7-DAY HEALTH CERTIFICATES REQUIRED FOR THE NRBC

During the Texas Winter Series at the Great Southwest Equestrian Center (GSEC) which ended February 24, two horses developed fevers of unknown origin. The facility followed its isolation protocol which requires horses with elevated temperatures to be immediately removed from the premises.

They also reached out to Texas A&M School of Veterinary Medicine and local veterinarians for additional guidance. After the end of the Series they learned two other horses that showed at GSEC tested positive for strep equi.

As a precaution, the upcoming GHJJA show March 9 and 10 was cancelled and the facility will complete a deep clean and sanitize the facility. Every stall and the surrounding areas will be scrubbed, rinsed and disinfected within the guidelines provided by the consulting veterinarians.

In the immediate future Great Southwest Equestrian Center will require health certificates for all horses (showing or nonshowing) written within seven days of arrival at GSEC. The health certificate must state for the past 30 days the horse has not been treated or seen for reasons that might be associated with an elevated temperature or exhibited any symptoms associated with strep equi.

NRBC Secretary-Treasurer Cheryl Cody noted, "We appreciate the work Great Southwest Equestrian Center has done to insure the safety of all the horses. And even with our event not scheduled to begin for another month we are glad to protect our horses by these enhanced measures."

All horses must be accompanied by health papers (current Coggins, vaccination records and health certificate) or they will not be allowed on the grounds. There will be no exceptions. Please have a printed copy of these records to give to the check in personnel.

NRHA GLOBALIZES YOUTH INVOLVEMENT

NRHA Youth Council Expands to Europe

The National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) and the Reining Horse Foundation (RHF) recognize the importance of growth in the reining industry. That expansion is fueled largely by the next generation of reiners—our youth riders. To support young reiners around the globe, NRHA has expanded the youth program globally by launching an inaugural Youth Council in Europe.

Since 2001, the National Reining Horse Youth Association (NRHyA) has facilitated the development of our sport's future leaders. NRHyA members enjoy opportunities to benefit from college scholarships, youth awards and incentives, and guidance from top NRHA Professionals while making lifelong friendships and having fun along the way. Youth programs expand beyond arena-based competition; youths can enhance their futures through a variety of opportunities with NRHyA.

Many of today's top reining trainers and non pros have participated in youth competition or benefited from NRHyA leadership and scholarship opportunities, citing those offerings as major influences in their development as riders and students.

NRHyA's five core programs, which were designed specifically to develop and enhance the sport of reining, expanded worldwide in 2005. This explosion of growth continues with the 2019 European Youth Council. Incorporating an international Youth Council allows NRHyA to mold the program to represent the needs of young reiners on every continent.

"I'm absolutely delighted that in two short years we've built an active European youth scene with top-10 awards and now the first ever European Youth Council," said Francesca Sternberg, chair of the European Youth Committee. "I'm so excited to see what this vibrant, enthusiastic, multinational group brings to NRHA, and I'm sure the future of reining is in great hands. I'd also like to thank the RHF for their support and generosity with the top-10 awards, helping to recognize our youths worldwide."

The European Youth Council is made up of dedicated NRHA members who tirelessly work for the betterment of NRHyA opportunities in Europe and elsewhere. Current members of this group are Francesca Sternberg (Chair) (United Kingdom), Gisela Haas (Netherlands), Agnes Csolle (Hungary), Jane Muir (United Kingdom), Borys Pardus (Poland), and Manon Giraud (France).

The individuals who will serve on the 2019 NRHA European Youth Council include:

President: George Sternberg Allen (United Kingdom)
Vice President: Nimroid Vannietvelt (Belgium)
Treasurer: Lisa Werdaner (Italy)
Secretary: Pia Boonstoppel (Netherlands)
Historian: Nanina Staub (Switzerland)
Additional Historian: Erin Wielsma (Netherlands)

As these budding leaders begin their new pursuit, digital communication has served as a launchpad for their progress. In April, the Council will host its first face-to-face meeting at the 2019 NRHA European Futurity in Cremona, Italy. At this event, NRHA will also facilitate a youth meeting, as well as a possible youth party and fundraising. For more information on NRHyA, visit nrhya.com.

DON'T MISS THE GUNNERS SPECIAL NITE NRBC WELCOME PARTY

Over the years, the National Reining Breeders Classic has come to be known to have a schedule that allows riders to get their horses schooled and still enjoy time with their friends and family. Nightly social events are always anticipated, and the Gunners Special Nite Welcome Party kicks off the fun at the National Reining Breeders Classic on Tuesday, April 16. It will be held at the Great Southwest Equestrian Center upstairs in the Texas Children's Hospital Arena Club at 6 pm. All exhibitors and guests are welcome to attend and enjoy the delectable food and drinks!

Gunners Special Nite is the star reining stallion of Turnabout Farm owned by Sarah Willeman and Phillip Richter. He was the Individual and Team Gold Medalist at the 2010 World Equestrian Games and is the only western horse ever chosen as the US Equestrian Federation Horse of the Year. He amassed over $235,000 in lifetime earnings, and is now an NRHA Million Dollar Sire.

Turnabout Farm breeds and shows jumpers and reiners, basing its reining division in Aubrey, TX at Tom McCutcheon's Reining Horses where Gunners Special Nite stands. Turnabout Farm made NRHA history when it was recognized as NRHA's 2018 Leading Breeder, Gunners Special Nite was honored with the AQHA Leading NRHA Sire Award, and Turnabout Farm mare Taris Modern Design was honored as the AQHA Leading NRHA Dam. ## In the February magazine:

- The termination of the cooperation agreement between the FEI and the NRHA is a topic that has aroused much interest in recent months, leading us to urge reflection on the possible development of our sport in the immediate future. Francesca Sternberg, the FEI Athlete Representative for Reining, provided an interesting statement presenting a viewpoint from within the Federation.

- We could not miss a chat with the Non Pro Champions of the two most important 2018 Futurities in the world, that of Oklahoma and Cremona: Tish Fappani, winning her third trophy, and the surprising 17-year-old Spaniard Andreu Nogue Puig who conquered all four Non Pro levels at his debut Futurity in Italy.

- Last year's Futurity in Cremona also saw a new milestone being reached in the history of reining worldwide: the first woman Open Rider (and the first European woman) to reach the Million Dollar mark in Lifetime Earnings. This highly-talented lady, Cira Baeck, is the February cover trainer.

- We continue to follow the world's great stallions with our portrait of Pale Face Dunit who achieved the status of Million Dollar Sire at the end of October 2018, just 4 years after his first offspring debuted in the show pen.

- Into the world of equine health professionals by discussing osteopathy with Elena Oliva, a therapist who was trained in the best Northern European colleges and that, like all of us, is a reiner!

Coupled with his career in equestrian sport, Straus has held numerous equine-related board and committee positions including Secretary, Executive Committee and member of the United States Equestrian Team Foundation Board, Senior Vice President and Executive Committee member of USA Reining, among many others.

Straus's professional affiliations also include Fédération Equestre Internationale (FEI) designations as a Licensed Level 3 Chief Steward in Show Jumping and Reining, Licensed Technical Delegate for Reining, FEI and USEF Course Director. Likewise, for the United States Equestrian Federation (USEF), Straus is a Steward General for Reining, is a Licensed Registered Jumper Judge and Registered C1 Steward.

Straus is looking forward to his continued involvement with TIEC and utilizing his well-rounded background in all areas of the sport competition and venue structure to benefit exhibitors and attendees.

"My experience touches nearly every facet of equestrian sport - from being a competitor, stable owner to serving on committees, serving as the CEO of the Federation, to acting as an international official, managing international and national horse shows, and working on WEG - my range of experiences allow me to have a 360-degree perspective helping me to understand what others are thinking because I've been the guy on the other side of the conversation. # MRHA PINK SHOW FUNDRAISER TO BENEFIT REIN IN CANCER

The Michigan Reining Horse Association (MRHA) Pink Show fundraiser is on the horizon again. It will be held during the Michigan Slide in on June 8-10, 2019. This fun event hosts activities for everyone and it is all for the benefit of Rein In Cancer.

On each day of the show, competitors can pick up a saddle pad card on which to write the name of someone who has been affected by cancer to dedicate their ride to that person. For the first three days of the show, wearing pink in classes warrants an entry into a drawing for special prizes. Purchase a raffle ticket on Friday and Saturday for a chance to win a prize in the Bucket Raffles held Saturday before the 7-Up Derby.

The fun increases on Friday for the Pink Ride A $5 event. Riders bring a $5 bill to the gate and see how long they can ride with it. All dropped bills will be donated to Rein In Cancer, but the winner will get a prize.

Saturday hops it up a notch with the Pink Hopper Pony Relay Race held during the lunch break. Seven five-person teams will pit their speed hopping skills against each other to win the team relay race on inflatable horses. With a $50 per team entry fee, the winning team will win $125!

Sunday's lunch break goes to the dogs with the Pink Puppy Races. Pups are entered at the gate for $5. They will be divided up in to the small dogs under 30 lbs race and the big dog race for those over 30 lbs. One person will hold the dog at the starting line, and another will call from the finish line to see which big and small pup will win a basket of canine goodies at the end!

All of these exciting activities are to raise funds for Rein In Cancer, a 501c3 Non Profit Corporation that, to date, has raised over a million dollars. The organization has no employees - only volunteers - and over 98% of donated funds have gone directly to helping cancer patients. Currently Rein in Cancer makes direct payments to people in the reining industry being treated for cancer. For information, visit the Rein in Cancer website at ReinInCancer.com.

NATIONAL REINING HORSE ASSOCIATION AWARDS 2018 VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR

Each year, the National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) acknowledges one outstanding volunteer for commitment to giving back to the sport of reining. At the NRHA Awards Banquet on February 9, the 2018 honoree learned she would be acknowledged moments before accepting her award, but her dedication to NRHA has stood a far longer test of time. Ask any one of the many reiners whose lives she has impacted—Ann Salmon-Anderman couldn't be more deserving of this honor.

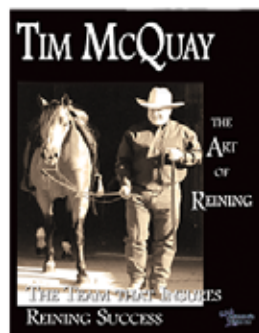

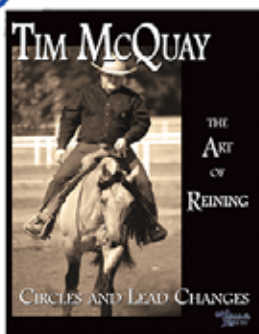

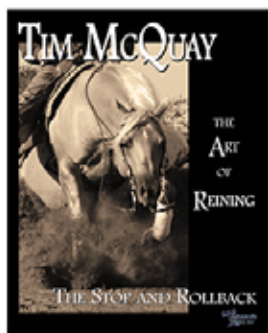

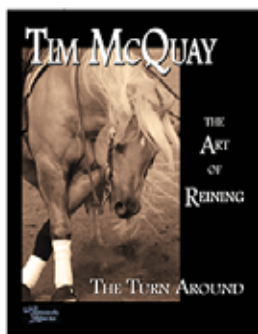

volunteer. Through extensive involvement with her local affiliate, the Southwest Reining Horse Association (SWRHA), Anderman extends her passion for the sport to others, beginners and pros alike. After serving as president of SWRHA for three years, she continues to play an instrumental role in managing the SWRHA Futurity and Show as well as the SWRHA Reining Boot Camp. Her goal of giving every exhibitor a place to compete led her to introduce entry level classes to SWRHA shows.

At just under 30 years with an NRHA membership to her name, Anderman has served the sport she loves in almost every role she could find, from NRHA board and committee member to judge and steward to competitor, and, of course,

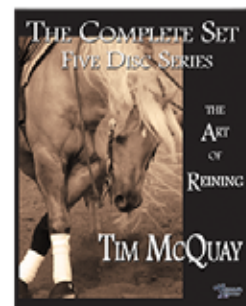

Today, her desire to improve both her affiliate and the sport of reining as a whole has driven her to pursue innovative ways to increase communication between judges and exhibitors. As an NRHA Professional, Anderman and her

REINING HORSE FOUNDATION ANNOUNCES 2019 REINING BOOT CAMPS TO BENEFIT CRISIS FUND

The Reining Horse Foundation (RHF), the philanthropic arm of the National Reining Horse Association (NRHA), announces its 2019 Reining Boot Camps. Hosted by various NRHA affiliates, these one-day clinics help rookies and Non Pro riders learn how to prepare for the show pen in a fun, low-stress environment. Proceeds from this series benefit RHF's Dale Wilkinson Memorial Crisis Fund, which aids reiners enduring medical hardships, accidents, and disasters such as fires, floods, and tornadoes.

Reining Boot Camps rely on affiliate volunteers to secure a venue, conduct the clinic, and recruit NRHA Professionals to serve as volunteer clinicians. Additionally, some events incorporate NRHA judges who contribute their time to evaluate attendees as they perform the maneuvers of a basic reining pattern. While all proceeds bolster the Crisis Fund, affiliates can also earn cash back through the NRHA Affiliate Incentive Program and receive a bonus from RHF.

"Reining Boot Camps are important entry points for reiners, and they raise funds essential to the Dale Wilkinson Memorial Crisis Fund," said Becky Jordan, RHF Board Secretary/Treasurer and chair of the Reining Boot Camp committee. "We are excited about these 2019 events."

The Yankee Reining Horse Association will kick off the 2019 season with a clinic on March 31 in Gerry, New York. Other currently scheduled events include:

- West Coast RHA Mother's Day Special, May 12, 8 a.m.-12 p.m. at the Western States Horse Expo, Murieta Equestrian Center, Rancho Murieta, California
- West Coast RHA, May 18 at Booth Ranch in Sanger, California
- Southwest RHA, May 25 at Cardinal Ranch in Aubrey, Texas

All clinics are open to both youth and adult riders. In addition to instruction time, the registration fee of $225 per adult or $125 per youth (18 and under) includes lunch. This year, a special half-day clinic will be held on May 12 in conjunction with the Western States Horse Expo. Registration for this unique event will cost $150 for adults and $75 for youth.

Additional dates and locations may be added. Similar clinics are anticipated in South America to help spread international awareness of RHF and its core mission to serve the reining community. A full schedule including details and registration information can be found at reiningfoundation.com/bootcamp. Affiliates interested in hosting a Reining Boot Camp should contact the RHF office at (405) 946-7400, ext. 106 or rhf@nrha.com.
