TULSA REINING CLASSIC DERBIES TO INCLUDE 7-YEAR-OLDS

The Global Reining Sport Group, which produces the Tulsa Reining Classic, is known for an innovative approach to reining event management, so it is not surprising that the 2019 show will be one of the first to include 7-year-olds in its upcoming Derbies. The event, set for August 26-September 1, will feature the SmartPak Non Pro Derby and the Tulsa Reining Classic Open Derby and both will be open to 4-, 5-, 6- and 7-year-olds.

For Global Reining Sport Group President Colleen McQuay, the decision was, above all, based on the good of the horse and the good of the reining industry. Colleen, who is also a founding board member of the National Reining Breeders Classic, said, "The discussion for what is best for our horses and owners has always been on the table for both the NRBC and the Global Reining Sports Group."

She continued, "Following the NRBC this year the board made the decision to include the 7-year-olds and the GRSG owners were immediately on board. Listening to breeders like David Silva who originally suggested including 6-year-olds helped us make the decision. It goes without saying that this will greatly help with the planning of our horses' training and showing schedules which ultimately determines what is best for the horse."

Colleen also noted the flexibility and opportunities offered by the events and classes on the Tulsa Reining Classic slate. "I think our owners will really enjoy being able to schedule the young ones the way they want and not miss out on good prize money classes. This also gives the trainers more time to develop the younger horses to prepare them for Non Pro riders and still give them the opportunity to have a chance at the major events. I think it is best for the longevity of our horses, thus adding more value to them. It is a win-win for our sport."

CODY SAPERGIA RIDES MR ROYAL HOLLYWOOD TO CAROLINA CLASSIC OPEN DERBY CHAMPIONSHIP

Reiners from around the country participated in the 29th annual Carolina Classic at TIEC on May 8-12, held for the second year in a row at Tryon International Equestrian Center (TIEC). In the Open Derby, Cody Sapergia topped the Level 3 and 4 leaderboards with Mr Royal Hollywood, scoring 225.5 points and $7,000 in prize money.

Abigail Grace Ehringer swept the Non-Pro Derby aboard All You Need Is Luv, claiming the championship title in Levels 1 through 4 and taking home $7,300 in prize money. Michael Hancock scored champion honors and $1,900 in prize money aboard Nics Custom Dually in the Non-Pro Derby Prime Time and Masters levels.

Cody Sapergia Claims Open Derby Championship

Securing the Open Derby Level 3 and 4 champion titles was Cody Sapergia of Smithfield, NC, with a score of 225.5 aboard Mr Royal Hollywood, George and Carol Bell's 4-year-old stallion by Hollywoodtinseltown out of Cee Miss Hollywood. Sapergia complimented his horse's double-win performance.

"The circles he ran really well and came back to me good. The first turn was really solid, quite quick and I stopped him square, so no penalties. The second set of circles and spins were also good, but I think that what really got the points were the stops at the end because he's a really good stopper, he's really good with the front feet, and he has a good position and goes a long way, so I was really happy with him today," explained Sapergia.

Sapergia was looking forward to a repeat visit to TIEC and complimented his experience at the Carolina Classic.

"I was here last year for the World Equestrian Games as the coach for the Mexican Reining Team. It was great then, and I couldn't wait to come back this time because it's such a unique venue. It's really cool - really big arena, really good ground and there's lots going on with the jumping and stuff like that, so it's exciting," added Sapergia.

With a score of 223.5, the Open Derby Level 2 champion honors went to Amanda F. Yarbrough and Gunners Shining the only digital magazine on an app entirely dedicated to the sport of reining, its horses and all its protagonists throughout the world

In the March magazine:

- Our cover trainer of March is Duane Latimer, reigning Champion of the NRBC Open, who we interviewed in the lead-up to the 2019 edition. The Canadian-born trainer talked about his system for teaching the stop and rollback, and how experience is healthy for a trainer to learn how to control his own stress as well as that of his horses and to understand when it is time to stop

- The 28th of February marked the deadline for presenting the 'non-binding expression of interest' in hosting the next edition of the World Championships in 2022 for the various equestrian disciplines: Italy stepped forward to take pole position in this great challenge, with the splendid facility of Elementa near Rome. At the very same time by coincidence, members of the McCutcheon family (Tom, Mandy and Cade) were present in Rome as guests of Maria Cecilia Fiorucci of Elementa. We chatted with them about the WEG, among other things...

- We present another four-legged star, getting to know more about the beautiful mare Dun It For Chex, owned by Cardinal Reining Horses (Aubrey, Tx) and NRHA Hall of Famer since June 2018. She looks to be the horse that will become the second Million Dollar Dam in history after Ebony Shines

- A much-appreciated guest in this issue is Doug Allen from Great Britain: a rider and judge at the highest levels, for the readers of Horsense he reveals all the secrets of the freeze-up as seen from the 'chair' as well as answering some more general questions on the work of an NRHA judge

- Finally, our journey continues among those companies proposing innovative ideas for the sports horse and reining in particular: this time we talk with Gianni Guidolin, of the international feed group that bears this surname. Gianni explains how despite its size it has retained an 'artisan's' vocation title with a score of 219 on Stanley Coats' Sparklin Magnum, a 5-year-old stallion by Magnum Chic Dream out of Still Sparklin.

Abigail Ehringer Tops Non-Pro Derby

In the Non-Pro Derby, Ehringer of Dawsonville, GA, took champion honors in Levels 1 through 4, with a score of 214 aboard her own All You Need Is Luv, a 6-year-old gelding by Wimpys Little Step out of Easys Lil Barbie.

Ehringer was surprised to earn a win in all four levels and is proud of her horse's growth, bringing her score up significantly from last year's Carolina Classic score of 201.

"My main goal was just to get through it with no penalties, and just have fun," said Ehringer. "I've been derbying him for almost a year and a half now, and we kinda just started clicking last fall, so now we're really getting comfortable together in the show pen, so I'm just now pushing him and we're doing well."

Michael Hancock Dominates Non-Pro Prime Time and Masters

Hancock of Rocky Mount, NC and founder of the Carolina Classic reining competition, slid into the Non-Pro Prime Time and Masters championship spots with a score of 213 aboard Nics Custom Daily, his own 6-year-old gelding by Mister Nicadual out of Custom Whizzer.

As the founder of the Carolina Classic, Hancock was pleased with its second year at TIEC.

"The arena was outstanding, and I think other than a little rain to settle the dust yesterday, we had great weather and it's been a great event. I think what went well was just the overall facility, it's just phenomenal here. This is the 29th year of the Carolina Classic, so this is one of the early shows on the east coast that had a significant following. We're continuing that tradition at this new facility, and only new people coming here and the people that haven't been here will be astounded by what we are doing," said Hancock.

WHAT IS IT?

Academy-Award nominee Taylor Sheridan, writer of HELL OR HIGH WATER and SICARIO, WRITER/DIRECTOR of WIND RIVER and co-creator of YELLOWSTONE, wanted to design a venue that showcased the talent of both horse and rider in one of the most demanding equine sports in existence: Reining. Sheridan has partnered with Amanda Brumley, Brumley Management Group producer of three National Reining Horse Association leading events worldwide, to create and produce this one of a kind event.

THE RUN FOR A MILLION offers the unprecedented opportunity to introduce millions of viewers to the sport of Reining. Nine of the industry's most successful Reining Professionals, and three Wild Card Professionals will compete for a total purse of $1,000,000. In addition to the main event there will be a $100,000 Added Shoot Out, open to all Reiners and horses. On top of the tremendous prize money, the top five riders in the Shoot Out Finals will be guaranteed a position in the 2020 Million Dollar Invitational at THE RUN FOR A MILLION.

Other performances include THE RUN FOR A MILLION Rookie Championships, $50,000 Added Non Pro Championships and $50,000 Added Invitational Freestyle. Riders can qualify for these Championships at the National Reining Breeders Classic in Katy TX, the National Reining Horse Association Derby in Oklahoma City, OK, the Bill Bradley Reining Classic in Lexington, KY and the Reining by the Bay in Woodside, CA.

For complete details of qualification, go to our website at www.TRFAM.com To be invited to participate in the $50,000 Freestyle, riders must submit a video of a Reining Freestyle performance by June 1, 2019 to brumleyevents@gmail.com

The goal in creating and producing THE RUN FOR A MILLION is to introduce new people to the world of western performance horses while supporting all of those who have made Reining their life's passion. In addition, it offers a platform for the products horsemen and horsewomen love and depend on that is unprecedented in its reach and value.

GLOBAL YOUTH REINING CUP – WORLDWIDE YOUTH WIN IN CREMONA!

Provided by Simona Diale, International Horse Press — An amazing 19 countries were represented in the inaugural NRHA/IRHA/RHF Global Youth Reining Cup: Argentina, Australia, Austria, Belgium, Brazil, Canada, France, Great Britain, Hungary, Israel, Italy, Mexico, Netherlands, Paraguay, Poland, Spain, Thailand, Uruguay, and USA. The event took place in Cremona, Italy, during the IRHA Derby and on Saturday morning the spotlight was on the 19 riders that rode for their country's flag. Though competition was heartfelt, the spirit that filled the air during the week was camaraderie, joy and pride in being part of the very first edition of the Cup!

ber and strong supporter of the Global Cup concept. “It has truly been a joint effort with NRHA, IRHA and RHF. I cannot thank the riders, parents, horse owners and organizers enough for putting this together.” Just as proud and enthused was Roberto Cuoghi, IRHA and NRHA European Council president. “It is an honor to have been able to host this inaugural competition in Italy,” he said. “I would like to thank all those involved; I am extremely proud of these young riders. They did a wonderful job inside and outside the show arena.”

Matteo Manuel Bonzano

Tying for first place with a 216.5 was Andreu Nogue Puig of Spain riding A Whiz N Cash and Italy’s Matteo Manuel Bonzano riding his High Point Reiner. Third place was for Belgium thanks to Nimroid Vannietvelt’s 213.5 score.

Grace Wilson

Winning the Invitational Global Cup division — open to non EU riders — was USA’s Grace Wilson who scored a 212.5 riding Jokin Whiz. The past NRHA Intermediate Open World Champion is owned by Markus Schopfer. Sliding to reserve honors was Jennifer Anna Layne Neudorf of Canada with Harry Gotta Whiz, owned and graciously donated by Quarter Dream. Paraguay slid to third place honors thanks to Jan Lucas Wiens Eitzen who posted a 206.5 aboard Arianna Aspersi’s Highclass Master.

Winners in both divisions took home a Lawson trophy offered by IRHA and top three received a Montana Silversmiths buckle offered by Montana Silversmiths and Cardinal Ranch.

Representatives from all the participating countries were recognized and nominated as Reining Horse Foundation (RHF) Ambassadors. “This event is very much about growing awareness of RHF. There are many misperceptions about RHF and its international scope, but we do give Crisis Fund grants and scholarships internationally, and any NRHA member may be eligible for consideration for the NRHA Hall of Fame and Dale Wilkinson Lifetime Achievement Award,” said Leslie Baker, RHF executive director. “This inaugural event gives exhibitors the opportunity to support the Foundation through donations of any size and it amounts to a big impact. I was in Cremona in spirit and I thank you all!”

Congratulations to all the riders that took part in the Global Youth World Cup, to the owners and a special thank you to those owners that donated a horse!

YOUTH NEWS – CALEB STURGEON

My name is Caleb Sturgeon, I live in Beloit, Ohio, am 18 years old and a senior at West Branch High School. I was born into a family that showed AQHA all around horses. My mother is an AQHA World Champion and all-around amateur at the All American Quarter Horse Congress so it was natural for me to fall into the pleasure and horsemanship side of horse showing.

8 years ago, my trainer, put me on a reining horse, told me to hold onto the horn, get ready and ask him to spin. I was hooked! That horse was JD Fritz Jazzman, a reserve world champion. As a team, we qualified for the youth world and placed top 5 at Congress. Shiney Juice became my partner as I moved up to the 14-18 age group. Our first NRHA show was Buckeye Reining Series in Springfield, Ohio where we won the youth class, we also did well in the NRHA classes at Congress and won the NYATT Reining.

NRHA was where I wanted to show so we approached Shawn Florida for help. I was sharing Shiney Juice with 'Paul' and I have had much success, some highlights are; high point 14-18 youth at the Derby, high point 14-18 youth Buckeye Reining Series, top 15 at the AQHA Youth World Show, and top 3 at NRBC.

We sold Shiny Juice after my Mom won the Green Reiner 2 on him at the 2017 Congress and bought Hollywoodsmokee in 2018. That year, Bob and I won the 14-18 youth reining at NRBC and were reserve champion reining at Congress. Both Always Gotyer Gun and Hollywoodsmokee are nationally qualified for the AQHA Youth World Show in 2019.

The horse industry has taught me leadership skills, a good work ethic, and compassion for my peers and horses. I was an AQHA Region 4 director and served on the AQHA

I represented the USA as a member of the 2018 AQHA Youth World Cup, winning a silver medal in the reining. I have been the Northern Ohio Youth Association President for 2 years and served as an Ohio Quarter Horse Youth Director.

I've also been grand champion with my beef feeder and feeder heifer and won beef feeder showmanship for 3 years in a row. I played soccer at my high school, was part of our show choir and was active in the theater group.

I will be attending University of Mount Union, Alliance, Ohio in the fall, majoring in computer engineering and computer science. I plan to continue to show reining horses.

$80,000-ADDED AUSTRIANRHA FUTURITY & NRHA SHOW 2019

August 21 until 24, 2019 in Wiener Neustadt / Austria

The deadline for the 2019 $80,000-added AustrianRHA Futurity & NRHA Show is approaching: July 1. Austria's premier reining show is scheduled for August 21 until 24 at the facility of WTC H&D Schulz QH in Wiener Neustadt. The event offers a guaranteed $10,000 in earnings each for the Level 4 Open Futurity Champion of the 3-year-old horses and the 4-year-old horses. Horses can now be entered online at www.showmanager.info.

High Score of all the Austrian Futurities so far: 229 (Gennaro Lendi)

The AustrianRHA Futurity, which was first organized in 2007, is one of Europe's premier reining shows and among the top 20 NRHA events worldwide. The most successful Open competitors so far are Dennis Schulz and Rudi Kronsteiner, who have each claimed the prestigious title six times. The most successful Nons Pros are Ewald Rifesser, Carlo Ambrosini and Andrea Iannetta. They have each won the Futurity Championship three times. The top score of all the Austrian Futurities so far is

Gennaro Lendi & Gunwork

229 achieved by Gennaro Lendi and Anja Deutzmann's Gunwork (I Am Shotgunner x Its Another Footwork) in 2012. Last year, Gennaro was Co-Champion in the 4-year-old Horses L4 Open aboard Colonels Dancing Gun, together with Dominik Reminder and Call Me Mr Voodoo.

The Futurity is open to all 3- and 4-year-old horses. They can be shown either in a Snaffle Bit / Hackamore or one-handed in a bit.

Bits may be changed between go round and final. All horses may be shown only either in Open or in Non Pro with a maximum of 3 starts per horse. The show is part of the Austrian Western Star Circuit and a qualifier for the NRHA European Affiliate Championship.

At the 2019 NRBC, an astounding 38 finalists in the Derby were Legacy Sale Graduates including Prime Time Non Pro Champion and Level 1 Non Pro Reserve Champion Pale Faced Dancer. Nine of the finalists in the 7 & Up Challenge were also purchased there. Legacy Sale Graduates earned more than $99,000 at the NRBC.

Three of the top ten Open finalists and the same ratio of Non Pro finalists at the 2018 NRHA Futurity were purchased at the Legacy Sale. All of the Legacy Sale graduates' combined earnings at the show totaled over $350,500.

In the 2018 NRHA Derby, half of the top ten Open finalists came from the Legacy Sale including the Open Reserve Champion Arc Gunna Mark Ya. The graduates at that event Held annually, the Legacy Sale is hosted by Cardinal Reining Horses in Aubrey, Texas. In 2019, it will be held on Friday, September 27 where all of the yearlings sold are prepped for success with eligibility for the NRBC and the NRHA Futurity and Derby. The special Legacy Breeder's Sale will be the following day on September 28. For consignments, the deadline is July 5. CZECHOWICZ AND CSG MAGNIFIQUE GUN CLAIM THE FIRST IRHA OPEN DERBY CHAMPIONSHIP FOR POLAND!

The 2019 IRHA/NRHA Derby show-cased some first class reining: as the bar was raised both the thrills and technical prowess gradually increased to an extent uncommonly seen in recent times. There were 47 at the starting blocks, with many the picture of determination, skill and dedication, but there was a sudden surge in scores after Gennaro Lendi passed through the “Gate of Champions” riding Anna Parodi's Arc Step Above: The scores surged from Dominik Reminder and Call Me Voodoo's (owner Elisabetta Zoccarato) clean run marking a 219.5 to a rip-roaring 223.5. From that moment, the excitement was palpable with nearly every remaining competitor, and there were still 10 to go in the final. For example, the great Ann Fonck, who still had two bullets in the barrel among the last “ten”, rode Brigitte Steiner's Spook N Ruffles to a 222.5. Mirko Midili, fresh from the NRHA European Open Championship title, aboard Whiz Wild West, the “heroic horse” that in the space of a few days ran in four demanding rounds of this Derby, taking owner Edoardo Bernardelli to the top of the Non Pro Level 3 and Reserve Champion Level 4 and running a risk-filled Open qualifier, still had the energy to take Mirko to a great third place with a 223 in a tie with Nico Sicuro and Sugar Little Step. Yes! That Sugar Little Step, the beautiful palomino stallion owned by Quarter Dream who along with Gennaro Lendi had travelled to the Oklahoma NRHA Derby to gain his place in the sun. Then in he came: just 23 years old, directly from Poland which, though bolstered by the excellence of the Roleski Ranch, is not yet one of reining's leading nations. Yet Lukasz Czechowicz, already a Level 4 co-go-round leader along with Ann Fonck and Gunners Specialolena, and previously among the protagonists of the Big Futurity last December, pulled out all the stops with CSG Magnifique Gun to produce a breathtaking run and achieve a 225 and the podium.

As he exited the arena, Lukasz removed his hat and waved in response to the massive applause from the stands. Minutes after completing pattern 12 and capturing the Level 4

Championship, Lukasz laughingly said he would have to watch the video to see his performance on the 6-year-old CSG Magnifique Gun, as it was all a blur: “For me, it's a dream come true. This is what I wished for as a boy and even when I arrived here [in Cremona] I was not really expecting this outcome.” This was a run that left many thinking ‘Wow! That's how I'd like to spin!’

“He always spins well” commented Czechowicz, “but tonight he was unbelievable”.

Following the qualifier, the 23-year-old Polish professional chose to keep the stallion relaxed: “The only risk was that he would try too much in the turnaround, so I just wanted to slow him down”.

The horse is owned by Katarzyna Roleska and was sired by the Roleski Ranch's lead stallion Colonels Shining Gun out of Im Magnifique (by Magnum Chic Dream). The Roleski Ranch is also where Czechowicz developed and matured his reining ability: he has been trainer there for the last 5 years, since leaving school at 18. He acquired his early skills from his father who rode Western disciplines. Lukasz explains: “This stallion was started at 2 years old by Cira Baeck and then trained by Bernard and Ann Fonck. In fact, Ann took him to the final of the 2017 NRHA European Futurity Open. I got him when he was already trained but I have been riding him now for 2 years and we have developed a great bond, especially in this last year.” Czechowicz was Level 3 Champion at the NRHA Euro Futurity Open here in Cremona last year on Katarzyna Roleska's CSG Pigiemove and Level 3 Champion at the Italian Futurity last December aboard CSG Copshot. Plans for the future with this stallion? “To compete in the European Derby in Germany in July, and then we'll see.”

Reserve Champion at Level 4 was Gennaro Lendi riding Arc A Step Above, the son of Walla Walla Whiz and Wimpys Little Chic owned by Anna Parodi. The pair, Open Level 4 Champion at the 2018 Derby International de Lyon and 2019 Open Shoot-In Reserve Champion, marked a 223.5 to secure their place on the podium.

Blazing a trail with the flashy palomino Sugar Little Step owned by Quarter Dream and sired by Wimpys Little Step x Ah Sugar Sugar (by Lil Ruf Peppy) was 23-year-old Nico Sicuro who entered on a low key and piloted the horse to a crescendo with each maneuver. As the dust settled after the final stop, the score was an impressive 223, securing the title of Levels 3 and 2 Open Champion and replicating the top spot earned by the pair after the go-round - but adding an impressive 4 points to their qualifying score and securing a generous margin over the nearest contenders at these levels. “In the final I tried to add a bit of speed on the maneuvers and risk a bit more - to do everything we could together - and it really went well,” says Nico. “We entered before the drag so the ground was not optimum, and the first stop could have been stronger, but things just kept getting better.” The horse, now 7, was started by Markus Gebert who took him to the finals of the NRHA Germany Breeders Futurity Limited Open 3-year-olds in 2015; with the same trainer, he was 2016 NRHA European Derby Level 3 Open Champion and Level 4 Open Co-Reserve Champion with a whopping 228.5. Last year Gennaro Lendi guided him to become 2018 NRHA Italian Derby Level 4 Open Co-Reserve Champion here in Cremona and to the finals of the 2018 NRHA Oklahoma City Derby L4 Open. Nico has been riding Sugar Little Step since February, having started as head trainer at Quarter Dream in January this year.

The newly formed pair’s first outing was in a competition at the EuroFuturity, but this was their first special event together. “This horse was great today and I really enjoyed this run. I’d like to thank Pietro Marseglia and the whole team at Quarter Dream.”

Crowd favorite Giuseppe Prevosti was awarded a 218 to take the Reserve Champion L2, partnered by Gunna Sparkle the 2014 stallion owned by Luigi Parise. “Beppe” also had a second mount, Francesca Bertazzi’s Walla Golden Arrow, third at this level with a 217.

Elio Simonini, a fairly new face at the special events, is an example of an unusual professional figure: working as a personal trainer for riding. In fact, he follows a single Non Pro rider, Susanna Sodi and her horses that are stabled at Luga QH. But this time Elio came front stage to conquer his slice of the action by climbing to the summit of the IRHA/NRHA Derby as Champion in the Level 1 and Reserve Level 2, with a 216. His companion in this feat was Sevenchextocash, a gelding quarter from Big Chex To Cash and Lil Chic Peppy.

“We brought four horses to this Derby and Susanna rode three in the Non Pro, but as this was Seven’s last year in the Derby, we decided I would show him to try for the podium of the Open Levels 1 and 2. We made it, and I could not be happier”, the Tuscan told us with his eyes still shining with emotion. “Tonight, I was the last in the arena in the first section of the finals, for Levels 1 and 2, and as I left the show pen, I heard the speaker saying I was the current leader the feeling was indescribable. Two colleagues were still to come, Nadalini and Dossetto, both with good horses and we all know that in reining you also need a bit of luck and this time I was the lucky one... A huge thanks goes to Susanna, of course, because she makes all this possible, and my companion Alessandra Ischia who works with me as a groom.”

Thirty-eight years old, Elio had a long apprenticeship in reining, first as a groom and then as an assistant trainer. He has worked for Mario Sbrana, Stefano Angelucci and Ambrosini Quarter Horse. Then he started on his own, following his inclination for coaching rookie and youth riders. Then came a happy encounter with Susanna: “We have been working together for four years, and everything is going great; she has had good results and I have had mine for the first time, with her horses. Two years ago, for example, I was third in the European Derby, and now this!”

Sevenchextocash was trained by Bernard Fonck, and Sodi fell in love with the horse after seeing him during the 4-yr-old Futurity: “It belonged to 7 Heaven, where they raised him with such love and passion that it was really hard to convince them to sell. Even now they call us to hear how he’s getting on and tonight they were the first to compliment me. Since then, he has always been shown by Susanna. He is easy and balanced, always a willing horse; every time we finish a work session he curls his lip as though to ask ‘Have we finished already?’, and when we arrive at the stables he is the first to neigh to ask for his food or for his window to be opened... I would call him ‘delightful’, both because of his natural qualities and because of the way he was raised and trained. When Susanna told me that I would be taking him to the Derby a month ago, I tried him out at a regional competition: and although I am new to the competitive environment and have done very few competitions, I marked 71.5...even with one penalty point!”

In a tie with Elio and Seven as L2 Reserve Champions were Sara Galimberti's Lotsa Smokinguns, a 7-year-old mare from Gunner out of Lotsa Train, ridden by the talented Silvia Venezia, while placed as IRHA/NRHA Derby Level 1 Reserve Champion is the duo Mattia Nadalini, former trainer at Roberta's Stables, and Miss Gunna Gunna, a 5-year-old, owned by Giulia Mandaletti of Mandaletti Quarter Horses ASD of Bergamo where the professional from Verona now follows his clients. The mare, sired by Hollywood Gun Dunit out of Miss Doctor Gunny, finished her adventure in the Derby with a score of 215.

CARLO AMBROSINI WINS THE IRHA NON PRO DERBY IN ONLY HIS SECOND RIDE ON GUNNALITTLESTEP

Thirty-nine duos in a Derby that, by and large, confirmed the qualifier, with three of the four Non Pro Champions already with a foot on the podium after the go-round at their respective levels: at Level 4 Carlo Ambrosini with Gunnalittlestep, L3 Edoardo Bernardelli and the talented gelding Whiz Wild West and L2 Wolfgang Hammer and Mr Ricochet.

had entered the Derby himself on this horse but he could not be here when a work commitment cropped up suddenly,” Carlo explains. “For me, it was a pure stroke of luck! So, I want to thank my dad a lot, as well as Marco Pettinari who deserves all the merit for preparing Gunnalittle so perfectly!”

The only “new entry” came from the performance of pretty, young Franziska Wallner, the only lady rider among the Champions, who advanced 12 positions from the qualifier with Mai Tai Enterprise, adding 3 and a half points to her score to take the Level 1 title.

At the end of the go-round, nineteen-year-old Ambrosini told us that he had ridden Gunnalittlestep for the first time just the day before... It sounded like a joke, but it was completely true. Indeed, blessed is the character of the Quarter Horses - or at least of some of them: Gunnalittlestep who, by the way, is only 4 years old, led him straight to victory almost without knowing who was in the saddle: “My father

A half point above his go-round performance brought the son of Gunnatrashya and Gay Jays Little Step to the top spot. Ambrosini describes him as “Really good and sincere; all I had to do was make a confident start and he gave me his everything. This horse may not produce +1s, but he can achieve + ½s in all the maneuvers, and this is what it takes for a Non Pro.” Carlo admitted he was nervous as the final approached as the fact that he was “standing in” for his dad, whom he greatly admires, added that extra responsibility: “But I have learned that being decisive when you go through the gate always pays,” he explains, and his approach worked as well this time as it did throughout last year for the young rider from Lombardy who in 2018, made it into the world Top 20 with over $ 76,000 in lifetime earnings.

Gunnalittlestep, previously third at L3 and fourth at L4 at April's NRHA European Futurity between the reins of Carlo's father Pietro Paolo, was bred by Angelika and Markus Gebert but was started and trained at Ambrosini QH where he is managed by Pettinari (Rudi Kronsteiner also showed him in 2018). When describing the few hours he had to get to know this horse prior to entering the arena the first time Carlo is honest, saying he did not take an immediate liking to him. "You have to leave him be, and let him "get on with it", while I prefer to be a little more incisive when I ride. But then I realized that he is cool and reliable, and my confidence grew". Now Gunnalittle is headed for the 4-year-old Futurities and all the European Derbies. A long road in which he will be accompanied by Carlo... "I'm going to steal him... sorry Dad, say goodbye to your horse! My thanks go to my mum, the Ambrosini Team, my girlfriend Francesca Bosoni and my best friend Andrea Pedrotti who is always by my side when needed."

In second place, with a 217, came another decidedly shy rider (at least when faced with a recorder for the post-run interview), the Level 3 Champion Edoardo Bernardelli. Edo, a 28-year-old, also from Lombardy, like Carlo came to Western riding at an early age thanks to his father's passion. His partner in the arena was Whiz Wild West, who is in the running for the Open final with Mirko Midili in the saddle; "Mosè" was bred at Luga QH, sired by Spark N Whiz out of West Coast Oak, and in 2017, was crowned IRHA/NRHA Futurity 4 yr-olds Champion with Guglielmo Fontana.

"A week ago we decided that Mirko Midili would follow me and Mosè through this Derby adventure, and it worked. This is my third competition with him: I have only had him for a year, but we immediately clicked. This is a horse that never holds back in the show pen. He needs to be managed and helped in the stop, which is perhaps his least convincing maneuver, but when you find the right key, everything falls into place." Now, they will go straight to the European Derby, with Edo also looking after his three Futurity prospects.

Co-Reserve Champion in the Level 4 is the brilliant young Spaniard, Andreu Nogue-Puig, the rider who surprised everyone at the 2018 Big Futurity Non Pro by conquering all four levels of Europe's richest Futurity while participating in his first Special Event at just sixteen, thus immediately precluding his access to the lower levels. At the Futurity, he was riding A Whiz N Cash, while here at the Derby his partner was Ricostyle, a 2013 mare by Ricochet Rooster out of Gangsters Chrome.

After a great start to his 2019 Derby, Wolfgang Hammer led the Level 2 go-round with two of his horses, Chicago Lena and Mr Ricochet. On the "big night" it was the second, Mr Ricochet, son of Ricochet Rooster and Docs Oak Rosy, bred at 23 QH that assured his owner the title of Champion at Level 2 and Reserve Champion Level 3 with a smooth 214.5. Hammer bought the stallion, now 6, from 23 QH as a three-year-old and has since been riding the horse together with Tomas Martinek who is the trainer at Hammer's barn, 80 kilometres from Vienna. The Austrian businessman has repeatedly made the finals in which he has competed with this horse, from the Futurity 4-year-olds to the Derby events in Austria, Italy and Germany as well as being Austrian Futurity Intermediate Non Pro Reserve Champion in 2017.

"I was so happy as this is a horse that has performed well, consistently making the finals, but we have always had some hiccoughs on the big night; today he performed really well and I am extremely pleased, any little slips were mistakes of mine, not his," explained Hammer. "I concentrated on keeping him relaxed between the qualifier and the final, just riding very little because of the heat here – and it worked."

Wrapped in smiles was Franziska Wallner who conquered the title of Level 1 Champion and Level 2 Reserve - her first win at a Special Event - on the 6-year-old mare Mai Tai Enterprise who marked a 211.5. "I can't describe my feelings - I'm so lucky and so happy," said the German rider. "She is truly amazing, especially on the stops that are undoubtedly her strongest maneuver. It is probably also my favorite maneuver, but then she is easy to stop, she really puts her heart into it." The mare was bred at home from her mother Heidi's stallion, Chex Enterprise, out of Revolutions Chic Jac. "We raised her ourselves, so I have known her since her first moments," explained Franziska who finished school last year and now divides her time between helping out at her mother's stables located at Dünzling near Munich and spending time in the saddle.

The mare was started by Guy Zemah at two years and then in August of her three-year-old year, Franziska took the reins and has been riding and showing her since. The duo immediately made the finals of the Austrian Futurity in 2016 and again the following year, as well as becoming the only Youth to make all four levels of the European Derby last year. She is helped in her training and showing by her mother and NRHA professional Dominic Reminder. Franziska is still undecided as to what her future might bring: "Riding other horses would be super nice, but having my own makes it really special," but she is certain about one thing: "I want to compete in other Derby events this year - but first I want to give her time to have a rest and enjoy her life!"

A 210.5 secured the second step on this podium for the Italian rider from Sud Tirolo Katherine Dejori on her Unique Remediz, a 5-year-old stallion by Remins Remedy out of Margaritaz.

ELEMENTA MASTERS PREMIER FINE REINING

First class reining comes to Verona's Fieracavalli, with the prestigious Roman group Elementa offering a "taste" of the quality and philosophy that distinguish its approach and the standards which will guide the great Elementa Masters project from 2021 onwards.

Reining will take on a new look at Fieracavalli 2019. In fact, for the first time in the 120 year history of this major equestrian fixture, Fieracavalli will feature the most important group of competitions ever organized in Europe that counts toward NRHA World Standings. Entitled "Elementa Masters Premiere." This appointment will provide a "foretaste" of the new qualitative standards and the levels of prize money, and more importantly, the degree of attention dedicated to ensuring entertainment and a vision of an all-around clean sport that respects equine welfare: the cornerstones of Elementa's philosophy. All this will converge and be expanded, from 2021 onwards in the great Elementa Masters project: the richest reining circuit in the world, which will offer four special events each year - first and foremost, a Prime & Stakes 4-yr-old worth a million dollars - and no less than 148 ancillary prizes for breeders, owners, young riders, freestylers, para reiners and much more besides.

The same desire to innovate and entertain underlies the Elementa Masters Premiere, which with its $200,000 added money, is the richest reining competition ever which will be valid for the prestigious earnings-based NRHA World Standings. In 2010, when the big Oklahoma City Open Shootout - $100,000-added money - entered the sporting scene, it was widely seen as the competition that would produce the greatest impact in the race towards the Open World Title. Today, Elementa Masters Premiere goes one step further by enhancing, for instance, the opportunities of non-professional riders and those with "limited" status in addition to those of the sector's "biggest names".

Elementa Masters Premiere will include Open and Non Pro classes for every level of rider. In addition, there will be a para-reining competition, an area of sport very close to the heart of Elementa's owner, Cecilia Fiorucci, as well as two team competitions, one for Non Pro riders and another, the Reining Global Team Competition, which will take place at the same time as show jumping's premier Global Champions Tour - where groups of three drawn by lot and composed of a Non Pro, a professional rider and a para reiner will compete against each other. Lastly, there will be a Freestyle competition, with $10,000 dollars in added money that mixes sport and spectacle with participants in costume performing with a musical accompaniment. Unfortunately, this discipline is given little space in Italy while in other countries, especially the USA, it offers important prize money and, above all, has the entertainment value required to attract and entertain even a non-specialized public. While the latter might not immediately appreciate the sophistication of classic reining, they might develop a passion for this discipline through this initial contact with Freestyle, which is no less technical but is undoubtedly more colorful and immediately appealing. "The format is perfect for an event like Fieracavalli which attracts more than 160,000 visitors every year: a group of potential enthusiasts that would be precious to promoting our discipline," explains Elementa's Communications Director, Domenico Lomuto.

The organizational standards will be those most dear to Cecilia Fiorucci and her staff, with a level of care dedicated to the comfort of both horses and riders never previously experienced at the fair in Verona; the technological solutions covering all aspects of the competitions, such as the two cameras at the side of the arena to offer quality live streaming, will be available to users at no cost.

Deadline for the publication of the regulations now put back

At the end of a meeting held May 25th, 2019 at CremonaFiere, where the Salone del Cavallo Americano is currently underway, Elementa and the Executive Council of the Italian Reining Horse Association (IRHA) and the International Reining Horse Breeder Association (IRHBA) jointly communicate that after careful consideration, and to ensure the pursuit of a shared path in the work of the coming years given that both share the sole aim of promoting an ethical and renewed reining industry, it was decided that the publication of the Elementa Masters' regulations would be postponed until September 1. The development of an operational cooperation that will be advantageous for the reining circuit overall will continue through the summer months.

REIN FOR THE ROSES TENTH YEAR ANNIVERSARY

This year, the Rein for the Roses was extra special! On May 2-5, show exhibitors and attendees celebrated the ten year anniversary of the Derby on the Derby, held at the beautiful facilities of the Brookside Equestrian Center in Elk Grove, California. The Derby on the Derby went back to the basics by holding one special event on Saturday, which proved to be a very well-attended and entertaining event. Brookside welcomed back judges Kristen Lilley and Dave Belson to judge the show, which was the second NRHA affiliate show of the season for the West Coast Reining Horse Association.

Brookside and Drag Time worked together to get the footing in place for all to ride and slide. It takes a huge bulldozer, two large 10 wheelers, and 24 hours of dedication with Pedro Miranda, the facility's foreman, and Thad Carr working together to get the hunter jumper footing removed and the reining footing hauled in, leveled, and ready to show.

The weather in Elk Grove was much better than the weather in Kentucky! Cool temps allowed for some hot riding in the show pen.

Brookside presented very special anniversary trophy buckles to a few of the open classes, non pro classes, and novice horse classes. For the Derby, Brookside presented trophy buckles AND trophy pads with custom designed plates that included the Rein for Roses logo and 10th Anniversary. They were pretty fancy!

As usual, the show days were filled with dinners and beverages, sponsored by Mike Mallo & Shawna Smith, David and Becky Hanson, and Kevin Vondenkamp. A ringside reporter said that the Parade of Hats was top notch, and the Derby hats were stellar. New Brookside Kentucky Colonels were inducted - congratulations to all. The Rein for the Roses Saturday schedule worked out perfectly to watch the Running of the Roses at Churchill Downs, and what a strange event that was with the winner being disqualified!

Moving right along, all guests moved over to the main berm to get front row seating for a fabulous evening of Cinco de Mayo festivities and to watch the Derby on the Derby. Non Pros came out in force and did not disappoint. The crowd cheered for each and every rider and top performances took home the hardware. Jordan Larson, who just moved to the area from Texas, came to Brookside for the first time with horses ready to derby. Congratulations to Cam Essick on Loveya and Tzvika Knaani on Kind Of A Big Dual, the co-champions in the Non Pro Level 4. Tzvika Knaani, who rides with Jordan Larson, also had the win in the Non Pro Level 1. Jordan rode Roosters Who, owned by Michael Russell, to a top finish in the Open Derby. Jordan will have his name added to the Rein for Roses Open Champion Perpetual Plaque on display at Brookside.

Many of the West Coast exhibitors and trainers have been in attendance since the beginning, and Brookside owner Bill Madden would like to extend a huge thank you to each and every one. Your continued patronage has made this show so enjoyable. Congratulations to everyone that showed at the Rein for the Roses tenth year anniversary show!
