YELLOWSTONE ROOKIE SHOOTOUT RETURNS TO THE NRBC LINE-UP

The NRBC board of directors is excited to announce the return of Paramount Network's hit series Yellowstone as sponsor of the Rookie Shootout. The Yellowstone Rookie Shootout will continue a tradition of honoring the grassroots competitors that help to keep the show going.

The Top 5 composite scores plus ties from Wednesday and Thursday Rookie classes will advance with no additional entry fees. In order to be eligible for the Shootout, exhibitors must enter both slates of Rookie classes. The Yellowstone Shootout final round will be held in the Great Southwest Equestrian Center Coliseum Friday night prior to the start of the NRBC Open Classic Challenge.

At NRBC, everyone gets a chance to win, and many get more than one chance. On Sunday, everyone who competed in both preliminary rounds of the Shootout except for Friday night's champion may enter the Rookie Shootout Consolation round where another great prize will be given to the champion!

Yellowstone came on board as a sponsor in 2018, and after a successful season celebrating 5 million viewers per episode and ranking as Second Most Watched Series in all of Cable television, the show is back for season two and another Yellowstone Rookie Shootout. Avid reiner Taylor Sheridan is screen writer, producer, and director of the hit series that premiers each Wednesday evening at 10 pm ET/PT starring Kevin Costner on the Paramount Network.

"Yellowstone" chronicles the Dutton family, led by John Dutton, who controls the largest contiguous cattle ranch in the United States. Amid shifting alliances, unsolved murders, open wounds, and hard-earned respect – the ranch is in constant conflict with those it borders – an expanding town, an Indian reservation, and America's first national park. 2019 AMERICANA WITH €40,000-ADDED BRONZE TROPHY OPEN REINING, €12,000-ADDED EUROPEAN CHAMPIONSHIP CUTTING OPEN AND €5,000-ADDED PURSE BOTH IN TRAIL AND RANCH RIDING

Due to the unique atmosphere of Europe's premier western event as well as a considerable purse, AMERICANA has long been the meeting point of top riders in all disciplines.

Attractive purse in Bronze Trophys and Maturities

For many years, the winner of the NRHA Open World Championship was decided at the AMERICANA Bronze Trophy, and still today, this event is a must for those who are fighting for the World Championship. In 2017, NRHA

Two Million Dollar Rider Bernard Fonck claimed the Open Trophy aboard What A Wave – those who watched the two earn a 231 during thier spectacular performance, will certainly not forget it. They finished the year becoming NRHA

In 2019, the AMERICANA Bronze Trophy Open will offer a €40,000-added purse – plus a €7,000-added Intermediate Open. The final will be during the Friday evening show which is another reason why top reiners love AMERICANA. Where else in Europe, can they ride in front of

In addition to those impressive classes, there are also a $\in 10,000$ -added Non Pro and a $\in 7,000$ -added Intermediate Non Pro plus a $\in 5,000$ -added Maturity Open and a $\in 4,000$ -added Maturity Non Pro.

European Championship Cutting and ERCHA Futurity

Another main attraction of AMERICANA are the cattle classes. There is the European Championship Cutting Open with a purse of €12,000-added plus the €6,000-added Non Pro European Championship. In 2017, it was Italian lady cutter Martina Annovazzi who claimed the Open title aboard Highbrow Time scoring a 154 in the final.

Another fine discipline seldom seen at a show in Germany is the Reined Cow Horse – which has always been inseparable from AMERICANA. Here, the first ERCHA European Reined Cow Horse Futurity was organized, and ever since, has been part of AMERICANA - held every two years. This year, the Futurity offers a €17,000-added purse. Also, there will be a €9,000-added ERCHA Nations Cup (team and individual ranking).

€5,000-added each in Trail and Ranch Riding Open, for the first time with Ranch Riding Non Pro

AMERICANA also offers top class sport in Trail and Ranch Riding with a $\[\in \]$ 5,000-added European Championship Trail and a $\[\in \]$ 5,000-added European Championship Ranch Riding Open. Also there will be a $\[\in \]$ 3,000-added Ranch Riding Non Pro. The European Championship Ranch Riding will be held in a go round plus a Friday evening final which will be part of the show just like in 2017.

For riders, AMERICANA will start on September 1. The ciples in the daily handling of their horse competition schedule will be available online in mid-March. on the common path to the ease of freed In May, entry forms will be available on www.americana.de. finding of perfect harmony when riding.

Once again AMERICANA offers a great program on four evenings. The traditional highlights are the two Friday and Saturday evening shows. On Friday, September 6, the Americana invites everyone to the "Reining Festival and Cow Horse Top 5", where, among other things, the finals of the Open Bronze Trophy will be held. The top act of the evening show "Cutting Spectacular and Cow Horse Futurity" on Saturday, September 7, is the deciding final of the European Championship Cutting Open and the Cow Work of the ERCHA Reined Cow Horse Futurity. Both evening shows are joined by new shows not seen before at any AMERICANA.

In addition to these evening shows, the spectators will be offered two more exciting evening events: On Thursday evening, the ERCHA Nations Team Cup will be held, in which the best Reined Cow Horse teams in Europe compete against each other. The fans of Kenzie Dysli should remember to watch on Wednesday evening. The young horse trainer, whose horses also appeared in the 'Ostwind' films, will present her method to achieving perfect harmony between horse and rider. For her followers, trust and friendship, fine communication and fairness are important principles in the daily handling of their horses and their motive on the common path to the ease of freedom training and the finding of perfect harmony when riding.

Tickets for the AMERICANA evening shows and events are available on www.americana.de or by calling -49 (0)1806 - 999 000. The tickets for the evening shows should be ordered well in advance – they sold out in 2017. Tickets for the Friday and the Saturday evening shows include also include all day entry. Tickets for Wednesday and Thursday night are available either with or without day entry. Also available is a whole show pass which includes all evening shows including the events on Wednesday and Thursday as well as entry to the fair every day.

ADH MOR RANCH/PS MEGA SHINE CHIC RENEWS SPONSORSHIP OF NRBC KID'S ACADEMY

Canada-based Adh Mor Ranch and its star reining Stallion PS Mega Shine Chic are owned by Brad and Amanda Kelly, who know that the future of reining rests in the hands of its youth. This is why they are returning to sponsor the NRBC Kid's Academy in 2019.

Beginning Tuesday, April 16 through Saturday, April 20, children 10 year and under will be trusted into the care of veteran teacher, Bess Bouley between the hours of 1 to 4 pm. Miss Bess, as she is fondly called by the children, will keep them busy with fun and educational activities including crafts, games, and science experiments. It is a special time for the young ones attending the horse show, and the group often attracts friends who just enjoy seeing the kids enjoy themselves so much.

Thanks to the Kellys, this program,
Bouley's expertise and all of the activities are free of charge. The Kellys enjoy stopping by for kid's time and have given each child a PS Mega Shine stick horse and t-shirt in the past.

Brad and Amanda Kelly raise worldclass bucking bulls and reining horses at Adh Mor Ranch in Central Alberta, Canada. PS Mega Shine Chic (also known as "Crush") is the focus of their reining program. The stunning palomino stallion is a 2016 NRHA Futurity Level 4 Finalist and the 2017 NRBC Open reserve Champion and Level 3 Champion. For more information about Adh Mor Ranch and PS Mega Shine Chic, look them up on Facebook.

NRCHA CELEBRATION OF CHAMPIONS

The NRCHA Celebration of Champions is three shows rolled into 10 days of competition: February 14 – 23. Although the calendar says 2019, the World Championship portion of the Celebration of Champions marked the official conclusion of the 2018 show season, by determining World and National Champions in 15 different Open and Non Prodivisions. World Championship qualifiers earned an invitation to compete in Fort Worth at the Will Rogers Memorial Center, when by qualifying at NRCHA-approved shows last year. The World Championship contestants showed in a preliminary round, with the top 10 in each division advancing to the clean slate finals for a shot at the title.

Other action at the Celebration of Champions included the NRCHA Tres Osos Cow Horse Classic Derby for 4- and 5-year-old horses; special National High School Rodeo and Collegiate Invitational cow horse classes; and the crowdpleasing World's Greatest Horseman, a grueling four-event test of the ultimate cowboy and cow horse, sponsored by NRCHA Corporate Partner DT Horses and Hashtags. New this year is the World's Greatest Youth Horseman, sponsored by Texas Lighting, LLC.

COREY CUSHING GUIDES SONITA LENA REY TO THE DT HORSES AND HASHTAGS WORLD'S GREATEST HORSEMAN CHAMPIONSHIP

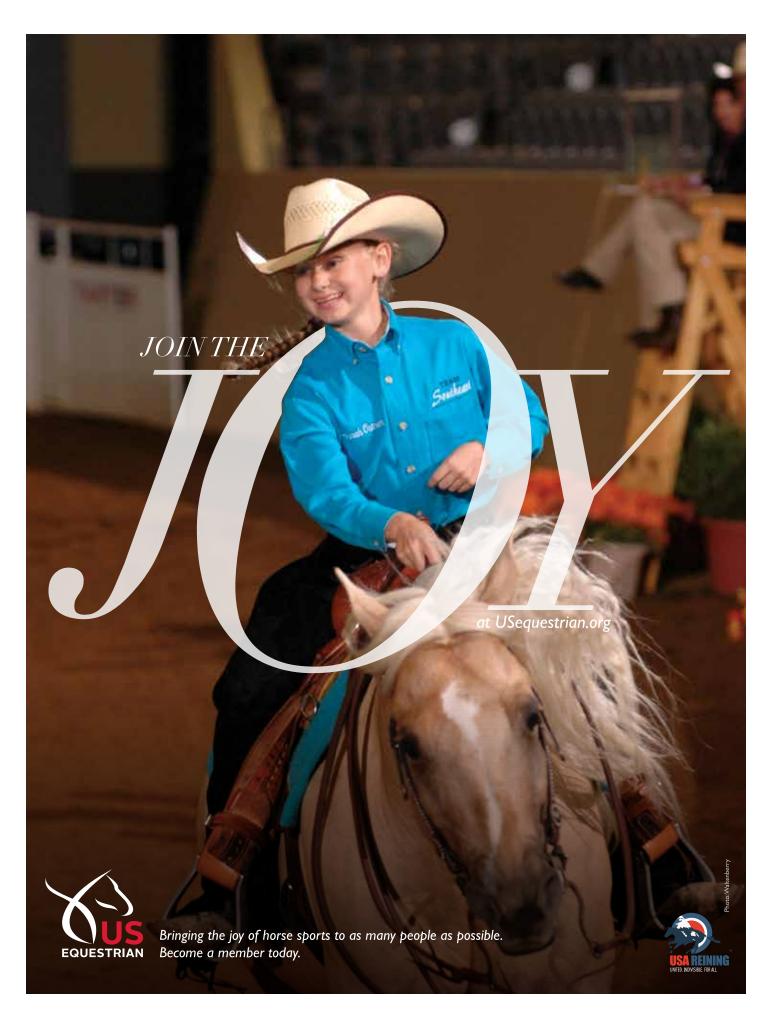

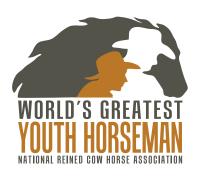

After four grueling phases of the DT Horses and Hashtags World's Greatest Horseman, it was Corey Cushing riding Sonita Lena Rey (Dual Rey x Sonita Lena Chick) who emerged victorious in front of a sold-out, standing-roomonly crowd. Cushing won a plethora of first-rate awards and a check for $40,000 thanks to Finals scores of 212 out of the herd, 217 in the reined work, 223 in the steer stopping and 225 on the cow. Cushing and Sonita Lena Rey, owned by Sheri Jamieson and bred by Jim Holmes, achieved the highest scores of the steer stopping and fence work portions of the Finals. The team fought their way up from the last qualifying hole into the finals to snag the win. This marks Cushing's second World's Greatest Horseman title.

Boyd Rice riding Royal Smart Fletch (Royal Fletch x Little Smart Ginger) took an early lead with a spectacular 222 in the cutting, which was held in Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum. Next came the reined work in the John Justin Arena where it was eventual reserve champions Rubys Radar (One Time Pepto x Ruby Bagonia) owned by C Ranches, Inc., and ridden by Zane Davis who took the round win with a 224.

Trevor Hale Wins the Inaugural Texas Lighting World's Greatest Youth Horseman on Survive These Lips

In addition to all the excitement of the DT Horses and Hashtags World's Greatest Horseman, the Texas Lighting World's Greatest Youth Horseman featured promising young riders competing on the big stage alongside their idols. A finals for the top six youth riders was held immediately following the World's Greatest Horseman Steer Stopping to determined the champion.

Trevor Hale rode Survive These Lips (CD Survivor x Lipschie) to a 723-point composite to earn the inaugural Texas Lighting World's Greatest Youth Horseman title and $2,430.

Hale had high praise for "Lippy," a 2008 mare that has been his partner for the past four years. "I got her through Brad Lund and Brad and Todd Crawford have helped me a lot with her," said Hale. "I've been preparing for a while, we started preparing ever since we learned we could enter it. I've had a lot of good help along the way. For this event I had to just work on all the parts—the steer stopping, cutting, down the fence and the reined work. I just tried to get through all the events without any mistakes. We came in here in the cow work and I was a little behind and I knew I needed to come in and lay down the best run that I could, and luckily it all worked out."

SHINING CD LIGHT CAPTURES NRCHA TRES OSOS COW HORSE DERBY OPEN CHAMPIONSHIP

Corev Cushing aboard Shining CD Light

The Tres Osos Cow Horse Derby features 4- and 5-year-old reined cow horses shown two-handed in a hackamore or a snaffle bit competing in the herd work, reined work and cow work triathlon unique to NRCHA competition. No finals takes place in any of the limited age event divisions held during the Celebration of Champions. Champions are determined at the conclusion of the cow work based upon the highest composite scores. The Tres Osos Cow Horse Derby boasts $76,000-added across all divisions.

Displaying great prowess in each round of the Tres Osos Cow Horse Derby—the herd work, reined work and cow work—Shining CD Light (CD Lights x Jennys Spark x Shining Spark) ridden by Corey Cushing for Ophir Creek Stables, LLC, emerged with the premier event title in Fort Worth, Texas. Scoring a 220.5 down the fence to combine with their 220.5 in the herd and 221 in the reined work for a 662 composite, Shining CD Light and Cushing cinched the win today at Will Rogers Memorial Center's John Justin Arena to earn $24,255 of the $254,187 total awarded across all Derby divisions to those earning the highest cumulative scores.

"Today's run, he was spot on," said Cushing of Shining CD Light's performance. "I couldn't be happier with him."

In true reined cow horse fashion, Shining CD Light answered the challenge in the fence work in order to secure the win. "The cow came out and as I was approaching it, I could tell it was going to be just a little bit softer, but I knew that it had to be a good run," said Cushing. "I wanted to set things up right and not do anything crazy or get ahead of myself. I didn't box it very long and came down the fence; he waited on me and didn't get strong.

He was reining really well and went up and made a really good first turn, then the cow came off the fence and ran toward the middle of the arena a little bit, but I went up around it knowing that I needed to get to the other side. I just made sure he was going the other way, got him over on the other side and just kind of kissed to him a little bit and he mothered right up to the cow. He knew right where he needed to be and he felt very pure the whole way through, I was really proud of him today."

Plans for Cushing with Shining CD Light following this win include the NRCHA Stallion Stakes, Derby and other major events. "We'll see how the rest of the year carries out," said Cushing. "I just got him a couple of months ago. Clayton Edsall did a fantastic job training him so we're pumped up and excited to see what's to come."

Cushing edged Opus Cat Olena (WR This Cats Smart x Opus Chic x Smart Chic Olena), ridden by Matt Koch for BoxO Quarter Horses, whose 657.5 (217.5 herd/214 rein/226 cow) took reserve honors and added $17,872 to his lifetime earnings.

Derby Intermediate Open Champion

CR Tuff Taffy (Woody Be Tuff x PeptoCandy x Peptoboonsmal) shown by Ben Baldus for Sarijane Stanton and Bill Pinckard took top honors in the Derby Intermediate Open with a 652.5 (216 herd/215.5 rein/221 cow) to earn $7,801.

The Derby Limited Open win went to Rooster Cogboon (Once In A Blu Boon x Roosters Lucy x Gallo Del Cielo) ridden by Clayton Anderson for Troop Quarter Horses to a 637 (214.5 herd/209 rein/213.5 cow), which was worth $2,979.

Derby Level 1 Limited Open Champion

Bet Me Mister (Bet Hesa Cat x Misters Miss Remedy x Mister Dual Pep), ridden by Jill Cook for Cheryl Swanson, captured the Level 1 Limited Open with 636.5 (213 herd/210 rein/213.5 cow) to bank $3,800.

Derby Novice Horse Champion

The Derby Open Novice Horse title went to Cats Wooden Heart (WR This Cats Smart x Gay Wooden Heart x Doctor Wood), ridden by Brad Lund for owner Jack Bogart, to a 653 (217 herd/212 rein/224 cow) to earn $3,006.

Katie Fox wins Tres Osos Cow Horse Classic Non Pro Derby on Metallic Heritage

Katie Fox bested a field of 30 Non Pro Limited Derby entries riding Metallic Heritage (Metallic Cat x Dual Heritage x Dual Pep), owned by Dan Fox. Fox achieved a 636.50 composite (206 herd/212.5 rein/218 cow) to earn $2,813 and was crowned the Tres Osos Cow Horse Classic Derby Non Pro Limited Champion.

Derby Intermediate Non Pro Champion

Winning the Derby Intermediate Non Pro for $2,136 and reserve in the Derby Non Pro for $3,966 was Paul Bailey riding Stylish Daisy Duke (Stylish Rey Gay x Classy SmokinLena x Tangys Classy Peppy).

Derby Novice Non Pro Champion

Carrie Volmer topped the Derby Novice Non Pro riding Sweet N Reycie (Sweet Little Pepto x Sheza Skeeto Rey x Red Rey King) with her 637.5 (209 herd/215.5 rein/213 cow) to earn $915.

Derby Amateur Champion

The Derby Amateur title was earned by Garrell Reilly riding Maebe Lucky (Metallic Cat x Scoot A Lil Closer x Smart Lil Scoot) with a 622.5 (211 herd/205.5 rein/206 cow), which was worth $1,958.

DERA CAT RIDDEN BY B.J. AVILA WINS OPEN BRIDLE WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP

Winning the Open Bridle title was Dera Cat (Smooth As A Cat x Dera Dually) ridden by B.J. Avila for Rainlynn, LLC. Dera Cat and Avila posted a 428.5 (212.5 rein/216 cow) to earn $8,904.

Avila and Dera Cat became a team three years ago and are a perfect fit. "I bought him about three years ago through Zane Davis, Harry DeHaan owned him and was showing him at the time in the two-rein," said Avila. "Zane trained him and Zane is the best trainer on the face of the planet in my opinion, I'd buy anything from him. I was trying to buy my boss a horse that he couldn't replace. I went and spent three days with Zane and rode 'Magnum', fell in love with him and took him home."

Avila says Dera Cat's speed, athleticism and cow make him a winning cow horse. "His big deal is on a cow. He's a really good fence horse, he runs hard. He's a three-event horse. He cuts really good. He's a very adrenaline-driven individual," said Avila. Avila says the Open Bridle World Championship buckle is the first he has won for Dera Cat's owner. "It's pretty special to win him a buckle that says world champion on it," said Avila, adding thanks for his support team, which includes Don Murphy who has helped him with his fence work, as well as his father Bob Avila, girlfriend Daniella and neighbor Ronnie Thompson.

Non Pro Bridle World Champion

Karen Stallings rode she and husband Kevin Stallings' home-raised and –trained Sheza Voodoo Dr (Shiners Voodoo Dr x Leapin Lindy Chex) to the Non Pro Bridle World Championship and a $5,130 payday. Stallings marked a composite score of 433.5 (216.5 rein/217 cow).

The win marks Karen's sixth NRCHA world title, the first five of which she earned riding NMSU Truckin Chex, which is the grandsire of Sheza Voodoo Dr.

"He always made me look like a superstar so it's just awesome to win it on a granddaughter," explained Stallings. "I might have been a little nervous, but she handled me really good and covered up a lot for me. I might have been a little tight in my run downs, but she went ahead and stopped. She's just honest and rides so good. I've got to thank my husband Kevin, I wouldn't be here without him."

Limited Open Bridle World Champion

Limited Open Bridle World Champion honors went to Scootin Jule Lee (Scootin Boon x Angelina Jule Lee) owned and ridden by Kaleigh King. Scootin Jule Lee and King scored a composite 440 points thanks to their 218.5 reined work and 221.5 on the cow to bank $4,150.

"It was awesome," said King. "I knew my reined work was real pretty. She was right there with me every step of the way. I knew I had a pretty good handle on that cow, I knew my first turn was awesome—during that turn I was thinking, 'I can't screw this up now!"

King, who purchased Scootin Jule Lee, now 7, from Bobby Lewis as a 3-year-old, appreciates her mare's grit and dependability. "She's always been the same horse inside the arena as she is at the house. I trained her and tried my best to make her a fence horse; she gives it her all every time."

Plans for Scootin Jule Lee include trips to bridle spectaculars at NRCHA premier events this year with either King or Wade

Meador, and a trip to next year's World's Greatest Horseman competition where King plans to show the mare.

"I want to thank Bobby Lewis and Wade Meador for helping me so much, and my parents Tim and Kelly King for supporting me," added King.

Intermediate Non Pro Bridle World Champion

In the hotly contested Intermediate Non Pro Bridle Finals it was Sareece Brown and Very Smart Playmate (Very Smart Remedy x Gunna Be Mine) who took the title. While Brown and Judy Fortenberry aboard Cold Hard Smart Cash (Big Chex To Cash x Smartin Up) tied with identical scores of 430.5, the tie-breaker was the cow work score—Brown's being a 218 (212.5 rein) and Fortenberry's a 216 (214.5 rein). Brown pocketed $3,356.25 for the win. Having made the decision to retire Very Smart Playmate, the win was emotional for Brown.

"What's amazing about this, is that this is our last world show together," said Brown of her champion equine partner. "I can't count the number of times this mare has gotten me to the Finals. I was able to win this class in 2014 and it's been a hard decision, but she's sound, she can still show but she's done so much for me and now it's time for me to let her have a rest."

Brown is Very Smart Playmate's biggest fan, adding "She's gritty, you just put her in her place and she does everything. I'll never forget the first time I rode her, you just know; you know when it's the one you're supposed to have. She's taught me so much, literally."

Brown expressed great appreciation for her husband, her trainer Shawn Hays, his wife Tammy, and Hays' assistant Robert Smith. She continued her list of thanks as she said, "First of all, my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, because without Him none of this is possible," Brown said. "My friends that are here, that's the thing about the cow horse. Winning is great and this is a really fun sport, but the best thing is the friends that you meet because we all cheer each other on and we're all family. It's pretty neat."

Novice Non Pro Bridle World Champion

Novice Non Pro Bridle World Champion honors went to Lannie-Jo Lisac and Soulanova (Soula Jule Star x Round Oak Annie) with a composite score of 443.5 thanks to a 213.5 in the reined work and 220 on the cow, which earned Lisac $3,150.

Youth Bridle World Champion

Novice Non Pro Bridle World Champions Lannie-Jo Lisac and Soulanova (Soula Jule Star x Round Oak Annie) captured their second world championship of the week: the Youth Bridle, thanks to a composite score of 432. Lisac scored a 213 in the reined work and 219 on the cow to bank $550 and a plethora of awards.

Of earning two world titles within as many days Lisac says the feeling can't be beat.

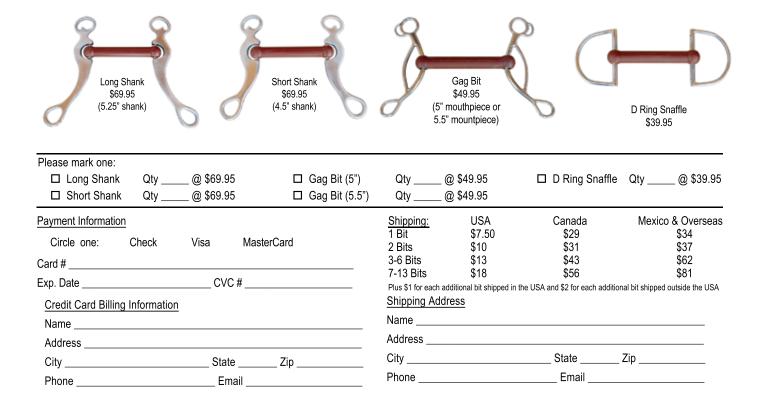

It DOES look different - and it WORKS! You'd be surprised at the people who have a whisper bit in their tack room or trailer. People like

TIM McQUAY * BOYD RICE * CHARMAYNE JAMES

Don't let the name fool you - this bit speaks volumes - and horses just keep winning in the Whisper Bit! Elite riders know that the Whisper Bit communicates clearly to the horse and allows guidance and correction without intimidation. It's forgiving of a rider's mistakes - even when nerves and adrenalin can make hands move a litle too fast.

"It's amazing, I don't even know how to explain it," she said. "He was really good, especially for having so many runs this week, he was still really good. He's made five runs this week and he just stays good. I'd like to thank my whole family, my parents Wade and Timmi-Jo Lisac, my grandparents, my brother and sister, and also Todd and and Pam Crawford for all their help."

Open Hackamore World Champion

The Open Hackamore World Championship was decided in dramatic fashion when Clayton Edsall rode Metallic Train (Metallic Cat x Sparking Train) to beat an ultra-tough field of hackamore horses with his score of 442.5 (222 rein/220.5 cow), which was worth $9,000 for owner Beverly Vaughn.

"It was a run-in, of course, and she's really good at running and stopping so I just wanted to make sure I got her started off correctly," said Edsall of the reined work portion of his winning run. "I felt like I got her stopped good that first time and turned good. I was a tick concerned with how the circles were going to go after the run-in pattern, but she handled it well, it was definitely a difficult pattern, and a good one for the finals for sure."

Edsall went wide open on the cow and the judges rewarded him accordingly. "I didn't help her any by blowing a stirrup in my first turn," he said. "I tried to get it back and our second turn wasn't great, then I finally got it back and finished up good."

Making the championship even more special for Edsall were the friends and family on hand to share it with him. Edsall thanked his wife Chelsea and was happy to have his kids on hand to celebrate the win with him, as well as Metallic Train's owner Beverly Vaughn.

"This mare's been a real special part of my year, so to win this and then drop her off at Oswood's [Stallion Station] to start breeding her is what we were hoping for, for sure," said Edsall.

Non Pro Hackamore World Champion

The title of Non Pro Hackamore World Champion went to Bobbys Playgun (Bobby Starlight x Handle It Playgun) owned and ridden by Sydney Davis. Davis' cumulative score of 428 (210 rein/218 cow) earned her $3,768.

Limited Open Hackamore World Champion

One of the 15 Celebration of Champions world championships awarded went to SJR Smart Dancer (WR This Cats Smart x Like A Sundance) owned and ridden by Rebecca Sternadel. Sternadel's cumulative score of 430.5 (216 rein/214.5 cow) earned her $3,090 and the title of Limited Open Hackamore World Champion.

Purchased by Sternadel out of the 2014 Snaffle Bit Futurity Sale with guidance from Jake Gorrell, "Butter" secured his owner's biggest career win at the Celebration of Champions.

"I don't know if it's sunk in yet, it's pretty exciting though," said Sternadel. "I love this horse, I owe him a lot."

the only digital magazine on an app entirely dedicated to the sport of reining, its horses and all its protagonists throughout the world

In the February magazine:

- The termination of the cooperation agreement between the FEI and the NRHA is a topic that has aroused much interest in recent months, leading us to urge reflection on the possible development of our sport in the immediate future. Francesca Sternberg, the FEI Athlete Representative for Reining, provided an interesting statement presenting a viewpoint from within the Federation.
- We could not miss a chat with the Non Pro Champions of the two most important 2018 Futurities in the world, that of Oklahoma and Cremona: Tish Fappani, winning her third trophy, and the surprising 17-year-old Spaniard Andreu Nogue Puig who conquered all four Non Pro levels at his debut Futurity in Italy.
- Last year's Futurity in Cremona also saw a new milestone being reached in the history of reining worldwide: the first woman Open Rider (and the first European woman) to reach the Million Dollar mark in Lifetime Earnings. This highly-talented lady, Cira Baeck, is the February cover trainer.
- We continue to follow the world's great stallions with our portrait of Pale Face Dunnit who achieved the status of Million Dollar Sire at the end of October 2018, just 4 years after his first offspring debuted in the show pen.
- Into the world of equine health professionals by discussing osteopathy with Elena Oliva, a therapist who was trained in the best Northern European. colleges and that, like all of us, is a reiner!

10-horse Finals, Sternadel wasn't sure if the chips had fallen in her favor.

"I felt like my run went pretty good, I felt like he was doing his job and pulled through for me," said Sternadel. "I've gotten a lot of help from Jake Gorrell and Don Murphy, they've helped me immensely. I got him as a long yearling and started him and have had him ever since, so I have a long history with him."

Open Two Rein World Champion

Sippin Boons Farm (Smart Boons x Peppy Nicolena) ridden by Corey Cushing for Eric and Wendy Dunn earned the Open Two Rein World Championship to the tune of $6,125 in earnings. Cushing scored 220.5 in the reined work and a massive 225 down the fence for a 445.5 to cinch the win.

Non Pro Two Rein World Champion

Morgan Holmes rode The Smart Dun (Dun It Big x Poco Smart Oak x Smart Little Lena) to the top of the field of Non Pro Two Rein finalists scoring 211 in the reined work and a thrilling 220.5 on the cow for a total on two of 431.5, which was worth $3,584.

Owned and raised by the Holmes family, "T-Bone" is not only a world champion reined cow horse, but also a high caliber rope horse that fortunately didn't require extensive preparation for the Celebration of Champions.

"This was kind of interesting because I didn't expect to show him here," said Morgan. "I'm in my senior year at Texas Tech, so I showed him three times when I was at my house [in Florida] last January, got him qualified and then kind of forgot about it, so he hasn't had a cow worked on him or practiced until we got here. He's my dad's good heel horse, he takes him to all the pro rodeos and World Series ropings. He does anything you want to do. His heart is bigger than probably any horse I've ever rode. This is his third year showing him here and I think the worst he's placed is third with me. He's so awesome, I was real proud of him today. I want to thank my dad, Jay, for letting me ride his horse because I kind of hijacked him, and my mom, Rhonda, because she always believes in me—no one just enters someone when the person hasn't even been showing the horse."

Non Pro Limited World Champion

Kristin Bacchetti rode Heart Of A Remedy (Heart Of A Fox x SPD Remedys Response) to the Non Pro Limited World title thanks to a score of 434 (212 rein/222 cow) to earn $4,445.

Though she didn't grow up showing horses, Bacchetti has been a quick study thanks to her once-in-a-lifetime horse affectionately known as "Copper."

"He was the first cow horse I ever bought," said Bacchetti. "He's just been amazing for me. This is the one title we didn't have and I was coming here whether I got it or not. It might be one of my last shows on him so it's been kind of emotional, he's been a dream come true."

Bacchetti appreciates her trainer Les Oswald and his team nervous wreck. Les, Abby, everyone in the barn, my girl-for helping her prepare for the Celebration of Champions. friend Gina is finally here for a show picture, my parents.

"I can't say enough about him getting this horse ready for me and putting up with me," laughed Bacchetti. "I've been a nervous wreck. Les, Abby, everyone in the barn, my girl-friend Gina is finally here for a show picture, my parents. For them to come here [from California] and get excited for me and cheer me on has been very exciting."

$5,000 Non Pro Limited World Champion

Douglas Allan McDaniel, Jr. and CR Tuffs Magic Tonic (Woody be Tuff x Miss Oak Tonic) enjoyed success in two arenas. Not only did they top of the Youth Limited prelims, but also earned the $5,000 Non Pro Limited World Championship and $2,910 thanks to a score of 442 (210 rein/212 cow).

"It feels great," said McDaniel of being a first-time NRCHA World Champion. "I didn't have the best cow at first so they whistled me a new one then I had a runner that took a while to get used to, but I got it done."

McDaniel started showing in reined cow horse shows two years, which is as long as he has been partnered with CR

Tuffs Magic Tonic.

"I'd like to thank my trainer Cayley Wilson and his family, Katie Wilson, Riley Wilson, and Gracie Wilson, as well as Kendal Page and my parents," said McDaniel.

$1,000 Non Pro Limited World Champion

In the $1,000 Non Pro Limited it was Colorado cowgirl Jennifer Woodmansee riding Chicody Leo (Smart Chic Olean x Miss Topsails Okie) who rode away with the world championship and $1,620. Woodmansee scored 424.5 points thanks to her score of 211 in the reined work and 213.5 on the cow. Woodmansee never relinquished her dominance of the division having also won first in the prelims with a 286 composite (142 rein/144 cow).

Youth Limited World Champion

Quincee Clark rode Vintage San (Ricochet San x Shiney Vintage Chic) to the top of the Youth Limited with scores of 211.5 in the rein and 222 on the cow for a cumulative 433.5. In addition to numerous awards, Clark banked $635 for the win.

"I've only been doing the cow horse for a year, so I can't complain," said Clark of winning her first world title.

Clark acquired Vintage San through Steve Metcalf last year and says he has been a great partner for her. She was pleased to have improved upon her performance from the preliminaries, which made the win a reality.

"My reined work was a drastic improvement over yesterday, it felt really good," said the home-schooled 16-yearold. "In my cow work I couldn't get my cow to move anywhere but it worked out and wasn't as bad as it felt."

Clark thanked Dell Hendricks, Logan Cotton, and her parents for their support.

GUNNA TICKLE YA TOPS WINTER PREMIER SALE

Gunna Tickle Ya & Garth Brown

The Winter Premier Sale is held annually in conjunction with the National Reined Cow Horse Association (NRCHA) Celebration of Champions in Fort Worth, TX. In 2019, the sale was held Saturday, February 23 before the World's Greatest Horseman finals.

The over-all high seller in 2019 was 4-year-old stallion, Gunna Tickle Ya (Gunnatrashya x Showtimes Packinagun) purchased for $33,000 by Meg McNamara. Sold by Jeffrey Palmer with NRHA Professional Garth Brown acting as agent, the chestnut colt was born, raised, and trained in Gainesville, TX with Brown. He was only shown twice as a 3-year-old, but still left a big impression on those who raised him.

Brown said, "I feel fortunate to have had [Gunna Tickle Ya]. He is a very special horse, and so is his mother. They are both really big stoppers! We'll miss him."

McNamara owns McNamara Performance Horses in Lake Elmo, MN and purchased Gunna Tickle Ya to show herself. She looks forward to bringing him home after the Winter Slide in Tulsa so her trainer, Justin Michaels, can help prepare him for the upcoming derbies as she flew into Fort Worth for the sale.

McNamara said, "I was a little nervous about buying something Justin or I had never ridden. Garth was gracious enough to let us try him, and after that I was very excited for sale day. I hoped we would be able to bring him home, but I didn't hold my breath. I've been outbid before, and left heart-broken."

About the Winter Premier Sale, Meg said, "It was the first time I've been there. It is very well run. I loved the showcase the afternoon before and even more, I loved the large area for them to be ridden while they were being auctioned off."

Garth echoed her positive sentiments when he said, "[The Winter Premier Sale] is growing and getting better every year. There is always a big crowd, and the quality of horses there increases each year. I feel that it fills a void that really needed to be filled."

Born out of a desire to provide a top quality Western performance horse sale, the Winter Premier Sale offers top quality prospects and finished performance horses to the Reining, Roping, Ranch Riding, Cutting and Cow Horse industries. Seeking to make a noticeable impact on the western performance horse industry, the sale is managed by The Sale Company - managers of the highly successful Legacy Reining Breeders Sale.
