QUALIFY FOR THE FEI YOUTH WORLD REINING CHAMPIONSHIPS AT NRBC

Two Slates of CRIJ3* and CRIYR3* Classes to be Featured at NRBC

The National Reining Breeders Classic has always supported its youth. In 2019, it will continue that support by adding two slates of CRIJ3* and CRIYR3* classes to the schedule. The decision was made by show management to allow more opportunities for youth to qualify for the FEI World Reining Championships for Junior and Young Riders.

The championships will be held July 9-13, 2019 at CS Ranch in Givrins, Switzerland. This year, there will be three US Qualifying competitions: the Winter Slide in Ardmore, OK on February 2, the CNYRHA Ride And Slide in Syracuse, NY on June 8, and the NRBC in Katy, TX held April 18 and 19. Other competitions are also considering the addition of FEI Junior and Young Rider reining classes in an effort to help youth qualify. For the most up to date list of qualifying competitions in the U.S. please visit USEF.org/Reining. Youth must score a minimum average of 67 at one qualifying competition in 2019 to be considered for team selection in the division that they qualify in.

That is why having two slates of CRIJ3* and CRIYR* classes was so important to NRBC's Board of Directors. Secretary/Treasurer Cheryl Magoteaux Cody said, "This is a tremendous opportunity for youth to qualify to represent the USA in International competition. They will be sent on an expense-paid trip to Switzerland to compete!"

FEI Director of Reining Programs Bryn Wells added, "2017 was the inaugural year for these championships. With one under our belt, we are hoping to give more junior and young riders the opportunity to qualify in 2019. We had great support from competitions and organizers in 2017, and are seeing that again with many more trying to add the FEI divisions to help these riders get qualified now in 2019. We hope to send full teams in each division. With so many talented junior and young riders in the U.S., we are excited to see what 2019 holds."

The first CRIJ3* and CRIYR* class will be held on Friday, April 19 in conjunction with the other Youth classes, and the second will be on Saturday, April 20. The first jog will be at 3 pm on Thursday the 18th, and the second will be on Saturday morning at 7 am.

Hancock (NRHA Board Vice Pres.)*

The National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) recognized volunteers from fourteen regions around the world as special guests during the Sliders' Night Out event hosted by the Reining Horse Foundation (RHF) on November 28. This new program is made possible by NRHA Heritage Partner Toyon Ranch, owned by John & Nancy Tague of Pilot Point, Texas.

The volunteers were selected for the special recognition which includes complimentary reserved seating at the fundraising banquet, a certificate, and free admission for the NRHA Futurity. Those who attended Sliders' Night Out also received a travel award.

The inaugural program resulted in the names of forty volunteers submitted for recognition and a person or couple was selected for each of eight U.S. and six international regions. The selection committee was impressed with the quality of volunteers. In 2018, every person who was submitted will receive a certificate acknowledging appreciation for their contributions. Among the group are NRHA Pros, Non Pros, judges, secretaries, and stewards.

“Reining at the grassroots is made possible through members who volunteer at our NRHA affiliates,” said Gary Carpenter, NRHA Commissioner. “The volunteers who joined us at Sliders' Night Out and the NRHA Futurity are representative of our diverse NRHA members. We expect they will enjoy this experience and then turn around and go back to their affiliates and get to work, carrying with them many positives happening through the Reining Horse Foundation and NRHA.”

Toyon Ranch has a commitment to present Sliders' Night Out and the Affiliate Ambassador program for three years. The event is a fundraiser for the 501(c)3 nonprofit Rein-

Due to a federal law enacted on February 1, 2018, all USEF Adult Members who are 18 years or older and have an FEI Adult Competing Membership are required to take the Safe Sport Training course or they will not be eligible for competition. This includes amateurs, professionals, and owners who have an annual, three-year, or lifetime membership. USEF Fan Members are not required to comply.

The FEI Safe Sport training must be completed within 30 days of joining or renewing membership. US Equestrian is providing a 30-day grace period to members who join(ed) or renew(ed) on or after December 1, 2018 to complete the training. All other members had until January 1, 2019. Those who do not take the training will be ineligible to participate in any USEF activities, including competitions.

The 90-minute-long Safe Sport Core Training course, comprised of three training modules: Sexual Misconduct Awareness Education, Mandatory Reporting, and Emotional and Physical Misconduct, must only be completed one time.

Safe Sport Training courses taken prior to January 1, 2018 must be retaken with the updated version. For continued compliance, members will take a 30-minute Safe Sport Refresher course annually thereafter.

To complete the training, members must log in to their accounts on USEF.org and find the Safe Sport Core Training icon on their member dashboard. The USEF member number will be required for this process. After the course is taken, members will get a printable certificate to keep for verification purposes.

The Safe Sport Policy and the rules that govern it have been created to protect all athletes from misconduct within the sport. This new rule is consistent with FEI's efforts to ensure the safety and welfare of equestrian participants, especially minors. Educating and training everyone is crucial to protecting athletes and eradicating abuse in our sport.

NRBC RECEIVES FIRST FOAL ENROLLMENT OF 2019!

The turning of the year is always a busy time for the staff of the National Reining Breeders Classic as they wrap up the final deadline of one year's weanlings and prepare for the start of a new year, a new show, and new foals. The 2019 foal enrollments officially began January 14 with the arrival of the first foal enrollment of the year sent in by Peter and Missy Benker.

The APHA sorrel and white filly by Platinum Vintage was born on January 3 at the Benkers' Secret Hills Ranch in Alpine, Canada. "Her dam is my absolute favorite mare, SHR Twist N Shout aka Gidget. This was Gidget's 5th foal; however it was the first foal that she carried herself. All the others have been embryo transfers. Gidget is being an amazing first time mom and sure loves her little filly!" Missy explained.

The Secret Hill's breeding program is focused on breeding Tobiano reining horses with modern bloodlines and this flashy filly is a great example of that program.

Missy says that she likes to be prompt with her paperwork in case a foal sells, and it is a policy that she takes seriously. The Benkers have submitted the first NRBC foal enrollments of the year for the past three or four years now!

The NRBC is a stallion incentive program. After a stallion is enrolled in the program, his foals may be enrolled also. Those foals, as 5 and 6-year-olds, can then be competed on at the prestigious week-long event which has paid out over $20 million in its 22 years of existence. For more information visit NRBC.com.

SMARTPAK TEXAS HOLD'EM TOURNAMENT RETURNS TO NRBC

SmartPak will again sponsor the annual Texas Hold'em Tournament at the National Reining Breeders Classic in Katy, TX. The excitement begins at 7 pm on Sunday, April 4th upstairs in the Coliseum at the Great Southwest Equestrian Center.

Competition between reiners finds itself on a level playing field as Open riders, Non Pro's, rookies and owners bet their skills in this fun-filled poker game. Last year, for non-competing owner John McIlravey, beginner's luck beat the odds.

McIlray said, "I didn't really know what all-in was until I only had one chip left. Then I learned what all-in was, and it worked out. It was a lot of fun - a LOT of fun!" He finished as the 2018 SmartPak Texas Hold'em Tournament Champion.

If you want to test your beginner's luck or pit your advanced poker skills against the odds, go by the Sponsor/Media Office before noon on the day of the tournament to sign up. The entry fee is $60 and it is pure fun for all players! Even if you don't play, come watch the action and take advantage of the complementary cocktail hour. For more information about SmartPak and their innovative supplement program, go to SmartPak.com.
