JIMMY VAN DER HOEVEN AND GUARANTEED A MAGNUM WIN LEVEL 4 OPEN CHAMPIONSHIP AT NRHA DERBY PRESENTED BY MARKEL INSURANCE

The 2019 National Reining Horse Association Derby presented by Markel Insurance provided a week of thrills and excitement for exhibitors, owners, sponsors, and spectators, escalating to a crescendo on Open finals night, Saturday, June 22. The Jim the bar.

Draw 29, Guaranteed A Magnum, by Magnum Chic Dream out of Guaranteed By Amos, had lifetime earnings just under $200,000 prior to the finals. In fact, he and rider Jimmy van der Hoeven won the event in 2018, entering the arena as the reigning champions.

"Casey (Hinton) and I talked it over before we walked in. It goes through your mind that you need to stay calm. Casey told me to 'Ride what your horse can do. That's what they do, and don't try to do more than that,'" Van der Hoeven shared. "Those were the words I heard when I walked in, but it's hard when people are screaming and you know what the horses before you did. Staying calm in that is not easy."

Still, Van der Hoeven and Guaranteed A Magnum stayed the course through seemingly never-ending stops, impeccable spins, and flashy circles. The cheers of the already loud crowd reached deafening levels when the score – a 231.5 – was announced.

Along with a check for $57,000, Van der Hoeven was presented with a year's use of a gooseneck trailer from CINCH trailers, a Montana Silversmiths buckle, a Bob's Custom Saddle, a pair of Anderson Bean boots, as well as product from Classic Equine, Platinum Performance, Bluebonnet Feed, and CINCH. He also received gift certificates to SmartPak and Shorty's Caboy Hattery. Guaranteed A Magnum's nominator Heather Hochstatter will receive a check for $3,000.

Van der Hoeven began riding Guaranteed A Magnum, now owned by Chad and Molly Cherry, at the end of the horse's four-year-old year in 2017. The next year, they finished fourth at the National Reining Breeders Classic before winning the Derby for the first time. They went on to win the Junior Reining Championship at the American Quarter

Horse Association World Championship Show.

They returned to the NRBC in 2019 to place third prior to heading to the Derby. "He's really special. What he has done in the past year is pretty special. He keeps getting better, too. This is the highest he's ever marked, and it's the highest I've ever marked," Van der Hoeven shared. "I know when I go in there he's not going to let me down. I never have to worry about him."

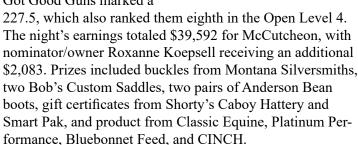

Van der Hoeven trains out of Casey and Kathy Hinton's barn in Whitesboro, Texas. "I thank the whole team. Casey and Kathy are real special to me. Casey is a great coach and trainer. I also thank all the people who work at home, and my brother, Roy van der Hoeven," he said.

Craig Schmersal piloted No Smoking Required to a 231 to win the Level 4 Open Reserve Championship, worth $40,544. No Smoking Required, by Gunner out of Icing Required, is owned by the Wranglen Partnership. Nominator Carluccio Orsi will receive $2,133.

Cade McCutcheon and Shes Got Good Guns Win Open Levels 3 and 2 Championship

It was Cade McCutcheon's first time to show in the NRHA Open Derby, and the young trainer made the most of it, qualifying all three of his entries back to the Open Level 4 finals. He finished as the Open Level 3 and Level 2 Champion on Shes Got Good Guns, by Gunner out of A Bueno Poco Dunit.

McCutcheon and Shes Got Good Guns marked a

"She was awesome. She's very honest in the show pen and I know I can trust her. She was there for me every step of the way," McCutcheon said. "She's a really good mare, and I'm just lucky to have her."

With the high temperatures and humidity, McCutcheon had a game plan. "I did as much of nothing as I could. She was tired anyways, so I didn't do anything hard between the go-round and the finals," he said.

If his horse felt slightly fatigued, McCutcheon did, too, as his first two entries were relatively close together. "I was pretty tired after my second one, but my mom brought me a snack," he said with a laugh. "Actually, it's easy to get hyped up and not tired when you get to ride one like this."

McCutcheon, who began riding as a professional in January, added, "I thank my parents and my grandparents and everyone at the barn. Joe Schmidt, Fernando Salgado – there are just a lot of people to thank. I also thank Roxanne Koepsell, who has been awesome. She's always been there for me."

Perhaps one of Cade's most exciting accomplishments of the night was being one half of the first father-son duo to qualify for the Level 4 finals at the same time. Cade's father Tom also qualified for the Level 4 finals on Dun With Guns.

Finishing second in the Open Level 3 was Trevor Dare and Xtra Dun Step, by Wimpys Little Step out of All Thats Dun. The pair marked a 225, also finishing 13th in the Level 4. The win netted owner Silver Spurs Equine a check for $20,269, and nominator Ixtul Quarter Horses received $1,066.

Reserve in the Open Level 2 went to Lorinaldo Gomes and Snip O One, who finished the finals with a 224.5. That score was also good for third in the Level 3, and fifteenth in the Level 4. All totaled, Snip O One, owned by Sarah Nimigan, won $20,863. Snip O One, by A Sparkling Vintage out of Snip O Gun, was nominated by Harper Conner, who will receive $1,098.

Josh Tishman Wins Open Level 1 Championship on Baileys Sidekick

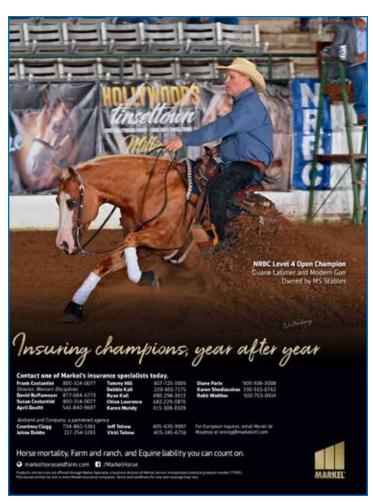

With a 222.5, Josh Tishman and Baileys Sidekick won the Open Level 1 Championship, besting their preliminary round score by a point. While that feat was impressive – they also qualified for the finals of the Open Levels 2 and 3 – the story gets better. Baileys Sidekick pulled double duty at the NRHA Derby. "He was shown by both his owner, Kathy Thompson, and myself. Kathy qualified for the Non Pro Level 4 finals last night, and he and I were only a half-point from making the Open Level 4 finals," Tishman shared. "He's given everything he has. He has a huge heart and is pure as pure can be in the show pen for both of us every time."

Tishman and Baileys Sidekick collected a check totaling $12,237, while nominator Turnabout Farm Inc., received $644. The night before, Baileys Sidekick by Gunners Special Nite out of A Shining Sidekick won more than $3,650 with Thompson. Prizes for the Open Level 1 title included a Bob's Custom Saddle, a buckle from Montana Silversmiths, a pair of Anderson Bean boots, gift certificates to Shortys Caboy Hattery and Smart Pak, as well as product from Classic Equine, Platinum Performance, Bluebonnet Feed, and CINCH.

"Honestly, we just didn't try to override him and kept him happy. He has an amazing brain and that's what did it," said Tishman, who rides for Deary Performance Horses. "He ran in and stopped huge, and he was pure as could be. He ran his heart out."

Tishman said the next stop for Baileys Sidekick is likely the Tulsa Reining Classic and the AQHA World Show. "I have so many people to thank. I thank his owners, Casey, Nicole and the whole Deary team," he said.

Todd Wright and SJR Karinas Lil Step finished as the Open Level 1 Reserve Champions, winning $4,845 with a score of 220.5. Owned by Teresa McCarthy, SJR Karinas Lil Step is by Wimpys Little Step out of Whizs Katrina. Nominator San Juan Ranch will receive $255.

Dean Brown and Gunnatrashtheplace Win Open Prime Title

The Open Prime Time Championship was decided in the preliminary round, and Dean Brown and Gunnatrashtheplace topped the division with a 223, earning $2,271. "He was really good to me. He ran in there and gave me his all. We had a couple little bobbles that kept us out of the Level 4 finals, but we made the Level 3," Brown explained.

Brown and Gunnatrashtheplace, by Gunnatrashya out of All Chic N Shiny, are coming off a recent Prime Time win at the NRBC. "He's been a very good horse for me. I've made the finals at all the major events with him. I've had him since he was a 2-year-old. He's just a very nice horse," Brown said of the 6-year-old stallion who is owned by Jeff Levine of Levine Equine Enterprises of Valley Cottage, New York.

In the finals, Brown and Gunnatrashtheplace, whose lifetime earnings exceed $36,000, marked a 219 to finish sixteenth in the Level 3, worth an additional $2,278. "After this we'll have a couple of horse shows, and then start showing our three-year-olds. It's going to be a busy summer," Brown said. "I thank Robert Santagata. I also thank Jeff Levine, who has been a great owner."

Finishing second in the Open Prime Time was Martin Larcombe and Hey Joe with a 222.5, collecting $1,804. Hey Joe, by Smart Spook out of Best Stop, is owned by Rosanne Sternberg of Aubrey, Texas.

Mathieu Buton and Smart As Hail Win NRHA Derby Bob's Custom Saddles Novice Horse Open

A new division was added to the National Reining Horse Association Derby presented by Markel Insurance. The Bob's Custom Saddles Novice Horse Open Derby provides a great opportunity for horses who had a late start or have not found their stride in the show pen another place to compete and add to their records.

The Novice Horse Open title was decided during the Open Derby preliminaries. Mathieu Buton and Smart As Hail topped the division with a 222.5, won $6,419, and also made the finals of Open Levels 3-1. "It went pretty well today. I trusted my plan and she was really good and honest," Buton said of the mare, owned by Addie McNeel. "I was very proud of her."

Buton has ridden Smart As Hail since the mare, by Smart Spook out of Hailstorm Jaci, was a late two-year-old. "Addie sent her to me and I always loved this mare. She has always been special to me. She's very physical. I only showed her once or twice as a three-year-old and missed the NRHA Futurity because I didn't have her healthy enough to go there," Buton explained. "She's stronger now and I'm glad I got to show her here."

That's why the opportunity to show in the Bob's Custom Saddles Novice Horse was appreciated. "This division is wonderful. I am so happy for this mare's owner, and I think it's phenomenal for the industry. I'm very happy about the win," he said.

Next up for Smart As Hail? The finals, of course. "We will try to do our best in the finals, and then show in Las Vegas for the High Roller. I think she'll be competitive there," he said.

Both Lorinaldo Gomes and Tom McCutcheon rode their horses to scores of 222 to tie for second in the division and win $3,419. Gomes was riding Snip O One, owned by Sarah Nimigan, while McCutcheon was showing Dun With Guns, owned by Turnabout Farm Inc. Snip O One is by A Sparkling Vintage and out of Snip O Gun, and Dun With Guns is by Gunners Special Nite and out of Belle Starr Dun It.

JENNIFER NEUDORF AND SHINING IN TOWN WIN NON PRO CHAMPIONSHIP AT NRHA DERBY PRESENTED BY MARKEL INSURANCE

Winning a title at the National Reining Horse Association Derby presented by Markel Insurance isn't a small achievement. It's a moment most people only get to dream of, and on Friday night a 16-year-old girl rode into the arena of the Jim Norick Coliseum, capturing the crowd's attention from her very first stop.

Through flawless spins and expertly guided circles, build- I just trusted him more. I just said whoa and it felt so cool," ing to a crescendo with the final stop, it was clear the run was special. When Jennifer Neudorf's score – a 226.5 – was announced, the crowd voiced their approval.

Not only had she taken the lead in the Non Pro Level 4 finals, Neudorf and her horse, Shining In Town, were competing in every division they were eligible for, from the Level 4 down to the Level 1, and the Youth. Their score held through 12 more runs, making Neudorf and Shining In Town the newest, and one of the youngest, NRHA Non Pro Derby Champions!

All totaled, Neudorf won $42,637, almost double her current lifetime earnings. She also won a year's use of a gooseneck trailer courtesy of CINCH trailers, as well as saddles from Bob's Custom Saddles, custom Montana Silversmiths' buckles, Anderson Bean boots, product from Classic Equine, Platinum Performance, Bluebonnet Feeds, and gift cards to SmartPak and Shortys Caboy Hattery.

"I'm speechless. I'm over the moon excited. I still don't know what I'm feeling. I was super happy for sure, but I just don't know what to say," Neudorf said.

Waiting for the final results was difficult. "It was really hard waiting because there were a lot of good horses and riders who went after me. I went over to the Adequan Arena to watch a friend of mine show. We watched the live feed, but I tried to not think about it too much," she said.

Earlier in the year, Neudorf and Shining In Town, by Hollywoodstinseltown out of Shine Ann, won the Non Pro Level 1 at the National Reining Breeders Classic. "Well, at the NRBC we had a little trouble with our run in and stop, so here she explained. "I thought, 'Are we done sliding?' and then I realized we still were. We kind of struggle with our backup usually, so I was a little worried about that, but it was good."

While she thinks she ran to the stops a little fast, it still worked out. "I thank my trainer Craig Schmersal and his whole crew because they're so supportive, and I wouldn't be here without them. I also wouldn't be here without my mom and dad. They're big supporters. I also thank my friends, too, who make it so fun to come here."

Neudorf only began showing Shining In Town in January. "Craig tried him out, and I wasn't there because I was at home in Canada. I just trusted Craig that it would work out and it did," she said.

Shining In Town's nominator Sather Family Partnership will also receive a check for $2,176.

Tying with himself for second in the Non Pro Levels 4-2and Non Pro Youth was another young gun. Luca Fappani piloted both his horses to identical scores of 223, earning more than $24,490 for each. Fappani rode Sharp Dressed Spook, by Spooks Gotta Whiz out of Dolittle Lena, and Spooks N Jewels, by Smart Spook out of Whiz Jewels. Both horses are owned by Fappani's parents Andrea and Tish.

There was something McGee did know. "He did good, and it feels good to be here tonight. Usually we have something go wrong, but tonight we didn't. I finally got him ridden," he said.

Part of their success might be contributed to the man who was giving advice. "I have to thank Shawn Flarida who helped me. He can be really annoying with all his little details, but apparently if you listen to them, they work," McGee said with a laugh. "He's given me lots of advice, and he's fun to ride with."

Competing early in the second section of the Non Pro finals as draw 4 was David McGee and Knaughtybyknature, who marked a 221.5 to not only win the Non Pro Prime Time, but also finish fifth in the Non Pro Level 4. McGee's earnings totaled $9,801, with $384 going to nominator Clinton Anderson. In addition to the money, McGee was also presented a Montana Silversmith's buckle, a pair of Anderson Bean boots, product from CINCH, Classic Equine, Platinum Performance and Bluebonnet Feed, and gift certificates from Shorty's Caboy Hattery and SmartPak.

"I don't remember much. I ran though the gate, he stopped, he turned, he circled, and he stopped. I told the lady at the gate when we came out it was like Carrie Under-

McGee has owned Knaughtybyknature, by Magnum Chic Dream out of the blue hen mare Princess In Diamonds, since the six-year-old was a weanling. "We bought him because of his mom. We loved that mare's babies, and he's the last one we have," he explained.

Sean Pulley and Spook In Sparks finished second in the Prime Time Non Pro and the Non Pro Level 1 with a 217. They were also competing in the finals for the Levels 4-2, so their earnings totaled $10,709. Spook In Sparks, by Smart Spook out of Setting Off Sparks, was nominated by Rosanne Sternberg who will receive $460.

Michael Garnett Pilots Hollywood Nites to Non Pro Masters Championship

With a score of 217.5, Michael Garnett and Hollywood Nites claimed the Non Pro Masters championship, placed in the top 10 of the Non Pro Level 3, and finished 13th in the Non Pro Level 4. The night's work paid $7,590, with $292 going to nominator Cardinal Hill Training Center. Garnett also collected a Montana Silversmiths' buckle, a pair of Anderson Bean boots, product from CINCH, Classic Equine, Platinum Performance, and Bluebonnet Feed, as well as gift certificates for Shortys Caboy Hattery and SmartPak.

"I thought it was, up until the rollback, the best run we've had. We just missed the stop a little bit," Garnett said. "I think I might have been running out of horse a bit because it was so hot and humid, but other than that he finished up big. He's a very steady horse."

That is a quality Garnett says Hollywood Nites possess in spades. "Probably the word that describes him best is consistent. Before this we won almost $80,000 with him. He's been a really good horse," Garnett shared.

Garnett purchased Hollywood Nites, by Gunners Special Nite out of Dun It For Chex, as a three-year-old from Cardinal Hill Training Center. "Franco Bertolani had him, and then Pedro Baiao who works for Martin Muehlstaetter showed him at the (NRHA) Futurity and won the Level 1 and Level 2 on him. I started showing him in the aged events after that," Garnett explained.

He added, "First I thank the sponsors of this horse show. If it weren't for those sponsors we may not be able to have it. Also, I thank my wife for all her support, and Martin Muehlstaetter who we train with. His whole crew is fantastic."

The 2019 National Reining Horse Association Derby presented by Markel Insurance is in full swing. Open and Non Pro derbies, and the winners are determined by their preliminary round score.

Lindsey McCutcheon claimed the Non Pro Novice Horse title on Spooky Vortex with a 217, pocketing a cool $3,945 and qualifying for the finals of the Level 4 and Level 3. She also finished in a tie for seventh on her other horse Electalena (by Electric Code), worth an additional $943. "I'm so excited. As someone who always seems to show in the novice horse ancillary classes, I love having the novice horse divisions available. To have it as part of the Derby is awesome," McCutcheon said.

Although she hasn't shown the 5-year-old Spooks Gotta Whiz gelding, out of Smart Sugar Pop, much, McCutcheon is very familiar with the horse. "He was owned by Harry and Susan Jones, who were long-term clients of my parents, and we had him through all of his training and my dad showed him. We ended up with him and are so grateful to have him," she explained. "My dad showed him and I took over this spring. I only showed him at one little derby. My dad got hurt so we missed the NRBC. I've just been riding him myself."

As for the game plan for Friday's finals, McCutcheon plans to stay the course. "I don't want to change much, so I'll just keep him the same. I just want to be ready when it's time to walk in," she said with a smile. "I thank Harry and Susan Jones for giving us the opportunity to have this horse. I also thank my parents. They're the most supportive parents and have given me so many opportunities to show horses. These are two of the nicest horses I've ever had to show."

Finishing Reserve in the Bob's Custom Saddles Novice Horse Non Pro was Sean Pulley and his horse Spook In Sparks with a 216.5. Spook In Sparks is by Smart Spook and out of Setting Off Sparks. Along with collecting a check for $2,401, Pulley and Spook In Sparks also qualified for the finals of Non Pro Levels 4-1.

McCutcheon and Pulley will be recognized at the conclusion of the Open preliminaries along with the Bob's Custom Saddle Novice Horse Open Champion and Reserve Champion.

NRHA DERBY ANCILLARY CHAMPIONS ARE NAMED

Shelby Clausen Wins Non Pro [1] and Int. Non Pro [1] on Smart Tinseltown

The big winner of the day was Shelby Clausen, who claimed the $2,000 added Non Pro [1] and the $1,000 added Int. Non Pro [1] on Smart Tinseltown. The duo topped the two classes with a score of 146.5.

Smart Tinseltown is a 9-year-old by Smart Spook out of Tinseltown Lil Step. "I showed him all of 2017, and then we sold him at the end of the year," Clausen explained. "We got him back in December of 2018. We love him and are super excited to have him back."

Shelby's sister Anna has been showing the gelding, but because Anna is showing a horse in the Derby, Shelby got to take the reins. "Today was good. He's been with my sister a lot, so it's a little different. He's more used to her, so it could have been better in a few areas, but he stopped and turned great for me. I couldn't ask for much more," the 17-year-old explained.

Next is the 7 & Up class on Wednesday. "I'll also show him in the second slate of Non Pro classes. I feel like I should go school a little bit. I'm still confident, but I'm glad I showed him today to know what to work on and how to prepare for Wednesday," she said.

Clausen added, "Thank you to my trainer Patrick Flaherty for all the work he does, and to my parents for allowing me to do this."

McKinnon Larcombe and Designed With Shine Win Limited Non Pro [1]

McKinnon Larcombe and Designed With Shine have only been together for a few months, but the pair has already racked up numerous wins. The duo won the Ltd. Non Pro [1]) and tied for third of both the Non Pro [1] and Int. Non Pro [1] with a score of 145.

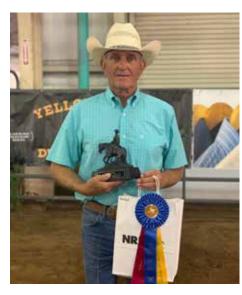

"She was really good. I was really happy with her. I haven't had her that long and have just gone to a couple of shows," McKinnon explained. "We probably had a few rider errors on my part, but she stopped, turned, and circled really well."

Designed With Shine, nicknamed Daisy, is owned by McKinnon's aunt Shauna Larcombe. "My aunt trained and showed her, and recently purchased her from Rosanne Sternberg. I'm lucky to have the opportunity to show her" she said of the mare, by Smart And Shiney out of Taris Designer Genes.

Larcombe has her eyes set on the 7 & Up class. "I'll show today, and then show again on Wednesday," she said.

Ron Thompson and Taris Dreamer Win Non Pro Prime Time [1]

Ron Thompson and Taris Dreamer took the win in the Non Pro Prime Time [1], and tied for third in the Non Pro [1] and Int. Non Pro [1] with a score of 145. Thompson and Taris Dreamer have amassed numerous wins together, including the NRHA Derby Non Pro Co-Championship and the NRBC Non Pro Championship. "He's won quite a little," Thompson noted.

Thompson was using the day's classes as a schooling event for the 7 & Up. "He was pretty good, and kind of did everything I asked," he said.

McKinnon Larcombe had actually leased Taris Dreamer a year ago. "She did a lot of schooling shows on him. He had some issued before she got him, but he's better than he was. It was a good deal for us and a good deal for McKinnon," Thompson said.

Thompson purchased Taris Dreamer, by Magnum Chic Dream out of Taris San Cutter, as a yearling. "I just always liked him," he said.

Ellexxah Maxwell Wins IEA Leading Western Rider at NRHA Derby

The most prestigious of awards for the Interscholastic Equestrian Association National Western Finals is the IEA Leading Western Rider. For the third time in four years, Ohio's Ellexxah Maxwell, took home the title.

The show pen dynamo is the American Quarter Horse Association's all-time leading youth point earner, and just last week, her horse Zips Bossy Chip, became the AQHA's all-time leading point earner in all divisions.

During Saturday's classes, Maxwell claimed the title of both the Varsity Open Reining and the Varsity Open Horsemanship. "I won the reining on Magnums Lil Jewel, owned by Jim Dudley Quarter Horses. It was exactly what I wanted this morning. I was a little nervous because reining is not my normal class," Maxwell explained.

The 18-year-old equestrian became involved in reining because a speaker, Katie Moorhead, came to one of the meetings. "I started out on her team, but unfortunately she was just too far away from me," she said. "I started on Ollie and Debbie Griffith's team, Autumn Rose Farm. I love reining and thanks to them I have been able to get in it."

Maxwell now owns a reining horse and has shown him at AQHA events. "I would love to do more reining in the future. It's a fun event and I don't think people realize how versatile reiners are," she said.

IEA Team Champions Crowned at NRHA Derby

The National Reining Horse Association proudly hosts and sponsors the Interscholastic Equestrian Association Western National Finals on June 15 and 16 during the NRHA Derby presented by Markel Insurance in Oklahoma City.

On Sunday, riders in grades six through 12 competed for Team National Championships in Western Horsemanship and Reining.

Winning the NRHA Rider Sportsmanship award was 14-year-old Jenna Woody, who rides with Flamekissed

Equestrian. She has competed in IEA for three years. "There's just a bunch of people you get to meet and make a bunch of new friends. I just enjoy being with people. I'm an extrovert, and I just love rooting on my friends," she said. "IEA is awesome. It really has helped me."

Autumn Rose Farm won both Middle School & High School

overall team. This is their third year in a row to win. Coach Debbie Griffith noted, "IEA makes them amazing riders. We've been really successful, and the kids work so hard. They put in a lot of time and a lot of hours in the barn."

Franco Bertolani & Inferno Sixty Six Win Open [1]

Inferno Sixth Six, by Gunnatrashya out of Snip O Gun, has been catching eyes and turning heads since his three-year-old year, when, with trainer Franco Bertolani, he claimed the NRHA Futurity Reserve Championship after a run-off. Now seven years old, Inferno Sixty Six, owned by Slide or Die LLC, is back in the show pen. He and Bertolani claimed the Open [1] win at the NRHA Derby, collecting a cool $2,194.

"I have trained him all his life, and he is such a nice horse. second, worth an additional $1,580. The last time I showed him was last August in Tulsa. I just started riding him again to prepare for the Run for a Million in Las Vegas," Bertolani explained.

The duo marked a 150.5. "He was good. We just went half-speed. I didn't need to push harder. I just wanted to see what we needed to work on," Bertolani, an NRHA Million Dollar Rider, noted.

Bertolani and Gunner Dun It Again (Gunner x Dun Its Deja Vu), owned by Paulo Tripoloni, marked a 149.5 to win second, worth an additional $1,580.

Int. Open [1] Co-Champion Tyson Randle & Suisse Code

Tyson Randle hasn't been riding Suisse Code for very long, but the pair managed to tie for the win of the Int. Open [1]. "He got sent to me about a month ago, right after the NRBC for a little change of scenery and to be eligible for a few different categories. I showed him one other time in Arizona, so this is his second outing," Randle said.

The pair marked a 145, worth $490. "He came together nicely today. He's a real physical horse that can do all the maneuvers well. We got through the turns, which we had a little trouble with in Arizona. He circled really well, and he's a big stopper with a lot of look," Randle said.

Suisse Code, by Electric Code and out of Shiney Sushi, is owned by Fritz Leeman.

Int. Open [1] Co-Champion Nick Valentine & Double Loaded Gun

Nick Valentine and Double Loaded Gun also tied for the Int. Open [1] win. Double Loaded Gun, by Gunner and out of KR Anniegityergun, has been pulling double-duty as a breeding stallion and show horse. "He's been collected three days a week and still in training. To do that and get ready for a horse show is pretty special," Valentine noted.

Valentine added that Double Loaded Gun will show again on Monday. "He was really good today and was right with me the whole time. He was really quiet and relaxed, stopped well, and did everything I asked him to," Valentine said.

Double Loaded Gun, an eight-year-old owned by Doug he said. "We need to mak Forzani, was shown as a young horse by Jordan Larson, and Tulsa and maybe Vegas."

then did a spell as a non pro horse. "I've had him for about a year. He's a really talented and good-minded athlete," he said. "We need to make a plan for him. We might go to Tulsa and maybe Vegas."

She's won quite a bit."

The long term goal for Coronarita Time, owned by Hilldale Farm, is "to win as much as I can then keep her as a broodmare. We'll show her again on Thursday in the Novice Horse."

"My horse is very consistent. We had the same score as yesterday, but he felt a little better today," Valentine said. "He was a little tired yesterday, so I didn't ride him last night and just let him chill and get more sleep. He had an easy warm up just to let him stretch his legs. He knows his job."

Double Loaded Gun, owned by Doug Forzani, has been working as both a show horse and a breeding stallion. His oldest foals are now weanlings. "This horse is really talented physically, and is bred really, really well. His mind is very special," Valentine explained.

Valentine and Double Loaded Gun, by Colonels Smoking Gun and out of KR Anniegityergun, will likely go to Tulsa for their next event. "I thank his owners for trusting me with him, and my wife and family and everyone that helps me. You can't get here by yourself, that's for sure," he said.

"It was very exciting for me. He was very honest both days I showed him, so I'm really happy,"

Chartier said.

The young trainer, who works for Matt Armenta in Whitesboro, Texas, had a feeling Jacd Up Dually would do well. "He felt really great warming up, and I knew he would be good from the time I rode him into the pen. I worked on the turn arounds a little bit before we showed and got some help from Matt, but this horse was good yesterday, so there wasn't much prep for today," she explained.

She's one of those mares that, if she trusts you, she will do anything for you," Leclair said of the mare, by Custom Legend out of She Slides Wright. "Today she was really good. She ran, stopped, and turned big, and circled really well. I showed her in the Open the other day, and she placed fifth and won another thousand. Today we had a nice run, but we just didn't go as fast."

Ader

Earlier in the year, at the National Reining Breeders Classic, Leclair and Lime A Rita won the Novice Horse Open Level 2 High Point Championship. "We marked a 76 twice down there," he recalled. "We'll show this mare one more time here in the Novice on Thursday, and that will be it for this one."

she will do very well because she's building confidence and is very nice in the show pen," Fontana said. "She was really good today and with me all the time. I didn't push 100 percent, but she was ready for what I asked."

Plum In Tinseltown, a four-year-old mare by Gunners Tinseltown out of Sugarplum Chic, is owned by Rabboni Reining Horses. "She's a little green about the horse shows but is a very good mare. I'll show her again in the Novice on Thursday. I thank Rabboni Reining Horses for letting me show her."

That finish was all that was needed to claim the Level 2 High Point Championship and the beautiful Montana Silversmith's buckle.

"It's so pretty. It's beautiful. I love it," Rapp exclaimed. "My horse did great today. He turned really, really sharp and got stopped huge and he circled up really nice, so I was really happy with him."

Rapp noted that Loaded And Dancin, by Hes A Loaded Gun and out of One Dancin Diamond, was done showing for the week. "He gets a spa day tomorrow because I said if he was good, he would get a spa day," she explained with a laugh.

Flarida, the NRHA's winningest rider, gave Augustin some good advice. "He told me to stay confident and trust the horse and has given me a lot of coaching on the training part," he explained.

Augustin noted that Chics Dig My Shine has shown a lot of improvement. "He was good and stayed consistent. He's getting a lot better, and I like how he progressed through the horse show," the 21-year-old said.

Chics Dig My Shine is owned by Landon's father, Greg. "I thank Shawn, my dad, my niece Allie for all the help this week, and Rob for doing such a good job starting this horse," he said.

Novice Horse Non Pro Level 2 [2] Co-Champion Janet Bache & Cee My Smokin Pistol

Janet Bache and Cee My Smokin Pistol had some tough luck in the Derby, but a schooling run in the Novice Horse Non Pro Level 2 [2] ended with a score of 144. That score was enough to tie for the class win and came with a check for $910.

Bache, of Arizona, purchased Cee My Smokin Pistol from Tim McQuay three years ago. The six-year-old gelding, by Gunner and out of Cee Dun It Do It, has been a really nice horse. "He did really well today. I missed the marker and would have been higher, but other than that he was perfect," Bache explained. "We didn't do well in the Derby, but I showed yesterday in the Prime Time Non Pro and he did well there, too."

Bache, of Scottsdale, Arizona, is finished showing for the week. She added, "I thank my husband, Randy. He makes all this possible. I thank Dan and Wendy Huss. They're wonderful and I've learned so much from them. Thank you also to everyone here with the NRHA. I have had a great time. It's very fun."

Verser, of Arkansas, has been showing reining horses for about nine years, and rides with Randy Schaffhauser. "I thank my trainer, Randy, for all his help," the 20-year-old said.

Novice Horse Non Pro Level 1 [2] Champion Maryjane Scruggs & Magnimous

Meyers purchased Lime A Rita, by Custom Legend out of She Slides Wright in 2018 from Arno Honstetter. "Susan and I have both shown her and done really well on her. We have gotten some embryos from her by my stud (Electric Code) and Gunnatrashya," Leclair explained. "She's been a really good mare for us to show. Susan will keep showing her."

Randy Schaffhauser showed Magnum Sparkle to a score of 147 to finish second in the Novice Horse Open Level 2 [2], worth $425. Magnum Sparkle, by Magnum Chic Dream out of Smart Little Suzana, is owned by Penny Brinkley.

Leclair topped the Novice Horse
Open Level 2 [2] and took home that class's high point buckle on another of Meyer's horses. This time he bested the class on Codes Whizard Merlin with a 146.5. It was only the four-year-old's fifth time in the show pen. "Susan raised him and he's by my stallion Electric Code. He wasn't ready to be shown at that higher level, so my help showed him where he was comfortable until he was ready for me," Leclair explained. "I'm glad we waited until now to push him."

Codes Whizard Merlin, who won $605 in the class, is special to Meyers.

"He's the first baby I have raised. His mom, KR Freckledface Whiz, is a sweet, sweet mare. He takes after his momma. They look a lot alike," she said. "Every year we've taken an embryo from her, so hopefully you'll see us again with more of her babies."

Leclair plans to continue seasoning Codes Whizard Merlin and hopes to show the colt in the derbies in 2020.

Meyers added, "Jared is the most awesome trainer in the world. If I ever stop riding with Jared, it's because I'm not riding anymore."

146. FM Cottonwood, owned by Khris and Carlton Crowe, is by Gunner and out of Sonita Lena Chick.

Green Reiner Level 2 [1] Champion Marie Marsh & Chromed Olena

Marie Marsh hasn't gotten to know her horse Chromed Olena too well. She only purchased the gelding in February of this year, but that didn't stop her from riding him to a score of 141 to win the Green Reiner Level 2 [1]. "His circles were really good. We went a little slower, but his spins were great – he's a great spinner! We also had some really good stops," Marsh noted.

Marsh rides with Josiane Gauthier and had caught sight of Chromed Olena. "He's been in Josiane's barn a couple years. He caught my eye because the girl that owned him had gone off to college, and I knew I wanted to buy him," Marsh explained of the gelding by Chromed Out Mercedes out of FS Smart Dot Chic.

Hailing from North Carolina, this is the first year that Marsh has come to the NRHA Derby. She plans to show again on Sunday. "Between now and then we will just ride and practice," she said. "Thank you to Josiane and my husband Michael."

Green Reiner Level 1 [1] Co-Champion Jada Mark & Wimpy Gata Shiner

Jada Mark tied for the reining." win of the Green Reiner Level 1 [1] on her horse Wimpy Gata Shiner. "We bought her around August of last year for me to have a Derby horse. I tried her and we matched up just awesome. I love her," the 16-year-old explained. "I'm trying to get a collegiate scholarship for

The pair marked a 140 in the Adequan arena, which also earned them reserve in the Green Reiner Level 2 [1]. "Today we were just trying to stay calm and be smooth and clean. She stayed with me, and I just trusted her," Mark said of the mare, by Wimpys Little Step out of Shinin In Hollywood.

Mark has only been riding reiners a few years, and rides with Steven Marbry and Jeromy Lipps. She added, "I thank my mom, Wendy Nichols, because she buys me everything and is my number one fan."

Green Reiner Level 1 [1] Co-Champion - Allison Thorson & Smart Cowboy Whiz

Riding Smart Cowboy Whiz, Allison Thorson claimed the Green Reiner Level 1 [1] co-championship. She's only owned the flashy reiner, by Who Whiz It out of Little Smart Jac, for a month. "We've been practicing hard. I saw him before, but when it's your first time to show a horse you don't know what to expect," Thorson said. "It was awesome to pull through everything. He's a horse that helps me go step-by-step instead of getting overwhelmed."

While she's relatively new to reining, Thorson is an accomplished horsewoman. "I grew up showing Tennessee Walking Horses and competed all the time, but, you know, when you're in a different discipline there is a lot to learn," she explained.

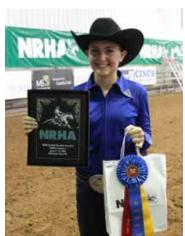

Thorson rides with Craig Schmersal. "I thank the Schmer-sal team. Everyone is great, and I am appreciative of how first-class they run everything. I also thank my parents, Duke and Rhonda Thorson. They are very supportive every step of the way, and I couldn't do it without them."

Thorson plans to show both of her horses again in Sunday's Green and Rookie classes.

Rookie Level 2 [1] Champion – Anna Clausen & Smart Tinseltown

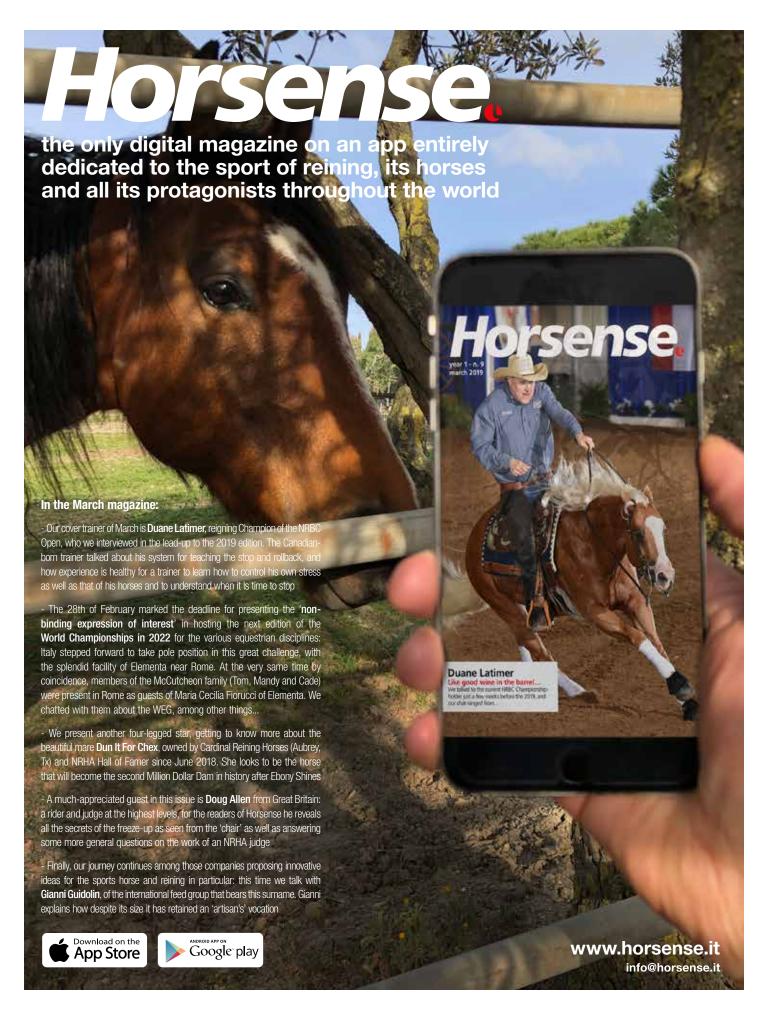

With an incredible 145, Anna Clausen and Smart Tinseltown topped the Rookie Level 2 [1] class. It's not the first class that the gelding, by Smart Spook out of Tinseltown Lil Step, has won this week. With Anna's sister, Shelby, he also won high point buckles in the Non Pro divisions.

"Me and my sister have been trading off riding him a little bit. She showed him earlier this week, and then I wanted to try to qualify for the Run for A Million for the Rookie class they have out there, so I showed Chester (Smart Tinseltown) and my other horse here today," Clausen said.

As always, Smart Tinseltown did his best. "He's just amazing. He was good today. We had a little bobble slowing down to the right, but we moved through it," she said.

Clausen, of Scottsdale, Arizona, has been riding reining horses for about three years. "I thank my parents for giving me these amazing horses, and my trainer Patrick Flaherty for helping us out, as well as everyone who helped get me ready to show," she said.

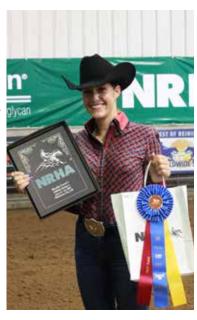

Rookie Level 1 [1] Champion Alexia Tordoff & Blue Collar Tag

It was only her second time to show Blue Collar Tag, but Alexia Tordoff piloted the veteran reiner to a 145, topping the Rookie Level 1 [1]. "He's so special. He's by far one of my favorite horses I've ever had, and he's my first reiner, which is cool," Tordoff explained. "This was a big leap for me. I'm used to doing the horsemanship which is really slow and precise. It's awesome that I can learn on such an amazing horse."

Blue Collar Tag, by Whiz N Tag Chex out of Kachina Oak Olena, is a former National Reining Breeders Classic Open Champion. "He fits our program so well, and is amazing with me. He knows when he gets in the pen what he needs to do," she said.

Tordoff, of Columbus, Ohio, rides with Kole Price. "I thank Kole and his wife Kelsey Huffman, and my parents for making this happen, and all my family and friends," she said. "I might show in the Youth 14-18 here. I'm 15, so I have a few youth years left, and I'll definitely show in the rookie again on Sunday."

Rookie Prime Time [1] Champion – Stephanie Johnson & Sugarwhizngun

Although an over-spin cost her a spot in the Derby finals, Stephanie Johnson was determined to make a smooth run in the Adequan Arena on her horse Sugarwhizngun. "My plan was to get all my spins right, which we did, and our stops and rollbacks were great. I can't think of anything he did bad. I was really happy with him," Johnson said of her run, which resulted in a 143.5.

Johnson, of North Carolina, has only owned Sugarwhizngun, by Gunner out of Starlights Sugar Whiz, since December. "We were made for each other," she said of the horse she calls Romeo. "We got him from Dan Huss. He had him here at the Futurity, and I was looking for a horse. I fell in love the minute I got on him."

Johnson rides with Josiane Gautier. "I thank Josiane. She's the best and is amazing. It was a great day for our team. I thank them all because everyone is so supportive," she said. "I thank Romeo most of all."

Green Reiner Level 1 & 2 [2] Co-Champion and Green Reiner Level 1 & 2 High Point Champion Allison Thorson & Smart Cowboy Whiz

Allison Thorson showed her horse Smart Cowboy Whiz for the first time on Friday, tying for the win of the Green Reiner Level 1 [1] and for second in the Level 2 [1]. They returned to the Adequan Arena on Sunday to tie for the win of both levels with a 142. "My first time showing him was Friday, so we obviously gained some confidence. This time I went in with a little more steam and power because I knew there wouldn't be anything super scary and that he'd help me through the pattern," Thorson shared.

Smart Cowboy Whiz, by Who Whiz It out of Little Smart Jac, gives his owner a lot of confidence in the pen. "I was super happy with him. He's a horse that will go for more if you ask. It's awesome to have a partner like that. Not only that, but he's really pretty to look at," she said.

Tying for the day's win, combined with her success on Friday, clinched the high point championships for both classes, and Thorson was presented with two Montana Silversmiths buckles. "Obviously winning the high point is another great thing. I feel very fortunate. It shows we had some consistency this week when we showed. I know there are some parts that I can clean up and fix, but we were consistent and that's what I'm most proud of," Thorson explained.

Thorson grew up showing all around events in the Tennessee Walking Horse industry. Her supportive parents helped her travel across the country showing in western, English, and showmanship classes. "Still, reining is a whole new challenge. It all comes down to if you're having a good day or not. Everyone works hard to be here," she said.

Thorson rides with Craig Schmersal. "I thank Craig and Ginger and the whole Schmersal team. It's first class and everyone is very supportive. They give us the right tools to succeed," Thorson noted.

Green Reiner Level 1 & 2 [2] Co-Champion – Bruce Koefoot & Smart Lil Velvet

It was a great day for the Schmersal clan, as another barn mate, Bruce Koefoot, tied with Thorson for the win of the Green Reiner Levels 1 & 2. Koefoot, of Nebraska, rode Smart Lil Velvet, a horse he's only been showing since last fall.

"Craig and Ginger found him for me. I hadn't shown in about five years, on a mare that's now one of my broodmares, so I told them I want to get back into showing. I trust them explicitly, and they found him for me," Koefoot said of the stallion, by Smart Like Juice out of Velvet Pistol. "He's a stud, but he doesn't know it. He's very forgiving, and as a novice rider he takes care of me. I don't have to worry about him doing something he shouldn't."

Smart Lil Velvet lives with the Schmersals in Arizona. "We have a townhouse down there that we go to as often as we can, and I ride him every day when I'm down there. I haven't ridden him since March when I won the Green Reiner at the Cactus Classic, but he did very well here," Koefoot said.

Koefoot has ridden with the Schmersals for more than 13 years and noted their program is first-class. "I have had several horses with him. What I like about Craig is he doesn't just train a futurity horse and that's it. He takes care of the horses so after the futurities you have a horse to ride. They take very good care of them," Koefoot said. "I thank Craig, Ginger, Wade McDonald and the whole crew. Everyone in the barn is super."

Rookie Level 2 High Point Champion - Paige Pastorino & Taylor Made Magnum

Paige Pastorino and her horse Taylor Made Magnum won the Rookie Level 2 High Point Championship. It was a busy week for the pair, who also showed in the Non Pro classes earlier in the week. "He's done great. We've been working on critiquing a few things in our run downs, and he got better as the week went on," she said.

Taylor Made Magnum, by Magnum Chic Dream out of Beaus Liberty Bell, is now 12-years-old. "I've had him a few years and he's my first reiner. He's mister consistent. It's so nice because he warms up exactly the way he is in the show pen. That's exactly what I need and want and he gives me everything, every time," Pastorino said.

Pastorino, who lives in California, rides with Dany and Fred Tremblay of Ardmore, Oklahoma. "We're actually heading home to California with the horses in a few minutes. We're going to Reining By the Bay, so we're going to take our horses with us and meet Fred and Dany out there," she said. "I thank my mom, Dany, and Fred. They're awesome and every day they push me. I wouldn't be here without them."

Rookie Level 1 & 2 [2] Champion and Rookie Level 1 High Point Champion – Alexia Tordoff & Blue Collar Tag

Alexia Tordoff and Blue Collar Tag cleaned house at the Adequan Arena, winning both levels of the Rookie and claiming the Level 1 high point buckle. "It's my first buckle from the NRHA, so I'm pretty excited," Tordoff said.

Tordoff and Blue Collar Tag, by Whiz N Tag Chex out of Kachina Oak Olena, scored a 146 in Sunday's competition. "He was really good today. He was better than Friday and scored a point higher. He was awesome," she said.

Tordoff's game plan for Blue Collar Tag was simple – rest. ily," she said. "I really didn't change it up at all. He got the day off yesterday, and so I showed him pretty fresh today. He got to be in the spa all day yesterday, so he was pretty pampered," she said.

Tordoff is planning to show next in Las Vegas. "I thank Kole and Kelsey Price, my parents, my sister, and all my friends and family," she said.

Prime Time Rookie [2] Champion and Prime Time Rookie High Point Champion Jamie Walters & Hot Rockin Spook

Jamie Walters won the Prime Time Rookie [2] on her horse Hot Rockin Spook with a 140, and in doing so claimed the Prime Time Rookie High Point title. "Today he was a good boy. My run was fast at the end, and I need to work on that, but it was a good run. I stayed on!" Walters said with a laugh.

Hot Rockin Spook, by Smart Spook out of Hot Rockin Badger, was shown as a futurity horse by Tish Fappani, collecting several wins. "I've owned him about three years now. He can be a little hot sometimes, but we had a practice session a couple days ago and everything came together," she shared.

Walters rides with Wade McDonald, an assistant trainer at Craig Schmersal's. "It's been a great week for Team Schmersal. Jennifer Neudorf won the Non Pro Derby, then Bruce and Allison tied for the Green today, Addisyn did so well in the Youth, and Craig won Reserve last night. I always say if you want to ride better, you ride with the best," she said.

Walters qualified for the Run for a Million Rookie while competing at the National Reining Breeders Classic. "I'm so excited. I have two months to work on that," she said. "I thank my family, and everyone who watched me on the live feed. Thank you to Wade, Craig and Ginger, my boyfriend Mark, my parents, and my sister," she said.

Para Reining Grade 4 – Melinda Davis & Royal Chexy Lady

Winning the Para Reining Grade 4 was Melinda Davis and Royal Chexy Lady. "We call her Reba, and she's owned by Camille Taylor and her daughter Emma. My other horse, who I was riding last year, got sore, so I borrowed her back to use this year. She rallied and came to it," Davis said of Royal Chexy Lady, by Nu Chex To Cash out of Shotoe Bobbi. "She's a good, good mare. She's just incredible."

Davis, of Arkansas, noted her pattern was pretty good. "I kind of overspun, but that happens. My rollbacks felt pretty good. I had a great team here helping me. I have to give a shout out to Mr. Sam Schaffhauser and his wife Jeanna, to everyone who helps me, and the Taylors for letting me borrow their horse," she said.

t of Shotoe I haven't done any practice runs or lessons. I'm thankful to USA Reining and the NRHA for including Para Reining here at the Derby. I just feel blessed they have this class."

Davis actually used to own Reba. "I quit showing and Tate Wynn topped the Para Reining Grade 6 on Coded 86. It's one of his first shows on the gelding, who is by Electric Code and out of Hollywoods Mae West. "I don't know how to describe him, but he's pretty special. I started riding him this year. When you get to know him and hang out with him in the barn, he is sweet. Every show he gets a little better," Wynn said.

this class makes it a lot easier to remember the pattern."

Wynn is originally from Guatemala, but came to live with his parents when he was just 13 months old. "We have horses and he grew up as a little tyke just riding with everyone. He was diagnosed with autism and has some cognitive disabilities, but for the most part he can get through a pattern," his mother, Theresa Wynn, explained. "We thought he might excel in the para since he qualified. I talked to his doctors, and they said sure! He really enjoys it."

Wynn, of Kentucky, noted that the day's pattern made the class easier. "It was really easy to remember. Not too hard, not too complicated, not too easy. It was just right!" he said. "I showed in Para Reining with my old horse. Showing in

Madison Steed Wins Collegiate Reining Championship

The Collegiate Reining Championships were held Friday between the two sections of Non Pro finals, and in the end, it was reigning champion Madison Steed, of Cochrane, Alberta, Canada who won the title. Steed was competing on Spook N Sparkle, a 10-year-old by Smart Spook out of Setting Off Sparks, generously donated for use in the competition

"This was really cool. Last year I was fortunate to ride a great horse and I was this year, too. It's a lot of fun to ride beneath the bright lights of Oklahoma City," Steed said.

Steed qualified to compete through NRHA and was part of the 2019 Southern Methodist University team that earned the reserve championship at Nationals. pen.

"This is a great opportunity to bridge the gap between NCEA and the NRHA, and an awesome opportunity to combeen such a joy to have at the NRHA Derby. It was incredpete in a facility where so much history has been made. It's awesome to showcase the best of collegiate reining," Steed said.

Recently graduated, Steed is looking to start her career. "I just received notice my Visa came through, so I'm going to be working for CR Ranchwear full time," she explained.

The Collegiate Reining Championships are challenging. Four representatives from the NRHA, the Intercollegiate Horse Show Association, and the National Collegiate Equestrian Association compete on horses they've never ridden before. They are able to watch the horses show an example of each maneuver in a 15-minute warm-up under their owner or trainer. The collegiate exhibitors only get to ride the horses for five minutes before entering the show

"The young athletes, their coaches, and their support have ible to watch them be so successful on a horse they were only on minutes prior to competing," noted NRHA Youth Programs Coordinator Sara Honegger.

Horses are donated to the competition by generous individuals in support of the youth programs. Donors to the Collegiate Championships include Rosanne Sternberg, Kristina Picciotti, Patrick Swartz, Sierra Palacios, Bud Lyon, Maron Neff/Michelle Chapman, Sally Berg, Jessicah Keller, Ryan Rushing and Spence Bell.

"We are so appreciative of everyone who donated their equine athletes for these young individuals to use. It's such a wonderful way to support the future of this sport, encourage these young people, and showcase their horse's willingness and talent," Honegger said.

YOUTH RIDERS REIGN IN ANCILLARY CLASSES AT NRHA DERBY PRESENTED BY MARKEL INSURANCE

It was all about the kids in the Adequan Arena on Saturday at the National Reining Horse Association Derby presented by Markel Insurance. More than 80 young riders competed in the first slate of youth ancillary classes, and most returned to the Oklahoma State Fairgrounds on Sunday to compete in the second slate of classes.

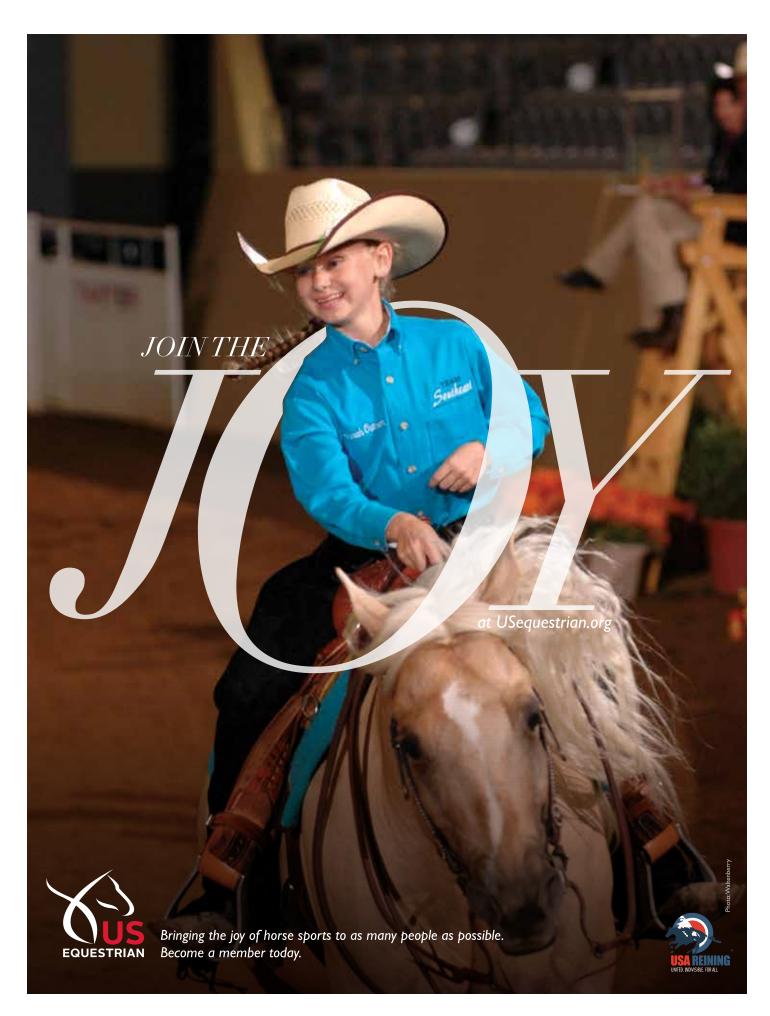

Unrestricted Youth [1] and Youth 14 – 18 [1] Champion Siena Krueger and Shining On Spook

With a score of 143.5, Siena Krueger won both the Unrestricted Youth [1] and the Youth 14-18 [1] on Shining On Spark. "He was my mom's derby horse last year. She got a new one and gave him to me because he had aged out, and I'm forever thankful for that," Krueger said of her horse, who's by Smart Spook out of Shining High Roller. "I love his looks and his personality. He's very talented, but he can be a jerk sometimes."

Krueger wasn't excited about her draw position but was determined to make the most of it. "We were draw one, but my horse loped off and he was great and did everything I asked him to do. It was one of our best runs I'd say," she said.

Krueger, who lives in Washington, rides with Kari Klingenberg. "We will show again tomorrow. I plan to memorize the pattern and not overthink anything. I thank my mother for letting me show her horse," she said.

Youth 13 & Under [1] Champion Addisyn Schmersal and CC Enterprise

Addison Schmersal topped the Youth 13 & Under class with a 144.5 on veteran show horse CC Enterprise. "Today he spun really well and stopped good. I missed the middle marker in my circles, but he was good," the 13-year-old said.

CC Enterprise, by Wrangle Whiz out of Rems Little Sugs, was a successful show horse with Addisyn's father, NRHA $4 million rider Craig Schmersal. "We had him when he was younger, and my dad showed him and won the SWRHA Futurity. He's always been my favorite. We sold him and got him back, and I'm so glad we did," Schmersal said.

The week's not over for Schmersal and CC Enterprise. They'll show in the youth classes again on Sunday. "I just plan to do the same thing I did today. I thank all my friends for helping me, and my parents for letting me show him here," she said.

USA Reining 14 – 18 [1] Champion Taylor Zimmerman and Shiners Smoking Gun

It's been a good week for Taylor Zimmerman. She made the Non Pro Level 4 and Level 3 Derby finals on her horse Gotta Get A Diamond. On Saturday she won the USA Reining 14-18, and finished second in the NRHA 14-18 and Unrestricted Youth classes on Shiners Smoking Gun. Shiners Smoking Gun, owned by Vaughn Zimmerman, is by Gunner out of Shiners Madam.

"He's my brother's horse, and this was my first time showing him," Zimmerman shared. "I took him in the pen, and he was a lot of fun. He was very good and honest. There's not much to worry about with him. He's not very hard to show."

Next up for Zimmerman? "I'll be going to Switzerland for Team USA with my horse Wimpys Dolled Up. After that we start futurity season," she explained.

USA Reining 13 & Under [1] Champion – Carlee McCutcheon and A Special Sidekick

Carlee McCutcheon and A Special Sidekick topped the USA Reining 13 & Under [1] and finished third in the 13 &

Under [1] with a 142.5. A Special Sidekick is by Gunners Special Nite out of A Shining Sidekick.

Short Stirrup [1] Champion Kynley Bell and Chics Want My Number

with an impressive score of 144, Kynley Bell and Chics Want My Number bested the field of 13 to win Saturday's Short Stirrup [1]. Bell, only nine years old, gave credit to her horse. "He did good. He spooked by the gate and that's it. I'm not sure why," she said.

With an impressive score of 144, Kynley Bell and Chics Want My Number bested the field of 13 to win Saturday's Short Stirrup Little Step out of Dixie Chic Olena, has quite the personality. "He's very silly. He's always funny and he always messes around if you don't lope him a bunch. I loped him a lot today," she said. "I like that he's silly and that he likes me."

Bell, of Purcell, Oklahoma, added, "I thank my mom and my dad and my sister. They've helped me along the way."

Bell and Chics Want My Number will show again in Sunday's short stirrup class.

Youth 13 & Under High Point Champion Addisyn Schmersal & CC Enterprise

A second place finish in the 13 & Under [2] clinched the 13 & Under High Point Championship for Addisyn Schmersal and CC Enterprise – a repeat performance for the duo. "I won it last year with the same horse. This time was a little easier because the last time was the first show with him. I'm more used to him now, and it was a lot of fun," Schmersal said.

Many of the exhibitors that ride with Addisyn's father Craig won classes and high point buckles this week, and Craig qualified three horses back to the Open Finals. "It's been a great week for Team Schmersal," 13-year-old Addisyn noted.

Next up for Schmersal and CC Enterprise, by Wrangle Whiz out of Rems Little Sugs, is a schooling show followed by the American Quarter Horse Association Youth World Show.

"I thank my parents, my dad's staff, and all my friends and family," Schmersal said.

Youth 14 – 18 & Unrestricted Youth High Point Champion Siena Krueger & Shining On Spook

Siena Krueger and Shining On Spook won the Youth 14 – 18 [1] and Unrestricted Youth [1] class on Saturday, but the two high point Montana Silversmith's buckle were still a surprise. "It's pretty unexpected. This is probably the biggest achievement I've had with my horse in a couple of years," Krueger shared. She and Shining On Spook, by Smart Spook out of Shining High Roller, finished fourth in both classes today with a 142.5.

"Today he was really good in the turns and circles. I lost my stirrups, but overall it was pretty good," Krueger, who turns 15 years old on Tuesday, noted.

Shining On Spook was shown by Krueger's mother, but the young rider took over the reins when the horse aged out of the Derby events.

Krueger rides with Kari Klingenberg in Arizona. "I thank Kari for always working to get us to be the best we can, and my mom for giving me this horse to ride," Krueger said.

Youth 13 & Under [2] Champion Ava Bush & Shes A Shining Gun

Ava Bush piloted her horse Shes A Shining Gun to a score of 142.5 to win the Youth 13 & Under [2]. It was the first show back for Bush, who's taken most of the season off to let a fractured ankle heal. "I've had him about two years.

We started off with our spins which were pretty good. We stumbled a little in our left spin, but made up with it to our right. Our circles were good, too," she shared.

Bush lives in Spokane, Washington, but she also rides with Arizona's Kari Klingenberg. "We try to fly down once a month for the week," she said. "I thank my parents and Kari Klingenberg for helping me. I wouldn't be able to do it without them. I also thank everyone who helps out at the barn."

Youth 14 – 18 [2] & Unrestricted Youth [2] Champion Lydia Bell & Chics Want My Number

Chics Want My Number won the Youth Short Stirrup [1] on Saturday with Kynley Bell, and on Sunday won the Youth 14 - 18 [2] and Unrestricted Youth [2] with older sister Lydia. "It was awesome. Just a clean, smooth, and solid run. I love this horse. He's the same every time," Bell said. "We bought him a few years ago from a good friend of ours who showed him as a three-year-old and derby horse."

Bell noted that "Leroy," who's by Wimpys Little Step out of Dixie Chic Olena, has quite the personality. "He's definitely goofy. He fools around and flips his head. If I don't warm him up in the arena long enough, he'll play around when we show," the 16-year-old shared.

The next stop for the pair is the AQHA World Show. "Hopefully we will do well there," she said. "I thank my mom and dad for hauling me everywhere and everyone along the way who has supported me. Most of all I thank God above for giving me the opportunity to do this."

Short Stirrup [2] & Short Stirrup High Point Champions Becca Schaffhauser & Lil Rene Gun

Showing in the Jim Norick Arena, 10-year-old Becca Schaffhauser piloted Lil Rene Gun through Pattern 2, scoring a 143. Not only did that win the day's class, it also secured the Short Stirrup High Point Championship. "She was very good. She did not go too fast," Schaff- Rest. hauser said.

Lil Rene Gun, by Gunner out of Sail Away Rene, is owned by James and Kathleen Fanello. "My dad showed her in the Derby last year, and I'm very happy to show her. She's seven and is a very good horse. She's easy to ride and not too hard for a beginner," Schaffhauser said.

It was the first time for the pair to compete together, but they'll be traveling to Vegas for another event soon. "Thank you to my parents and James and Kathleen for letting me show her," she said.

Schaffhauser also took Reserve in Saturday's class with a 140.5 on Dun Got My Rest, owned by Turnabout Farm Inc. Dun Got My Rest is by Hollywood Dun It out of Got My Youth member Reagan Stephens was a winner at the NRHA Derby, and she didn't even have to compete on a horse. Reagan had a clean sweep of the Cinch Youth Speech sion win, Cinch Contest, winning the A General, Prepared Public Speaking, and Community Service divisions.

The contest was officiated by representatives of NRHA Corporate Partners, and included Reed Kyle of Bluebonnet Feed, Steve Miller of Montana Silversmiths, and Traci Nelson of Adequan. "It had to have been such a tough job for the judges to decide between the speeches they heard. Each young woman who participated was so passionate about their projects and their hard work showed through the entire speech," noted Youth Programs Coordinator Sara Honegger.

For each divipresented Stephens with a hat can, garment bag, and gift certificate.

"The NRHyA greatly appreciates the judges for taking time out of their busy sched-

New Documentary-Competition Show from Executive Producer Sheridan, Truly Original and 101 Studios Premieres This July Series Finale Features First-Ever "Run for a Million" Reining Competition Taking Place August 15-17 in Las Vegas

On June 20, 2019, Paramount Network announced it has green-lit an all-new original series, The Last Cowboy, from Academy Award ® -nominee Taylor Sheridan, writer of Hell or High Water and Sicario, writer/director of Wind River and co-creator of the hit Paramount Network original scripted drama series Yellowstone. Produced by Truly Original and executive produced by 101 Studios, the unscripted series spotlights the highly-skilled horsemen and trainers competing in the intense, high-stakes world of professional reining.

The Last Cowboy chronicles the lives of eight men and women who compete on the regular reining circuit, a west-ern-based competition where riders guide horses through a precise pattern of circles, spins and stops. These horsemen are determined to elevate and preserve the cowboy tradition as they train and engage in the exclusive ultra-competitive sport.

In conjunction with the series, Sheridan is also launching a reining event called "Run for a Million," the sport's first-ever, arena-based competition with a $1 million purse, marking the largest in its history. The upcoming experience will take place on August 15-17, 2019 at the South Point Arena and Equestrian Center in Las Vegas, and the competition will come to life in the series finale.

Sheridan said, "The grit, beauty and tenacity of the West are linked to America's legacy and my creative drive has been to explore those, in all their complexities, in film and scripted television. Now, with 'The Last Cowboy' and 'Run for a Million,' we're bringing the real men and women, and their dedication to the sport of reining, to the small screen, an unmasking of the cowboy world that we hope TV audiences will enjoy."

"Viewers came in massive numbers to watch Yellowstone last season to see the way we showcase modern day western life," said Keith Cox, President of Development, Paramount Network and TV Land. "Now we're serving up fans an inside look at the lives of real horsemen and their challenges and triumphs within the world of competitive horse reining."

NEW REINING EVENT FOR 5- UP TO 15-YEAR-OLD HORSES: 2019 $30,000-ADDED AUSTRIANRHA MATURITY & NRHA SHOW

September 20 until 22, 2019 in Wiener Neustadt / Austria

When Helmut Schulz organized his first AustrianRHA Futurity 13 years ago, who would have thought that this event would become an institution in European reining and an NRHA show which has been among the top 20 NRHA shows worldwide for years. Now, Helmut Schulz will organize another major event – this time focusing on aged horses: the $30,000-added AustrianRHA Maturity & NRHA Show which is scheduled for September 20 - 22, 2019 at Wiener Neustadt. The NRHA Show is also a qualifier for the 4534726, fax +43-2238-8545, office@nrha.at, www.nrha.at, NRHA European Affiliate Championships 2021.

"With this Maturity in Wiener Neustadt, we want to establish an attractive event for aged horses," says Helmut Schulz. "Even with an older horse like a 10- or 12-year-old, there should be the possibility of earning titles and good money. With this, we want to support trainers as well as the basis of reining. I think that most of the riders this year will be from Austria, but for the future, we expect lots of international competitors. If there are enough horses, we should reach a purse like the AustrianRHA Futurity."

The AustrianRHA Maturity & NRHA Show is open to all horses. There are four levels in the Open as well as in the Non Pro Maturity. All classes are NRHA approved. Besides the purse, there are Silversmith Buckles for the Maturity Champions and Maturity Halters for the Reserve Champions. The deadline of entry for the Maturity classes is September 10, 2019. Entries can be made online via www.
