CHICKS SMOKINGUN CHAMPIONS THE ELEMENTA MASTERS PREMIERE OPEN WITH MOREY FISK IN THE SADDLE

Morey Fisk on the 11-year-old stallion Chicks Smokingun beats the world's leading ladies, the $2 Million Dollar riders Ann Fonck and Cira Baeck, by a single point with a thunderous 226.5 that thrilled the public already emotionally charged for the big show and packing the stands to overflowing. The 45-year-old Canadian, who came to Europe for a short stay in 1994, and has been here ever since, was the first rider to conquer the title of Open Champion three years in a row. The AQHA & APHA bay stallion that partnered Morey on this memorable night is by the outstanding Colonels Smoking Gun out of Dun It By Chick and was continuing an excellent career that has seen him as a finalist in the NRHA Open Futurity, the NRBC Open, NRHA Open Derby and NRHA Non Pro Derby. Morey chooses a single word to describe this horse with which he has been competing successfully for some time: "Awesome". The run that secured the title for Fisk was in no way a given: "It was just fantastic! I could never have predicted that I would be celebrating this win today, but one of my goals this year was to compete and do well in this show; I had actually been holding the horse back a bit so he would be ready for this Open." Fisk works out of Horse Academy, Mooslargue France where he not only trains but follows a group of Non Pros: "It's a part of the job I really enjoy; one of the satisfactions of being a trainer for me is being able to help people develop and in this facility, our clients have the advantage of being able to compete regularly at home – we have about one show a month." Next up on Fisk' agenda is the IRHA/NRHA Futurity coming up at the end of this month.

Sharing reserve honors were two Belgian colleagues among Europe's most successful reiners, namely Ann Fonck on Gunners Specialolena, daughter of NRHA Three Million Dollar Sire Gunners Special Nite out of Dolly Special Lena and owned by Diego Dalla Gassa, and Cira Baeck on Maria Cecilia Fiorucci's power-packed, eye-catching stallion Phantom Face, previously ridden by Craig Schmersal who earned $113,089 competing in the US with this 6-year-old son of Pale Face Dunnit out of Gorgeous Like A Star, before coming to Italy. Fonck's mount, "Dolly", was a relative youngster in last night's lineup, considering last year, the 5-year-old mare took Laura Della Gassa to the top of Levels 4 and 3 of the 4-year-old Non Pro Italian Futurity.

Another very happy lady, after marking 225 on Winnie The Boo (Spooks Gotta Whiz x Jac Golden Faith), was Sylvia Rzepka, who came back again after Friday night's win of the AQHA Open to win the Intermediate Open on Florian Aubruner's 7-year-old mare in a great run that also placed her 4th in the Open. "I have had this horse for a couple of years and have made quite a few changes," explained Sylvia "and now he's really starting to perform well for me. He can be a little bit freaky sometimes, but when he shows, he has a heart of gold.” Winner of the Italian Derby in 2011, Rzepka has competed in the World Equestrian Games (WEG) twice and was part of the German team was awarded the bronze medal at the 2008 FEI World Championships; on this mare, Sylvia took Reserve Honors in the L3 Open NRHA European Derby this August, then went on to gain the title of Level 3 Champion and Level 4 Reserve Champion at the Austrian Maturity the following month. She has been working out of the facility of H & D Schulz Quarter Horses in Neustadt, Austria for the last two years: “It’s a great place for me to train my horses, it’s one of the busiest areas in Austria for reining and we have the Austrian Futurity and Maturity there.” Rzepka summed up her show last night as “highly emotional.” She commented: “There is always something that can go better in a run, but I went in there last night with high expectations”. Expectations that certainly were not disappointed. Of the event Sylvia added: “I have been in the sport for the last 20 years, but to compete in something like this was pretty cool.”

Reserve Champion at the Intermediate level was Klaus Lechner, who also travelled here from Austria, guided Cody Rooster Delmaso (Ricochet Rooster X Made Of Lacy) to a score of 223. The veteran stallion, 14 years of age, is owned by wife Julia-Gaupmann-Lechner. Klaus has been working professionally in reining since 2010 and now runs his own center, together with Julia, in Lower Austria.

Niklas Ludwig was crowned Limited Open Champion after closing his run on 218.5 aboard 2013 stallion Whiz N Spook (Smart Spook X Whizicle) owned by Margot Van Doone. Ludwig said of his companion: “I would describe him as a big baby: he likes to play around and can be a little tricky to handle at times, but I really like him. We have been together for the last two years.” He added, “I always knew this show was going to be special, of course, it’s partly the money but also everything around it. It is bringing a lot of new people into the sport so it can only be good!” Niklas, who has been working together with older brother Grisha at Ludwig Quarter Horses in Schwantelhof, Germany for the last seven years, says the two brothers work well together as a team. He adds that he has no idea what he would do if he were not a reiner: “I love the horses; I love the sport and I like to get up every morning to do this work.” For now, the show season is over for the 26-year-old German who started into reining with his dad. He is going to help out with Grisha over the holidays and then travel to the US to gain experience with Tom McCutcheon, Duane Latimer and Martin Larcombe. Certainly, he is looking forward to a little relaxation and then it will be time to get ready for next year!

Just half a point behind (218) to claim reserve honors at the Limited level was Lena-Marie Maas riding Georg Ferl’s 2015 Quarter Horse stallion Chic Heidi (Chic Magnetic X Heidi Sailor). The 20-year-old German trainer was Individual and Team gold-medal winner in the Youth Continental/Regional Championships in Givvins in 2015.

AN UNSTOPPABLE GINA SCHUMACHER: BACK ON THE PODIUM WITH SHINE N WHIZ

At Elementa Masters Premiere the stands were packed and all tables were taken at the elegant ringside restaurant with its candlelit tables, as the public flocked to watch the second section of the impressive Non Pro Class that followed on from the Intermediate and Limited levels disputed in the morning of Friday, November 8: an exciting presentation of the top Open riders that will take the field for the highlight of this event was held between the two sections. In addition to those fans who made it to Verona to watch the competitions live, such huge numbers have followed the event as it unfolded via streaming that the official website crashed. The server was upgraded Thursday night to ensure that everyone had the chance to enjoy the rest of the competition.

The arena lit up to host an impressive field of 107 participants fired up and ready to battle in the NRHA Non Pro, Intermediate Non Pro and Limited Non Pro, with spirits undampened by the grey skies hanging over Verona. Considering that within days of the registration opening last August, the number of entries surpassed the places available, forcing many athletes to sit this one out, there can be no doubt that the appeal of Elementa Masters sets records that go beyond the rich prize money.

In this carefully planned context, where care was even taken to entertain the crowd each time the arena was dragged, with the use of lights, music and videos to interact with the public, an irrepressible Gina Schumacher slid to a thrilling 223 to clinch the title of the $40,000 Non Pro competition on Shine N Whiz (Topsail Whiz x Spark N Pretty). “This is actually my mum’s horse,” explained Gina and laughingly added, “In fact, I think he probably prefers her to me! I have not been riding him very long, but now that mum has less time, she has given him to me to show. This is our third outing together and he tries really hard, so I enjoy riding him every time.” It was a long haul for the German 22-year-old who boasts the 2016 NRHA World Championship Non Pro and FEI Reigning World Young Riders Championship among many other titles, and needs little introduction to reining fans: she was the first and last rider to enter the arena in the second section of the Non Pro event that ran through Friday evening. Her first draw was with the 8-year-old stallion Snip O Lution who officially retired tonight, closing his career on a strong 221 and placing third: “We took the decision because this horse has been competing since he was 3; he was SWRHA Open Lev 4 Champion in 2014 and has been a Derby finalist both in the Open and Non Pro categories, so I think he deserves a rest.” Gunstep, the horse she placed top of the AQHA Non Pro competition on Thursday afternoon was last in and Gina chose to take it easy as the horse has had some difficult moments in the show pen: “My main goal was to make sure he felt comfortable.”

Just a single point shy of Gina’s score was Austrian Anna Lisec with a 222 aboard the flashy palomino This Wimps So Fly, by Wimpys Little Step x Fly Flashy Jac. The 9-year-old gelding, bred by Ruben Vandorp and owned by Sabine Lisec & Chuck Klipfel, has partnered Anna through a series of ventures since 2014. In 2015, the duo was NRHA European Derby Non Pro Champion at all four levels, in 2017 at the Level 4 and was back in the finals of the same event last year, placing 4th at Level 4.

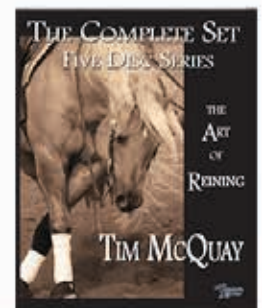

Tying for first place on a score of 218 to triumph at both the Intermediate and Limited levels were German Justin Ketterer aboard his uncle’s 7-year-old Jacs Electric Snap by

ELEMENTA MASTERS PREMIERE

VERONA 2019

Jacs Electric Spark out of Shania Snapper and Frenchman, Gregory Morat on OK Spook, 12 years, son of Smart Spook and OK Mate.

Justin, just 20 years, hails from the Black Forest where his family has a farm. "I have been reining since I was a kid and started competing more seriously when I was about 12; this is my third year showing this horse that was bred by my dad. I had a good feeling coming here and was really pleased with the way my horse went. The show was cool as well: everything looked nice, the ground was good, and the organization went smoothly." And Justin's plans now? "I'm going to the States to watch my sister compete in the Okla Futurity with a horse we have there." Maybe next year it will be Justin himself, though as he says: "You need the right horse!"

Self-described "entrepreneur, globe-trotter and motor sports enthusiast" Gregory Morat has been reining since 2012 and chose to create his own facility in order to better enjoy the sport, the beautiful Bo Ranch located close to France's "horse capital", Fontainebleau. The switch from bikes to horses was a very conscious choice for this competitor who earned the moniker of the "True Gentleman" after stopping to aid a Russian rival recover from a fall during the grueling 2017 Dakar rally: "I love competing with horses because they give so much to me, it is very different having a partnership with an animal to racing on a machine. I decided to abandon racing bikes after the Dakar to devote myself totally to horses. This particular horse, OK Spook, was really with me today and it was very exciting to be competing in the first Elementa event; he gave the maximum." Despite some nerves when passing the gate, Gregory thought he achieved about the right mix of control and adrenalin that allowed the pair to reach this result. His thanks go to Stefano Ferri, head trainer at Bo Ranch who was nearby to give support and "reveal some of reining's secrets".

'WONDERING' ABOUT THE FREESTYLE? CIRA BAECK HAS THE WINNING ANSWER

Saturday night at Fieracavalli, Verona, the pavilions were emptying as the public started for home, but in the stands surrounding the Elementa Masters Premiere show pen, as the coloured lights swept the arena in the run-up to the $ 50,000 Freestyle, no-one was budging. In fact, the area had to be closed off to limit the crowd pressing to enter the pavillion. Undoubtedly, Freestyle has a special appeal for both reining fans and the non-specialist public with its exciting and entertaining mix of technique and spectacle, music and manoeuvres. While the technical prowess may have varied between the runs, one element that all contained was an imaginative choreography and an attention to detail in the choice of music and costumes that ensured that every pair was fun to watch.

At the end of the day it was Cira Baeck, a sparkling and powerful Wonder Woman on the glittering stallion Phantom Face, 6-year-old son of Pale Face Dunit out of Gorgeous Like A Star now owned by Cecilia Fiorucci, that convinced both judges and public alike with a run awarded a whopping 231 that further underlined the fact that Freestyle is a true reining competition: while the artistic element does count, on the judges' scoring card technique remains paramount. The crowd responded with a roar as Baeck circled and spun, shield in hand, crowned with a tiara and donning the instantly recognizable red bodice and blue pants of the superhero. "The idea was conceived by my boss, Cecilia," states Cira, "and we chose Wonder Woman as this sport is undoubtedly male-dominated, so we wanted to make a powerful statement for women. It was not actually my first Freestyle, I the only digital magazine on an app entirely dedicated to the sport of reining, its horses and all its protagonists throughout the world

In the March magazine:

- Our cover trainer of March is Duane Latimer, reigning Champion of the NRBC Open, who we interviewed in the lead-up to the 2019 edition. The Canadian-born trainer talked about his system for teaching the stop and rollback, and how experience is healthy for a trainer to learn how to control his own stress as well as that of his horses and to understand when it is time to stop

- The 28th of February marked the deadline for presenting the 'non-binding expression of interest' in hosting the next edition of the World Championships in 2022 for the various equestrian disciplines: Italy stepped forward to take pole position in this great challenge, with the splendid facility of Elementa near Rome. At the very same time by coincidence, members of the McCutcheon family (Tom, Mandy and Cade) were present in Rome as guests of Maria Cecilia Fiorucci of Elementa. We chatted with them about the WEG, among other things...

- We present another four-legged star, getting to know more about the beautiful mare Dun It For Chex, owned by Cardinal Reining Horses (Aubrey, Tx) and NRHA Hall of Famer since June 2018. She looks to be the horse that will become the second Million Dollar Dam in history after Ebony Shines

- A much-appreciated guest in this issue is Doug Allen from Great Britain: a rider and judge at the highest levels, for the readers of Horsense he reveals all the secrets of the freeze-up as seen from the 'chair' as well as answering some more general questions on the work of an NRHA judge

- Finally, our journey continues among those companies proposing innovative ideas for the sports horse and reining in particular: this time we talk with Gianni Guidolin, of the international feed group that bears this surname. Gianni explains how despite its size it has retained an 'artisan's' vocation competed in one a couple of years ago in Poland, dressed as a Ketchup bottle! Both times it has been fun, but I especially enjoyed the run last night because this is the first event in which I have showed this horse at the Open earlier and later in the Freestyle, and he was really there for me.”

Gennaro Lendi placed third on the World Champion Yankee Gun (Rowdy Yankee Dam x Snow Gun) belonging to his friend Marco Mele. The 10-year-old stallion recently co-starred alongside – or rather under - Sylvester Stallone in the Hollywood star’s latest film to hit the box office Last Blood. Last night it was Gennaro Lendi, Stallone’s horse Pipped to the post was Giovanni “Dido” Masi who entered the show pen, or perhaps ‘show ring’, perfectly turned out as a classical English rider, complete with jodhpurs, English saddle and spurs before choosing to swap his original hard hat with the cowboy hat of Filippo Masi, his dad, whose turnarounds apparently offered greater appeal. Against the music of Bon Jovi’s ‘It’s my life’, Giovanni then performed a series of brilliantly executed reining maneuvers on Majestic Okie (Okie Dun It Too X Majestic Ice), the 11-year-old stallion owned by Katherine Dejori to finish on 230.5 and claim reserve honors.

master for the film, to take the part of Rambo. Lendi galloped and spun like a rocket around the arena, eliminating enemies with his machine gun and sliding to dramatic stops, his muscles – not exactly the real ones - rippling. The pair was awarded 228.5 at the conclusion of their run.

Following her Freestyle win and reserve honors in the Elementa Masters Premiere Open, Cira Baeck drew her experience here at Verona to a rewarding conclusion as team-mate to Evald Rifesser (Non Pro) and Vittoria Marzorati (Para Reining) in the team that triumphed in the Global Team Cup with a score of 644.

OUR LOSS: CONQUISTADOR WHIZ

Silver Spurs Equine lost a legend with the passing of NRHA Two Million Dollar Sire Conquistador Whiz (Topsail Whiz x Sugarita Chex).

In 2011, Conquistador Whiz became the first-ever third-generation NRHA Million Dollar Sire, following the path of his sire, Topsail Whiz, and grandsire, Topsail Cody. Just four years later, the 1995 stallion added another accolade to his credentials when his progeny pushed him past two million in offspring earnings. To date, his 398 foals have collected more than $2,451,000 in combined NRHA Lifetime Earnings (LTE). Most notably, Conquistador Whiz sired 2005 NRHA Open Futurity champion KR Lil Conquistador, a 2002 gelding out of Smart Little Prize who earned more than $422,000 LTE during his career with NRHA Six Million Dollar rider Shawn Florida and owners Jeff and Cheree Kirkbride.

Before retiring to the breeding shed, Conquistador Whiz earned just over $100,000 LTE in his own right with NRHA Professionals Duane Latimer and Tom McCutcheon in the saddle. With Latimer, he claimed victories in the 2000 National Reining Breeders Classic Level (L)4 Open Derby and the 2000 NRHA Derby L4 Open, among other titles. In 2002, he competed with McCutcheon at the FEI World Equestrian Games in Jerez, Spain, helping earn the team gold and netting the individual silver medal.

AQHA HONORS TAYLOR SHERIDAN AT LUCAS OIL WORLD

The American Quarter Horse Association presented Taylor Sheridan with the AQHA Spirit Award Saturday night at the 2019 Lucas Oil AQHA World Championship Show. Sheridan's work with "Yellowstone" and "The Last Cowboy" has put American Quarter Horses on millions of television screens around the world.

"The AQHA Spirit Award is presented to an individual who represents the western lifestyle and heritage of the American Quarter Horse to an exceptional extent," said Pete Kyle, AQHA chief show officer. "His passion for the American Quarter Horse led him to a career in acting and directing, and we appreciate the work he is doing to share our western lifestyle with others."

Among many other acting, directing and writing credentials, Sheridan is the director, writer and producer of the Paramount Network television series "Yellowstone." The drama, starring Kevin Costner, follows a family's fight to save their Montana ranch. This year, Sheridan created and produced "The Last Cowboy," a Paramount television reality series that followed professional reining trainers and their horses as they prepared for and competed at the Run for a Million. Sheridan hosted the event in September in Las Vegas, where 10 riders vied for their share of $1 million. "The Last Cowboy" and The Run for a Million will return in 2020, and "Yellowstone" recently finished filming its third season.

THE RUN FOR A MILLION SEASON 2 – 2020

The Run For A Million, the richest event in the history of Reining, returns in 2020. This incredible competition will again be held at the prestigious South Point Arena and Equestrian Center in Las Vegas, Nevada from August 19 – 22, 2020. This time fifteen riders, including some of the most accomplished National Reining Horse Association's Professionals, will compete for the $1,000,000 purse. The 2019 premier event received world-wide attention in epic proportions. Fans from all over the world attended in record numbers filling seats to cheer on every rider with roars of adulation. A large part of the event's success was due to the triumph of the first season of Paramount Network and Executive Producer Taylor Sheridan's unscripted series, The Last Cowboy. The unscripted reality series spotlighted highly-skilled horsemen and the intense, high-stakes world of professional reining. The Last Cowboy season one chronicled the lives of eight professional trainers as they prepared to compete in the richest event in the history of Reining The Run For A Million. Season one can be watched at www.paramountnetwork.com

Academy-Award nominee Taylor Sheridan, writer of Hell or High Water and Sicario, writer/director of Wind River and co-creator of Yellowstone, set out to design a venue that showcased the talent of both horse and rider in one of the most demanding equine sports in existence, Reining. In 2019 Sheridan's passionate efforts achieved exactly that when The Run For A Million introduced millions of viewers to the sport of Reining. Taylor Sheridan is no stranger to the horse industry and is an accomplished and successful competitive rider himself. He has received accolades from multiple equine industry leaders for his measurable contributions and positive influences.

In addition to the Run For A Million's main event, there will be a $100,000 Added Shoot Out, $50,000 Invitational Freestyle, $50,000 Added Non Pro Championships, and Rookie Championships. Riders can qualify for these Championships at various events across the United States and Canada from January 1 through July 31, 2020. To be invited to participate in the $50,000 Freestyle, riders must submit a video of a Reining Freestyle performance to brumleyevents@gmail.com by June 1, 2020.

For information regarding this event, sponsorship and advertising opportunities contact Amanda Brumley at brumleyevents@gmail.com for complete event information visit the website at www.TRFAM.com.

WHIZKEY N DIAMONDS REACHES MILLION DOLLAR SIRE STATUS

The National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) is proud to welcome another outstanding equine athlete to the Million Dollar Sire club: Whizkey N Diamonds. Owned by Rhodes River Ranch, Whizkey N Diamonds is by the all-time leading sire of NRHA money earners, Topsail Whiz, and out of Princess In Diamonds, one of the top three highest-producing NRHA dams to date.

Bred by Cristin Schuetz, the 2006 buckskin stallion earned more than $216,335 in personal NRHA Lifetime Earnings (LTE) during his show career with NRHA Six Million Dollar Rider Shawn Flarida. After the pair placed third in the Level (L) 4 Open at the 2009 NRHA Futurity, then-owner Clinton Anderson took the stallion out of the reining pen to star in his Downunder Horsemanship Trick Training Series. In 2011, Whizkey N Diamonds came back strong, winning the 2011 Wimpys Little Step Derby, finishing top five in the Level 4 Open Derby at the National Reining Breeders Classic, and taking home reserve L4 Open honors at the 2011 NRHA Derby, all with Flarida in the saddle.

Now, Whizkey N Diamonds stands at Oklahoma Equine Hospital in Goldsby, Oklahoma. His 312 competition-age offspring have followed in their sire's footsteps at major events including the NRHA Futurity, NRHA Derby, and the National Reining Breeders Classic. Their success allowed the stallion to achieve this elite status after just seven breeding seasons, with his first foal crop reaching competition age in 2016.

"I think it's pretty impressive," shared Sean McBurney, ranch manager for Rhodes River Ranch. "He only had 11 babies in his first foal crop. We've just tried to match him with the best mares."

In light of this accomplishment, McBurney and the Rhodes River Ranch team acknowledge not only the prowess of their stallion but also the dedication of all those who have trusted in his offspring and helped Whizkey N Diamonds reach this milestone.

"I need to thank Jean Rhodes for all her support and everyone at Oklahoma Equine for doing such a great job looking

THE NRCHA HEADQUARTERS IS MOVING

By the end of this year, the National Reined Cow Horse Association will have a new headquarters. Right now, the office is in the process of moving. They're going a lengthy one-half mile down the road. The NRCHA office will be closed the week of Thanksgiving, to move, and re-open on Monday, December 2, 2019. Please update the address in your records to 256 N. Highway 377, Pilot Point, Texas 76258. All phone numbers and email addresses will remain the same. Feel free to stop by for a visit!

NRCHA EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR RESIGNS

On Friday, November 1, 2019, Jay Winborn submitted his resignation as NRCHA Executive Director.

"I am resigning from my position as National Reined Cow Horse Association Executive Director. My last day will be November 27, 2019," stated Winborn. "It has been an absolute pleasure working with a dynamic Board of Directors and the best staff in the business. I feel that I am leaving the NRCHA in the best shape it has ever been in and with a competent staff that will continue to make the NRCHA the best in the industry. I am planning on a smooth transition. Thank you all for this great opportunity and I wish the entire NRCHA the best."

Winborn assumed the role as the association's Executive Director in June of 2012. Over the past seven years, he was at the helm of the sponsorships and several successful programs, including the free ride membership and National High School Rodeo Association partnership, as well as premier event production. He shared his expertise in marketing and brought the association up to modern-day branding standards.

"I was on the Board of Directors when Jay Winborn joined the NRCHA, and have been by his side every step of the way", stated NRCHA Vice President Paul Bailey. "He was exactly the type of leader we needed at the time. He has brought the association a long way in our marketing and branding. He also had a vision for our premier events, which came to a successful fruition."

Bailey complimented Winborn's achievements stating, "Jay was instrumental in our growth and success. He and I have worked closely together for many years on creating and maintaining financial stability for the NRCHA. The Board of Directors appreciate his hard work and dedication over the past seven years. He has become a friend and family to many of us inside the reined cow horse industry and will be greatly missed."

NRCHA President Corey Cushing applauded Winborn's commitment to the association. "It has been a pleasure to work alongside Jay Winborn. He has made a tremendous impact on the NRCHA. Jay really set the bar high in the NRCHA in countless ways. We are honored to have him serve as our Executive Director for seven years."

Cushing reminds the association that while change can be intimidating for some, the membership has no reason to worry. "The association is in the best position it's ever been in. The cow horse industry is booming and every aspect of the NRCHA is working really well. We have the most dedicated board members and best staff in the industry. We will continue to move forward with all of our plans for 2020 and are excited to continue the growth of the most thrilling sport on dirt."

The entire NRCHA Board of Directors and staff would like to thank Jay Winborn for his service over the years and wish him the best of luck in his future endeavors.
