enter, Fabienne managed to control the pressure; she says she felt quiet, focused, and serene because she knew both she and her horse were ready and were working together in this adventure. "I think the judges were very tough with the scores. But they marked everyone in the same way, so that's fine. I would have given Andreu at least a couple of points more... and myself too, to be honest!"

The beautiful rider, who lives on Lake Constance and has been reining for thirteen years, inherited her passion for horses from her parents. Currently busy in the family business, she is also the mother of two small children and, therefore, has little time to ride and train. Thanks to Grisha Ludwig, who prepares her horse, she can compete despite her other commitments. Fabienne adds the prestigious double title to a rich show record: 2015 NRHA European Futurity Non Pro Champion and IRHA/NRHA 4YO Non Pro Futurity Champion L3 and 2; 2017 Finalist L4 Breeders Futurity 3YO Non Pro in Germany (4th), French Futurity Champion 3/4YO L4 and this year, with Alpha Top Gun, Reserve Champion Non Pro at the EuroFuturity L3 and 2 and Champion at the NRHA Germany Bit Futurity levels 4, 3 and 2.

Susanna Sodi, a 44-year-old entrepreneur from the field of finance, won the Level 1 Non Pro Futurity 4 YO as well as the Reserve Championship in the levels 3 and 2 riding Ladysdreamofblueeyes, a sorrel gelding by Magnum Chic Dream x Check Your Gun Lady. Susanna, who has now been reining for 4 years, came to western riding from trail riding, but felt this activity did not enable her to develop a deeper relationship with the horse. She thus decided to pursue a competitive career to build a greater feeling with this special animal.

"Reining is a great passion for me. It allows me to me work in close contact with the horse and to develop a stronger rapport and understanding with him." Susanna, who rides at Luga Quarter Horses, has trained under the close guidance of Elio Simonini since the beginning of her adventure, and she added, "He had the patience to put me in the saddle and let me grow and learn, right up to this victory. I owe everything to him!"

Susanna bought her beautiful horse, nicknamed "Legacy", last year at the NRHA Futurity. The horse had been trained by Craig Schmershal and arrived in Italy in February. The IRHA Futurity is this pair's first Special Event following their participation in some regional shows. "He is a real show horse, who never lets you down: he listens, he waits for you, but when you ask him to go, he is ready to do his best.

Susanna built up a nice run, starting quietly to then finish with phenomenal stops and rollbacks, which earned her the necessary credits for this victory. "I woke up after the second spin," she says laughing. "I made a bad start. He didn't get into the spin, but I managed to keep him going. Then I said to myself, 'Now I must run like hell, to make up for it!' He was fantastic in the circles and even I was surprised by his rollbacks! This is a characteristic of Craig's horses: they have a catlike agility on this maneuver that drives me crazy!" This horse and rider have now set their sights on the IRHA Derby in May 2020.

The Reserve Honors in the Level 4 Non Pro went to Giovanni Lugarà and Big Code (Electric Code x Roosterina), a stallion owned by Luga QH (the pair scored 215), while in the Level 1, the Reserve Championship went to Francesco Freschi and IM A Walla Walla, Quarter Horse mare by Walla Walla Whiz x Sexy Peponita, bred by Piero Priori (score 210).

2019 LUCAS OIL AQHA WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP SHOW

The 2019 Lucas Oil American Quarter Horse Association (AQHA) World Championship Show, held November 7 – 23 at State Fair Park in Oklahoma City is a must-see event! Competitors work all year long to reach a qualifying number of points so they can attend this pinnacle event of the AQHA. It features Western, English and Halter events, educational opportunities and an entertaining tradeshow. Competitors and quarter horse enthusiasts gather from around the world to see who will win each of the 99 world championships and 90 Adequan Level 2 championships. Reining was well represented at the event with multiple horse and rider teams delivering spectacular performances.

Piper and Patriot Top the Jr Reining

Pilot Point, Texas resident Nathan Piper rose to the top of the Junior Reining on Patriot. The sorrel stallion, by Smart Spook out of Dunit A Lil Ruf, and Piper have been a formidable team in the show pen. They were National Reining Breeders Classic Co-Champions and scored a 230.5 in the NRHA Derby Open Level 4 Finals before coming to Oklahoma City to sweep the Jr Reining World Championship with a 228.

Piper saw something special in Patriot from the first time he sent him around the round pen and says that there isn't a thing he would change about him. He said, "He's the whole package." The 4-year-old stallion was born on Toyon Ranch where Nathan trains out of. The decision was made to sell the horse when he was three years old, and Nathan contacted Shannon and Hershel Reid. They bought him and kept him in training with Piper, who was elated with that decision.

"We came through the gates, and I asked him to get on up there, and I could feel he was a little hesitant. I thought 'that's good' – because he's always with me, and so I knew that I could push him hard. He stopped great, backed up good, and boy, he is so fun to turn. He hammered those turns and shut off super. When I loped off, I knew I could run him as hard as he could. He did. He gave it all, slowed down, went through the lead change easy and never had an impure thought. It was great."

Patriot will enjoy some time off before preparing for next year's show season. Nathan thanked the good Lord above, his wife and children, and the Reids.

Casey Hinton slid into the Reserve Jr Reining World Championship on Night Time Spook with a 222. Casey and his wife, Kathy, own the glossy bay by Spooks Gotta Whiz out of Dunit A Lil Ruf. The 5-year-old gelding was bred by Steven Simon of Marietta, Okla.

Dany Tremblay landed the Jr Reining Level 2 Championship scoring a 218 with Scootin Through Town owned by Pastorino Hay & Ranch Supply of Moon Bay, Cali. The red dun gelding, by Hollywoodstinseltown out of Scoot Lil Bo, was bred by McQuay Stables. The duo also placed third in the Level 3 Finals. Tremblay, hailing from Overbrook, Okla. was pleased to take the reins after owner, Dana Pastorino, qualified "Tinsel" for the World Show.

Tremblay said, "I especially want to thank the Pastorino family and Dana. They've had a hard time lately with the horses and stuff. That trophy right there, she deserves it! She is great in the show pen, but she also takes care of her horses so well and I'm very proud for her."

Dany and Scootin Through Town finished third in the Level 3 finals, and with his other mount, SB Kachinatinsel-

Dany Tremblay, Scootin Through Town, & Dana Pastorino town, finished fourth in both levels 2 and 3.

Sean Pulley owns Reserve Junior Reining World Champion, Spook In Sparks, who was ridden by Shauna Larcombe of Pilot Point, Texas to a 215.5. Rosanne Sternberg bred the buckskin mare by Smart Spook out of Setting Off Sparks.

Dare and Electric Wind Claim the Sr Reining World Championship

Six-year-old, Electric Wind was given one goal for 2019 – to win a World title at the Lucas Oil AQHA World Championship show and that he did with Trevor Dare at the reins, he scored a 225 to take the Sr Reining World Championship. The sorrel stallion, owned by Silver Spurs Equine, is by Jacs Electric Spark and out of Wind Her Up Chic.

Dare knew his mount was a strong stopper, so on a pattern with four stops, that is where he placed his focus. Trevor said, “Running through the gate, he felt as straight and as pure and strong – he just felt perfect. So I knew that I just needed to be perfect and he hit all four stops just as good as he can.” He added, “It was great for him to finally get to show what he can do tonight, to his full potential. He’s always been a good horse, but just getting it all done at the same time – we finally did it tonight.”

With a World title added to his list of laurels, Electric Wind will likely go to Arizona to begin his career as a breeding stallion at his owner’s facility in Scottsdale. Trevor thanked Silver Spurs Equine owners Michael and Michelle Miola, Brett Stone, Thiago Boechat, his wife, Laura, and the whole team at Silver Spurs.

Coming in second with a 221, was Tom Foran riding Taylor Sheridan’s Walla Walla Starbuck. The 7-year-old red dun stallion is by Walla Walla Whiz out of Silverbluestarbucks.

In the Level 3 competition, it was Martin Larcombe on Hey Joe who topped the scores with a 217.5. The buckskin stallion, sired by Smart Spook out of Best Stop, is owned by Rosanne Sternberg of Aubrey, Texas. Native to Australia, Larcombe now lives in Whitesboro, Texas. He has only had Hey Joe off and on since spring this year.

Martin Larcombe on Hey Joe

He said, “The run up and down the middle stopping kind of suited him because he didn’t have a lot of time to think about ‘Aw gee, here we go around the ends’ sort of thing, you know? He’s an older horse who has been shown quite a bit so that kind of suited him – that kind of caught him by surprise. So we got around and stopped pretty well and everything else was pretty good too.”

Martin thanked Rosanne Sternberg and Sterling Ranch for supporting him over the years, his wife for holding down the fort at home, and his daughter McKinnon for traveling to the show and grooming for him.

The Level 2 Reserve Champion was Rolex N Chex with Daniel Schloemer of Scottsdale, Ariz. at the reins. The 11-year-old sorrel gelding, by Nu Chex to Cash out of Miss Moth Money, is owned by Kevin Rosenbaum.

William Rhoads on Mega Maggie Mae Dominate the AQHA Amateur World Competition

Dr. Bill Rhoads, a veterinarian from Whitesboro, Texas, has owned Mega Maggie Mae since she was a yearling, but that does nothing to dampen his awe of her abilities. He said, “She’s pretty famous – way more than me! She’s won a lot. She won three divisions of the Futurity when she was three. She won the Derby when she was four. She won the High Roller Derby when she was five. She’s never missed a final. She’s won several of the go-rounds of the major events. She’s seven now, and out of the derbies, and I just felt like she’s getting better and better the older she gets, and I just didn’t want to stop showing her so I made a goal to qualify her for the World. I just wanted to show off to the world what a great mare she is and that she’s not done!”

The great chestnut daughter of Magnum Chic Dream, out of Cinco De Mega, certainly proved that when she scored a 220.5 to win the Level 2 Amateur championship and then came back in the Level 3 finals to score a 222.5 and take the Amateur Reining World title.

“If you ask anybody, her signature maneuver is her circles,” Rhoads said. “She was unbelievable circling tonight. I ran her as hard as I could. She came back, changed leads, so everything was really, really good. The left turn, I would like try to do that over, but I’ll take it and I’m super happy!”

Bill is building “Mae” her own special pasture and plans to allow her to enjoy some time off in it until she starts preparing for the maturities next year. He also hope to compete in the Non Pro at the Run For A Million with her again next year. He thanked his staff at the vet clinic for looking after Mae, as well as his trainer, Richard Pokluda.

Gina Maria Schumacher of Givrins, Switzerland landed in the Level 3 Reserve spot on Wham Bam Gunner Man. XCS Ranch’s bay gelding, by Gunners Special Nite out of Super Olena Chic, scored a 220.5. Kristin Darnall-Titov from Newport Beach, Cali. took second in the Level 2 Amateur Reining on Gunsup In Tinseltown with a 218. The 5-year-old palomino stallion is by Hollywoodstinseltown out of Always Gotyer Gunsup.

NRHA AND FEI REACH NEW AGREEMENT

After more than 20 years of cooperation, which produced some of the most exciting moments in World Equestrian Games’ history, the National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) is pleased to announce a new agreement has been reached with the Fédération Équestre Internationale (FEI). FEI unanimously approved the new agreement at its General Assembly, held in Moscow on November 19.

“I am so proud of our NRHA Task Force that worked diligently with the officials at FEI to come to a workable Memorandum of Understanding (MOU). All of these individuals have focused on our mission to promote the reining horse. Although each organization has different needs, we were able to meet those needs and agree on a path forward,” said NRHA President Mike Hancock.

“This MOU provides more clarity, and the conversations have brought about better understanding. This agreement preserves the progress we have made over the last two decades, provides a means to develop more joint competitions, and protects the heritage of both organizations!

Pertinent details on the agreement and its potential impact on the NRHA membership will be directly communicated in the near future as implementation plans are finalized.

NRHA looks forward to growing reining alongside FEI and through its affiliates around the globe.

Founded in 1966, the National Reining Horse Association is a nonprofit association dedicated to promoting and encouraging the development of and public interest in the sport of reining. The focus is on developing and maintaining suitable standards of performance and judging and in providing a fun filled, family-oriented atmosphere.

- 2015 NRBC ninth in L4 Open on The Kids Gotta Gun
- 2017 Congress third in L4 Open and L3 Champion on Dunit With A Blond

- 2019 Buckeye Reining Classic L4 Open Futurity Championship on Spookgotgunsintown

Most recently, Brown's 2019 Congress L4 Futurity reserve title and L3 win aboard SHR Sweet Sugar Joe pushed him past the million-dollar mark. As he reflects on the road to his milestone, Brown credits his parents, Brian and Elaine Brown; his family; his wife, Laura; Robert and Arlene Santagata, owners of Santa Hill Ranch; and the many equine athletes he's had the privilege to ride.

"A lot of my early horses came to me through my parents. I'm thankful for my wife, Laura, and my family's support, too," Brown shares. "Robert and Arlene have given me the opportunity to ride and train some very nice horses. They let me do my job."

With just over a million in LTE to date, Brown has no plans of slowing down—he's already shooting for the next milestone. "We have some really cool horses here at Santa Hill," Brown reveals. "I'll just keep on working for that two million dollars."
